Chapter 4815

“Brother, you’re off work! When did you get back?”

Zeng Xiaoya was delighted to see her brother return.

She walked over and gave him a hug.

“Brother, I missed you so much.”

Zeng Xiaofeng smiled and let his sister hug him. Then he gently pushed her away and said, “Come on, you’re already so old, and you’re still acting like a spoiled brat. I’m treating someone.”

“No matter how old I am, you’re still my brother. Who dares to laugh at me if I act like a spoiled brat?”

The patient who had been seeing Zeng Xiaofeng was laughing.

Zeng Xiaoya: “...”

The patient smiled and said, “Doctor Zeng, I envy your brother and sister’s bond.”

“That’s right, my brother and I have a great bond. My brother loves me so much. When I was little, my parents were often on duty and had no time for me. It was my brother who took care of me.”

The brother and sister are four years apart in age.

When she was little, her brother acted like a little adult, taking her to meals and bedtime.

When she missed her mother, her brother would imitate her mother's way of soothing her, singing songs to her, telling her stories, and lulling her to sleep.

Therefore, the brother and sister have a very good bond.

Her eldest brother had just started college and was leaving his hometown. She was reluctant to let him go. When she sent him to the car, she cried until her eyes were swollen.

She was not so sad when her parents left home.

Zeng Xiaoya went to help get medicine.

At this time, Lin Jian came again.

He calculated that Zeng Xiaoya would be home at this time.

Today, he was still holding a bouquet of bright roses. In addition to the bouquet, he was also carrying a bag with several fast food boxes in it.

"Second uncle, second aunt."

Lin Jian came in and greeted his uncle and his wife.

Seeing Zeng Xiaofeng, Lin Jian was surprised, then broke into a grin. "Brother Zeng, how come you're back?"

Zeng Xiaofeng said coldly, "This is my home. Can't I come back?"

"No, no, Brother Zeng can be back anytime. I just said the wrong thing."

Lin Jian handed the bag to his second aunt and said, "Aunt, I bought you some cooked food for lunch."

Aunt Zeng said, "Thank you, but no thanks. We rarely buy cooked food. We always cook fresh."

She didn't think highly of Lin Jian, didn't support her niece and him, and didn't want to accept any favors from him.

Even a few boxes of cooked food was unacceptable.

If she did, she would owe him a favor.

"Aunt, I often eat the cooked food here. They use very good ingredients, and it's really delicious. I bought some for you to try. It's really delicious."

Aunt Zeng still asked him to take it back later.

Lin Jian didn't argue with Second Aunt. He walked over to Zeng Xiaoya, handed her the bouquet, and said affectionately, "Xiaoya, everything I told you yesterday was from the heart."

"We've known each other for so long. You know me well. We know each other well and are in the same industry. Can you give me a chance?"

Zeng Xiaoya didn't accept the bouquet. She said to Lin Jian seriously, "Senior Lin, everything I said yesterday was from the heart. I really don't have that kind of feelings for you. We can only be ordinary friends, a relationship of senior and junior."

"As you said, we've known each other for several years. If I were to like you, I would have liked you a long time ago. I wouldn't have to wait until now."

"Senior Lin, you're a good man, but I'm not attracted to you. I really am not. You should withdraw your feelings and like someone else."

If she liked Lin Jian, she would have liked him a long time ago. She didn't have to wait until now.

Zeng Xiaofeng didn't say anything, nor did he try to stop her.

This was his sister's private matter. She was twenty-seven years old, not a three-year-old child. She knew whether she loved him or not.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4816

He knew what he wanted.

"Xiaoya, we haven't tried yet, so how do you know we can't develop feelings? Feelings are cultivated."

"Only after you've tried can you tell if they're suitable."

Lin Jian didn't give up, and he wouldn't give up easily.

After two years of making his presence felt at the Zeng family's, how could he give up so easily?

With his status and position, the best person he could marry was Zeng Xiaoya.

Unless Zeng Xiaoya married someone else, Lin Jian wouldn't give up and would keep pursuing her.

His mother told him that a strong woman is afraid of a clinging man, so he pursued her relentlessly and gradually won Zeng Xiaoya's heart.

He showed Zeng Xiaoya's photo to his parents and family, and everyone was very satisfied.

His parents said Zeng Xiaoya looked blessed, with the appearance of a woman who would be rich and prosperous.

If he married Zeng Xiaoya, she would bring him prosperity, and his career would reach new heights.

He was opening a clinic now, and maybe he could open several hospitals in the future.

Lin Jian truly loved Zeng Xiaoya, but of course he had other considerations as well.

"Senior Lin, I told you I don't have that kind of feeling for you. There's no need to try. We've known each other for so many years, and you often come to my second uncle for medical advice."

"We meet so often and have been together for so long. If we could develop feelings, we would have done it long ago."

"If I liked you, I would have confessed to you first without you having to."

Zeng Xiaoya is not the kind of woman who is coy. As long as she likes someone, she is willing to pursue him.

If she doesn't like him, she doesn't like him.

There's no need to even try.

Lin Jian confessed his feelings again and again, but was rejected. With so many people watching in the clinic, he felt a little embarrassed.

But he was still good-tempered and didn't get angry.

He simply asked softly, "Xiaoya, are you still stuck on that guy named Jin?"

"He's married to the daughter of his boss at work. The last time I ran into him, his wife was pregnant."

The Jin Lin Jian was referring to was Zeng Xiaoya's first love, who had dumped her three years earlier.

He assumed Zeng Xiaoya still couldn't get over him.

After all, Zeng Xiaoya had only been in one relationship, and after the breakup, she'd been emotionally unavailable.

Even Zhan Yue thought Zeng Xiaoya hadn't gotten over her first boyfriend.

"Besides, he's gained weight and looks greasy. He's no longer the handsome guy he used to be."

Zeng Xiaoya said seriously, “Senior Lin, I don’t accept your feelings because I don’t like you. I have no romantic feelings for you. It has nothing to do with anyone else.”

“Jin Hao and I have been apart for over three years. Who he marries is his business, not mine, and I won’t be influenced by him.”

Zeng Xiaoya was heartbroken for a while after the breakup.

After all, they had been together for several years, and she had truly invested her feelings.

She simply kept a low profile, not revealing her privileged family background. However, she and Jin Hao had chosen different paths.

She studied medicine to save lives and heal the wounded, but Jin Hao chose to take the civil service exam.

As soon as she got ashore, she felt that she was not worthy of him.

It was okay to break up with a man like this.

She was sad for a while and then let it go. It’s not like no one wants her. As long as she wants to get married, there are many men who want to marry her.

It’s just that she has been hurt in love, so Zeng Xiaoya is particularly cautious about feelings and will not be easily moved again.

She knew that Lin Jian had a good impression of her.

Usually, she tried to avoid Lin Jian when he came, but she couldn’t stop Lin Jian from coming. His feet were on his body, and he was free to go wherever he wanted.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4817

Lin Jian was again under the pretext of asking his second uncle for advice.

Zeng Xiaoya couldn’t say anything before Lin Jian confessed his feelings to her. She could only avoid him.

“I was in love with him in the past, not because he was handsome. I’m not a superficial person. I value character. Unfortunately, I was dazzled by my first love.”

Zeng Xiaoya admitted that she had made a mistake.

She didn’t expect Jin Hao to be that kind of person.

However, they broke up, and she didn't want to discuss Jin Hao anymore.

If we talk about handsomeness, the young master of the Zhan family is much more handsome than them.

Zeng Xiaoya has met many young masters of the Zhan family. Except for those who are not in Wancheng, she has met them all. They are really outstanding people.

The old lady of the Zhan family is really good at raising her grandson.

Zeng Xiaoya's mind inexplicably passed through Zhan Yue's handsome face.

Zhan Yue is very well-educated, with a gentle temperament. He speaks with a smile and is approachable. He doesn't have the airs of a rich young master.

Of course, Zeng Xiaoya knew Zhan Yue couldn't be truly gentle. How could someone who'd climbed the business ladder be gentle? They all had a ruthless side, but they were also cunning and didn't easily let others see through their thoughts.

He was injured and hospitalized, and she was his attending physician. He was gentle and polite to her and the other medical staff—perfectly normal.

There wasn't a conflict of interest.

“Senior Lin, we're really not suitable. Stop wasting your time with me and find someone truly right for you.”

Second Aunt said Lin Jian was a Phoenix Man.

Zeng Xiaoya didn't actually dislike Lin Jian's inferior family background; she simply disliked him.

Of course, that dislike also allowed her to view him rationally. As Second Aunt had said, Lin Jian had too much on his shoulders. He had to support his parents and help his siblings. He was the only capable person his family had. Now that he had achieved his abilities, he naturally wanted to repay his family.

From Lin Jian's perspective, it was his due, a testament to his loyalty and loyalty.

But from his wife's perspective, it was a burden, a burden she'd never be able to unload. It is her duty to support his parents, but how many women can be indifferent to the fact that she has to keep helping his siblings, his nieces and nephews, and nephews in the future?

That's why Second Aunt said that Lin Jian cannot marry.

Second Aunt didn't want her to be sucked dry by Lin Jian in the future.

“Xiaoya, I won't force you to accept me now, I just ask you to give me a chance to pursue you.”

Lin Jian did not give up.

Zeng Xiaoya was too lazy to talk to him anymore.

“Second Aunt, I’m going upstairs to rest. There were a lot of patients last night, and I was tired all night.”

Zeng Xiaoya was really tired.

Facing Lin Jian’s entanglement, she only felt more tired.

Turning around, Zeng Xiaoya went upstairs.

“Xiaoya, I won’t give up!”

Lin Jian chased to the stairs with a bouquet of flowers, and looked up at Zeng Xiaoya’s figure disappearing from his sight.

Zeng Xiaofeng came over and said to Lin Jian, “Mr. Lin, Xiaoya has made it very clear. You’d better leave and don’t come here in the future. Your coming here every day will affect my second uncle’s clinic.”

Lin Jian said, “Brother Zeng, I am sincere to Xiaoya.”

“No one says you are not sincere, but feelings can’t be forced. My sister doesn’t like you. You pestering her like this will only make her even more unhappy.”

“Originally, it was fine for you to maintain a senior-junior relationship. Once you pursue my sister, you might not even be able to be friends in the future.”

“But I really like Xiaoya. I love her, very much, and have admired her for several years.”

Zeng Xiaofeng asked him to go out, “Lin Jian, I’ve told you many times, Xiaoya treats feelings like that. If she doesn’t love you, she doesn’t love you. No matter how much you do, she just doesn’t love you.”

“Listen to my advice. Let go of your feelings for Xiaoya, and you will meet a girl who is really right for you in the future.”

As soon as Zeng Xiaofeng came back, he learned from his second uncle and aunt that Lin Jian had confessed to his sister.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4818

He wasn’t optimistic about Lin Jian.

After learning about Lin Jian’s family situation, he was even less supportive of his sister and Lin Jian being together.

His parents were worried about his sister's life, but they also told her not to settle. She had to keep her eyes open and see clearly the other person's character. She shouldn't let her age get in the way and make compromises.

Marriage is a lifelong event, and it's not something to be compromised.

"Brother Zeng, does Xiaoya have a crush on someone?"

"Yes, I know one of her classmates is also very fond of her. Has she accepted her classmate?"

Lin Jian asked anxiously.

He'd been keeping an eye on her for two years, and he hadn't paid close attention?

And someone had beaten him to the punch and pursued Zeng Xiaoya?

That couldn't be right. If someone was pursuing Zeng Xiaoya, the Zeng family couldn't have been unaware of it. He came over so often, so they couldn't have been unaware of it.

"Xiaoya said she doesn't want a doctor as her partner in the future. Everyone's busy and can't take care of their family."

"Lin Jian, go back. Don't stay here. There are patients watching us."

Zeng Xiaofeng pulled Lin Jian out of the clinic, waving him away.

Lin Jian sighed, and he handed the bouquet of flowers to Zeng Xiaofeng, "Brother Zeng, can you help me give this bouquet of flowers to Xiaoya?"

Second Aunt came out and handed him the cooked dishes bought by Lin Jian.

"Lin Jian, our family really doesn't like to eat cooked dishes, you should take them back and eat them."

Lin Jian knew that the Zeng family was afraid of his soft mouth and didn't want to owe him a favor.

Alas.

He knew that even his second uncle and second aunt would change after he confessed his feelings, and it was true.

They were usually nice to him, and he thought he had won over the elders of the Zeng family.

Lin Jian finally left disappointed.

After he left, Zeng Xiaofeng went upstairs. His sister was not in the living room on the third floor, so he went to knock on his sister's door.

It took a while for Zeng Xiaoya to open the door. She had just finished showering.

"Brother."

"Did Lin Jian leave?"

"Yes,"

Zeng Xiaofeng asked, "Is it okay for you to come in?"

After his sister turned ten, he wouldn't enter her room without her permission.

"Come out, we'll talk in the living room."

Without waiting for his sister to respond, Zeng Xiaofeng turned and walked over to the sofa in the living room and sat down.

Zeng Xiaoya came over and just sat down when her phone rang. Someone had sent her a WeChat message.

She opened it and saw it was the doctor taking over from her.

A colleague told her that Zhan Yue would be discharged tomorrow.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled at the message and sent a voice message to her colleague: "He's finally leaving. Actually, he could have been discharged a long time ago. He could have been discharged after two days of observation if nothing happened."

But he stayed so long.

"Everyone was so reluctant to see him go. They said he lived on our floor and everyone got free fruit every day."

"You won't be able to see the handsome guy anymore."

Zhan Yue had been discharged, and given his status, it would have been difficult for ordinary people to see him.

"It's good enough for the handsome guy to have seen him. He doesn't belong to us."

Zeng Xiaoya was eager for Zhan Yue to be discharged from the hospital as soon as possible. Although, after Zhan Yue was discharged, she and Zhan Yue probably would never have any intersection in this life. In her words, Zhan Yue was just her patient, not hers, and no intersection in the future would have no impact on her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4819

“You’re so happy your patient is getting discharged? Is he a difficult patient?”

Zeng Xiaofeng asked his sister with concern.

“He’s not difficult. His injuries aren’t serious. He could have been discharged after two days of observation, but he insisted on staying for ten days, half a month, or even a month or two.”

“Why?”

“He said he wanted to rest. He said he’d have a lot of work to do once he was discharged, and he couldn’t rest.”

“He’s in the hospital, and everyone knows he’s injured, so they won’t bother him with work matters.”

“By the way, he’s the eighth young master of the Zhan family.”

Zeng Xiaofeng smiled at his sister’s mention of Zhan Yue. His eyes flickered, and a thought flashed through his mind.

“The eighth young master of the Zhan family? How do you know he’s the eighth young master of the Zhan family?”

“The director told me he’s an old classmate of Dad’s. He wouldn’t lie to me. After interacting with Zhan Yue, I got the answer. He’s the eighth young master of the Zhan family,”

Zeng Xiaofeng said with a sigh.

“Brother, the legends are all true. The young masters of the Zhan family are very handsome and have very high looks. They are all outstanding people. Although their personalities are different, they are all really good.”

“I envy the women who can marry into the Zhan family.”

Zeng Xiaofeng’s eyes flashed again.

He said “oh” again.

He had never met the young master of the Zhan family, so it was difficult to make a final conclusion. He only knew that the eldest young master of the Zhan family was very powerful.

The Zhan Group was handed over to the eldest young master Zhan, and it was thriving. The Zhan family has been the richest family in Wancheng for more than 20 years.

The Zhan family has a strong foundation. Although it was not the richest family in the past, it was also a well-known wealthy family in Wancheng.”Lin Jian, do you really not like him?”

“No.”

“Brother, please help me find a way to get rid of him. After all, we’ve known each other for a few years. He’s my senior and he’s helped me a little in the past. It’s true I don’t love him, but I don’t want to become enemies with him either.”

“Avoiding him isn’t a solution. The best solution is to find a boyfriend, and one who’s exceptionally good, so he’ll give up.”

Zeng Xiaoya: “...”

She didn’t have anyone she liked right now, so how could she find a boyfriend to put Lin Jian off?

Alas, being liked by others can be a hassle too.

Zhan Yue didn’t know about these things. He checked out of the hospital the next day and returned to Youyou Villa to recuperate.

His seventh brother, Zhan Wei, was bringing Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) back to meet his parents the next day, so he was discharged a day early. He couldn’t leave the hospital right after his future seventh sister-in-law came to meet the parents. He was already ready to be discharged, so he might as well do it a day early.

Zhan Wei chose Saturday to take Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) back to Wancheng. Everyone didn’t have to go back to the company, so they could all be together and meet his family all at once.

Even Qi Han flew back on Friday night.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was used to big storms, but she was still a little nervous when she met her parents for the first time.

After getting off the plane, the Zhan family sent a car to pick her and Zhan Wei up.

On the way back to Youyou Villa, she whispered to Zhan Wei, “I’m a little nervous, what should I do?”

Zhan Wei held her hand, comforted her, and said, “My family has known about your existence for a long time and has understood you. Although today is a real meeting, don’t be nervous. My family likes you very much.”

“You have more family members than I do.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4820

Before Zhan Wei took Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) back to Wancheng, he met all of the Lan family’s friends and family. Many of them knew him, but he was now Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s boyfriend.

This transition from sworn enemy to boyfriend meant a renewed sense of familiarity.

“Why worry? They won’t eat you. Don’t worry, my family will love you.”

“Think about Beibei. She loves you so much. My sister-in-law said that when she woke up, she started talking about the beautiful auntie.”

In reality, Zhan Wei was worried about Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s nervousness, so he called her sister-in-law and asked her not to take Beibei out, but to keep her at home so Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) could have someone to relax and interact with.

Even the baby didn’t go out to play, remaining at home obediently awaiting Aunt Seven’s arrival.

Zhan Muchen felt how quickly the adult world changed.

It had only been a month since his mother took him and his siblings on their trip to Uncle Seven’s home, and he hadn’t expected Aunt Lan to become their Aunt Seven.

The baby asked his mother this question, and his mother told him that Uncle Seven has liked Aunt Seven for a long time, but he didn’t see his heart clearly before. Now that he sees it clearly, isn’t it developing rapidly?

Zhan Muchen didn’t understand his mother’s explanation.

His mother touched his head and said that he was still young, and he would understand when he grows up.

Well, he is still young, only six years old.

Then he won't think about it, and when he grows up, he will naturally understand.

After thinking about it this way, Zhan Muchen stopped worrying about this issue.

Not long after, the car sent by the Zhan family to pick up Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) at the airport drove into Youyou Villa.

The car drove directly to the door of the main house in the center and stopped.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) noticed that there was an open-air parking lot nearby, which was full of luxury cars.

She asked Zhan Wei: "Are your cars usually parked outside? Don't they park in the garage?"

"As long as I don't plan to go out, the car will be parked in the garage. If I need to go out, I will park outside. But the parking lot you just saw is mostly occupied by relatives and friends."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ): "...Did you invite a lot of relatives and friends over?"

Zhan Wei smiled: "Not many, only my uncle's and aunt's families will come, and those who have close ties with our family, such as my eldest brother's friend, eldest brother Su Nan, and the current head of the Su family and his wife."

"And the fifth young master and the fifth young lady of the Jun family and others, they all have close ties with my family, and their children live in the villa. On weekends, when they don't have to go to work, they will come to accompany their children."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) heard something, "You mean, their children usually live in your villa?"

"Yes, because my family has many children now, and grandma likes to be lively, so they send their children here. They have company and have fun, and they are also happy to be free."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled: "Your family might as well open a kindergarten."

"Those families still need to keep in touch and cultivate the relationship between the next generation."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) nodded in understanding.

The several great families that the Zhan family is on good terms with are all worth maintaining relationships with.

In this generation, they have a good relationship. If the next generation does not cultivate friendship, when the next generation grows up and takes over, and the old generation retires, the relationship will become alienated.

Alienation is a small matter, the only thing to worry about is that they will become enemies in the future. It is better to have one more friend than one more enemy.

This is how the wealthy and powerful families are, just like her family's old friends, who also maintain relationships in this way.

"Your house is so lively like this."

"It's only lively when the children are at home on vacation. It's usually very quiet, so my grandma always wants to go out. She doesn't like it to be too quiet and feels lonely."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4821

"Are your brothers easy to get along with?"

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) asked.

A dragon gives birth to nine sons, and each one is different. Zhan Wei's brothers are not all biological brothers, most of them are cousins, which makes them even more different. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was a little worried about his brothers and sisters-in-law. It's not easy to get along with them.

Alas, she didn't expect that Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) would have a day when she was not confident. Maybe she cared too much about Zhan Wei and hoped that his family would like her.

"My brothers are easy to get along with, and my sisters-in-law are also easy to talk to. No matter how much I say, you will still be worried. You will know when you meet them when we get home."

Zhan Wei repeatedly comforted her, but she was still worried.

Since they were almost home, he stopped talking and let her feel it herself.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled. "I didn't expect that I, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), could get nervous sometimes, Zhan Wei. It's all your fault. You won my heart over."

Zhan Wei looked at her affectionately. "You won me over, too. Look how confident I was when I met your family and friends. I wasn't worried at all."

"Besides, it's just the two of us living together from now on. We just need to appreciate, understand, and trust each other. It doesn't matter what others think or say. They're not going to spend their whole lives with us."

Friends and relatives couldn't influence their marriage, so why bother caring about their opinions?

His brother and sister-in-law wouldn't object, and his family had already accepted Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

He had won over such an outstanding woman like Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ). His family was only happy for him and offered their sincerest blessings. How could they find fault with her? And Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had nothing for them to find fault with.

In Zhan Wei's eyes, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was perfect.

He had good taste.

Hearing him say this, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) thought about it and smiled: "That's right, I'm not nervous anymore. No matter how others see me, as long as you are sincere to me and your parents accept me, that's enough."

Both her parents said Zhan Wei's parents were very kind, approachable, and unassuming, and that her grandmother was also very nice. They felt very relieved.

After staying at Zhan's house for two days, her parents were eager for her to get married to Zhan Wei right away, fearing that things would get complicated.

As they chatted, they quickly returned to Youyou Villa.

As the car reached the foot of the mountain, Zhan Wei specifically asked the driver to stop. He rolled down the window, pointed at the vast expanse of flowers, and said to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), "Those flower fields are ours, too."

"So beautiful!"

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) exclaimed sincerely.

The vast expanse of flowers was truly beautiful.

She almost wanted to get out of the car to take pictures.

"I'll take you to see the flowers later. You can cut any kind of flowers you like, make them into bouquets, and put them in a vase. It's very beautiful."

"Okay."

"The mountains around here also belong to ours. Those mountains are all planted with fruit trees. The seasonal fruits we eat are all grown by ourselves."

"I didn't expect your family would grow flowers and fruits."

Zhan Wei smiled. “It’s because my grandma likes to make trouble, and my grandpa spoils my grandma. Whatever my grandma wants to do, my grandpa will satisfy her wishes.”

“Maybe people in that era were always obsessed with land. They always felt that if they bought more land, they wouldn’t be afraid of starving. So, my grandma bought a lot of wasteland here, developed it, and planted flowers.”

“These flowers are sold to major flower shops. The fruits on the fruit mountain are also sold to major fruit shops when they are ripe. I can’t eat so much myself, so the inferior fruits are given to the workers. They are all fresh, but they don’t look good.”

“Those small plots of vegetable plots are the vegetables and fruits planted by the workers themselves. Sometimes my grandma will go to the workers’ homes to eat.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4822

The old lady was the most unassuming person.

She could be a dignified, noble, and kind old lady, or she could be an ordinary, down-to-earth old lady.

She enjoyed delicacies from land and sea, and she didn’t disdain simple meals.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) said, “The land my family acquired has been developed into real estate or villa complexes. It’s not used to grow flowers and fruit like yours.”

Zhan Wei signaled the driver to drive.

He said, “Our old house is far away from the downtown area. As you’ve seen along the way, even if there are people living nearby, there aren’t many. The people living nearby are similar to ours.”

“Grandma said that this is a rare piece of quiet land and should not be destroyed, so it wasn’t developed into a real estate complex. Besides, it’s far away from the downtown area, and ordinary people don’t like to buy houses here.”

“They have inconvenient commutes, and they don’t have the freedom we have. No one will say anything if they’re late.”

They are the bosses and the ones who make the rules.

Ordinary people don’t have such freedom. When they buy a house, they mostly consider the convenience of their children’s schooling and their own work. A house too far from work would be inconvenient.

As they ascended, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) found the scenery on both sides of the road beautiful.

Soon, they reached the top of the mountain.

The gate of Youyou Villa was magnificent. Who knew who had commissioned the four characters? The calligraphy was vigorous and powerful.

There was a security room at the entrance, and the guard on duty had already opened the gate.

The car carrying Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) drove straight in.

From the gate to the main house, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was amazed by the scenery.

She said to Zhan Wei, “The courtyard of my Lan family villa is beautiful, but it pales in comparison to your old house. There’s no comparison.”

If Youyou Villa were newly built, the artificial landscaping wouldn’t have such an effect, but it had been built over decades, and it possessed a unique charm and artistic conception. Leaving aside the modern villas, just the scenery of the villa is a vivid rendition of a Jiangnan garden.

“Grandma loves gardens, right?”

Youyou Villa was built by the late grandfather for his wife, naturally embracing her preferences.

As Zhan Wei put it, people of that age have a different aesthetic than their younger selves.

“Yes, Grandma loves gardens. Our old house is a quadrangle courtyard, and this one was built entirely to her tastes.”

“Every flower, every blade of grass, every tree was her favorite. My grandfather was incredibly kind to her.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) finally understood why the Zhan family men were so devoted; it was a trait passed down from their ancestors. The old lady had been doted on by her husband for decades after their marriage.

Blessed by happiness, she naturally wished for her children and grandchildren to be happy too, raising her sons to be responsible and, once married, to be loyal to their families and marriages.

They say a virtuous wife brings prosperity to three generations, and that applies perfectly to the old lady.

And since her sons all married virtuous wives, prosperity will continue for three generations, and her grandchildren will marry virtuous wives, bringing prosperity to three more generations.

Passed down from generation to generation, prospering from generation to generation.

This is what a truly prestigious family looks like.

No wonder her parents came back and urged her and Zhan Wei to get a marriage certificate as soon as possible. They could choose a date later, but they had to get the marriage certificate first.

With the marriage certificate, they would be legally married, and no one could take Zhan Wei away from them.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4823

“It’s a pity that my grandpa is gone. I was less than 20 years old when he passed away. Now, I’m 31 years old, and he’s been gone for more than ten years.”

When mentioning his grandpa, Zhan Wei’s words were full of nostalgia.

Except for the ninth brother who didn’t spend much time with grandpa, the other brothers all had a very good relationship with grandpa and grandma.

Grandpa looked up to the eldest brother, but he was also very good to them.

Grandpa taught them according to their aptitude, saying that they had different personalities and strengths.

Only the eldest brother had more to learn. As the successor, the eldest brother was required to develop more comprehensively, especially to know how to use people and to appoint the right people for the right positions.

As Grandpa said, if you know how to use people and trust them, then the eldest brother just sat back and watched.

“Grandpa’s biggest regret was that he didn’t see us get married. When he passed away, my eldest brother was twenty-six. He was always cold and serious, and many girls fell in love with him at first sight, but few dared pursue him.”

“He always had several bodyguards around him to protect his safety, and he also didn’t allow women other than family members to approach him.”

“Grandpa was most worried about my eldest brother’s marriage. Before he passed away, he told Grandma to help him find a good woman. He also said that my eldest brother’s true love was rare, and if we didn’t seize it, it would be easy to miss it. If we missed it, my eldest brother would be single for life.”

Zhan Wei told Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) about his family affairs and his eldest brother's past.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) listened with rapt interest, as if she were listening to a story. She had originally thought the distance from the villa gate to the main house was a long way, but after listening to Zhan Wei's words, the distance seemed much shorter.

In a blink of an eye, the car had stopped in front of the main house.

The driver turned to Zhan Wei and said, "Seventh Young Master, we're home."

If anyone else had been in the car, the driver would have gotten out and helped open the door.

But since the young master had returned with his fiancée, the driver didn't bother to make any more noise, leaving this considerate opportunity to his own young master.

As soon as Zhan Wei got out of the car, he heard Zhan Muchen's shout.

"Seventh Uncle, Seventh Uncle, you're back."

Zhan Muchen ran out of the house, and after seeing Zhan Wei, he turned around and shouted, "Grandma, my Seventh Uncle is back."

"Seventh Uncle."

"Seventh Uncle."

Zhan Muchen shouted, calling out his cousins.

Several children ran out one after another.

The ones following at the end were naturally Beibei and Niuniu. The two little girls were young and walked the slowest.

Niuniu could have run faster, but she was waiting for her sister, so the two little girls came out hand in hand.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) opened the car door and got out by herself. She didn't wait for Zhan Wei to be considerate of her. Seeing so many children, each of them was handsome and cute, her heart had melted long ago.

How could she care less about waiting for Zhan Wei to be considerate of her.

"Auntie Lan."

Among so many children, only Zhan Muchen and his sister had seen Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

Zhan Muchen greeted politely, and then his brothers followed suit to greet Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

“Baby, long time no see.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled and touched Zhan Muchen’s head.

She called Zhan Muchen’s nickname.

Her eyes swept over the faces of the little ones one by one, smiling and responding to their greetings. Then she quickly said to Zhan Wei, “Help me get the gifts I prepared for the children out of the car.”

“Don’t worry, it’s not too late to give them to them later,”

Zhan Wei said, but he hurried to help her unload the things.

“Auntie Lan,”

the two little beauties finally arrived.

Beibei cried happily and dove headfirst into Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s presence, who quickly hugged her.

“Beibei, we meet again. Auntie missed you so much.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s favorite was little Beibei. This little girl was so beautiful, so cute, so innocent and charming.

No wonder Zhan Wei doted on this little niece so much.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4824

Beibei, who is loved by everyone, is also very polite.

With such an excellent mother like Sister Tong personally educating her, Beibei will surely be excellent in the future and will not be spoiled.

“I miss Auntie.”

Beibei hugged Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s neck, so affectionate.

The little girl also kissed Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) gently on the face, and the kiss made Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s heart melt into spring water.

Every time she saw Beibei, she wanted to give birth to a daughter as soon as possible, a daughter as cute as Beibei.

“Auntie, sister, my sister.”

Beibei introduced her sister Niuniu to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

Niuniu called Auntie Lan at the right time.

She spoke much more fluently than Beibei.

Half a year older is half a year older.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) squatted down, stretched out her hand to Niuniu, and pulled Niuniu into her arms.

She smiled and said to Zhan Wei, “I’m dying of sweetness from the children calling me ‘Auntie.’”

Zhan Wei said with a hint of jealousy, “Look, as soon as you come, my nieces and nephews all flock to you, and I, your Seventh Uncle, have to stand aside.”

“Beibei, you’re so heartless! As soon as you come out, you ask your Aunt Lan to hold you, and you don’t even call me Seventh Uncle. It’s a shame that your Seventh Uncle loves you so much. You’re so partial.”

“Seventh Uncle,”

Beibei called him sweetly.

Then she held out her arms to Zhan Wei, letting him hold her.

Serenity brought Ning Yunchu out.

Seeing Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) surrounded by the children, she smiled and said, “Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), the children have been talking about it for a long time, always asking when Seventh Auntie will come.”

Hearing that there would be guests at home, the children were eager to know what their future Seventh Auntie would look like.

And when their eldest brother announced that Seventh Uncle was back, they all came running out. Their joy made their parents a little jealous.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s face turned red with laughter.

It was also because of what Serenity said.

She and Zhan Wei had just met the parents, and the little ones in the Zhan family already regarded her as their seventh aunt.

Are they so sure that she will marry Zhan Wei?

Well, she is almost certain to marry Zhan Wei.

Her elders, including relatives and friends, are all eager for her to marry Zhan Wei as soon as possible.

If she dares to tell the elders in the family that she will not marry Zhan Wei, she will probably be scolded by the elders.

If she misses Zhan Wei, she is afraid that she will not meet a better man who is more suitable for her.

“Sister Tong.”

After Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) greeted Serenity, her eyes fell on Ning Yunchu.

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), this is Zhan Wei’s second sister-in-law Ning Yunchu, the president of Ning’s Enterprise.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled at Ning Yunchu, and followed Zhan Wei to call Ning Yunchu second sister-in-law.

Although Ning Yunchu had seen Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )’s photos, she had only just met her in person today. She discreetly surveyed Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) and said with a smile, “No wonder Tongtong kept praising you after she came back. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), you’re truly beautiful.”

“Sister-in-law, stop laughing at me. How could I dare call you beautiful in front of you?”

The Zhan family was a concentration camp of handsome men and beautiful women.

“Come on, let’s go inside. Grandma’s been rambling on about it for a long time. When the baby said you were here, she wanted to come out to meet you.”

Serenity smiled as she took her precious daughter from her brother-in-law’s arms, then put her down. She took her daughter’s hand and beckoned Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) into the house.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had prepared welcome gifts for everyone. Serenity and her sister-in-law both remarked that Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was too polite.

They were family from now on, so there was no need for such formalities.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled and said these were just small tokens of her appreciation.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4825

Meeting one’s parents for the first time always requires the most formal etiquette.

Even when Zhan Wei went to her house for dinner that day, a formal meeting with the parents, he prepared gifts for everyone in her family, coaxing praises from her family, relatives, and friends. Once inside, Serenity offered Zhan Wei the main seat.

Zhan Wei, accompanied by Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), approached the old lady.

“Grandma,” he called, then said, “Grandma, this is Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), my girlfriend. I brought my girlfriend back to you.”

The old lady smiled kindly.

“Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ), I’m finally meeting you. Ever since Tongtong mentioned you, I’ve been looking forward to seeing you.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled, “Grandma Zhan, I’m usually too busy to come visit.”

“It’s okay, Grandma knows you young people are busy and work is important.”

Zhan Wei then introduced his parents and uncles to Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ).

After Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) greeted the elders one by one, he introduced his brothers and sisters-in-law.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is used to seeing the handsome Zhan Wei, and she also knew that the young masters of the Zhan family are all very handsome. When she really saw the young masters of the Zhan family, she couldn’t help but sigh in her heart.

All the handsome men in the world are born into the Zhan family.

They may be gentle, serious, or laugh, no matter what their personalities are, they are all so handsome that both humans and gods can be enraged.

Zhan Wei’s sisters-in-law are also beauties.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) is still very confident in her appearance.

After meeting the young ladies of the Zhan family, Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) felt that her appearance was only average among the people in the Zhan family.

The elders are also well maintained, and it can be seen that they were also very handsome when they were young.

No wonder they can give birth to handsome sons. The new generation of the Zhan family is the Baobao generation. It can be predicted that in twenty years, they will become the new handsome men and the pride of the world in Wancheng.

After meeting everyone, the housekeeper said it was time to eat.

The old lady smiled and asked Zhan Wei and Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) to help her up, and she pulled them into the dining room.

The parents followed.

The younger generation walked in last.

Everyone was used to the old lady's "loving the new and disliking the old".

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was warmly received on her first day at Youyou Villa.

It was not until the next day that she had time to walk around the villa with Zhan Wei.

There is no need to say much about the beautiful scenery of the villa. She was so tired after walking around that she had not yet finished the whole villa. Finally, Zhan Wei took her to a water pavilion.

"There are so many lotus flowers here."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) stood by the water pavilion, her hands resting on the railing. Outside were fields of lotus flowers.

Summer is the time when lotus flowers are in full bloom.

"This is the Lotus Garden, planted entirely with lotuses."

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) admired the lotus for a moment, then returned to the stone table and sat down. "Luckily, there's a little wind today, but it's still very hot. Your Wancheng is really hot, much hotter than our Yangcheng."

Yangcheng's hot days don't last long, and the temperatures aren't as high as Wancheng's.

Zhan Wei said, "Wancheng is hot, but it's a little better than those hot cities."

"If it's hot, let's go back inside and turn on the air conditioning."

Zhan Wei handed Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) a packet of tissues and asked her to wipe her sweat.

His sister-in-law had slipped this to him before he left. He had been wondering why his sister-in-law had given him a packet of tissues, but only when Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) was sweating profusely from strolling around did he realize what she was doing.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4826

At that moment, his attentiveness and consideration earned Romina ( Lan Ruoruo )'s affection even deeper.

Zhan Wei told himself that he would have to be more attentive and considerate in the future, and not wait for his sister-in-law to hint at him.

“Sit down a little longer. There’s a bit of breeze. Once you sit down, it’ll slowly get less hot.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) lingered over the scenery of the manor.

She looked at Zhan Wei and asked, “Zhan Wei, do your elders like me?”

“Yes, of course they do. Absolutely.”

Zhan Wei smiled. “My elders don’t act. They express their feelings genuinely. If they like you, they really do. They don’t pretend to like you and then look down on you behind your back.”

“And there’s nothing they don’t like about you. You’re so outstanding. Yesterday, my grandma and my mom criticized me like nothing. I’m so grateful to you for taking me in, an older, single man.”

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) smiled too.

The old lady and the others had actually said a lot about Zhan Wei, saying that he was thirty-one and almost unlovable. They were grateful that she had accepted him, saving him from a lifetime of singleness.

At mealtimes, they always picked food for her.

They always picked up dishes she liked.

Yangcheng is a northern city, and its food is definitely different from that of Wancheng.

In order to entertain her, the Zhan family specially asked the chef to prepare the northern dishes she liked for every meal.

She thought it was Zhan Wei who told his family, but Zhan Wei said that he didn’t need to tell his family, because the elders in his family already knew her preferences.

It was arranged by the elders, and he didn’t even have the chance to be considerate of her. Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) understood why her parents were anxious to get her married after returning from Wancheng.

She had only been here for one day, but she liked the atmosphere of the Zhan family.

The sound of children laughing came from the distance.

Soon, the two saw a group of children walking towards them.
Hearing Niuniu's voice, she said she wanted beautiful lotus flowers.

Then Beibei also asked for lotus flowers.

Yangyang dotingly promised his two sisters that he would pick two lotus flowers for them.

The other little ones also asked for lotus flowers, and Yangyang doted on them to satisfy them.

A group of children were brought here by Yangyang.

Long Ting has followed his parents to Wangcheng, which is the hometown of his adoptive mother. Every winter and summer vacation, his adoptive parents will take his younger siblings back to the Lan family in Wangcheng, and they will also take him with them whenever he is at home.

If he is not at home, his adoptive parents will also tell him and ask him what gifts he wants, bring them back from Wangcheng, and put them in his room so that he can open the gifts when he returns home.

Long Ting, the king of children, is no longer in Youyou Villa, and Yangyang has become the king of children.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) looked at the child, Wang Yangyang, and said to Zhan Wei, "Sister Tong's nephew will definitely be a sweetheart when he grows up. He's very patient with his younger siblings, and even a fool can sense the doting he shows them."

"Yangyang is a very sensible child, and it's no wonder our whole family loves him so much. Before the babies were born, we didn't have any children, so Yangyang was everyone's favorite. We all love him."

It could be said that they had watched Yangyang grow up.

Even when he was little, he was indeed everyone's favorite.

Even now that everyone has their own children, their concern for Yangyang remains.

"Aren't Yangyang's parents in Wancheng?"

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) had just arrived and didn't know much about Yangyang. She only knew that Yangyang was Serenity's nephew.

His parents were divorced, and Yangyang lived with his mother.

Zhan Wei replied, “His biological father is still in Wancheng. Sister Liberty is now the head of the Feng family in Jiangcheng. She’s very busy. After sending the two children back to Wancheng during the holidays, she returned to Jiangcheng.”

“Sister Liberty is completely relieved to leave the child with us.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4827

“Sister Liberty later remarried, to my eldest brother’s good friend, Duncan, and later gave birth to Niuniu. The head of the Feng family must be a daughter of the direct lineage.”

“I heard about that. We all heard about the change of patriarch of the Jiangcheng Feng family a few years ago.”

She had never imagined she would one day meet those people.

“Will Yangyang still go back to his biological father’s house?”

Zhan Wei hummed, then said, “He always goes back, but not for long. He still prefers to stay at our house.”

“Zhou Honglin used to be a jerk. But since he’s kind to Yangyang and he’s Yangyang’s biological father, we haven’t spoken ill of him in front of Yangyang.”

Even Liberty hadn’t spoken ill of her ex-husband in front of her son.

She felt that adults’ mistakes were adults’ mistakes, and there was no need to drag children into it.

Besides, no matter how wicked Zhou Honglin was, he was still Yangyang’s biological father.

Romina ( Lan Ruoruo ) nodded.

The man she loved had upright values, and so did the people around him.

This man was worthy of her lifelong commitment.

In the distance, the third wife was talking about her eighth son: “Look, your seventh brother has brought his girlfriend back to meet the parents. Where is your girlfriend?”

“Don’t think you are still young. You are already thirty years old.”

“Mom, I know. Can you stop nagging me? I can hear these words whenever I go home, and my ears are callused.”

Zhan Yue said helplessly, "I am still a wounded person. Can't Mom let me recover well and quietly?"

The third wife glanced at his hands wrapped in gauze and said, "You changed the dressing before you were discharged from the hospital. Mom saw it. Your wound has healed almost completely. It is okay not to wrap it with gauze."

"You continue to wrap it with gauze because you are afraid that the wound will scare the children if it does not heal."

Zhan Yue: "..."

"You're discharged. I see the medical staff are so happy; they know your injuries best."

Zhan Yue: "..."

"Alas, I wonder where my two other daughters-in-law are. When will we see them again?"

"Right now, Mom is worried about you and Old Nine. Old Nine can wait a few more years, and you'll be an uncle in a few more years."

Zhan Yue: "...Mom, I'm only twenty-eight. In a few more years..."

Thirty-something, well, for a young girl, he really was an uncle.

Seeing her son speechless, the Third Wife chuckled twice: "Do you realize you're not a kid anymore?"

Zhan Yue remained silent.

He certainly wasn't a kid anymore.

"It's just a matter of staying at home, why not go out and see if you can find me a daughter-in-law?"

The third wife said, "Go out and have fun, it's okay if you don't come back at night."

"Mom, I'm not a three-year-old child anymore, can you please stop talking to me like that? Where am I going? The wound on my hand hasn't healed yet, and it's not convenient for me to drive."

"Wherever you want to go, let Lao Jiu take you."

"Seventh sister-in-law, you've seen it too. There's no need to stay at home. Mom gets a headache just seeing you."

Zhan Yue: "..."

Single dogs don't deserve to go home!

Some time ago, the seventh brother was his shield, but it hasn't been long, and the summer vacation hasn't even ended yet, and his shield is gone.

In order to avoid his mother's nagging, Zhan Yue actually asked his younger brother to take him back to his house in the city.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4828

Zhan Yan said with a smile while driving: "Brother, don't bother with Mom. Mom is just like that. In a few years, everything that my brothers have experienced will fall on me."

He looked at his brothers, who were urged to get married one by one, and got married one by one. He had long been immune to the urging of the elders to get married.

"Laojiu, accompany me to look at houses. I want to buy a house."

Zhan Yue suddenly said.

"Brother, you want to buy a house? You already have a lot of houses under your name. Where are you going to buy one?"

"I think the environment over there on Wansheng Street is very good. There is a very good community there. Let's go there and have a look. I want to buy a large flat."

Wansheng Street is very close to Zeng's clinic, only three to five minutes' walk.

Zhan Yue made preparations to pursue his wife.

Living close by means of proximity, one can get the most out of it.

Zhan Yan tilted his head to glance at his eighth brother and said curiously, "It's a bit far from our company. I bought a house there, so I have to leave home at least ten minutes early every day."

"I'm afraid of traffic. If it's stuck, you'll have to leave home twenty minutes early."

The drive from Wansheng Street to the Zhan Group normally takes about ten minutes, but with its many intersections and traffic lights, the volume of traffic and pedestrians is heavy, and traffic jams are common.

Therefore, it usually takes more than twenty minutes, or even thirty or forty minutes, to get there.

To avoid rush hour, you have to leave home early.

For Zhan Jiu Shao, who loves to sleep in and never comes to work until the final rush hour, leaving home ten or even twenty minutes early is too much of a hassle. His alarm goes off every day at 7:30.

If he wants to stay in, he'll often be up at 7:40. After a quick wash and brush, he grabs a packed breakfast and then hurries to work on his electric scooter.

Yes, Zhan Jiu Shao is very down-to-earth; he rides an electric scooter to work, saying he doesn't have to worry about traffic.

His house in the city is not far from the company. He bought it specifically for the convenience of work. It only takes a few minutes to drive to work, but if there is a traffic jam, he will be late if he leaves home later.

It is more convenient to ride an electric bike, and traffic jams usually won't block electric bikes.

Therefore, he couldn't understand why his eighth brother would think of buying a house on Wansheng Street.

There are so many houses in Wancheng. As long as the eighth brother wants to buy one, what good location can't he buy?

Why does he have to go to Wansheng Street?

No matter how good the community there is, can it be better than the villa area where they brothers live?

Even if they don't live in the villa area, the community they live in is the most upscale and best community in the city, which the community on Wansheng Street can't compare to.

"There is still some room for appreciation over there. You won't lose money if you buy a house there, and you can even make a small profit by reselling it."

Zhan Yan smiled and said, "Brother, you are not short of money. Now that the real estate market is declining and in recession, our family no longer expects to make money in the real estate sector."

He didn't believe that his eighth brother suddenly went there to buy a house to make money.

"Eighth brother, do you have someone you like, and the person you like happens to live on Wansheng Street?"

Zhan Yan suddenly had an idea and thought of this possibility.

Zhan Yue denied it, saying, "If I had someone I liked, I would have told Mom long ago. Why would she kick me out?"

"My hand injury hasn't even fully healed yet, and Mom kicked me out. She doesn't care about me at all. People who don't know would think she's my stepmother,"

Zhan Yue complained about his mother.

“You asked me to go out and find a girlfriend, but where would I go? I can’t just pick up a girl off the street, can I?”

Zhan Yan tilted his head to glance at his brother again.

He realized his brother had never had a girlfriend before, and had recently been hospitalized, so he probably didn’t have anyone he liked.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4829

He said, “Okay, I’ll go with you to look at houses there now. If it’s really good, I’ll buy one too, right across from you, so we can have some companionship.”

“You’d better not buy the house on Wansheng Street.”

Zhan Yue bought a house there because he wanted to be close to the water and get the moon first.

Lao Jiu, the lazy guy, bought a house there and lived there, having to get up early for work. If he didn’t live there, he would just leave it empty or rent it out.

They didn’t need any extravagance.

“You usually rush to the company at a sprint, and you just said it’s not very convenient for work.”

“Speaking of which, Lao Jiu, you were so diligent when you were in school, but why are you so lazy now? You love to sleep in every day. On weekends, you don’t go to work or go anywhere, and you can just sleep in for two days at home.”

Zhan Yue was deeply concerned about his youngest brother.

He was worried that Lao Jiu had some health problems, which was why he was so sleepy, but after taking him to the hospital for a checkup, there was nothing wrong, he was in good health.

He loved to sleep so much, he just couldn’t be bothered to go out.

As Zhan Yan walked toward Wansheng Street, he said, “When I was in school, I was under so much pressure. My eight brothers were watching me. How could I dare to relax? If I relaxed a bit, my grades would drop and you’d beat me to death.”

“The teacher who taught you was also my teacher. If I didn’t do well on a test, the teacher didn’t even bother calling my parents, but just used you to pressure me. I had to push myself to the limit. From elementary school to graduation, I really didn’t dare to relax for a moment.” ”

I pushed myself so hard because I didn't want to embarrass my brothers. But you still wouldn't let me off. You often gave me test questions as gifts. I was so tired of studying that I vomited. Only when my eldest sister-in-law came in and I hugged her thick thighs did I feel better."

My eldest sister-in-law said not to put too much pressure on him, so he could rest and relax.

"I finally don't have to study anymore, so of course I have to make up for the sleep I missed."

Zhan Yan wasn't in a big role now, not even at the vice president level. He didn't have as many social engagements as his brothers, and he wasn't in a relationship. After work, he either ate or slept.

Or he went back to the villa to be with his grandmother and take care of his nephews. He also didn't like dealing with those people outside, as he felt that everyone was wearing a mask and was very hypocritical

He also knew that this was how people interacted with each other.

As the youngest, although his brothers put a lot of pressure on him, they truly loved him, so he had some room for self-will.

He could refuse activities he didn't like, and if he got into trouble, his brothers would help him clean up the mess.

Why not live a more carefree life and do whatever he wanted?

Zhan Yue: "..."

"Besides, I don't really sleep two full days and two nights on weekends. I also spend a lot of time playing with my nieces and nephews. It's just that compared to you, I sleep a little more."

That's because his brothers' vacations were too full.

As a young and single man, he couldn't have such a rich vacation.

He could go out with three or five friends, but Zhan Yan's friends were already in relationships. They wanted to be in love and happy, and he couldn't just be a third wheel .

It would be better for him to stay in the old house and take care of his nieces and nephews.

"Let's take a look first. We don't necessarily have to buy it,"

Zhan Yan said, but he didn't mean to buy a house.

As the two brothers talked, they soon arrived at Wansheng Street.

“That community?”

“Wansheng Garden.”

After the car drove into Wansheng Street, Zhan Yue half-rolled down the car window and looked at the street view outside the window.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4830

He saw the sign of Zeng’s Clinic.

But Lao Jiu drove fast and passed it in a flash.

He didn’t even have time to take a good look.

No problem, he was going to buy a house here anyway, and if he felt unwell in the future, he would send money to Zeng’s Clinic. Of course, he would go there when Zeng Xiaoya was helping out at the clinic. He could use the same methods that Lin Jian could use.

He could also make his presence felt and pursue Zeng Xiaoya step by step.

With his conditions, Zhan Yue felt that everyone in the Zeng family would like him, and Lin Jian should just stand aside.

Zeng Xiaoya didn’t like Lin Jian.

They were in a senior-junior relationship and had known each other for much longer than he had. If Zeng Xiaoya liked Lin Jian, they would have been together long ago.

And Zeng Xiaoya’s colleague and classmate didn’t like that male classmate either.

“This street has a lot of people. There are companies and schools nearby, and there are also many residential areas.”

Zhan Yan slowed down the car, approaching Wansheng Garden.

Even as he drove past, he saw the prosperity of this street.

Zhan Yue said: “Otherwise, why would I be interested in the houses here? After the real estate market crash, housing prices fell in many places, but the housing prices here have not fallen. In some good communities, housing prices have even rebounded.”

“The overall environment is not good now. Many shops are closed and have signs saying ‘Wangshang Shops for Rent’. When we came in, you noticed that all the shops on this street are open for business.”

“The street name is well chosen, Wansheng Street.”

Zhan Yan said: “Why don’t you buy the shops on this street? The monthly rent is considerable, and the money will be paid back faster than if you bought an apartment and waited for it to appreciate in value.”

“Why buy? All the shops on this street belong to our family.”

Zhan Yan: “...No way, how could I not know!”

On such a prosperous street, an entire street of shops actually belonged to his family.

Oh, his elders must have good investment sense. Business on this street must be good. With good business, they wouldn’t have to worry about paying the rent. A whole street, a month’s rent, would be quite substantial for the average person.

But for the Zhan family... Young Master Zhan Jiu didn’t even know the shops on this street belonged to them.

Zhan Yue said, “This is managed by my eldest sister-in-law, and we don’t have to go through her. You know what a big deal that is.”

Zhan Yan smiled and said, “I see. I should know. If I were to get carried away and rent a storefront here one day, wouldn’t I be renting my own shop?”

“Would you do such a thing? You have the time to open a shop?”

Zhan Yue: “...I was just making an analogy, not really.”

He knew the women in his family also had to manage the family property, the small businesses that the mistress of the household was supposed to run, and collecting rent was one of them.

But he didn’t know what those businesses were.

The men were responsible for the outside world, and the women were responsible for the home.

Now that his aunt was gradually ceding power, the burden of being the head of the household to his sister-in-law, Zhan Yan didn’t care what businesses they were supposed to manage, or how many there were. He didn’t need to worry about it, as long as he didn’t have to.

“How many streets did our family own?”

“You can go back and ask my sister-in-law. I don’t know exactly. The shops on this street are ours, or maybe I was interested in the houses in Wansheng Garden, and after some research, I realized we were collecting the rent.”

Zhan Yue spoke honestly.

He had the same idea as his brother.

It wasn't his responsibility to worry about it, so why ask so many questions? He could just pretend he didn't know.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4831

Zhan Yan smiled and said, "Forget it, I won't ask. That's the private money of my eldest sister-in-law and the others. Why should I care so much?" He knew that the mistress of their Zhan family had to manage many small businesses. The income from those businesses was the pocket money of the women who married into the Zhan family, and would also be used for various expenses of the villa.

Men are responsible for the outside world, and women are responsible for the inside world. They just need to take care of the ancestral foundation.

The two brothers went to Wansheng Garden and looked at several houses. In the end, Zhan Yue bought the large flat.

They signed the contract on the spot and paid the deposit. Coming out of Wansheng Garden, Zhan Yan was the only one.

His myna said that he wanted to walk around alone and get familiar with the surrounding environment. Zhan Yan always felt that something was wrong with myna, but he couldn't find what was wrong, so he had to go back to Youyou Villa alone.

Back at the villa, Lao Jiu couldn't help asking Hai Tong. He asked, "Sister-in-law, are all the shops on Wansheng Street ours?" "Wansheng Street?" Serenity thought for a moment, then nodded.

"They're ours, what's the problem?" "My big brother just asked me to take him to Wansheng Garden to look at houses, and he bought a large flat on the spot.

Is there still room for appreciation there? Even if there is, why didn't he buy a few more?" "He said he lives there himself. If he lives there, what's the advantage? It's a bit far from the office.

"Serenity didn't know the Zeng family clinic was on Wansheng Street. She was collecting the rent from the shops on that street, but with so many shops, she had no idea it belonged to Zeng Xiaoya.

It should be said that she didn't know Zeng Xiaoya before. If she didn't know her, she wouldn't have noticed. She only knew how many shops there were, and that each shop was listed by its Wansheng Street address.

She memorized the numbers, but she didn't pay attention to what each shop did. In fact, the Zeng family's house was a self-built house, built on the land they had purchased. They were not tenants of the Zhan family.

"There's a lot of traffic there, and business is pretty good.

The shop owners there all pay their rent on time. I haven't raised the rent, and they haven't asked for a rent reduction.

The environment is nice and the transportation is convenient."

"Housing prices there don't seem to have been affected much. Your brother might really be interested in the potential for appreciation."

"It's okay if he wants to live there. Don't you all buy houses all over the place?"

Not only the young masters of the Zhan family, but even their wives have bought numerous houses across the country.

In Wancheng alone, she owns dozens of houses. She buys houses wherever she likes.

She's no longer the Serenity of a few years ago. She has ample financial resources and can afford any house or car she wants.

Zhan Yan thought about it and agreed.

They're all the same. They buy houses wherever they like. They don't lack money, anyway.

With so many houses, they only occasionally stay for a couple of nights.

With one, they can feel like they're home wherever they go.

Zhan Yan didn't think much of it.

Little did he know that after sending him away, his brother spent the entire afternoon in the coffee shop across from the Zeng family clinic. Zhan Yue didn't leave until the evening, when he checked out.

He didn't leave Wansheng Street either. Instead, he bought a bouquet of flowers from a nearby flower shop and then, carrying the bouquet, went to the Zeng family clinic.

There were no patients at the Zeng family clinic at the moment. Second Uncle and his wife, along with Zeng Xiaofeng, were chatting. It was unclear what they were talking about, but all three were laughing .

Zhan Yue pushed the door open at this moment.

The three stopped laughing when they saw Zhan Yue come in.

They all looked at Zhan Yue.

"This young man is so handsome, Xiaofeng! He's even more handsome than you,"

Second Aunt Zeng spoke first, praising Zhan Yue's handsomeness in a low voice.

Zeng Xiaofeng, however, was staring at the bouquet of flowers Zhan Yue was holding.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4832

This is a clinic, and the person who came in with a bouquet of flowers is certainly not here to see a doctor.

It must be another suitor of my sister's.

He looks better than Lin Jian, at least he is pleasing to the eye.

But his hands are still wrapped in gauze...both hands are injured.

“Sir, who are you looking for?”

Zeng Xiaofeng stood up and walked forward with a professional smile on his face.

“Hello, Zeng Xiaoya, does Doctor Zeng live here?”

When Zeng Xiaofeng looked at Zhan Yue, Zhan Yue was also looking at him.

Seeing that he was somewhat similar to Zeng Xiaoya, he guessed that he should be Zeng Xiaoya's brother.

Zeng Xiaoya has a biological brother, but her brother is not in Wancheng. However, some of her cousins are in Wancheng.

The youngest cousin is still in high school.

“Who are you?”

Zeng Xiaofeng did not answer immediately, but asked who Zhan Yue was.

Zhan Yue forced a smile and introduced himself. “My last name is Zhan, and I'm Dr. Zeng's patient. Dr. Zeng saved my hands, and now they're almost healed. I was discharged yesterday.”

“I bought a bouquet of flowers to thank Dr. Zeng in person. I also made a banner. I'll deliver it tomorrow, just as Dr. Zeng is leaving work, so everyone can see him accept it.”

In reality, Zhan Yue hadn't had the banner made yet; it had just occurred to him.

He'd have one made overnight.

Someone named Zhan?

Zeng Xiaofeng immediately thought of the Zhan family's eighth young master.

His sister had told him that the Zhan family's eighth young master had been in a car accident and injured his hands, spending quite a while in the hospital.

His sister said that he could have been discharged a long time ago, but hadn't been able to leave until yesterday. He still remembered the day he'd just returned, when his sister received a call from a colleague to let her know that the eighth young master was about to be discharged. She was so happy and relieved.

At this moment, the eighth young master Zhan came to their house and sent a bouquet of flowers...

This is not right.

Where is the young master of the Zhan family?

It is understandable that he needs to be hospitalized for two days for observation after being injured, but he stayed in the hospital for such a long time and came to the doctor's house in person after being discharged, saying that he wanted to thank the doctor in person.

If he wants to thank the doctor, he can thank him on the day of discharge.

Is it necessary to come to their house in person?

Zeng Xiaofeng looked Zhan Yue up and down again.

He had heard about the good family tradition of the Zhan family.

But he had never met the young master of the Zhan family. He was not from the same world at all.

Zhan Yue had a good appearance and looked like a steady person, but his sister did not have a stunning appearance. She should not be able to impress the young master of the Zhan family who was used to seeing beautiful women, right?

Zeng Xiaofeng was consumed by thought, yet a smile played on his face. He said, "Mr. Zhan, Zeng Xiaoya is my sister. Please take a seat. I'll go upstairs and fetch her."

He then turned and headed for the stairs, addressing his uncle and aunt as he went, "Uncle, Aunt, Mr. Zhan is Xiaoya's patient, and he's come to express his gratitude. Please entertain him while I fetch Xiaoya."

Uncle and Aunt Zeng had already overheard their conversation.

Unaware of the Zhan family's young master's situation, they didn't think much of it, assuming he was a patient coming to express his gratitude. They warmly invited Zhan Yue to sit down, while Aunt Zeng poured him a glass of warm water.

"Mr. Zhan, please have some water."

"Thank you,"

Zhan Yue said, rising to take the glass and thanking him.

Aunt Zeng saw that his hands, though bandaged, didn't seem to be holding the glass to drink, and knew they were almost healed.

He could remove the bandages; there was no need to keep them wrapped.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4833

Zeng Xiaofeng went upstairs and came to his sister's door.

He knocked on the door. He shouted through the door: "Xiaoya, are you up?"

"I'm up."

Zeng Xiaoya had already changed her clothes and was ready to go downstairs to eat and go to work.

She walked over and opened the door.

"Brother, is it time to eat?"

Zeng Xiaoya thought her brother was calling her to get up and eat.

"I work the night shift and I wake up at this time every day."

She walked out with a smile, "Because I woke up because I was hungry."

Zeng Xiaofeng said: "The eighth young master of the Zhan family is here. He bought a bouquet of flowers and said that he would send a banner to the hospital for you tomorrow."

"Zhan Yue?"

Zeng Xiaoya was stunned. "Why is he here? How did he know our family is here?"

In the hospital, she would only say a few words to Zhan Yue when she was making rounds.

Usually she was busy and he was quietly recovering from his injuries, so they didn't have much interaction.

She remembered that she had never told him where she lived.

She usually didn't tell patients where her home was.

Zeng Xiaofeng said, “That’s the eighth young master of the Zhan family. It’s easier for him to know where you live than where you eat. He can find out by asking someone a little.”

“The Zhan family and the Su family are old friends and have close contacts. We in Wancheng all know what the Su family does for a living.”

It was too easy for Zhan Yue to know where his sister lived.

Zeng Xiaoya said as she followed her brother downstairs, “If Zhan Yue wants to thank me, he can go directly to the hospital. Why did he come to our house?”

“He thanked me when he was discharged from the hospital. To be honest, I didn’t do anything. I just asked a few questions out of concern. His injuries were not serious, and the nurses helped him change his dressings every two days.”

“I only did what we doctors should do.”

If Zhan Yue was seriously injured at the time and it was really her who pulled him back from the brink of death, Zeng Xiaoya would not find it strange that Zhan Yue was so grateful to her. However, Zhan Yue’s injuries were not serious and she did not do anything, so even Zeng Xiaoya, no matter how slow-witted, would find it strange that he was so grateful to her.

“Xiaoya, is he interested in you?”

Zeng Xiaofeng asked directly.

Zeng Xiaoya stopped and whispered, “Is he interested in me? How is that possible!”

Big brother, don’t scare her.

How could the eighth young master of the Zhan family be interested in her?

She is not a beauty with extraordinary beauty.

With Zhan Yue’s status and position, he should have seen countless beauties, and she is not a beauty, so how could Zhan Yue be interested in her?

Was it love at first sight?

Or was it love that grew over time?

Zeng Xiaoya thought it was neither.

She knew her own worth. She did not have the capital to make Zhan Yue, who was used to seeing beautiful women, fall in love with her at first sight.

As for falling in love over time, they had only known each other for about ten days and had not been together for a long time, so it was impossible to say that they fell in love over time.

“If he didn’t fall in love with you, what he did now was really to express his gratitude?”

Zeng Xiaofeng asked his sister, “Do you believe it?”

Zeng Xiaoya was speechless.

After a while, she said, “But, it’s impossible for him to fall in love with me.”

“Brother, look at your sister, do I have the capital to make him fall in love at first sight?

Married at First Sight Chapter 4834

“You’re not bad. My sister is the type who gets more beautiful the more you look at her. And you have a face that looks blessed and pure.”

“Very approachable. Maybe the Eighth Young Master of the Zhan family likes girls like you.”

Zeng Xiaoya: “...Brother, I seriously suspect that you came back this time to urge me to get married on behalf of my parents, urging me to get married soon, right?”

“So, when you see a man coming to me, you imagine he’s pursuing me.”

She would never believe that Zhan Yue liked her.

Zeng Xiaofeng smiled, “Okay, let’s stop speculating. If he really likes you, he will definitely come to you again in the future, just like Lin Jian.”

“If he only comes this time and we’ll never see each other again, then you’re overthinking it.”

“Let’s go downstairs and see. He’s waiting on the first floor.”

After taking two steps, Zeng Xiaofeng said, “But, Xiaoya, if he really likes you, what will you do? Will you accept him?”

“No,”

Zeng Xiaoya answered without even thinking.

“The Zhan family’s threshold is too high; I can’t afford to marry them.”

“And he’s too handsome; I can’t keep him.”

“If I ever get married, I’ll find a man who’s a good match for our family, someone who can tolerate my frequent overtime work, even working New Year’s calls.”

Zeng Xiaofeng felt relieved. He had been worried his sister would covet Zhan Yue’s good looks and family background.

After all, many girls in Wancheng dream of marrying into the Zhan family and becoming a mistress. Fortunately , his sister was clear-headed and didn’t have such dreams.

“It’s better to marry someone of equal status. Marrying someone of higher status means you’ll suffer a lot.”

“Marrying someone of lower status doesn’t help with poverty alleviation, so it’s best to marry someone of equal status.”

Zeng Xiaofeng smiled and said, “Big brother will introduce you to a few good men who are a good match for our family.”

“Brother, I want to be in a free relationship. I don’t need you to introduce me.”

Zeng Xiaoya refused her brother’s introduction. She wanted to be in a free relationship.

“Your vision... Fine, fine, if you want to find someone, go ahead and find one yourself, but be sure to be discerning and avoid another scumbag like Shi Hao. Lin Jian isn’t the man for you either.”

“Got it.”

Zeng Xiaoya had been hurt in love before, and she would be extremely cautious about starting a new relationship.

The siblings chatted for a long time before heading downstairs together.

It wasn’t yet completely dark outside; summer is the season for long days and short nights.

Zeng Xiaoya saw Zhan Yue the moment she came downstairs.

He was dazzling; even sitting quietly, he was like a beam of light, radiant and captivating, drawing everyone’s attention.

She walked towards Zhan Yue.

Uncle and Aunt were chatting with Zhan Yue. He was incredibly gentle, smiling from time to time, giving off an approachable, refined, and handsome appearance.

Zeng Xiaoya sensed that Aunt was very fond of Zhan Yue.

Lin Jian visited her home daily, trying to curry favor with her, but in two years, she hadn't been able to get her to say a good word about him.

As expected, Zhan Yue's handsome face is very popular. Even her second aunt can't resist Zhan Yue's handsome face. He is really more handsome than those idol stars.

If Zhan Yue enters the entertainment industry, he will definitely become a top-tier traffic star.

"Doctor Zeng."

Zhan Yue saw Zeng Xiaoya, he quickly stood up and greeted with a smile.

His action made the Zeng family feel that he would respect people. He did not sit and wait for Zeng Xiaoya to come over just because Zeng Xiaoya was younger than him. Instead, he stood up and greeted her.

"Mr. Zhan, why are you here? Please sit down."

Even though she knew the reason why Zhan Yue came from her brother, Zeng Xiaoya pretended not to know. She politely asked Zhan Yue to sit down and poured Zhan Yue another glass of warm water.

Zhan Yue smiled naturally, and there was a little affection in his eyes when he looked at her, but it could not be caught without paying attention.

"I came to buy a house this afternoon. I passed by your clinic and came in to sit down. I also want to thank Doctor Zeng for taking care of me."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4835

Zhan Yue told the Zeng family he was here to express his gratitude. Speaking to Zeng Xiaoya, he explained he was mainly here to buy a house. Knowing this was Zeng Xiaoya's home, he'd come in to sit down and thank her for taking care of him in the hospital.

The Zeng family all looked at Zhan Yue.

Zeng Xiaofeng suspected Zhan Yue had some feelings for his sister.

Zeng Xiaoya didn't dwell on it, but she was curious about why Zhan Yue would come here to buy a house.

There weren't any villas nearby.

Given Zhan Yue's status, he'd probably buy a villa.

"Mr. Zhan, are you here to look at houses?"

Zeng Xiaoya asked curiously, sitting down next to her brother. "Where are you looking? Are you planning to buy a house nearby?"

Zhan Yue replied, "I saw a large flat in Wansheng Garden. I've already paid the deposit, and I'll pay the balance when we get the paperwork done."

"Wansheng Garden? Oh, it's nice. We have a house there too, but we usually live here."

Building your own house is more comfortable.

Her parents bought her a house of over 100 square meters in Wansheng Garden, also paid in full. After the renovation, she hadn't moved in yet, so she needed to air it out first. Her parents said that it would be her dowry in the future, so that she could have a house of her own. They also repeatedly told her not to sell the house after marriage. This was a way out for her.

If she had a fight with her husband in the future, at least she would have a place to go, and she wouldn't be left without a place to go after leaving home.

Zeng Xiaoya knew all this, of course. The house before marriage had always been her premarital property.

After marriage, selling it and buying a new one became joint property of the couple. Although people get married with the intention of spending their whole lives together, people nowadays are not as loyal to love and marriage, and it's hard to say whether they will divorce in the future.

It's better to keep her premarital property safe. This is her parents' love for her and a way out for her.

"Which building and which floor did you buy?"

Zhan Yue asked in surprise, "Let's see if we live in the same building."

In fact, the large flat he bought was just above Zeng Xiaoya's. He had investigated it clearly before going to look at and buy a house.

The house-hunting was all a pretense, a way to trick Lao Jiu and prevent him from asking further questions.

Even now, Lao Jiu couldn't understand why he'd come to buy a house.

Before he and Zeng Xiaoya even started dating, he couldn't let the elders know, lest they rush over to see Xiaoya and scare her.

Zeng Xiaoya explained the location of her house.

"Doctor Zeng, what a coincidence! We bought in the same building,"

Zhan Yue said. "The large flat I bought is right above yours. If you move in, we'll be neighbors."

Zeng Xiaoya was surprised. "What a coincidence! We bought in the same building! I looked at the large flat, but I thought it was too big and a bit expensive, so I passed on the smaller one."

Large flats are more expensive.

She came from a medical family, but her parents had only so much money to spend.

Furthermore, her parents had helped her brothers each buy a house outright, and they also had a house in their name.

All her parents' life savings had been used to buy houses for them.

Her parents said that if she liked the large flat, she could buy it. She didn't want her parents to spend so much money, so she finally bought Zeng Tong's house and bought a house of 120 or 130 square meters.

She spent all her family's savings on the renovation, and her parents and brothers also helped her a little.

She bought the furniture little by little with her salary.

"I like a spacious house."

Zhan Yue was used to living in a big villa, so even if he bought an apartment, he would buy a large flat.

He thought the ordinary apartment was too small.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, "Mr. Zhan usually lives in a big villa. He is used to living in a big villa, so even if he lives in a large flat, he would think it is too small."

"That's not the case. It's still very spacious for one person to live in a large flat."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4836

Second Aunt got up and washed a plate of fruit.

Seeing her niece and Zhan Yue getting along so well, Second Aunt increased her treatment for Zhan Yue. She already had a good impression of the young man.

“Mr. Zhan, have some fruit,”

Second Aunt smiled, inviting Zhan Yue to eat.

“Mr. Zhan’s hand, I think it’s okay now, right?”

Second Aunt asked with concern.

Zhan Yue replied, “It’s much better, thanks to the good medicine Dr. Zeng gave me. I’m recovering very well. When I was discharged, the dressing was changed. Dr. Zeng said the bandage can be removed in a few days and I won’t have to wear it anymore.”

Zeng Xiaoya laughed, “That’s not my credit.”

His injury wasn’t serious to begin with.

It was just a minor flesh wound.

But a young master from a wealthy family, spoiled from childhood, would need such a long hospital stay for such a minor injury.

Zhan Yue could have had the bandage removed, but he refused. Zeng Xiaoya thought he didn’t like it because his hands looked ugly without it.

“Mr. Zhan, have some fruit.”

Zeng Xiaoya, considerate of the bandages, personally picked up a piece of fruit with a disposable fork and handed it to Zhan Yue.

Zhan Yue quickly took it and thanked her.

The fruit Second Aunt brought out was just some common fruits like apples and grapes.

Zhan Yue didn’t really like apples, but the ones Zeng Xiaoya gave him were especially sweet and delicious.

Although Zeng Xiaofeng didn’t interrupt much, he kept an eye on Zhan Yue’s expression.

Every expression on Zhan Yue’s face was caught in his eyes.

Zhan Yue noticed this about Zeng Xiaofeng, but he wasn’t worried. He’d been pursuing Zeng Xiaoya since the beginning, and wasn’t afraid of Zeng Xiaofeng seeing his feelings for her.

A gentleman loves a beautiful lady.

It was perfectly natural for him to like a girl as wonderful as Zeng Xiaoya.

“What made Mr. Zhan want to buy a house here?”

Zeng Xiaofeng asked.

“All the shops on this street belong to me. Sometimes my family isn’t available to come collect the rent, so they ask me to go. I find it too much trouble to run back and forth, so I thought I’d buy a house here.”

“When I come to collect the rent, I can stay here for a few days, without the hassle of running back and forth,” the Zeng family members said.

Yes, they’d heard that the shops on this street belonged to the richest man in the country.

The richest man was the Zhan family, and Zhan Yue was the eighth young master of the Zhan family, a member of their family.

“Isn’t rent collected via WeChat these days? Why would Mr. Zhan have to come in person?”

Zeng Xiaofeng questioned, essentially exposing Zhan Yue’s lies.

Zhan Yue was not at all flustered. He said, “They didn’t include all of us. Sometimes they didn’t transfer the money, so they paid in cash, so we need to come and collect it.”

Zeng Xiaofeng really couldn’t find fault with him.

Indeed, some people still insisted on paying the rent in cash.

“Xiaoya, you have to go to work later.”

Unable to expose Zhan Yue’s lie, Zeng Xiaofeng reminded his sister that he had to eat and go to work.

Zhan Yue stood up at the right time and said to the Zeng family, “Uncle and aunt, I should go back too. I won’t disturb you. Doctor Zeng has to go to work later.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4837

Zeng Xiaoya stood up as well.

She saw Zhan Yue out, but Zhan Yue told her not to see him off, and he walked towards Wansheng Garden.

Zeng Xiaoya watched him walk away before turning back to the clinic.

The cook had already come downstairs to tell them to go upstairs for dinner.

“Did the Eighth Young Master Zhan come here on foot? Didn’t he drive?”

Zeng Xiaofeng asked, glancing in the direction where Zhan Yue had disappeared.

“He’s here to look at and buy houses, isn’t he? His car’s probably parked at Wansheng Garden. No, his hand injury hasn’t fully healed yet, so he probably isn’t driving.”

“But his condition doesn’t really prevent him from driving,”

Zeng Xiaoya said as she walked back. “No matter how he got here, rich young masters like them have chauffeurs when they go out. Why would they need to drive themselves?”

“His eldest cousin always has several bodyguards with him, and he’s even more ostentatious,”

Zeng Xiaofeng said. “I heard that Young Master Zhan always has several bodyguards with him when he goes out. It’s not for show, but to prevent women from falling for him. Even when he was married and his wife was pregnant, many women still wanted to get into his bed.”

Zeng Xiaoya had heard the gossip too.

The Zhan family’s young masters’ romances had provided a lot of gossip for the public.

Since there weren’t many people visiting the doctor now, the family went upstairs to eat.

After dinner, Zeng Xiaoya rode her electric scooter to work.

Her brother saw her off and told her to be careful.

After his sister left, Zeng Xiaofeng returned to the clinic. His second uncle was reading the newspaper, while his second aunt was watching TV.

Zeng Xiaofeng brewed a pot of tea and brought it over. He poured a cup for his second uncle and asked his second aunt if she wanted some. His second aunt said she didn’t drink tea at night, so Zeng Xiaofeng poured himself a cup “Uncle, what do you think?”

Uncle Zeng, still staring at the newspaper, didn’t even look up as he responded to his nephew. “What do you mean?”

“I’m not familiar with him. This is our first meeting, so how can I know what he’s like?”

Uncle Zeng continued reading.

After a moment, as if digesting the deeper meaning of his nephew’s words, he suddenly looked up at him and said, “Xiaofeng, what do you mean?”

“That won’t work. The gap between our family and the Zhan family is too great. Xiaoya’s personality isn’t suited to marrying into a wealthy family. She can’t handle the rules.”

Even if the Zhan family is considered a rare breed among the wealthy, it’s still a wealthy family, and a well-established one at that. It’s impossible for them to be completely devoid of rules. Women who marry into the Zhan family are often daughters of wealthy families, accustomed to the life of the wealthy.

Marrying into the Zhan family is easy, but ordinary people would probably find it hard to handle the rules.

“Don’t look at his good looks. It’s useless for a man to be good-looking. He also has to... Well, the men in the Zhan family are all excellent, but too excellent. They are not suitable for our Xiaoya.”

Uncle Zeng said to his nephew: “When your parents ask you to be at home, urge your sister to go on a blind date, but they don’t ask you to regard every man you meet as your future brother-in-law.”

“Just find a man with a family background comparable to ours, who can accept that Xiaoya often works overtime and has no time to take care of the family, and live an ordinary life.”

“Don’t marry up into a wealthy family.”

“You have to endure a lot of grievances to marry into a wealthy family.”

“Don’t believe the rumors that the elders of the Zhan family are very open-minded. As long as the younger generation likes something, they can accept it and will not find fault. They treat their daughters-in-law like daughters.” ”

Everyone ignores that the young ladies of the Zhan family are all daughters of famous families. Every successful marriage of theirs is a match between the two families. The eldest young lady of the Zhan family was an ordinary girl, and she was marrying up when she married into the Zhan family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4838

.”Now, she is also a lady from a famous family, and her elder sister has gone back to inherit the ancestral business. So, the young lady of the Zhan family is no ordinary person.”

Zeng Xiaofeng drank tea slowly, “I don’t want my sister to marry into a wealthy family, but what if Zhan Yue really likes Xiaoya?”

“Although there is a big gap between our family and the Zhan family, our family is also a well-off family, surpassing many families.”

To the general public, their Zeng family is a superior family.

“Just now, it seemed that something was wrong between Mr. Zhan and our Xiaoya.”

Second Uncle Zeng finally stopped reading the newspaper. He folded the newspaper and said, “That’s right, it’s very obvious. Xiaoya is all in his eyes, and he doesn’t hide it at all. Only Xiaoya didn’t notice it.”

“So, I asked Second Uncle what he thought of Zhan Yue.”

Hearing the uncle and nephew discussing Zhan Yue, Second Aunt sat over and took over the conversation: “It turns out that I’m not the only one who feels this way. I thought I was overthinking it.”

“Mr. Zhan’s affection for Xiaoya is too obvious.”

“When I heard him say he was coming to buy a house, I suspected that he had inquired clearly in advance and knew that our family lives here. Xiaoya has a house in Wansheng Garden, so he bought a house in Wansheng Garden?”

“What he said about helping to collect the rent is just an excuse, but I can’t expose him. I heard that the Zhan family has many young housekeepers. Can’t the young housekeepers come to collect the rent? Why do you have to let the young master come to collect the rent?” ”

It’s just to deceive Xiaoya. I don’t believe it anyway.”

“It’s easy for him to find out the situation in our family.”

“Also, Xiaoya said that the injury on his hand wasn’t serious. He had been in the hospital for so long, he could have been discharged long ago. But he stayed there for so long, and even after being discharged he was still wrapped in gauze, making people think his injury was serious.”

“Why?”

Zeng Xiaofeng analyzed, “Xiaoya is a doctor. He didn’t leave the hospital even after his injury healed. It must be for Xiaoya.”

Uncle Zeng and Aunt Zeng: “...”

“However, we just met him once, it’s too early to talk about these things. I just felt something was wrong, so I brought it up with Uncle Zeng and Aunt Zeng.””Let’s wait and see. If Zhan Yue comes here often in the future, then he has other intentions.”

Same as Lin Jian.

“Well, let’s wait and see. If he really has feelings for Xiaoya, Xiaofeng, you should ask him out for a good talk.”

“Explain to him the difference between our two families. Xiaoya doesn’t like being controlled too strictly. A wealthy family’s backyard is not suitable for Xiaoya.”

“Second uncle, if he really has his eyes on Xiaoya, I will definitely talk to him in advance.”

Zeng Xiaofeng decided that after he went back to work, he would let his parents come back and continue to watch over her.

To prevent his sister from being tricked by Zhan Yue.

Zhan Yue didn’t know that the Zeng family had said so much after he left.

After he came out of the Zeng family clinic and returned to the gate of Wansheng Community, he called Lao Jiu and asked him to come and pick him up.

“My dear, I can’t leave right now.”

“Call Uncle Yang and have him arrange a driver to pick you up.”

Zhan Yue asked him, “What are you doing now?”

“Attending a business reception. None of you wanted to show up, so I had to take over.”

The brothers threw all the events they didn’t want to attend at him, saying it was to give him more practice.

Ha!

They were clearly bullying him because he was the youngest and couldn’t resist the pressure from his brothers.
