Married at First Sight Chapter 1924-If this man were to put on a black suit and tie and look at him from behind, it would be quite a fight.

“Miss Dawson, I’m sorry, I’m late.” The delivery man was still apologizing.

“It’s okay, don’t worry, I won’t give you a bad review. There will be traffic jams on the road during rush hour, so you have to ride slowly, don’t go on a rampage. It’s okay if you’re late. By the way, your name? “

Analia’s brain turned quickly, and after seeing the delivery man’s figure and walking posture resembling Zachary, she thought of a plan. She could use this man to create misunderstandings for Zachary and Serenity.

The delivery man looked at her, faltering, and didn’t really want to tell her.

Analia didn’t force him, but gave the other party a business card of his own, and said to him: “I think the figure of yours is very similar to someone I know. If you want to cooperate with me to do something, I will give you a very high reward. Don’t worry that I’m lying to you, here’s my business card. Now you can go back and think about it. If you’d like to cooperate with me on something, please call me again, and I’ll wait for your call. I’ll give you salary. It is better than your current job.”

The man took Analia’s business card and looked at it, then put it in his trouser pocket, and said to Analia: “Miss Dawson, what do you want to do with me? Murder and arson are illegal. I don’t want to do anything, I haven’t married yet.”

Analia said with a smile: “Don’t worry, I won’t let you commit murder and arson to break the law, I just need you to cooperate with me to take some videos or photos. Think about it, and then contact me after thinking it over.”

“Oh, yes, Miss Dawson, remember to give me a five-star review.” Before the man left, he reminded Analia to give him a five-star review.

After coming out of Analia’s office, taking the elevator down to the first floor, and walking out of the Dawson Group, that person called someone, told someone, and said, “I have exposed myself to Ms. Dawson according to your request.”

“Miss Dawson gave me a business card and said that she wanted to cooperate with me on some matters. Let me think it over before contacting her.”

The person on the phone said to him, “In a few days, you can contact Ms. Dawson and tell her that you promise to cooperate with her.”

“Can’t you promise her now?”

This man who looked like Zachary was the one Kingston asked to find to lure Analia into the game. Kingston's people couldn't find someone who looked like Zachary, but only found a person whose body shape and walking posture were very similar to Zachary, and after two days of training, they arranged for him to appear as a delivery man in front of Analia.

In this way, Analia would only think it was a coincidence, and would not suspect Kingston.

Kingston: "Analia will definitely investigate your details. Give her a few days to investigate, so that she can truly cooperate with you with confidence."

The man: "Oh, fine, I'll follow your arrangement. How about the reward?"

"Wait I will forward it to you on Whatsapp in a while, and cooperate with Ms. Dawson to take pictures. I believe she will give you more rewards if you can take her down, it will be even better, and you will be able to eat and drink spicy food for the rest of your life."

The man that Kingston asked to find was a lazy man, always wanting to get something for nothing, and day dreaming all day long, fantasizing about becoming a billionaire.

Analia was Mr. Dawson's only daughter. Even if she couldn't inherit the Dawson Group in the future, Mr. Dawson would not treat her daughter badly. If anyone married Analia, he would indeed be well-fed for the rest of his life. Of course, if that delivery man wanted to become Mr. Dawson's son-in-law, that's just a dream.

Kingston did this because he wanted to break the relationship between the father and daughter beyond repair.

What he wanted was not only the Dawson Group, but also all the property under Mr. Dawson's name.

Analia's liking for Zachary would never come to fruition. She had been with that fake Zachary for a long time. If she is deceived by the other party's rhetoric, and the two of them actually do a fake show, Mr. Dawson will always be pissed off, and the relationship between father and daughter will be completely broken.

Kingston felt that this fake Zachary was really good at finding him, his face didn't look like Zachary's, only his body shape and walking posture resembled Zachary's, but he was also a nice guy, could talk sweetly, and had first-rate methods of picking up girls. Analia, who had no experience in love, it's hard to resist his attack.
