Married at First Sight Chapter 2386-Shiloh got out of the car, went to her mother, pushed her, and cursed: "You are crazy, don't die under my wheels if you want to die, and dirty my car.

If I hadn't braked suddenly and you died under my wheels, what would others say about me? They said that I dislike the poor and love the rich, and would rather stay with my adopted mother as an adopted daughter than return to my mother's side."

Shiloh's mother stared at her biological daughter in a daze.

As a mother, who didn't want to have children?

She had always known that the successor of the Farrell family was her own daughter.

When she thought her husband's plot was about to succeed, the truth was discovered.

Although she was disappointed, at least her biological daughter could return to her side. Her biological daughter received the best education in Farrell's family and was trained to be capable.

It was a pity that the biological daughter did not want to come back.

The adopted daughter returned to Farrell's house.

She was equivalent to losing both daughters.

She came to visit the prison today, and every month, she would visit her husband in the prison.

She couldn't help but come to see her own daughter.

She remembered the license plate number of her own daughter. She was walking on the road just now and saw her own daughter's car. She rushed out to stop the car without thinking twice.

Bella said: "daughter..."

"Don't call me daughter; I'm not your daughter. My name is Shiloh Farrell. I'm a daughter of Farrell's family, not your family's daughter. Kathryn is your daughter!" Shiloh scolded her mother and refused to let her call her daughter.

She would not recognize this mother.

She's afraid that the adoptive mother would be unhappy. Even if her adoptive mother didn't care, she didn't want to admit it.

With such a mother, she felt that her grade had been lowered several notches, and she would not be able to climb high.

Those wealthy mothers-in-law were very demanding in choosing their daughter-in-law.

The natal family would hold back, and others didn't want it.

Bella said: "Shiloh, you are my daughter, you are my own daughter."

Bella grabbed Shiloh's hand sadly, and continued, "You are my daughter. I miss you so much, Shiloh. Come back, okay? For the past two years, I have been thinking about it day and night, and I hope I'm waiting for you to come back to me."

Shiloh immediately shook off her mother's grasping hand, and cursed with a black face: "Open your dog eyes, I am the second young lady of the Farrell family! If you want to find your daughter, go find Kathryn, she is your daughter."

As Shiloh said that, she reached out and grabbed her mother's arm, pulled her hard, dragged her to the side of the road, and pushed her to the ground. She pushed her so that she fell to the ground.

Shiloh also kicked her mother twice, and after kicking, she warned her mother: "Don't appear in front of me in the future, or I will be rude to you, and I am not going to stop my car again. If you die, my own insurance company will help me lose money, and I will have nothing to do."

If Kathryn was present and heard such words, she would applaud her adoptive mother and ridicule her. She abused her like that, and her own daughter didn't want to see her as a result.

This was the retribution of the adoptive mother.

After Kathryn left her adoptive mother's house, she rarely went back to see her. She had been abused and squeezed in that house.

After knowing her background, Kathryn finally understood why her parents and elder brothers treated her badly. It turned out that she was not born in their family.

Shiloh turned around and left, went back to the car, took down her bag, opened it, and took out the exquisite wallet. She took out all the cash in the wallet, then walked back to her mother and threw the cash in front of her.
