

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3031-It wasn't until Camryn came to Rylee's side that Rosella averted her eyes.

Her friend said to Rosella, "It looks like you are very precious to your daughter-in-law. You are only ten meters away, but you are still afraid that she will fall."

Rosella smiled. "She is our treasure. In the York family, daughters-in-law are treasures that the entire family holds in their hands and cherishes. My son, Callum, didn't get a wife until he was thirty. It was not easy. I only have one daughter-in-law now, so I feel more pain. She is very precious."

Rosella made no secret of her satisfaction and love for her daughter-in-law, Camryn.

The friend smiled and said, "The men in your family are famous for loving their wives, and the women are famous for loving their daughters-in-law. I don't have a daughter. If I had a daughter, I would have to rely on your family and have them become my in-laws. This is the first time your daughter-in-law has attended a banquet openly. She is not afraid of the stage and is elegant and generous. I believed that her own mother would adopt her.

"The first time I met your daughter-in-law, she was giving her sister a bouquet and was making things difficult for her. Your eldest nephew-in-law helped her out."

Rosella said, "Thanks to Serenity for helping her out at that time, her mother and sister are nothing."

Thinking of what Mrs. Newman had done to her eldest daughter, Rosella's friend said, "Your daughter-in-law is also very pitiful. We are all mothers. If it were us, we would never be able to do this. Even if she doesn't love her husband, her daughter was born to her after ten months of pregnancy. How could she be so cruel as to hurt her own daughter?"

Rosella said, "My daughter-in-law has not had a good life in the past twenty years. For the rest of her life, she can live like a queen."

Their in-laws lavished them with attention!

“I see that many people seem to dislike your daughter-in-law.” Rosella’s friend said this very quietly. So as not to be listened to by others.

Rosella said, “What other people think of my daughter-in-law is up to other people. No matter how good or outstanding a person is, there will always be people who don’t like her. My daughter-in-law doesn’t care and doesn’t mind, as long as our family doesn’t dislike her. For her, others are others. No Relevant.”

Rosella looked at her friend again and asked, “You don’t mind that my daughter-in-law was once blind, do you?”

Rosella’s friend said, “How could it be? I don’t know how much I envy you. Your daughter-in-law is much better than my daughter-in-law. My daughter-in-law only knows how to spend money and has no vision for investment. Unlike your Camryn, who is so relaxed and can take over Newman’s business, what’s wrong with her being blind? She has good character, an upright outlook, and ability. She is better than countless people. People who dislike her are jealous of her, jealous of her excellence, and jealous of her luck.

Your son, Callum, is also very popular with women. Many women have developed feelings for him, but you are unaware of them. Seeing your son and daughter-in-law loving each other will make others jealous of her.”

Rosella smiled and said, “Let them be envious, jealous, and hateful. Women from our York family have always been the objects of envy, jealousy, and hatred by others.”

Rosella’s friend couldn’t help laughing and said with a smile, “That’s right, that’s right, the women in your family are all enviable and jealous. In the past, others were jealous of your eldest nephew’s wife, Serenity, and some were unscrupulous. They called your sister-in-law and wanted to teach her, but your sister-in-law retorted. After the news came out, no one dared to preach to Serenity anymore.”

Rosella said, “That person is a b*tch. What qualifications does she have to preach? None of us elders have said a word about serenity out loud. Why should outsiders accuse Serenity of being wrong? My sister-in-law has a good temper. If it were me, I would just come to her door and slap her hard.”

Rosella’s friend said, “Yes, yes, those people are just mean-mouthed. To put it bluntly, they are just jealous. Don’t worry about them.”

“Who has the leisure to care about them? They don’t want to be mean and come over to them. They don’t even bother to talk to them.”

Camryn didn’t know what her mother-in-law was talking about with her friend. She went to Rylee’s side, and Rylee brought her food and a glass of red wine.

Camryn declined the glass of red wine, saying, “Rylee, I can’t drink now. I have to take medicine every day; I can’t drink, and I need to pay attention to my diet.”
