Married at First Sight Chapter 1980-Dax also smiled and replied, "It's too early for Mr. York. Mr. York, you told me to help you this morning last night I've done everything I need to do."

As he spoke, he handed the bouquet of flowers and a few bags to Kevin.

Kevin told Hayden that he would ask Wildridge Manor to help him transport a batch of roses by air, which is true, but those roses were used to set up a sea of flowers, and the bouquets usually given to Hayden still needed to buy in Jensburg.

He knew that the flower shops in Jensburg really stopped selling rose bouquets to him.

He couldn't beat them.

He arranged for someone from the hotel to buy him a bouquet of flowers as well.

Kevin took the bouquet and several bags, and thanked Manager Dax.

Dax: "Mr. York, if you need anything in the future, just ask."

Kevin seldom came to Jensburg, and the management of the hotel could hardly hug his thigh. Finally, Manager Dax had the opportunity to serve Mr. York. He could only wish for it. His mouth was tight, and he would never say what Kevin ordered him to do.

Kevin: "Thank you. If I need help, I will ask you. Manager Dax, I don't want to bother you while you work. I'll go first."

In addition to asking Manager Dax to buy him a bouquet of flowers, Kevin also asked him to buy him a long skirt, a pair of high heels, and then two packed breakfasts.

The bouquet, skirt, and high-heeled shoes were all morning gifts he gave Hayden. They were early morning gifts, and there would be gifts at noon.

Breakfast was also prepared for Hayden.

He wanted to have breakfast with Hayden!

After Kevin got out of the hotel, he went to the parking lot of Greenrest Hotel diagonally opposite to drive his car. He drank alcohol last night, so he didn't drive anymore. The car was parked in the parking lot of Greenrest Hotel.

A few minutes later, the Maybach that Hayden wanted to smash when she saw it drove away from the parking lot of Greenrest Hotel.

Kevin was in a good mood, he hummed a little tune all the way.

When he arrived at Queen Enterprise, he was stopped by security guards who refused to allow him to drive into the company.

“Mr. York, our Mr. Queen has given orders. When you come over in the future, you cannot be allowed to enter the company without his consent. Please don’t make things difficult for us.” The Queen Enterprise’s security captain personally stopped Kevin and refused to let him enter the Queen Enterprise.

Because of Kevin, their boss Hayden had become a hot topic in Jensburg.

Kevin was not allowed to enter the company, but he was not angry. He pressed the car window and asked the security captain: “Is Mr. Queen present in his office?”

The security captain said: “Well, I don’t know, I just came to the duty room.”

Through the car window that Kevin pressed, the security captain saw the bouquet of flowers and a few bags on the passenger seat, and knew without asking that it was Kevin who prepared it for them. of.

Kevin looked at the time and said: “It’s not yet eight o’clock, and I believe Hayden is still on his way to the company, so I’ll wait here for a while, and when she arrives, I’ll follow her in, and I don’t make it difficult for you.”

“Thank you Mr. York for your understanding and consideration.” The security captain was grateful.

He was really afraid that Kevin would forcefully break in.

While speaking, Hayden’s motorcade arrived.

Since Kevin’s car was parked in the middle of the company’s entrance, it would not block the way in and out, but it was too obvious.

As soon as Hayden’s driver saw the Maybach, he said to Hayden, “Young Master, Mr. York is here again, and that car belongs to him.”

Kevin usually drove a Maybach. Ever since he publicly said that he wanted to pursue Hayden, Hayden had changed his car and chose to sit in a Rolls-Royce.

Hayden’s face darkened.

This b*stard was really lingering!

After drinking last night, she thought that Kevin wouldn't get up early today, but she didn't expect this guy to get up so early, and he was one step ahead of her to wait for her at the door of the company.

Hayden: "Ignore him, tell the security guard not to let him enter the company."

The security captain commanded the security guard on duty. After opening the company gate, he trotted to Hayden's car, and Hayden pressed the window in time.
