Married at First Sight Chapter 1995-Donald took Kevin to go fishing, and the two spent an afternoon fishing together.

In the evening, the two went home with two buckets.

There were only a dozen small fish in Donald's bucket, but there were dozens of small fish in Kevin's bucket.

"Kevin, you really know how to fish; you're all fishing with the same fishing rod and bait; why do the fish always run towards you and catch your bait? I'm here today because I enjoy fishing; this is the least amount of fishing I've ever done."

Donald praised Kevin for his fishing skills while walking.

Kevin said with a smile: "Uncle Queen, I was lucky, maybe those fish came to eat my bait because they saw that I was good-looking."

Donald laughed haha, "Yes, yes. You are young, handsome, and even the fish are fascinated by you. Kevin, what else do you have?"

"Uncle Queen, I think you should ask me what else I can't. Our brothers are all talented. There are too many skills to talk about without overwhelming us, let us learn what we want to learn, and learn what we don't want to learn. It can be said that we all know how to play piano, chess, poetry and painting. It's another matter if we are proficient."

Donald said: "Your grandma is famous for raising children, your father's generation and your generation were all raised by your grandma, and they are all so excellent."

"Uncle and Auntie, you are also very good at raising children, Hayden and Hugh are also very good, I think there is no old man in Jensburg who does not envy you." Kevin's praise made Donald laugh so hard that he couldn't close his mouth.

Donald asked Kevin: "Are you planning to grill all these small fish? Then I will ask the housekeeper to prepare more ingredients, and we will have barbecue tonight. I will call Hayden and Hugh to come back, and There are so many people with your aunt, it's lively."

Donald called Hayden while he was talking, Hayden was just about to get off work, when she received a call from her father, she asked in a low voice, "Dad, what's the matter?"

Donald: "Are you off work? Do you have a social event at night? If you have any, you will push it away, and call your brother home to eat, eat barbecue, and it will be delicious if there are more people."

Hayden replied: "Dad, I have to socialize, I can't go back to eat with you. If you think the number of people is too small, you can call my cousins and make sure the house is lively."

She had more than a dozen cousins.

Donald said: "It's too noisy, the entertainment has been postponed. Why don't you arrange someone else to go? you come back to me, I worry about going to work every day. You don't know how to accompany your parents? We are getting older. If children always don't go home, they will feel lonely."

By the way, Kevin is here, Kevin and I went fishing in the afternoon. We caught a lot of fish. Kevin said that we want to cook fish, I thought about just eating grilled fish. The fish is too monotonous, let's prepare more ingredients in the kitchen, and we'll have barbecue tonight.

Hayden, you don't know how capable Kevin is! He's so good at fishing. He caught half a bucket of fish. Come back soon, Try Kevin's grilled fish later, he said he is a good cook."

Hearing this, Hayden's face darkened, and she asked coldly, "Dad, when did he come over? He spoiled your son. You still go fishing with him, why don't you beat him out with a broom!"

No wonder Kevin didn't bother her all afternoon.

It turned out that Kevin went fishing with her dad.

Her parents had always had a good impression of him and wanted to match them up. After she saved herself, her parents calmed down a bit.

But now that Kevin was pursuing her, her parents probably covered their mouths and laughed.

"It's all said that he came to accompany Dad to go fishing in the afternoon. How did he ruin your reputation? He just likes you and pursues you boldly. Hayden, Dad is not concerned about your anger. Dad will tell you the truth, he greatly values Kevin.

Give Kevin a chance to get along well, and after a long time, you will discover Kevin's advantages, he really has advantages all over."

Hayden: "..."

"Come back quickly, remember to call Hugh, if you don't come back, Dad and Kevin will drink two more glasses, it will be bad if we get drunk and talk nonsense."

Donald hung up the phone after finishing speaking.

Hayden was so angry at her father's last words that he wanted to drop his phone.

Her father actually wanted to betray her!

Did her father want to marry her that much?
