Married at First Sight Chapter 2390-If Kiera didn't have that idea, he wouldn't have to say it.

Anyway, he only reacted to Kiera, and Kiera would not be a widow if she married him.

Kiera said with a smile: "Mr. Bucham, I guess you're too busy and have no time to fall in love. But you have to hurry up so that your parents don't go crazy in a hurry. Although my parents don't urge my marriage very much, But my brothers were urged by my parents, and they put cotton in their ears when they got home, so as not to hear my parents nagging.

They are also too picky. When a matchmaker introduces them so many girls, they will dislike them when they meet. Others are delicate, and they want to find a female expert who can fight with them. My father is so angry that he wants to beat them up with a stick."

Julian couldn't help but smile, "It's normal for your brothers to have such thoughts; after all, they also learned martial arts when they were young, and I guess the circle of friends is full of people who learn martial arts, so it's normal to want to find a wife who can also martial arts.

Ms. Caron, you're looking for a boyfriend, and you probably also want to find someone who can martial arts?"

Kiera thought for a while and said, "The instinctive reaction is to find someone who can punch, but after thinking about it, I think it's better to find an ordinary person, so that I don't have to worry about the couple fighting after marriage, and I will lose.

However, because I have learned martial arts since I was a child and I also work as a coach in my own martial arts gym, it is very difficult for a matchmaker to introduce me to a boyfriend. When people hear that I can box and kick, and I am very good at it, they dare not meet me, and they are also worried that they will be bullied by me after marriage."

Julian said: "You don't have to think about a man with that kind of thinking. You can think about quarrels and fights after marriage before you meet. Good man, marry a wife They are all married and pampered at home."

“Take our young master York from Wiltspoon as an example. In fact, young master York also knows boxing skills, and his skills are quite good. But if the husband and wife fight, his wife will definitely lose.

Has anyone ever done anything? The young master York never thought of doing anything to his wife. He only thought about how to treat his wife well, how to pamper her, and make her happy. He gave his sincerity and got it in return. Now the couple are so loving that people are envious. I envy them.”

Kiera nodded, “Mr. Bucham, you think the same as I think, that’s what I told my parents, and my mother blamed my father for asking me to practice martial arts for a while, saying that I am a girl, I just need to know how to defend myself, and there is no need to become a master of martial arts...It is my father who hurt me when I’m 24 years old.”

Julian said meaningfully: “That’s because your fate has not yet arrived. When fate comes, you can’t stop it.”

Kiera was 24 years old and nobody cared about her, which was fortunate. Otherwise, she would have been married when he found her. With a boyfriend, wouldn’t he want to be a third party?

It showed that he and she were a pair created by heaven and earth, and it was the fate of husband and wife cultivated in the previous life.

That master was really an expert, and his calculations were too accurate.

It was the first time that Julian saw the power of that master.

Kiera: “That is, it is destined to meet thousands of miles away, but not to meet each other. I am only twenty-four years old, and I am not thirty-four years old. Maybe my significant other is waiting for me in front of me.”

Kiera’s longing for love and marriage is not big. She preferred her current life of doing the work she liked and being free.

Although the parents loved to nag about their children’s important life events, at least they couldn’t talk to her now, and it would be her turn when her shields were taken off the list.
