

Married At First Sight Chapter 2926

Married At First Sight Chapter 2926-Only Jasmine had almost no contact with Carrie. She only knew Carrie's name but not who she was, and she had no feeling at all.

"I went back to the store and said, It's cold standing here. It's not raining hard, but it feels very cold when it rains."

Serenity took Camryn's arm, then took Jasmine, and the three of them returned to the cashier and sat down.

"I'm going to get you two a glass of water. My mouth feels dry after eating the sesame pancakes. The specialties from my hometown that Mr. Charles sent are really good. The more I eat, the more addicted I am." Jasmine said this while going to pour water.

Serenity smiled and helped Camryn sit down. Camryn said, "Seren, I can see it."

She could not see before, but she could move freely in familiar surroundings.

Knowing that she needed to be in a familiar environment to move freely and like a normal person, at that time, Callum always called Spring Blossoms, ordered flowers, and asked her by name to send her to the York Corporation.

She thought Callum was making things difficult for her.

Later, Callum said that he had always treated her as his wife. He wanted her to familiarize herself with the route to him and his world, so he kept calling her to send flowers.

Just knowing that she could act like a normal person in a familiar environment.

Serenity said, “You haven’t recovered safely yet. I am your sister-in-law and a friend. You are here with me. If I can’t take care of you, Callum will come to settle accounts with me. Let’s forget it. The most afraid thing is that he will stop you and won’t let you come and play with me again.”

Camryn said deliberately, “He dares! If he dares to do that, I will pull his ears.”

Serenity smiled and said, “Have you ever pulled his ears?”

Camryn: “...No.”

Serenity laughed.

Camryn was very gentle and generous in front of Callum. Her cold side was rarely shown to Callum, even though Callum knew that she was not as gentle as she appeared.

It’s one thing for him to know; it’s another thing for her to show it or not.

“What are you talking about? You’re smiling so brightly. I just walked away and gave you two a glass of water, and then you said something funny. Please tell me and let me laugh too.” Jasmine poured a glass of warm water for each of the two people and asked them while putting down the two glasses of water.

“Jasmine, have you ever pulled Josh’s ears?” Serenity asked her with a smile.

“He didn’t mess with me. Why did I pull his ears? Have you ever pulled your husband’s ears?” Jasmine asked in return.

Serenity laughed and said, “We are just talking about pulling our husband’s ears.”

Jasmine: “I thought you two were chatting so happily about something, but it turns out this is what you were talking about. We are both reasonable people, and we won’t do things that tug at our ears. There is no need to laugh. Laughing so loudly, you two have never done anything like that.”

Camryn smiled and said, “That’s right, we are all reasonable people. Seren, do you think you feel familiar when you see the woman just now?”

Serenity hummed, “This is not the first time she has come here. She came here again yesterday, also to buy information. At that time, I felt that her figure was familiar. She gave me a sense of familiarity, but looking at her face, it’s not someone I know, so I specifically asked Zachary about this, and he said that he never pays attention to young women, and I don’t know if there is such a person in our circle.”

“I can’t remember who the familiarity she gave me came from. Camryn, who do you think she looks like?” Serenity asked Camryn.
