Married at First Sight Chapter 2685-Serenity didn't let Sonny get into the habit of asking for permission to go out and play. She made it clear to him that it was only permitted once and that he could not request leave for fun again in the future.

This time, for the sake of Titus's rare visit and because Titus's only friend in Wiltspoon was Sonny, Serenity could ask Sonny to take a day off.

Sonny spoke silently repeatedly and promised that it would only be this time; there would be no next time.

Titus also said, "Auntie Hunt, I will wait until summer vacation or winter vacation before coming over next time, so that everyone doesn't have to ask for leave."

"Auntie, please tell my mother now, okay?" Sonny really wanted to implement the request for leave as soon as possible.

This way, he could play happily.

Serenity looked at Zachary, and Zachary looked away with a guilty conscience. Serenity complained about her husband in her heart and pushed Sonny to her.

"All right."

Serenity had no choice but to call Liberty. After Liberty answered the phone, Serenity said, "Sister, Sonny has something to tell you."

With that said, Serenity handed the phone to Sonny and said, "Sonny, tell your mother."

Sonny took the phone and told Liberty why he wanted to take leave.

After Liberty said the same thing as Serenity, she agreed to Sonny taking a day off to spend time with his little friend, Titus, from afar.

Sonny was happy then. After returning the phone to Serenity, he was so happy that he jumped up and down with Titus. He even got into a martial arts competition and said to Titus, "Titus, I've been practicing seriously recently. Come, let's make some gestures."

Titus said confidently, "You will lose to me. Don't be angry when you lose to me."

During the summer vacation, when the two of them were playing around, Sonny always lost to him, and then Sonny looked very unhappy.

Titus's memory was still fresh.

Jane said that Titus didn't know how to be polite to Sonny, saying that Sonny was a guest from afar.

Titus didn't know how to give in, and he hadn't learned how to control himself freely, so he used all his strength when he made a move.

Sonny said, "I'm not angry; I promise not to be angry."

The two little guys started gesticulating.

Serenity said hello to Ben and asked about Jane. Knowing that Jane was taking care of her baby, she said, "I'll go over to see her later. It's a rare visit, and you didn't tell me in advance. Come on, you don't need to make a trip early in the morning."

Ben said, "The two little children played until very late last night and went to bed. Jane is probably still catching up on her sleep."

Serenity said, "I understand. It will be fine when the two little children are older. Now it is easy to reverse day and night. When you want to sleep, they don't. When they sleep, you have no time to sleep."

Serenity looked at the two little guys competing again. When she saw it, she laughed and said, "Sonny can't even make three moves in Titus's hands."

Zachary answered, "Titus's master is different. Sonny learned martial arts in a regular martial arts school, and his progress is not that fast. The original intention was for Sonny to strengthen his body. After learning martial arts from Sonny, does he have a cold? All missing?"

She wouldn't know it if Zachary didn't mention it, but after mentioning it, Serenity realized that this was really the case.

Ben saw Sonny pouting and looking very unhappy and said to Titus, "Titus, you have to give way to Sonny."

Titus replied, "Mama Murphy said that when Sonny comes to our house and he is a guest, I have to let Sonny go. But now that I am coming to Sonny's place, I am the guest. Sonny should let me go. I didn't let Sonny give in to me, but Sonny still lost. What does it have to do with me?"

Serenity said to her nephew, "Sonny, face your failure bravely. You and Titus are just having fun. Just be happy and don't care about winning or losing."

Titus took out two candies from his trouser pocket. He handed one candy to Sonny and said to Sonny, "I promised you not to be angry. Sonny, here are the candies. Mama Murphy won't let me eat so much candy. I secretly hid it in my trouser pocket. I brought it here specially to share it with you. "

Sonny took the candy and said, "I'm not angry. You all saw it wrong. I'm not angry."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2686-Both Serenity and Zachary told Sonny that Titus learned martial arts earlier than him, and it was normal for him to lose to Titus, so he should face it calmly.

Sonny, on the other hand, had advantages. He could read and write a little better than Titus. Titus could read a lot of numbers but couldn't write well, but he could write very well. He wrote exceptionally well in comparison to his peers. The nice thing his uncle Zachary said about him was true.

His uncle Zachary couldn't lie because he was a real man, a big CEO, and everything he told was the truth.

Thinking like this, Sonny stopped pouting, pulled Titus, and said, "Let's go in and eat. I'm hungry."

Titus: "I'm hungry too."

The two little guys happily jumped into the house again.

...

Newman family.

Carrie stood at the door of the villa from a distance and then kept calling Trenton.

After a while, Trenton came out.

Seeing Trenton come out, Carrie walked over with a pale face, raised her hand, and slapped Trenton on the face.

There was a snap.

Trenton did not expect that Carrie would give him a slap in the face as soon as she saw him.

He thought that Carrie knew that he was going back to school soon and came here to find him.

Unexpectedly, when they met, he was slapped in the face.

"Second sister." Carrie hit Trenton on the side of his face, and he angrily asked, "Why did you hit me?"

Carrie pointed at him and scolded: "Don't call me second sister. Do you still have me as the second sister in your eyes? Since you were a child, you have always liked the eldest sister, Camryn, but you are not close to me, the second sister. Forget it; now you are uniting with Camryn to deal with me. Trenton, why do your arms grow outward?

I am your biological sister, the biological sister from the same father and mother. Who is Camryn? She is just your cousin.”

Trenton said angrily, “Second sister, you called the eldest sister not a thing, but what kind of thing are you? Your parents have just spoiled you to the point where you are becoming increasingly unimportant; you have no idea how high the world is!

The eldest sister is my cousin and my biological sister. She and I were born to the same mother! In my heart, she is my eldest sister and will always be my eldest sister!”

Carrie was so angry that she wanted to slap him again.

This time, Trenton was on guard, but she failed.

Trenton grabbed Carrie’s wrist and shook it away hard. He took two steps back to distance himself from Carrie.

Carrie was always like this, always hurting others. Her mother’s pampering was the root of this bad habit.

Her parents really spoil Carrie. Trenton was the only son of his parents. Neither of his parents pampered him, but they only doted on Carrie. This was not love, but harm to Carrie.

Trenton had developed the arrogant and unreasonable temper of Carrie, but Carrie had no ability at all.

After his parents had moved in, he had no supporters, and Carrie was nothing in the upper-class society of Wiltspoon.

Carrie: “Trenton, you still dare to push me; I am your sister!”

“I didn’t push you away and let you hit me again?” Trenton said angrily, He was not a fool.
