Married at First Sight Chapter 2167-“Mrs. Stone, you don’t have to doubt my intentions. I really want to know if you and I are related by blood.”

Kathryn could understand Mrs. Stone.

Based on the rumors about her biological mother, she and Mrs. Stone should also have a hostile relationship.

And she actually asked Mrs. Stone to do a DNA blood relationship test, and Mrs. Stone would suspect that she was normal.

“If those rumors are true, how will Ms. Farrell deal with it?” Mrs. Stone asked Kathryn a question.

Kathryn was silent.

Although she did not grow up in Farrell family, and it had only been more than a year since she returned to Farrell family, she was still the biological daughter of the head of Farrell family.

It’s easy to say that righteousness destroys relatives, but how many people could really do it?

After a long time, she said: “Mrs. Stone, if you have evidence, you can do whatever you want. I can only guarantee that I will not be your enemy. Even if my mother is punished as she should, I will not blame you. “

All she could do was avoid becoming Mrs. Stone’s enemy. Mrs. Stone would not stand in the way of her mother being imprisoned. If the rumors were true, her mother deserved what she got.

Mrs. Stone: “Ms. Farrell, it would be very embarrassing for you to send your own mother in, but you can persuade your mother to surrender.”

Kathryn was silent again and said: “If the rumors can be proven to be true, I will persuade my mother to surrender herself. If she is not willing to surrender, I have the evidence in my hand, and I will give the evidence to you. You decide it.

If the rumors are true, Matriarch Farrell can be said to be cruel and merciless, with no sisterhood. Such a vicious person has a daughter like Ms. Farrell who understands righteousness. Ms. Farrell is righteous.”

Kathryn smiled wryly, and laughed at herself: "Maybe it's because I didn't grow up with her, and I don't have a deep relationship with my mother. I just want to seek the truth. I don't want things that don't belong to me. The Farrell family is also in chaos."

Kathryn still enjoyed running her own business, breaking into her own world, and sitting in the highest position in the country she had conquered.

Farrell's villa, give it to her, she just thought it's a hot potato, and it's a mess.

She grew up in a bad environment, but her three views were upright. She felt that even if her mother made a mistake, she should be punished.

Let her act as if she didn't know anything, and it never happened, and she could inherit the Farrell family and take over the huge Farrell family group with peace of mind, Kathryn couldn't do it.

Mrs. Stone: "Ms. Farrell, for your righteousness, I will also cooperate with you to conduct a DNA blood relationship test. This is something I tried to do. Ms. Farrell, you came to the door to ask for it and helped me a lot. Now I'm getting old, so I don't necessarily want to get back what originally belonged to my lineage, but as long as I'm still alive, I have to investigate the death of my parents and family members, and I can't let them die in ignorance."

Kathryn understood the meaning of Mrs. Stone's words.

What Mrs. Stone meant was that she might not necessarily take back Farrell's house, but she wanted to find out the cause of death of her parents and family members.

Kathryn thought of the messy Farrell family, the love her parents, brother and sister-in-law had for Shiloh, the resentment and eagerness of those clansmen towards them, she wanted to run away.

If she had known that the Farrell family was not as beautiful as outsiders saw it, she might as well continue to run her own company and take care of her own business.

Now that she had become the successor of the Farrell family, she was also under a lot of pressure. Because she had no relationship with her biological parents, even if her mother really cultivated her carefully, and according to the family rules to pass on the position of head of the Farrell family to her, Kathryn was still under great pressure.

She knew that once she was in power, she would start to eliminate her brother and sister-in-law, and she knew all about the tricks they were doing behind the scenes.

Her mother was also aware of it.
