

Read Married At First Sight Chapter 2761

Married At First Sight Chapter 2761-Duncan did not say that he was a useless person; at least Liberty would feel distressed again and have to say a lot of words of encouragement to him.

Liberty cleaned the electric kettle provided in the hotel, boiled a pot of hot water for him, washed the cup, picked up a small bag of rose green tea, made him a cup of green tea, and then brought it over. The cup was placed on the bedside counter. He went up and said to him, "The water is very hot now; drink it later."

"Ring ring ring..."

Liberty's cell phone rang.

She took out her mobile phone, looked at the caller ID, and said to Duncan, "It's Serenity calling."

She quickly answered the call, worried that something would happen to her sister.

Liberty asked, "Seren, what's wrong?"

"Mom."

Sonny's childish voice came from the phone.

"Sonny, Sonny finally remembered his mother and knew to call her."

Liberty laughed and teased her son.

Sonny pouted, seemingly aggrieved, and called his mother again.

Hearing the grievance in her son's words, Liberty asked with concern, "What's wrong with Sonny? Are you unhappy?"

"No, it's Uncle Lewis who is too bad. Uncle Lewis is a bad guy. He secretly went to see you without telling me. I asked my aunt to take me to Uncle Lewis, and I wanted to introduce my little friend, Titus, to Uncle Lewis. But it turned out that Grandma Lewis said that Uncle Lewis went to see you."

Sonny felt extremely wronged. “Uncle Lewis didn’t even say a word to me. I miss you too. If he goes out and tells me, I can follow Uncle Lewis to see you.

Uncle Lewis doesn’t keep his words and only deceives children.”

After Liberty went on a business trip, Duncan told Sonny clearly that if he missed Liberty in the future, Duncan would take him on his private jet and fly to where Liberty was on a business trip so that he could see her.

At that time, he felt that Duncan was really good—better than Hank.

Every time Hank saw Sonny, although he would be very kind to him, he liked to speak ill of Duncan in front of him. Sonny felt that Duncan was not that kind and was not a bad person.

His father, grandparents, and aunt thought that he was a three-year-old child who didn’t understand anything, but in fact, he understood everything.

Liberty looked at Duncan and said to Sonny, “Uncle Lewis is here. He happened to be on a business trip. The place where he went on business happened to be the same place where I went on business, so he didn’t bring you here.”

Sonny said, “Mom, you don’t have to go to work today; I don’t even go to kindergarten.”

“You’re asking for leave today!”

Serenity next to Sonny reminded him.

In order to play with Titus for a while, Serenity took a day off for Sonny.

Sonny: “...”

Well, he forgot he asked for leave and thought it was a day off.

Sonny said, “Mom, is Uncle Lewis next to you? Let Uncle Lewis listen to the phone. I want to ask Uncle Lewis personally.”

Liberty handed the phone to Duncan and whispered to him: “Seren took Sonny to your home. He knew you were here and was feeling aggrieved. Sonny said you lied to him.”

Duncan took the phone, cleared his throat, and said to Sonny on the other end of the phone, "Sonny, Uncle Lewis is on a temporary business trip and didn't have time to tell you."

Sonny asked, "Uncle Lewis, didn't you lie to me? Didn't you hide it from me and sneak away to find my mom?"

Duncan said, "No, how could it be? I didn't lie to Sonny. I was really on a business trip. It was just a business trip to the same place as your mother. Then I stopped by to see your mother. Sonny, do you miss your mom?"

Married At First Sight Chapter 2762-Sonny was coaxed, his anger subsided, and he no longer felt aggrieved. He said, "I heard Grandma Lewis say that you went to find my mom. I miss my mom."

"I will bring you here as soon as you get out of school this Friday and then go back on Sunday afternoon, okay?"

Duncan made a promise to Sonny.

In this way, he would have an honest reason to fly over to accompany Liberty on Friday.

Sonny: "Really? Uncle Lewis, you didn't lie to me?"

I have said that Uncle Lewis will not lie to me. Uncle Lewis is the most honest."

After Sonny thought about it, he felt that Duncan was usually very honest, so he said, "I believe you, Uncle Lewis. Will my mom allow us to go there? Will our going disturb my mom's work?"

Duncan said to Sonny that Liberty had been very busy recently.

Sonny knew that Liberty was so busy because of him. She said she wanted to make a lot of money so that he could live a good life.

Sonny felt that his life was very good. He didn't want to work as hard as Liberty.

But Liberty insisted on going to work and making money, and he felt that he was a sensible child and wanted to support Liberty.

Duncan said, "No, we are coming over on the weekend, and your mother also needs to rest. It just so happens that we will accompany your mother to walk around and relax. This will make your mother feel better. When she goes to work next week, she will be able to do things very efficiently."

Sonny snorted, but still said uneasily, "Uncle Lewis, please let me tell my mom to see if she really agrees."

Duncan smiled and returned the phone to Liberty, letting the mother and son bargain over the phone. In the end, Liberty was unable to stop Sonny from coming over on Friday.

Liberty also wanted Sonny.

With Duncan accompanying him, nothing would happen.

After getting Liberty's permission, Sonny was happy and ended the call soon.

He returned the phone to Serenity.

Serenity asked him with a smile, "Are you not angry anymore? Are you not aggrieved?"

Sonny said happily, "I can go see my mom on Friday. Auntie, what day is it today?"

Serenity said, "Monday."

Sonny asked, "How many days are there between Monday and Friday?"

Sonny didn't know much about how many days a week there were. His mother had taught him. He even asked her why there were no Mondays or Sundays.

Serenity said, "Four days."

Sonny counted his fingers and felt that four days was not much. The expression on his face changed from gloomy to sunny, and he happily said to Titus, "Titus, I can go to my mom in a few days. Do you have to go home today? How about you come with me to find my mother?"

Titus was quite envious of Sonny.

Sonny's parents were divorced, but they were still alive. Sonny could see his parents at any time. Sonny's parents also loved Sonny very much.

Jane was not Titus's biological mother, but his adoptive mother. He didn't know who his parents were. Jane never kept anything from him and always told him that she had picked him up.

Although Titus had Jane, his uncle Ben Johnson, and his master, who loved him, he had no biological parents and had no idea what his parents looked like.

But Titus's envy only lasted for a moment.

After all, he was still a child, three or four years old. If someone played with him, he would soon forget about who his father and mother were.

Titus said, "I'm going back in the afternoon. If I don't go back, my teacher will punish me for walking on horseback and punish me for copying medical books."

He could write, but the punishment of copying medical books was still too severe for him. He was not afraid of being beaten or scolded, but he was afraid that his master would punish him for writing and copying medical books.