

Married At First Sight Chapter 3130-Tatum added, "I'm still young, and I'm not in a hurry to start a business. I heard about Ormond's job as a chef. It's very challenging. It's a job that could test my cooking skills. Being able to join Ormond's will bring me a little fame. It will help me whether I am looking for a job or starting a business in the future."

After finishing speaking, Tatum asked Enrique, "Mr. Tran, do you think so? Are you here for the challenge and fame like me?"

Enrique was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, "Yes, being able to join Ormond's family as a chef is quite famous."

"Me too. I also hope that the salary and benefits provided by the Ormond family are good. I need money."

Tatum nodded in understanding, thinking that the Ormond family's salary was comparable to that of senior white-collar workers in large groups.

The waiter brought the coffee and several snacks requested by the three people.

Emery tried the snacks first. She ate them slowly, as if trying to taste the ingredients inside.

Tatum guessed that this young girl liked to make snacks.

The dim sum at this hotel was so delicious that she wanted to rely on her sense of taste to taste other people's ingredients and then go back and study it herself.

She often did this too.

She studied cooking and had great tastes.

"Dad, the dim sum here is really good; you can try it."

Emery said to her father and then called Tatum, "Mr. York, you should try it too."

Tatum declined her kindness, saying, "I don't like desserts."

As a result, snacks were his least favorite.

In the morning, he passed the preliminary test using the snacks he was least good at. Tatum was full of confidence for the retest tomorrow.

If he failed in the re-examination...

Tatum was silent, and he wanted to learn from Enrique. If he failed once, he would come twice or three times, and he would always succeed in breaking into the Ormond family's mansion.

This way, he could pass the tower near the water and get the moon first.

First, get to know Elora well, figure out her character, and see if she is worth pursuing, marrying, and spending the rest of his life with.

However, with such a picky mouth, if he really has a wife who will live a lifetime, he may need to study new recipes all the time in order to make his wife eat for a lifetime. Well, this one is even more challenging!

Enrique tasted the snack, nodded, and said, "It's pretty good. It has an advantage over what you made. Taste it well and explore it yourself when you go back."

Emery nodded.

Influenced by her father, she also liked to study cooking skills, but she was still too young. No matter how studious she was, her abilities were limited.

This time, she accompanied her father to take the exam because she wanted to see the world.

It's a pity that she couldn't follow her father when he was taking the exam.

She could only wait at the gate to Ormond's manor.

For the first time, she saw the luxury of a truly wealthy family. Ormond's house was a manor that covered an extremely large area. She couldn't go in. Even when she looked out the door, she felt luxurious and majestic.

Some people were really born with a silver spoon in their mouth.

Emery was fiercely envious of Miss Ormond.
