

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2243

Married at First Sight Chapter 2243—“Do you like to cook and want everyone to eat cheap and delicious meals, or is it more promising to develop into a chain restaurant?”

In terms of management, you have to be stricter and have your own management methods. Just don't let the center scatter. Once the center is scattered, it's like a pan of loose sand, and it will disperse soon.

Liberty, I believe you can succeed, don't worry, take your time, it's hard to reach the sky one step at a time, let's go step by step, and we can accumulate more experience for ourselves.”

Liberty nodded, “Mr. Lewis, what you said makes sense. I'll take my time and don't worry, lest I jump into a pit and lose my money.”

Anyway, Liberty was still young, and she would work hard for another ten or eight years, depending on the situation, to build her own star hotel.

After pushing Duncan out of the restaurant, Liberty stopped, turned around, closed the glass door and locked it, and was about to pull down the shutter.

“Ms. Hunt, let me come.”

Seeing this, the bodyguard of the Lewis family quickly stepped forward to help Liberty pull down the shutter, and let Liberty lock the door.

Liberty: “Thanks.”

“Ms. Hunt, You're too polite.”

After the bodyguard finished this, he looked at Duncan and saw Sonny sleeping in his arms. For a while, the bodyguard didn't know whether Duncan would continue to stay with Liberty or go home.

“Mr. Lewis, it's late. You're tired today. Go back and rest first. I'll take Sonny back.”

Liberty took two steps forward, bent down and picked up her sleeping son from Duncan's arms.

Sonny fell into a deep sleep, and did not wake up even after being picked up by his mother. He rested his head on his mother's shoulder.

Duncan: "Liberty, I'm worried about you and Sonny, I'll send you and Sonny back first."

He was worried.

Although ordinary people dared not touch Liberty and Sonny, they were afraid of the big families behind Liberty.

But afraid of those desperadoes.

Liberty instinctively said: "I live not too far from here. It takes only ten minutes to drive there. I pass through busy roads. There are surveillance cameras everywhere on the road, so it's very safe."

Since she opened the breakfast shop, she often went out alone in the middle of the night.

She didn't buy a car before, she always rode an electric bike, and took her son who hadn't woken up to the All You Can Eat breakfast shop. When she was preparing the ingredients, Sonny was put in the middle of the two chairs to catch up on sleep.

"It doesn't take long for me to send you off." Duncan insisted on sending her off.

Liberty didn't refuse again.

She walked to her car with her sleeping son in her arms, and put the little boy on the car seat first.

The Bodyguard said: "Ms. Hunt, this is the fourth young master's coat, cover it for Sonny."

The air conditioner was turned on in the car, and Sonny was easy to catch cold when he fell asleep.

Liberty took the coat handed over by the bodyguard and helped her son cover it.

Turning around, Duncan told the bodyguard: “You turn on the air conditioner later, and don’t adjust the temperature too low.”

The bodyguard responded respectfully.

The fourth young master’s kindness to Miss Liberty was obvious to all. Although Miss Liberty had not accepted his fourth young master’s feelings, fortunately, she was not completely indifferent, knowing that the fourth young master cared about him.

Liberty closed the car door softly, and after thinking for a while, she said to the Lewis family’s bodyguard, “Let me help Mr. Lewis get into the car for you.”

Duncan was tall and burly, and when his legs couldn’t use much strength, it was a bit difficult for him to get into the car alone.

Usually two bodyguards follow him to take care of him.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2244

Married at First Sight Chapter 2244-Another bodyguard asked for leave today, and only one person followed Duncan. Liberty was worried that the bodyguards would not be able to help Duncan.

The bodyguard did not refuse.

He and Liberty helped Duncan get into the car together. After Duncan got into the car, Liberty thoughtfully helped him fasten his seat belt, and the bodyguards carried the wheelchair into the trunk.

Duncan looked at Liberty. When Liberty helped him fasten his seat belt, the distance between the two of them was so close that he almost couldn’t control his hands. He wanted to hug her very much. In the end, he controlled her own impulse.

Now that Liberty treats him more and more like a family member, his previous efforts might have been wasted if he was impulsive.

Liberty: “Mr. Lewis, in fact, you don’t need to send me off, the road is not far away.”

Duncan stared at her deeply, "I don't feel relieved if I didn't see you and Sonny enter the house with my own eyes."

Not to mention that there were still ten minutes to drive.

After Liberty looked at him for a while, she seemed to want to say something, but while Duncan was waiting, she didn't say anything, she took two steps back silently, and then helped Duncan close the car door.

Duncan was not disappointed either, he knew he had to give Liberty time to accept him.

Grandma May told him that as long as he persisted, Liberty would accept him.

Liberty treated him differently now than before.

Ever since he confessed his love to Liberty, Liberty tried to avoid being alone with him.

Now, Liberty didn't run away anymore, and got along with him openly, and didn't care what others talked about behind his back.

This was the change of Liberty.

Grandma May stated that since Liberty had previously experienced a failed marriage, she would be more hesitant to remarry. Even if he was exceptionally talented and believed he would be a devoted man, have no fear; wait for Liberty to slowly untie the knot. Only two individuals could have a future.

Liberty's career expanded little by little. When she became famous, her self-confidence exploded. If he proposed to her, he would definitely succeed.

Liberty returned to his car.

Under the escort of Duncan, the mother and son returned to the rented building.

Liberty parked the car, got out of the car, and got out of the car with her son.

The bodyguard of the Lewis family got out of the car early and came over to help, but Liberty declined politely: "If there is an elevator, I'll just hold Sonny."

The bodyguard: “Ms. Hunt, Fourth Young Master asked me to take you upstairs.”

Liberty looked at Duncan. Duncan pressed the car window and was looking at her. She waved to Duncan to say goodbye and good night.

Duncan also smiled and waved his hand.

The night was too dark, Liberty didn’t dawdle any longer, and walked into the building with her sleeping son in her arms, and was escorted in by Lewis’s bodyguard.

Fortunately, the bodyguard of the Lewis family escorted the mother and son upstairs. As soon as they entered the elevator, they saw a drunk man talking nonsense in the elevator, which shocked Liberty.

The drunk squinted his eyes and looked at the two of them for a long time, but he still sat there talking nonsense, not daring to do anything.

Liberty pressed the number keys for several floors, not wanting the drunk to know which floor she lived on.

After reaching the floor of the first number she pressed, the elevator door opened, and she hurriedly walked out of the elevator with Sonny in her arms, and the bodyguard got out of the elevator with her.

The drunk kept staring at Liberty.

The elevator door closed, and Liberty breathed a sigh of relief, and said to the Lewis family’s bodyguard: “I have never encountered such a situation before.”

“Ms. Hunt, you can move to live in the villa given to you by Young Master York. It’s safer there. Our Fourth Young Master also has a villa there, so it’s convenient for Fourth Young Master to take you home.”

Liberty didn’t keep any of Zachary’s betrothal gift to Serenity, and planned to bring it back to her sister, which also belonged to her.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2245

Married at First Sight Chapter 2245–

Zachary and Serenity gave Liberty a villa, but Liberty politely refused. As a result, the gifted villa had not yet gone through the transfer procedures, and Liberty had not moved in.

Liberty didn't speak.

Seeing that Liberty didn't speak, the bodyguard didn't dare to say more. He sent Liberty back to her residence, watched Liberty open the door and went in, and said, "Ms. Hunt, remember to lock the door, I'm leaving first."

"Okay, thanks, you drive slowly."

Liberty told the bodyguard a few words.

She put her son on the sofa before walking out. The bodyguard had already left. She quickly locked the door, and then returned to the sofa, picked up her son and entered the room.

"Sleep so deeply, like a little pig, haven't bathed yet." Liberty lightly squeezed her son's little face, but didn't wake him up, letting him sleep.

Get up tomorrow morning and help him take a hot bath again.

"Sonny."

Liberty leaned over and kissed her son's little face, "It's hard for you, with your mother, I leave early and return late."

Sonny fell asleep, and didn't hear what her mother said, so naturally she wouldn't respond to his mother.

Liberty quickly got up to take a shower.

When she came out of the shower, she had already received many messages from Duncan on her mobile phone.

In the message, Duncan advised her to move to the Hoxmoor villas, where the security system was much higher. Duncan also had a villa there, and Josh also had one.

At first, Zachary bought a big villa there, and then he and Josh also went there to buy one after they found out. They were the Iron Triangle, and they lived in the same villa area, which was convenient for travel.

In the middle of the night, he could still go to his friend's house to drink.

Like when Zachary and Serenity got their certificates, sometimes the couple had conflicts, and it was often in the middle of the night that they called two friends out to drink with him, and when he got drunk, Jim had to send him home.

Jim also acted in a play for a while, his acting skills were so good that she could be called a best actor, and he deceived Serenity into a circle.

After reading Duncan's message, Liberty knew that it was the bodyguard who told Duncan about meeting the drunk.

She replied to Duncan: "Meeting a drunk tonight is an accident, not every night, and nothing happened, you don't have to worry."

Duncan just returned to Lewis's house.

After receiving her reply, Duncan called directly.

Liberty answered.

"Liberty, listen to my advice and move to the Hoxmoor villas, which is actually a villa area invested and developed by Young Master Bucham. On the surface, it is not as high-end as the Regent Residences where Zachary lives now, but The security system level is the highest and best.

That's why Zachary, me and Josh went there to buy a villa each, and all the villas there were sold out, and the occupancy rate reached 90%.

I know that Zachary and Serenity gave you and Sonny that villa as a gift. As long as you agree, you can go through the transfer procedures immediately. It is your sister's filial piety to you. Thank you for your many years of nurturing, If you don't accept it, Serenity will feel uncomfortable, thinking that you won't give her a chance to repay you."

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2246

Married at First Sight Chapter 2246-Serenity was only ten years old when both of the Hunt family's parents died, and it was indeed her elder sister who raised her.

She had affection for Liberty as a sister, and she also regarded her elder sister as her mother, and her elder sister was like her mother.

After Serenity became the eldest mistress of the York family, Liberty was willing to accept help from her sister and her husband except when major events happened. In terms of life, she resolutely rejected gifts from her sister.

Zachary and his wife were also very helpless for her persistence.

No matter who came to persuade Liberty, she always had that attitude.

Even Mrs. Stone persuaded Liberty.

“Mr. Lewis, I’ve lived here for such a long time. I’ve been safe. Nothing happened. I just met a drunk tonight. I won’t go home so late in the future. Today is a special occasion.

It’s fine if I can’t be my sister’s backer. How can I hold her back? The villa in Hoxmoor villas cost tens of millions. The villas bought by Zachary are often the largest ones. I guess nearly 100 million, I cannot accept such a generous gift from him.”

If it was just a house worth over a million dollars, for the sake of her son’s safety, Liberty had the audacity to accept it.

But her brother-in-law was rich and powerful. The cheapest house in his name was the house in Brynfield, and he only bought that one. The others were whole buildings, either big villas or whole buildings.

So the house that Zachary gave to Liberty was the big villa in Hoxmoor villas.

With Liberty’s personality, how could she accept such an expensive house?

Duncan said: “Liberty, don’t think that way. Zachary has too many houses, he loves Serenity deeply, and he really treats you as a sister, he is filial to you as a sister with Serenity. You deserve it, don’t feel ashamed.

Also, think about your future work will be heavier, and you will have to go home late at night. Even if you can let Serenity help you take Sonny away first, we will worry about you even more if you go home alone. You meet a drunk again, and the drunk attacks you?

Don't be afraid of 10,000, just in case. Liberty, think about what happened to Sonny back then. Safety is the most important thing. The couple in the Newman family were severely sentenced and couldn't get out in a short time, but Carrie was about to come out, who knows if she will take revenge on you again?

Zachary and Serenity are always surrounded by bodyguards, so they are very safe, and Serenity can also fight with fists, so usually nothing will happen, but you are different.

Although you and Sonny are still ordinary people, the backing behind you is not ordinary. Ordinary people will not and dare not provoke you and Sonny, but for those desperadoes and heinous people, you, the mother and son are their first aim, the best target.

If you live there all the time, you don't feel safe, and you will drag your sister down instead.

Liberty, think about it, if something happens to you and your child, who is the most anxious person? It must be Serenity. She is just pregnant now, and she got pregnant with great difficulty. If you are in a hurry, something will happen. ...In order for Serenity to raise her baby with peace of mind, I advise you to accept the gift from Zachary and his wife and move into the Hoxmoor villas to ensure your safety."

That was Su Teng's territory.

Not to mention in Wiltspoon, even in this province, no one dared to provoke Buchams casually.

Julian was not a vegetarian.

Don't look at Julian's playful and smiling face at ordinary times, He was a smiling tiger, a smiling tiger like Josh, it should be said that Josh learned from his brother.

Listening to Duncan's series of persuasion, and remembering that when her son had an accident, she was stabbed a few times, which frightened her sister and son, and thinking of her sister who was just pregnant and endured great pressure. She finally conceived a child. They were heavier than eyeballs.

How can she let her sister worry about her when she was pregnant?

“Mr. Lewis, I’ll think about it.”

Liberty didn’t say no this time.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2247

Married at First Sight Chapter 2247-Liberty: “Mr. Lewis, it’s getting late, you should go to bed earlier.”

Duncan: “Well, you go to rest quickly, I am a half-timer now, it doesn’t matter if I go to bed later or wake up later.”

The two said goodnight to each other.

Duncan was about to get out of the car.

The bodyguard moved out of the wheelchair first, and then slowly helped him out of the car.

After he sat in the wheelchair, the bodyguards pushed him to the main house.

At this point, everyone in the Lewis family had fallen asleep.

But when Duncan first entered the room, before the bodyguard turned on the light, the light in the room turned on, and it was Mrs. Lewis who turned it on.

Mrs. Lewis just came down from upstairs.

“Madam.”

The bodyguard said hello respectfully.

“Mom, it’s so late, are you still awake?”

Mrs. Lewis came over and signaled that the bodyguard could get off work, and she pushed her son inside.

“You haven’t come back. Mom is worried and can’t sleep. I listened carefully to the movement outside. I heard the sound of the courtyard door opening. I checked on the balcony and I was sure it was your car. I hurried downstairs. Why did you come back so late?”

Liberty's new restaurant opened, and Mrs. Lewis brought other daughters-in-law to join her.

In the eyes of the Lewis family, Liberty would become a member of their family sooner or later, and they would definitely join in their family's new restaurant opening.

However, after they ate, they stayed for a while and then left. Even though they had just opened their business, they still wanted to do business.

Liberty was very busy walking around.

These noble ladies couldn't help Liberty, so they had to leave so as not to disturb Liberty's business.

"When Liberty finished her work, I sent her and Sonny home again, and then I came back." Duncan answered honestly.

Mrs. Lewis hummed, "Tell Liberty, don't get off work so hard. She can get off work at nine o'clock in the evening, she is the boss, there is no need to stay in the restaurant until the door closes."

Liberty also hired a foreman to help her manage the waiters. Although she was also one of the chefs, she also hired a few other chefs. She could leave at any time, and she really didn't have to stay until midnight.

If she could keep it, she had to think about Sonny.

"Today is a bit special. Liberty left work so late. The night was too late. I sent the mother and son home because I was worried about them. Sonny has been sleeping for a long time. In my arms, he fell asleep. I gave him a big hug and slept with him. I also slept for a long time."

Mrs. Lewis pushed Duncan to the sofa, and Duncan grabbed the sofa by himself, stood up from the wheelchair, and sat on the sofa.

He still couldn't walk like a normal person, but after a period of rehabilitation, he could still sit on the sofa by himself, and he could walk two or three steps without holding on to things.

The road to recovery was long, but with Liberty by his side, he was not afraid.

“Fortunately, when I sent the mother and son back, I met a drunk man who kept staring at Liberty. I asked the bodyguard to take Liberty upstairs. Our bodyguard is all big and strong. With his serious facial expressions, he is able to frighten the drunk man.”

After hearing this, Mrs. Lewis said, “That’s a little unsafe. Let Liberty never go home late at night. You’d better send her back to the door of her house in the future. Don’t worry. A woman, so young, a beautiful woman, living alone with a three-year-old child, I don’t know how many people are staring at her.”

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2248

Married at First Sight Chapter 2248-Now that Liberty was the boss, her clothes had improved a few levels.

She was originally good-looking, but she was too fat before, which ruined her original good-looking. Later, she lost weight successfully, and her good-looking recovered. She was like a phoenix reborn from the ashes.

As a beautiful woman who lived alone with her son, Liberty attracted a great deal of attention. Many men were staring at her because she was a divorced woman, which was known by those who knew her.

Who could ensure that nobody is malicious?

“I persuaded her to accept Zachary’s gift and move into the Hoxmoor villas. I also have a house there. If she is willing to move there, I will live in it too. It will be convenient to take care of each other in the future. Usually, I will accompany her. Or let bodyguards follow.”

Mrs. Lewis: “Liberty is also stubborn.”

Thinking back when she found Liberty and wanted to persuade Liberty to leave Wiltspoon, Liberty refuted her, leaving her speechless.

She knew that Liberty was very principled.

She used practical actions to prove herself.

“She’s just that stubborn.” Duncan also sighed.

But he just fell in love with that stubborn woman.

After being silent for a while, Mrs. Lewis said: “Her personality is similar to her aunt’s. She is also that kind of person. She was able to take her younger sister away from the cannibalistic hometown when she was fifteen years old, raise her alone, and even put her younger sister on her own and taught her so well.”

Although Serenity’s excellence was due to her own efforts, it was also inseparable from her sister’s cultivation and education.

Liberty herself didn’t spend money to learn martial arts, piano, chess, calligraphy and painting, but she spent money for her younger sister to learn. The compensation for the death of the two sisters’ parents was barely enough for them to finish college. Serenity wanted to learn other things. It is estimated that Liberty earned money from part-time jobs.

Liberty attached great importance to education.

Back then, she was still a child, a minor child.

Duncan: “Serenity is very grateful to her elder sister. Liberty, the eldest sister, has also become an elder sister like a mother. Now Serenity is living a better life. She wants to honor her elder sister. That is her wish. Liberty is worried that she has accepted her brother-in-law’s love. Giving a house as a gift will cause Serenity to be criticized by others and will drag down her sister.

Whether it’s a gift from Zachary or the elders of the York family, Liberty almost doesn’t accept it, and Serenity has nothing to do with her sister.

I talked to Liberty on the phone just now, and I persuaded her for a long time, reminding her to think about Sonny and Serenity. Only when her mother and child are safe, Serenity can raise her baby with peace of mind.”

“What did she say?” Mrs. Lewis also felt that it would be better for Liberty to move, and live in the Hoxmoor villas, which had a higher level of security.

Duncan sighed, “She said to think about it, and I will mention it to Zachary tomorrow, so that Serenity can persuade her sister again. Liberty cares most about her sister and son. I hope Serenity can persuade her sister.

For the sake of Serenity and Sonny, she should move. Nothing happened tonight, but there is no guarantee in the future. Is it possible to wait for an accident to make up for it?”

Mrs. Lewis poured her son a glass of warm water, and asked him, "When will you and Liberty be together?"

Duncan: "Mom, I can't walk normally now, so I won't talk about relationships for the time being."

He accompanied Liberty and cared about her, but he didn't talk to her about his love.

Now he, sitting in a wheelchair, would drag her down.

"I think Liberty treats you differently. You work hard to recover. Mom thinks that on the day you recover, if you propose to Liberty, she will definitely accept your proposal. I'm waiting for Sonny to call me grandma."

Sonny was not her son's own son, but Mrs. Lewis was happy to treat Sonny as her own grandson.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2249

Married at First Sight Chapter 2249-When mentioning Sonny, Duncan also had a gentle face, and said to his mother: "Sonny is the one who fell asleep in my arms tonight. When he fell asleep peacefully in my arms, I looked at him, and my heart was tender. It became a pool of spring water. This kid looks cuter and cuter, and I like him more and more.

I don't dare to expect him to call me Dad. Hearing him call me Uncle Lewis crisply makes me feel elated."

Hank was still alive.

Sonny didn't have a deep relationship with Hank, but he also knew that Hank was his father.

In the past, when Duncan coaxed Sonny, he wanted to be Sonny's stepdad. Sonny also said that he had a father and didn't need to look for another Dad.

Sonny's words made Duncan understand that Sonny would not change his name to call him Dad.

Therefore, he didn't force it. He was able to marry Liberty and raise Sonny together with Liberty. He was also satisfied when he heard Sonny call him Uncle Lewis.

After all, he robbed Sonny's mother.

"Sonny is very cute. Everyone loves him. There is no one who has met him who doesn't like him."

Mrs. Lewis looked at her son and said, "After you and Liberty have achieved a positive result, if Sonny wants to call you dad, he can call him. If he doesn't want to call you, we can't force him. No matter how his dad is still there, he will pay for it. His child support cannot erase the existence of his own dad. If you and Liberty can still have a child, I can die in peace."

Of her four sons, the first three sons were all married and have become fathers, but this youngest son worried her a lot.

In the past, she looked down on Liberty and disagreed with her son being with Liberty.

Now, she was willing to accept Liberty, but her son was in a wheelchair again. The two young people had not yet achieved a positive result, and they didn't know when they would be together.

They were both over 30 years old. They were considered elderly women when they were truly together if they allowed Liberty to conceive and give birth to a child. Based on her son's strong feelings for Liberty, she was afraid that Duncan would not allow her to conceive and give birth.

Thinking that the youngest son might not have a biological child, Mrs. Lewis's heart still hurts.

After Duncan pursed his lips, he said to his mother: "Mom, let's talk about the future. Now Liberty and I are friends. Let's talk about work, talk about our hearts, and not talk about love for now."

Liberty accompanied him, and he also accompanied Liberty.

No one knows what will happen in the future.

Mrs. Lewis sighed, “As a mother, how can I not think about children and grandchildren? That’s what Mom said, you are young people, you decide for yourself, and Mom won’t interfere. It’s late, Mom pushed you Go upstairs and rest early.”

Duncan: “Trouble mom.”

“Why are you so polite between mother and son?” Mrs. Lewis got up, adjusted the wheelchair, and let her son get up and sit in the wheelchair.

After Duncan sat in the wheelchair, Mrs. Lewis pushed Duncan and walked towards the elevator.

After Duncan’s accident, knowing that Duncan would be in a wheelchair for a long time, the Lewis family immediately installed an elevator at home to make it easier for Duncan to go up and down.

Mrs. Lewis pushed Duncan into the elevator, and the elevator quickly brought the mother and son to the second floor.

Duncan: “Mom, you go to rest too. I can go back to my room by myself. Good night.”

Mrs. Lewis hummed, and gave some instructions. After Duncan slid the wheelchair by himself, Mrs. Lewis returned to her room.

She opened the door to find the lights in the room were on.

Mr. Lewis didn’t know when Mrs. Lewis woke up, and he was sitting by the head of the bed, flipping through a magazine in his hand, but Mrs. Lewis knew that he couldn’t read it, and she wouldn’t really be reading the magazine, because the husband didn’t wear reading glasses.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2250

Married at First Sight Chapter 2250-Mr. Lewis: “Duncan is back.”

“Well, he’s back, now he’s going back to his room to rest.” Mrs. Lewis came over, asked: “Why are you up?”

Mr. Lewis closed the magazine, “You are worried about Duncan, and I am also worried about him. Duncan hasn’t come back yet, and I can’t sleep well. I have to hear the familiar sound of a car. I can only sleep if I am sure he is back. “

Mrs. Lewis: “Oh, isn’t it? If he doesn’t come back, we won’t be able to sleep.”

Mr. Lewis: “Did he say why he came back so late? What are you mother and son talking about again?”

Mrs. Lewis sat back on the bed, lifted the thin quilt and said, “He’s waiting for Liberty. Liberty got off work, and he sent her home before returning. Liberty is very busy today, so she won’t be so late in the future. My son is in good condition; don’t worry; it’s late; go to sleep.”

“The mother and son didn’t talk about anything, just chatted about his and Liberty’s future.”

Mr. Lewis turned off the light after his wife lay down, and said, “What are we talking about now? Duncan hasn’t recovered yet, and he won’t be with Liberty. He’s afraid it will drag Liberty down. Let the two of them be free. Let’s develop, we’ll just watch.”

Mrs. Lewis: “Well, I didn’t say anything, I hope we can see Duncan get married and have children in our lifetime.”

“Will do.” Mr. Lewis comforted his wife.

Mr. Lewis also had the same hope in his heart, he hoped that his youngest son and Liberty could achieve fruition soon, get married and have children.

...

While the students were already falling asleep, Kiera sneaked outside to eat supper.

During the day, she took that group of Hua Gulong to participate in the competition, and she didn’t even have time to wander around Wiltspoon.

If she wanted to go out to eat supper alone, she could only wait for a group of Hua Gulong to fall asleep to have a chance.

Kiera, who was full of food and drink, did not take the car back to the hotel. Fortunately, the place where she went for supper was not too far from the hotel. If she walked, she could get back in half an hour.

She simply walked back to the hotel.

The night was getting dark, and Wiltspoon, which was full of traffic during the day, became much quieter.

On the street, occasionally a car would drive by at a very fast speed, as if there was a scourge chasing them behind.

Those were people who work until late at night, and when they were done with work, they were anxious to go home and rest.

Although it was late at night, Kiera still felt that the metropolis of Wiltspoon was very beautiful. She admired the street scenes on both sides of the road while walking, and occasionally stopped to take pictures with her mobile phone when she saw something beautiful.

Another car roared past her, but it was forced to stop soon.

Kiera looked over from a distance.

It was several motorcycles that forced the car to stop.

Motorcycles are banned in Wiltspoon, and motorcycles appearing on the streets late at night may have malicious intentions.

Kiera was a warm-hearted and bold girl. Relying on her fist skills, she quickened her pace and walked towards the car that was forced to stop.

After the motorcycles stopped the car, they forced the occupants to get out of the vehicle. The man sitting on the back seat of the motorcycle held a long iron rod in his hand, threatening the occupants not to get out of the vehicle.

The people in the car were afraid that they would smash the car, and they were afraid of getting out of the car.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2251

Married at First Sight Chapter 2251-“Robbery, hand over all the valuables on you, in the car, and move quickly!”

Kiera still couldn't see clearly what the people who got out of the car looked like. With excellent hearing, she vaguely heard what the gangsters said.

She ran over immediately.

When the man tremblingly took out his wallet and handed it to a man, Kiera rushed over with lightning speed, kicked the wallet with her kick.

The wallet flew out of the man's hand.

Kiera moved very quickly, turned around, and rushed to catch the dropped wallet.

Then, she raised her hand, and the wallet flew in through the open car door, bounced on the front glass of the car, and then fell on the passenger seat.

This change shocked everyone.

Kiera's movements were too fast.

All actions were done in one go.

When they came back to their senses, Kiera had already kicked over two motorcycles. Before the people on the motorcycle got up, she picked up a stick that had fallen and beat them up. Howling on the ground.

The people on the four or five motorcycles that hadn't been kicked down all jumped out of the car, brandishing the iron rods in their hands and besieging Kiera, shouting: "Where did you come from, how dare you meddle in your own business?"

Kiera, who came from a family of martial arts, had been practicing martial arts since she was a child. Her boxing skills were many times stronger than that of Serenity. When Serenity faced a dozen gangsters, she could easily turn defeat into victory.

Not to mention Kiera.

She didn't say a word, just waved the iron rod. Her moves were full of vigor, and the stick never missed.

Only screams could be heard, and when Kiera stopped, the men besieging her had already fallen to the ground, writhing in pain.

The few people who were still riding on motorcycles saw that it was not good, so they hurriedly ran away on motorcycles.

The iron rod in Kiera's hand was raised again, and the iron rod flew away from her hand, hitting the wheel of a motorcycle, and the motorcycle fell to the ground, and the people on board also fell very badly, also implicated the car behind, and overturned two motorcycles one after another.

In the end, only two motorcycles got away.

After Kiera stopped, she clapped her hands, took out her cell phone, and called the police.

After calling the police, she looked at the man who was petrified.

Not petrified, but stunned.

The person who was robbed by the motorcycle gang was Julian, the young master of the Bucham family.

Tonight's play was orchestrated by him.

These motorcycle gangs were not real gangsters, they were all from Julian.

After Julian picked up the bunch of keys at the airport, he saw the photo on the keychain, and his heart was moved.

He knew that the girl with a bright smile in the photo was his destined girl.

So, he made full use of the strengths of their Bucham family, and quickly found out the identity of his destined girl, who was Kiera Caron from Yonsburg.

Knowing that Caron family was a family of martial arts, Kiera had learned martial arts from the elders in the family since she was a child, and had a solid foundation. She had been participating in martial arts competitions since she was a few years old, and had won numerous awards.

After graduating from university, she directly returned to her family's martial arts gym as a coach, but the students she led were all children.

Both her father and brother said that she was too young, even though she had participated in countless martial arts competitions, she lacked teaching experience, and she needed to accumulate teaching experience from taking care of children.

Kiera didn't care, she was a girl who liked children very much.

Although sometimes she was dizzy from being quarreled by a group of Hua Gulong, but in her spare time, she was coaxed by the students to be elated. She loved and hated her students.

Julian had already searched Kiera's information to the bottom, even the eighteen generations of the Caron family's ancestors were checked by him.

He knew that Kiera had learn Martial arts, but he didn't expect Kiera to be so powerful that he could overthrow so many of his people by herself.

OK!

strong enough!

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2252

Married at First Sight Chapter 2252-Julian liked such a girl.

When he was sure that Kiera was his destined daughter, he was actually quite scared.

The Daughter Who Fears Fate was a limp and delicate woman.

Unexpectedly, an investigation gave him a pleasant surprise.

When he saw the real Kiera, Kiera surprised him even more.

Kiera's skill, he's afraid he could be tied with him.

As the young master of the Bucham family, his wife needed to be as powerful as Kiera, who could control the people below her in the future.

"Sir, are you all right?"

While Julian was staring blankly at Kiera, Kiera was also looking at Julian.

The first impression Julian gave Kiera was that he was really handsome.

Kiera had never seen such a handsome man.

Before coming to Wiltspoon, she had heard that there were several famous handsome men in Wiltspoon, one of whom was Zachary, the eldest son of the York family.

It's hard to see Zachary, and Kiera and her party deliberately stayed at the Wiltspoon Hotel. She thought that the Wiltspoon Hotel would be safer, and also wanted to see if she was so lucky to meet Zachary and Serenity by chance.

Appreciate the handsome men and beauties.

It's a pity that she was not so lucky, and she never met Zachary and Serenity by chance.

Even Josh, Zachary's right-hand assistant, couldn't meet her.

She didn't expect to meet a handsome man on the street late at night.

Others said that the young talents in Wiltspoon were all handsome guys, it seemed that the rumors were true.

Kiera glanced at Julian's car.

Luxury cars, new cars cost millions to buy.

To be able to drive such an expensive car, this man was either a rich second generation, or a very, very powerful business elite. No wonder he was stopped and robbed by motorcycle gangs.

In the middle of the night, there was no one on the street, so he was targeted by gangsters?

"Sir, are you all right?"

Seeing that Julian didn't speak, Kiera asked again, and she stretched out her hand to shake in front of Julian, thinking that Julian was frightened.

"Don't worry, the police will arrive soon. These people block the road and rob. If they don't get sentenced for several years, they won't be able to get out."

Julian came back to his senses, and his eyes were shining when he saw Kiera. He was afraid of scaring Kiera, so he tried his best to suppress his passion.

Julian: "You are amazing!"

Kiera said with a smile: "I'm not that powerful, it's just that they carelessly underestimated the enemy. I made a sudden attack. They are unprepared and unexpected. It is the easiest to suppress the opponent's momentum."

"Thank you for helping me, otherwise I would be robbed completely by them." Julian thanked Kiera repeatedly.

Kiera said: "It's a trivial matter, if the road is uneven, anyone will draw their swords to help."

"It's not like anyone will draw their swords to help when they see them. There are so many of these people, who dares to meddle in their own business? I always thought, give them whatever they want, as long as it doesn't cause me personal harm. Saving the life is the most important thing."

Kiera nodded, "Mr. You're right to think this way. When the enemy is far from us, losing some money can save the life. As long as you are alive, you can earn back the lost money."

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2253

Married at First Sight Chapter 2253-"Miss, what's your name?" Julian asked.

Kiera generously took out a business card, handed her business card to Julian, and said, "My name is Kiera Caron, I am a martial arts instructor, but the students are all children."

Julian took Kiera's business card, read it carefully, and put it away properly.

He gave Kiera another piece of his business card, but his business card did not state the identity of his Bucham family. He only used a company under his name as the background, and his identity was naturally the president of a certain company.

Kiera took his business card with both hands, and after reading it, she said with a smile: "Mr. Bucham You're a president!? I watched on TV that the president came and went with a group of bodyguards. Mr. Bucham, why don't you bring a few bodyguards?"

Julian smiled and said: "I originally hired bodyguards, and they have been with me for several years. Some of them are parents who are old and need them to go home to take care of them, and some are forced to marry by their parents, and finally get married, resigned and went home to get married.

I haven't hired a suitable bodyguard yet."

Kiera snorted and didn't ask any more questions.

This was the first time she had seen a big president in real life. He could drive a luxury car worth several million dollars. Mr. Bucham should be the big president.

This was Kiera's own opinion.

Because she was curious, she asked a few words out of mouth.

The two were not familiar with each other, so she couldn't break the casserole and ask the end.

However, from Julian, she got a result: the president of Wiltspoon is really young, handsome and rich.

When the police came, all the actors and actresses who were knocked down by Kiera were taken away.

Kiera also accompanied Julian to the police station to record a statement.

By the time the two came out of the police station, it was already 2:00 am.

Julian said to Kiera: "Miss Caron, where do you live, I'll take you back."

Kiera thought that in the middle of the night, it would be difficult to take a car, and if he walked back, the road would be too far to be suitable, so she had no intention of rejecting Julian.

She replied: "I brought my students here for the competition, and I'm temporarily staying at the Wiltspoon Hotel."

She paid for the accommodation out of her own pocket.

The owner of the museum was her father, and he would not let them live in a five-star hotel.

For the sake of safety, although the students were all children of a few years old, they were all the ancestors of each family, so there should be no accidents.

Of course, she had also heard that the Wiltspoon Hotel was a place that Zachary and his wife often went to. In order to feast their eyes, she paid for it and took a group of Hua Gulong to live in the Wiltspoon Hotel.

As the owner's daughter, and as a coach for two years, Kiera could still afford to live in the Wiltspoon Hotel with the money she usually earned from part-time jobs.

"How about Wiltspoon Hotel, it's a hotel under the York Corporation, and it's one of the best hotels in Wiltspoon, and the service is also excellent." Julian opened the door like a gentleman and let Kiera get in the car.

When Kiera got into the car, she walked around the car and returned to the driver's seat.

After he activated the lure and drove Kiera away, someone entered the police station and redeemed those gangsters. They were all sent to the hospital for examination and treatment.

It's really their future young master's wife who was very skilled. After being beaten up by Kiera, all of them were injured due to work.

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2254

Married at First Sight Chapter 2254-Kiera didn't know about this, and she didn't even know that she had jumped into the deep pit that Julian had carefully planned for her.

On the way back to the hotel, Kiera, who was straightforward and eloquent, chatted with Julian very happily, as if the two were not just meeting each other, but old friends who had known each other for more than ten years.

Julian liked this destined girl more and more.

As expected of him, Julian's destined girl, she was not only skilled, straightforward, but also eloquent, such a girl was the most suitable for him.

“Mr. Bucham, you are the President, do you have a chance to cooperate with Young Master York? I have heard the love story between Young Master York and his wife as far away as Yonsburg.”

Yonsburg could only be regarded as a third-tier city, and couldn't be compared with Wiltspoon.

Moreover, Yonsburg was also far away from Wiltspoon, not in the same province.

Julian was not at all surprised that Kiera would ask about Zachary and Serenity.

Based on his investigation of Kiera, apart from teaching students how to practice martial arts and keep fit, Kiera also had a hobby of reading various novels, which was just like his sister-in-law Jasmine.

Jasmine ran a bookstore by herself, so she read all the books in the bookstore. After finishing reading, she bought new ones. Anyway, she guaranteed that she had books to read every day.

Kiera was young, only 24 years old, and she liked to read novels. The love story between Zachary and Serenity is even more exciting than novels. When she first found out about Zachary's flash marriage, media reporters reported it extensively. Now that the Internet was developed, it was far away in Yonsburg. It's normal for Kiera to know, and it's normal to be interested.

Julian smiled and said: “You are asking the right person. I have cooperated with Young Master York countless times. In private, Young Master York and I are also friends, and we have dinner together occasionally.

The story of Young Master York and his wife, you read it on the Internet, right? It's not much different from real life, and the media reports are not exaggerated. By the way, Young Mistress York is also a person who knows how to fight. I think you girls are good at boxing and kicking.”

If Julian had a daughter in the future, he must teach her martial arts from an early age, so that she could not only strengthen her body, but also protect herself.

Kiera praised and said: “Mr. Bucham, you have cooperated with Young master York several times, which shows that your company is powerful.”

Julian said modestly: "It's average. Here in Wiltspoon, my company really doesn't rank well."

Julian's company was, well, low-key.

It was true that it couldn't be compared with several major groups, but his company had strong financial resources.

And he owned more than one company.

In terms of personal wealth, Julian was not inferior to Zachary.

Julian: "Miss Caron, you seem to like Wiltspoon very much."

"Wiltspoon is very good, I like it very much." Kiera spoke the truth.

However, she preferred her hometown, Yonsburg.

Kiera didn't say this.

Julian: "Miss Caron, Have you ever considered coming to Wiltspoon to work?"

Kiera: "No, I have never been to Wiltspoon before, except for bringing the children to the competition. The distance is so far, and it is not convenient to go back and forth. Besides, I have no special skills except for fighting. I came to a big city like Wiltspoon. I'm afraid I won't find a good job.

At most, it's just to find a job as a security guard or bodyguard. Why don't you stay in our Yonsburg and continue to be a martial arts coach. Many people in Yonsburg know how to do every move, and the martial arts business is very good."

Julian smiled and said: "Miss Caron, you saved me tonight. You're my benefactor. I don't even know how to repay you. Miss Caron, If you want to work in Wiltspoon in the future, just tell me and I will arrange it for you.

Miss Caron, you're so skilled. If you want to be a bodyguard, you will definitely be very popular. Most of the big bosses want to ask you to be a bodyguard."

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2255

Married at First Sight Chapter 2255-Julian continued: "To tell you the truth, Miss Caron, I want to ask you to be my bodyguard. Now I am in short supply of bodyguards. With your skill, you can protect my safety."

Kiera said with a smile: "It's nothing to worry about, Mr. Bucham, you don't have to worry about it."

Don't say that benefactors are not benefactors.

She had helped countless people, and Julian was the most polite one.

As expected of a big president, this self-cultivation was not bad.

It could be seen that Julian was also a person who knew how to be grateful. God would not treat this kind of person lightly.

He believed his business would get better and better.

"Mr. Bucham, if I'm tired of my current job that day, I'll ask you to arrange a job for me as a bodyguard. The job of security is also fine. I will not dislike the job. As long as I work hard to make money by myself, I will make money in an upright manner. I can accept it."

Kiera thought that she didn't have any special skills besides martial arts, so she didn't mind what kind of work she did as long as she had a job.

Julian said: "I have reserved a place for you Miss Caron. One day, you want to come to work, just contact me and be my bodyguard, salary and benefits, whatever you can mention."

Kiera: "Okay, when I want to change jobs, I must contact you, and I won't be polite to you, Mr. Bucham."

The two chatted all the way.

After arriving at Wiltspoon Hotel, Julian thought the journey was too short.

If he had known earlier, he would have taken a detour, prolonging the journey, and chatting with Kiera for a while.

But when they met for the first time, Kiera even "saved" him. It would be too dishonest for him to do so, and it would destroy Kiera's good impression of him.

The car stopped at the entrance of Wiltspoon Hotel. Julian turned his head to look at Kiera. Kiera was a bright and charming girl. Her beauty and heroism made Julian like her more and more.

Her profile was very beautiful, and Julian could look at her photos with fascination, and even secretly kissed the photos, let alone face her real person.

“Mr. Bucham, thank you for taking me back.”

Kiera unbuckled her seat belt, opened the door and got out of the car while thanking Julian.

“You’re welcome, Miss Caron, you saved me. I should send you back. Miss Caron, are you free tomorrow? I invite you to dinner. you can’t refuse. You are my savior. Don’t let me treat you to dinner. If I want to repay your kindness, I can only repay it in other ways.”

Kiera: “Mr. Bucham, If you don’t mind having dinner with a group of children, I’ll be free.”

Julian: “I don’t mind. Then I will come over tomorrow at noon to treat you to dinner.”

Julian thought that he was still a little patient with children. He had seen Sonny several times, and he liked Sonny so well-behaved and cute.

He thought the children were as cute and sensible as Sonny.

Therefore, he didn’t mind inviting a group of children to dinner.

Besides, his plan was to become Kiera’s husband. Kiera acted as a coach for the students, which was equivalent to being a martial arts teacher.

Kiera: “Okay. Mr. Bucham, since you want to repay my life-saving grace, I will accept it with the cheek. Tomorrow noon, my students and I will wait for you to treat us to dinner.”

Julian: “No problem. How many students did you bring to the competition? I will prepare a gift for them.”

Kiera: "No, Mr. Bucham, you don't need to be so polite. I brought a total of twelve children here, six boys and six girls, and they are all the best students under my command."

Kiera said that Julian was too polite and didn't need him to prepare gifts for the children, but told Julian that there were twelve children in total. She felt that it was the children's business that Julian wanted to give gifts to the children. This teacher couldn't refuse for the children.

Just a few polite words.

Julian remembered.

Kiera: "Mr. Bucham, go home quickly, I'm going to rest too."

Julian: "Good night, Miss Caron, see you tomorrow."

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2256

Married at First Sight Chapter 2256-Julian got out of the car, waved goodbye to Kiera, and watched her enter the Wiltspoon Hotel. He didn't return to the car until he could no longer see her.

He first took out his mobile phone and called his right-hand assistant.

After the other party answered the phone, he asked, "How are your injuries?"

"Young master, our future young master's wife is too ruthless. Everyone has suffered injuries to varying degrees, and they all have to be hospitalized."

Hearing his own people call Kiera the future young master's wife, Julian had a smile in his eyes. Young master's wife, he liked that this title fell on Kiera.

His destined girl.

He liked her more and more and was more and more satisfied.

God still treated him favorably, and arranged for him such a straightforward girl to save him and give him a chance to become a real man.

It's just that he was 10 years older than Kiera. He wondered if Kiera would dislike him for being too old?

Julian never felt old.

At his age, the man was still the age of a flower, besides, he was well maintained and looked like he was in his twenties. Judging from his appearance, it was impossible to tell that he was 34 years old.

But for Kiera, Julian felt old.

Kiera was born when he was ten years old.

Thinking of Kiera's character, Julian felt that as long as he could make Kiera fall in love with him, Kiera would not dislike him for being old.

"Then let's all be hospitalized. Medical expenses and nutrition expenses will be calculated for them. Also, their bonuses have been tripled for the past three months."

After all, it was because of the major events in his life that he was injured.

He couldn't let his subordinates get injured and not benefit.

Julian generously tripled the bonus for everyone for three consecutive months.

The assistant said with a smile: "It means that the bonus is tripled in one month, and everyone is very happy. It's for the sake of taking care less."

The main reason was that they could see in advance how powerful the young master's wife would be in the future.

It's really great.

"Three months."

"Okay, let me tell everyone. Young master, how is it going? Did you get online successfully?"

"Go, my private affairs, don't inquire about them." Julian scolded his assistant, but he laughed while scolding, not angry at all.

The assistant said with a smile: "I've been following the young master for a long time, and I haven't learned anything else. Being number one in eating melons is like inheriting the mantle of the young master."

“Eat the melon and ate it on your young master’s head.”

The assistant giggled.

“Help me prepare twelve children’s gifts. Kiera brought twelve children to participate in the competition, six boys and six girls.” Julian asked his assistant to help him prepare twelve children’s gifts, which would be given to those twelve children tomorrow.

Prepare gifts for the children, and Kiera couldn’t ignore them. The assistant didn’t need to worry about the gifts for Kiera. Julian would prepare them himself.

Fortunately, in order to help Andrew, he brazenly “pursued” Elisa for a period of time, and accumulated a little experience in chasing his wife.

He knew what gift to prepare for the girl.

The assistant: “Young master, when did you want it?”

Julian: “Before noon tomorrow, I will treat Miss Caron to dinner at noon.”

The assistant knew that the young master’s plan was perfect as soon as he heard it, and readily agreed to help the young master prepare twelve gifts for children.