

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3286-It turned out that Elora was going on a business trip.

Tatum responded respectfully again: "Miss, I understood."

Joly spoke at this time: "Eldest lady, you are going on a business trip; why don't you take Tatum with you?"

Elora has such a picky mouth. If she is on a business trip, it will be difficult for her to find food that she can eat. It is best to travel with a private chef. In the past, Elora rarely traveled on business.

Elora was silent.

Tatum tidied up silently. He murmured in his heart, 'If she is so picky, she will be hungry even if she travels far away.'

After thinking for a few minutes and still thinking about this, Elora said softly, "Then Tatum will tidy up after he goes back. Come over at five o'clock in the evening and go on a business trip with me. Uncle Joly, don't tell anyone except my family that Tatum went on a business trip with me."

Elora feared that if others found out that she was on a business trip with a young private chef, they would make irresponsible remarks and spread various rumors.

Even if everyone in Annenburg knows that Elora is picky, hiring a chef for the Ormond family's main house can make it look like a chef contest.

There were still many villains who liked to gossip behind their backs.

"Miss, don't worry, I will keep it secret." Joly promised to be authentic.

He would do everything Elora asked him to do.

Elora said, "In the past few days, when Tatum followed me on a business trip, he let others take over his work."

There wouldn't be just one chef.

Elora was the only one in the family who was so picky. When Elora was not at home, the Ormond family could eat the food cooked by other chefs.

After all, everyone who could work as a chef in Ormond's family had worked as a chef in a five-star hotel.

His cooking skills wouldn't be any worse.

"Don't worry, Miss. I will arrange everything properly. It may just make Young Master Alonzo unhappy for a while. I'll explain it to him clearly, and he will understand."

Despite his family's affection, Alonzo never dared to act inappropriately when Elora came up. He had to understand, even if he didn't want to.

Mentioning Alonzo, Elora smiled and said, "He will be at home during the winter vacation next week and can eat every day. Tatum, don't always give in to Alonzo, or he will become chubby after the winter vacation."

Tatum flashed his little brother-in-law's face in his mind and said, "Eldest lady, I will prepare three meals a day strictly according to your meal time." I will not let Young Master Alonzo be too indulgent."

Finally, he added, "Children are actually very cute when they wear some baby fat."

As long as they're not extremely fat, it's fine.

Tatum could make snacks for his future brother-in-law, Alonzo, that were delicious but wouldn't make him gain weight easily.

Elora: "If I'm not at home, Alonzo will be unscrupulous. He is a foodie."

"Young Master Alonzo knows how to enjoy delicious food." Tatum believed that foodies were the best companions for chefs like them.

Alonzo was a kid who knew how to enjoy delicious food.

Tatum: "Eldest lady, you're not at home, and I am also on a business trip with you. Young master Alonzo can't be arrogant, even if he wants to."

Elora stopped talking.

Tatum put away the tableware, and Joly quickly wiped the coffee table twice.

After making sure it was wiped clean, the two individuals respectfully exited the president's office without disturbing Elora's lunch break.

After the two individuals went out, Elora sat for two minutes, then got up and walked to the lounge.

For someone sitting in her position, it would be great if she could rest for twenty or thirty minutes at noon.

Because Tatum went to the company cafeteria to cook, he was not worried about others stealing his skills. The chefs had never thought of doing this in the past, but they were afraid that the chefs in the cafeteria would steal their skills, so they never did it.

Tatum's doing this not only made her feel comfortable eating, but it also gave her more time for a lunch break. If she slept for an extra ten or twenty minutes, her mental state would be different in the afternoon.

Tatum, the chef, was a wise hire.
