

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1944

Married at First Sight Chapter 1944-Hugh: "My brother's preferences, I know best, but why should I tell you? If I told you, I would have betrayed my brother, and I would never do anything to betray my brother."

Kevin laughed.

He didn't expect to learn Hayden's preferences from Hugh.

It might be easier to start with Donald and his wife.

Hugh looked at his hippie smiling face, looking innocent, but he was actually very protective of his brother.

"Did Mr. Queen go upstairs when he came in?" Kevin put bouquet of cash by his side, picked up the cup of warm water, took a sip, and looked up at the second floor.

Hugh: "My brother is going to a banquet later. He has a habit of taking a shower before going out, changing his clothes, eating something and bringing two bottles of wine."

Kevin said: "What do you mean by bringing two bottles of wine? Are you people used to bring two bottles of wine to banquets?"

For Hayden to take a shower before going out, Kevin thought it was normal, because he was afraid that if he got drunk at the banquet and slept without taking a shower, it would be dirty.

It could be seen that Hayden was a very particular person, maybe she still had a bit of cleanliness in life.

As long as the obsession with cleanliness was not severe, it didn't matter, like his eldest brother was also a little obsessed with cleanliness. After having a wife, it seemed that the eldest brother's obsession with cleanliness had disappeared.

It's not that his sister-in-law didn't pay attention to life, it's that after the eldest brother has a wife, he no longer paid so much attention.

This was the power of love.

Hugh said to him: "Mr. York, if you want to pursue my brother, you have to know my brother first, and be careful. In our circle, everyone knows that whenever my brother attends a banquet, he will eat at home before going out. At the banquet, my brother will drink, but he only drinks the wine he brought over. It's not because he dislikes others. The wine is not good, he is guarding against admirers like you."

Kevin: "..."

He really didn't know about Hayden's habit.

So cautious, no wonder he was able to hide it from everyone for more than 20 years.

Kevin: "Mr. Queen has always been tricked by someone?"

Hugh: "No, my brother is so careful. How could he be calculated by others?"

After Hugh finished speaking, he stared at Kevin belatedly, "Mr. York, don't you want to follow us to the banquet, take advantage of the large number of people at the banquet, plot against my brother, and cook raw rice?"

"How is it possible? I don't bother to use such indecent means. I am pursuing Mr. Queen openly. Although Mr. Queen can't accept me now, I have plenty of time and patience. One day, Mr. Queen will be willing. Hugh, I'm serious about your brother. I will never use that kind of method to cook raw rice."

Hugh looked at Kevin for a while, and said: "I believe in the family style of your York family, a good family style produces good men, I believe you're not such a villain."

Kevin: "Thank you, Second Young Master Queen, for your trust."

"Mr. York, my brother won't accept your bouquet of money flowers, so give them to me. I am very excited when I look at the money flowers. I like receiving this kind of flowers the most. If you want to send such flowers in the future, even give it to me, the more the better." As Hugh said, he wanted to get the bunch of money again.

Kevin patted his hand away again, and said: "If Mr. Queen doesn't accept it, I will take it back and keep it. When Mr. Queen wants to accept it, I will give it to her. Anyway, this kind of flower has a long shelf life."

"So stingy, you wouldn't even give me a bunch." Hugh complained: "You are pursuing my brother. If you two break the mundane and really get together, I will be your brother-in-law. Oh, this is the case when you marry my brother. I will be your brother-in-law, but I think, my brother should marry you to come in, and then I will become your brother-in-law."

"Whether it's a brother-in-law, it's only good if you please me."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

