

Married At First Sight Chapter 4234

Chapter 4234

Grandma had a different perspective—she believed that nothing lasts forever. The Johnson family was thriving now, but the future was unpredictable. Who knew if, one day, they might fall on hard times? It was better to be prepared.

“Learn as many skills as you can,” she always said. “If you ever face hardship, at least you’ll have the ability to take care of yourself.”

That was why their elders encouraged them to be well-rounded. They didn’t have to master everything, but they had to at least be competent in many areas.

Truthfully, Remy’s cooking skills hadn’t been great in the beginning.

But once he started liking Elisa, he found out that the man she once admired—Zachary York—knew how to cook.

Not wanting to be outshined, Remy secretly started practicing his cooking.

By the time he and Elisa officially got together, his cooking skills had improved tremendously. He could prepare meals and even make snacks, ensuring that the woman he loved always enjoyed her food.

Remy knew Elisa had let go of her feelings for Zachary once she realized he was married to Serenity. She had declared with pride, “I’m a Stone. I have money, looks, and an education. Why would I compete for a man?”

Letting go after years of infatuation had been painful, but she did it decisively. Her independence and strong spirit were what had drawn Remy to her in the first place.

Once he fell in love with her, he worked hard to prove himself—showing her that he was just as good as, if not better than, Zachary. He didn’t want outsiders to look down on her.

After all, Elisa had once admired the York family’s eldest son—the legendary businessman, a prince in the corporate world.

If the man she ended up with wasn't on Zachary's level, people who disliked her would surely mock her. She might not care, but Remy did. He wouldn't allow anyone to laugh at the woman he loved.

The Johnson family was just as powerful as the Yorks, both worth billions.

The fifth young master of the Johnson family was a perfect match for a daughter of the Stone family.

Once news of their relationship spread through Wiltspoon's high society, people were surprised. They never expected someone as fiery as Elisa to be truly cherished by the Johnson family's fifth young master.

Some even speculated that Elisa, with her strong personality, would remain single forever after giving up on Zachary...

But fate had other plans. When fortune smiled on her, it did so generously. Many envied her happiness, though they wouldn't admit it.

Elisa, however, never cared about others' opinions. She lived life on her own terms. Her only concern was her happiness.

"No wonder Grandma and Grandma York are such good friends. They think alike," Elisa mused. "Grandma York still stays at your house, and every time she sees your niece, she can't stop doting on her."

She motioned for Remy to continue cooking, watching with a heart full of joy.

Remy chuckled. "The York family hasn't had a daughter for generations, so Grandma York is obsessed with little girls. And my niece? She's absolutely adorable—smart, sweet, and lovable."

Even when he went home, he couldn't resist holding her.

Scarcity makes things more precious.

Though the Johnson family did have daughters, they were still rare. Naturally, Avah was cherished by everyone.
