

Read Married At First Sight Chapter 2794

Married At First Sight Chapter 2794-She was tall, and wearing an evening dress with such a long skirt made her even taller, but it also perfectly covered the leather shoes she was wearing. If she wore high heels and the heels were too high, it would be easier for others to see her. What shoes was she wearing?

Hayden put her arm on Kevin's arm and held her handbag with her mobile phone stuffed in it. Then she said to Kevin, "Kevin, let's go."

"Will the bodyguards follow?" Kevin asked her.

Hayden smiled. "That's natural; otherwise, how can I prove that I am Hayden?"

Many people might not believe she is Hayden tonight because she is at the banquet as a woman, even though it was clear that she was Hayden. Everyone might have believed her because she showed up with a group of bodyguards, whose faces everyone knew.

The two people walked out of the main house hand in hand. Donald and Mrs. Queen, who were still watering the flowers outside the house, saw the two people coming out.

Mrs. Queen breathed a sigh of relief when she saw Hayden still wearing the evening dress she had chosen.

But seeing Hayden's extremely short hair, Mrs. Queen sighed and muttered in a low voice, "There are so many fake long hairs, but she doesn't know how to use one."

Taking another look at Hayden's feet, Mrs. Queen could still see what kind of shoes she was wearing, even though the skirt's hem was a little too long for her when she walked. Mrs. Queen wanted to say something along those lines when she noticed that Hayden was actually wearing leather shoes, but she quickly swallowed her words.

Anyway, it was Hayden who was attending the banquet. Hayden was not afraid of others laughing at her, so what was Mrs. Queen afraid of?

Her future son-in-law didn't mind, so why should she worry about it?

Mrs. Queen pretended not to see it and remained silent.

Kevin said, "Uncle, Auntie, Hayden, and I are leaving first."

His face was full of smiles. Hayden insisted on wearing women's clothes to attend the banquet tonight because he didn't want others to say he was gay again.

She's doing it for him!

He finally waited until Hayden was willing to resume her identity as a woman for him.

Could Kevin be unhappy?

He grinned so hard that he couldn't even see his teeth.

"Go ahead."

Donald said it with a smile.

After watching the two people walk by, Donald said to his wife, "Look at Kevin; he is smiling so hard that his teeth are missing. There is no one who is happiest than him."

Mrs. Queen said, "Hayden can't be happy because of the women's clothes she wears?"

Love is so powerful.

As parents, they had tried to persuade their daughter countless times, but she had not listened to their advice.

After falling in love with Kevin, she slowly changed for him.

Of course, as parents, they were happy to see their daughter regain her identity as a woman for Kevin.

In the future, when two people get married, everyone will send their blessings, and there will be no more pointing fingers.

Donald laughed, then took out his cell phone and said to his wife, "Hurry up and turn off the phone to prevent it from being blown up."

Married At First Sight Chapter 2795-Mrs. Queen smiled and said, "Even if the phone is turned off, they can still come to the door. We have a daughter to begin with, so we are not afraid of others asking."

Having said that, Mrs. Queen still took out her mobile phone and turned it off.

Not to mention the shock of Jensburg's upper class, who would attend the banquet tonight. Hayden's bodyguard group and the workers of the Queen family were dumbfounded when they saw Hayden wearing women's clothing.

The butler hesitated countless times.

After the bodyguards recovered from their daze, they were hesitant to speak, but in the end, no one dared to speak.

But from the dissatisfied looks they gave Kevin, they could guess what they were thinking.

It was just that Kevin not only misled their eldest young master but also made him pretend to be a woman. This b*stard Kevin bullied their eldest young master too much. But seeing the eldest young master and Kevin holding hands and being so affectionate, just like other lovers in love, the bodyguards didn't dare say anything.

The eldest young master had been bent so hard by Kevin that he could no longer bend.

What a p!ty!

Such an outstanding man as the eldest young master was destroyed in the hands of the third young master of the York family.

Kevin did a lot of harm to people!

Kevin opened the car door for Hayden like a gentleman and helped Hayden get into the car. Hayden didn't need his help, but he still had to help her.

The bodyguards' eyes twitched as they watched.

They really want to beat Kevin.

Their heroic eldest young master was turned into a sissy by Kevin, who was neither a man nor a woman.

By the way, the eldest young master was so beautiful when he put on women's clothes that people couldn't take their eyes away. It's not an exaggeration to say that he would captivate the whole country. However, the eldest young master had a cold temperament, and when he dressed as a woman, he looked noble and cool.

"You don't have to stare at Kevin like this, and you don't have to beat Kevin up in your heart." After Hayden got into the car, she suddenly spoke to her bodyguards.

"I'm not pretending to be a woman." Hayden said in a deep voice, "But I am originally a woman, and I have been pretending to be a man."

The bodyguard group was speechless.

How could it be!

They had been with the eldest young master Queen for seven or eight years. Their eldest young master Queen, was a man; how could he be a woman? If he is a woman, how could they not know after they have been with him for seven or eight years?

Hayden's words, deeds, and behavior were all masculine.

Hayden wanted to raise her head and puff out her chest, but her development was not good. Maybe it had something to do with the fact that she had been pretending to be a man. Even if she puffed up her breasts, it wouldn't have much effect.

She also gave up explaining too much and said calmly, "Let's drive."

The bodyguards recovered from their shock and quickly took up their positions.

The bodyguard sitting in the passenger seat boldly turned to look at Hayden and Kevin in the back seat of the car. He bravely said, "Eldest young master, you are dressing up as a woman for the third young master York. We can't stand it, but this is your choice; you don't care, and we can't say anything.

Eldest young master Queen, you're obviously a man. We have been with you for seven or eight years. We still can't tell whether you're a man or a woman?"

Hayden didn't answer.

Kevin smiled and said, "Yes, yes, your eldest young master disguised himself as a woman for me."

Let them think whatever they want.

Anyway, neither he nor Hayden minded.

Hayden just didn't expect that she had regained her identity as a woman. Instead, everyone thought she was dressing up as a woman for Kevin.

Married At First Sight Chapter 2796-This shows how successful she was in pretending to be a man and how popular she was.

The driver and the bodyguard breathed a sigh of relief.

Well, the eldest young master was obviously a man, and now he and the third young master York had become a homosexual couple. For the third young master York, he disguises himself as a woman. This was love between young lovers.

They couldn't help but watch.

But if the eldest young master was actually a woman, didn't that mean that all of them were blind?

They didn't know whether the boss they were following was a man or a woman. They had been following him for seven or eight years, and they were so blind that they couldn't be more blind.

The bodyguard's look of relief made Hayden a little bit dumbfounded.

She thought that her return to womanhood would shock everyone, but she didn't expect that the first thing everyone would think of was her dressing up as a woman for Kevin.

It seemed that she was going to grow her hair long.

When her hair reached her waist, everyone would probably believe it.

No, when the time came, others said that she grew her hair long for Kevin, saying that she was the one who accepted it because she loved Kevin. Kevin wanted her to dress up as a woman, so she would dress up as a woman and say that she loved Kevin and loved him too deeply.

Forget it; no matter what others thought, she never cared what others thought.

Anyway, she told the truth—that she was a woman—and everyone believed it or not.

When they arrived at the host's house where the banquet was held, the large villa was filled with all kinds of luxury cars parked inside and outside, and the door of the villa was open.

Someone was in charge of directing the distinguished guests to park at the gate of the villa.

There were also people inside who were responsible for greeting the guests who were coming to attend the banquet tonight.

Even Hayden was honored to attend the banquet, which showed that tonight's banquet was a big one, and the people attending were all well-known people in Jensburg, and the host family who hosted the banquet had a very high status in Jensburg.

Otherwise, Hayden would not show appreciation.

The Maybach that Hayden often used was very familiar to people in Jensburg's upper-class society.

Seeing Hayden's car approaching, the person at the door quickly came over to greet her and then directed the driver to drive the car into the villa, where there was a parking space.

The guests who came first gathered in small groups and chatted, either in the gorgeous main hall or in the courtyard, where the lights illuminated the courtyard like daylight.

When the host heard that Hayden was coming, he quickly brought his family to welcome her.

Who knew that after they saw Kevin get out of the car, he quickly walked around the car and came to the other side of the car? Then the door opened, and the person who got out of the car was a noble and glamorous woman.

She was tall, but she didn't pull her hair up or wear it long like others. Her hair was very short, as short as a man's.

When she got out of the car, everyone saw her feet stretched out on the ground. She was wearing leather shoes, not the high heels commonly worn by ladies and rich ladies.

Kevin was considered a noble and glamorous woman.

Had Kevin changed his mind about love? Finally returned to normal and no longer liked Hayden, but fell in love with a woman?

When the noble and cool woman looked up, everyone was shocked. Some people were so surprised that they let go of the wine glasses they were holding, causing the glasses to fall and the wine to splash all over the floor.

For a moment, they heard the sound of many wine glasses falling to the ground.

–That noble and cool woman was none other than the Young Master Queen!

–Mr. Queen!

The dream lover of a rich young lady in Jensburg.

Shamelessly pestered by Kevin, Young Master Queen finally couldn't resist the fierce entanglement of Young Master York and finally got together with Young Master York, and the two became an openly homos*xual couple.

How many people could often see Kevin fawning, caring, and doting on Young Master Queen?

Unexpectedly, Kevin actually had the ability to convince Hayden to disguise himself as a woman!