

Married At First Sight Chapter 3112

Married At First Sight Chapter 3112-If Matriarch Farrell didn't take care of Marco, she left him to take care of him. Wait; sooner or later, she would take care of this sc*mbag.

Kathryn said seriously, "Brother! If you didn't fool around with Shiloh and do that kind of thing, how could my sister-in-law contact Shiloh's family to pick her up? Additionally, my sister-in-law notified Shiloh's family to come over. It was my mother's request. If you have the guts, go to my mother to settle the account. Why are you blaming my sister-in-law?"

Are you distressed when Shiloh dies? Yes, you have always loved her. In your hearts, Shiloh is your sister. Who am I, your biological sister? But Shiloh is not your sister! Brother, my sister-in-law is your first wife, and she will live with you for the rest of her life. You still have several children, and your children are growing up. If you treat my sister-in-law like this, are you worthy of my sister-in-law and her children?

Mom helped you by keeping others in the dark about your role in Shiloh's death. You only blame other people; why don't you think about your own fault? If you didn't cheat on her or mess around with Shiloh, why would my sister-in-law come to settle accounts with you? Shiloh wouldn't die either, so his death was your fault.

Why do you want to seek justice for Shiloh? Want to avenge Shiloh? If you really want to take revenge, go to the place where Shiloh fell and jump down. Even if you have avenged Shiloh, because really, you were the one who killed Shiloh!

I know you all feel sorry for Shiloh. You can't see that Shiloh is penniless and has no fixed place to live. If you secretly support her, even if your mother and sister-in-law find out, the most they will do is scold you and make a fuss. As for the fuss, is it like this now?"

Marco was speechless.

Marco asked, "Kathryn, who gave her the photos your sister-in-law brought over last night? The only person who can secretly take those photos, besides Mom, is yours. It's not me. I don't have the time to care about your affairs."

Kathryn clarified the relationship: "That was a photo taken by Mom's assistant. He gave it to Mom. Mom was very angry. She didn't even eat last night. After that, Mom called my sister-in-law back, gave the photo to her, and asked her to deal with. Also, think about it: why did Mom's assistant take so many photos? Are you too excessive and arrogant, leaving the doors and windows open and deliberately letting people peek in and take photos?"

Marco opened his mouth to say something, but suddenly he remembered what happened when he was with Shiloh. She always had to open the window and draw the curtains. She did it on purpose!

"Marco, Shiloh is taking revenge on Mom, taking revenge on you! So she did it on purpose. She knows what Mom is capable of. If she does it on purpose, Mom will know it soon. She will use this to retaliate against Mom and make her painful, which makes her angry.

Once upon a time, she was my mom's most beloved daughter, and you were her eldest son. Although she has always been succeeded by the daughter of the head of the family, you are my eldest son and first child. Your place in her heart is certain. You two fooling around is a huge blow to Mom."

Marco's face turned pale.

"Brother, if I were you, I would quickly apologize to my mom, my sister-in-law, and promise not to do it again in the future. You are already old, and your children are grown up. You are shameless, but you must also save some face for your children.

Only my sister-in-law can tolerate you. If it were anyone else, I wouldn't know where to kick you."

Marco's face turned red. After a long time, he said in frustration, "Now your sister-in-law has asked me for divorce. This time, she is serious about it. She is very calm, no longer crying or making trouble, and she quietly asked me for divorce. She has already written the divorce agreement, and it is fair. She does not take advantage of me, but she must not miss a penny of what is hers. Today, your sister-in-law moved back to her parents' house."

After Kathryn was silent, she said, "You brought it upon yourself and ruined your marriage. Since my sister-in-law wants a divorce, if you don't want to make it too ugly, you can just sign the divorce. My sister-in-law will help you and let you be single again. If you want to stay up all night from now on, no one will care about you, and no one will urge you to go home.

You are now free to be romantic with any beautiful woman you want. No one will blame you. How wonderful. Brother, if you are still a man, hurry up and go through the divorce procedures with my sister-in-law.”
