

Married At First Sight Chapter 3355

Married At First Sight Chapter 3355-Duncan said, "Sonny seems to be on winter vacation next Tuesday. When he has vacation, I will take him there again, and then when you have your annual vacation, we will go back to Wiltspoon to celebrate the New Year together.

I'm going over; let's go look at the house. You are going to develop in Jensburg in the future, so let's buy a house so that we don't have to stay in a hotel when we go there."

Liberty said, "Don't be in a hurry to buy a house. Wait until I'm stable. I can't afford that much money now."

However, Duncan didn't like living in a suite.

Sonny was still young, so if Liberty lives in a suite, Sonny will run around and be easily complained about by people upstairs and downstairs.

Before Liberty was divorced, she was often complained about by the residents downstairs. Every time she was complained about, Hank would criticize her and tell her to watch out for Sonny and not let Sonny make such a big noise.

A child is not sensible. If you want him to make no movement at all, that is impossible.

Even when adults do things, they make noise. For example, when making dumplings or chopping stuffing, it will be very noisy. Or walking a few steps in high heels will make people downstairs feel noisy.

Before buying Zachary's villa, it was better for Liberty and Sonny to rent a house. Sonny was already in kindergarten. After kindergarten, they would go here and there, and they would take a shower and sleep when they got home at night, so they would not disturb others.

Duncan was used to people living in big villas. He said that when buying a house, he will definitely not buy a suite but a villa. Liberty really had no money left to buy a villa.

Her company had just been established, and even though it had talked about a lot of business, the payment for the goods had not yet been received, and money still needed to be invested to ensure the normal operation of the company.

She held shares, so there was no way she wouldn't invest any money.

She just bought a villa in Wiltspoon and had no plans to buy a new house for the time being.

Duncan said, "You don't need to pay; I will buy it. From now on, we will be a family after we get married, and the house will be our place to stay in Jensburg."

They couldn't get the certificate two years ago, and they will get it after the year.

After receiving the certificate, they were husband and wife. When he and Sonny came over, they naturally did not want to stay in a hotel but wanted to live in their own house.

A family of three is happy.

Duncan felt very happy just thinking about it.

Duncan said, "Since it is our home, of course you must like it."

Liberty was silent for a moment and then said, "Sonny went to Annenburg to play with Titus during the winter vacation. We can talk about buying a house after the New Year. The New Year is only one month away now, so we have to look at houses that are suitable. It's very tight on time. Sonny is going to Annenburg. I thought he would be eager to come find you during the winter vacation."

Duncan smiled and said, "That kid is just playing; he doesn't even think about his mother."

Liberty also laughed, "Jensburg is too cold. If he comes to play for two days, he will feel very fresh when he sees the snow. If he lives here for a while, he will feel cold. Staying at home every day will make him bored."

If a three- or four-year-old child is asked to stay in the house every day, he will not be able to stay.

When he went out to play and it was cold, he didn't want to come over.

Liberty said, "I don't want him to come over either. When he comes over, even if you help me watch him, I'm still distracted and can't concentrate on my work. I'm also very busy at the end of the year."

Duncan hummed, "Then I'll arrange things in the company and go over there. Sonny will go and play with his friends. It just so happens that we can live in a two-person world."

Liberty's face was stained with red clouds, but of course Duncan couldn't see it.

Liberty said, "Didn't you say you would wait for me to come back from my annual vacation? You don't have to come over. I'm really busy, and your company is busy too. If you come over, I can at most have dinner with you and come back late at night."

Not long after the company was established, the Farrell Group, a powerful enemy, kept an eye on her and suppressed her at all times. She was under great pressure.

Duncan said, "I don't need you to accompany me. I can help with your company's affairs. When you go out to discuss business, I will help you manage the company. I have also invested in it. This is also one of my companies."

Liberty smiled and said, "Okay, you can come over if you want, but you have to promise me that you will continue to do rehabilitation even after you come over."
