

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3389-Old Mr. Jimenez said with relief, "I know that Serenity's husband is good. She married into the York family, so there is no need to worry about her. She will be better in the future. The old lady of the York family is a smart old lady."

"I heard Liberty is divorced. The son was given to her. I had someone investigate what her ex-husband did before I came here. He was the sc*m of the Brown family. He was shameless. It's just that Liberty is still so young, only in her early thirties, so she still needs to find a man to come to her house in the future. The head of the Farrell family always invites a man to live with her and never gets married."

Audrey arranged for Liberty to go to Jensburg, and Old Mr. Jimenez understood that Audrey would not compete for the position of head of the family but would let the next generation compete for it.

Serenity was the eldest lady of the York family. She was not suitable to be the head of the family. Even if the eldest master of the York family is willing to come, the Farrell family would be embarrassed to let him come.

Elisa is not married yet. In order to reassure Elisa, Remy said that he would be willing to be son-in-law.

The elders of the Johnson family were open-minded, and Old Mr. Jimenez knew that they were the relatives of the old miracle doctor.

Old Mr. Jimenez has never attended the weddings of his younger generations, but he always pays attention to their married lives.

Audrey said, "Liberty is in love with Duncan, the fourth young master of the Lewis family. The Lewis family has four sons. When Liberty really takes over the Farrell family, I think the Lewis family will not mind Duncan coming to visit."

Old Mr. Jimenez tilted his head to look at Audrey and said, "For this matter, it is better to test the attitude of the fourth young master of the Lewis family in advance to see what the Lewis family's attitude is. If a man like Clarissa's husband really came to Farrell's house, we outsiders would be able to see through what he was thinking for decades. The Lewis family is also a wealthy family, and their wealth may be even richer than that of the Farrell family."

Do Duncan's parents agree? If Liberty and Duncan are together in the future, the daughter born to Liberty must have the surname Farrell, and Liberty must also change her surname back to Farrell. Do they both agree? Ms. Audrey, I know you want to train

Miss Liberty, but you also need to ask the younger generation what they think and whether they are really willing to take over.

Clarissa has great power, but she is also subject to many restrictions. If you take over the position of head of the family, there will be many things that you cannot control.”

Audrey was silent for a moment, then said, “I’ll call Liberty later and have a good chat with her. I think it’s okay for Liberty to change her surname. As for Duncan, I’ll ask Mrs. Lewis out for a cup of coffee tomorrow.”

She represented the elders of Liberty’s family.

Mrs. Lewis was the elder. It would be nice to chat with her.

This is to avoid problems that arise when they are about to do something good.

Mrs. Lewis did not accept Liberty at first. If it were not for Duncan’s insistence, even though he had a car accident because of the quarrel and is still in a wheelchair, Mrs. Lewis would still not accept Liberty.

From a mother’s perspective, Audrey understood Mrs. Lewis.

However, she was Liberty’s biological aunt, and she was selfish, and she just hoped that her niece could be happy.

She didn’t want Mrs. Lewis to break up the couple again.

Old Mr. Jimenez hummed.

The downstairs was full of people.

Everybody was talking and laughing; it was really lively.

Serenity and others have become familiar with Bianca.

Serenity asked Bianca’s real name, but she didn’t tell her.

Since she didn’t say anything, Serenity and the others tactfully stopped asking.

Everyone had secrets.

Bianca might not want others to know her real name. She also said that she would only stay in Wiltspoon for two days, and after her master and others left, she would leave Wiltspoon, saying that she was not from Wiltspoon.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3390-Bianca didn't even want to tell her real name, so Serenity and the others didn't even ask where she was from.

Hearing Audrey reminding Old Mr. Jimenez to go down the stairs slowly from time to time, everyone stopped talking and laughing and looked up at the stairs.

Several young people wanted to help support Old Mr. Jimenez, but Old Mr. Jimenez smiled and said, "No need for you. I'm not so weak that I need help to walk."

Almost all of these young people were descendants of the family head.

Old Mr. Jimenez was quite pleased.

It was thought that the master's family was destroyed, but fortunately the two young ladies were found, and they also had descendants.

The head of the family did not perish.

Sonny had never met Old Mr. Jimenez before. After seeing Old Mr. Jimenez, he quickly crawled into his aunt's arms.

Serenity said to him softly, "Sonny, this is the great grandfather that your aunt told you about."

Sonny didn't say anything but looked at Old Mr. Jimenez with his bright, big eyes.

Old Mr. Jimenez sat down and greeted the old lady and others first.

The old lady asked with concern, "Brother, are you okay? You don't look very well. Doctor, you have to take good care of his body."

The old doctor said, "He came here early this morning. He didn't sleep well last night, so he doesn't look very well. Don't worry; my master and I are watching over him. He will be fine."

Nothing will happen in the short term.

Old Mr. Jimenez smiled and said, "I am very well. I am almost 100 years old, and I can still endure the hardships of long-distance travel. How can ordinary people have such physical strength and mental energy?"

He has been practicing martial arts since he was young, and he has a good foundation.

For decades, there have been miracle doctors helping to regulate his body.

Although he still suffered from illness and sequelae of the injury, he was able to endure.

He wouldn't fall until he found Audrey.

In fact, he was also afraid that he could not hold on.

Fortunately, God took pity on him and helped him find Audrey.

The old lady laughed heartily. "That's true. Brother, your physique is so good that I am very envious. Divine doctor, you must take my pulse carefully and prescribe some medicine for me to regulate my body."

The doctor said, "How else do you want to be treated? You are in your early eighties, and you often fly around to find wives for your grandsons. You are in good health and do not need any treatment. Don't waste my precious herbs. When you need my precious herbs, I will give them to you without your permission, provided that I can outlive you."

The miracle doctor felt that he might not be able to live longer than Old Lady York. This old lady was the healthiest old lady he had ever seen.

They were people of the same generation. Even if he is a doctor, when he gets older, sometimes he will feel that he can no longer do the job and should lie down.

But old lady York can fly around and choose wives for her unmarried grandsons.

"You should stop flying around to look for your grandson's wife. You've picked up all the good girls. You're not the only one with grandchildren in this world. There are many other people with grandchildren. Leave a few good girls for others."

The miracle doctor complained about the old lady's greed.

He wished he could pick all the good girls from all over the place and marry them all into the York family.

With such an old lady in the York family, the title of the richest person in Wiltspoon City can probably be passed down for several generations.

The plans made by the old lady were all for the long-term benefit of the York family.

The old lady laughed and said, "What can I do? I have nine pigs that don't know how to dig up cabbages. I have raised them so well. If I don't sell them, wouldn't it be a waste of my decades of training?"
