

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3148-Sonny said playfully, "I miss Aunt Jasmine more."

Because of serenity, he also had feelings for Jasmine.

Serenity often took Sonny to bookstores. Jasmine would take him to buy delicious food and take him to shopping malls to buy many things. Therefore, he liked Jasmine more than Josh.

"You little heartless one."

Josh pinched his mouth again, then put him down, smiling and saying, "Uncle Bucham is not free now. First, you and your aunt go play with your uncle. The weekend is off, and I call your Aunt Jasmine to take you out to play."

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you.Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Sonny: "Uncle Bucham, do you mean what you say? You can't coax children."

Children all liked to go out and play, and Sonny was no exception.

Josh smiled. "When did Uncle Bucham lie to you?"

Sonny thought for a while, and it seemed that Uncle Bucham had not deceived him.

Josh said a few words to Duncan and then left with several senior managers.

A few minutes later, Serenity and others appeared in the president's office.

Sonny acted coquettishly toward Zachary again. After being coquetish for a while, Serenity lifted him to the sofa so he could read and write.

Duncan and Zachary did have a project to discuss, so Serenity didn't bother them and stayed with Sonny.

She first sent a message to Liberty, asking her if she was free.

Liberty quickly replied to her, "Let's talk in the evening."

Serenity knew that Liberty was very busy.

Additionally, Liberty's Jensburg-based company had just begun operations, and the initial stages were challenging. Liberty had to do business everywhere. Even if Liberty's company is backed by three major groups, she still needs to run it so that business can come to her.

Leaning on the back of the sofa, Serenity's eyes fell on Sonny, and her thoughts had long wandered to who knew where.

Serenity remembered that Ms. Girard had just had a son who was two years old when her husband died. When her sister divorced, Sonny was also two years old.

Ms. Girard took over her husband's business and went from a housewife to the strong woman she is today. It took her several years, and she suffered a lot.

If Ms. Girard hadn't come up with Duncan's idea and it was merely a matter of business cooperation, Serenity would be quite fond of her.

Even if Ms. Girard really becomes a love rival with Liberty, putting aside emotional matters, she still has something worth learning and appreciating from Liberty.

"What are you thinking about?" Zachary's gentle voice reached Serenity's ears.

Serenity came back to her senses and looked at Zachary. Duncan was no longer in the office, and he was alone.

Serenity asked, "Where's Brother Duncan?"

"gone back."

Zachary sat down next to Serenity, and, as a habit, he touched her belly first, which contained the crystallization of their love.

He looked at it every day and felt that Serenity's belly had not changed much. Others said that Serenity's pregnancy was very obvious.

“Just now Duncan told you that he would leave first, but you didn’t react at all. I don’t know what you were thinking. Can you tell me? Is it a business matter?”

Sonny put the book away, stuffed it back into his bag, stood up, turned around, and plunged into Zachary’s arms.

“Uncle, give me a hug.”

Zachary hugged him lovingly.

Serenity said, “I’ll tell you tonight.”

Zachary guessed that Sonny couldn’t hear what she wanted to say.

He was curious in his heart. What was going on that she didn’t want her most beloved nephew to hear?