

Married At First Sight Chapter 3542

Married At First Sight Chapter 3542-Serenity turned her head to look at Lilian again and asked, "Lilian, when are you leaving for Wiltspoon? Tonight or tomorrow?"

Lilian answered frankly, "Tonight. Mr. Jimenez is eager to go home. He has been waiting for this day for decades. He can live until now because of that belief."

Serenity smiled, "How do I know you will go there? Your master is back. He can't leave as soon as he comes back. And Mr. Jimenez is old and has many underlying diseases. He can't be without a doctor. If your master doesn't follow him, you will follow. I can guess this without asking. Those old seniors will probably say goodbye tomorrow and say they are going home, but in fact, they are going to Jensburg."

No one told Serenity this. She guessed and analyzed it herself.

Lilian praised, "Serenity, you have a good brain, you are smart, and you know the overall situation. No wonder Young Master York loves you so much. Don't worry, it will be fine. You just need to believe that evil cannot defeat good. With me here, even if they are injured, I can save their lives. I guarantee that all the people you care about will be there, and they will all return to Wiltspoon to celebrate the New Year with you."

Jane figured out the matter and comforted Serenity, "Serenity, you can rest assured and take care of your pregnancy, don't worry too much. Apart from anything else, with a few seniors going there, nothing will happen. My eldest brother and sister-in-law don't seem to have anything to do recently. I will call my eldest brother later and ask him and my sister-in-law to go and see and join in the fun. My sister-in-law is the disciple of the thief senior. Knowing that the old man is going to Jensburg to join in the fun, my sister-in-law will definitely go."

Her brother and sister-in-law are not simple.

"Jane, thank you, but it's not necessary. Can't a little Clarissa deal with her?"

As long as Master Jimenez went there, it would be enough.

Those seniors were bored and went to watch the fun.

Jane said, "You're welcome. It's a small matter. If I don't tell my sister-in-law, she might blame me when she finds out. Anyway, she and my eldest brother are free now, and we love to join in the fun. If my husband and I weren't unable to leave, we would have wanted to join in the fun. I love to see the bad guys being punished, brought to justice, and everything they robbed returned."

The plot of being slapped in the face is very satisfying.

Jane has written novels before, but what she is worst at writing is the reversal plot of being slapped in the face. She can't write that kind of satisfaction. After experiencing so much, she thinks that if she writes a novel again, she should be able to write that kind of satisfaction of being slapped in the face. But now she has no time to write her novels. When her children grow up and can take over, she and her husband retire and live a leisurely life in retirement. Then she will have the time and interest to write again.

Lilian smiled and said, "Serenity, you don't have to be polite. Just join in the fun. Listen to Jane, have a good vacation here, eat when you should, drink when you should, do whatever you want, and be happy. Take good care of Sonny. When your sister comes back for the New Year, you can give her a chubby son. It's better than anything else."

Serenity couldn't help but smile, "If Sonny gets fat like a ball, my sister will have to worry. I have to control his diet and force him to exercise to lose weight."

To lose weight, she has to control his diet, move his legs, and stick to it.

The days when Liberty was losing weight were not easy. Especially at the beginning, she controlled her diet, and she couldn't adapt to it all of a sudden, and she was so hungry that she cried out.

When running, she couldn't run for a few minutes and she was out of breath. The success of losing weight depends on persistence, and it was also the blow of divorce that made her stick to it.
