Chapter 4725

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said, “Zhan Wei, I’ve known you for so many years. I understand you and trust you. Don’t worry about what they say. I think they’re just jealous of us.”

“The woman is jealous of my good family background. I’m almost thirty, a single woman, and yet I can find a successful, handsome man like you.”

“The man is jealous of you, a migrant worker from outside the city, for me to appreciate you.”

Zhan Wei said, “They’re just jealous.”

“Of course I don’t care what they say, I’m just worried you might.”

“I don’t usually interact with them, so why would I care what they say?”

Zhan Wei felt relieved.

He knew those people would talk nonsense while he was in the bathroom, but thankfully Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) wouldn't listen.

"I have a business trip tomorrow. Let's go home and rest early."

"Okay."

Zhan Wei walked her home.

He planned to follow her to Wangcheng. He also needed to go home early to rest, pack up, and arrange company matters for Chang Xiao.

Chang Xiao knew that Zhan Wei was actually going to accompany Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) on a business trip to Wangcheng and that he would need to take care of the company in the short term. He regretted it so much that he went back to the company to eat melons, and ended up ruining his leisurely life.

The next day, Zhan Wei accompanied Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) on a business trip to Wangcheng.

At the same time, Mrs. Lan and her husband took the liberty to go to Youyou Villa, wanting to pay a visit to Old Madam Zhan.

The security guard on duty at the gate of the villa heard that they were distinguished guests coming from Yangcheng. Even though he didn't know that they were the parents of their future Seventh Young Lady, he didn't dare to neglect them and said to Mrs. Lan, "Please wait a moment. I'll call the housekeeper and ask him to tell the old lady." Mrs. Lan said, "Okay."

They had the audacity to come, unsure whether the old lady would be willing to see them.

After the security guard made the call, Mrs. Lan whispered to her husband beside her, "I wonder if Old Lady Zhan would be willing to see us."

After all, their daughter and Zhan Wei weren't even a couple yet.

They had the audacity to come.

Following the old man's orders, the couple, under the guise of a trip to Guancheng, were actually there to inquire about Zhan Wei's family background.

Upon their arrival, they learned that Zhan Wei was the seventh son of the Zhan family, the wealthiest family in Guancheng. The Zhan family had no real divisions, and the relationships between brothers, uncles, and nephews were harmonious, with cousins closer than many full brothers.

Therefore, they were all ranked together, with Zhan Wei as the seventh oldest.

After turning twenty-two, Zhan Wei, personally taken by the old lady to various high-society business events, officially entered the business world.

After a period of work at both the Zhan Group's branches and headquarters, gaining experience, he abruptly resigned from all his positions a few years ago, leaving Guancheng to seek work in Yangcheng.

He looked for work like an ordinary laborer, and no one connected him with the son of a multi-billionaire.

At most, they were amazed by his good manners and good looks.

Even the Lan family hadn't inquired about his family background, only knowing that this man was capable and had, in just a few years, propelled Yangtai into the ranks of Yangcheng's major corporations.

With his half-shareholding in Yangtai, Zhan Wei quickly became a rising star in Yangcheng's business world, possessing wealth, status, and good looks.

Because he was unmarried and had no girlfriend, he attracted many attention, including several women who had previously worked with Yangtai, but he politely rejected their advances.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4726

If Zhan Wei's cousin hadn't taken the children on a trip to Yangcheng, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and Zhan Wei's relationship wouldn't have changed so quickly. They might still be in a state of uncertainty about their feelings. But the change was truly swift.

Mrs. Lan, her husband, and her father-in-law all admired Zhan Wei. Since their daughter had feelings for him, they wanted to learn more about his family.

They had no idea Zhan Wei was the seventh young master of the Zhan family.

Only after arriving in Wancheng did they realize the Zhan family was both discerning and prominent, renowned for its excellent family traditions. How many girls wanted to marry into the Zhan family?

It wasn't the handsome sons of the Zhan family that attracted them, but their excellent family traditions.

The elders were open-minded and refrained from interfering excessively in their children's affairs.

After learning about the Zhan family from various perspectives, Mrs. Lan discussed with her husband a trip to Youyou Villa to visit the legendary old lady.

Having experienced many ups and downs, they had a good eye for people.

By truly interacting with the Zhan family, they could tell whether the rumors were true or not.

Since it concerns their daughter's happiness for the rest of her life, they cannot be careless, so they made the bold move to visit.

After the security guard called the housekeeper, the housekeeper quickly told the old lady about this.

The old lady, who had planned to go down the mountain for a walk, immediately gave up the idea of going down the mountain and ordered the housekeeper: "Quickly notify the security guard and ask Mr. Lan and Mrs. Lan to come in." The housekeeper got the reply and called the security guard on duty. The security guard immediately opened the gate of the villa and let Mr. Lan drive in.

They came to Wancheng for tourism and rented a car. The couple drove around the major scenic spots in Wancheng every day. In Mrs. Lan's opinion, the major scenic spots in Wancheng are not as good as their Yangcheng. Many of the historical sites in Yangcheng are real and have been left over from ancient times.

While many of the scenic spots in Guancheng are man-made, they still attract many tourists.

Tourism is booming not only in Guancheng but across the entire province. It's said to have the highest tourism revenue in the province.

Mr. Lan drove into the villa. A security guard rode up on an electric scooter and said, “Mr. Lan, follow me in your car. I’ll take you to the main house. The old lady is waiting there.”

“You’re lucky today. The old lady isn’t out. If she had, you’d be missing her.”

Even at her age, the old lady couldn’t stay home. She used to be able to roam freely, but now, under the strict control of the eldest son, she can only wander around the villa or the foothills.

The villa is large enough that sometimes when she’s wandering around, it’s difficult to find her. It’s unknown where she’s hiding, and she often doesn’t like to carry a cell phone.

She always says it doesn’t matter if she’s at home. If anyone needs her, they can call her on the villa’s loudspeaker, and once it’s on, the whole villa can hear her.

She heard it, and if she wants to come back, she will come back. If she doesn’t come back, it means she doesn’t want to get involved in that matter.

Mr. Lan was a little surprised and said, “The old lady is so old, does she still go out often?”

“The old lady goes to the foot of the mountain to chat with people almost every day. She usually chats for half a day before coming back. She hasn’t gone out much in the past two days because the young masters and mistresses have brought the young masters back.”

“The villa is lively, so the old lady didn’t go out.”

Mr. Lan said, ”

The old lady is in good health.” “The old lady is in good health, much better than other people of the same age. If it weren’t for the eldest young master taking care of her, the old lady would probably still be running around.”

After the security guard finished speaking, he motioned Mr. Lan to drive and follow him.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4727

Mr. Lan drove behind the security guard.

As they entered, the couple were stunned by the size and beauty of Youyou Villa.

They came from a wealthy family, and their own villa would be large by most standards, with beautiful surroundings.

But compared to Youyou Villa, it still pales in comparison.

Mrs. Lan said, “Old Lan, I didn’t expect the Zhan family’s old house to be more beautiful than any other scenic spot in Wancheng, and it’s also so large.”

“It’s only because the Zhan family is so large that they can afford such a large villa.”

Their Lan family could be considered large, but it still pales in comparison to the Zhan family.

It’s mainly because the Zhan family is so united that they live together without conflict.

“Fengchen Villa in City A is comparable to Youyou Villa. Both families are large and have excellent family traditions. No wonder they’ve been able to pass down their legacy for generations.”

A harmonious family brings prosperity. Both the Zhan and Jun families have achieved this.

“If Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) can really marry Zhan Wei, I will wake up laughing in my dreams.”

Mr. Lan said to his wife: “Our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is not bad either. It is a blessing for Zhan Wei to marry our daughter in his previous life.”

Although their Lan family is not as prosperous as the Zhan family, it is not bad either. Brothers, uncles and nephews are still very harmonious for the time being. The old man is still there. With him in charge, everyone can live in harmony.

Brothers, uncles and nephews often fall out over family property. If the old man divides the family property clearly and fairly, and everyone has no objection, there will generally be no falling out.

The old lady over there sat back on the sofa and told the housekeeper: “Call the second master and ask him and the second wife to come over.”

“Just say that someone from the Lan family in Yangcheng is coming.”

The housekeeper responded respectfully, and quickly called the second master Zhan and asked him to bring the second wife over.

“Grandma.”

Little Beibei came downstairs, having only just woken up. She ‘d played so hard the previous day and was so exhausted she went to bed early and had slept ever since.

The old lady had gone upstairs several times to see her great-granddaughter, but she couldn’t bear to wake her.

Serenity walked behind her daughter, constantly reminding her to go down the stairs slowly.

She wanted to carry the little girl downstairs, but she refused, insisting on going down on her own.

The one-and-a-half-year-old grasped the handrail and walked down the stairs, step by step, with great concentration.

The old lady’s face was already beaming with joy when she saw her great-granddaughter awake. She didn’t even sit down, but got up from the sofa and headed for the stairs. She stood there waiting for the little girl to come down.

“Grandma,”

Beibei said, her steps getting a little hurried as she saw the old lady waiting there.

“Beibei, don’t worry. Walk slowly, don’t fall,” the old lady also urged the little girl to walk slowly.

She then said to Serenity, “Tongtong, Beibei is still young. Don’t let her go down the stairs by herself. She might fall.”

“She insisted on going down the stairs. Let her walk for a while. It’s okay. I’ll watch her. I won’t let her fall.”

Her daughter is already a year and a half old and can go up and down stairs.

Her niece is only half a year older than Beibei and is also the envy of countless children, but she’s much more capable of taking care of herself.

Older is older.

Liberty's family of four stayed at the villa last night instead of going home.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4728

Yangyang went back to the Zhou family's house today. Duncan drove him there, while Niuniu went to the playground with a group of other kids.

Even though everyone went there often, they still liked to go there; the more people there, the more fun it was.

Yangyang's friends came over, and he said he'd just go back to have dinner with his father and then be back.

Long Ting wouldn't be staying long, after all, so he had to make the most of his time playing with his childhood friends.

After Long Ting left, he could stay at the Zhou family's for a few days, maybe even spend some time with his grandparents. The old lady said, "If she really fell, you'd be heartbroken."

Serenity smiled, "She's smart. She knows how painful it is, so she's very careful." It's not like the little girl hasn't fallen before. She fell countless times when she was just learning to walk.

The old lady was heartbroken back then, but she knew that children fall when they learn to walk, so no matter how much she felt, she didn't stop her great-granddaughter from learning to walk.

"Grandma."

Little Beibei finally finished walking up the stairs, happily reaching out to her great-grandmother for a hug.

The old lady smiled and picked up her precious great-granddaughter. Serenity wanted to help her.

"Grandma is not so old that she needs your help to walk."

The old lady didn't need her help. She carried little Beibei to the sofa and said to Serenity as she walked, "Someone from the Lan family in Yangcheng is here. I asked the housekeeper to notify your uncle and aunt to come over."

"Tongtong, you have been to Yangcheng and met Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s family

, right?" "I haven't seen her family. I was only there for a few days and took the children out to play during the day. I really haven't seen anyone else in the Lan family. But I have asked around and know that the Lan family has good character."

"Are they Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s parents?"

Serenity guessed, "Her grandfather is still the chairman of the company and he is old. He wouldn't travel so far to come here. Only her parents are retired and often travel."

"I heard Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) say her parents are her true love. She and her brother were given away as a gift when they topped up their phone credit. They said they grew up with their grandparents and look a lot like ours."

The old lady smiled and said, "That's probably her parents. They should have been here for a few days. Su Teng told A Yin a long time ago that someone was asking about our Zhan family, especially about the seventh brother."

"A Yin told me, and I knew it was Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s family. That guy hasn't called me in a long time. I guess he and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) are almost done."

The Lan family sent someone to Wancheng to inquire about the Zhan family, which means they're interested in a marriage, so they're trying to get the lowdown beforehand, so they can have a better idea.

"When I came back from Yangcheng, they were already in love. As long as two people understand their own hearts, their relationship can easily blossom."

Serenity sat down next to the old lady. "Grandma, should we tell my parents? And my third uncle and aunt and the others?"

"Where are my parents?"

Serenity was working from home today. After breakfast, she returned to her room and didn't pause until her daughter woke up and wanted to come downstairs.

Zachary went back to the company for a meeting.

Although his younger brothers had all returned with their wives, and two days together was enough, Zachary, as the head of the family, could not play for a few days like his younger brothers.

He still had to manage the huge Zhan Group.

“Ayin’s grandmother is not feeling well. Your father-in-law has accompanied your mother-in-law back to her parents’ home. He should not be back so soon.”

“Your third uncle and aunt should be at home, housekeeper, housekeeper.”

The old lady shouted, “Call the third son and his wife and ask them to come over and accompany the guests later.”

It was not possible for her, an old lady, to accompany the future in-laws for the first time. After all, she was old and would get tired after chatting for a while.

It was better to let her sons and daughters-in-law entertain them.

It was the grandson who was going to get married, and the sons and daughters-in-law were the parents. These things were what they should do.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4729

The housekeeper responded respectfully and quickly called the Third Master and his wife.

Serenity heard the old lady say that grandma was sick. While the old lady was entertaining Beibei, she called her mother-in-law. When her mother-in-law answered the phone, she asked with concern, “Mom, is grandma okay?”

Tang Junye replied, “It’s an old problem. It’s insomnia. I didn’t sleep well and I have a headache.”

“Tell grandma not to think too much. The elderly are light sleepers. If you think too much, you will easily suffer from insomnia and can’t fall asleep.”

Poor sleep leads to headaches.

She is so young, and sometimes she gets headaches just because she didn’t sleep well.

“I told her, and she said she wasn’t worried about anything, she just couldn’t sleep. We called the family doctor to check on her. It’s nothing serious; she’s had insomnia for a long time.”

“Tongtong, your grandma told you not to worry about her, she’s fine, and that you and Ayin should bring the two children to see her when you’re free.”

Serenity said, “Mom, tell grandma that in a few days, when Zachary is less busy, we’ll take the two children to see her and make sure she has enough to eat, drink, and have fun.”

The old lady of the Tang family wasn’t as strong as the old lady of the Zhan family. She was two years younger than the old lady, and she had trouble walking. She needed a wheelchair to get around, and she had two nannies to care for her.

Her hearing was also very poor, and she had to speak very loudly to hear her.

However, she was still very clear-headed, always thinking about her eldest grandson, Zachary, and looking forward to Zachary and his family of four visiting her.

Unfortunately, Zachary and his wife were busy with work, so they only visited once every ten days or half a month. Sometimes, when the old lady missed her children, Tang Junye and his wife would take their grandchildren back to her parents’ home to accompany Mrs. Tang.

The Tang family had no shortage of daughters, but Beibei was still treated the best there. She was the Zhan family’s darling, and Tang Junye’s only granddaughter. How could the Tang family dare to neglect her?

After making sure that Mrs. Tang was alright, Serenity hung up the phone.

“Grandma, I’ll take Beibei to get something to eat first.”

With such a distinguished guest here, it would be difficult to leave later. The old lady reluctantly handed her great-granddaughter to Serenity and said lovingly, “Take her to have breakfast. Her breakfast is still warming up in the kitchen.”

“Where are her brothers?”

Little Beibei asked about her brothers.

Serenity took her to the dining room and said with a smile, “Your brothers and sisters have already gone out to play. After you finish your breakfast, Mommy will ask the nanny to take you to play with your brothers and sisters, okay?”

Beibei nodded and responded in a baby voice, “Okay.”

In her eagerness to play with her brothers and sisters, Beibei ate breakfast much faster than usual.

When Mrs. Lan and her husband came in, little Beibei had already eaten and drunk her fill.

Serenity carried her out of the dining room and happened to see Mrs. Lan and her husband coming in with the housekeeper.

“Hello, Mr. Lan and Mrs. Lan,”

Serenity greeted politely.

Mrs. Lan’s eyes lit up when she saw the mother and daughter, and a natural smile spread across her face. “You’re Serenity, right? I often hear Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) mention you. Is this Beibei? Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) likes Beibei so much.”

“Beibei is so adorable.”

No wonder her daughter loved Beibei so much. At home, she often praised Zhan Wei’s little niece, Yuxue, for being adorable. Although only a little over a year old, she was incredibly smart. Hearing her sweet voice call her “Auntie” melted her heart. She said that seeing Beibei made her impulsively want a daughter.

Beibei was a trick designed to trick people into having daughters.

Seeing her, Mrs. Lan believed her daughter’s words. Zhan Wei’s niece was truly adorable, fair and tender, with delicate features, especially those big, dark, bright eyes like black grapes.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4730

Mrs. Lan asked Serenity, “Can I hold her?”

She hadn’t held such a small child in her arms for a long time.

Her own children were still unmarried and had children. She wanted to be a grandmother, but she was still dreaming. She wanted to be a grandmother, but she was still dreaming.

Serenity smiled and said, “Of course, Beibei, Grandma Lan wants to hold you. Can I hold you? This is your aunt Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s mother.”

Beibei looked at Mrs. Lan’s friendly smile and stretched out her hands for Mrs. Lan to hold her.

Serenity invited the couple to sit over.

Mrs. Lan carried Beibei and walked over to the old lady and sat down. She smiled and said to the old lady, "Old lady, we are sorry to bother you with our visit."

"This child is so cute," she praised Beibei.

Mr. Lan also greeted the old lady.

The old lady said kindly, "It is our honor that Mr. and Mrs. Lan are willing to come. How can we bother you? If I had known that you were traveling in Wancheng, I would have sent someone to invite you two to stay at our villa."

Mrs. Lan smiled and said, "That would be too much of a bother."

"We only recently found out that Zhan Wei is your grandson, so we took the liberty to come and visit."

The old lady said, "Old Seventh must have caused you a lot of trouble in your Yangcheng. When he comes back, I will scold him."

Mr. Lan said quickly, "No, Zhan Wei is very good and outstanding. We didn't know he was your grandson before. We all think that to be able to raise such an outstanding child, Zhan Wei's original family must be very good."

It really is.

"Old lady, Zhan Wei is really outstanding. We heard that he was trained by you."
Mr. Lan kept praising Zhan Wei's excellence.

The old lady laughed and said, "It's a good thing Old Seven wasn't here. If he were here, you two would be praising him all the time, and he'd be so proud."

"He's just so-so. Not outstanding, but not bad either. Just average, just passable. Your Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is the outstanding one. I've heard Old Seven mention her quite often."

"Tongtong came back from a trip to Yangcheng and told me about Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ). I haven't met Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) in person, but I really like her."

“Old Seven can only become more and more outstanding because of a rival like her. But in business, there are no permanent enemies. They’ll appreciate each other and eventually become partners, friends,” or even husband and wife.

The old lady found it difficult to bring herself to say this.

The Lan couple came to visit. Both families were aware of the two children’s rivalry and love, but they hadn’t spoken openly about it.

The old lady naturally wouldn’t speak openly about something that hadn’t yet materialized, fearing it would damage Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s reputation.

Old Seven, on the other hand, didn’t mind. Men, after all, have a thick skin.

Mrs. Lan smiled and said, “You’re too kind, old lady. Our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is still a little behind.”

Their Lan Group has been rooted in Yangcheng for decades, while Yangtai has been established for less than ten years. It almost went bankrupt two years after its establishment and was saved by Zhan Wei. Even so, it’s still less than ten years old.

Its foundation cannot be compared with their own, but under Zhan Wei’s leadership, Yangtai has become a major concern for the Lan Group and a mortal business rival.

So Zhan Wei is still better than their children.

This seemingly kind-looking but shrewd old lady is the mainstay of the Zhan family. All the children and grandchildren of the Zhan family have been raised by her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4731

“Mrs. Lan is too modest. After our Tongtong came back, she kept praising Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), saying how wonderful she was. Even our little Beibei adored her and let her hold her the first time they met.”

“Mrs. Lan doesn’t know that my great-granddaughter is very picky. Not many people can hold her.”

The old lady looked lovingly at Beibei, still held by Mrs. Lan.

Mrs. Lan smiled, “Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is very popular with children. Many children like to play with her and ask her to hold them.”

“Beibei is really adorable. Looking at her makes me want to be a grandmother. I’ll urge my little boy to get married and have children so I can have a granddaughter to hold.”

Mr. Lan couldn’t help but tease Beibei.

This little girl was truly adorable.

“Mom, I heard there were distinguished guests. We’re late.”

Second Master Zhan and his wife entered the room, followed closely by Third Master Zhan and his wife.

The old lady smiled, “Mr. and Mrs. Lan from Yangcheng are here.”

Mr. and Mrs. Lan both stood up.

After greeting each other and saying hello, everyone sat down again.

The two families had never met before and were unfamiliar with each other, but for the sake of their respective children, they found topics to talk about and quickly became familiar with each other.

The old lady warmly invited Mr. and Mrs. Lan to dinner, and they didn’t refuse.

They simply wanted to spend some time with the Zhan family and see if they were as easygoing as the rumors said.

The old lady also asked her second son and his wife to take Mr. and Mrs. Lan out to explore the villa.

Serenity left her daughter with the nanny to go play with her brothers and sisters, and she accompanied Mrs. Lan and the others on the tour.

Mrs. Lan admired the villa’s beauty and said, “We’ve been to Wancheng for a few days and found your Youyou Villa to be superior to any other scenic spot.”

Beyond the villas, the villa resembled a Jiangnan garden, its scenery breathtaking.

The second wife smiled and said, “Mrs. Lan, why don’t you stay at our villa for a few days? The children are home these days, and it’s bustling with activity.”

Mrs. Lan said, “That’s not a good idea. It’s too disturbing for you.”

She was willing to do so.

Staying for a few days would allow her to get to know the Zhan family better.

“What’s wrong with that? We won’t bother you. Our old lady would be very happy if you’re willing to stay for a few days. She loves crowds and bustle.” The Second Madam warmly persuaded her to stay. After Mrs. Lan exchanged a glance with her husband, she said, “Since the Second Madam is so welcoming, my husband and I will shamelessly stay at your villa for a few days.”

She glanced around and said, “Your villa is very large. You can’t explore it all in a short time. Staying for a few days is perfect.”

“That’s right. Since we’re here, we should have a good time for a few days. It’s settled. Let’s stay.”

The Second Madam turned to Serenity and said, “Tongtong, please call my housekeeper and ask him to prepare a guest room for Mrs. Lan to stay.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was the person that Lao Qi fell in love with. Lao Qi was the youngest in the second wife’s family. No one could compete with the Second Madam when she was hosting future in-laws.

“Okay.”

Serenity immediately called the young housekeeper from the second wife’s family and asked him to prepare a guest room for Mrs. Lan and her husband to stay.

“Now is the season when lotus flowers are in full bloom. Let’s go enjoy them.”

The Second Wife affectionately took Mrs. Lan’s arm and led her towards the lotus garden. She turned to her husband and said, “Lao Zhan, you can play chess with Mr. Lan in the pavilion next to the lotus pond.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4732

Second Master Zhan asked his future in-laws, “Does Old Lan play chess?”

Mrs. Lan took over, “He loves it the most. He always asks me to play with him at home, but I’m not very good at it. I always lose, so I don’t like playing with him anymore.”

“Old Master Zhan doesn’t want to play with him, and his son is busy at work, so he often can’t find a chess partner.”

Second Master Zhan smiled and said, “Then we can play a few games later.”

He called for chess to be delivered to the pavilion in the Lotus Garden.

When they arrived at the Lotus Garden, Mrs. Lan had admired the lotus flowers before. The Lan family also had some water lilies in the fish pond, but they didn’t have the space to support so many.

They were ordinary lotus flowers, but there were so many of them. Everywhere you looked, there were lotus flowers—some in full bloom, some about to bloom, some just beginning to show their tips, and some with only the pods left after the flowers had fallen.

“How beautiful!”

Mrs. Lan exclaimed.

The Zhan family was indeed a multi-billionaire family; their old house was magnificent.

“There is also a rose garden. Let’s go to the rose garden later. The flowers in the other gardens are very diverse.”

Mrs. Lan stood by the lotus pond. The lotus flowers were within her reach.

“When we came here, we saw many flower fields at the foot of the mountain. I heard that the flower fields at the foot of your mountain supply business to many flower shops.”

They haven’t even gone up the mountain yet, but Mrs. Lan thought the fields of flowers at the foot of the mountain were so beautiful.

When there is only one flower, you may not see its beauty.

When there are fields of flowers, it will feel particularly beautiful.

The second wife replied: “You have to ask Tongtong about this. She is now taking over the big and small matters of our villa.”

Serenity explained, “Many flowers for major flower shops in Dongguan City are indeed supplied by the flower fields at the foot of our villa, and flower shops in many neighboring cities also purchase from us.”

“With online shopping and livestreaming becoming so popular these days, and with so many online orders, our flowers are now being shipped all over the country.”

Serenity is the eldest daughter-in-law of the Zhan family. With Zachary as the head of the household, she naturally assumes the mantle of headmistress. Her mother-in-law is semi-retired, and much of the backyard business has been handed over to her.

She owns her own company and shoulders the family burden, which only makes her increasingly busy.

Fortunately, the household chores and business she inherited from her mother-in-law, meticulously managed by generations of head wives, have long cultivated a trusted management team. She only needs to check the accounts and occasionally inspect the business to assess its performance.

If it's not keeping up, she and the management team will need to adjust their strategies or switch lines of business.

She frequently interacts with the management team who manage the flower fields and has a deeper understanding of the business.

Mrs. Lan nodded and said, "Yes, now everyone is doing live broadcasts. Even our Lan family has a live broadcast room."

The times are progressing, and they have to keep up with the times.

Otherwise, it is easy to be eliminated by society.

The second wife took her future in-laws to the rose garden and finally to the children's amusement park, just because Mrs. Lan heard the children's laughter.

The second wife took her to the children's amusement park.

Mrs. Lan, a wealthy lady, was a little surprised by the wealth of the Zhan family.

Youyou Villa is big and beautiful, and it is well maintained. It is clean everywhere. It also has a children's amusement park specially built for children. Those with small homes cannot do that. A group of children are having fun in the children's amusement park. The younger ones have nannies with them, and the older ones, like babies, are sensible and do not need nannies to watch them all the time.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4733

Mrs. Lan watched the children playing and thought to herself, "The Zhan family truly is a wealthy and powerful family."

The children paused at the sight of a new face.

Mu Qing, Liberty, and the others sitting nearby also came over.

"Second Aunt,"

they all followed Serenity in addressing the Second Madam.

The Second Madam smiled, and Serenity introduced Mrs. Lan to her sister and friends.

Everyone greeted Mrs. Lan.

Mrs. Lan looked at Mu Qing and smiled, "So you're the daughter of the Wangcheng Lan family. I've heard of you, but I never had the chance to meet you. I never thought I'd meet you in person today."

She extended her right hand toward Mu Qing, who smiled and shook her hand. "Five hundred years ago, we were all from the same family."

Mrs. Lan smiled back.

The Wangcheng Lan family was more prestigious than the Yangcheng Lan family, with a longer family lineage.

However, after a period of internal strife, the Wangcheng Lan family weakened for a while until Lan Zheng ascended to the patriarchal throne. Within a few years, the family returned to its former glory.

The previous head of the Lan family, Mu Qing's biological father, and his wife's affairs were well known to many of the older generation.

During the internal strife within the Wangcheng Lan family, Mrs. Lan hadn't yet married into the family, but she had known her husband for a long time. She'd heard that the wife of the Wangcheng Lan family's head, after going insane for over twenty years, naturally recovered when she found her biological daughter.

She'd even told her husband at the time that if she ever faced a similar misfortune in the future, she wouldn't be able to handle it, as a child is a mother's weakness.

Today, the old head of the family, with his wife, now fully recovered, is traveling the world.

He's dedicating the rest of his life to making up for his debt to his wife.

When Mu Qing gave birth, her biological parents came back for a while, and when the child was one month old, they went away again.

Then when the current head of the family's wife gave birth, the old couple also came back, but they rarely came back after that, and they would regularly report to their children that they were safe.

The Jun family that Mu Qing married into was the richest family in City A and had close ties with the Zhan family.

Mrs. Lan was becoming more and more satisfied with the Zhan family.

"Ring, ring, ring..."

Serenity's cell phone rang.

It was Zachary calling back.

She answered the call, but before she could say anything, her face changed when she heard what Zachary said on the phone. She quickly turned around and walked away, whispering, "How is he injured?"

"The eighth brother said that the injury is not serious. I'm on the way to the hospital. You just need to tell the third and fifth brothers to come to the hospital first, and don't alarm the elders for the time being."

"How could he have a car accident? He drives very steadily."

The eighth brother had been in a car accident and was sent to the hospital.

After Zachary received the news, he left his work and rushed to the hospital. He also told his wife that Serenity was now taking over the affairs of the Zhan family and she should know about it.

The third and fifth brothers were still in the villa and would go back to work in two days.

"Okay, I'll go find them. You go to the hospital right away."

“Well, when the eighth brother called me, I heard what he said and he shouldn’t be seriously injured. Don’t worry. Just tell the third and fifth brothers and I won’t call them.”

“Okay.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4734

After ending the call, Serenity walked back and said to the second wife and the others, “Second Aunt, Zachary asked me to run some errands. You take Madam Lan for a good stroll. I’m going to run something first.” ”

Go ahead,”

Serenity said to her sister, “Sister, if Beibei comes looking for me, please help me comfort her.”

Liberty asked with concern, “What’s the rush?”

“It’s just a small matter. I’ll be back soon. Beibei has Niuniu to play with, so she shouldn’t cry.”

So many older siblings were playing with the little one.

Liberty assured her sister to go out without worry, saying she would take good care of her niece.

Yangyang loved to stay with her younger aunt when she was little, and now Beibei also likes to stay with her eldest aunt. If Liberty were around, it would be much easier for Serenity to go out; at least the little girl wouldn’t cry.

But Liberty was busy and couldn’t come back every week. Once a month was a good thing.

Even so, Beibei still remembered her eldest aunt.

Serenity hurried away. Once she reached a quiet place, she called the third and fifth brothers and sisters to tell them that the eighth brother had been in a car accident.

The eighth brother is from the third house, and is the younger brother of the third and fifth brothers. When they heard that their younger brother had been in a car accident, the two brothers were extremely anxious. They knew that the eldest brother had gone to the hospital, and now the eldest sister-in-law was also going to the hospital to check. The two brothers naturally had to go to the hospital as well, but they couldn't move too much, so as not to alarm the old lady.

The old lady was old, and if she heard such news, she would be anxious and worried. Who knows what would happen? Even though the old lady had experienced a lot of ups and downs, they couldn't take such a risk.

They went to the hospital first to make sure that the eighth brother had only a minor injury.

If the injury was not serious, there was no need to tell the old lady. Anyway, they usually lived in the city, and because of business matters, they often traveled and flew everywhere. Sometimes they didn't go back to the villa for several months.

The old lady usually just calls to check on her grandchildren, but she doesn't ask them to come back to the old house to accompany her often. Now that she has great-grandchildren, most of the people who accompany her are her great-grandchildren.

The grandchildren she raised have become the backbone of the Zhan family and don't have much time to accompany her.

When Serenity and her two brothers-in-law rushed to the Wancheng Central People's Hospital, the eighth brother Zhan Yue had already been admitted to the ward and had done a lot of tests. Some results came out, and some results have not yet come out.

The results showed that there was nothing serious, and the doctor asked him to be hospitalized for observation for a few days. Zhan Yue wanted to refuse, but when his eldest brother came, he glared at him, and he honestly went to the hospital.

At this moment, half-lying on his hospital bed, he said, "I wasn't driving fast. It's a good thing I wasn't going fast, otherwise I would have hit someone. The parent didn't know how to watch her child. The child suddenly ran into the middle of the road, and she didn't even notice, she was still looking at her phone."

"I braked suddenly and evaded the car, and hit the streetlight, stopping. My mind was completely blank.

" "When the parent realized what was happening, she ran to pick up the child, without even checking my condition. I almost died because of her carelessness, and she didn't even check my condition."

Zhan Yue was extremely angry at the careless parent who hadn't watched the child, causing the accident.

Today, it was him. He was a skilled driver, not driving fast, and the car was strong enough that hitting the streetlight wouldn't have been a big deal. If it were someone else, they would have been hit by the child without braking.

Even if they had evaded the car like he did and hit the roadside, they would have been more seriously injured.

Those careless parents who care about their children, when something really happens, cry and scream, suing this and that, blaming this and that, but never admitting their own fault.

Zachary said soothingly, "I'm glad you're okay."

"I was in a collision, and my upper body hit the steering wheel pretty hard. I felt a lot of pain in my chest. I had an X-ray, and it still hurts while I'm waiting for the results."

"The windshield was broken, and my hand was scratched by the glass fragments. It bled a little, but it's nothing serious. In fact, I just need a check-up, and there's no need to be hospitalized."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4735

Serenity said, "He'll definitely need to be hospitalized for a few days for observation and a full-body checkup. Some people who were fine at the time died a few days after returning home. That's because they suffered internal injuries and didn't know about them, and didn't seek medical attention in time." "Brother and sister-in-law are right. He'll have to stay in the hospital for a few days at least,"

Zhan Haoyu said to his younger brother. "We're worried."

Lao Wu sat down on the edge of the bed. "Have you had your head checked?"

"Everyone. It's definitely fine. I didn't hit my head, just my heart."

Zhan Yue felt that the pain was just from the collision. Although it still hurts now, it's not as bad as it was at the beginning. He thinks it's nothing serious.

Zachary said, "Let's wait until all the results come back. For now, just stay in the hospital."

Zhan Yue pursed his lips and said reluctantly, "Okay, but tell the doctor not to prescribe any medication or injections. I hate taking medicine or injections."

Once inside the hospital, the doctors and nurses wheeled him into the makeshift emergency room. After an examination, they found his injuries were not serious. They cleaned his wounds and arranged for him to be admitted to the hospital for various tests, some of which couldn't be done today.

Zhan Yue felt that it was all in vain. His elder brother was worried about him and insisted on hospitalizing him according to the doctor. So he could stay in the hospital, but it would be torture if he couldn't let the doctor prescribe medicine or give him injections. It wasn't like he was seriously injured and couldn't move.

Zachary said seriously: "Listen to the doctor in everything."

Zhan Yue fell silent.

"Knock knock."

There was a knock on the door.

Then two doctors came in with two nurses. One of the female doctors was young and looked a little younger than Zhan Yue. She should be an intern.

The young female doctor had a round face, a pair of bright big eyes, and her facial features matched well, giving people a sense of intimacy. She was not a great beauty, but very attractive. The more you look at her, the more you like her and the more beautiful she becomes.

Zhan Yue's eyes lit up when he saw her.

Serenity caught this glimpse and took a closer look at the female doctor, then at her brother-in-law. Could it be that Eighth Brother had fallen in love at first sight with this young female doctor?

Serenity knew all of her brothers-in-law's love stories.

She was also an experienced person. Her brother-in-law was usually calm and composed when he saw a young woman, but now his eyes lit up. Call her overly suspicious, she just felt that Zhan Yue might have fallen in love at first sight with this young female doctor.

Seventh Brother and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) were practically set to marry; their parents had already met.

Mrs. Lan and her husband had made a surprise visit to Youyou Villa. Serenity didn't believe they had no intention of marrying.

They wanted to meet and interact with the family to confirm whether the Zhan family elders were truly as open-minded and easygoing as the outside world claimed. They also wanted to confirm whether the Zhan family's traditions were truly excellent.

After their investigation, they would return and do their utmost to help Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) get together.

So, there was no need for anyone to worry about Zhan Wei's marriage.

When fate comes, it really cannot be stopped.

Two months ago, the whole family was still worried about Zhan Wei's marriage. After all, Zhan Wei is 31 years old this year, not young anymore, and he is not in love. How can everyone not worry?

Unexpectedly, two months later, the relationship between Zhan Wei and his business rival began to change.

When the seventh brother's fate came, the eighth brother's life event became the top priority in everyone's eyes.

Serenity and other cousins arranged blind dates for their unmarried brothers-in-law, but there was no follow-up on each blind date because they did not have a connection with the blind date partner.

You can't force love.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4736

All they could do was watch them grow single year after year.

The old doctor inquired about Zhan Yue's condition, then turned to the young female doctor, "Xiao Zeng, this patient is also in your care. He was injured in a car accident."

Zeng Xiaoya glanced at Zhan Yue and replied gently, "Okay, Director."

She wasn't an intern, but a new doctor newly assigned to Guancheng Central Hospital.

The old doctor then addressed Zhan Yue, “Your injuries aren’t serious. Wait for the test results. If nothing serious happens, stay in the hospital for two days for observation, and then I’ll prescribe some topical medication and you can be discharged.”

Zhan Yue’s hand was scratched by the windshield and required continuous medication.

Zhan Yue said gently, “Thank you, doctor. My sternum hurts. I’m not sure if I have any internal injuries. I’d like to stay a few days longer for a thorough examination.”

Upon hearing this, the old doctor asked Zeng Xiaoya to press on his sternum and other areas. Zeng Xiaoya stepped forward and naturally felt Zhan Yue’s chest, asking if it hurt.

“It hurts. When the car accident happened, I leaned forward and collided with the steering wheel.”

Zeng Xiaoya touched the area around his heart and ribs again and asked him, “Do these places hurt?”

Zhan Yue looked in pain, “It hurts, it hurts everywhere, it hurts when I touch it.”

“I need to stay in the hospital for a few more days. Please write me a few prescriptions and help me check them carefully.”

Zeng Xiaoya already had a general understanding of Zhan Yue’s condition before following the director in. She said, “When you were sent to the hospital, the doctor on duty helped you treat your wounds and also wrote you a lot of examination orders.”

“I’ve seen it. They also took a chest X-ray. You’ve had it, right? After the X-ray, just wait a few hours and the results will be out.”

“Let’s see if there is any problem after the results come out.”

Zhan Yue said gently, “Okay, I’ll listen to the doctor.”

He glanced at the badge Zeng Xiaoya was wearing, which had Zeng Xiaoya’s name and job position in the hospital on it.

She wasn’t an intern, she was a full-time doctor. She looked so young, she must have just started.

Or maybe she was transferred from another hospital.

The old doctor said, “Let’s wait for the results.”

Zhan Yue asked, “Doctor, do I need injections or medication?”

“The examination isn’t complete yet, so I won’t prescribe any medicine for now.”

Zhan Yue said, “I’ll go find Doctor Zeng when the results come back.”

“No need to go find him. Just rest in the ward. I can see your results there.”

Since Zhan Yue had given her the responsibility, Zeng Xiaoya could check Zhan Yue’s results on her work computer.

“Rest well,”

Zeng Xiaoya said gently, then followed the old doctor out.

After leaving the ward, the old doctor whispered to Zeng Xiaoya, “You must carefully examine the injuries of Mr. Zhan in there. Don’t be careless. He’s not just any ordinary person.”

Zeng Xiaoya was stunned for a moment and asked, “Director, who is he?” He was so young, he couldn’t be a big shot, right?

“If I’m not mistaken, he should be the young master of the richest family, the Zhan family. I just don’t know what his ranking is. The most famous young masters of the Zhan family are the first three. The young masters behind them are very low-key. Many people don’t even know their names.”

Zeng Xiaoya asked curiously: “Then how did the director confirm his identity as the young master of the Zhan family?”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4737

The director replied, “I recognize three of the other people in the ward. One is the eldest young master and the eldest young mistress of the Zhan family, and the other is the third young master of the Zhan family. The one standing by the bed looks unfamiliar to me and I have never seen him before.”

“But he must be the young master of the Zhan family. The brothers in their family are very affectionate. The one who had a car accident must be the young master of the Zhan family, so the eldest young master Zhan and his wife, as well as the third young master, are here.” “The eldest young master Zhan and his wife had a flash marriage. They have been very loving since their flash marriage. They have two sons and a daughter, and people talk about them. The eldest young mistress is an ordinary person, and many people know her.”

“Young Master Zhan is the helmsman of the Zhan family and is often on the news. It is easy to identify his identity.”

Zeng Xiaoya said, and then asked, “Even if they are the young masters of the richest family, we doctors just need to do our job well. Why should we be afraid of them?”

“There is nothing to be afraid of. These real children of wealthy families are very well-educated. Except for the eldest young master Zhan who always has a stern face and a serious expression, everyone else seems approachable. Of course, that’s just on the surface.”

“Generally speaking, they are very kind. I am not asking you to be afraid of them. I am just reminding you to check him carefully and cure his injuries. His family has close contacts with the miracle doctor.”

Those who study medicine have all heard of the legend of the miracle doctor.

Zeng Xiaoya asked as she followed the director: “Is the miracle doctor still alive?”

It was obvious that she had also heard about the miracle doctor from her teacher. “Isn’t it said that the miracle doctor is an old senior from decades ago? Even if he is still alive, he is very old. He should no longer see patients, right?”

“The miracle doctor is still alive, but he really doesn’t see patients anymore. His only direct disciple, Doctor Cheng, is a new generation of miracle doctor. The one who has close contacts with the Zhan family is the little miracle doctor, that is, Doctor Cheng.”

Zeng Xiaoya’s eyes showed admiration. “It would be great if I could meet Doctor Cheng someday and ask her some medical questions.”

“Doctor Cheng is very busy. Most people can’t contact her for treatment, but the Zhan family can. Doctor Cheng has a good relationship with several young ladies of the Zhan family. She cured the eyes of the second young lady of the Zhan family.”

“Xiao Zeng, you don’t have a boyfriend yet, right?”

Zeng Xiaoya instinctively replied, “I did, but we broke up three years ago. He found someone better, and he didn’t think I was capable of helping him find a job and paving a smooth path forward.”

She came from a medical family; everyone in her family studied medicine. Her grandparents and parents studied Traditional Chinese Medicine, while the younger generation, like her, primarily studied Western medicine, with some knowledge of Traditional Chinese Medicine.

Many considered her family to be excellent.

“It’s okay if that kind of man broke up with her. What kind of better man did he find? He’d look down on someone with a family background like yours.”

The director was an old classmate of Zeng Xiaoya’s father and had watched her grow up. He knew Zeng Xiaoya’s family background well.

“I’ve landed. The first sword killed my beloved. We’ve been separated for three years, so let’s not talk about him.”

The director said understandingly, “It’s okay. You’re so talented, you’ll find someone better in the future.”

“The director suddenly asked me if I had a boyfriend and wanted to be my matchmaker?”

The director smiled and said, “I wouldn’t easily be your matchmaker. It’s nothing, just asking casually.”

“Go ahead,”

Zeng Xiaoya nodded and walked to her office.

In the ward, Zhan Yue lay down on the bed and said to his brothers and sisters-in-law, “Brother and sister-in-law, third brother and fifth brother, I’m in the hospital. I’ll stay for a few more days and have a thorough checkup, just like a physical examination.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4738

“You can also take advantage of the hospitalization to rest up.”

His brother and sister-in-law were both sharp-eyed people, their eyes sharper than razors. When he saw Zeng Xiaoya, his eyes lit up. Serenity caught it, so how could Zachary and the others miss it? They were all experienced people, and they all thought about Lao Ba’s reaction.

However, as an older brother, they never meddle in the personal affairs of their younger brothers. Unless the younger brother asks for help, they will offer some advice based on their experience.

The fifth brother made a few sarcastic remarks to his younger brother: “Didn’t you just say that you don’t need to be hospitalized? Looking at you, you look like you can’t wait to be discharged and go home.

If it weren’t for your elder brother here to suppress you, you would have gone to the hospital to treat your wounds and ran away.” “Why did you change after seeing the doctor? You have to be hospitalized and you want to stay for a few more days.” Zhan Yue said calmly: “I suddenly remembered that I was busy with a project for several months. I was exhausted and wanted to have a good rest for a few days. I was in a car accident and had to be hospitalized for observation, which is equivalent to resting. None of you can say anything wrong about me.”

The fifth brother punched him lightly, “You make it sound like we, your brothers, are always abusing you.”

“Okay, if you want to stay, stay a few more days. We will talk to the doctor later and ask him to prescribe several large bottles of medicine for you every day, so that you will be on a drip all day long.”

“I will also prescribe you some bitter Chinese medicine. Drink two large bowls a day. It will make you suffer to death.”

“I will make you stay in the hospital for ten days or half a month, and you will be so scared of lying all over.”

Zhan Yue shouted, “Brother, listen to what the fifth brother said. He is just bullying me because I am young.”

“You’re already twenty-eight or twenty-nine, which is thirty if rounded up. You’re still young! Even Laojiu doesn’t dare to say he’s young.”

Zhan Yue smiled. “Anyway, in front of grandma and mom, I’m still a child.”

“Mom doesn’t even bother to look at you. Seeing you and Old Nine gives me a headache. I tell you both to get as far away as possible. Bring your fiancée home to meet my parents, and they’ll welcome you.” ”

A wife won't just fall from the sky. You have to find one slowly. Once I find the right one, I'll date her for two years, get to know her character and her family well. If she's up to par, I'll bring her home for the elders to see."

Zhan Yue's mind flashed back to Zeng Xiaoya's round face. To him, she seemed innocent, kind, and approachable. Her large eyes, like black grapes, twinkled beautifully.

Several people rolled their eyes at him.

Zachary said to his beloved wife, "Tongtong, Old Eight shouldn't be in any serious trouble. Go back first, so the kids won't come looking for you. Keep it a secret from the elders for now."

Zhan Yue replied, "We have to keep it a secret. We don't want the elders to know. I can't handle all the attention they'd give me."

He didn't want to worry Grandma.

She was old, and her heart wasn't as strong as it used to be.

Zhan Yue felt that he was not seriously injured. After a few days in the hospital, the wound on his hand would have scarred. He usually wore a suit to cover up the wound a little and it would not be noticed.

If he was worried about being discovered by his family, he could also not go back to the villa for a while until the wound on his hand was completely healed.

Anyway, grandma now has a group of great-grandchildren to keep her company. She had long forgotten about these single grandchildren and had thrown them into the Pacific Ocean.

"I won't tell the elders at home. My sister is still in the villa. Niuniu is there to play with Beibei. There is no need to rush back."

Serenity wanted to wait for the results of Lao Ba's examination before going back.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4739

"Hubby, you're busy with work, and Old Eight is fine. We can just stay here and look after him. You can go back to your work."

Serenity asked Zachary to go back first.

Earlier, Old Eight had refused to stay in the hospital, and Zachary had been keeping him here.

Now, fearing he'd be rushed out, Old Eight didn't even want to leave.

"Brother and sister-in-law, you two can go back. My third brother and I will stay in the hospital to look after Old Eight. Once the test results come back clear, we'll have his housekeeper come over to take care of him."

They had bought a housekeeper in the city and had hired a housekeeper to help with the household chores.

Zhan Yue also urged his brother and sister-in-law to go back. He was already feeling overwhelmed with the presence of his two brothers, and even the one he dreaded most, the eldest brother, was sitting here. Zhan Yue felt that even if his injuries weren't serious, his brother's seriousness would make them worse.

He had revered his eldest brother since childhood, and now, almost thirty years old, considered highly capable and successful, he still didn't dare to act rashly in front of him. This added pressure, and he spoke and acted cautiously. Afraid of making mistakes and getting a scolding from his eldest brother.

Even more afraid of getting beaten by his eldest brother. Although the eldest brother rarely laid hands on them, it didn't mean he wouldn't.

But after the sister-in-law came, and later their nieces and nephews, the eldest brother obviously became gentler. If he was too strict with his younger brothers, the sister-in-law would step in and plead for them, not allowing the eldest brother to always be so harsh.

The sister-in-law was truly the savior of the brothers.

As Old Ninth put it, the first time he met the sister-in-law, he tightly clung to her sturdy thigh, as if finally having a backer in the family.

That Old Ninth kid was really cunning.

Why hadn't he thought of hugging the sister-in-law's sturdy thigh the first time he met her?

Back then, they were more in a wait-and-see attitude.

After all, the eldest brother was very resistant to the flash marriage with the sister-in-law. Only after their grandmother repeatedly persuaded him, and out of filial piety to her, did the eldest brother reluctantly agree to marry the sister-in-law.

Everyone assumed that with his brother's personality and his quick marriage, it wouldn't be easy for him to fall in love with his sister-in-law. But it turned out that his sister-in-law had won him over, and he was driven mad by her. The eighth brother still remembers that when his sister-in-law learned his brother's true identity and filed for divorce, his brother went so far as to imprison his sister-in-law at home.

If he hadn't been madly in love, he wouldn't have done such a thing.

Fortunately, the couple is now very loving and has a son and a daughter. He missed Beibei so much.

He couldn't go home to hug his niece during his hospital stay. The thing

Zhan Yue couldn't get used to most about being in the hospital was not being able to hug his niece.

Grandma said that this was the treasure their family had been waiting for for generations.

In his youth, Zhan Yue was skeptical when he heard others say that the Zhan family was a monastic family that only produced sons. But when his older brothers got married and had children, all of them nephews, he gradually became convinced.

He was afraid that when he married and had children in the future, he would also have sons.

He longed for a daughter as adorable as Beibei.

Zachary nodded, "Then you two stay in the hospital and look after this kid. Call me if anything happens."

"It's no big deal. Just ask his housekeeper to come and take care of him."

Zhan Yue's foot wasn't injured, just his hand, which was wrapped in gauze, so it was a little inconvenient for him to eat.

It would be fine if there was someone to take care of him.

"Got it.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4740

Zhan Haoyu escorted his brother and sister-in-law out of the ward.

“Haoyu, no need. I’ll go with your eldest brother,”

Serenity assured him.

Zhan Haoyu escorted his brother and sister-in-law out, then paused to watch them walk away. He turned to return to his room when his phone rang. He checked the caller ID and saw it was his wife.

He paused, walked to the end of the hallway, and settled in for a quiet moment before answering his wife’s call.

“Haoyu, did you go out? The two sons asked where Daddy was. They’re looking for him,” Qiao Han asked.

“Yes, I did. I had something urgent to deal with. They have so many friends to play with, and they’re still looking for their daddy.”

Qiao Han said, “I just remembered you as their dad and asked a few questions. Now he’s out having fun again. I can be quieter when they’re not home. When will we go back to Jiangcheng? The two boys can stay home with Grandma.”

Qiao Han couldn’t wait to get back to work.

She preferred working to raising children. Even if it meant daily socializing and endless paperwork, she was happy to do it.

She really didn’t want to take care of the kids, especially since they were twins. She felt that if she had to stay home to take care of the kids every day, she would go crazy and her life would be shortened, at least by thirty years.

The two kids were too crazy and naughty. They couldn’t stay still for a minute, and when they did stay still, they would definitely be causing trouble.

Kids were full of energy and it was too much trouble for her. It would be better for them to stay in the old house. The place was big enough for them to run around, and there were many family members who could look after them.

In short, she was happy that she didn't have to take care of the kids.

You know, in Jiangcheng's family, they changed nannies the fastest. No matter how high the salary was, the nanny wouldn't stay long.

After they turned three, they were sent to kindergarten. As they gradually became more sensible, things got better. Their current nanny, who was transferred from Wancheng and has been there for a long time, still cares for the two little brats.

Qiao Han couldn't imagine how devastated a mother would be when they couldn't afford a nanny and had to take care of everything themselves.

After letting her spend a day with the children, she hurried off on a business trip.

"A few days, I'll be home for a few more. If the company's busy, you go first."

If it weren't for Lao Ba's sudden car accident, Zhan Haoyu would have been planning to accompany his wife back to Jiangcheng the next day. His work focus would have been on Jiangcheng.

"What happened?"

Qiao Han was incredibly clever, a business expert far superior to her husband.

After she married and had children, and her younger brother started a family and became more mature and stable, Qiao Han handed the Qiao Group over to him. However, she remained the CEO of the Qiao Group, and most of the time, the company revolved around her.

"Are you inside or outside? Who's with you?"

Zhan Haoyu asked.

Whenever there is something, he will tell his wife. He doesn't like to hide it from his wife, for fear that his wife will find out and give him the cold shoulder for a few days. Qiao Han's personality will not allow her to quarrel with him. When she is unhappy, she will just ignore him and not want to talk to him for a few days. This kind of cold shoulder is simply killing Zhan Haoyu.

He is a talkative person, but his wife just ignores him. He can't stand it. After being ignored once, Zhan Haoyu dared not hide anything from Qiao Han anymore.

"I'm in the room, I'm alone. Go ahead and talk. No one else can hear."

Sure enough, there was something wrong.

Qiao Han knew that her husband had gone out suddenly, and there must be something wrong.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4741

"Old Eight was in a car accident."

Qiao Han's heart tightened, and he asked with concern: "Is he seriously injured? Where did the accident happen? You, Old Five, and Sister Tong all went to the hospital, right?"

Zhan Haoyu replied: "You don't have to worry. We didn't tell the elders that the injury was not serious. At present, we only know about external injuries. Whether there are internal injuries or not has to wait for the results of the X-ray to come out."

"Old Eight looks like nothing happened. He also said that there is no big problem."

"The car was just badly damaged in the front. He said that part of the windshield was broken and scratched his hand."

"He called my eldest brother first, and my eldest brother contacted my eldest sister-in-law and asked her to notify Old Five and me. Now my eldest brother and sister-in-law have left, and Old Five and I are still in the hospital."

"Wait for the test results to come out. If there is no big problem, let his housekeeper come to take care of him."

They left home suddenly. If the elders knew, they would definitely suspect something had happened.

Although grandma is no longer in charge, she is still very smart.

“As long as no one’s hurt, that’s what matters. If the car’s damaged, then it’s damaged—we’ll just replace it with a new one when the time comes. How did the accident happen? Old Eighth has always been steady, unlike Old Ninth who’s still a bit reckless.”

Old Ninth, Zhan Yan, was the youngest. All the elder brothers doted on him. He didn’t have to shoulder the family responsibilities yet, nor was he at the age of being pressured into marriage, so his life was the most carefree. That’s why his temperament was still somewhat reckless, lacking in maturity and steadiness.

A man of twenty-four or twenty-five indeed wasn’t all that mature or steady.

“Mhm, I’m fine. You don’t need to worry. Just watch over those two little rascals at home. I’ll be back later. If they don’t behave, I’ll give them a beating when I get back.”

Qiao Han laughed and said, “You’re all talk. If you really dared to beat them, Grandma’s cane would come flying at you. Even Mom and Dad wouldn’t let you off. In our family, violence isn’t allowed in education.”

Although... sometimes, she also really wanted to give those two brats a good beating.

Zhan Haoyu chuckled, “Then I’ll take them out and give them a beating. As long as I forbid them from telling when they come home, it’ll be fine.”

“They’re not stupid. During the summer break, with the old matriarch watching over them, no matter where you take them, if they get a beating, they’ll definitely run back and tell Grandma. Forget it—boys are supposed to be a little wild. It’s summer vacation anyway, just let them have their fun.”

“Yeah, and it’s not just our boys going crazy. Every one of them is playing like mad. Even Beibei and Niuniu are tagging along, running after their big brothers everywhere.”

Qiao Han laughed as she spoke: “I can see those little rascals don’t really like having to take their two little sisters along, but they don’t dare refuse either. Haha, watching them helplessly, yet forced to patiently take care of the girls—it’s pretty funny.”

“Of course, it’s also very sweet. They all dote on the two little sisters.”

Zhan Haoyu said, “Of course. There are too few sisters. They all know how to cherish them. I have nine brothers, and not a single sister. If we had even one sister, we would’ve pampered her with our lives.”

“As for Old Eighth’s matter, don’t let the elders in the family know for now.”

Qiao Han replied, “Don’t worry, I understand. It’s nothing serious for Old Eighth. Let him stay in the hospital for observation a few days. Once the injury on his hand fully heals, he can come back. Anyway, everyone’s busy with work, it’s not like we go back to the old family house every day.”

“That’s natural. We arranged it this way. Old Eight didn’t want to be hospitalized at first. He said it was okay. Big brother kept pressuring him to be hospitalized, and he was nagging about it. Now, without big brother pressuring him, he wants to be hospitalized. Maybe he even wants to stay there.”

“What’s the matter? Is there something complicated?”

Zhan Haoyu chuckled and said, “Old Eight’s fate may have come. Just now, a young female doctor came over and she is in charge of Old Eight. I noticed that Old Eight’s eyes lit up when he saw the female doctor.”

“Did Old Eight fall in love with that female doctor at first sight?”

Qiao Han also laughed. “This is really fate. Usually we matchmake for them and arrange blind dates for him, but he didn’t feel anything. When fate comes, he is moved without us even having to help him.”

“That’s right. When fate comes, it cannot be stopped. I just don’t know what the character of the female doctor surnamed Zeng is like, or what her family background is like. Our family doesn’t particularly emphasize that the couple must be well-matched, but they can’t be too ordinary either.”

“If her family background is too ordinary, my younger sister-in-law will also feel a lot of pressure to marry into our family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4742

The seven sisters-in-law mentioned above are all people of status and background. If the eighth brother’s wife were an ordinary person, it would be very stressful.

“Doctors save lives and treat the wounded, so they should have good character. If they can train a doctor, their family conditions must be good. These are secondary. The main thing is whether the other party is single.”

Qiao Han felt that Dr. Zeng’s family should be good. She thought her husband should be worried about Dr. Zeng having a boyfriend. Would her brother-in-law have the nerve to steal someone else’s girlfriend?

How could a man of the Zhan family know that a third party is a third party?

There are so many good women in the world. There is no need to be a mistress for one woman.

“That... is true. The eighth brother will find out the truth himself. If the beautiful woman is taken, he will let it go. After all, even if he has only met her once and has a crush on her at first sight, it would be a lie to say that he has deep feelings for her.”

Zhan Haoyu didn’t worry about his brother.

“What’s the name of that female doctor?”

“I didn’t see her work badge, so I don’t know her name. I only know her last name is Zeng. Do you want to ask?”

“I want to eat some melon.”

Zhan Haoyu smiled, “Okay, I’ll go find out. I’ll go back this afternoon and let you eat a whole melon.”

Qiao Han smiled, “Okay, then you take care of Lao Ba first. I’ll go see what the little ones are playing with.”

The couple ended the call, and Qiao Han got up and walked outside.

At the same time, Zachary and his wife returned to the Zhan Group.

Since Serenity was out, she was in no hurry to go back. She followed her husband back to the company and went to Zhou’s house to pick up Yangyang later. She texted her sister, telling her not to pick up Yangyang; she could do it herself.

“Honey, you go do your thing. I’ll go pick up Yangyang in a minute.”

Entering the CEO’s office, Serenity made her way to the small tea room as if she were home.

Zachary followed her in, put his arm around her waist from behind, leaned his head against her shoulder, and then leaned in closer, kissing her on the cheek.

“Honey, we haven’t had a good talk in ages.”

“What did you want to tell me?”

“I love you.”

Serenity turned her head, and he seized the opportunity to press a kiss to her lips.

She laughed, “We’re already an old married couple, and you’re still saying such cheesy things.”

“We’re not that old, not yet. We’ll be an old married couple when we’re in our seventies or eighties.”

“I love you. I just love you. Even when my hair turns gray, I’ll still love you. These aren’t cheesy words, they’re from the heart, from the bottom of my heart.”

He turned Serenity completely around, leaned in, and kissed her.

Serenity gently put her arm around his neck, responding passionately.

After a kiss, he bent down and carried her into the lounge to have s*x.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4743

“Zachary.”

Serenity hurriedly stopped him.

She whispered, “This is your office. Someone could come in at any moment. You haven’t been a monk recently. Why are you so impatient? Why don’t you do it when you get home tonight?”

She had just returned from a trip to Yangcheng. That night, the couple had spent most of the night in debauchery. The next day, she woke up with sore back and legs. It had been a long time since she had experienced that.

He had always been considerate of her. As he said, her health was the most important thing.

Zachary had no choice but to give up, but he still held her in his arms and whispered, “We can’t have fun at home. We’re afraid Beibei will wake up suddenly. When Beibei is a little older, let her sleep on her own.”

That way, the couple could return to their own world.

Serenity couldn't help but blush.

She gently scolded him, "Stop talking. Go do your work. I'll make you some coffee."

"We're an old married couple, and you're still so shy, Tongtong. Your shy look is so charming. I really want to eat you up right now."

As she spoke, the phone rang outside.

Serenity pushed him quickly and said, "The phone is ringing, go answer it."

Zachary reluctantly let go of her and went out to answer the internal call.

Not long after, Su Nan pushed the door open and came in. The two were talking about business outside.

Serenity made coffee and prepared a cup for the two men outside and one for herself. She carried the three cups of coffee out on a small tray.

Hearing footsteps, Su Nan looked over and saw that it was her. She smiled and said, "Serenity is here."

"Well, I'm going to Zhou's house to pick up Yangyang later. I passed by and came in to see."

Serenity came over calmly, "Freshly brewed coffee."

She gave a cup to her husband first, then to Sunan, so as not to upset Zachary.

He always asked her to put him first, saying that he put her first.

If anyone stepped past him, he would be sulking for a long time.

"Thank you." Sunan thanked her politely, and asked, "Did Yangyang go to his dad's place?"

"Yeah, he hasn't been back for a long time. When he comes back, he always goes to his dad's place for a meal. He wanted to stay for a few days, but when his friends came, he went over to have a meal first, and then came back to play with them."

"He'll stay over there for a few days after his childhood friend comes back. After all, they are his biological father and grandparents."

Sunan asked again, "Did my Su Meng get into trouble?"

"No, Su Meng is very sensible. Don't always say that he gets into trouble, okay?"

“His idol is here, he should be so obedient.”

Zachary got up and brought a chair for his beloved wife. Serenity wanted to move it herself, and since he was so considerate, she let him do it.

After sitting down, Serenity continued, “Long Ting and Yangyang are the kings of the children. Everyone listens to them. If they were to decide who’s the king, Long Ting would be the elder and Yangyang the younger.”

Sunan smiled, “My boy can’t compare to Long Ting. He was taught by the elders and is the successor.”

“If he could choose, I believe Long Ting would prefer the life of your Su Meng,” Sunan smiled.

Long Ting’s entire family had perished, leaving him alone, burdened with a deep blood feud. He worked so hard to learn his craft, so he could seek revenge and reclaim his position as head of the Long family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4744

Meanwhile, his son, Su Meng, was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, but since he wasn’t from the patriarchal line, he didn’t have to take over, so he had it easy. As a father, he had also built a considerable fortune for his son. When the boy grew up, he could start his own business if he had the talent, or inherit the family business if he didn’t. Even if Su Meng did nothing, the wealth his grandparents and parents had accumulated would be enough for him to live on for three lifetimes. Naturally, Su Meng was more fortunate than Long Ting.

Su Meng admired Long Ting’s martial arts prowess and had begun training with the Su family. Among his peers, he was already a master, but against Long Ting, he was easily defeated.

The children admired the strong, and Long Ting, being the strongest among them, had a group of followers.

Serenity sipped her coffee leisurely.

The two men quickly returned to their work.

After finishing her cup of coffee, Serenity saw it was almost time, so she put down her cup and said to her husband, “Honey, I’m going to pick up Yangyang first. After picking him up, I’ll go straight back to the villa.”

“Okay, go ahead. Drive slowly, and text me when you get home.”

Serenity left.

Zachary didn’t look back until his wife disappeared from the office, continuing to discuss the development plan for a new project with his friend.

Serenity quickly arrived at the Zhou family’s complex. She didn’t go inside, but parked her car on the curb at the entrance. She called Zhou Honglin, and when he answered, she said, “Yangyang has eaten, right? I’ll take him home. I’m at your complex entrance right now.”

“He has. So soon to pick him up? I thought I’d let him have dinner before sending him back.”

Zhou Honglin, because his son was coming home today, had deliberately stayed home to cook for his son, allowing the two to spend time together.

Duncan, Yangyang’s stepfather, spent the most time with him, and Zhou Honglin was still worried that Yangyang would favor him.

“What does Yangyang say?”

Serenity respected her nephew’s decision. As long as Yangyang was willing to stay at Zhou’s house for dinner before going back, she would go back first and let Zhou Honglin take Yangyang back to Youyou Villa in the evening.

Soon, Zhou Honglin handed Yangyang his phone.

Yangyang said to his aunt, “Aunt, I’m going home now. Long Ting said he’ll only be staying for a week. I’ll play with him first. After he goes back, I’ll stay with my dad for a few days.”

Serenity replied, “Okay, I’ll wait for you outside. Just tell your dad and grandparents and I’ll be right out.”

Yangyang nodded and handed the phone back to his father.

Zhou Honglin said, “Serenity, wait a few minutes. I’ll take Yangyang out now.”

Although Yangyang had grown into a teenager, he was only eleven years old after all. Zhou Honglin was worried and decided to personally take his son out, taking the opportunity to talk to him.

As his son grew older and became more sensible, the two had more topics to talk about.

As long as he didn't say bad things about Duncan or bring up his ex-wife, their relationship was good.

Zhou Honglin also understood that Yangyang's parents were his weak spot. No one could say anything bad about them, and he would get angry with anyone who did.

"Okay."

After Zhou Honglin hung up the phone, he went to get two or three large bags of food and toys. He said to his son, "Yangyang, these are Daddy's purchases for you and your sister. Take them home and share them with your friends."

"Dad isn't as rich as your uncle, but these are a little gift from Daddy."

Yangyang reached out to take the bags. "Dad, I don't mind. I like anything you buy for me. Dad, let me take it."

He was growing up.

Dad was getting older.

Mom took good care of herself and looked no different from a few years ago. She still looked very young.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4745

When the mother and son go out, others will think that the mother is his sister.

However, because of the pressure of life and the constant rush around, the father looks ten years older than the mother. Yangyang just saw that his father has white hair on his head.

"You don't have to carry it. It's not heavy and Dad can still carry it."

Zhou Honglin didn't let his son carry it, but he was still very happy with his son's thoughtfulness.

Zhou's father and mother were reluctant to let him go and followed him out. Zhou's mother said, "Can't you stay a little longer? You've only been back for half a day and you have to go back."

"Since the beginning of summer, grandma has been looking forward to your summer vacation. If the vacation is longer, you can come back to Geng to stay for a while. Grandma misses you so much."

Zhou's mother held her grandson's hand reluctantly.

She has also aged a lot, and the number of white hairs on her head is more than doubled compared to six years ago.

"Grandma, my childhood friend is coming from City A. He rarely has vacations, and only comes to visit me for a few days a year. I'll spend a week with him first, and when he goes back, I'll come back and stay for ten days or half a month."

"Spend some time with grandpa and grandma. Think about where you want to go and make plans. When I come over, I'll accompany you everywhere."

Yangyang said this, and Zhou's mother felt very touched.

It must be said that Liberty has raised this child well.

They were wrong before.

Liberty was already outstanding. If she hadn't married Hong Lin, given birth to children for him, and given up her job, she wouldn't have been out of touch with society.

But outstanding people are always outstanding. Once they return to the workplace, they are still as outstanding and dazzling as ever.

"As long as you are with me, grandma will be happy no matter where we go."

"Grandma hasn't been to the beach for more than ten years. Let's go to the beach as a family of four for two days. We can also watch the sunrise and go fishing."

In the past, their son had a good job and a high income, and he gave them a lot of money. The old couple went to the beach with their daughter, son-in-law and their family, but they mainly went to take care of their grandson.

She had no desire to play at all, while her daughter and son-in-law were having a blast.

This time, she didn't want to invite her daughter's family along, so she went with the four of them. Her grandson was old enough, almost as tall as her, and didn't need any more care. This way, she could enjoy a pure vacation, no longer serving as her daughter's unpaid babysitter.

As she grew older, Zhou's mother finally came to her senses.

She increasingly regretted her past foolishness, neglecting her own grandson while serving as a free babysitter for her daughter and son-in-law, raising three grandchildren while their grandparents enjoyed a carefree life.

She hadn't cared for Yangyang when he needed her most, missing out on a great opportunity to cultivate a bond with him.

Later, opportunities to cultivate a relationship with him became scarce, especially since Liberty had become the head of the Feng family in Jiangcheng. Yangyang had moved to Jiangcheng with his mother, attending school there, and could only return during holidays.

When he did, he had to go back to the Lu family, then to his aunt's, and then back to the Zhou family, meaning he couldn't spend much time there.

Every time, they only spend a quick time together before Yangyang leaves. How can the grandmother and grandson develop feelings for each other?

Yangyang is polite to his grandparents, but they are never close to each other, which means they don't have a deep affection for each other.

Yangyang instinctively asked: "Are we the four of us going? We won't invite your eldest aunt's family, right?"

He has a good memory, and he remembers how his eldest aunt and her family treated him and his mother. His grandparents were not very good to him before, but they were his real grandparents after all, and now they are very sincere to him, so Yangyang forgave his grandparents and stopped arguing with them.

Of course, it is impossible to get closer, and he is closer to Grandpa and Grandma Lu.

"Don't invite them. Your eldest aunt and her family often go on vacation to the beach. They never invite me and your grandfather when they go. Why should we invite them? It won't cost your dad any money.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4746

Zhou's mother complained, "Your eldest aunt is a thief. She only knows how to go back to her parents' house to take things and take advantage of them. She rarely brings anything back, and never thinks of her brothers when there's something good to do."

"If I'm not taking my eldest aunt's family with me, then when Long Ting returns, I'll go on vacation to the beach with Grandpa, Grandma, and Dad."

Zhou's mother smiled, "Okay, will you take your sister with you then?"

"No, she's too young, and Mom wouldn't trust me with her."

Yangyang himself didn't dare take his sister to the beach, fearing he wouldn't be able to take care of her properly. If something happened to her, he'd be dead. His sister was Uncle Lu's life, his apple of his eye.

Zhou's mother said with a hint of regret, "Grandma hasn't even seen your sister. Does she look like you? You look a lot like your mother. If your sister is like your mother, then she's quite similar."

Of the Zhou family, only Honglin had seen Liberty's daughter.

The Lu family protected that child well.

Not to mention Liberty's daughter, even Serenity's children had never been seen by Zhou's father or mother. Only Zhou Honglin had.

After thinking for a while, Yang Yang said, "My sister looks like both my mother and Uncle Lu.

My aunt said she doesn't look much like me when I was a child." The brother and sister have different fathers and they only look alike because they inherited their mother's beauty.

Of course, they are siblings after all, so they are somewhat similar.

“Grandma, my sister is different from me. It’s not convenient for her to come to our house.”

Even if his mother agreed to let him bring his sister over, Yang Yang didn’t want to bring his sister back, worried that he would meet his aunt and the others. His cousin Xiaobao is too bad, a real naughty kid, and he is afraid that his cousin Xiaobao will bully his sister.

His sister is so cute that everyone who sees her wants to pinch her or bite her.

Mother Zhou wanted to say something, but was touched by her husband, so she tactfully stopped asking.

The family of four went downstairs and walked towards the entrance of the residential complex.

Mother Zhou began nagging again: “Yangyang, remember to come back and stay for ten days or half a month in a few days. After summer vacation, you probably won’t be back for two days until Chinese New Year.”

“Grandma is getting old, and every day counts. I’m thinking about you right now.”

“Grandma, I’m still alive, and you and Grandpa aren’t old either. Don’t say those things.”

Zhou Honglin also said to his mother: “Mom, why are you saying such depressing things to Yangyang? Yangyang is a filial son. Whenever he returns to Wancheng, he always comes to see you and Dad.”

Mother Zhou’s eyes reddened. “I only have one grandson, and he’s not with me. I miss him day and night. Isn’t it okay for me to nag him a little?”

“Yangyang is well cared for in Wancheng. He has his biological father and aunt. Why did he transfer to Jiangcheng and make it so difficult for me to even see him?”

“I just can’t bear to leave my grandson.”

Mother Zhou raised her hand and wiped her eyes.

She pulled two large red envelopes from her trouser pocket and stuffed them into Yangyang’s hands.

“Yangyang, this is from your grandparents. Take it and buy whatever you want.”

Yangyang wanted to refuse, but his mother insisted.

He looked at his father.

Zhou Honglin said, “It’s just a little gift from your grandparents. Just accept it. It won’t make them sad.”

Yangyang had no choice but to accept it. Every time he came over, his grandparents would give him a red envelope.

He really didn’t need money. He had more money than his father’s family combined.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4747

“Thank you, Grandpa and Grandma,”

Yangyang thanked Zhou’s mother.

Mother Zhou caressed his head lovingly and said kindly, “Yangyang, Grandpa and Grandma treated you badly in the past. We’re sorry, but we’ve corrected our mistakes. We’ll never treat you badly again.”

The two elders had a small pension, not much, just a few thousand yuan a month.

Zhou Honglin gave his mother two thousand yuan a month for the family’s food.

The little pension the elders had could be saved.

In the past, Zhou Hongying always found ways to get money from her parents. Zhou Honglin was a senior manager, and with kickbacks, he earned a hundred thousand yuan a month. He didn’t care that his parents’ money was always spent on his sister’s family. There were only two siblings in their life, and he was a supportive sister back then, treating her very well.

Later, when the Zhou family encountered so many problems and Zhou Honglin could only make money driving a ride-Liberty service, he stopped supporting his sister, and the amount his parents gave her gradually decreased.

Especially when he was severely injured and nearly died after being stabbed by Ye Jiani, his parents spent a fortune saving him, practically emptying their savings.

It was only in recent years that things started to get better.

Zachary hadn't bothered to target him anymore. After all, he was Yangyang's biological father, and those people had to give Yangyang face and wouldn't really torture him.

But his sister still wanted to take their parents' money. Now, Zhou Honglin's sibling affection for his sister was fading, worn away by her selfishness.

After repeated persuasion from him and his father, his mother also stopped supporting his sister.

His sister's family was doing well now, with millions in savings. They didn't expect her to contribute to their parents' living expenses, nor did they expect her to rely on them for anything. After being hurt several times by her daughter, Zhou's mother finally came to her senses and gave up hope. The grandchildren, whom she and her husband had raised, grew increasingly distant from them.

When they had money, they treated them as their grandparents, but when they didn't, they treated them as their grandparents.

Mother Zhou was furious for a while because she left her own grandson behind and went to take care of her grandson and granddaughter.

So now the couple has saved their retirement money and will give it to Yangyang when he comes. Even though Yangyang is not short of money, as grandparents, what they give to Yangyang is a token of their love.

"Grandma, the past is over. I've long forgotten how you treated me."

Zhou's mother breathed a sigh of relief.

It's good that her grandson doesn't hold a grudge against her.

Zhou's father said to his wife, "Why do you always say these things to Yangyang? Yangyang is a good child. Liberty has taught him very well. He is sensible, polite, and very good."

Zhou's mother said embarrassedly, "I just said a few words like that. In the past, we did treat Yangyang badly."

Zhou Honglin also said to his mother, "Mom, Yangyang said that the past is over. Don't mention it again. We should look forward to it."

"Okay, okay, look forward to it."

Zhou's mother was mainly afraid that her grandson would hold a grudge against them.

She was relieved that her grandson was willing to be close to them and didn't hold a grudge against them for what they did in the past.

In the words of the old man, Yangyang has such a good aunt, and his biological mother is also promising now. His future will not be bad.

Yangyang is fine. If they, his grandparents, are still alive, how can he not be filial to them?

As long as they live well and stay healthy, watch Yangyang grow up, and wait to enjoy the blessings of old age.

In the eyes of Zhou's father, his grandson is independent-minded, very smart, and has been cultivated with positive values. They just need to wait to enjoy the blessings of their grandson.

The family of four left the community.

Serenity saw them coming out and honked the car horn to remind them that her car was parked here.

Then, she pushed open the car door and got out.

No matter how much she disliked Zhou's father and mother, they were her elders, and she always had to get out of the car to say hello.

"Auntie

Married at First Sight Chapter 4748

Yangyang appears more mature than his peers in the Zhou family, but around the person he trusts and loves most, he's still a child. He runs over with joy whenever he sees Serenity.

Now that he's grown up, his aunt can no longer hold him, but every time the two meet, Yangyang acts like a spoiled brat. "It's only been a short while, and you've already missed me so much

," Serenity fondly taps his forehead. "Yangyang's grown up, and he'll soon be taller than me.

” Yangyang says, “Even if I’m taller than you,
I’ll still be you.” “That’s right, we’ll be aunt and nephew forever. ”

Zhou Honglin and his family approach, all beaming.

“Serenity, I bought these for Yangyang and his friends to share. It’s a little gift from my father,”

Zhou Honglin hands over.

Serenity opens the back door, “Put them in the car.”

Zhou Honglin places the three bags on the seats.

Serenity nods and greets Zhou’s parents. “Hello, Uncle and Aunt Zhou.”

“Yes.”

“Yes,”

the couple quickly responds.

In front of Serenity, Zhou’s mother didn’t dare to complain about the Zhan family coming to pick her up so quickly.

She just kept telling her grandson to come back and stay for a few days when he was free.

“Grandma, I’ll do it. You guys go back. My aunt and I are going home,” Yangyang said.

Serenity also said, “Mr. Zhou, we’re leaving first. You guys should go back too.”

She got in the car.

Yangyang couldn’t ride in the passenger seat, so he took the back seat.

As the three of them watched, Serenity started the car and nodded to them. Yangyang rolled down the window and waved goodbye to his grandparents.

Soon, Serenity’s car drove away and disappeared.

Zhou's mother's smile faded. She said, "I wonder when Yangyang will come back."

"It's only been half a day. I haven't even seen enough."

She sighed and said to her son, "Honglin, one child isn't enough. Even Yangyang doesn't have a brother to help him. Why don't you divorce that woman, marry another, and have another child?"

"It doesn't matter if it's a boy or a girl. Having another child will make our family more lively."

Yangyang rarely came over. Her son was busy making money every day, leaving the old couple alone at home, bored.

Zhou's mother always felt that she had too few grandchildren, with Yangyang as her only child.

Zhou Honglin walked back and said, "Mom, I said I would not divorce Jiani. I promised that no matter how many years it takes, I would wait for her to come out."

"Having Yangyang is enough. There is no need to have another child. Yangyang is not alone. He has so many cousins and sisters. Although the children of the Lu family are not related to him by blood."

"In name, they can be regarded as his cousins. He is not alone."

Zhou's mother said, "Those are just cousins. The so-called cousins are not related by blood. If there is anything in the future, he can still count on his own brothers and sisters for help."

Zhou's father said to his wife, "I have analyzed it with you for several years, and you are confused again."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4749

Zhou's mother murmured: "How did I make a fool of myself? Wasn't what I said the truth?"

"If something really happens, many times even brothers and sisters may not help you, let alone cousins."

Zhou's father asked her: "Even if Hong Lin divorces Ye and remarries, and has another child, the child will be more than ten years younger than Yangyang. How can he help Yangyang?"

“Yangyang’s cousins and non-blood-related cousins, are they ordinary people? They are all favored children of heaven, the best of the best. If Yangyang really encounters difficulties, those people can help Yangyang solve the problems with just their mouths.”

“What can we do to help Yangyang? What can Yangyang’s brothers and sisters-in-law do to help Yangyang?”

“I’m too lazy to tell you. I’ve said it so much, but you don’t understand. I thought you really figured it out, but why do you make a fool of yourself when it comes to Hong Lin’s remarriage.”

“My son doesn’t want to divorce or remarry. He is wholeheartedly raising Yangyang. That’s his choice. Why should we care so much.”

“My grandson doesn’t care about having too many. If he’s good enough, one is enough.”

Zhou’s mother curled her lips. “I was trying to persuade my son to divorce and remarry. It’s not that I really don’t understand. I was just using Yangyang’s lack of brothers to see if I could persuade Honglin to divorce and remarry.”

“Honglin doesn’t want to remarry, so what are we talking about? He’s the one who makes the decision about his marriage. He’s already in his thirties and forties, don’t he know what kind of life he wants?”

“You’re the one who loves to meddle. That’s why Honglin’s marriage is such a mess.”

Zhou’s mother was speechless after being scolded by her husband.

Others always laughed at her, saying she didn’t want a daughter-in-law as good as Liberty, and that she was constantly driving a wedge between her son and daughter-in-law, which cost her a good daughter-in-law.

After her son remarried, she saw Liberty’s success and wanted to curry favor with her ex-daughter-in-law, hoping to get her son and her ex-daughter-in-law back together. She always targeted the new daughter-in-law, which only ended up ruining their relationship.

So much has happened in the Zhou family. Well, it’s really all her fault.

Serenity didn’t know what the Zhou family said after she left. She asked Yangyang while driving, “Did your grandma ask you to take care of your cousins again?”

“No, she didn’t say that this time. It could also be because I was back for a short time.”
“I think my grandparents have come to their senses and will no longer side with my aunt and the others.”

Serenity smiled and said nothing.

A dog will always eat shit, and it’s easy to change a country but hard to change one’s nature.

Zhou’s mother has that kind of personality and it’s hard to really change her.

But Yangyang has his own ideas and won’t be led by his grandmother. He has always been indifferent and not affectionate to his grandparents. The only one who makes him miss the Zhou family is his biological father.

Let’s not talk about the past. Zhou Honglin has indeed fulfilled his father’s responsibilities in the past few years. He is very good to Yangyang.

Sometimes, Yangyang will talk to his father when he has something on his mind. The guidance Zhou Honglin gave him is correct and has not led Yangyang astray.

“It’s okay that your eldest aunt’s family didn’t come for dinner. Your grandmother is old and you’ve grown up, so she’ll change her mind. With your father and grandfather taking care of her, she won’t be able to do anything.”

“I told my father in advance not to invite your eldest aunt’s family over. Even though they are my biological aunt, I don’t like them.”

In front of the aunt who raised him, Yang Yang said whatever he wanted, not holding back at all.

He just didn’t like his eldest aunt’s family.

Cousin Xiaobao still wanted to bully him, just like before.

He was not the Yangyang of the past. After so many years of practicing martial arts, although he was not as good as Long Ting, it was still easy for him to deal with cousin Xiaobao.

Cousin Xiaobao could no longer bully him, and even his eldest cousin and eldest cousin were no match for him.

As Uncle Lu said, when you become strong, others will be polite to you.

“If you don’t like them, just avoid them. Forget about them. Do you want to go shopping before you go back?”

Yangyang thought for a moment and said, “My dad bought us a lot of food and toys. That’s enough. Let’s not go shopping anymore. Let’s go back quickly. I miss Beibei and Niuniu.”

“Auntie, did Niuniu look for me?”

Serenity smiled. “Of course not! You know how much Niuniu clings to you, her brother. When you’re not home, she asks every ten minutes when you’re coming back.”

“Even Beibei asks a few times.”

Niuniu is half a year older than Beibei and speaks fluently now.

Beibei still only speaks in short sentences.

Hanging out with her brothers and sisters this summer, the little one should soon be able to speak fluently.

Serenity is a skilled talker. Even though Zachary looks sullen all the time, he’s also very articulate when it comes to business.

Neither of them is exactly bad at talking, and their precious daughter will be a very articulate child too.

An hour later, the aunt and nephew returned to the foot of the villa and saw that the stream was crowded with people.

“Auntie, they’re fishing in the stream.”

Yangyang rolled down the car window. With his sharp eyesight, he spotted his friends catching fish in the creek with their small fishing nets.

The creek was full of small fish, but they were very agile and difficult to catch, especially with the small fishing nets used in the park.

But they wanted to play in the water.

While the villa had a fake spring, it wasn't as fun as the stream at the foot of the mountain, where the children loved playing.

Summer is a time for water activities.

The old lady had a group of little ones, each armed with a net and a small bucket, catching fish in the stream.

By the stream, the old lady and a few other elderly women with whom she usually chatted were sitting. They weren't chatting, just watching the children play in the water and catch fish. Those elderly women weren't even old enough to be great-grandmothers yet. Their youngest grandchildren, about the same age as the old lady's great-grandchildren, joined in the fishing, something they were happy to see.

Playing with the young masters of the villa had cultivated a certain bond; when they grew up, their grandchildren would have no worries about their futures.

Even if they couldn't get a job at the Zhan Group, taking over their parents' jobs at Youyou Villa was still a possibility. The salary and benefits were better than at many other companies.

Serenity parked the car briefly and asked Yangyang, "Do you want to go over?"

"Yes."

Although Yangyang was eleven, he was still eager to play whenever he had a day off.

Mostly, he saw his friends there.

"Okay, let's go."

Serenity knew without even asking that her eldest son was one of them.

Not only was Bao Bao there, but Bei Bei was too, though Bei Bei wasn't allowed to catch fish; she was too young. She could play in the water, though.

The old woman had someone dig a hole by the stream and put a dozen small fish in it. Then she had Niuniu and Bei Bei squat by the hole and use their small nets to scoop up the fish.
