

Married At First Sight Chapter 3471

Married At First Sight Chapter 3471-“I was busy,” Elora replied to Tinsley.

“I know you’re busy every day, but can’t you take some time to call home in the evening? Everyone in the family is thinking about you, especially your brother, who keeps asking me when you will come home.”

In fact, it was because of Tatum’s good cooking skills.

Elora took Tatum away on a business trip, and it was like the sky was falling for the little guy.

Tatum was very friendly, and his cooking was delicious. The two young masters of the Ormond family especially liked Tatum.

Of course, they couldn’t tell this to their eldest sister, so they just said they missed her.

Elora knew what kind of person Alonzo was.

She smiled and said, “I’m afraid they are thinking about the food that Tatum made. They won’t be hungry even if Tatum is not around.”

There was more than one cook in the family.

Strictly speaking, Tatum was her personal chef.

It was thanks to her that the family could eat the dishes cooked by Tatum.

Other chefs may not be as skilled as Tatum, but they could still be comparable to the chefs of five-star hotels.

The people in the Ormond family were good eaters, but none of them were as picky as Elora. They could eat dishes cooked by other chefs just as well.

Tinsley said, “I really miss Tatum. I miss the snacks, soups, and dishes he made. Sister, how can he cook such delicious food at such a young age?”

Elora said, “He said that he has loved cooking since he was a child. This is his hobby. If it weren’t for his hobby, he wouldn’t have come to our house to be a chef.”

Every day, Tatum was full of energy and concentrated on studying various cuisines.

He would try to cook the same dish in various ways, so sometimes he would prepare the same dish for her as yesterday, and she would still be able to eat it because he used different ingredients and the dish would taste different.

Anyway, although it hadn't been long since Tatum became her personal chef, he was much better than the previous personal chefs. At least, she was not tired of the dishes he cooked, and sometimes she even looked forward to what surprises Tatum would bring her.

"Don't you miss him?" Elora teased Tinsley.

Tinsley said, "Sister, you're at it again. I've already said that I admire him purely, and I'm not in love with him. However, he's so outstanding. If I get to know him, understand him, and spend more time with him, I can't say whether I will fall in love with him or not."

Elora smiled and said, "Appreciation can be the beginning of love. He is really good."

"Tsk tsk tsk!" Tinsley kept making clicking sounds on the phone.

"Just say whatever you want to say, and stop tut-tutting here."

Tinsley smiled, "I'm afraid if I tell you, you will crawl over along the radio waves and strangle me to death. Why do I feel like you have only been on a business trip for a few days and have been alone with Tatum for a few days, but you have already started praising Tatum? Tatum's charm is really amazing; he can even conquer your pure heart."

"I am only discussing the facts and the people. Don't you think he is excellent? Or do you keep praising him in front of me, saying how excellent he is?"

"Tinsley!" Elora deliberately said with a serious face, "I'm officially warning you, don't joke about bringing Tatum and me together. I don't like it! I told you before, if you like him, I won't stop you. I will also find a way to help you get what you want and get the elders in the family to agree."

Married At First Sight Chapter 3472-Because Tatum was from Wiltspoon, which was too far away from them.

Elora knew very well that the elders in her family did not approve of her or her sister marrying far away.

Now the family business was mainly managed by her and Alonzo.

The third and fourth sisters were less capable and younger, so they were currently unable to take over the family business.

Unless her two younger brothers could take over the family business in their teens, she and Tinsley would have to work hard for the family.

She spent a lot of time and suffered a lot of grievances before she was able to gain a foothold in the business world and achieve her current status.

Tinsley smiled and said, "Sister, I also said that I really don't love Tatum. Let's not talk about these vague topics. Even if we have found out Tatum's background, we still don't know him very well. Why think so much? Have you had normal meals these days?"

Elora hummed, "Someone is chasing me to feed me, and my stomach feels much better. Don't worry about me. Just stay at home and take care of the company. If you have any questions, call me."

Tinsley said, "The Labbe family in the city next door wants to cooperate with us. The head of the family, Mr. Labbe, has come to me twice, but the negotiations were not very pleasant. I don't really like to cooperate with the Labbe family."

Tinsley continued, "I always feel that Mr. Labbe is not a good person, and I hate that when he looks at me, he has other intentions."

Elora's face darkened. "If you don't want to cooperate, there's no need to negotiate with them. The Labbe family has many scandals. Mr. Labbe is an ungrateful person. The family has undergone a major reshuffle. Moreover, even if Mr. Labbe is in the position of the head of the family, he is only an acting head.

He doesn't have the Labbe family's dragon totem, nor does he have the family head's special seal or token, so he can only be the acting family head. The family is not as united as it seems. They are just afraid of being killed by him.

Mr. Labbe is particularly lustful. He had tried to test me before, wanting to cooperate with us and making me his woman. He said he could divorce his wife and marry me, as if being his wife was a great blessing from heaven. He also said that if our two groups cooperated, we would be a powerful alliance and invincible in the business world."

The Mr. Labbe that Elora and Tinsley were talking about was the same Mr. Labbe who supported Carrie.

"After I rejected him, he wanted to suppress us in business to retaliate against us. After I fought back, he became obedient."

Elora rose to prominence as a woman and now supports the Ormond family. She was no pushover.

Mr. Labbe thought Elora was young and did not take her seriously. He wanted to cooperate in business and also wanted to take possession of the young girl. However, Elora taught him a lesson and made him realize that even though the Ormond family had few male members, the daughters should not be underestimated.

The Ormond family had always been the leading family. After Elora secured her position in power, she also had a strong network of contacts.

After Mr. Labbe was counterattacked, he realized that Elora was not someone to be trifled with, so he behaved himself for a few years.

Unexpectedly, when Elora was away on a business trip, Mr. Labbe made a comeback and wanted to persuade Tinsley to cooperate with him while Elora was away. He was still greedy and wanted to take advantage of Tinsley.

Tinsley was not a fool.

She didn't have the same authority as Elora, but she was just as smart.

Mr. Labbe's wishful thinking was going well, but it was about to fail.

"If he comes again, I will tell him clearly that I will not cooperate and I don't want to see him again."

Tinsley really didn't like the way Mr. Labbe looked at her.

He was old, but he acted like an old pervert.

The words sounded serious, but there was a hint of teasing in them.

That's why Tinsley was disgusted.

She couldn't help but complain to Elora.
