

Married at First Sight [On-Going]

Chapter 4493

Serenity said, "...Milo is only six. He's at that age where all he wants to do is play. Josh really doesn't need to stress out so much."

"As soon as summer break started, he made so much noise I got a headache, so I sent him off to get some training."

Serenity smiled and didn't add anything else.

Anyone who's raised kids knows—it's not easy.

Zachary said, "Babe, I've got a lot going on today. Let's video call again after I get off work tonight."

Serenity replied, "Okay. If you get home early, I'll let you chat with the baby. If it's too late, we'll just talk, just the two of us."

Zachary smiled. "I'd rather talk to you anyway."

He waited for Serenity to ask for a kiss before finally hanging up, looking completely satisfied.

Zachary didn't bother going back to the conference room. The meeting was almost over, so why bother? Callum and Josh could handle the rest.

Feeling good, he got up and made himself a cup of coffee.

When his wife and kids weren't home, Zachary often worked late into the night. That way, when they returned, he could clear a few days to spend with them and take the kids out for some fun.

On weekends, he and Serenity loved road trips, bringing their two kids along to explore the world.

Maverick was only six but had already traveled to many places.

Bethany (nicknamed Belle) was the little darling of the York family. They only started taking her on longer trips after she learned to walk. Until then, she usually just played around the villa—which was spacious enough to keep her entertained.

During the school year, Zachary and Serenity lived in the city with Maverick so he could attend school more easily.

It wasn't that they didn't want to care for Bethany themselves, but the older ladies in the family couldn't bear to part with her. Plus, with both parents busy with work and Maverick in school, the elders were always worried about leaving Bethany with just a nanny.

So, Bethany mostly grew up under the care of her great-grandmother and the other elders.

Just as Zachary walked in with his coffee, Callum and Josh knocked and came into the office.

Seeing how much his mood had improved, Callum teased, "Big bro, you talk to my sister-in-law, and suddenly your mood does a complete 180."

Josh added, "Serenity's just taking the kids out for a few days, and you're already like this? When Jasmine takes Milo out, I hope she stays gone for ten days or more. That kid is too wild. During holidays, he wrecks everything and doesn't know how to put anything back together. I've had to lock away anything valuable—I'm scared he'll destroy it."

"He already broke one of my dad's antique collectibles. My dad was furious, but he didn't say a single harsh word to his precious grandson. But if I had broken it, he would've gone off on me. Now he won't even let me touch his antiques."

"Still, the damage was done. He made me pay for it. Said if I broke one more thing, I'd go bankrupt. I swear, Milo was smiling the whole time he caused that mess, completely clueless about how much I was suffering inside."

Josh really wanted to grab a clothes hanger and spank Milo.

Callum said, "Thankfully, my kid Cairo is only three. He hasn't reached the wild stage yet. But now that school's out, he's noisy at home too. He heard Baby and Belle went on a trip, and he's been begging Camryn to take him out too."

Although Callum married before Kevin, Camryn waited two years to have a baby. So their son is two years younger than Kevin and Hayden's twin boys.

Kevin and Hayden's twins are only a year younger than Maverick.

Tatum and Elora's son is the same age as Callum and Camryn's son.

Callum's son is three months older than Tatum's, and Evan's son is six months younger than both of them—currently two and a half years old. Elian's son is six months older than Bethany and is now two.

With so many little boys, whenever they got together, the place would erupt in chaos.

But the old lady loved watching her great-grandchildren play. No matter how rowdy they were, they always behaved when she was around.
