Married at First Sight Chapter 2337-The children had already got their favorite food, picked two tables and sat around to eat.

Kiera was a foodie, and she especially liked the food at Wiltspoon Hotel. She took two plates, which were full of food.

There was no room for the children to sit at the table, so she sat down at the next table.

After putting down the plates containing various delicacies, Kiera went to get another plate of fruit and a plate of snacks, and poured herself a cup of hot coffee.

Julian also brought himself a lot of food.

Kiera could eat; if she couldn't, she would be ashamed. Kiera might have to pretend to be gentle and hungry the next time they ate together.

His future wife had to be pampered before Julian got married, and it hurt. How could Julian let Kiera go hungry?

Kiera finished taking what she wanted to eat, and after sitting down, she felt that she had taken a little too much. Seeing that Julian opposite her also took a few plates of food, her embarrassment disappeared immediately.

Not only Kiera could eat it, but her students could also eat it better than ordinary children, probably because they had to practice martial arts every day, and they could eat it after exhausting too much energy.

Instead, Julian was a little full.

Seeing that Kiera and the children had all finished the food, Julian also forced himself to finish it; he couldn't leave Kiera with a bad impression of waste.

If he cared, he would do his best.

That's true.

Julian, who had never been in love before, gradually discovered the change of falling in love.

After eating and drinking, Julian turned into the king of children and took Kiera and a dozen children out.

At the entrance of the hotel, he met his cousin Josh, who came to discuss business with some people.

Josh wanted to say hello, but before he could speak, he saw Julian look away, chatting and laughing with Kiera, his attitude showed that he didn't want to say hello to Josh.

Josh: “...”

Was his cousin pretending not to know him?

When he, Josh, also became a shady person, the two brothers ran into each other in the hotel, and his brother didn't want him to say hello.

Josh looked at Kiera.

He didn't need to ask to know that Kiera was his brother's destined girl.

Well, she was a bright and generous girl, she should have a personality similar to his wife Jasmine's, with such a bright smile, he thought she would be able to get along with Jasmine in the future.

Julian was the young master of the Bucham family and would be the head of the Bucham family in the future. His wife would be the head wife of the Bucham family. Whether Jasmine could get along with the head wife was very important to Josh.

He didn't want his beloved wife to be wronged.

Josh just watched Julian and Kiera walk out of the hotel with a group of children.

In the end, he didn't even say hello to Julian.

The smart Josh didn't understand at first, but he realized it after walking. His brother probably didn't want Kiera to know that he was Young Master Bucham, for fear of scaring Ms. Caron?

Thinking of their Bucham family, Josh understood his brother's temporary concealment.

Most families didn't have the guts to marry their daughters into the Bucham family.

Especially marrying Young Master Bucham.
