Married at First Sight Chapter 2449 – Wildridge Manor.

Serenity returned to the wedding room, opened the door and went in. The room was filled with big red words of happiness. She felt that time had passed. When she returned to the room, she was reminded that it was only the day after her wedding, and only half a day had passed.

Accompanying Grandma May and chatting with the workers at the foot of the mountain, Serenity also heard a lot of gossip about small families.

Suddenly, she understood why Grandma May liked to mingle with the workers, just to eat and listen to gossip.

She also liked this kind of day.

But Grandma May was old. She was retired and took care of herself at home. She could go to the foot of the mountain every day to listen to gossip. She was still young and couldn't live this kind of life. She had to continue to fight.

When her hair turned gray in the future, she and Zachary retired together, and when the couple could move around, they would travel everywhere. When they got older, they would learn from Grandma May and find people to chat with from time to time and gossip about trivial things in other people's families.

The days passed happily.

On the bed covered with bright red sheets, Zachary was still lying there.

He could sleep so well.

Serenity walked over and sat down on the edge of the bed.

She stretched out her hand to push Zachary awake, but instead of pushing him, it fell on his handsome face and touched him gently.

Serenity said: "You always have a straight face, but the skin on your face is well maintained. It's quite slippery and feels good in the hand."

Zachary hand held her hand. He opened his eyes and smiled at the same time: "Since you think it feels good, let's give it a kiss."

Serenity said: "You woke up a long time ago, so you pretended to be asleep and lied to me, right?"

Zachary smiled, "You came back as soon as I woke up, so I lay back on the bed to see if you would kiss me secretly."

Serenity also laughed, "You are my husband, my man. I can kiss you if I want to, and do it openly. There is no need to kiss secretly."

Zachary said: "Then you kissed me openly. Last night in our bridal chamber, you fell asleep without even kissing me."

She was pregnant, and it was the first trimester, and they couldn't do anything on their wedding night. For Zachary, who had eaten meat for a year, it was really suffering, but he could only endure it.

Serenity smiled and pinched his face, "Obviously you told me to sleep first, and you blamed me for not kissing you when you fell asleep. Since we got married for more than a year, I don't know how many kisses you have had."

Zachary: "That was in the past. Yesterday was our wedding. Last night was the wedding night. Come on, wife, come and kiss me. Kiss me openly."

A certain young man, Zachary, turned into a brown sugar, a top-notch brown sugar, and pulled Serenity to ask her to kiss him.

Originally, the husband and wife were loving, and kissing behaviors were not uncommon. Serenity had long practiced copper skin and iron walls. She didn't know what it was to be shy, but at this moment, she suddenly blushed, facing her handsome man, she couldn't kiss anymore.

Who told him to look at her with a smile on his face like a r*scal!?

The next moment, Serenity covered Zachary's eyes with one hand, and then blocked his mouth.

Zachary put his arms around her waist.

After the deep kiss, Zachary sat up and let Serenity lie down, resting her head on his lap, so that his big hand could touch her flat belly.

Zachary said: "Remember this account first. After this little guy comes out, I will get it back together with the principal and interest."

Serenity's face turned red.

"Honey, I haven't seen you blushing for a long time. When you teased me before, I was the one who blushed. I thought you were very thick-skinned. Later I realized that you are a paper tiger, not much better than me. Once I counterattack, you will be dumbfounded."

Serenity scolded him, "I'm satisfied with you. Get up quickly. It's almost time for lunch. You've slept too long."

Zachary: "It's rare to take a break. I've been too busy recently and I'm very tired."
