Chapter 4751

The pit wasn't big, but the dozen or so fish were small and very agile. The two little girls had a blast fishing, but only managed to catch two each.

Serenity drove straight over and parked in the parking space in front of the flower fields.

At the foot of Youyou Villa, there were vast expanses of flower fields, and many people came every day to buy goods or visit, so there were parking spaces.

The aunt and nephew got out of the car and walked towards the stream.

The old lady was there with a group of children playing in the water and catching fish.

Uncle Yang had arranged for a number of people to guard the area, keeping an eye on the children, fearing any accidents might happen.

The older ones, like Zhan Muchen, had already started learning to swim. Mu Qing's children could also swim. Long Ting, of course, was even better, having been trained by several seniors to be versatile. They mainly watched over the younger ones.

The stream wasn't deep, so as long as they kept an eye on the children, they'd be fine.

"Grandma,"

Serenity said, bringing Yangyang over.

Yangyang called out to his grandmother and rolled up his trouser legs. A nearby servant, perceptive, immediately handed him a small fish pouch and bucket.

"Auntie, I'm going fishing."

"Yes, go ahead. Keep an eye on my brothers."

The grandmother indulged the little ones, and Serenity wasn't about to spoil their fun.

She let Yangyang slide into the stream and followed them to catch fish.

After a look, she smiled and said to the grandmother, "Grandma, there are more children than fish. The fish must have been scared away."

There were more than a dozen children in the stream.

The elderly people around the grandmother greeted Serenity, who responded warmly and chatted with them for a moment.

"They want the experience. Catching fish is one thing, but having fun in the water is what matters."

"It's a cloudy afternoon, no sun, but it's still hot. It's the perfect time for them to go fishing in the river. Just have someone to watch them and prevent them from falling."

Lele, a little over three years old, was having a blast in the water. The stream only reached up to his thighs—it wasn't really deep.

There were also deeper waters, where older children like Yangyang and Longting played, but the younger ones weren't allowed to go along.

Serenity glanced at the sky and said, "It might rain in the next couple of days; it's been too hot these past few days." Rain often follows a few days of high temperatures.

"If it rains, the stream will rise, making it unsuitable for them to play in the river. So now's the best time to play," the old lady smiled. "Don't worry about them. Grandma's checked everything. We only brought them down when it's suitable for them to play in the water. Your Uncle Yang has someone watching them, so they'll be fine."

Each child's nanny was there, each keeping an eye on their own child.

The old lady indulged the children in playing in the river and catching fish; it was a different experience, and the children had a lot of fun.

However, the children's safety was also ensured.

After all, many of the children were relatives and friends, and they trusted her to send them to the resort for vacation, so she had to ensure their safety.

"Grandma has arranged everything, so I'm not worried."

"Mom."

"Aunt."

Beibei, who was having a lot of fun, finally heard her mother's voice. She looked up and saw her mother and shouted happily.

Niu Niu, who was beside her, also called out "Aunt.

" "Aunt, where is my brother?"

Niu Niu also asked about her brother. Her mother told her that her aunt had gone out and would pick up her brother on her way back.

So when she saw her aunt, the little girl asked about her brother.

After Niu Niu was born, Yang Yang helped take care of her sister. The brother and sister had a very good relationship. Most of the time, Niu Niu liked to stick to her brother more.

The brother and sister were several years apart in age, and Yang Yang loved his sister as much as he loved her.

When Long Ting had a sister and showed off to him, little Yang Yang was very envious. When he had his own sister, how could he not love her?

Married at First Sight Chapter 4752

As Yangyang grew older, he realized he would be with a brother and sister for life. Both his mother and Uncle Lu said they wouldn't have any more children. He was grateful his mother was the head of the Feng family, otherwise she might not have given him a sister.

"Big brother,"

Beibei said to the younger sister, pointing at Yangyang in the river.

Serenity walked over to look at the two little girls and said with a smile, "As soon as your brother got here, he slipped into the river to catch fish."

"Niuniu, Beibei, you two are fishing too. Did you catch anything?"

Niuniu picked up her bucket and showed it to Serenity. "Auntie, I caught two fish."

"Beibei caught two too."

Beibei imitated her sister and picked up the bucket to show her mother the fish inside.

"Yeah, good, good. Keep catching! We caught some fish and can grill them tonight,"

Serenity said with a smile. "Whether Mommy can have grilled fish depends on our Beibei."

Beibei's eyes twinkled as she said, "Catch fish, catch fish."

“For Mommy,”

Serenity smiled, bending down to touch her daughter’s head. “Okay.”

She watched the two little girls scoop up some fish before walking away to check on her son.

Zhan Muchen and the other older children weren’t fishing; they were swimming in the deeper waters of the river.

“Baby,”

Serenity called out. “Don’t play too long. Get up and change after half an hour.”

The children’s skin was wrinkled from playing so long.

Zhan Muchen replied, “Mom, I know. I caught a lot of fish, more than a dozen.”

He stood up, the water reaching his waist.

As if to claim credit, he walked to the shore, took out his bucket, and showed Serenity his accomplishments. Serenity looked into his bucket and saw a dozen small fish, the largest no bigger than a child’s pinky finger.

“If you grill them, they’ll only make a bunch.”

Zhan Muchen said, “...Apart from Brother Long Ting and Brother Ye Yao, I’ve caught the most.”

His mother actually said that if they grilled them, they would only make a bunch.

He’d been catching fish for ages, only to find a dozen.

It wasn’t even enough for her to fill her stomach.

Serenity smiled and said, “Just kidding. I won’t grill your fish for you. Take them back to the farm and find something to feed them yourself.”

It was just that they were difficult to feed and could easily die.

She didn’t care if the children could keep them alive. As the old lady said, it was just to give them a different kind of fun.

When she was little, she’d raised fish too.

She'd go to the fields with her mother, catching small fish from the ditches and bringing them home, but they often died.

Her parents never stopped her from raising fish. They even let her raise tadpoles, letting her observe how they transformed into frogs. She missed her parents so much.

She was in her thirties now, and her parents had been gone for over twenty years.

"Mom, Mom,"

Zhan Muchen called out repeatedly.

His mother was distracted.

Serenity pulled her thoughts back to her son's face. She smiled and said, "Go play, but don't play too long. When you get up, change into clean clothes quickly to avoid catching a cold."

"It's the weekend in two days, and Daddy's off. I'm going to take you all to our sea view villa for a couple of days and go fishing."

It wasn't Zhan Muchen's first time at the beach, but he still loved going there and fishing.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4753

"Okay, okay, Mom, you have to keep your word. You can't lie to us,"

Zhan Muchen said excitedly.

Serenity smiled, "When has Mom ever lied to you? Dad has too. No matter how busy he is, as long as I promised to take you somewhere, I'll do it."

After having children, the couple put their children first and their careers second.

Although the Zhan Group occasionally had failed investments, it was generally doing well, and compared to other large companies, it was very good.

The old lady had nurtured each of her grandchildren into successful individuals. She didn't expect them to push the Zhan Group to new heights, but at least to keep it afloat.

So far, the old lady was very successful. The Zhan Group, when handed over to her grandchildren, would have achieved even greater success than it had under her sons.

If the great-grandchildren were well-educated, the Zhan family could continue to be the richest people in Dongguan for many more years.

Zhan Muchen immediately shared the good news with his friends.

Beibei suddenly put down her small fish bag and came over, calling out, "Mommy, hold me."

Serenity had no choice but to pick her up and return to the old lady. There was an empty chair, so she sat down there.

The old lady asked her great-granddaughter, "Beibei, aren't you going fishing?"

Beibei nestled in her mother's arms, yawned, and said, "I'm sleepy."

"I'm tired from playing and want to sleep."

The old lady reached out and gently pinched her great-granddaughter's face, "Beibei, go back with mom to rest."

Beibei shook her head. She was sleepy, but she didn't want to leave. It was so lively here . Children like to be lively.

She raised her head in her mother's arms and asked, "Brother, are you going to play?"

"Mom and brother said they will take you to the beach for two days this weekend and take you to the sea."

Regardless of whether Beibei understood or not, she only knew that they were going out to play, and immediately asked, "I want to go too."

Serenity smiled, "When we are anxious, our Beibei can even say a few words."

"If I take my brothers, I'll take you too. I can't just leave you at home."

She then said to the old lady, "Grandma, do you want to come along and relax?"

The old lady hadn't left the house in ages, staying at the villa all day. Even with someone to talk to, she still felt a bit bored. “If you don’t mind taking me with you, of course I want to go. I haven’t been to the beach in ages.”

“Ten years ago, I could still swim.” ”

I don’t have that much energy now. ”

Old age is undeniable.

Even if you take good care of your health, you still have some old age ailments.

Fortunately, she’s open-minded. She

’s already ninety years old. Even if she died tomorrow, she’d already enjoyed a peaceful life.

Serenity smiled, “Grandma, what are you talking about? Of course we won’t find you a bother. We’ll wait for Zachary to come back tonight, and I’ll tell him we’ll leave on Friday night and be back on Sunday night.”

The adults had to go to work on Monday.

The children could play a few more days, but after they were all gone, they worried that the old lady wouldn’t be able to look after them if they were left there.

The little ones weren’t afraid of the elderly; they doted on them.

As Zachary’s brothers put it, the closeness between generations was obvious.

When they were little, their parents would criticize them whenever they did something wrong.

When it was their grandchildren’s turn to do something wrong, the grandparents wouldn’t even bother to criticize them. While they were educating their children, the elders would glare at them from the sidelines.

“Okay.”

While Serenity and the old lady were talking, Beibei had already fallen asleep.

Niuniu was getting bored fishing alone, so she stood up and looked around, but couldn’t see her parents. Her older brother was having a blast playing in the river.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4754

She quickly reached Serenity.

“Auntie, Niu Niu wants a hug too.”

“Okay, Auntie will hold our Niu Niu.”

Serenity freed one arm and picked up her niece.

“Beibei’s asleep.”

“Yes, your sister is asleep. Niu Niu is sleepy? Do you want to sleep? Auntie will take you back to sleep, okay?”

Niu Niu looked at her brother swimming in the stream and said, “Auntie, I want my big brother.”

Serenity turned her head and looked at him. “Then Auntie will tell your brother to get up. He’s been playing for a while too.”

“Yangyang, baby, you’ve been playing for too long. Get up.”

“Niu Niu wants you to hold her.”

Yangyang didn’t want to get up. He was having so much fun and wanted to ask Auntie for a little longer. But when he heard Auntie say that his sister wanted him to hold her, he immediately swam towards the shore.

The nannies began calling out to the little ones under their care.

The older ones took the lead, and the younger ones followed suit. The nannies rushed over, wrapped the little ones in large towels, and quickly helped them change into dry clothes.

The old lady said to Serenity: “You should have come back later. Look, as soon as you came back, they were woken up by you after playing for a short time.”

Serenity smiled and said: “Look at their hands and feet, they are all white from being soaked. That’s because they have been playing in the water for too long. Grandma just indulges them.”

She dared to say that these bone-changing dragons had been playing for more than an hour.

It was just that Yangyang came back late and played for a while.

The old lady smiled: “If they want to play, let them play as much as they want, then they won’t come to play in the water secretly.”

“Beibei, let grandma hold her.”

The old lady saw that Niuniu also looked drowsy, and reached out to hold her great-granddaughter.

“Let the nanny hold her.”

Serenity refused to let the old lady hold the child. “Although Beibei is small, he’s still quite heavy. If you hold him for too long, your arms will get sore.” The old lady said, “Tongtong, you think grandma is old and useless.”

“Grandma, how could I think I would dislike you? I’m just considerate of you and worried about tiring you out,”

Serenity said with a smile, and then coaxed the old lady, “Grandma, let’s go back to the village. I’ll take a walk with you.”

“Grandma wants to eat the snacks you made.”

“Okay, I’ll make them for you when we get home.”

The old lady was happy.

Serenity laughed in her heart. They say that old people are like children.

Grandma is no exception. She really is an old child.

Yangyang came over and took his sister from her aunt’s arms. Niuniu immediately hugged her brother’s neck and said in a baby voice, “Brother, I missed you so much. You went out to play without Niuniu.”

“I didn’t go out to play. I went to my father’s house for dinner.”

“Auntie, I’ll take Niuniu back.”

“Don’t you want to take Auntie’s car? Niuniu is so little, she can’t walk that far.”

Driving from the foot of the mountain to the entrance of the villa didn’t feel far, but walking uphill would still take more than twenty minutes, and with a small child, it would take even longer.

“Auntie Hai, I’m here. Yangyang and I can take turns holding Niuniu. We’ll walk up the mountain,” Long Ting said.

He had been practicing martial arts for a long time, so he was very active. Although he was the same age as Yangyang, he was half a head taller than him.

With both teenagers agreeing, Serenity let them walk up the mountain.

The child wasn’t afraid of getting tired.

She held her sleeping daughter and let the old lady take her car up the mountain.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4755

The old lady said, “I’ll walk with the children. Don’t worry, grandma walks faster than them.”

She walked up and down the mountain almost every day. Only after it rained would she ask the housekeeper to drive her down the mountain because the road was slippery and she was worried that she would slip.

In the end, only the two youngest nephews followed Serenity’s car back to the villa.

Meanwhile, at the hospital,

Zhan Yue’s X-ray results came out, and there was nothing serious.

After reviewing his X-ray results, Zeng Xiaoya said to Zhan Yue, “Judging from Mr. Zhan’s X-ray results, there’s nothing serious.” He can be discharged and go home to recuperate.

Zhan Yue’s only serious injury was on his hand.

“But I feel pain in my sternum. Is it really okay?”

Zhan Yue leaned against the headboard and said, “I’d better stay in the hospital for a few more days and get more checkups. Besides, I have injuries on my hands. Both hands are wrapped in gauze and need to be changed frequently. It will be difficult to change the dressings after I’m discharged and go home.”

The Zhan Haoyu brothers looked at Lao Ba on the bed.

Zeng Xiaoya bent down slightly, stepped forward to take a look at Zhan Yue's bandaged hand, and said, "The injury on your hand is not very serious, and the medicine does not need to be changed every day. When the medicine needs to be changed, you can come to the hospital to change it again."

"Mr. Zhan underwent a full-body examination after being admitted to the hospital, and the test results are all fine. There is no need to do any more unnecessary tests."

Zeng Xiaoya's words were almost telling Zhan Yue to be discharged.

After a pause, Zeng Xiaoya said, "If Mr. Zhan feels that he needs to be observed for a while longer, then stay in the hospital for two days."

Zhan Yue said, "Well, I'll listen to the doctor and stay in the hospital for a few days. I really feel chest pain."

If the X-ray shows nothing, the pain is just caused by the collision, and there is no internal injury. In fact, it can be cured by applying some medicated oil.

But the Eighth Young Master didn't want to do that. He said he was not feeling well and needed to be hospitalized.

Zhan Haoyu walked over, turned his back to his brother, faced Zeng Xiaoya, and asked with concern, "Doctor Zeng, is my brother really okay?"

"From his examination results, there are no internal injuries, and the only external injury is the injury on his hand."

"Then it's okay for him to go home and recuperate?"

Zeng Xiaoya smiled faintly: "Of course."

Zhan Yue desperately pulled at his dear eldest brother's clothes from behind.

He hinted to his eldest brother that he needed to be hospitalized and he would not be discharged.

"There is no one to take care of him if he goes back. We are all very busy at work, and the elders in the family are old. It is better to keep him in the hospital for a while until the injury on his hand is healed and he can take care of himself before being discharged."

Zhan Haoyu changed the subject and satisfied his brother, letting him stay in the hospital.

Zeng Xiaoya complained in her heart, didn't the director say that these were the young masters of the Zhan family? The Zhan family is so rich, and there are many servants at home, are they afraid that no one will take care of them?

On the surface, she maintained a gentle attitude and said: "If Mr. Zhan is willing to stay in the hospital until the injury on his hand is healed, that's fine."

The fifth young master came over and asked: "Is there any vacant room in the VIP ward? Please help my brother change the ward."

When Zhan Yue was first sent to the hospital, there was no VIP ward, so he stayed in a double room.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, "I need to ask about this. I'm not sure. The VIP ward is not on this floor, but on the sixth floor. The sixth and eighth floors are both VIP wards."

She was only responsible for the inpatients on this floor.

Zhan Yue said, "Fifth brother, I'll just stay here. There's no need to stay in the VIP ward."

If he changed floors, Zeng Xiaoya wouldn't be in charge of him, and he didn't want that.

Looking at Zeng Xiaoya again, Zhan Yue felt that this female doctor was even more beautiful than when he first met her.

The first time he saw her, he liked her innocent round face and her big eyes like black grapes. She smiled when she spoke, and her smile was sweet and warm.

Zeng Xiaoya's facial features matched together, and she looked like a very blessed girl. She was also very cute.

Zhan Yue felt a little itchy and wanted to pinch her round face.

He didn't like skinny women, he liked rounder ones like Zeng Xiaoya.

Grandma said that girls like this are blessed.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4756

Zhan Yu glanced at his third child with a half-smile. "Really? We don't need to change rooms?"

"No, it's right here."

“It’s up to you, as long as you don’t mind the noise,” Zeng Xiaoya said. “There’s a well-behaved little girl in the bed next to her. She’s not noisy, and her parents speak softly, so they won’t bother Mr. Zhan.”

The little girl was receiving an IV outside, and she didn’t want to stay in bed and wanted to walk around.

Her parents took her out for a walk in the hallway while she received the IV.

Zhan Yue said, “It’s okay. I love my little one the most. There’s only one little one living here, and it’s quiet. I have a bunch of nephews at home, so they’re even noisier.”

In short, he refused to change rooms, floors, or doctors.

He insisted on Zeng Xiaoya being his doctor.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled.

She’d only just learned from the director that the Zhan family in Wancheng was incredibly prosperous.

She’d been studying away from home and hadn’t really paid attention to the affairs of the richest man’s family. Besides, it didn’t concern her, so why would she?

In Zeng Xiaoya’s opinion, it was difficult for ordinary people like them to come into contact with the richest man’s family.

Even if the family of the richest man felt unwell, they had a family doctor, and only came to the hospital for serious illnesses.

Even then, they would hire specialists, not a newly appointed doctor like her who could handle the situation.

Zhan Yue’s injuries weren’t serious this time, and the director, who knew her father well, had assigned her to treat Zhan Yue.

“Mr. Zhan, you should rest well.”

“Thank you, doctor,”

Zhan Yue thanked him.

Zeng Xiaoya said, “Mr. Zhan, you’re too polite. This is our duty.”

She didn’t stay in the ward for long before leaving.
Zhan Yue’s eyes followed her.

The ward door closed, and Zhan Yu waved his hand in front of his brother’s face, saying,
“Come back! Everyone else is gone.”

“Second brother, Doctor Zeng is so cute, with such a round face. I really want to pinch her.”

Since only his two biological brothers were present, Zhan Yue called him Second Brother.

If all nine brothers were present, he would address them by order.

“You like it this way?”

Zhan Yu quipped, “Why didn’t you say so earlier? If you had, you might have ended your single life.”

“I don’t like all girls with round faces and a bit of plumpness. Doctor Zeng suits my taste. I don’t know why, but the moment I saw her, something inside me said, ‘She’s the one.’”

In the past, his elders and his brother and sister-in-law had arranged blind dates for him, with both beautiful women and slim figures.

He simply wasn’t attracted.

It wasn’t that he was picky, but how could he continue the conversation if he didn’t feel attracted? If he didn’t have that heart-throb, there was no need to continue, lest the woman get too deeply involved.

If he couldn’t reciprocate, she would be hurt.

So after every blind date, if he didn’t feel anything, he’d simply refuse to continue the conversation.

Zhan Haoyu said with amusement, “I didn’t expect you’d get into a car accident and actually meet a girl you like.”

This is fate, right?

“Don’t get too excited, maybe Dr. Zeng has a boyfriend,” the Fifth Young Master said.

Zhan Yue: "...Isn't God going to do this to me?"

He finally fell in love with a girl at first sight. If it was someone else's girlfriend, he really couldn't pursue her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4757

Seeing Zhan Yue's expression, Zhan Yu said, "Do you want us to find out for you?"

Zhan Yue declined, "No, I'll go find out myself."

Zhan Yu smiled, "Okay, that's your business, it's better for you to find out on your own."

"I'm fine, brother. You guys go back, so the elders don't get suspicious. I'll call my housekeeper to come and take care of me."

After checking, he realized the real injury was in his hand. Even after being bandaged, it still hurt. It would be difficult for him to take care of himself, but there was no need for his brothers to stay here to watch over him.

Let his brother go back and do what he needed to do. He'd have someone to take care of him.

The main problem was feeding. His hand hurt so much that he needed to be fed.

The thought made Zhan Yue feel a little uneasy. He was almost thirty, and he still needed to be fed.

Well, he was in a special period.

"Ring, ring, ring..."

Zhan Haoyu's phone rang.

He pulled it out to check the caller ID and said to his two younger brothers, "Big brother is calling."

He answered the call from Zachary in front of his brothers.

"Third brother, are the results of Old Eight's X-rays out?"

Zachary was at work, and he was also thinking about Old Eight's X-ray results.

"They're out, and I took them to the doctor. The doctor said there's nothing serious. Old Eight's real injuries are on his hands. The doctor means he can be discharged and go home, but Old Eight insisted on staying in the hospital for a while."

"He said he can only be discharged after the injuries on his hands are healed."

Zachary breathed a sigh of relief, "It's good that he's not seriously injured."

"This guy, when he was first sent to the hospital, he kept shouting that he was fine and refused to be hospitalized. I went there and asked the doctor to arrange for him to be hospitalized, and he kept grumbling to me."

"Now he's scrambling to be hospitalized."

The brothers all understood.

Zhan Haoyu smiled. "That's right. I told him to be discharged and go home to recuperate, but he got anxious. Lao Wu offered to move him to a VIP room, but he still refused."

Zachary smiled. "Then Dr. Zeng makes a good impression."

"Yeah, that's what Lao Ba said."

"Okay, if he wants to be hospitalized, then he can be hospitalized. I'm relieved that nothing's wrong."

Zachary mainly wanted to know the outcome. Since Lao Ba was fine, he felt relieved and could focus on his work.

His wife just texted him, saying she promised the kids to take them to the beach this weekend. He had to work overtime for the next two days to finish all the important work he had. He could only take the kids to the beach on weekends.

Summer vacation was always a good time to take the kids out.

Oh, and they also promised the kids to spend some time at Lao Liu's house.

Zachary felt that he would have to work overtime again just to spend time with the kids.

"Have Eighth Brother stay in the hospital for a few days. Once the pain in his hand subsides, he can be discharged and back to work. We promised the kids they'd go play at Sixth Brother's house for a while,"

Zhan Haoyu hummed. “Got it, I’ll tell him later.”

The older brothers all have families and children, and they need company, especially during summer vacation. It’s so long, and we can’t keep them cooped up at home all the time.

While parents can take the children out to play, it’s different from parental companionship, and children prefer it.

The Zhan family has many brothers, all of them exceptional.

If they’re not available, it’s fine to let the unmarried, unmarried singles manage the company temporarily.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4758

If they felt hesitant to make a decision on something particularly important, they could call their brothers.

“I’ll tell Eighth Brother’s housekeeper to come to the hospital to take care of him and bring him dinner.”

“Fifth Brother and I will be back at work tomorrow.”

Zhan Haoyu and his family of three usually live in Jiangcheng, but the hotels he oversees aren’t limited to Jiangcheng; they also own hotels in Dongguan and other major cities across the country.

He also has an office at the Zhan Group headquarters.

Since he’s back in Dongguan, he definitely has to check back at the company.

“Okay.”

The two brothers ended the call.

Zhan Haoyu looked at his third brother.

Zhan Yue felt a little uneasy at being looked at like that by his own brother. He asked, “Third Brother, why are you looking at me like that? What did Big Brother say on the phone? I vaguely heard Big Brother say he was going to Sixth Brother’s place.”

Didn't Sixth Brother and his family of three return?

Everyone had already gathered, and they still had to go to Sixth Brother's place. It was so far, and the round trip would take several days at the earliest.

If Big Brother, the helmsman of the Zhan Group, wasn't at the company...

Zhan Yue wasn't stupid.

The older brothers were always like this. When they needed to be with their wives and children, they'd take him and Old Nine, two single men, and use them like slaves.

Seventh Brother hadn't returned from Yangcheng, so he couldn't be found.

It was just him and Old Nine who were unlucky, constantly being used like slaves by their older brothers.

The eldest brother had said that when they were young, they'd lived under their older brothers' protection, enjoying a peaceful twenty years.

Now that they were able to stand on their own, the older brothers were aging, their energy waning, and needed some of the younger brothers' rewards.
Are the brothers old?

The eldest brother has been married the longest, and his eldest nephew is now six years old. But he and his wife are so well-maintained, they look like they're still married. You can't really tell they've aged.

Although the eldest brother's age, if rounded up, is forty

, he's actually not even forty. Men are in their prime at that age, and yet the eldest brother actually calls them old.

They are old, so what should those in their seventies and eighties do?

"Brother, I'm injured and in the hospital. My hand is injured, and I can't even hold a pen and write.

You can't let me take charge," Zhan Yue said before his brother could say anything.

"Besides, I'm still young and inexperienced, and the senior management at the company may not respect me. I can handle you guys being out for a day or two, but ten days or half a month, I'm afraid I can't hold it."

"Old Nine is even worse. He's a few years younger than me, hasn't been in the business long, and he's still gaining experience."

Zhan Yue felt that he was being very loyal. Not only did he refuse the offer himself, but he also declined on Old Nine's behalf.

In fact, he was speaking the truth.

Laojiu is only 24 years old, the youngest among the brothers. His older brothers dote on him and don't put any pressure on him. He is the most free and easy, doing whatever he wants.

Although he will help to manage the family business, it is not for a long time and he is still accumulating experience.

Zhan Yue said this to let his brothers know that he and Laojiu alone cannot hold up the huge Zhan Group, and told his brothers not to throw the business to him and run away.

They are single dogs, not cattle and horses.

"I haven't spoken yet, and you said so much. How do you know that big brother wants to say this?"

Zhan Haoyu said with a smile: "Big brother is just concerned about the results of your examination. If you say that you are not seriously injured, let your housekeeper come to take care of you, and your second brother and I will go back."

"Tomorrow, we have to go to work too. We can't all play at home.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4759

Zhan Yue finally breathed a sigh of relief after hearing his eldest brother's words.

"I told you all along it was fine," he said. "You didn't need to stay here with me. Just send my housekeeper."

His second brother interrupted, adding, "You said you were fine and didn't need to be hospitalized, but now you wish you'd stayed for ten days, half a month."

Zhan Haoyu laughed, "He won't be discharged without ten days, half a month. The wound on his hand won't heal that quickly. It'll probably take at least half a month."

Half a month would be enough for the eighth brother to get a good idea of Zeng Xiaoya's condition.

Given the excellence of the Zhan family's sons, half a month would be enough to leave a good impression on Zeng Xiaoya.

Zhan Yue's handsome face flushed slightly.

There was no way he could hide his feelings from his brothers.

"Brother, go back,"

Zhan Yue urged his two brothers. "

Don't watch his drama here."

Zhan Haoyu told him to call the housekeeper, and only after the housekeeper arrived did the brothers leave the hospital.

After leaving the hospital, Zhan Haoyu said to his brother, "I'm going to buy some food and toys for the kids."

"I'll go too."

Since the two brothers weren't going back to the company today, they went together to buy the kids a lot of food and toys before returning to Youyou Villa.

Zhan Wei, who had shamelessly accompanied Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) on a business trip to Wangcheng, first visited the Lan family manor after arriving in Wangcheng while Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was busy.

Lan Zheng wasn't home, so he was greeted by Xu Susu, the current wife of the Lan family's head and Mu Qing's sister-in-law.

After the housekeeper served Zhan Wei fragrant tea, Xu Susu politely but tentatively asked, "Why is the Seventh Young Master Zhan coming to Wangcheng?"

The Zhan Group's business isn't nationwide. Some major cities are too competitive, and local companies dominate the market, so they avoid competing with them.

Instead, they establish subsidiaries in smaller cities.

Wangcheng is the Lan family's territory, where they've operated for over a century. Their connections, influence, and financial resources are unparalleled. Furthermore, due to its distance from Wancheng, the Zhan Group has no business in Wangcheng.

Xu Susu asked this question about Zhan Wei's visit.

Zhan Wei smiled, "I'm here on a business trip with my girlfriend, the eldest daughter of the Lan family in Yangcheng. My Zhan family and the Jun family have a long-standing friendship. Sister Qing and her family are currently staying at our old Zhan family residence. Since I'm in Wangcheng, I had to pay a visit to the head of the Lan family."

Xu Susu smiled. Her face was stunningly beautiful, and her smile was gentle, but Zhan Wei didn't dare underestimate this seemingly timid wife of the head of the family. She was a formidable figure, the apprentice of a master thief. She grew up with Dr. Cheng and his fourth sister-in-law, and their friendship was strong.

"I've already informed your Brother Lan that a distinguished guest is coming to visit, so ask him to come back. Miss Lan has come to Wangcheng. I've heard of her and have seen her from afar, but she's always in a hurry, and I haven't had a good chat with her yet."

"This time, I have to invite Miss Lan over for dinner no matter what."

Zhan Wei said, "Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) always comes here on business trips and has a tight schedule."

"She has visited before, and most of the time when she came, my husband and I weren't at home, which made us feel bad that she had missed a day."

"Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said she would come over to visit the head of the family and his wife later. She's so busy with work that she went straight to the branch office for a meeting as soon as she got off the plane. But she asked me to tell his wife that she would come over to visit later."

Xu Susu smiled, "Then the two of you can stay for dinner tonight. I'll tell the kitchen to prepare dinner now, and you can have a couple of drinks when your Brother Lan comes back later."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4760

"I hope the Ye Yao siblings are having fun in your Youyou Villa. I haven't seen them for a while."

Xu Susu asked about her two nephews. Without waiting for Zhan Wei to answer, she said, "Originally, Qingqing was going to take the children back to her parents' home as soon as the summer vacation started. But Long Ting and your eldest sister-in-law's nephew, that child is called Yangyang, right?"

“They have agreed on when to meet. Qingqing always respects the children’s decisions. Long Ting wants to go to your Youyou Villa first, so he will go there first, and then go back to her parents’ home.”

Zhan Wei said apologetically, “I’m not at home. I’ve been in Yangcheng all the time. I’m too busy with work. I only go back during the holidays, but I think the children will have a lot of fun.”

“My six brothers have all taken their children back to the old house. The villa is the most lively during the winter and summer vacations every year.”

Xu Susu smiled and said, “Thank goodness that Old Madam Zhan is very tolerant. She can tolerate the noisy children. If it were me, I couldn’t stand it. My kid is so noisy that I want to throw him out.”

“Grandma likes lively atmosphere.”

“How is the old lady?”

Xu Susu had a good relationship with her sister-in-law, Mu Qing. Her elder sister was married to Mu Qing’s other brother, Mu Zhiyuan. From Mu Qing, she knew a lot about the Zhan family in Wancheng.

“Very well.”

“Is the old lady ninety years old this year?”

“Exactly ninety in terms of age.”

Xu Susu nodded. The old lady was considered to be a long-lived person.

“Let’s go see the old lady someday when we have time. She and my master’s generation had some friendship, so we should go see her.”

“You’re welcome anytime.”

The two chatted for about half an hour, and then the housekeeper came over and said respectfully to Xu Susu, “Madam, the head of the family is back.”

Xu Susu hummed a nod but didn’t stand.

Everyone in the manor knew the patriarch doted on his wife. Whenever the patriarch returned, his wife never went out to greet him, unlike the wives of previous patriarchs who served him well.

“Seventh Young Master, call Miss Lan and ask her to come over when she’s done with her work. We’ll treat her to dinner and get to know each other better. We’re all surnamed Lan, so it’s quite friendly.”

Five hundred years ago, they were one family. Xu Susu didn’t say this out loud.

Zhan Wei smiled, “No need for me to call, she’ll be here soon.”

But he still called Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to tell her Xu Susu was inviting them to dinner.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), a little embarrassed, said over the phone, “We’re so embarrassed to bother Patriarch Lan and eat at his home.”

Although Zhan Wei had never met Lan Zheng and his wife before, the Zhan and Jun families were related, and Patriarch Lan would always entertain him as long as Zhan Wei mentioned his family connections.

She and Patriarch Lan and his wife didn’t have any personal ties; they just shared the same surname. A visit was normal, but staying for dinner at their home was awkward.

“Well, I was planning to visit when I was done, and this time, I’m taking advantage of you.”

If it weren’t for Zhan Wei, Xu Susu wouldn’t have invited her to dinner.

Even though Zhan Wei was visiting for the first time, his status as the seventh young master of the Zhan family meant that the Lan family and his wife gave him some respect.

The Zhan family was also very prosperous, and they had connections with many wealthy families in the city.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4761

Lan Zheng came in.

Zhan Wei said to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), “The head of the Lan family is back. Let’s not talk for now. I’m hanging up.”

“Okay, I’m almost done and will be there soon.”

The two ended the call.

Zhan Wei stood up and put his phone in his trouser pocket. Lan Zheng also came closer.

“Brother Lan.”

Zhan Wei greeted Lan Zheng with a smile.

Lan Zheng smiled back, “You are Zhan Wei, the seventh son of the Zhan family, right? You look a bit like your eldest brother Zachary.”

Since their fathers look alike, if these cousins look like their fathers, they will have some similarities.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “The outlines of us brothers are a bit similar. After all, we are brothers.” They share the same grandparents and are very close cousins.

The two shook hands. Lan Zheng asked Zhan Wei to sit down. He took off his black suit jacket and handed it to Xu Susu.

Xu Susu took his jacket, stood up and walked away.

A moment later, Xu Susu came back and poured a glass of warm water for her husband.

“Hubby, you talk to the Seventh Young Master. I’ll tell the kitchen to make a few more dishes. We’re inviting the Seventh Young Master and the Lan family’s eldest daughter to dinner tonight. The eldest daughter will be here soon.”

Lan Zheng hummed gently, took the glass of water, and asked again, “Where’s our son?” “Let him have some fun outside. He’s not going out anyway.”

During the summer vacation, his son hadn’t spent a single day indoors, instead spending every day treasure hunting in the yard. He was a playful kid, and even by himself, he could entertain himself and have a blast.

Lan Zheng and Xu Susu's son was only four years old, having attended kindergarten for two years. He looked quiet, but he was a mischievous little kid.

It was deceptive, Xu Susu quipped, thinking her son took after her.

He looked easy to bully, but in reality, he was a ruthless, cunning person.

Lan Zheng hummed, "Let him be. As long as he's having fun, he's noisy enough inside."

The Lan Family Manor now had an excellent security system, and Lan Zheng wasn't worried at all since his son only played inside.

There were surveillance cameras everywhere, and people were protecting his son, both overtly and covertly. The Lan Family Manor was ten times better than when he was a child.

His uncles had been divided up again, and all had moved out of the manor. Those who had left were no longer allowed to enter or leave the manor without permission.

Lan Zheng has cousins, but due to the power struggles of the previous generation, he has a bad relationship with them, and he is also wary of them. Now the children of the second and third wives are suppressed by Lan Zheng.

Xu Susu walked away.

After drinking half a glass of water, Lan Zheng put down the glass and looked at Zhan Wei, asking with a smile: "Why did the Seventh Young Master come to Wangcheng? Is your Zhan family planning to invest in our Wangcheng?"

"No, I came to Wangcheng on a business trip with my girlfriend."

Lan Zheng raised his eyebrows and asked him: "Is your girlfriend the eldest daughter of the Lan family in Yangcheng?"

Zhan Wei nodded honestly, "Strictly speaking, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is not my girlfriend yet. I am pursuing her. She is coming to Wangcheng on a business trip, so I shamelessly followed her here."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4762

"After arriving, she immediately plunged into her intense work, and since I couldn't help, I decided to visit Brother Lan first."

Lan Zheng asked with interest, “Aren’t you and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) sworn enemies in business?”

He had received a call from his wife saying that the seventh young master of the Zhan family from Wancheng was coming to visit, so Lan Zheng had someone urgently investigate Zhan Wei’s recent situation. They learned that Zhan Wei was in Yangcheng and was Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s sworn enemy.

After all, they were related, so he couldn’t investigate further. For now, he only knew what everyone in Yangcheng knew.

“They are sworn enemies in business, but we don’t have any deep hatred in life. The relationship can be changed.”

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “In fact, I admire Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) very much, and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) also admires me. As long as we don’t talk about business, we just admire each other. It’s rare to meet someone who is so suitable for me.”

“I don’t want to give up. Our Yangtai is also seeking transformation. There are no eternal enemies in the business world.”

Lan Zheng said with understanding, “The men in your Zhan family are very loyal. Miss Lan asked you to accompany her on a business trip. She must have accepted you. When you get married, remember to send me an invitation so I can ask for a glass of wedding wine.”

“Of course. When Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and I have our wedding, I will definitely send an invitation to Brother Lan.”

“My sister and her family are at your house now, right? I heard her say that she will stay at Youyou Villa for a few days before coming over.”

Lan Zheng was not angry that his sister took the children to the Zhan family instead of returning to her parents’ home after the summer vacation.

“I heard from my eldest brother that it’s true. I’ll be staying in Yangcheng for work for a long time, and I’ll only go back during the holidays.”

“Your Zhan family is so prosperous, with so many children, it’s like a kindergarten. During holidays, everyone likes to send their children to your villa, where they can eat well, sleep well, play well, and be safe.”

Youyou Villa is so large, with so many workers, and the walls are so high that children can't escape.

Besides, the land at the foot of the mountain and the several nearby hills all belong to the Zhan family. With so many workers working at the foot of the mountain, if a child ran down the mountain alone, they would be discovered.

There are also security guards on duty at the foot of the mountain, and you have to go through them before you can go up the mountain.

Lan Zheng said, "Our two families live so far apart. If they were closer, I would send my son there and have Grandma Zhan look after him. He'd learn a lot from her for a few years."

Old Madam Zhan was renowned among the wealthy and powerful for her child-rearing abilities.

Lan Zheng was speaking the truth.

Wangcheng was too far from Wancheng; the flight took several hours.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, "Summer vacation is long. Brother Lan, you trust the elders in my family. We can send the child there. A group of children are indeed gathered at the villa right now."

"It's perfect. Sister Qing's family is there too. If Brother Lan sends the child there, he'll have acquaintances and will adapt quickly."

Lan Zheng said, "My son is very easygoing. He can adapt to any situation and has a strong adaptability. Don't underestimate his young age; he can take care of himself."

His son would be the future successor, so he needed to be well-trained from a young age.

His parents traveled around the world for a long time. That is, during Susu's pregnancy, his parents stayed at home honestly for more than a year. When his son was three months old, his parents ran away again.

Lan Zheng now envies his parents. Their life in old age is really good. They are free and easy, playing everywhere and making friends.

He often told Susu that when they retire in the future, they will also learn from their parents and travel around the world.

As long as they train their successors well and let the successors take over early, they can retire.

Zhan Wei praised: “Children like that are good. I even suspect that Brother Lan is showing off your boy. My nephews, the older ones are like babies. Only the Jingchen brothers can take care of themselves.”

The younger ones still need nannies to take care of them.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4763

Parents are happier when others praise their children than when they themselves are praised.

Lan Zheng smiled and said, “Your nephews are still young, but my son isn’t young anymore. He’s four years old, and five in lunar age. He’s been in kindergarten for two years and has learned a lot.”

“He often comes home and tells us that the teacher told him to do his own things. He does what he can, and asks us for help if he can’t.”

“The boy is playing outside now. When he gets tired and comes back, ask him to say hello to you.”

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “It’s okay, let him play. Childhood is about having fun. You’ll feel happy when you look back on it. There’s no need to sign the children up for too many interest classes during kindergarten.” ”

Although my sisters-in-law also sign their children up for interest classes, they let them choose one or two that they like and don’t sign them up for too many.”

“That’s right, we do it that way too.”

Lan Zheng and Zhan Wei, one a father and the other who doesn’t even have a wife, were chatting about parenting.

Although Zhan Wei is still a single man, he has eight nieces and nephews at home. He loves them very much and helps take care of the children whenever he returns home. He has accumulated some parenting experience.

They get along well. The two have almost the same ideas about raising children and they have a great time talking.

Xu Susu came over with two plates of cut fruits and put them on the coffee table. She sat down next to her husband and asked with a faint smile: "What are you two talking about? You are so engaged in the conversation."

She rarely saw her man talking happily with others.

Due to his growing environment, Lan Zheng is defensive against everyone and dares not open up to others easily, unless it is about business or chatting. He rarely chats so happily with others.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, "We are talking about raising children. I want to learn from Brother Lan. When I become a father in the future, I will know how to raise and educate children."

Xu Susu laughed, "Talking about children. It's amazing that you can accompany Lan Zheng for such a long time."

Zhan Wei, unmarried and childless, actually chatted with her husband about parenting. If Xu Susu didn't know the Zhan family well, she would have suspected Zhan Wei was deliberately engaging in this conversation with her husband.

"I really enjoy talking about children. I love children. I have seven or eight nieces and nephews, and I adore them all. Whenever I get home, the little ones gather around, calling me 'Seventh Uncle' and 'Seventh Uncle'. Holding them, I feel like I own the world."

When he gets married, he also wants to have two children, so they have companionship and the house feels more lively. He primarily wants both a son and a daughter.

Previously, they knew they were destined to have a son, so since they were all destined to have a son, one was enough, no need to try for a second child. But after the eldest brother and his wife gave birth to Beibei as their second child, breaking with the Zhan family tradition, Zhan Wei and the others rekindled their hopes for a daughter.

Although none of his married brothers, with the exception of his eldest brother and his wife, had yet to have a second child, Zhan Wei knew they would eventually.

Who doesn't want both a son and a daughter?

Besides, their family especially loves girls.

Beibei is so adorable—fair and tender, with delicate features and bright black eyes, truly beautiful.

Every time Zhan Wei sees his little niece, he just wants to take a bite.

Of course, it's only a thought; he wouldn't really dare to bite.

If he actually did, Beibei would cry, and he'd get a beating. After that, Beibei wouldn't let her Seventh Uncle hold her anymore, which would be a huge loss.

Xu Susu said:

“Your Brother Lan also really likes children. He dotes on his son so much that even I, as his mother, feel I can’t compare.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4764

Although Lan Zheng and Mu Qing are twins, Lan Zheng grew up alone after Mu Qing was abducted by criminals at just six months old.

It took over twenty years for Lan Zheng to find his biological sister, and they had already missed out on growing up together. Lan Zheng , who had been lonely as a child, didn’t want his son to be so lonely, so he and his wife had already discussed having a second child.

They wanted a child, a boy or a girl, to give their son a companion.

Zhan Wei smiled, “One naturally loves one’s own children.”

“Zhan Wei, have some fruit,” Xu Susu beckoned him. “Dinner will be soon, so I won’t bring you snacks. I’m afraid you won’t be able to eat dinner.”

Zhan Wei ate some fruit; he didn’t really like sweets.

He could eat them if he wanted, and he wouldn’t mind not giving them to him.

After a while of casual conversation, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) arrived.

Hearing the housekeeper announce that Miss Lan had arrived, Zhan Wei stood up and said to Lan Zheng and his wife, “Brother Lan, Sister-in-law, I’ll go get Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).”

“Thank you,”

Xu Susu said, understanding Zhan Wei’s eagerness.

It was obvious that Zhan Wei really liked Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

After Zhan Wei left, Xu Susu asked Lan Zheng, “Weren’t Zhan Wei and Miss Lan sworn enemies in business before?”

“So what if they are sworn enemies? As long as they fall in love with each other, being sworn enemies is nothing and can't stop their hearts from getting closer. In Zhan Wei's words, they are just business rivals and competitors, and there is no blood feud."

"They can cooperate and transform. Once the company transforms, it will no longer be a business rival, so they can be together."

"As long as they truly love each other, even if there is a mountain between them, they can move that mountain."

Xu Susu thought about it and felt that it was right, so she smiled, "The wives that his brothers marry are almost all from other provinces and cities, and they are all from wealthy families in major cities. None of the Zhan family's granddaughters-in-law are simple."

Lan Zheng was silent for a moment before saying, "The Zhan family can stand firm in Wancheng because of the harmony in the family. Their family tradition is excellent, almost the same as Qingqing's in-laws."

"Grandma Zhan used to search everywhere for her grandson's wife, and she always picked out the good girls. It was only because her grandson was so outstanding that he was able to win the grandson's wife she had long had her eye on," Xu Susu said. "Grandma Zhan was praised by even my master. She certainly has good taste and is very capable. Husband, why don't we take the kids to Youyou Villa?"

"Qingqing and the others are there now, and you and the Zhan family's eldest young master are acquainted. It wouldn't be too out of place to go and join in the fun."

"When Zachary and Serenity got married, we went to the wedding and drank in the wedding wine."

Lan Zheng and Zachary weren't close friends, just acquaintances.

As long as they were far apart and had no business dealings, it was Ye Junbo who introduced them, and they were both giving face to Ye Junbo and his wife.

Lan Zheng thought for a moment and said, "If you want to go, then go tomorrow. Spend a few days there, and then come back with Qingqing and her family."

After leaving Youyou Villa, his sister and her family planned to return to her parents' home in Wangcheng.

Just in time to come back together.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4765

“But I probably won’t be able to go with you and your son. The company is so busy, it’s hard to squeeze in time for a few days of fun.”

Lan Zheng apologized, “I’ve made arrangements. You and your son can go, and Qingqing will pick you up there.”

Xu Susu said with a hint of regret, “My son is looking forward to you spending a few days with him someday.

Summer vacation is so long, you can see when you can squeeze in some time.” “If you don’t have time, forget it.

I’ll take my son over to join in the fun and let him make some friends.” “Susu, I’m sorry.” Lan Zheng held his wife’s hand. “I’m so busy, I don’t have enough time to spend with you.” “It’s all my dad’s fault.

Why did he retire so early? Other men can work until they’re in their eighties, but our old man retired before he was fifty.

All the company and family matters fell on me.” “He took my mother everywhere, and she only came back twice a year.

She was afraid I’d force her back to work if she did.” Lan Zheng complained about his father retiring so early, taking his mother on trips every day, living a carefree life. He’d never seen anyone more playful than his old man.

Old men from other large families rarely retire in their fifties.

The earliest they do is seventy.

Many retire only to find their successors leave such a big hole in the company that the old man has to step back out and continue managing it. Unlike his old man, after leaving the entire Lan family to him, he retired without a second glance, refusing to even set foot inside the company for years.

Xu Susu smiled and said, “Dad knows you very well. He knew you’d take me out to play when he came back. Of course, he didn’t want to come back; he’d have more fun than you.” When the couple first got married, they were very carefree and didn’t rush to have children.

They only had children after a few years of their own world. “Mom and Dad missed out on more than twenty years. Let’s let them enjoy their retirement. Our children don’t need our help, and Qingqing’s children even less. The Jun family has many elders who can help.

” “Mom and Dad don’t have to take care of children, don’t have to work, and don’t lack money. They can just go out and have fun, making friends. I think Mom’s health has been getting better since Dad retired and took her around.”

“You and Mom, standing together, look like brother and sister, not mother and son.”

Xu Susu was speaking the truth. Her mother-in-law took good care of herself. Even when she was mad, her father-in-law would always use skincare products on her and take great care of her skin.

After finding Qingqing and recognizing her, her mother-in-law's madness instantly subsided. Her children all started families, and her husband gave up his power and stepped back to accompany her on her adventures. Her mood improved, and her state of mind became even better.

Lan Zheng thought about his mother's madness for over twenty years, and how his father had been forced to have affairs outside for their sake, missing out on twenty years of their best years together.

Now was the time to let his parents enjoy a peaceful and peaceful life.

Zhan Wei didn't know what the young couple was talking about. He went out to greet Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ). Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s car hadn't arrived yet; it had just entered the Lan family estate.

But he could see it.

He stood on the steps, waiting for it to approach.

When Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) parked, he walked down the steps.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) got out of the car and said to him, "I bought some gifts. You're here to help me carry them in."

Zhan Wei said, "I already prepared a gift for you when I came here. I told Sister Susu about it. It's a gift from both of us. You bought so many, and Sister Susu will nag us later."

Maybe he'll bring them a lot of gifts back.

"I don't come here empty-handed. You brought your thoughts."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) opened the back door, leaned in, and took the gifts she bought out of the car one by one, including several toys that boys like to play with. These were for Lan Zheng's son.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4766

Zhan Wei saw the toys and smiled, "You women are so thoughtful. You knew to prepare a gift for the child, too. I hadn't thought of that."

"Is Patriarch Lan back?"

“Yes, he is. I’m a little embarrassed. I’ve been so presumptuous to come visit. I’m just happy to see Sister Susu. I didn’t expect her to call to let Brother Lan know he’d be back.”

Zhan Wei felt a little embarrassed for taking up Lan Zheng’s precious time.

Lan Zheng was much busier than he was.

“Your two families have some kind of relationship, so it’s natural for Patriarch Lan to come back and entertain you. Come on, take me in.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was now fully aware of the ties between the Zhan family and the Wangcheng Lan family.

She was able to stay at the Lan family manor for dinner tonight thanks to Zhan Wei.

“Young Master, don’t run so fast. Slow down!”

a strange voice shouted.

The two of them instinctively stopped.

Following the source of the sound, I saw a little kid of about four or five years old running towards this side, running very fast. Behind him were two nannies, who could not run as fast as the kid and were left a long distance behind.

The two nannies had no choice but to run and shout, trying to get the little master to stop.

The kid ignored them and did not stop until he saw Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

He was really handsome, a bit like Lan Zheng, but more like his mother Xu Susu.

Xu Susu was a stunning beauty, and her son looked like him. The little guy was naturally too handsome, the most handsome child Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had ever seen.

Even Sister Tong’s son wasn’t as handsome as the little guy before him.

The little guy looked up at Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), then at the bags they were carrying. Seeing a few new toys, his expression didn’t even shift. Zhan Wei thought this little guy had a steady temperament.

People with this kind of personality, even as children, tend to be more sensible and stable than their peers.

“Uncle, auntie, are you here to see my parents?”

the little guy asked crisply.

“Yes, we’re here to visit yours. What’s your name, little boy?”

Zhan Wei bent down, trying to free a hand to touch the little guy’s head, but the little guy stepped back, defensively but politely saying, “I’m sorry, uncle, you’re a stranger to me. I don’t tell my name to strangers.”

“My last name is Zhan, Zhan Wei, the seventh young master of the Zhan family in Wancheng. Have you heard of the Zhan family in Wancheng?”

“Is it the Zhan family from Youyou Villa?”

the little guy’s eyes lit up.

Zhan Wei nodded, “Yes, Youyou Villa is my home, I live there. By the way, your aunt and uncle, cousins are living in my house now.”

“Are you really the uncle of the Zhan family?”

asked the little guy. He looked Zhan Wei up and down again and said, “Well, you look a bit like Uncle Zachary.”

He should really be the seventh uncle of the Zhan family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4767

“Seventh Uncle, hello.”

After believing Zhan Wei’s identity, the little guy greeted Zhan Wei politely and extended his right hand to shake hands with Zhan Wei in a formal manner.

He had been to the company with his father, and whenever someone came, his father would shake hands with others.

After seeing it so many times, the little guy thought it was a courtesy, so he also shook hands with Zhan Wei like his father usually did.

Zhan Wei didn’t laugh at him, but bent down and shook hands with him very seriously.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) watched from the side and thought to herself that the young master of the Lan family was very sensible at a young age, although he was very cautious. He was much more than other children of the same age and must be mentally precocious.

The Lan family doesn't have to worry about the next generation, as there are successors.

But her family doesn't have a next generation yet.

It's no wonder that grandpa always urges her to get married. The old man just wants to see successors. With a new next generation, grandpa can rest assured.

"This is Aunt Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ). Uncle Qi likes her and is pursuing her. If nothing unexpected happens, she will be your Aunt Qi in the future."

"Zhan Wei."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) scolded him, "What nonsense are you talking about with a child?"

Zhan Wei laughed, "I'm speaking from my heart. You can't lie in front of a child."

The little guy looked at Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and politely called her Aunt Lan.

He didn't call her Aunt Qi directly. Uncle Qi had already said that he was pursuing her and they hadn't married yet. He could call her Aunt Qi after he drank Uncle Qi's wedding wine.

"What's your name?"

Zhan Wei asked gently.

"Uncle Qi, my name is Lan Xu."

"That's a nice name."

Zhan Wei reached out again, wiping the sweat from his forehead. "Your nanny told you not to run so fast. Look, you're sweating all over."

"I heard Daddy was home, and I was anxious to get back to see him. He's very busy, often leaving early and coming back late. When he's out, I'm still asleep, and when he comes back, I'm asleep."

"Daddy comes home every night, but I haven't seen him in a long time."

It was summer vacation, and his friends had already gone on vacation with their parents. He could only find happiness at home, not wanting to worry his parents.

Deep down, he wished his parents would take him out like everyone else, even for just two or three days. He would be happy.

Mom was busy too, but she usually waited until he was up and had breakfast with her before going out to work. She also came home early in the evening. When he was in kindergarten, she would even pick him up in the evening.

Although Lan Xu was young, due to his upbringing, he was more perceptive and observant than other children his age.

He analyzed his parents' busyness at work through daily observation, and felt that his mother's work was relatively freer.

Zhan Wei was stunned for a moment, then took his little hand lovingly and said, "Come on, Uncle Qi will take you in. Your father is indeed back. He will stay at home for dinner tonight and he probably won't go out at night."

Zhan Wei didn't dare to say the latter sentence for sure.

He and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) came to visit, and Lan Zheng entertained them. He would be at home, but he didn't know whether Lan Zheng would go out again after they left.

Lan Zheng said that his son was easy-going and could have fun by himself wherever he went without crying or making a fuss.

That was because the little guy was sensible and knew that his parents were busy, so he found happiness on his own without crying, making a fuss, or bothering his parents.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4768

Having seen his brothers and sisters-in-law skip important meetings for their children, Zhan Wei felt that Lan Zheng, as a father, was being irresponsible and not prioritizing his time with his children.

His brothers and sisters-in-law were equally busy, each managing several large companies and sometimes overseeing subsidiaries. They were so busy every day that even stopping for a drink of water was a luxury.

Yet, they still made time for their children, turning down all weekend social engagements to be with them wholeheartedly.

Whenever the children wanted to go somewhere, they would make time to take them there and fulfill their wishes. They truly valued their time with them.

Zhan Wei also thought that when he became a father, he would learn from them and spend more time with his children, believing that this would make them more cheerful and optimistic.

His brothers and sisters-in-law were also always present for parent-teacher meetings at the kindergarten.

Unlike Lan Zheng, who lived under the same roof, Lan Xu had gone for long periods without seeing his father.

Lan Zheng could check on his son before leaving home each day and visit his son's room upon returning home at night, but the little one was usually asleep.

Lan Xu was delighted. "Really? My dad's staying for dinner?"

He quickly added, "It must be Uncle Zhan Qi's visit. Uncle, stay a little longer at my house, and my dad will stay longer."

A father, entertaining guests, wouldn't leave too soon.

"Uncle has been here for a long time. After dinner, he'll sit for a while longer before heading back home. Your Aunt Ruo is very busy at work, and I'm accompanying her on a business trip."

Lan Xu sighed with a slight disappointment, then quickly asked, "Uncle, how long will my aunt and her family stay at your house? My aunt said she'll come to my house after she leaves yours."

"I miss my aunt. I hope she brings my brothers and sisters over soon. I want to play with them. I've prepared lots of gifts for them."

Lan Xu was defensive, but when he was close to someone, he was deeply trusting.

This was his first time meeting Zhan Wei, but he often video chatted with his brothers and sisters and had seen Aunt Serenity and Uncle Zachary in his aunt's photo album. He had a fondness for the Zhan uncles.

They had never met, but they knew each other well, so a natural affinity developed.

Even at a young age, he knew the Wancheng Zhan family's uncles and aunts were reliable, so he dropped his defensive mask in front of Zhan Wei, appearing much closer.

"Well, Uncle Qi doesn't know. Because of his work, he hasn't been home for a long time. I think they'll stay for ten days, half a month, or at least a week."

"That's your aunt. No need to rush her, she'll come."

Lan Xu hummed knowingly, and said enviously, “I envy my brothers and sisters. My aunt and uncle often take them out to play.”

He was usually accompanied by his mother.

Dad was busy.

When his grandparents came home, they would take him out to the zoo, the amusement park, or wherever he wanted to go.

Unfortunately, his grandparents were only home for a few times a year, only to rush back and go off again. He longed to travel the world with them.

Grandma said he needed to go to school.

Grandpa said he was like a bright little light bulb with him.

In short, his grandparents did love him, but they wouldn’t take him on a world tour.

Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) exchanged glances, but it was difficult to say anything.

They weren’t familiar with Lan Zheng and his wife, and since they were just guests, they couldn’t make any promises to the child on Lan Zheng’s behalf.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4769

After entering the house, Lan Xu broke free from Zhan Wei’s hand, ran towards Lan Zheng happily, shouting happily: “Dad.”

“Hey.”

Lan Zheng responded to his son, and when his son ran closer, he happily hugged his son and kissed his son on the face, saying, “Dad misses our little Xier.”

“Dad, I miss you more. I haven’t seen you for a long time. I was still asleep when you went out in the morning, and I fell asleep again when you came back.”

Lan Zheng smiled and said, “It’s not that long. It’s just the beginning of summer vacation, and you slept in. You usually have to go to kindergarten, so we father and son go out together.”

In Lan Zheng's view, it was not a long time, he saw his son every day.

Lan Xu nestled in his father's arms and said, "It's a bit boring playing by myself. I don't want to get up too early because I don't want to be bored any longer. If I get up late, I'll be bored for a shorter time."

"Are you bored? We have so many toys at home, and we even built an amusement park just for you. There's a nanny to play with you wherever you want."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and Zhan Wei came over. Seeing the father and son so close and talking, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) hesitated to interrupt them.

Xu Susu smiled and said to her son, "Xiao Xu, come here, let Mommy hold you."

The little boy fell into his mother's arms.

Only then did Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) greet Lan Zheng and his wife.

Xu Susu smiled and asked her to sit down. Seeing how much she had brought, she said, "Zhan Wei brought a lot when he came here. Why did you bring so much too? You can both take it back later."

"We're all relatives and friends. Don't be so polite. Miss Lan, when you're on business next time, come and have a meal. I'll take you around."

Lan Zheng agreed.
His family lacked nothing.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said, "I didn't buy anything, just a little token of my appreciation. I hope the master and his wife don't mind. I also bought a few toys for the young master. I wonder if he likes them."

Lan Zheng waited for the two to sit down, instructed the butler to serve tea, and then said to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), "You and Zhan Wei can just call me Brother Lan. Don't call your sister-in-law Madam either. She's not used to it. Just call her Sister-in-law."

"Xiao Xu is the younger generation. It's okay for you to call him by his first name,"

Xu Susu echoed her husband.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled and said, "Then I won't be polite. From now on, just call me Brother and Sister-in-law."

The two families shared the surname Lan, which in ancient times meant they were from the same clan.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s arrival livened up the atmosphere.

She and Xu Susu got along well. The two women chatted about jewelry and skincare products, and eventually the conversation returned to their children.

That’s how mothers are. When chatting with people, the conversation easily returns to the topic of children.

When the topic of children came up, Zhan Weizhu boldly said to Lan Zheng, “Brother Lan, I just ran into Xiao Xu at the door. He said he hasn’t seen his dad in a while and that he can’t play with him like other dads do.”

“He said he envied his cousins because his aunt and uncle would accompany them out to play.”

Lan Zheng was a little surprised that his son would say such things to Zhan Wei.

Logically, his son and Zhan Wei had just met today, and he was very cautious and would not easily talk to anyone he didn’t know. But he actually said those words to Zhan Wei.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4770

On second thought, he wasn’t surprised anymore.

His sister and Zhan Wei’s sister-in-law, Serenity, were close friends, their families maintaining close ties. Currently, his sister and her family were living at Youyou Villa.

He only had one sister, Mu Qing, and he only had one child. Naturally, his child and his sister’s children played well together. Even though they couldn’t see each other every day, they would video chat every other day.

The children would undoubtedly talk about the Zhan children, and naturally, the adults. Perhaps hearing his cousins talk about them so often had given Xiaoxu a natural fondness for the Zhan uncles. He trusted them, so it was natural for Xiaoxu to open up to someone he trusted.

Lan Zheng looked at his son, who was already playing with his new toys not far away. He recalled how little time he had spent with him since he could walk.

But his wife was devoted to him.

Perhaps, no matter how good a mother's company was, it still needed a father's. He had neglected to consider that.

Thinking his son had his mother by his side, and a host of nannies, bodyguards, and drivers to look after him, and that his easygoing nature allowed him to enjoy himself even without company, he hadn't anticipated the deep longing his son harbored.

Xu Susu said, "Your eldest brother Lan is very busy, leaving early and returning late every day. He rarely has time for Xiaoxu. Even during the holidays, he's rarely free. I have my own job, but I dedicate my mornings and evenings to the children."

"I've said I'd squeeze in some time to play with the children, but it's so hard for your eldest brother Lan to find the time,"

Zhan Wei said. "My brothers and sisters-in-law are equally busy. Some still help their families with their families, but they value their children's education and companionship. No matter how busy they are, they'll turn down all social engagements on weekends, stay home from work, and spend their whole lives with their children."

He didn't directly advise Lan Zheng, but simply used his own brothers and sisters-in-law as examples.

If you want to be with your children, you can always find some time.

After the Lan family experienced great changes, Lan Zheng took over the position of head of the family. After a few years, he had already firmly established himself in the position of head of the family. Both the family and the business were under his control.

It's perfectly fine to take a proper break and spend time with the children.

Lan Zheng watched his son, lost in thought.

Xu Susu gave Zhan Wei a grateful look.

It seemed she and her husband had discussed spending time with the children countless times, but to no avail.

Lan Zheng remained as busy as ever. Soon, the housekeeper arrived to announce that dinner was ready.

Lan Zheng gathered his thoughts, stood, and invited Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) into the dining room while Xu Susu served their son.

The little guy wasn't paying attention to the adults' conversation. When he had toys to play with, he was incredibly focused. He could spend days on end playing with each toy, meticulously studying it, even taking it apart and reassembling it himself. Of course, he often couldn't put the toys back together again, and had to ask for help.

Even after being told off, he would still take the toys apart and put them back together again. He could already assemble the simpler toys himself.

"Xiao Xu, let's wash our hands and eat. Daddy's eating at home, aren't you happy, Xiao Xu?"

Xu Susu took her son's hand and followed her husband and the others to the dining room.

"Happy, very happy. It would be great if Mom and Dad could eat with me every day."

These words made Lan Zheng feel even more guilty.

"Happy, very happy. It would be great if Mom and Dad could eat with me every day."

These words made Lan Zheng feel even more guilty.

During dinner, Lan Zheng, driven by a desire to compensate, kept picking up food for his son.

The little boy's bowl was overflowing with food from his father. He finally looked up at his father and protested, "Dad, I can pick up food myself. I'm pretty good with chopsticks. I can do it myself."

He was very self-sufficient.

His aunt often praised him, saying he was even better than his brother Ye Yao.

Lan Zheng smiled, "Don't you like the food Dad picks up?"

"It's not that I don't like it, it's that Dad keeps picking up food for me. I can't eat that fast, and my bowl is already full. If Dad wants to pick up food for me, he should wait until I've finished what's in my bowl before he picks up food for me."

"Dad has to pick up food for Mom too. We agreed that we'll protect and love Mom together."

So, Dad couldn't just pick up food for him and not for Mom.

Xu Susu touched her son's head lovingly, "Our little Xu is so nice."

Lan Zheng laughed, "Okay, it's Daddy's fault. I kept picking up food for you without waiting for you to finish. Then eat slowly."

He said to Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), "The kid is only a few years old, but he has a lot of ideas."

If he is dissatisfied, he will directly protest and will not force himself to swallow.

Lan Zheng wants to raise his son to be an upright man.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled and said, “Little Xu is very cute.”

Zhan Wei also praised him.

Lan Xu was a little embarrassed by the adults’ praise. He said, “Seventh Uncle, Aunt Ruo, don’t praise me. How can I be so good? Compared with my cousins, I am far behind.”

“My brother Long Ting is amazing. I like brother Long Ting and cousin Yanyan the most.”

Cousin Ye Yao sometimes cries.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4772

Lan Xu scolded Ye Yao in his heart.

Sister Jun Yan always looked calm and composed, as if she was ready to face the sky falling. Brother Long Ting was a master of both civil and military arts, extremely powerful. Lan Xu had already started learning Kung Fu, firstly to strengthen his body, and secondly for self-protection.

His father hired a Kung Fu teacher to teach him one-on-one, and his mother would also give him some pointers when she was free.

The little guy knew that his parents were both very good at Kung Fu, but they were busy and couldn’t teach him in person.

His mother said that she would teach him after he had a good foundation.

He didn’t expect to be as powerful as his parents, but just as powerful as brother Long Ting.

It seemed that Long Ting was an idol in the eyes of the children. They all admired him and treated him as an older brother.

“Mom, when aunt comes to our house, will she bring brother Long Ting with her?”

Lan Xu suddenly asked with concern.

“Of course. Every time Aunt returns, she brings Brother Long Ting with her.”

The Lan family in Wangcheng was Long Ting's lucky place. He was picked up by Mu Qing in Wangcheng and lived at the Lan family estate for a while. As a child, he was very close to Mu Qing and her daughter.

Later, he returned to Fengchen Villa with Mu Qing and her husband. Soon after, he caught the eye of Cheng Lingling and was taken in by the old doctor. He was raised by several elders and subjected to all kinds of brutal training.

Although the elders loved Long Ting very much, they were each heartless when teaching him. If Long Ting didn't learn well, he would be punished.

The old doctor would punish him by making him copy medical texts a certain number of times, while the old thief would make him use his wall-climbing skills to retrieve a certain number of bird eggs.

Others would punish him by making him do horse stance or push-ups.

While these punishments sounded innocuous, they were actually very difficult and tiring. Strict teachers produce excellent students. Long Ting's continued success is due to these strict teachers.

Xu Susu smiled, "Come on, eat! Eat more and grow taller."

Lan Xu was delighted to confirm that Long Ting would be coming over. He happily served his dinner and, mid-snack, asked his mother, "Will Brother Yangyang come? I've never met him."

"Long Ting and the others often talk about him, but I've never met him."

Lan Xu's circle of friends wasn't narrow, but it wasn't. The younger generation of the city's prominent families often played with him.

He didn't have many true friends, though. Of course, children didn't understand friendship yet. It was common for them to quarrel one day and make up the next.

In short, he envied his cousins the most, who had access to so many friends.

Now, they were all at his seventh uncle's hometown, playing, while he stayed home alone, finding joy in the yard.

Lan Zheng caught the envy in his son's eyes.

As if he had made up his mind, he said to his son, "Come and eat. After dinner, let's take your Uncle Seven and Aunt Ruo out for a walk. Tomorrow, Mom and Dad will take you to Youyou Villa to meet up with your aunt and cousins."

Hearing this, Xu Susu and her son looked at him.

After Lan Xu digested his father's words, he was so happy that he almost jumped up and asked repeatedly, "Dad, is it true? Is it true? You are not lying to me?"

"Dad is not lying to you, it's absolutely true."

"But, doesn't Dad have to go to work tomorrow?"

Lan Zheng said dotingly, "Dad will explain the company's affairs later. With your Uncle Wen and others in charge of the company, Dad can accompany you out for a few days."

"Then we will come back with Aunt and the others."

Lan Xu said happily, "That's great, Dad, I'm so happy."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4773

"If you're so happy, let's eat."

Lan Xu looked at Zhan Wei and thanked him.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, "Uncle Seventh didn't do anything, why are you thanking him?"

"I told Uncle Seventh my wish, and it's about to come true, so I have to thank him."

Lan Xu hadn't heard the conversation between Zhan Wei and his father, but he felt that Uncle Seventh would bring him good luck. He had told Uncle Seventh his wish, and now it was about to come true.

Everyone laughed.

After the pleasant meal, the family of three took Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) on a tour of the Lan Family Manor.

The two stayed at the Lan Family Manor until after 8 pm before leaving.

Zhan Wei had taken a taxi to come here. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had a car here, usually parked at the branch office. She or her brother could use the car when they were on business trips, making it convenient for them to go out.

Zhan Wei took Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s car back home. They were staying in the same hotel.

On the same floor, but their rooms were not adjacent.

After seeing off Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), Lan Xu, perhaps tired from playing, felt drowsy. His mother took him upstairs, where he took a hot bath and quickly climbed into bed. Before falling asleep, he told his mother, "Mom, wake me up tomorrow so I can pack my things."

He wanted to take his toys with him and also prepare gifts for his older brothers and sisters.

Xu Susu said, "Go to sleep. Mom will help you pack later. We'll leave after breakfast tomorrow. Your dad has arranged a private plane, and we'll arrive at Youyou Villa around noon."

"Just in time for lunch."

Xu Susu also needed to call her sister-in-law to let her know, and also to let Serenity know. After all, the three of them would need Serenity to receive them. Lan Xu fell asleep peacefully, and even in his sleep, he seemed to be smiling.

It was obvious how happy he was.

Lan Zheng walked in and saw his wife still sitting on the edge of their son's bed. He walked over and asked, "Is our son still asleep?"

"Shh—"

Xu Susu made a hushed gesture to him and whispered, "He just fell asleep. Don't talk so loudly. You'll wake him up, and who knows when he'll fall asleep again."

"Xu'er is very happy tonight. Look at him, he seems to be smiling even when he's asleep."

Xu Susu quietly looked at her son's sleeping face, which was as cute as an angel.

Lan Zheng followed suit and sat down on the edge of the bed, also looking at his son. He even reached out to touch his little face, "Why do I feel like my son has lost some weight? His face looks a little smaller."

"It's hot, and he usually eats alone. His appetite is not very good, so he must have eaten less."

Xu Susu actually couldn't tell that her son had lost weight.

“Husband, I feel that we as parents have neglected our child a bit. Although I can accompany him every evening, I can’t replace you. He still needs fatherly love and longs for his company.”

“Boys’ personalities are different when they have their fathers by their side.”

Lan Zheng was silent for a moment, then said, “I will try to squeeze out one day a week to spend time with you and the child, and take the child out for a walk. Although our house is big, he will get tired of playing by himself after a few years.”

What his brother-in-law and Zachary can do, he can do too.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4774

The Lan family’s future depended on their children, so they couldn’t be neglected. They needed to be nurtured and accompanied. Lan Xu was his eldest son, and even if he had a second child, he would be the heir apparent.

Cultivating a successful successor would ensure the Lan family’s continued succession. When he retired, he could, like his father, worry-free and travel the world with his wife.

“If he hadn’t told Zhan Wei, I wouldn’t have known he had so many thoughts,”

Lan Zheng sighed. “Our child is incredibly sensible. He’s not even five yet.”

Xu Susu stood up. “Help pack. Xiao Xu said he wanted to bring gifts for his brothers and sisters, and I agreed to do it for him.”

Lan Zheng leaned over and kissed his son’s cheek before rising.

The couple gently helped their son pack and prepare small gifts for his brothers and sisters.

Then, they too would pack. They didn’t need to pack too much, but they did need to bring a few days’ worth of clothing.

Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) returned to the hotel, and Zhan Wei escorted Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) back to her room.

After opening the door, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said to him as she pushed it open: “Come in and have a drink of water. I want to talk to you.”

Young Master Zhan Qi was more than happy to accept.

He followed Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) into the room and sat down on the sofa. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) brought him a bottle of mineral water provided by the hotel and said: “I haven’t boiled water for tea yet. You can just drink a bottle of water.”

“I don’t want to drink tea this late. You don’t need to boil water.

Zhan Wei unscrewed the lid, drank two sips of mineral water, looked at Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), and waited for her to continue.

“Zhan Wei, if you become a father in the future, will you be like the head of the Lan family? He is busy with work and neglects his children. Seeing Xiaoxu like that, I feel a little sad and think of my childhood.”

“People with our background are actually the same as Xiaoxu when we were young. Our parents are busy with work, and the big house is often only accompanied by nannies, bodyguards and drivers.”

“Many times we can’t even see our parents. They are always busy with work, endless meetings, and endless business trips. Even when they go home, they keep answering and calling.”

“We occasionally call our parents, but they may not answer. They think our calls are not important and answering our calls is a waste of time.”

“Even if they answer, they hang up after a few words. All they give us is money, as if giving us the best material life is treating us well, and they never ask what we really need or want.”

“If we make a mistake, they will just get angry and accuse us of being disobedient, and then use money to help us settle everything. In their opinion, there is nothing that money can’t solve.”

“They haven’t thought about their dereliction of duty as parents. Children are not born knowing everything and understanding everything. They need education and guidance and companionship from their parents.”

“Unfortunately, in the eyes of our parents, business is always more important than children.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) paused here, and continued: “I remember when I was in the third year of junior high school, I was about to graduate and had to attend a parent-teacher meeting. In the past, the housekeeper went to help me attend the parent-teacher meeting.”

“That time my parents agreed to go to the parent-teacher meeting for me, and I was so happy. But after waiting for a long time, other people’s parents arrived, but mine hadn’t arrived yet. I was so anxious that I borrowed the teacher’s phone to call my dad.”

“Who would have thought that my parents said they were at school, but they didn’t know what grade I was in. I asked them which school, and they said the school I attended in elementary school. I was about to graduate from junior high school, and they didn’t know.”

“You know, my parents are true love, and my brother and I are just an accident. My brother and I were almost raised by our grandparents. Although my grandfather was anxious to train my brother and me, my parents were indeed irresponsible.”

But it cannot be said that her parents do not love her brother and sister. They do love them, but not as much.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4775

When her brother and sister were able to take over the family business, her father sighed a few times, saying that he still felt young and hadn’t expected his children to be so grown up.

Haha, that’s what neglectful parents do. When she was young, she also longed for her parents’ company like Lan Xu did.

Unfortunately, that was all wishful thinking.

Lan Xu was actually very lucky. At least his mother had time to spend with him every day, while his father was a little busier and had less time to spend with him.

Zhan Wei said, “I told Brother Lan’s family that even if my brothers and sisters-in-law were successful in their careers, their children came before their careers. That’s not the case with our family.”

“Although my brothers and I lived with our grandparents and were raised by them, our parents never neglected us. They came back to the villa every weekend to play with us.”

“They took us on road trips and took us everywhere. And they never pushed us to do homework or study on weekends. They said weekends are for rest, for relaxation, and for having fun.”

“Maybe they trust us to finish our homework. Indeed, the first thing we do when we get home from school is to do all our homework, working until late at night to finish it by Friday night.”

“That way, we can have fun on Saturday and Sunday without worrying about getting criticized by the teacher for incomplete homework.”

No matter how much homework there is, they always finish it by Friday night.

Perhaps it's because they were so good at studying that even the most difficult questions seem ordinary to them. They know how to do them, so they can finish them much faster. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said enviously, “You're truly blessed! No wonder you brothers are all so successful.”

The Zhan family's fine traditions aren't just a passing tale; they're genuinely good. They pay close attention to their children's development.

No matter how busy they are at work, they always devote half their attention to their children.

Unlike her parents, who were all about business and each other, their children were a surprise, and they didn't pay enough attention to them.

It was only after her parents retired and no longer managed the company that they began to pay more attention to their children.

“Your parents still love you and Xiao-ge very much.”

“It's just not that obvious,”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled. “I'm not saying they don't love my brother and me, but compared to other parents, my parents have been negligent and haven't fulfilled many of their parental responsibilities.”

“Meeting Xiaoxu today suddenly made me think about the future. What would I do if I were a parent?”

“I can't be like my parents. I don't want my children to get caught in the same rain I got caught in. If I have children, family and children will come first, business second.”

She wasn't short of money.

She has quite a bit of personal assets.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “If you marry me and we have children in the future, I’ll take care of them. You don’t have to worry about them. If you don’t want to disappoint them, just spend some time with them every weekend.”

“You can continue to focus on your career. My brothers are all stay-at-home dads, and I think there’s nothing wrong with being a stay-at-home dad. You can raise your own children and discipline them yourself. When they grow up and become successful, we as parents will feel a sense of accomplishment.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4776

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled and said, “We don’t even know when we’ll get married, and you’re already thinking about children.”

“It’s only a matter of time. If you bring it up now, we can discuss it. We’ll make it this way. I’ll take care of the children and discipline them, and you can just focus on making money. You don’t have to worry about the children. You can just spend time with them on weekends.”

“That won’t work either. If the children stay with you and not with me, I’ll be a bit disappointed.

I was the one who carried them for ten months and gave birth to them.” Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said, “Children stay with whoever takes care of them. I won’t be a stay-at-home mom, but I’ll still take care of them and nurture their bond. Even biological mother and child need nurturing to develop feelings.”

Zhan Wei smiled fondly, “You’re the boss. Whatever you want, do it.”

He had no objection.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled, having already made up her mind to marry Zhan Wei as soon as possible. Such a good man couldn’t be snatched away by someone else.

She knew many strong women who worked with Yangtai were interested in Zhan Wei.

Zhan Wei was honest and straightforward, and clearly rejected those admirers.

Although those strong women were a little sad after being rejected, they still admired Zhan Wei and were optimistic about Yang Tai, so they continued to cooperate in business.

They didn't give up their business just because they were rejected. They could be said to have a clear distinction between public and private affairs. Strong women are certainly not simple people, they have a big vision.

Zhan Wei stayed in Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s room for more than half an hour before returning to his own room.

As soon as he returned to his room, Zhan Wei called his eldest brother.

Fortunately, Zachary was still awake, otherwise he would have been woken by his call and would have been scolded by his eldest brother.

"Brother, I went to visit the head of the Lan family in Wangcheng today. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is on a business trip there, so I came with her."

Zachary said, "Since you're going to Wangcheng, you should go visit."

He and Lan Zheng had only rarely met, but the two families were somewhat related. Even if he hadn't gone to Wangcheng, he would definitely visit Lan Zheng if he did.

"Brother Lan will send his wife and children to our house tomorrow. His son is too lonely alone."

Zhan Wei just wanted to tell his brother in advance.

Zachary nodded, "The wife of the head of the Lan family just called Mu Qing, and Mu Qing told your sister-in-law. Now our house is more lively."

"They are coming over tomorrow, which is perfect. We will take the children to our sea view villa tomorrow night. We promised to take them to the beach for the weekend, and grandma will go with us."

Zhan Wei smiled, "Grandma stays at home every day now. I'm afraid she must be getting bored. It's time to take her out for a walk."

"Grandma's life is so fulfilling. She used to go down the mountain to chat with others every day. Now a group of children are on vacation at our house. She is surrounded by a group of children every day. I don't know how happy she is."

"She also took a group of kids to the creek at the foot of the mountain to take a bath and catch fish. Even the sisters Niuniu and Beibei played for an afternoon and caught a few small fish. Beibei said she wanted to raise them, but they died in the evening."

"Beibei even cried once."

Zhan Wei smiled, "That kind of wild fish is not easy to raise. We caught a lot of them when we were young, but they all died."

It was not surprising that the fish raised by his niece died.

Their childhoods were actually quite lively. Even though they were all born with a silver spoon in their mouths, they did all the things other children did in their childhoods. They went up the mountain to rob bird nests, went down to the river to bathe, and caught fish and shrimp. Their grandparents indulged them, and no matter what they did, as long as they were happy, it was fine.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4777

Grandma said that childhood is about happiness. They should try to do what others have done to know what it feels like. They should also try to do things that others have not done. They should always have more life experience than others.

Now they are in their thirties and forties, and they still can't help but smile when they think back to their childhood. This is the happiness that their grandparents left them.

"How are you and Miss Lan?"

Since the seventh brother called him, Zachary asked with concern.

"Miss Lan's parents have been playing at our house for two days and said they will go back tomorrow. They said they came here for a trip, but it was just a pretext. They came here to inquire about your original family situation."

Of course, the family situation of their Zhan family would not disappoint Lan's parents.

Zachary could see that Lan's parents were very satisfied with their Zhan family.

No one who married into the Zhan family would be dissatisfied.

"I think it should be stable now. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) has feelings for me. The two companies are also discussing cooperation. As my sister-in-law said, even if we are in the same industry, we don't have to be at loggerheads."

"In fact, we can cooperate. As long as the two of us stop being at loggerheads, slowly, the two companies will be able to coexist peacefully."

"Brother Chang is a man without ambition. He just wants stability. Yangtai is stable now. If the transformation is successful, it will be great."

Zachary nodded again, "You can handle your own affairs. I don't need you to worry about me. You are both in your early thirties, and there is still half a year before the New Year. If possible, try to get married and celebrate the New Year. That way grandma will be happier."

Zhan Wei smiled, "I'll try harder."

After the call, Zhan Wei happily took a hot bath and then lay in bed, playing with his phone.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had talked to him about children tonight; they were making rapid progress.

As soon as she returned from her business trip, he'd start preparing for the proposal.

Zhan Wei spent his time on his phone searching online for other proposal scenes.

He wanted it to be romantic, and oh, even the diamond ring.

It seemed he'd need to go home and ask his mother for some jewelry. He could buy it, but nothing outside would be as good as his mother's.

Of course, he'd get the diamond ring himself. He'd listen to his eldest brother and try to get married this year.

Before he realized he was falling in love with Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), he hadn't considered marriage. He'd ignored the urgings of his elders, his brother and his wife, and let them go in one ear and out the other.

Now that he had someone he truly loved, and wanted to bring her home to cherish and love her forever, Zhan Wei was anxious to get married.

Two days later.

Yangcheng.

Old Master Lan sat under the pavilion in the courtyard, wearing a pair of reading glasses and holding today's newspaper in his hand, slowly flipping through it.

There were footsteps approaching from afar.

Soon, the housekeeper walked into the pavilion and came to the old master. The housekeeper said respectfully: "Old Master, the master and the mistress are back."

The old man didn't even raise his head, still reading his newspaper, and said: "They are back, so they are back. It's not like they became a high-ranking official outside. Do they need me, their father, to greet them?"

"Give me another pot of tea and some snacks. I'm a little hungry."

The housekeeper said: "Drinking so much tea, old master, it will affect your sleep."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4778

The old man looked out at the sky and said, "It's only afternoon, still early for evening rest. Another pot of tea won't affect my sleep. I've been drinking this tea for decades, it's good for my immunity."

Tea no longer disturbed his sleep.

The housekeeper had no choice but to refill the old man's pot of tea and bring out some fruit snacks, placing them on the stone table.

"Go on, I don't need you here," the old man told the housekeeper to go.

The housekeeper said, "Won't you go back inside? It's hot outside."

"Not really. It's windy today, and the trees around the pavilion provide shade. The breeze makes it cool. I just like to sit here, enjoy the breeze, drink tea, and read the newspaper." Such a comfortable old age.

That's why it's so important to raise children well. Once they take over, they, the old folks, can retire and enjoy their retirement.

His son retired even earlier than he did, but thankfully, his grandchildren are capable and capable of carrying on the family business, so the old man can now enjoy his retirement.

The old man was in a better mood now that the major events in the life of the eldest grandson and the eldest granddaughter were settled.

As long as the personnel affairs of the eldest grandson and the eldest granddaughter were resolved, the grandchildren below would have no excuses and would have to fall in love and get married honestly, and he would just wait to hold his great-grandchildren.

The housekeeper couldn't persuade the old man and had to go back to the house.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s parents had just returned from Wancheng and brought back a lot of things. Some were Wancheng products they bought during their trip, and most were various gifts from the Zhan family.

When they came back, they couldn't bring so many things, so they had to check them in. When they arrived

, the things also arrived. I called the housekeeper in advance and asked him to arrange two cars to pick them up at the airport.

At first, the housekeeper was wondering why the gentleman and his wife wanted two cars. When he learned that one car was used to haul things, the housekeeper wondered how much stuff they had to haul.

When they were brought back, the housekeeper was shocked.

Mr. and Mrs. usually brought back some souvenirs from their trips, but this was the first time they had brought back so many things.

"Mr. and Mrs., the old man is reading the newspaper under the gazebo in the backyard," the housekeeper said to Mr. and Mrs. Lan after returning to the house.

Mr. Lan said, "I see. I'll go to the backyard to see my dad later."

"Housekeeper, sort these gifts into categories first, then take one of each type and send it to my brothers and sisters' homes."

The housekeeper smiled and said, "Why did Mr. and Mrs. buy so much this time?"

"Your wife and I bought very little, just some delicious local produce we found in Wancheng. These gifts are from my future in-laws. They're so thoughtful and considerate."

"They found out how many people are in our family and prepared generous gifts for each small family."

Mr. Lan was now extremely satisfied with the Zhan family. The Zhan family was also very considerate and knew everything about their Lan family.

The Zhan family knew how many brothers and sisters he had, as well as how many nieces and nephews he had, and they prepared gifts for everyone.

The housekeeper, knowing the relationship between their eldest daughter and Mr. Zhan, smiled and said, “It seems the master and his wife are very pleased with Mr. Zhan’s family.”

“Very much so. I’ll have a good chat with her when Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) returns. Don’t let such a good family wait and get married quickly.”

Mrs. Lan had always admired Zhan Wei, and now that she knew he was the son of a multi-billionaire family, a perfect match for them, everyone in the family was very kind.

Most importantly, they were so large and harmonious, with so little family strife. Such a good family was a must-see; they couldn’t miss out.

After spending two days at Youyou Villa, the couple decided on Zhan Wei as their son-in-law.

They mentally praised their daughter for her good taste in choosing such an outstanding man like Zhan Wei.

As early as when Yangtai was rising, Zhan Wei caught their attention. Although they were business competitors with Yangtai, they had to admit that there were really few young people in Yangcheng who could compare with Zhan Wei.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4779

No wonder his daughter had never liked any blind dates she’d arranged before.

Having seen Zhan Wei’s brilliance, how could she possibly be interested in those other blind dates?

The housekeeper was also delighted.

Mrs. Lan picked up a portion of the local specialties she’d bought and gave it to the housekeeper.

Their family had always been generous with their workers, which was why they rarely changed them. They all worked well, so who would want to leave?

The owner was generous, and the treatment was good, with gifts from time to time.

Salaries and bonuses were increased annually, and the longer they worked, the higher their income. The housekeeper earned the highest salary, rivaling even office workers.

After giving the housekeeper instructions, Father Lan left the house and headed backyard to search for his father.

He soon spotted the elderly man sitting under the gazebo, reading a newspaper.

“Dad,”

Father Lan called out as he approached.

“Dad, it’s hot outside, why don’t you come back inside?”

“You’re back,”

the old man asked his son as he closed the newspaper after finishing reading it.

Father Lan smiled and said, “Well, I’m back. I wanted to play for a few more days, but I have something to discuss with Dad, so I won’t play anymore.”

They went to Wancheng not for tourism, but to inquire about Zhan Wei’s family situation.

“Sit down, have a couple of cups of tea with Dad,” the old man gestured for his son to sit.

After Lan’s father sat down, he poured himself a cup of tea and said, “Dad, don’t drink too much tea, it won’t affect your sleep at night.”

“It’s okay, Dad’s used to it. No matter how much tea I drink, it won’t affect my sleep.”

“How did you and your wife go on your trip to Wancheng?”

While the Zhan family of Wancheng was renowned for their good family traditions in high society, that was just hearsay. Whether it was true or not, he had to find out for himself.

This matter concerned his eldest granddaughter’s lifelong happiness, and the old man couldn’t afford to be careless. It was most appropriate for his eldest son and his wife to go and make inquiries. They were his granddaughter’s biological parents, and they also hoped for their child’s future happiness.

“When we were touring Wancheng, we walked through the streets and alleys, and as long as it involved the Zhan family, we received positive reviews. Even though many people had never met anyone from the Zhan family, they all said that the Zhan family had a good family tradition.”

“The Zhan Group is like a god in the business world of Wancheng. It provides a large number of jobs in Wancheng. We have learned that the Zhan Group and its branches and factories all treat their workers very well.”

“It’s just that it’s not easy to get into the Zhan Group. The requirements are quite high. Many of the management of the headquarters have climbed up step by step from the branches. It’s also difficult to get in through the back door in the Zhan Group. It all depends on strength.”

“Even the young master of their family will be eliminated from the company if he doesn’t have the real stuff.”

“Of course, the young masters of the Zhan family are still very good. There are nine young masters in this generation of their family. The family is really prosperous. It is said that their family has no daughters for three generations.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4780

“The women who married into the family all gave birth to sons, and people jokingly called it a “monk temple.” It was not until the eldest young lady of the Zhan family gave birth to a daughter that the deadlock of the women in the Zhan family not giving birth to daughters was broken.”

“However, although the elders in their family are very nice, they are actually very picky. The wives and grandwives they married are all strong women with excellent character.”

“The children they raise are excellent enough, and the children have good vision, so the elders are assured. So to say that the elders in their family are open-minded cannot be said to be truly open-minded.”

“If someone in their family marries a daughter-in-law who has no ability and no background, and the elders can accept it, then that is truly open-minded.”

After saying so many words at once, Father Lan was thirsty. He picked up his cup of tea and drank it slowly. After finishing the cup of tea, he poured himself another cup of tea.

When he put down the teapot, his old father asked him, “Do you approve of the Zhan family?”

“Of course I approve of it. In fact, as long as our children have the good vision of the Zhan family’s sons, we will not interfere in our children’s emotional affairs.”

“Then what did you realize from the attitude of the Zhan family’s elders?”

Father Lan was stunned for a moment, and after thinking about it, he said, “You still have to cultivate your children well. Your own children are good enough, and he must choose an equally good partner.”

“When two excellent people come together, the children born will have good genes. In this way, the family will be able to prosper from generation to generation.”

The old man nodded and said, “It can’t be said that their elders are not really unenlightened. Of course, what you said makes sense. They are open-minded because their juniors have unique vision. The women they marry home are both good in character and successful in their careers.

“And they all have powerful backgrounds. It’s simply because the Zhan family’s feng shui is incredibly good. It’s truly hard to find a successful and well-behaved woman who’s a good match for their children.”

Father Lan nodded.

He agreed, believing the Zhan family’s feng shui to be exceptional.

Perhaps few families across the country could boast such a feat.

“We don’t need to delve into whether their elders are truly open-minded. As long as we know that their family traditions are really good and everyone lives in harmony, it’s worth it for Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to marry into the family.”

“It’s hard to find a family or a family that can truly implement the principle of ‘harmony in the family brings prosperity’ to every member of the family.”

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and Zhan Wei went from killing each other to falling in love. They understand each other very well. They didn’t have love before and refused to give in to each other, but now that they have feelings, they will each take a step back and won’t be as tit-for-tat as before.”

“They are a perfect match. I have always admired Zhan Wei. Even if he is not the young master of the Zhan family, I am optimistic about him based on his abilities and would like our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to marry him.”

Zhan Wei is good enough, and his status as a young master of a wealthy family is just the icing on the cake.

“Since you’ve been to the Zhan family and are satisfied with the atmosphere there, when Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) comes back from her business trip, suggest that she and Zhan Wei formally establish a romantic relationship. If possible, it would be even better if they could get married by the end of this year.”

Father Lan said, “Dad, getting married by the end of this year? Wouldn’t that be a bit too fast?”

“What’s fast? They didn’t meet through a blind date. They’ve known each other for five or six years and understand each other. From sworn enemies to lovers, giving them half a year is enough time to adapt to this transition.”

“Such a good marriage, we should hurry up to avoid unnecessary complications.” Lan’s father, however, spoke confidently, “There won’t be any complications. Since Zhan Wei has fallen in love with our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), he won’t change his mind. Men in their family are very loyal. Whether they are elders or his peers, they are loyal to their marriages and families after marriage.”

“The paparazzi in Wancheng can’t dig up any scandals about them.”

Lan’s father already felt that Zhan Wei, his future son-in-law, was inevitable.

Well, he actually admired Zhan Wei as a child. The company had tried to lure Zhan Wei into the Lan Group before, but failed. However, having Zhan Wei as his son-in-law and being a family in the future was also very good.

“There are many women who admire Zhan Wei. Who can guarantee that they won’t do anything after knowing that Zhan Wei and our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) have confirmed their relationship?”

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is not a pushover, so why are you afraid of them?”

“They won’t start with Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ). They will only start with Zhan Wei. To put it bluntly, if there are those extreme ones, they will take advantage of their cooperation with Zhan Wei to drug Zhan Wei or get him drunk and have a relationship with him.”

“Zhan Wei has to take responsibility. Is there still hope for our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )?”

Father Lan: “...Dad, this kind of thing rarely happens. It only happens on TV.”

“Besides, Zhan Wei is such a smart person, how can he be calculated so easily.”

“Those admirers are not love-brained. Maybe they will envy and jealous of our Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), but they are not willing to gamble their future and prospects. They have a big pattern and big ambition.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4781

The old man glared at his son.

Lan's father wanted to say something, but he didn't dare.

He realized his father was asking him to urge his daughter to get married soon.

After the New Year, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) would be thirty.

Well, it would be better for her to get married soon, to put her father's mind at ease.

"Dad's right. I'll have her mother talk to her when Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) gets back from her business trip," the old man said, satisfied.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had been on a business trip to Wangcheng for about ten days before returning to Yangcheng.

In reality, it only took a week to finish company business.

She'd stayed in Wangcheng for three extra days because Zhan Wei had told her, since she was already there, she might as well spend two or three days there enjoying the scenery. Every city has its own scenic spots.

Traveling, after all, means you visit places others are tired of, and others visit places you've tired of for a few days.

Thinking of her brother at headquarters, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) agreed to Zhan Wei's request and stayed in Wangcheng for three days without rushing back to Yangcheng.

During these three days, the two acted like any other couple. Having known each other for several years, they were very familiar with each other, and their feelings for each other were confirmed, so their relationship progressed rapidly.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had previously felt a bit entangled.

Now that her feelings were resolved, she no longer worried about the fact that they were business rivals.

As long as both sides took a step back, even if they were rivals, the two companies could coexist peacefully. Collaboration is collaboration, but not all collaborations require a life-and-death struggle.

Lan Zheng and his wife had already flown to Wancheng with Lan Xu. Zhan Wei even bought a lot of Wangcheng specialties and asked Lan Zheng and his wife to bring them back for his elders.

Lan Zheng said he was ready, but Zhan Wei said that what Lan Zheng prepared was Lan Zheng's intention, and what he bought was his intention.

He was busy and had no time to go back to accompany his grandmother. He could only buy some things and ask Lan Zheng to take them back for him to show his filial piety.

When Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and Zhan Wei set off from Wangcheng to return to Yangcheng, Lan Zheng's family of three and Mu Qing's family of five returned to Wangcheng from Wancheng.

Zhan Wei and Ye Junbo were not familiar with each other. The eldest brother had more interactions with Ye Junbo. He only called when Mu Qing's family of five came over, and Lan Zheng wanted to invite him and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to dinner.

But the two had already gone to the airport, so they had to decline Lan Zheng's kindness.

It was already evening when they returned to Yangcheng after spending several hours on the plane.

Zhan Wei asked Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), "You're not going back to the company right now, are you?"

"You haven't been to work for ten days, you can't even remember the date, right? Today is Saturday, and we chose to come back on Saturday. We don't have to work, we can rest at home for a day, and then we'll be fully refreshed for work on Monday." Zhan Wei was stunned for a moment. "Oh, I forgot, it's Saturday. Well, then, I'll take you home first, and then I'll take you out for dinner. How about we go to a movie tonight?"

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said, "If you take me home, my family won't let you go. They'll definitely have you at my house for dinner.” “After dinner, you have to chat with my old man. We won’t go out tonight or see a movie. Let’s go on a date tomorrow. We can do what other couples do.”

For three days, the two of them acted like a normal couple, and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) quite liked it. It felt especially sweet.

Zhan Wei was very considerate.

In all the years she had known him, she hadn’t realized how thoughtful he was.

He said that when he was kind to someone, he was open-hearted, and she believed him.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “Okay, then I’ll have dinner at your house. Fortunately, I bought gifts for grandpa, uncles and aunts.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4782

On the way back, Zhan Wei stuffed his suitcase with gifts for the Lan family elders.

“Did you know my parents are back from their trip?”

Zhan Wei laughed. “Didn’t you tell me? You said they were back, and they’ve been back for a few days.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) chuckled. “I really forgot.”

With Zhan Wei by her side, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) felt less lonely on the taxi ride home from the airport.

took a taxi back .

The taxi dropped them off at the entrance of the Lan family villa and stopped.

Zhan Wei paid the fare and quickly got out to help Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) with her suitcases.

He was pulling both suitcases by himself. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) wanted to pull her own, but he wouldn’t let her.

“From now on, when you’re with me, I’ll do all the heavy lifting.”

Zhan Wei, as if he were at home, led the way inside, a suitcase in each hand.

The housekeeper greeted him with a smile.

“The eldest lady is back, Mr. Zhan, good afternoon,” the butler said with a smile.

Zhan Wei also smiled and responded to the butler’s greeting. The butler had worked in the Lan family for many years and was deeply trusted by the Lan family, so he had to give the butler some face.

However, he, the seventh young master Zhan, never put on airs; he was very approachable.

“Is Grandpa home?”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) asked the housekeeper.

“Grandpa knew the eldest daughter was coming back today, so he stayed out this afternoon. He’s playing chess with the master in the room right now. Madam, knowing the eldest daughter was coming, went to the kitchen herself, saying she wanted to cook some of her specialties to entertain Mr. Zhan.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s lips twitched as she said, “My mom cooked for Zhan Wei. I thought she missed me and finally remembered to show me some maternal love.”

The housekeeper smiled, “I saw that Madam cooked all the dishes the eldest daughter would love. They’re definitely for her.”

Zhan Wei smiled back, “Then I’m in luck.”

The Lan family elders completely approved of him, treating him like a future son-in-law.

In the eyes of the Lan family, Zhan Wei had accompanied Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) on her business trip to Wangcheng, a ten-day stay. During those ten days, the two of them shared meals and lodgings, albeit in a hotel, not the same room.

But they considered this to be living together, practically the same as living together.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ): ...Aside from hugging and kissing, she and Zhan Wei haven't done anything inappropriate.

Why is it that when she's with her family, it's like she and Zhan Wei are living together? How can they be so eager to marry her off?

The housekeeper entered the house before the two of them, and she happily told the old man, "Old man, sir, the eldest lady and Mr. Zhan are back."

"They're back, they're back. It's time for dinner. I'm hungry, especially after smelling the aroma of my mother's cooking."

Lan Dongxiao, who was sitting aside watching his grandfather and father play chess, held a plate of fruit in his hands. He had eaten quite a bit of fruit, but he actually said he was hungry.

The old man looked at him twice, "You sit here and watch us play chess, and you keep eating. How dare you say you're hungry? Don't eat so much, or you'll get fat. Your girlfriend will dislike your figure."

Lan Dongxiao chuckled, "I'm eating fruit, I won't gain weight. I have to go to the gym later to work out, so I won't lose my figure."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4783

He hasn't gotten married yet, so he needs to maintain his good figure.

Hearing footsteps, Lan Dongxiao put down the fruit plate, stood up and walked towards the door.

"Brother."

Before they reached the door, the brother and sister met face to face, and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) called him "Brother".

Zhan Wei, who was pulling two suitcases behind him, also came in. Seeing Lan Dongxiao, he generously called him "Brother".

Lan Dongxiao teased him: “Zhan Wei, you and my sister are not married yet, you changed your words too quickly, just call me Mr. Lan, after all, I am not ready to change the words to red envelopes.”

“Brother.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) called out softly, and her pretty face turned red.

Lan Dongxiao looked at his sister as if he was watching the news, and smiled and joked: “Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), we have been brother and sister for almost 30 years, and it was only today that I found out that you can blush.”

His sister is too strong.

She is not as delicate as a girl, nor is she weak. She is very strong, so how could she blush?

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) raised her foot to kick her.

Lan Dongxiao quickly hid behind Zhan Wei and deliberately said to him, “Zhan Wei, look at my sister. She’s very powerful. She kicked me before I even said a few words, and I’m her biological brother.”

“You, be careful. Who knows if she will abuse you in the future?”

“Lan Dongxiao!”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s face turned even redder.

Zhan Wei said seriously, “I won’t give Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) the chance to abuse me, because I can tolerate everything about her. No matter if she has a good temper or a bad temper, I can tolerate her.”

“I love her, even her strengths and weaknesses. Besides, in my eyes, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) has almost no shortcomings.”

Lan Dongxiao shuddered deliberately and said, “I was caught off guard and fed a mouthful of dog food by you.”

He put a hand on Zhan Wei’s shoulder like a brother and said, “Your words put my mind at ease.”

Well, as the future brother-in-law, he really admired Zhan Wei. Without him fanning the flames behind the scenes, the two of them wouldn’t have gotten together so quickly.

He had long noticed that Zhan Wei treated his sister differently, and his sister treated Zhan Wei differently. The two had been fighting for so long that they hadn’t noticed this.

After a little guidance from him, the two of them saw each other's hearts clearly.

It was great that he didn't have to spend a single soldier to get rid of Yang Tai, a strong rival.

The boss of Yang Tai had become his son-in-law, his brother-in-law. How could Zhan Wei still go against their Lan Group?

Losing an enemy, and a strong one at that, was a great thing for Lan Dongxiao.

"Grandpa, Dad, we're back."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) walked over.

After looking at the chessboard again, she smiled, "Grandpa, you've already lost, there's no need to struggle."

"You little girl, you come back and tell me that I lost. I can still struggle."

The old man said unconvinced.

Zhan Wei put down his two suitcases, came over and greeted the two elders respectfully, then took a look at the pattern on the chessboard and said, "Grandpa is a little absent-minded. This game is indeed irreversible."

The loss was certain.

The old man immediately said to his son, "No more, no more. I'm happy that my granddaughter is back, but I'm upset and lost a game to you."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4784

Lan's father smiled and said, "Dad and I played chess all afternoon, and I only won two games. Dad is still very good."

The father and son put away the chess pieces and warmly invited Zhan Wei to sit down. Before sitting down, Zhan Wei went to the kitchen to greet Mrs. Lan and asked if she needed any help.

"No, Auntie has everything ready. Zhan Wei, go tell them it's time to eat. Wash your hands, eat, and try the dishes Auntie cooked herself."

Zhan Wei couldn't help, but his willingness made Mrs. Lan even more pleased with her future son-in-law.

After staying at Youyou Villa for a few days, she and her husband lived in the second room of the Zhan family's house and got along well with Zhan Wei's parents.

They also learned a lot about Zhan Wei. Zhan Wei's parents, who were the first to sell their son, told Mrs. Lan and his wife everything about their son.

This was because the future in-laws wanted them to get to know Zhan Wei better, so that they could feel confident in leaving Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) in his care. Zhan Wei would definitely make her happy.

As a parent, isn't it all about wanting their children to live a happy life?

Mrs. Lan thought about how the couple did not pay enough attention to their two children. When they were young, they were busy with business matters and had no time to accompany their two children, nor did they pay much attention to them.

The two children grew up with their parents-in-law. When they grew up, they were all very outstanding and did not need them as parents to worry about them. Mrs. Lan had to admit that she and her husband were very negligent in their parenting and had not fulfilled their parental responsibilities.

The family finished dinner happily, and Zhan Wei chatted with the old man.

Mrs. Lan asked her daughter to go for a walk with her. After the mother and daughter left the house, Mrs. Lan turned to look at her daughter and said, "Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), can you hold your mother's arm affectionately like other daughters?"

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) hesitated, but finally held her mother's arm.

The mother and daughter rarely had such intimate actions.

"Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), will you and your brother blame your parents?"

Mrs. Lan asked gently.

"Why blame Mom and Dad?"

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) asked back, "Mom and Dad have never done anything to hurt my brother and me."

Mrs. Lan sighed as she walked, "Mom and Dad have neglected you and your sister all along and have not fulfilled their parental responsibilities."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was silent for a long time, then said, “I can understand how difficult it was for Mom and Dad when they were young. Managing a company was indeed very busy. After my eldest brother and I took over the family business, we were also very busy.”

“Isn’t this how children from families like ours go through?”

“Mom and Dad still love you very much.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled and said, “Mom, we know, my brother and I don’t blame you. Mom, you can tell me whatever you want to say. We are mother and daughter, and there is nothing we can’t say.”

There’s no need to beat around the bush.

Mrs. Lan smiled. “Okay, kid, I’ll be frank. When are you and Zhan Wei getting married? I think your relationship is stable, and Mom and Dad have already gotten to know his family situation.”

“It’s a good match, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ). You two should get married soon. After the New Year, you’ll be thirty. Get married before you turn thirty.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ): “...Mom, Zhan Wei and I just confirmed our relationship. We haven’t even had a proper date yet and enjoyed the sweet process of love.”

“Are you still worried that Zhan Wei will run away? Don’t worry, he will be your son-in-law in the future. He can’t get away.”

She held on to him and wouldn’t let go unless Zhan Wei let go of her hand.

“So what if I’m thirty and still not married? Am I old? Mom, I’m still eighteen years old. I’m not old at all.”

Mrs. Lan laughed. “That’s not what I meant, but women, after thirty, can’t compare to those in their teens or twenties. You didn’t have a man you really loved before, so I didn’t say anything.”

“Now you have someone you really love. You’re in love, and marriage is a natural thing.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4785

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said a bit glumly, “Zhan Wei and I just confirmed our relationship, so we need to date properly. We don’t want to get married too soon.”

After a pause, she added, “The earliest we can get married is during the Lunar New Year holiday.”

“I don’t want to get married in just these two months.”

If she weren’t turning 30 after the Lunar New Year, and her parents and grandfather weren’t anxious, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) would have preferred dating Zhan Wei for two years before getting married.

“Your grandfather means you can get married before the Lunar New Year, so pick a good date early.”

“Mom, that’s too hasty! I haven’t even been to Zhan Wei’s house, or even met his parents.”

“You’re already picking a date? How desperate are you to marry me off?”

Mrs. Lan laughed. “If you were marrying someone else, my parents might want to keep you, but if you marry Zhan Wei, they really can’t wait to marry you off.”

“There are a lot of women who admire Zhan Wei, but after the initial passion fades, there’s no guarantee he’ll change.”

Although Mrs. Lan believed Zhan Wei wouldn’t change his mind, she still tried to persuade her daughter with this, leaving her feeling a sense of crisis.

“Mom, if he changes his mind, he will still change his mind even if I marry him. If he doesn’t change his mind, then it doesn’t matter if we get married early or late.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) insisted, “You have to let me date him, let me go to his house, meet his parents, get the approval of his elders, and then the elders of both families can sit together for dinner, chat, and get to know each other.”

“It’s not too late to discuss marriage slowly. There’s no need to be so anxious, making it seem like I’m in a hurry to marry Zhan Wei. It’s not like no one wants me. As long as I’m willing to marry, there are many men who want to marry me.”

The most important point is that Zhan Wei hasn’t proposed to her yet.

How can we discuss marriage so soon?

Mrs. Lan smiled and said, “Okay, it’s a bit anxious. Let’s get married by the end of the year. Half a year is enough time for you to date.”

“Zhan Wei accompanied you on your business trip. You lived together for the past ten days...”

“Stop, Mom. He and I were just staying in the same hotel, not living together. You make it sound like Zhan Wei and I were living together. Mom, I’m your biological daughter. Aren’t you afraid people will misunderstand your daughter if you say that?”

“Are you ruining your daughter’s reputation? I don’t know what you’re so anxious about. Zhan Wei is mine, and he can’t get away.”

“If someone could take him away, it means he’s not my true love. True love can’t be taken away.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) continued, “Mom, I’m in love now. You don’t have to worry about my life events anymore. When I want to get married, I’ll tell Mom and Dad.”

She would make her own decisions about this major life event, but she would also let the elders in her family know.

“Okay, Mom, I’ll listen to you. But you should talk to your grandfather. He’s really anxious for his great-grandchildren.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) pouted.

She knew her grandfather was most anxious about her and her brother’s marriage.

Her siblings weren’t getting married, and neither were her cousins of marriageable age.

As she approached thirty, not only were her grandfather and parents getting anxious, but even her uncles, aunts, and cousins were starting to urge her on.

Many of her cousins were only a year or two younger than her, making them no longer considered young.

Many people her age had two children.

“I see.”

“Let’s ask Zhan Wei to come over for dinner tomorrow,”

Mrs. Lan said.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4786

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) asked, “Anything going on at home?”

“We’ll invite your uncles, aunts, and cousins to come over for dinner, along with your brothers and sisters. Let’s just treat it like a family reunion. It’s been ages since we’ve had a family dinner together.”

Mrs. Lan wanted to show off her future son-in-law to her family.

She and her husband paid their children plenty of attention, but as they grew older and still unmarried, many people would ask about their children’s marriages when they were out and about.

Some, after asking directly, would then go on to say behind her back that her children were too ambitious, not marrying in their early thirties. They’d ask, “What’s the point of having such a capable daughter? She’s still unmarried.

” Many wealthy daughters around here set their sights on young men, raising them together as childhood sweethearts before marrying in their twenties. Even after marriage and having children, they could still help run the family business.

Unlike Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and her siblings, who only cared about making money and running a business, not about love.

Mrs. Lan had heard this so often that she longed for her daughter to marry a truly exceptional man and her son to find a wonderful wife, the envy of others.

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), you and Zhan Wei are now officially in a relationship. From now on, take Zhan Wei with you to every high-society event. That’ll piss off those gossipers.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ): “...Mom, which gossip said something bad about me in front of you?”

“Yeah, that’s right. Don’t ask. Anyway, you and Zhan Wei together will definitely slap everyone in the face. My daughter wants to marry the best man.”

“They don’t know Zhan Wei’s family background yet. If they did, I wonder how they’d be able to brag to me about their son-in-law’s billionaire family.”

The daughters of the wives Mrs. Lan knew had married into families worth tens of billions.

Nothing compared to the Zhan family.

The Zhan family was a multi-billionaire family, and they were a well-known name. Their family traditions were renowned, and not just in Wancheng. Most importantly, Zhan Wei was a truly exceptional individual, and Yang Tai epitomized his ability.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ): “...”

She seriously suspected her mother was eager for her marriage because she was being ridiculed outside and was waiting to slap them in the face.

Given the Lan family’s status in Yangcheng, no one would dare mock her mother.

Her mother had previously worked with her father, managing the company and attending social events, which had honed her eloquence. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) doubted any other woman in Yangcheng could rival her mother’s.

Mother and daughter strolled for over an hour before returning home.

After sitting for a while, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) urged Zhan Wei to go back and rest, feeling truly jealous of the kindness her family showed him.

Checking the time, it was time to return. Zhan Wei said goodbye to the Lan family elders and was escorted out by Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

“What did Auntie tell you? You and Auntie seemed a little off after your walk,”

Zhan Wei noticed Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s mood. With so many people in the room, he couldn’t ask.

Now, with only the two of them, Zhan Wei wouldn’t be able to sleep if he didn’t find out.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said a little helplessly: “My mother nagging for more than an hour, praising you in all kinds of ways. She praised you so much that even I, her own daughter, was jealous.”

Zhan Wei smiled, “Being a parent is like this. When you go to my house and meet my parents and elders, you will know that they are all the same.”

“The elders in my family will also praise you in all kinds of ways, and then step on me as much as they can, and they will also thank you very much, thank you for loving me, so that they can finally kick me out and don’t have to keep me at home to be an eyesore.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) burst into laughter.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4787

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), when are you free? I’ll take you back to meet my parents and Grandma. Grandma’s been wanting to meet you in person for a long time.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) wanted to say something, but since she didn’t know Old Lady Zhan, she knew Serenity had been there and would definitely mention her to her. So she changed her tone and said, “I’m definitely not free right now.”

“I just got back from a business trip and will be busy for a while. Maybe after summer vacation or during the National Day holiday, I can go back with you to meet your parents.”

Both companies have a few days off for the National Day holiday.

In the past, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) mostly attended family gatherings or traveled alone.

This year, she wanted to go to Youyou Villa to meet her parents.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “Okay, then we will go back during the National Day holiday. However, you may only be able to see a few children during the National Day holiday. Now it’s summer vacation, if you go there, you can see all my nephews and nieces.”

“You can also see my brothers and sisters-in-law. At this time, my family is the most gathered.”

“After the summer vacation, we have to wait until the Chinese New Year to go back together.”

They can’t all go back during the National Day holiday or the Mid-Autumn Festival. Some have to travel, and some have parties with friends.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) thought for a moment and said, “Then let’s do it next week. I’ll squeeze in a few days next week and go back with you to meet your parents. I’m particularly interested in your family.”

“The person you should be interested in is me.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) laughed, “They’re your family, and you’re still jealous of your family.”

She arranged for the driver to take Zhan Wei back, “Have a good sleep when you go back, you have to go to work tomorrow.”

Zhan Wei looked at her with burning eyes, “Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), I’m going back, don’t you have any indication?”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) blushed and whispered, “The driver is waiting.”

“We are already lovers. It’s normal for lovers to be intimate. We’re not afraid of being seen.”

“How about I kiss you?”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said with a smile, “Isn’t it all the same?”

Zhan Wei took her hand, pulled her into his arms, put one arm around her waist, held her head with the other, and kissed her red lips gently and affectionately.
The driver quickly turned his face away. He saw nothing, nothing at all.

After a kiss, Zhan Wei whispered, “Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), I love you. I really want to take you home soon.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) blushed and pushed him away, saying, “Go back and rest. When you get home, text me.”

Zhan Wei touched her lips reluctantly. “Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), you didn’t say you loved me.”

“Love doesn’t need to be spoken all the time.”

“I hope you can say it all the time, tell me several times a day. I’m willing to tell you I love you a hundred times a day.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) gave him a light squeeze, pulled him to the car, opened the door, and shoved him in.

“Then tell me ‘you love me’ a hundred times a day.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) then instructed the driver to drive slower.

Those of them who drove for the wealthy and aristocratic families drove very steadily. Those without good driving skills and composure wouldn’t be eligible for the job.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) watched the driver drive Zhan Wei away, and she walked back only when she could no longer see the car.

Turning around and taking a few steps, she found that her parents, brothers and grandfather were all peeking at her at the door.

The scene of her and Zhan Wei kissing just now must have been peeped at by her family.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was a little embarrassed, but when she thought about the fact that she and Zhan Wei had confirmed their relationship, her family regarded Zhan Wei as their son-in-law, and it was normal for her and Zhan Wei to do some intimate actions that lovers would do.

Her family would only be happy when they saw it.

“Oh, it’s so late, I’m going upstairs to rest.”

“I’m going back to my room too.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4788

“Grandpa, you’re old. I’ll help you back to your room.”

The family sheepishly turned away and went back inside, each dispersing.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) burst into laughter, feeling incredibly happy.

Her parents had been so busy with work before that they’d neglected her and her brother, neglecting them. But now they were doing their best to make amends. They loved her and her brother dearly.

After all, they were her own children.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s suitcase had already been carried upstairs by her brother.

Zhan Wei’s was still there, too.

He’d forgotten to take it.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) walked over, put down Zhan Wei’s suitcase, and opened it. Aside from two sets of his own clothes and some daily necessities, all the gifts he’d bought had been given away.

There were still gifts for her uncle and aunt, but she’d taken them out of his suitcase and asked her parents to deliver them tomorrow.

He held her and her family in his heart.

It felt so good to be cherished and pampered.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s phone rang.

She thought it was Zhan Wei, so she took out her phone and saw that the caller ID was Zhang Cheng.

If Zhang Cheng hadn’t called, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) would have forgotten about this person. Well, there was nothing she could do. Now her heart and eyes were full of Zhan Wei.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) stood up, walked to the sofa and sat down before answering Zhang Cheng’s call.

“Mr. Zhang, it’s so late, what’s the matter with you calling me?”

“Is it very late? It’s not even ten o’clock yet.”

For people like them, after midnight is very late.

“Are you back from your business trip?”

“Just got back today. What’s wrong? What good business can you bring to me?”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) asked him jokingly.

Zhang Cheng said, “Your Lan family is in its heyday. I wanted to ask you if you have any good business to bring to my Zhang family. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), I’m miserable if you’re with Zhan Wei.”

“How miserable?”

“You know why we went on a blind date in the first place. I was scolded to death by the elders in my family, especially my grandfather. It was our grandfather who asked us to go on a blind date in the first place.”

“My grandfather scolded me for being useless. He said that I couldn’t keep you and let Zhan Wei snatch you away. Can you blame me for this? Your heart is not with me. I can only help you.”

“If you had any feelings for me, I would have fought with Zhan Wei.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said to him, “Zhang Cheng, don’t talk about that. Get to the point.”

“The point is that you introduce me to a girlfriend so that I can deal with the elders in the family and shut them up. Otherwise, I’m really going to be scolded to death.”

The elders scolded him, and the duck that was about to be in his mouth was eaten by others. He was too useless.

The first blind date ended in failure.

A few months later, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) took the initiative to contact him, and the elders in the family thought that there was still a chance for the two of them. As a result, he and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) attended a banquet together, and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) got drunk and was snatched away by Zhan Wei.

Now Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) has chosen Zhan Wei. He is a little older than Zhan Wei and is still a single dog.

Grandpa scolded him for giving Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to Zhan Wei without even struggling.

Zhang Cheng explained many times that the person Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) really loves is Zhan Wei, not him, and it is useless for him to struggle.

In order for the two families to remain friendly, he chose to make things work for them. How great.

Grandpa didn’t care about these things. He would scold him whenever he was in a bad mood.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4789

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) laughed and said, “How could I introduce you to a girlfriend? The rich girls we know are all taken. Most of those our age are married and have children.”

“Those who aren’t married have boyfriends. How could I break them up and introduce you to someone else?”

“If you’re in an acting role, you can find a girl to act with you.”

Zhang Cheng said, “What if the other person turns the fake relationship into reality?”

“Then get married. When you find someone to act with you, find out their character first. As long as they have good character, it won’t be a big deal if the fake relationship becomes real.”

“Zhang Cheng, it’s like this. Look how worried my grandfather was when I was single.”

Now she’s in love with Zhan Wei, and her family is urging her to marry him quickly. In short, if she doesn’t have children yet, the elders will urge her to have children.

After marriage, they will urge her to have children. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) wondered, when she has children and they grow up, will she become like her parents?

“When are you two having a wedding banquet? Tell Zhan Wei I want to be best man, share in your happiness, and end my single life soon.”

“Okay, when he and I get married, I’ll definitely ask you to be best man. I haven’t decided on my bridesmaids yet.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) did have a few close personal friends, but they were all married and couldn’t be bridesmaids.

If she couldn’t find any, she could hire professional bridesmaids.

Or she could hire a few female employees from her company.

Zhang Cheng’s phone call was mainly to complain to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) about his family elders, explaining that he had been scolded for helping Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and Zhan Wei get together, and hinted that Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) should remember this favor. If there were suitable projects in the future, please give Zhang’s company priority.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) knew this well.

Zhang Cheng was a good person. If she hadn’t fallen in love with Zhan Wei, she would have considered developing a relationship with him.

After the call ended, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) didn’t rush upstairs. She grabbed the remote and turned on the TV.

She just didn’t know what to watch on TV. After changing channels, she found that there was nothing she could watch, so she turned it off.

After sitting for a while, she finally went upstairs.

She left Zhan Wei's suitcase in the lobby on the first floor. She would deliver it to Zhan Wei when she went to work tomorrow.

When she came out of a hot shower, Zhan Wei sent her a message saying that he had returned to his home, followed by a series of sweet messages.

He also sent a lot of voice messages, saying that he loved her. He started showing it so soon. Did he really have to tell her that he loved her a hundred times every day?

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) wanted to laugh, but it was sweet.

Maybe this is the taste of love, sweet.

Thinking about each other as soon as they separated.

After sending "I love you" to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) a hundred times, Zhan Wei called his mother.

Zhan's second wife quickly answered his call.

"Why are you calling mom at this time? Seventh brother, are you okay?"

The second wife asked, her words full of nervousness and concern.

No matter who you are, you are afraid of receiving calls from family members in the middle of the night.

You are afraid that it is bad news.

"Mom, what could possibly happen to me? Oh, yes, there is something. If there is something, you should tell me in advance."

"What is it?"

The second wife was very curious.

Her three sons were very independent. Whenever they had problems, they would go to their eldest nephew instead of her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4790

"I'll bring Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) back next week for a formal meeting with you all."

Hearing this, the Second Wife smiled happily. “Are we meeting the parents?”

“Boy, I love hearing this news. Haha, my responsibility will be fulfilled. As long as you get married, I won’t have anything to worry about.”

The Seventh Son was her youngest son.

Although the Eighth and Ninth Sons were still single, they were her nephews, not her biological children. The one who should worry about the Eighth and Ninth Sons was her sister-in-law, the Third Wife of the Zhan family.

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) originally wanted to come back with me during the National Day holiday, but I told her that our family is all together now, and the children are all here, and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) loves children, so she changed the date.”

The Second Wife smiled and said, “That’s a good change, that’s a good change. You might not be back during the National Day holiday, so now is the best time to bring her back so everyone can meet and get to know her.”

It would also help the future daughter-in-law get acquainted with the nieces and nieces.

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s parents came to our house and stayed for two days. How were they treating you when you visited them?”

“Mom, don’t worry. Your son is so outstanding. I don’t know how many parents want me to be their son-in-law. Uncle Lan and Auntie Lan both like me, as does Grandpa Lan.”

The Second Wife laughed again. “Indeed, my son is so outstanding. There’s no reason the Lan family wouldn’t appreciate him. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is also outstanding. Mom likes her so much and is looking forward to meeting her in person.”

“If you don’t bring her back to meet the parents, Mom and Dad are planning to live in Yangcheng for a while.”

It was for the youngest daughter-in-law.

“Mom, just prepare it when the time comes. Give Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) a generous gift.”

The Second Wife said, “Don’t worry about that. I gave Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) the same generous gift as your two sisters-in-law when they first met the parents. I’ll give Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) the same gift when she comes. I treat all three daughters-in-law the same way.” She was impartial.

They were all her daughters-in-law, and she loved them all as her own daughters. The expensive jewelry she had accumulated was for them.

If I have a granddaughter...

I'll give the lion's share to her.

At present, the second wife feels that she is not destined to have a granddaughter, but fortunately she has a niece, Beibei, who is so cute, and she loves Beibei very much.

The Zhan family loves Beibei.

“Tomorrow morning, Mom will tell your grandmother the good news. Don't worry, no matter when you bring Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) back, we elders will prepare a meeting gift in advance.”

In fact, she had prepared it a long time ago.

After the second son got married, the second wife began to prepare a wife's gift for the youngest son. She prepared it for several years and it has not been used yet.

Now there is finally good news.

“I am very confident in Mom and my aunt and grandmother.”

Zhan Wei also knew that even if he did not call home in advance, as long as Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) came to visit, the elders in the family would not be rude.

He just couldn't help but feel happy and called his mother to share his happiness.

Let his mother be happy too.

“That's right, we're doing the work, don't worry. Last time I heard from your eldest brother that you accompanied Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) on a business trip to Wangcheng. Are you back?”

Zhan Wei hummed, “I just returned to Yangcheng today. I should have been back in a week, but I persuaded Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to stay in Wangcheng for three days. She was busy with business all day and night and didn't have a good time to relax.”

He followed her, firstly to take care of her, and secondly to let her relax.

Don't just work and make money all day long.

He combines work and rest. It doesn't matter whether you make money or not. The most important thing is to be healthy and live happily.

Zhan Qishao is being Versailles. If he says such words, he will be scolded to death.

He was born with a silver spoon in his mouth and has had considerable wealth since he was a child. Naturally, he doesn't value money that much.

Taking over Yangtai is to prove his ability.
