

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2219

Married at First Sight Chapter 2219-“mom?”

Shiloh did not expect that the person who spoke was Matriarch Farrell.

She immediately changed her face and said aggrievedly: “Mom, I was punished by Kevin. He blew up the air in my tires. Now my car can’t drive. It’s so hot outside. I want Kathryn to come pick me up.

It’s off-duty time now. It doesn’t take long for her to come to Queen Enterprise to pick me up. It won’t affect her working overtime at night.”

Matriarch Farrell: “Why did you provoke Kevin again? You paid attention to what your mom told you, right? I told you not to bother Kevin and be polite to him. What kind of an onion are you to keep making Kevin mad?”

Matriarch Farrell was angry, and her tone of voice was not good.

He also lost the usual pampering towards Shiloh.

“It caused the York family to deal with our Farrell family, Shiloh, can you afford the consequences? Don’t blame me for removing you from the Farrell family to keep the Farrell family.”

“mom!”

Shiloh suspected that she had heard wrong.

Was this the mother who favored her?

“Mom, I just want to learn how Kevin pursued Mr. Queen. Who knew Kevin would be in Queen Enterprise!? So we met like this, and I didn’t do anything to him, but he silently deflated my tires. It was he who provoked me first. He regarded me as a love rival and targeted me.”

After finishing speaking, Matriarch Farrell hung up the phone and returned the phone to Kathryn.

“Thank you Mom.” Kathryn thanked her mother.

Matriarch Farrell felt a pain in her heart.

With her connivance, Shiloh's bullying and targeting of Kathryn was too much.

After looking at his biological daughter for a long while, Matriarch Farrell said calmly: "Tomorrow I will ask Shiloh to change her surname, back to her biological father's surname. Her surname is Dion!"

She was Steward Dion's daughter, not Matriarch Farrell's daughter!

Kathryn also said calmly, "Mom, that's a matter between you and Shiloh, I won't interfere."

Matriarch Farrell didn't say anything more.

Shiloh over there was so angry that she could only contact her sister-in-law to come pick her up.

After Erika arrived, Shiloh also contacted the tow truck to help her tow the truck.

"Shiloh." Erika parked the car, pushed down the window and waved to Shiloh.

Shiloh hurried over, got into the car and said, "I'm so hot, sister-in-law, if you don't come here again, I'll get sunstroke."

"How is this going?" Erika asked with concern.

Shiloh told the sister-in-law what happened.

At the end, she said worriedly: "Sister-in-law, I don't know what Kathryn said bad things about me to my mother, but my mother actually spoke to her and scolded me on the phone."

Erika sneered twice, and said: "You don't work in the company now, so you don't know what happened. Kathryn got lucky and settled a big deal. She went to the hotel with her mother at noon to meet the client and signed the contract. If we win the contract, it will bring huge profits to the Farrell family."