

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2521

Married at First Sight Chapter 2521-Matriarch Farrell did not know that Shiloh was not her biological child at that time. She just felt that Shiloh was always unsatisfactory after many years of training with her, so she was not in a hurry to arrange an assistant for Shiloh.

Fortunately, there were no arrangements.

Otherwise, Kathryn's assistants would have to be re-selected and trained.

It took a long time to train a special assistant like this.

After the Farrell family determined a successor, they would begin to train special assistants. It often took more than ten or twenty years for the successor to take office.

And it was difficult to choose the right person.

After all, this kind of person needed to be extremely powerful and extremely loyal to qualify.

"I know."

Cody Jenkins quickly left the room.

He didn't stay long, and the people he met were men. He gave the impression that he was here to meet friends.

It won't attract anyone's attention.

After Cody left the Wiltspoon Hotel, that young man, one of the bodyguards of the Farrell family, told Matriarch Farrell about Cody's arrival.

Matriarch Farrell was silent for a long time after knowing that the new number she asked Cody to buy for her was investigated so quickly.

After a long time, she said, "Then log out. Wiltspoon is indeed a crouching tiger, a hidden dragon."

She was not someone who could stir up trouble easily.

After a while, she asked the bodyguard again: “Has there been any movement from Miss Carrie? Or can’t she even enter the Newman family villa?”

Carrie really didn’t have much use except for her big temper. How could she find such a useless person to help her get information?

Now in Wiltspoon, the only one who dared to take risks to help her was Carrie, because Carrie hated Serenity and Camryn and most wanted to see Serenity and the others suffer.

So Matriarch Farrell could only find Carrie.

The husband of the matriarch Farrell was surnamed Janzen.

The bodyguard replied, “Miss Carrie went to her two aunts’ rental house, where they are still living, and she has been secretly followed. She is so stupid that she doesn’t know when people are staring at her. People in our group should be careful, because others will find out.”

Matriarch Farrell: “Cody will set things up. He will do the work, so I don’t have to worry. Give me an extra gift, and I’ll go see Alice in the hospital early tomorrow morning. Then return to Jensburg.”

Matriarch Farrell also stayed in Wiltspoon for more than half a month, and it was time to go back.

During their absence from Jensburg, the two women looked cross-eyed. Kathryn was worthy of being a member of the Farrell family. She looked weak and weak, but Shiloh couldn’t take any advantage in her hands.

Not to mention Shiloh; not even her sons and husband could handle Kathryn.

Kathryn wouldn’t be a suitable successor, of course, if her father and brother could manipulate her.

The women in the Farrell family were in charge. If they couldn’t control their husbands, fathers, or brothers, they weren’t ready to be in charge of the family.

“Ring, ring, ring...”

As Matriarch Farrell was speaking, her cell phone rang.

She picked up the mobile phone on the table and looked at the caller ID. It was Shiloh calling.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2522-After frowning, Matriarch Farrell answered Shiloh's call.

"Mom."

As soon as the call was connected, Shiloh cried and called her mom on the phone.

"What's wrong, Shiloh? Who bullied you? Tell mom, I will help you vent your anger when mom comes back."

Even though Matriarch Farrell was frowning, the way she spoke to Shiloh made it sound like she loved her and would help her even if the sky fell.

"When will you be back, mom? I was nearly killed by Kathryn while you were away from the house. She intimidated me and constantly infuriated me. She really irritated me. She was a villain who consistently caused me harm while appearing to be innocent. Even Dad was so angry with her that he couldn't eat or sleep. Dad lost a lot of weight, which made me feel bad when I saw him.

And my brothers and sisters-in-law are always getting into fights with each other, and the eldest sister-in-law has even asked the eldest brother for a divorce."

Matriarch Farrell: "Kathryn is so capable? She is just a ball of mud. She can't help you up the wall. If she has such ability, she can make you all angry to death, and mom won't have to worry about taking over. Alas, she didn't grow up by mom's side, nor was she trained by mom since childhood. How do I teach her? I can't teach you well. If I'm too strict, people outside say I'm partial."

Shiloh sobbed and said, "Mom, Kathryn is so cunning; she is just a villain."

Matriarch Farrell: "You said Kathryn is picky. The estrangement made your brothers and sisters-in-law quarrel and want a divorce? What did she say, and what did she do?"

Shiloh replied: "My brother was raising a woman outside, and she exposed it to my sisters-in-law, and then they had a quarrel. Men like my brother and his friends, who have successful careers and good looks, have nothing to do with raising a thing outside.”

“How many people have mistresses and mistresses outside? As for my brother, who just raised one, it’s just a toy, not worthy of publicity, and it doesn’t pose any threat. I’ve known about it for a long time.”

Matriarch Farrell also knew.

Matriarch Farrell was very strict with her husband. She didn’t let him go outside and didn’t give him too much pocket money. She always felt that men become bad when they have money.

Her husband often didn’t even have $5000.

But as for her son, she just turned a blind eye, thinking that it was her son who had the ability, and it was the daughter-in-law who didn’t have the ability to keep her husband close.

“I accidentally hit Kathryn’s car, and she wanted me to pay for her car repairs. I said to her, What should I pay for? If I don’t pay her, I will pay her. Then I just went shopping and picked out a lot of things. When I was checking out, I found that my bank card had been frozen.

Mom, why did she freeze my bank card? God knows how embarrassed I was at that time. I was so angry, Mom. Please come back quickly. You are not at home. I will be abused to death by Kathryn.”

Shiloh was no longer the successor of the Farrell family, and she knew in her heart that she would not be able to share the Farrell family’s property in the future.

She wanted to take advantage of the fact that her adoptive mother still had feelings for her and still favored her, so she spent money every day to buy luxury goods, thinking that she would sell the luxury goods, jewelry, and other things for a large sum of money in the future.

In short, she had to think of a way out for herself.

Kathryn wanted Shiloh to return to her biological mother, but she didn’t want it.

Shiloh's biological mother came to see her, but she was unwilling to recognize her biological mother and gave her some money to get rid of the problem.

She was the young lady of the Farrell family. She wanted to live with the Farrell family and enjoy their glory and wealth.

As long as the adoptive mother was alive, she would not be short of money.

As long as Kathryn didn't take over for a day, she still had a chance.

After all, her adoptive mother loved her the most. Her adoptive mother trained her as she grew up close by.

Kathryn couldn't compare to her.

Kathryn's advantage was just that she had the blood of the Farrell family flowing through her body.

Her sisters-in-law told her that she had to fight until the last moment. Even if Kathryn came to power, they told her not to give up. There was still a chance.

She didn't believe that a person like Kathryn could support the Farrell family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2523-After listening to Shiloh's complaint, Matriarch Farrell said to her, "Shiloh, did you hit Kathryn's car on purpose? Her car was a new luxury car. I went out of my way to coax her last time. If you hit her luxury car and don't pay her for the repairs, it's normal for her to freeze your bank card.

You always do the wrong things and don't face up to your mistakes. You always feel that others are at fault, and you don't look for reasons for yourself.

If you were Kathryn, your new car was hit, and the other party didn't pay to repair the car for you, would you be angry? With your character, if someone hits your car and refuses to pay you for repairs, you will be so angry that you tear down other people's homes."

Matriarch Farrell was scolding Shiloh for being ignorant. Kathryn was her biological daughter and the successor of the Farrell family. People have the power to freeze the bank cards of anyone in the Farrell family and also have the power to reduce the pocket money of anyone in the Farrell family.

Of course, she was still the one in charge, and Kathryn currently does not dare misuse this power to financially attack the Farrell family.

It was during this half month that Kathryn froze Shiloh's bank card when Matriarch Farrell was not in Jensburg and Shiloh went too far.

Shiloh on the other side of the phone pouted and said, "Mom, I just accidentally scratched her car, and it wasn't intentional. The repair fee doesn't cost much; it's only tens of thousands of dollars at most. That's it.

Is she so short on money? Mom, my pocket money was reduced by half, but she has a lot of money."

If Kathryn had not been lucky enough to become the daughter of the Farrell family, the Farrell family would have given Kathryn the monthly pocket money that even Kathryn would not have been able to earn in five years.

Kathryn claimed that she previously held a dead job earning between three and five thousand dollars per month, and the team leader frequently had to reprimand her.

But she didn't dare to resign, because if she resigned and went out to find a job, it would still be the same.

Shiloh also got confirmation of this from her own mother, which proved that Kathryn's previous income was indeed not high.

After the two people exchanged their identities, Shiloh still stayed in the Farrell family as the daughter of the Farrell family, while Kathryn became the eldest daughter of the Farrell family. After all, she was the real daughter of the Farrell family, and she had to be ranked first to take over the Farrell Group in the future.

Then the pocket money of the two people changed drastically in an instant.

Kathryn used to earn three to five thousand dollars a month. After deducting various expenses every month, it would be good to have a thousand dollars left.

After regaining her status as the daughter of the Farrell family, her monthly pocket money was 300,000 dollars, which was equivalent to 10,000 dollars a day.

In the past, Kathryn had to work for four or five years without eating or drinking to earn this amount of pocket money.

Shiloh's monthly pocket money was reduced from 300,000 dollars to 150,000 dollars.

Shiloh's pocket money was half as much as her brothers', despite being more. Shiloh still felt uncomfortable, but there was nothing she could do about it. Who said she was not the real daughter of the Farrell family?

In the Farrell family, there was no restriction on Matriarch Farrell's spending. After all, she had the power. As long as the money she spent had a clear destination, no one could say anything.

This was the treatment she could enjoy as a family member.

Then the successor's pocket money was the highest, at 300,000 dollars per month.

The sons of Matriarch Farrell receive $100,000 a month. As for Holden Janzen, who is the son-in-law of the Farrell family, although he also had a share of $100,000 in pocket money every month, his money was all managed by Matriarch Farrell, and the regulations were also just for a look. Holden did not enjoy the treatment of $100,000 in monthly pocket money.

The money he had on him did not exceed five hundred dollars a day.

He didn't dare to cheat out of concern that his wife, Matriarch Farrell, would ask him where the money went if he spent too much.

At first, Holden was not used to being controlled like this by Matriarch Farrell. He once attempted to cheat, but Cody Jenkins, the assistant working next to Matriarch Farrell, quickly caught him.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2524-After that, even if Holden was very dissatisfied, he did not dare to cheat on Matriarch Farrell again.

Fortunately, his children were pretty good to him as a father and would secretly give him some money to spend, so he lived a comfortable life.

As long as his children were filial, Matriarch Farrell would not care about them.

Of course, if he dared to flirt with women outside, Matriarch Farrell would not be polite to him.

Matriarch Farrell once warned him that if he dared to flirt with women outside, he would be destroyed.

Holden believed that his wife could do what she said.

For decades, no matter how many flowers outside came to him, he did not dare to pick a petal.

“This is not a question of having money or not, but a question of who is right and who is wrong.” Matriarch Farrell said it seriously.

Shiloh didn't dare to complain. After a long while, she said again, “Mom, even if I am at fault, Kathryn can't freeze my bank card. What qualifications does she have to do this? She is not the head of the family yet, but she treats me like this. When she really becomes Matriarch Farrell, Mom, do I still have a way to survive?”

As she said that, Shiloh sobbed again. “Mom, I have grown up by your side since I was born, and I can also feel your love for me. Well, I have always thought that I am a member of the Farrell family. I was not aware of the bad things my biological father did, so I am innocent.

Mom, you also told me that I will always be a child of yours, but after being on a business trip for half a month, Kathryn took me for an operation and frozen my bank card. If Kathryn becomes the boss in the future, how can I still live?”

“Don't you have assets in your name? Do you still need some pocket money?” Matriarch Farrell said calmly.

Shiloh's money was not actually pocket money. Her daily quota of $5000 was not enough for her to spend. What she spent was a credit card given to her by Matriarch Farrell. She could use whatever she wanted.

Shiloh said: “I don't have many assets in my name, just a few houses, two or three cars, and two shops, and my savings are not even nine figures.”

Her savings were just over $10 million.

For someone who was used to spending money like water, she said that a deposit of just over $10 million couldn't be spent easily.

It's hard to sell her luxury goods now, and she couldn't sell them now. When Kathryn came to power, her life would be difficult, and she could resell them for money.

In addition to buying luxury goods, Shiloh also wanted to invest to ensure her future.

She used to be the young mistress and successor of the Farrell family, and the entire Farrell family would become hers. She didn't have to bother investing in private properties at all; she just bought a few apartments and shops.

God was kidding her. Now she wanted to invest, but she didn't have enough funds.

Matriarch Farrell: "Has Kathryn frozen your personal bank card?"

"That's my personal bank card. What qualifications does she have to freeze mine? It's the card I used to receive my pocket money, and the credit card you gave me to use was frozen."

Matriarch Farrell said, "Since your personal bank card has not been frozen, then you can spend the money in your personal bank card."