Married at First Sight Chapter 2175—“Me too, no matter my children, I like it. Of course, I will be happier if I can have a daughter.”

Zachary smiled as he watched his wife finish the soup.

After finishing speaking, he felt that what he said would put pressure on Serenity to have a daughter, so he hurriedly added: “Seren, don’t feel the pressure to have a daughter. My grandma and my mother have not been able to have a daughter as they wished.”

Serenity smiled and said, “I’m not under any pressure. The elders in your family won’t be picky either. For them, it’s good that I can give birth.”

There was no doubt for a year after marriage.

Everyone was worried that she would not be able to give birth.

From expecting her to give birth to a daughter to expecting her to conceive, the elders of the York family had long lost their temper.

Now, she was able to conceive, which meant that the young couple was in good health, and the elders would be very happy, so they would not be picky about having children.

Zachary also laughed, thinking that what she said made sense.

After Serenity put down the bowl, Zachary asked her, “Do you want another bowl?”

“I can still eat the second bowl, but it’s late and I’m too full to sleep, so I won’t. Tomorrow, I’ll eat it again. I like this sauerkraut.”

Zachary said dotingly: “Tomorrow I will cook pickled cabbage noodles for you.”

Serenity: “Okay.”

He wanted to cook by himself, and Serenity didn’t stop him.

The couple left the restaurant holding hands after paying the bill.

Zachary asked her: “Do you want to go for a ride in the night wind?”

Serenity: “You don’t have a day off tomorrow?”

While opening the car door for her, Zachary said: “Tomorrow, neither of us will go to work, and I will take you to the hospital for an examination.”

Serenity smiled, "Yeah, I forgot about this. Tomorrow, I'll go to the hospital for an exam, then to my sister's store, and then back to the company to take a look. Elisa should have rushed over, and Jasmine is pregnant, so I can only go back to the company to take a look."

"Seren, you are also pregnant now." Zachary reminded her.

Serenity: "I'm just pregnant. No one can tell that I'm pregnant. I can still do something. Besides, I just go back to the company to have a look, and I don't need to do anything. Please have a professional manager."

The company invested by her, her friend and Elisa had already developed many employees.

The management team was also maturing.

After a while, they just visit the company once in a while, instead of sitting in the company every day.

Zachary said dotingly: "Okay, okay, you can do something, I'll be with you, and you can tell me to do whatever you want."

Serenity chuckled, "You are the chief executive of the York Corporation, and you make a lot of money every minute. How dare I order you to do things for me."

Zachary: "With you, I'm just your man, your husband, and your backer."

Not some big president, not some young master.

He just wanted to be her man, the one for the rest of his life.

Before he drove, Serenity leaned over and put her arms around his neck, kissed him on the lips, and said affectionately: "Zachary, I love you!"

Zachary: "I love you more!"

After the couple kissed each other, they looked at each other and smiled again.

"Hurry up and drive home. My face will turn red if someone sees me." Serenity smiled and urged him.
