Chapter 4853

Dr. Zeng, with such good conditions, couldn't possibly accept Dr. Lin's family situation.

It was only because her family situation was similar that she could understand him, tolerate him, and tolerate his relatives coming to him when they were sick.

They were truly kindred spirits.

However, Dr. Lin's crush was on Dr. Zeng.

Dr. Zeng came from a medical family, with all his family members studying medicine, and he had considerable connections within the medical community.

Dr. Lin's attraction to Dr. Zeng wasn't necessarily due to the Zeng family connections, but how could Dr. Zeng, so intelligent, not see the difference?

"Here's the bouquet,"

Lin Jian handed the flowers, which Zeng Xiaoya had rejected, to the female nurse who admired him.

Then, ignoring her surprised expression, he returned to his seat and sat down to see two patients.

The female nurse, holding the bouquet, looked at Lin Jian again, feeling a pang of sadness.

Lin Jian didn't love her, but he didn't hate her either.

He was aware of her feelings for him.

He neither accepted nor rejected her, acting as if she were a backup.

Yet, she still liked him.

They were alike.

He was the best man she could ever meet.

The female nurse put the bouquet away.

After Lin Jian finished examining the patient, she gave him a shot in the buttocks and then got him some medicine. She didn't ask about Lin Jian's pursuit of his wife.

She didn't want to know; knowing would make her feel bad.

She had admired the man for many years and liked Dr. Zeng, but Dr. Zeng did not like him.

This kind of thing was a big blow to her.

So, she did not want to ask, and just waited silently in the clinic for him to come back.

This was his career, the clinic he relied on for survival. He did learn a lot from Dr. Zeng and applied it to treating patients. He spent several years of hard work to run the Lin Family Clinic.

After a while, both patients took the medicine and left.

Lin Jian sat in his seat, not knowing what he was thinking, but he looked very depressed.

The nurse went to make him a pot of tea.

“Doctor Lin, have a cup of tea.”

Lin Jian looked up at her, then at the pot of tea she had made for him. He moved his lips and said, “Yuehua, am I so bad? Why doesn’t Xiaoya like me?”

“She treats her patients better than me. The patient is a man, very young, and very handsome. In terms of appearance, he is miles ahead of me.”

“I admit that my appearance is not as good as that man, but I am sincere to Xiaoya. She and I both studied medicine, so I can understand the difficulties of doctors and tolerate her.” ”

If she marries someone else, she won’t have much time to take care of the family after marriage. Even if she has children in the future, she won’t be able to take care of the children. Only we are in the same industry, and I run a clinic with free time, so I can tolerate her.”

“But she doesn’t love me. She said that she didn’t love me before, doesn’t love me now, and will never love me in the future. Am I so bad?”

“Or does she think I’m not worthy of her?”

Yuehua also took a teacup for herself. She poured a cup of tea for Lin Jian first, and then poured herself a cup.

“Doctor Lin, it’s hard to explain matters of the heart.”

“Doctor Zeng doesn’t love you, maybe she really doesn’t love you. It’s not that she doesn’t love you, it’s that you’re bad or unworthy of her. It has nothing to do with that.”

“Doctor Lin, you’re excellent. At your age, to have such a career today, you’ve already defeated many people.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4854

“You... can hold on a little longer and pursue her. If she never accepts you, then I advise you to give up. She might never fall in love with you again.”

She didn’t tell him to give up immediately, but rather to hold on a little longer.

She clearly loved him, and it hurt her heart that he pursued Zeng Xiaoya, but she still understood, sympathized, supported, and encouraged him.

Is this what love is?

As long as he felt he would be happy, as long as he was happy, she would support him.

Zeng Xiaoya said he had someone who truly loved him by his side, and advised him to choose the one in front of him and not waste his time on her.

Yuehua was a good person; she had come to him when he opened his clinic, and over the years, they had grown to have a rapport.

However, she had two younger brothers, and her parents didn’t have much of a salary. After retirement, they wouldn’t have a pension, health insurance, or savings. They had already built a three-story house in their hometown.

Yuehua had spent all her salary over the years on building it for her family.

It was obvious that the house was for her two younger brothers. After spending so much money, they probably didn't even have a room.

Her youngest brother is still in elementary school, and her oldest brother has just started junior high school. As her parents are getting older and unable to take care of things, her brother asks her for help.

To be honest, Lin Jian feels tired of helping his brothers and sisters and so many relatives, but he endures it because of his family relationship and his parents' face.

He bought a house in Wancheng, so he doesn't have to go back to his hometown, but his parents and brothers and sisters still have to live there.

If he doesn't do well, those people will say bad things about him, which will make his family feel embarrassed.

For the sake of his family, as long as relatives come to him for help, he will help as much as he can, and will also give some advice if he really can't.

Because he feels this kind of tiredness, he doesn't want to marry a wife who is the same as him. Yuehua treats him very well, but she is the same as him.

Yuehua still depends on him.

Unlike Zeng Xiaoya, who can bring him a lot of help.

If he marries Zeng Xiaoya, even if he gives a betrothal gift, the Zeng family will let Zeng Xiaoya take her back. But if he married Yuehua, no matter how much betrothal gifts he gave, Yuehua's parents would likely leave the money for her two younger brothers.

This was the difference between having a family and parents to support him and not having them.

His clinic was profitable, but it couldn't withstand so many people vying for his lifeblood.

"I love Xiaoya, and I won't give up easily!"

Lin Jian told Yuehua, and also himself.

Marrying Zeng Xiaoya would be a great help to him.

He wouldn't give up.

Unless Zeng Xiaoya married someone else, then he'd have to give up.

Yuehua said bitterly, "The Zeng family has a good impression of Doctor Lin. Keep working hard, Doctor Lin. If you can win over Dr. Zeng's family, they'll speak up for you. Maybe, Doctor Lin, you can finally win her heart."

Lin Jian took the cup of tea she had poured for him and drank it in one gulp.

After setting it down, he didn't look at her, but said softly, "I hope so."

"Yuehua, it would be wonderful if you had Xiaoya's background,"

Yuehua smiled wryly.

She, too, wished she had Dr. Zeng's.

But if she had that kind of background, she'd probably find it hard to accept Dr. Lin's family background.

Well, she secretly believed that Dr. Lin wasn't worthy of Dr. Zeng.

Yuehua wouldn't be foolish enough to say that.

She was still waiting for Lin Jian to give up on Zeng Xiaoya and marry her.

She was so dedicated to helping Lin Jian run the clinic because she believed she could one day become the owner of the Lin family clinic.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4855

Zeng Xiaoya had no idea what Lin Jian would do or say when he returned to the clinic, and she didn't want to know.

She truly didn't love Lin Jian.

She couldn't accept him.

She didn't want to settle.

When the clinic calmed down, Zeng Xiaoya and Zhan Yue left together.

They walked to Wansheng Garden.

Looking at the long street lined with shops, Zeng Xiaoya remembered Zhan Yue saying this street belonged to his family.

“Mr. Zhan, how did your family come up with the idea of buying a whole street of shops here?”

“When did you buy them?”

Zhan Yue said. “I’m not really sure. My sister-in-law is in charge now. I’ll ask her when I see her someday.”

“Some of our shops were used to pay off debts owed to us by others who couldn’t pay them back,”

Zeng Xiaoya said. “If that’s the case, it must have been a long time ago. Back then, when it was newly developed, it wasn’t as prosperous as it is now. No one could have imagined it would be so valuable now.”

Housing prices used to be much lower, not as high as they are now. They’ve been volatile over the past two years, but no matter how much they fall, they won’t go back to where they were before.

Compared to ordinary people, buying a house requires emptying the family’s savings. Some only children who buy a house after marriage often drain the savings of both sets of parents.

“That should be it.”

The Zhan family wasn’t the richest before, but they were just wealthy.

It was common for people to use their houses or shops as collateral when they couldn’t pay back their debts.

As their family became more wealthy, the rent collection became the responsibility of the women, while the men went out to build bigger businesses.

Zhan Yue thought, he should go home and ask about the history of how Wansheng Street became the Zhan family's property.
Even the eldest sister-in-law might not know the truth.

Asking grandma would be the clearest .

But if you ask grandma, with her cleverness, she will definitely guess that he is up to something and will guess it to Zeng Xiaoya.

He doesn't even want the elders to know about it. He even wants to hide it from grandma.

Forget it, let's ask the eldest brother and his wife.

The brother and his wife have known about it for a long time, and now they are keeping it a secret for him.

As long as the brothers have someone they like, they will not hide it from the eldest brother. If the eldest brother knows, the sister-in-law will know too

. There are no secrets between brothers and sisters-in-law.

"Is that Mr. Lin pursuing you?"

Zhan Yue turned the topic to Lin Jian.

"I think he has deep feelings for you. He must have liked you for many years."

Zeng Xiaoya said as they walked, "That's my senior. We have known each other for several years. In the past, we were just senior and junior. I didn't feel that he liked me."

"Ever since I broke up with my first love, he began to run to my house intentionally or unintentionally. Then, under the banner of asking my second uncle for medical advice, he cared about me and treated my family very well."

"I'm not stupid. How could I not know what he was thinking, but he didn't confess, and I couldn't say anything, so I could only avoid him."

"To be honest, Senior Lin is very good. He runs a clinic at a young age, and he also bought a house in the city of Dongguan, a car, and savings. It's just that if I don't love him, I don't love him."

“I won’t accept him just because he has good conditions. I think it’s difficult for a marriage without love to last.”

“I don’t want to force myself, so I firmly rejected him.

Zeng Xiaoya gave him a reassuring answer: she truly wouldn’t fall for Lin Jian.

Zhan Yue breathed a sigh of relief.

He said, “Relationships can’t be forced. If you don’t love him, then don’t love him. Just tell him clearly.”

“Marriage is a lifelong commitment. Don’t settle, and don’t force it.”

“Maybe it’s because my family is very dedicated to marriage and love. They only marry when they’re deeply in love. I think you’re right. A marriage without love is hard to last.”

“I don’t love Senior Lin. First, I really don’t. Second, I don’t like his family background.”

Zhan Yue said, “My grandmother always said that marriage isn’t just about two people, it’s about two families, so the family background is very important.”

“I think so too,”

Zeng Xiaoya agreed.

“Doctor Zeng’s first love... why did they break up? Do you mind if I ask?”

Zeng Xiaoya didn’t answer immediately.

When they reached the gate of Wansheng Garden, she said, “The path he wanted to take was different from mine, and he felt that I could not help him, so we broke up.”

“People with different ideals cannot work together.”

“Let’s break up, it’s been a few years, and I have let go of my feelings for him a long time ago.”

“I, Zeng Xiaoya, am not bad. I won’t dwell on the past. I believe that I will find a man who is better than my ex-boyfriend and Senior Lin, and who is more suitable for me in the future.”

After a pause, Zeng Xiaoya said, “If I can’t find one, I’ll live alone.”

“My brothers all said that if I really don’t want to get married, they will support me in the future.”

Zhan Yue tilted his head to look at her, “Doctor Zeng is so good, he will find one.”

“Your brothers and sisters get along well, right? I see that your second uncle and second aunt treat you like their own daughter.”

“It’s great. My brothers and sisters, my cousins, are all very nice. Even those from the same clan get along very well and are very united. Maybe it’s because we’re all in the same business, so we don’t see each other often enough. There aren’t any conflicts, so there aren’t any arguments.”

Her brothers doted on her.

Her cousins and cousins were also very nice.

How could people in the clan be so nice? There weren’t any conflicts.

“With an atmosphere like yours, children are naturally cheerful.”

“It’s the same at Mr. Zhan’s house, isn’t it?” “Your Zhan family is famous for that.”

Zeng Xiaoya led Zhan Yue to the elevator and pressed the button.

Zhan Yue’s apartment was on the second floor, so Zeng Xiaoya pressed the button for that floor.

The elevator quickly took them to the second floor.

“By the way, did you get the keys?”

Zeng Xiaoya asked Zhan Yue after exiting the elevator.

“I paid the deposit and signed the purchase agreement. The house is mine. I have the keys. I’m finishing the paperwork and renovating it as I go.”

He could pay the remaining balance in a matter of minutes.

Zhan Yue walked to the door of his own house, unlocked it with his key, and led Zeng Xiaoya inside.

Zeng Xiaoya exclaimed, “This large flat is much more spacious than our ordinary houses. I came to see this apartment before, but I ultimately gave up on it because it was too expensive.”

When she bought her house, it was at its peak, and prices were incredibly high.

However, even though many properties have seen their values fall, prices in Wansheng Garden haven’t fallen much, and sometimes even see slight increases.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4857

Zhan Yue, used to living in a big villa, didn’t think this large flat was particularly spacious.

Compared to their old house, it was even worse.

But compared to ordinary people, the large flat is very spacious. How many people want to own a large flat?”

“You’re used to living in a big villa, so you don’t think this one is big.”

“Although my family built the house ourselves, it only covers an area of 80 square meters. When we bought the land, we only bought the land for a storefront. My grandparents bought it when they were middle-aged.”

“At that time, my father and his brothers and sisters were still in school, and the youngest was even in kindergarten. But there were so many people, so to make the living more comfortable, they built a few more floors so that even when the children grew up, there would be enough space.”

Her father’s brothers now each have a floor, and they all started families in this building. Later, when they made money, they bought houses outside. But this old house is still the real home in the hearts of everyone in her Zeng family.

It is a root of her Zeng family, and they have deep feelings for it.

The shop on the first floor is used by my second uncle and second aunt to open a clinic. Since this building is shared by everyone, my second uncle and second aunt do not take advantage of it. They share the rent equally with his brothers and sisters every month according to the rent of the surrounding shops.

Regardless of whether the brothers and sisters accept it or not, they have to give the rent to their brothers and sisters.

Although there are occasional minor conflicts, the Zeng family is generally harmonious. In addition, everyone has clinics in hospitals or cities all over the country, so they seldom meet.

It is said that distance creates beauty. We meet less often, and every time we meet, it is always in a hurry. Even if we want to have a conflict, we go our separate ways before it happens.

Therefore, the whole family is relatively united and gets along well.

“But your house looks quite big.”

“That’s because the upper floors have no halls or kitchens, only rooms. The hall and kitchen are on the second floor.”

As she toured Zhan Yue’s house, Zeng Xiaoya asked him, “How are you planning to renovate? Do you have a plan?”

“Not yet, but first I’ll probably install the electrical system, then tile and paint the walls.”

Zeng Xiaoya said, “If the craftsman who helped me with my renovations takes your order, he’ll take care of everything. You just need to prepare the materials according to his instructions.”

“As for buying materials, if I have time, I can take you to the building materials market. You young masters might not understand that.”

Although Zhan Yue insisted that he was no different from ordinary people and had endured hardships, his hardships were the kind of hardship that comes with cultivating talent, not the hardships of life.

Without money, he could easily be ripped off when buying things. Others might get a lower price for the same materials, but someone like Zhan Yue, who had plenty of money, would pay whatever the boss said. He wasn't good at bargaining, which made him more likely to be overpriced.

"When you go to the building materials market to buy materials, don't drive your luxury car. Buy an electric scooter and dress casually. That way, the boss won't ask for too high a price. Business people are very shrewd and will judge people by their abilities."

"Seeing you drive a luxury car and wear designer clothes, they can tell you're not short of money. They'll quote a high price, knowing you won't bargain, and even if you do, they won't go too low."

Zhan Yue laughed, "I didn't think of that. We also bargain when we buy things, but we usually don't go too far."

"When you have another day off, why don't you take me to buy materials? You have experience, but I don't. I'm really afraid of being taken advantage of."

"My day off is next Saturday. I'll introduce you to a decorator. Once he comes to take a look and gives you a price, we'll talk."

Zhan Yue nodded repeatedly.

Since the house hadn't been renovated yet, there wasn't much to see, so Zeng Xiaoya soon stopped visiting.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4858

"Come on, I'll show you my house," Zeng Xiaoya said to Zhan Yue.

"My house is just simply renovated, it can't compare to yours."

Without asking, she could guess that the money Zhan Yue spent on renovations could have bought her house, maybe even more.

A young master from a wealthy family, he's not short of money.

Zhan Yue smiled and agreed.

He followed her out and locked the door.

They went up and down the stairs, skipping the elevator.

Zeng Xiaoya said, "Our floors have six units each, and my house is the largest. There are only two units of the same size per floor, and the other four are smaller."

"Everyone on my floor has moved in. I'm the only one who doesn't need a place to live. I haven't really moved in yet, I just come over occasionally."

Many of the other residents were migrant workers who came to Wancheng to work. To make it easier for their children to go to school, they bought houses there. Years of savings from working only contributed to the down payment, and some even had to ask their elderly family members for permission.

Residents like Zeng Xiaoya are relatively rare, able to buy and renovate their homes in full without borrowing.

Zeng Xiaoya is incredibly grateful to her parents for treating her equally and not refusing to buy her a house simply because she's a daughter. Her brothers' houses aren't in the best locations, and they bought her a house in Wansheng Garden because it's close to their old house. If she gets married and her in-laws bully her, she can just shout and her family will be there in no time.

Her cousins, who owned properties, all bought properties close to the old house. Her aunts and uncles shared the same sentiment as her parents.

While a house for a son could be farther away, a house for a daughter needed to be close to home, providing her with support.

Zeng Xiaoya opened the door and led Zhan Yue inside.

She'd suggested a simple renovation, but it was actually quite good. After all, she'd chosen environmentally friendly materials, which aren't cheap.

The house was just over 100 square meters, with four bedrooms, two living rooms, and two bathrooms. The master bedroom was the largest, and the second bedroom was the second. The guest room was spacious for a small house, at least enough for a 5-foot-tall bed, a wardrobe, and a desk.

The furniture wasn't extensive, but the basics were there.

There was a large balcony, where Zeng Xiaoya had placed several potted flowers, which were growing vigorously, and a hanging chair.

Zhan Yue walked over and sat on the hanging chair, gazing out at the street outside. The breeze was quite comfortable.

"This hanging chair was given to me by the furniture store owner when I bought the furniture. I bought a lot of furniture from them at once before they agreed to give me one. I've wanted one for a long time."

"I think it's so comfortable to sit in it and read a book in my spare time. I'm thinking of having a custom-made sun-shaded bookshelf against the wall on the balcony."

Zhan Yue smiled, "That's great."

She likes hanging chairs, or rather, she likes swings.

He wants to buy a swing chair for his family, too, a double one. When he succeeds in pursuing his wife, they can spend their free time together on the swing chair.

The thought is so sweet.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4859

After visiting Zeng Xiaoya's house, the two left Wansheng Garden.

Zeng Xiaoya needed to go home and rest.

Zhan Yue took her home, then said goodbye to his uncle Zeng and his wife before going home.

He didn't go back to Youyou Villa. After all, he had already seen his sister-in-law, so there was no need to go back now. If he did, his mother would kick him out.

It would be better to go back to his own little home.

Zhan Yue took a taxi back home and found Lao Jiu's car parked in his yard.

How did Lao Jiu have time to come?

Zhan Yue muttered a few words to himself and followed him into the house.

The young housekeeper heard the noise and came out to greet him.

The young housekeeper was all smiles and said to Zhan Yue, "Eighth Master, Master Bao Bao and Miss Bei Bei are here with Young Master Jiu."

"Bao Bao and Bei Bei are here."

Zhan Yue's handsome face immediately smiled and he walked past the housekeeper and shouted, "Bei Bei, Uncle Eight is back. Come and let Uncle Eight hug you. Uncle Eight has missed you so much."

"Uncle Eight."

The darling brother and sister who were playing came running over, one in front and one behind.

Zhan Yue simply patted his eldest nephew's head, then took two steps forward, bent down, and picked up Bei Bei, who was running behind him.

After picking up his little niece, he kept kissing her on the tender face, "Bei Bei, Uncle Ba really missed you guys so much."

Bei Bei was kissed so many times that she began to dislike Uncle Ba. She covered Zhan Yue's mouth with her two small hands to prevent Uncle Ba from spitting on her face.

“Uncle Ba is partial. He only hugs my sister and not me.”

“Uncle Ba says he misses us, but he went back to the city early and hasn’t been home for two days,” Baobao complained about his uncle’s favoritism.

Zhan Yue smiled, turning around and patting his eldest nephew’s head again.

“Baby, you’re six years old now, grown up, and you don’t need to be held anymore. When you were Beibei’s age, Uncle Ba hugged you every time he saw you. Don’t you remember?”

“Come to think of it, as uncles, we love you the most because you’re our first nephew.”

Even so, Zhan Yue put Beibei down, hugged Baobao, and spun her around a few times, making Baobao laugh.

“Uncle Ba, I want one too,”

Beibei cried.

“Wow, our Beibei can speak complete sentences now. Not bad, not bad.”

Zhan Yue put his nephew down again and picked up his niece, spinning her around and holding her high, making Beibei laugh as well.

Zhan Yan came over, “Myna, where have you been? I’ve been waiting at your house for quite some time. I called you but you didn’t answer, and I sent you messages but you didn’t reply. I thought something had happened to you.”

“If you don’t come back and I can’t contact you, I’ll tell big brother and ask him to send someone to dig you out.”

Zhan Yue walked back to the sofa with his niece in his arms and sat down.

The baby sat on Lao Jiu’s lap very naturally, and Lao Jiu also hugged his eldest nephew naturally.

In the words of myna, the one that uncles love the most is actually the baby, because the baby is their first nephew, and the position in their hearts is unique.

Of course, Beibei is also unique to them now.

There’s no way, there is only one niece.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4860

Ask for the stars, and I won't give you the moon.

"I've learned about housing in Wansheng Garden, and I'm looking for someone to help me decorate. I've also visited other people's houses in the building to see how they've turned out."

Zhan Yan stared at his big brother, "Big brother, you hired a decorator yourself? And you even went to see how others have decorated their homes?"

"This isn't your first time buying a house. When did you do everything yourself?"

"Big brother seems to value that house very much. Is there something I don't know?"

Zhan Yan felt that his brother's attitude towards the Wansheng Garden house was different.

In the past, the brothers bought houses one by one, occasionally buying an apartment. Some, like the eldest brother, bought an apartment to conceal their identity and deceive his wife.

But even then, the eldest brother never personally oversaw the renovations. He always bought fully furnished houses, ready for move-in.

The eldest brother's deception of his wife nearly cost him his wife, and this served as a warning to the other brothers. They were more open about their identities when they fell in love, and naturally, they didn't need to buy an apartment to deceive their partners.

So, he suspected that there was something fishy going on with Big Brother's purchase of this house.

"You were the one who accompanied me to see the house, and I just like it there. How could you not know it?"

Zhan Yue brought food to his niece, looking at the little one with dotting eyes, “Does grandma know that you brought these two little ones out? Don’t get beaten when you go home.”

Lao Jiu is still young and a little rebellious. Sometimes he would secretly take his nephews out to play without the elders at home knowing.

When the elders knew about it, Lao Jiu would be beaten when he got home.

Grandma’s crutches might not fall on Lao Jiu, but his own mother would not be polite.

“Grandma knows. I’ve been taught a lesson so many times. How can I make such a mistake again?”

He was soft-hearted. He couldn’t resist his nephews calling him Uncle Jiu, so he took his nephews out of the house to play out of softness.

When he was being lectured by his elders, the little ones would plead for him.

It was worth it that he loved them so much and took such risks for them.

“My dear, there’s definitely something fishy about that house of yours. We’re brothers, and I was the one who went with you to look at the house. My dear, just tell me, and I promise to keep it a secret.”

“Are you trying to hide a mistress?”

“Screw you, why would I hide a mistress? I told you, I just like the environment there, so I bought the house there. I’m still injured, so I don’t have to work, and I’m bored, so I just want to find something to do.”

“I’ve never been involved in decorating a house before, and now I want to do it myself. How can that be considered fishy?”

Zhan Yan was incredulous. “My dear, your hands are 90% healed. If you really go back to work, it won’t affect you. Whether you’re typing on the computer or writing with a pen, it won’t be affected.”

Others didn’t know, seeing My dear’s hands wrapped in gauze, thinking they were seriously injured, but he knew that as long as My dear removed the gauze, he would be fine.

In his opinion, My dear was just being lazy and refused to remove the bandages, not wanting to go back to work.

“No, it still hurts. It hurts as long as I write or type on the computer. I won’t go back to work for the time being, but it’s boring not to go to work, so I might as well do the renovation work myself.”

“It can kill time and accumulate decoration experience. When the house is renovated, you can come and visit it. If you need it in the future, I can pass on my experience to you.”

Beibei understood what the two uncles said. She gently touched Zhan Yue’s hand wrapped in a gauze scarf and asked in a baby voice: “Uncle Eight, does it still hurt?”

“It hurts, Beibei, can you blow on my hands?”

“Okay.”

The little girl blew on her uncle’s hands seriously, and then said: “Beibei blew, uncle doesn’t feel any pain.”

Zhan Yue hugged the little guy lovingly, “Beibei, it’s good that you are your uncle’s daughter.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4861

Zhan Yan said, “I’m going to tell big brother you’re trying to steal his daughter. I’ll make sure you never hold Beibei again. Haha, that way I can hold her more often.”

Zhan Yue: “...If you dare go to big brother and tell him nonsense, I’ll beat you up.”

“Beibei is so adorable, who wouldn’t want her as their daughter? Don’t say you don’t want her, you just can’t imagine it.”

“Yeah, I can’t imagine it, but it’s not bad to be an uncle. A niece is a daughter too, after all. I’ve always treated Beibei like one.”

Zhan Yan then said to Bao Bao, “Bao Bao, take Beibei out to play. Uncle Jiu will ask your Uncle Ba if he’s hiding an Aunt Ba for you.”

“Uncle Jiu, if Uncle Ba has hidden Aunt Ba here, let’s look for her.”

“If your Uncle Ba hasn’t brought her back, we won’t be able to find her. Don’t worry, if she’s there, Uncle Jiu will definitely help you find her. Go play!”

Bao Bao smiled and agreed, knowing Uncle Jiu was just joking.

Bao Bao took her sister out to play, and the two uncles quickly ordered someone to follow the siblings, warning them not to stray outside the villa.

However, there are several bodyguards who follow the little brother and sister in secret, which is arranged by Zachary.

In public, there are also bodyguards protecting his two children. In secret as well, even if he is a father and is personally taking his two children with him, the bodyguards in the dark will not leave and will always follow to protect the children.

One is to guard against kidnappers, and the other is to guard against the media.

The media is not allowed to take pictures of the faces of the little brother and sister.

The children of the Zhan family have to wait until they are adults and are about to enter the business world before they will officially show up and allow the media to take pictures and report.

After the little brother and sister went out, Zhan Yan sat next to his brother and put his hand on his brother’s shoulder, “Brother, we are brothers. You and I have the smallest age difference. We should be the best.”

“Can you tell me why you bought the house in Wansheng Garden?”

“I’ve already told you that I bought the house because I like the environment there. If you suspect that Big Brother has some selfish motives, you can also buy a house there.”

Zhan Yue took away his brother’s hand that was on his shoulder.

“You’re so free today, don’t you have to go to work?”

“Just a little slack now and then. Forget it. I prefer living in my little villa. I think it has more space. A suite, even if it’s a large flat, only has space to move around on that one floor. It’s not like a villa with upstairs and downstairs and a yard.”

Zhan Yue laughed and said, “You’re lazy and like to stay in bed. You don’t want to live so far away.”

“Don’t slack off for too long. Be careful that Big Brother finds out and scolds you to death. When we were your age, we were all conscientious and never dared to slack off.” Only after becoming an old hand and being proficient in the work did he dare to slack off occasionally and not go back to the company.

Zhan Yan laughed, “I’m the youngest. Even if the sky falls, it can’t crush me. So why work so hard? As for money, as long as I have enough to spend, as long as I have enough to eat, that’s enough.”

“I have no ambitions, nor any big goals. I just want to eat and drink and wait for death.”

Zhan Yue: “...If grandma hears, she’ll beat you.”

“I’m saying this in front of my starling. I won’t let grandma know.”

The old lady also took extra care of Old Nine, keeping her control somewhat relaxed. Furthermore, since her previous grandchildren had grown up, and with eight older brothers to look after him, Old Nine felt at ease.

This led to Old Nine’s somewhat unruly nature. After graduating and entering the workforce, he completely let loose, no longer working as hard as he had in school.

In his own words, he studied so hard in school simply to avoid embarrassing his brothers. Now that he had finally graduated, he felt a desire to work harder, and his repressed nature could finally be released.

“Eighth Brother, are you really not going back to recuperate? That’s just how I am. Actually, I still feel very sorry for you.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4862

“I don’t want to go back. My injury is almost healed. There’s no need to go back to recuperate. Mom’s eyes blaze when she sees me. I’d better not go back.”

“Okay, then I’ll come see you when I’m free.”

“My dear brother, do you have anything delicious here?”

Zhan Yan stood up and went to look for something to eat.

“Find it yourself. If you see anything that suits you, just eat it. Eat it all day long, or you’ll become fat.”

Zhan Yan laughed, “If I become fat, I’ll become ugly and no one will like me. In a few years, Mom won’t be able to urge me to get married because no one will like a fat guy like me.”

Zhan Yue: “...”

Lao Jiu didn’t stay long. After an hour, he took his nephews and nieces back to the old house.

After sending his brother away, Zhan Yue began to draft his own renovation plan.

In the evening, he received a call from Zeng Xiaoya, telling him that the renovation team had come to the city and asked if he had time to meet them.

“I have time. I can’t do anything right now. Doctor Zeng, tell Master Tang that I’ll be there in twenty minutes. Let’s meet at your clinic, right?”

“Well, at my clinic. You can also invite Master Tang to dinner. He came into town in a hurry and hasn’t eaten yet. It will be very late if he rushes back to eat after seeing your house.”

Zhan Yue said readily, “Okay, then let’s see my house later and then have dinner. We can talk about the price while eating. Doctor Zeng, let’s go to dinner together later. You won’t be late for work after dinner.”

Zeng Xiaoya just needs to arrive at the hospital before 8 o’clock in the evening.

Zeng Xiaoya hesitated.

“Master Tang and I are not familiar with each other. Doctor Zeng is more familiar with him. If we go to dinner together, we will have something to talk about. With Doctor Zeng present, I’m sure Master Tang won’t cheat me.”

Zeng Xiaoya thought that since she had become a good person, she might as well be a good person to the end, so she agreed.

After ending the call, Zhan Yue changed his clothes immediately.

He picked in the cabinet for a long time before picking out a set of clothes that looked a bit simple, but the material was very good.

Then he asked the driver to take him to Zeng's Clinic.

When he was fifty meters away from Zeng's Clinic, he asked the driver to stop the car, and he got out and walked over.

Doctor Zeng said that he had to pretend to be poor and not let anyone know his identity as a rich young master, so as not to be cheated.

There were not many patients in Zeng's Clinic in the evening, and at this time, the second uncle and aunt were very leisurely.

Zeng Xiaoya's youngest cousin was asking her for help with math and physics problems.

The second uncle made a pot of tea and entertained Master Tang. The two chatted while drinking tea.

Zhan Yue walked into the clinic, and everyone saw him. Second uncle then said to Master Tang, "Mr. Zhan is here. He was a former patient of my niece, and the house he bought happens to be upstairs from Xiaoya."

"His is a large flat, so it will be easier for you to do the work."

A large flat is a big space, so it is easier for a decorator to do the work. If the space is too small, it will often require cutting tiles when laying tiles, so it will take relatively more work.

Master Tang smiled.

When Zhan Yue came closer, Second uncle introduced Master Tang to Zhan Yue.

Then he poured Zhan Yue a cup of tea, and said to Zhan Yue, "Xiaoya is explaining math and physics problems to her brother. Mr. Zhan, please wait a moment."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4863

Zhan Yue looked at Zeng Xiaoya, who smiled and called him.

Her younger cousin politely called him “Brother Zhan.”

Zhan Yue had half a cup of tea. He wasn’t familiar with Master Tang, and didn’t know much about renovations, so he couldn’t join in the conversation. His uncle was doing all the talking.

He simply stood up and walked over to watch Zeng Xiaoya explain the test questions to his cousin.

The young man frowned, looking confused.

Seeing her cousin’s frown, Zeng Xiaoya asked, somewhat frustrated, “I’ve explained it to you three times, and you still don’t understand?”

“Sister, I don’t quite understand what you’re saying. It’s still a little confusing. It feels so complicated.”

“These two questions are just complicated. They’re not complicated, they’re not difficult, and you don’t need me to explain them to you.”

Her cousin’s grades were good. If he maintained these grades, he’d have no problem getting into a key university on the Gaokao. However, he might still fall short of a prestigious university like a 985 university.

After all, a single point difference in the Gaokao can leave many people behind.

Zhan Yue came over to take a look and asked, “What kind of question is it? How difficult is it? Do you mind letting me take a look?”

“Come here, Mr. Zhan, explain it to my brother. I believe you are a top student. You men are more advantageous in science. Maybe my brother can understand what you say.”

Zhan Yue picked up her cousin’s test paper, looked at the test paper, and after Zeng Xiaoya made room for him, he explained to the other party.

Zeng Xiaoya listened on the side, and occasionally interjected a few words.

After hearing the last part, she stopped interrupting.

The cousin understood Zhan Yue's explanation after listening to it once.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, "Mr. Zhan, you must be good at science. Your explanation is much simpler. What I think is complicated. Even if I can do it, it is still not as convenient and fast as yours, and it can still be understood by my brother."

"I am good at both arts and sciences, right?"

"I'm not biased in any subject, but when high school was divided, I still chose science,"

Zhan Yue said. "Maybe it's been a while since you graduated, so you've lost touch with what you learned in high school. It's different for me. My younger brother is a few years younger than me, and when he was still in high school, I often tutored him, which helped him consolidate his knowledge."

Jiu Shao: "...My dear brother, it was years ago when I started high school. Besides, he never asked my dear brother for tutoring. He didn't even need anyone.

Occasionally, when he encountered a problem and couldn't figure it out himself, he would just ask his sisters-in-law because they were patient. Unlike his brothers, who would explain it to him once and then glare at him like he was a fool.

"I see."

Zeng Xiaoya led Zhan Yue over and sat down again for tea.

After two cups, she said to Master Tang, "Master Tang, let's go check out Mr. Zhan's house now."

"I have to go to work at 8 o'clock."

"Okay,"

Master Tang put down his teacup.

The three of them left the clinic.

As they walked and talked, they didn't notice Lin Jian, who was watching the scene unfold across the street.

Only after the three of them had walked away did Lin Jian retract his gaze, a trace of reluctance in his eyes.

He had waited so many years, and finally confessed his feelings. He was determined to win Zeng Xiaoya

. Yuehua was no match for Xiaoya.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4864

He wouldn't let anyone take Xiaoya away from him.

Lin Jian crossed the street and headed for Wansheng Garden. Just as that belligerent man had bought a house there, he could have bought one there too. He could afford to buy a house anytime, anytime.

He hadn't bought a house there initially because he didn't know Zeng Xiaoya already had one, and also because it was the most expensive residential complex nearby. His current house was only worth enough for a down payment in Wansheng Garden, while he could have paid for it outright in other residential complexes.

He ran a clinic and helped so many people back home, and his current neighborhood wasn't bad either, so why would he have bought a house in Wansheng Garden?

Now, Lin Jian regretted buying in Wansheng Garden earlier.

He went to the sales office and inquired, and learned that, aside from a few large flats, all other apartment types were sold out.

Since the launch, most units had already been sold, and many residents had already moved in after renovating their units. The occupancy rate was quite high. He heard the property management was excellent, and the security level was high. If he hadn't said he wanted to buy a house, he wouldn't have been able to move in.

A large flat is a bit more expensive than Zengtong's. Lin Jian calculated his savings in his mind and felt that if he bought a large flat, his savings would be very tight.

If there was an emergency at home or the clinic couldn't make ends meet, he wouldn't be able to pay, and that would be the end of him.

After thinking about it, Lin Jian finally gave up the idea of buying a house in Wansheng Garden.

He walked out of Wansheng Garden a little frustrated.

He was so successful, but in a real high-end community, he couldn't even buy a large flat.

It was because he didn't have enough background and didn't have parents to support him. Not only could his parents not support him, they also had to rely on him to support them. He had to pay for their medical care and take care of them when they were sick or in pain.

Because he was his own boss, he had free time. Unlike his brothers and sisters, who worked fixed jobs every day, their schedules were limited.

Furthermore, his siblings didn't earn enough, and despite their best efforts, they were under immense pressure to support their children's education, often relying on him for financial support.

Lin Jian knew full well that his parents would be counting on him in the future.

Therefore, he wanted to find someone from a more privileged family to support him.

That way, he could relax and relieve himself of the pressure.

Leaving Wansheng Garden and walking down the street, he saw a shop owner holding a piece of red paper on his door. It said, "Shop for Sale."

Lin Jian paused.

He couldn't afford to buy a house in Wansheng Garden, but he could move his clinic to this street. While that might seem like he was stealing patients from Second Uncle Zeng, it would shorten the distance between him and Xiaoya.

Besides, medical skills were crucial, and while he had put in a lot of hard work and made some progress, he still lagged far behind a veteran like Second Uncle Zeng, who had practiced for decades.

Even if he moved his clinic to this street, he wouldn't be able to steal the Zeng family's patients; the Zeng family clinic was well-known.

Thinking of this, Lin Jian asked the shop owner, "Boss, are you selling this shop?"

"Yes, I am. My elderly family member is sick and needs long-term care. We have to go back to take care of him, so this shop can only be sold."

"Sir, do you want to rent a shop? We can talk. My shop has a five-year contract with the landlord, and only two years have passed. If you sell it to me, you still have three years left. You can sign a new contract when the contract expires."

"Shop rents usually don't increase much. The landlord is still very honest. Over the years, the rent increase on this street has been the smallest and slowest."

Shop rents on other streets have increased rapidly.

The landlord of their street is said to be a truly wealthy family, but they, the small tenants, are not sure which wealthy family it is.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4865

Because the contract was in the name of a company, it meant they were signing with that company.

I heard the landlord was wealthy, having long ago bought up several streets of shops and rented them out to people to open businesses.

Given Wancheng's current prosperity, renting just one street was a hefty sum, and he still had several more.

The rich were getting richer.

Lin Jian inquired about the transfer fee and, after inspecting the shop's size, decided it was enough for him to open a clinic. He negotiated a transfer fee with the owner, hoping to bargain down the price.

For contracts like theirs that were being transferred before their expiration date, the term of the contract was transferred along with the lease. Once they had agreed, they could notify the landlord and sign a new contract.

Zhan Yue was oblivious to all this.

He wasn't even aware his rival was watching them.

He and Zeng Xiaoya had taken Master Tang to view his house. He outlined how he wanted to renovate it, and he would buy all the materials himself. Master Tang would tell him what materials he needed.

Then the three of them went to dinner.

Afterward, Master Tang quoted a price for the renovations.

Zhan Yue looked at Zeng Xiaoya, and when he saw Zeng Xiaoya nodded, he readily agreed to Master Tang's request. He said, "Master Tang was introduced to me by Doctor Zeng. I absolutely trust Master Tang, so I won't bargain with Master Tang."

"Master Tang, how many people will you have when you come to start work? I'll arrange accommodation for you."

Master Tang was very happy to see Zhan Yue so straightforward and that no matter what price he offered, the other party agreed. He said, "I have four people, me, my wife, and my brother and his wife."

"Okay, when will Master Tang come to start work? What materials do I need to prepare first, and how much do I need to prepare?"

Master Tang said, "I'll tell you after I go back and calculate it. The project I have on hand will take another three days before I can finish it. After three days, I will come to your place to start work."

"Buy cement, sand, etc. in these three days."

Zhan Yue responded, "Okay."

At this time, Zhan Yue's cell phone rang.

It was his sister-in-law calling.

“Doctor Zeng, Master Tang, I’m going out to answer a call.”

Zhan Yue didn’t want to answer his sister-in-law’s call in front of Zeng Xiaoya, fearing that his sharp-eared sister-in-law would hear Zeng Xiaoya talking.

Although his sister-in-law knew that he fell in love with Zeng Xiaoya at first sight, he had already started to act, and his sister-in-law didn’t know.

He didn’t want his family to know before he was sure.

At least he should be like his seventh brother, and let his family know when he was about to get married, so as to prevent his sisters-in-law and elders who like to watch the show from secretly running to watch the show and disturb Zeng Xiaoya.

Instead, it would hinder him from pursuing his wife.

“Sister-in-law, what’s wrong?”

Zhan Yue answered Serenity’s call, “Is there anything I can help you with?”

His brother and sister-in-law took the initiative to call him, so there must be something for him to do.

“Old Eight, where are you now? Is it convenient for you to go to Wansheng Street? I will send you a contract on WeChat. You can find a photo studio, which can usually copy and print it, and then print out two copies of the contract I sent you.”

“Then take the two contracts to No. 339 Wansheng Street. The original owner wants to transfer the business. His contract still has a three-year term, but the new tenant still needs to sign a contract with us.”

“This time the term is to take over from the previous tenant, three years. After three years, we will sign a new contract.”

Zhan Yue said, “Okay, I’ll print the contract later, and then go help my sister-in-law sign the contract.”

“I will return the deposit to the original owner later, and you can help my sister-in-law collect the deposit from the new owner.”

“Okay.”

“Thank you for your help.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4866

Serenity really didn't want to make the trip for such a small matter. She was also out socializing, so it wasn't easy to arrange for her housekeeper to sign on her behalf. She had no choice but to ask Lao Ba to do it.

Lao Jiu had said that Lao Ba had bought a house in Wansheng Garden.

She was certain that Lao Ba was currently near Wansheng Street.

"What are you talking about, sister-in-law? It's a small matter, no trouble." "Okay, that's it.

Sister-in-law is still busy." "Go ahead, sister-in-law. I'll transfer the deposit to you when it's done." "No need. Sister-in-law will just keep an account. You can spend that little money. Consider it money I'm giving you for your nutrition."

Zhan Yue said, "Sister-in-law, I have plenty of supplements at home, so you'll have plenty of nutritious food."

"You bought a house, so you don't need to renovate it. You'll need the money for many things in the future. There's no need to transfer that ten thousand yuan deposit."

Since Sister-in-law had said that, Zhan Yue didn't hesitate.

In her words, it was only a few thousand yuan, no need to push it around. Sister-in-law just needed to keep an account and know where the deposit went.

Ten minutes later, Zhan Yue returned to the restaurant.

He chatted with Master Tang for a while, and then the three of them left the restaurant because Zeng Xiaoya had to go to work.

Zeng Xiaoya hurried home, got on her electric scooter, and went to work.

Master Tang went home.

Only Zhan Yue stayed in the clinic to chat with his uncle and aunt.

After chatting for a while, he went to help his eldest sister-in-law.

When he arrived at Shop 339, he found that the new tenant was his rival in love, Lin Jian.

Lin Jian didn't expect that the person who came was Zhan Yue.
"Why are you here?"

Lin Jian was surprised to see Zhan Yue. He hadn't expected Zhan Yue to be the landlord's brother-in-law.

"Doctor Lin, what a coincidence! Are you looking to rent my cousin's shop?"

Zhan Yue mentioned his cousin's, deliberately misleading Lin Jian into thinking his cousin's family was wealthy while his own was more modest, so he could retain his wealth and fight back against his rival.

"The landlord is your cousin's."

Hearing it was his cousin's, Lin Jian breathed a sigh of relief.

As long as she wasn't his biological sister-in-law, it would be fine. If she was... with a rival's sister-in-law so wealthy, his conditions would be superior to his.

A cousin's wife, after all, is just a distant relative. No matter how wealthy she is, a cousin wouldn't do much for her younger cousin.

"Yes, it's my cousin's. She's busy and can't come over. I'm recovering at home, not far away, so she asked me to come and help her."

"Have you agreed on the transfer fee? If you're okay with that, then sign the contract."

After the three-year lease was up, he asked his sister-in-law to raise Lin Jian's rent.

"I've thought about it and decided not to rent. My current clinic is doing well there, and the residents around here are used to seeing me. If I move, it would be inconvenient for them."

He was also worried that his older neighbors would come to Wansheng Street and go to the Zeng family clinic.

Even though he knew he might not be able to steal the Zeng family's patients, the fact that they were only a hundred meters away on the same street made it easy for competition to arise. Lin Jian hoped to attract the Zeng family's regular customers to his clinic. He even hoped that one day he could replace the Zeng family and become the only clinic on this street.

However, the landlord was his rival's cousin's wife. Even if it was just a cousin's wife, Lin Jian still didn't want to rent. He didn't want to give part of his hard-earned money to his rival's sister-in-law.

Xiaoya said that this Zhan was her patient, but he clearly saw his feelings for Xiaoya in Zhan's eyes.

Like Zhan Yue, Lin Jian had long considered him a rival.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4867

"Hey, Doctor Lin, why are you changing your mind? Weren't we just having a good discussion?"

The shop owner hadn't expected Lin Jian to change his mind just as he'd called the landlord to sign the contract. He angrily accused Lin Jian, feeling like he was playing him.

Lin Jian apologized, "Brother Zhang, I'm sorry. It's my fault. I was too impulsive."

"This street is busy and has a lot of traffic. You posted the for-sale notice and it'll be sold quickly."

"I'm leaving now,"

Lin Jian hurried off.

Zhan Yue mentally complained: "Coward."

Since the contract couldn't be signed, Zhan Yue had no choice but to reply to his sister-in-law.

Serenity didn't care. If it didn't work out this time, it would work out next time. Shops on that street were always easy to rent.

Shops on other streets sometimes took a while to find new tenants after being evicted.

She told Zhan Yue to keep the two contracts and have him help sign the next time a new tenant came in.

Zhan Yue returned to the Zeng family clinic.

Lin Jian would make a presence known to his uncle and aunt, and so would he.

As the young master of the Zhan family, Zhan Yue is eloquent and knows a lot. No matter what his second uncle wants to talk about, he can chat with his second uncle.

Even if it is gossip, the eighth young master Zhan also has a lot of gossip.

For example, the gossip about the employees in the company. Of course, he will not reveal the names.

He does not say a word about the gossip about his family and friends.

They chatted until late at night before Zhan Yue left.

At the same time, in the hospital, Lin Jian went to Zeng Xiaoya's department with the midnight snack he prepared for her personally.

Zeng Xiaoya was not in the clinic.

He asked the nurse, and she said that tonight was very busy. Zeng Xiaoya had already performed two operations in one night and was currently undergoing the third operation.

Lin Jian asked, "Did anyone of you eat mangoes or drink Want Want milk?" People working in the hospital dreaded receiving mangoes, Want Want milk, or Want Want snow cakes.

If anyone brought these snacks to eat, or if someone gave them to them, the entire floor would be in a frenzy that evening.

The nurse said with a wry smile, “A patient was discharged, and as a thank you, they sent us a big bag of fruit, including mangoes.”

Lin Jian smiled, “No wonder. Well, I’ll leave the midnight snack in Dr. Zeng’s office so she can have it after surgery.”

“Please tell her I brought it and cooked it myself.”

The nurse understood and smiled, “Okay, I’ll tell Dr. Zeng.” Dr.

Zeng had quite a few suitors.

Her senior also liked her.

Yangcheng.

It was a little after four in the afternoon, and the sun was no longer as scorching as it had been at noon.

The Lan Group still had an hour to go before closing time.

Zhan Wei arranged a sea of flowers in front of the entrance of the Lan Group, and he held a large bouquet of roses in his hand, and even prepared a diamond ring, ready to propose to Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

He also rented a small helicopter, which would help him drop his proposal in the sky, and then scatter flowers in the area around the entrance of the Lan Group, creating a romantic scene of flowers falling from the sky. The proposal was guaranteed to be successful.

Both of them had met their parents, and both sides were very satisfied.

Zhan Wei also knew that the Lan family was urging Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to get a marriage certificate with him as soon as possible, as he had not proposed yet.

What others had, his Romina (Lan Ruoruo) must also have.

So he planned to propose to Romina (Lan Ruoruo) in public when she got off work this afternoon, so that everyone in the Lan Group could witness their happiness.

Many employees knew about the movement at the company gate.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4868

That is, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) was in a higher-up position, but she didn't know about it yet.

Zhan Wei told everyone not to tell Romina (Lan Ruoruo) in advance, as he had a surprise for her.

An hour passed quickly.

5:30 p.m. was the end of the workday.

The employees of the Lan Group emerged to see a sea of flowers at the company entrance. Then they saw Zhan Wei, handsome and handsome in his suit and tie, clutching a bouquet of flowers. Was he proposing to their Vice President, Lan? Everyone wanted to see the outcome of such a thing.

Those who weren't in a hurry to go home lingered at the company entrance, waiting for Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to emerge.

The Lan Group was so large, with numerous employees at headquarters, that everyone waited to see Zhan Wei propose, and soon the entrance was packed.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) came downstairs with several clients.

She had spent the entire afternoon negotiating a deal with them, and finally, the contracts were signed. It was a worthwhile effort.

Before she even left the office building, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) sensed something was amiss.

As she approached the main entrance, she saw a crowd thronging the company entrance.

What was going on?

Had something happened?

Thinking something big had happened, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) apologized to the client and hurried out.

If something happened in the company and it wasn't handled in time, and the media got to know and reported it, it would have a huge impact on the company.

Someone saw Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and shouted.

Then the employees who were waiting to see the excitement took the initiative to make way for Romina (Lan Ruoruo), allowing Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to walk out of the company unimpeded.

"What happened? Why are you all crowded here holding up your phones to take pictures?"

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said seriously with a stern face.

When she saw the sea of flowers in front of her, she was stunned.

Zhan Wei called the people on the helicopter and asked them to fly over, drop off the long love messages they had prepared long ago, and then scatter flowers for him to cheer him up.

After the call, he walked over to Romina (Lan Ruoruo), flowers in hand. He knelt on one knee, looked up, and said affectionately, "Romina (Lan Ruoruo), I love you. Will you marry me? I promise to treat you well, and only you, forever!"

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) asked, "Zhan Wei, are you... proposing to me?"

He hadn't said a word, and she was still wondering if she should give him a hint and ask him to propose.

Unexpectedly, he'd already prepared it.

A small private helicopter flew over.

The people on board lowered a long red banner that read, “Romina (Lan Ruoruo), I love you, marry me.”

Then, a shower of bright petals fell from the sky, like a fairy’s hair, a shower of flowers. So beautiful!

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) was stunned, then delighted.

Someone among the onlookers shouted, “Vice President Lan, accept President Zhan’s proposal.”

“Yes.”

“Yes,”

the others chimed in.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s smile shone brightly like the midday sun.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo), I love you, marry me, okay? I promise to love you for the rest of my life, cherish you, pamper you, and love only you for the rest of my life.”

Zhan Wei made a promise seriously and affectionately.

His eyes were fiery and full of affection.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s heart melted when he looked at her like this.

She smiled, and was a little shy. No matter how thick-skinned she was, she would be shy when proposed to in front of so many people.

But she still quickly stretched out her hands and took the bouquet of flowers from Zhan Wei. She answered Zhan Wei loudly: “Zhan Wei, I love you too, and I am willing to marry you.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4869

Zhan Wei happily took out the diamond ring he had prepared and slipped it onto her finger. He then stood up, hugged Romina (Lan Ruoruo) with joy, and spun around several times.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo)'s smile was as bright as a flower.

The onlookers instinctively applauded.

Their Vice President Lan was finally getting married.

Although they were surprised that Vice President Lan would end up marrying their company's sworn enemy,

Yang Tai had recently stopped stealing Lan's business and was even interested in a partnership.

This was the effect of Vice President Lan and President Zhan's romance.

Zhan Wei stopped spun around, gazed at Romina (Lan Ruoruo) lovingly, and then kissed her lips with a longed-for kiss.

Having known each other for years and understanding each other intimately, their relationship progressed rapidly once they realized their feelings.

In less than two months, Zhan Wei had successfully proposed.

After the proposal, Zhan Wei took Romina (Lan Ruoruo) out for dinner, followed by shopping, a movie, and all the other things couples do.

It was past ten o'clock in the evening before Zhan Wei took Romina (Lan Ruoruo) home.

The Lan family mansion was quiet, with only the lights on on the first floor and the street lights in the yard.

At this time, the servants in the house, including the housekeeper, had all gone home from work.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) opened the gate of the villa with her own key and invited Zhan Wei: "Since you are here, come in and have a glass of water."

“My grandpa should not be asleep yet. At this time, the lights are still on on the first floor. Either my grandpa is watching TV or my mom.”

Zhan Wei drove into the villa. After getting out of the car, he smiled and said, “Even if you didn’t invite me, I would have been shameless and followed you into the house.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) smiled.

She stepped forward, holding the bouquet of flowers that Zhan Wei had given her when he proposed to her in one hand, and holding Zhan Wei’s arm with the other hand before going into the house.

In the living room, Grandpa Lan was indeed still awake, and the TV was on. The TV series playing was about war. Grandpa Lan, a man of his age, had experienced the turmoil of war. Even though he was born into wealth, he still enjoyed watching shows about the Anti-Japanese War, preferring the more realistic older productions.

Today’s dramas are so unappealing to Grandpa Lan that even people his age dislike them.

Not only was Grandpa Lan awake, but so were Mrs. Lan and her husband.

Father and son were playing chess, while Mrs. Lan was reading. In reality, the three of them were just waiting for Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to return. Zhan Wei’s grand proposal, staged outside the company, had spread throughout Yangcheng.

Naturally, the elders of the Lan family had heard about it, having received the news firsthand.

Friends and family called to congratulate him, waiting to celebrate Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s wedding.

Grandpa Lan was ecstatic.

Hearing footsteps, the three of them looked toward the door. Seeing the newlyweds, a smile spread across their faces.

Mrs. Lan closed her book and put it down, then stood up and walked over to them.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo), Awei, you’re back.”

“Do you want to have a midnight snack? Mom made some for you and was waiting for you to come back to eat.”

Zhan Wei called out “Auntie”.

Mrs. Lan smiled and said, “You have successfully proposed to Romina (Lan Ruoruo). You are now an engaged couple and will get married sooner or later. You can call me mom.”

“Mom, Zhan Wei just proposed to me. We haven’t...”

“Mom.”

Zhan Wei changed his words sweetly. The word “Mom” interrupted Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s words.

She tilted her head to look at Zhan Wei.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “Mom, you are right. We will get married sooner or later. The sooner you change your mind, the sooner you get used to it.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4870

“Mom, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and I are really hungry. You prepared some midnight snack for us. Thank you, Mom! You’re so kind.”

Zhan Wei didn’t usually eat midnight snacks, but since this was prepared by his future mother-in-law, he had to eat some anyway.

“I know you two don’t usually eat midnight snacks. I didn’t prepare much to avoid gaining weight, so I gave you each a large chicken drumstick. The chicken was caught from the countryside by our housekeepers. They said it was a free-range chicken they raise.”

“Awei, your proposal was successful. Mom wishes you all the best, and I’m giving you large chicken drumsticks.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo): "...Mom, you actually prepared large chicken drumsticks for us. How many pounds will I weigh after eating one?"

"How much weight can I gain from eating one chicken drumstick? I thought you were fat, but you're practically skinny."

"They all wanted chicken drumsticks, so Mom asked them to go back to the countryside and catch a chicken so you could have the best."

On weddings here, the bride and groom are supposed to each eat a chicken drumstick on their wedding day.

But they weren't married yet; Zhan Wei was just proposing to her.

If she and Zhan Wei got a marriage certificate, her mother would prepare two big chicken legs for them, and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) would eat them without saying a word.

At this moment, it was almost eleven o'clock in the evening, and she really didn't want to eat, for fear of gaining weight. "

Real free-range chicken, chicken meat is delicious, not to mention the big chicken legs. Thank you, Mom, you are so thoughtful, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and I will go eat it now." Zhan Wei pulled his fiancée. It's just a chicken leg, you won't gain weight. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) didn't say anything in the end. "Grandpa, Dad, I'll take Romina (Lan Ruoruo) back." Zhan Wei walked over again, greeted the father and son, and leaned forward to take a look at their chess game. "You're back, you're back, go eat the chicken legs, this is specially prepared for you by your mother." Father Lan said gently. Grandpa Lan smiled and said to his granddaughter: "Today is a good day, you have encountered something happy, so what if you are a little unrestrained, don't worry about eating, you won't gain weight, you are not fat, your figure is like a model, very standard." "If you don't believe me, ask Awei. Even if you do gain weight, Awei won't despise you."

Zhan Wei smiled, "I don't despise you. No matter what Romina (Lan Ruoruo) becomes in the future, my love for her will never change. I love her for a lifetime."

He loved her as a person, not just her figure or pretty face.

His circle was filled with handsome men and beautiful women, and Romina (Lan Ruoruo)'s looks weren't the most beautiful women he'd ever seen.

“Grandpa, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and I are going to get some supper.”

Zhan Wei pulled Romina (Lan Ruoruo) towards the kitchen.

He had dined there several times and was very familiar with the Lan family’s layout.

After entering the dining room, Zhan Wei went into the kitchen and brought out two large chicken drumsticks that his mother-in-law had left for them.

He also grabbed two pairs of disposable gloves to avoid getting his hands dirty.

“I don’t want the skin.”

“Okay, I’ll help you.”

Zhan Wei put on the disposable gloves, picked up a chicken drumstick, peeled off the skin, and handed the skinless drumstick to Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

He then took his own drumstick and asked Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to touch it with his.

“Let’s just think of it as a toast. Romina (Lan Ruoruo), please give me your guidance for the rest of my life.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) smiled. “Eating the chicken leg feels like drinking alcohol.”

“Zhan Wei, please give me your guidance for the rest of my life as well.”

The two smiled at each other.

They slowly gnawed at their chicken legs.

Zhan Wei’s eyes were filled with his beloved. Even as he ate the chicken leg, he looked at Romina (Lan Ruoruo) affectionately, making Romina (Lan Ruoruo) feel as if he wanted to eat her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4871

After Zhan Wei finished the midnight snack his mother-in-law had prepared for him, he stayed at the Lan family’s house for half an hour. Only when Romina (Lan Ruoruo) urged him to go home and rest did he reluctantly leave. As soon as he left, Grandpa Lan yawned and said to his granddaughter, “Awei proposed to you. You two should go get the marriage certificate soon, so my grandson-in-law won’t fly.”

“Grandpa, if he can fly, he can still fly even after getting the marriage certificate. If he can’t fly, he won’t fly, no matter what.”

“Don’t worry, he’s in my hands, he can’t fly.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo was very confident.

Zhan Wei’s love for her was genuine.

After a trip to Wancheng, she believed that once a man from the Zhan family fell in love, he would truly love and care for his wife for the rest of his life.

Women who married into the Zhan family were very happy.

“Grandpa, after I marry Zhan Wei, I will be far away from my parents’ home in the future. Don’t you feel reluctant to let me go?”

Mrs. Lan said, “Avi’s business is here, and he stays in Yangcheng longer. He has a house here. You can live in his house after you get married, or you can come back to live here.”

“We welcome you to come back and live here anytime.”

“Go back with Avi to get together with his family during the holidays. How far is far? Nowadays, transportation is very developed. You can take the high-speed rail, take a plane, or even fly there yourself, as long as you can fly a plane.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo smiled and said, “I think you are just anxious to kick me out.”

“What are you talking about? Even if you get married, you are still a child of our Lan family. The door of the Lan family will always be open to you, and the Lan family will always be your backing.”

“If the couple quarrels and has conflicts in the future... just be gentle and don’t hurt my son-in-law.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo didn't know whether to laugh or cry: "Mom, aren't you afraid that your daughter will be bullied?"

"Zhan Wei won't bully you. You are in his heart and eyes. If we really have a quarrel or a conflict, you will definitely hit him. He won't fight back. He's even afraid that you will hurt your hand."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo : "...Mom, it's very late. You and my dad should go upstairs and have some rest. Grandpa too."

Grandpa Lan left happily.

Father Lan also said to his wife, "Let's go and rest, Romina (Lan Ruoruo . Your mother has put our household registration book on the dressing table in your room. It's up to you when to get the marriage certificate."

"Of course, we hope you can get the marriage certificate as soon as possible and start preparing for the wedding."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo walked over and gave her parents a hug. "Dad, Mom, we've worried you."

"Your words make your parents ashamed. Your parents have never really worried about you and your sister. It's always your grandfather who worries about you. In the future, you must be filial to your grandfather."

Father Lan patted his daughter's shoulder and said with relief, "Now that you and your sister have started your own families, your mother and I will be relieved. After you and Zhan Wei have your wedding, your mother and I will plan to go on a trip, maybe for a long time."

"Of course, if you get pregnant, we will be grandparents. No matter where we are, we will rush back as soon as possible."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo laughed. She hadn't even got the marriage certificate with Zhan Wei yet, and her parents were already thinking about becoming grandparents.

Father Lan and Mother Lan went upstairs.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo sat down on the sofa and found that the book her mother had not taken away was actually a book on parenting.

Her brother and sister have grown up, and her mother is still reading such books. She must be preparing to take care of her grandchildren in the future.

Her own children are not so attentive, and her grandchildren are still somewhere unknown, but her mother has already started to learn parenting knowledge.

Since her brother and sister were raised by their grandparents, their parents really don't know how to raise children.

It is said that the relationship between generations is that parents transfer their love for their children to their grandchildren.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo knew that her parents wanted to make up for her brother and sister, and she felt sorry for them and had not fulfilled their parental responsibilities.

Picking up the book, Romina (Lan Ruoruo flipped through two pages.

She had never read such a book before, and after reading two pages, she lost her patience to read on.

She closed the book and put it back where it belonged.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4872

She glanced at the chessboards her grandfather and father hadn't put away.

She made a move for her grandfather, then sat down on her father's side to make another.

She finished the game they'd been playing alone, and it was her father who lost.

Her father wasn't much of a chess player, but her grandfather was a master.

After sitting for a while, Romina (Lan Ruoruo stood up and paced the hall a few times. She felt like she'd eaten a large chicken drumstick, and she needed to move around to help digest it so it wouldn't affect her sleep.

Eating too full wouldn't let her sleep at night.

It was almost midnight before Romina (Lan Ruoruo went upstairs to her bedroom.

Sure enough, she found her household registration book on her dressing table.

She walked over, took a picture with her phone, and sent it to Zhan Wei.

"My mom gave me my household registration book," Zhan Wei replied quickly. "She brought it to me when we got back from Wancheng."

"Romina (Lan Ruoruo , when are we going to get our marriage certificate? No matter when, as long as you say it, I'll cooperate." Even in her dreams, she dreamed of getting a marriage certificate.

With a marriage certificate, they would be legally married, and he wouldn't have to suppress his masculine nature.

"Don't worry, I'm not going to fly anymore," Romina (Lan Ruoruo said. "Let's meet our parents and slowly choose a date for the wedding. It won't be too late to get the marriage certificate later."

Getting married is easy, but loving each other for a lifetime is quite difficult. There will be many variables in the next few decades.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo also gave herself some time to think carefully about whether she was going to get married like this.

Marriage is a big deal. Once decided, it will be a lifetime.

"Okay, I'll ask my parents to come and propose tomorrow."

"Pick a good day for us to have the wedding."

The procedures for obtaining the certificate are very fast. She doesn't want to rush too much. He is willing to wait and let the elders in the family prepare generous gifts and come to propose first.

"Okay. It's late. You should go to bed early. You still have to go to work tomorrow."

"I'll send you a loving breakfast tomorrow. You don't have to eat breakfast at home."

Zhan Wei said.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo felt sweet inside, but she said, "I'm not picky. The breakfast prepared by the aunt at home is delicious too. You don't have to get up so early to make breakfast. Sleep in a little longer." "

But I want to make breakfast for you. If I have time, I'll take care of all your three meals a day from now on."

"I want to cultivate your stomach," Romina (Lan Ruoruo smiled. "If you don't mind getting tired, then do it. I think your cooking is really to my taste. Your cooking skills are far better than many chefs."

Zhan Wei's brothers can all cook, but the Sixth Young Master's cooking is the best.

When she and Zhan Wei returned to Wancheng to visit their parents, she had the opportunity to eat the Sixth Young Master's cooking. It was truly delicious. She also ate the Sixth Young Master's dishes regularly.

The same dish, Zhan Sixth Young Master's, always tasted better than anyone else's.

No wonder the Sixth Young Master's wife was so taken with him.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4873

There was no more conversation that night.

The next day, Zhan Wei really got up early and prepared a loving breakfast for his beloved. He packed it in an insulated lunch box, then went to the Lan Group and waited for her at the door of Romina (Lan Ruoruo 's office.

The secretary who arrived at the company earlier than Romina (Lan Ruoruo asked Zhan Wei to go to the VIP room to wait, but Zhan Wei refused to leave and insisted on waiting at the door, saying that Romina (Lan Ruoruo would see him as soon as she got out of the elevator.

The secretary smiled secretly.

Men and women in love should not be viewed with the eyes of ordinary people.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo also arrived at the company earlier than usual. Her brother thought she got up late and didn't want to have breakfast.

Unexpectedly, she came back to the company to eat the loving breakfast sent by her lover.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo .”

As Romina (Lan Ruoruo stepped out of the elevator, she immediately spotted Zhan Wei, who was waiting for her. A smile spread across her face, and as she walked towards Zhan Wei, she said, “You're here so early! I left early on purpose, worried you'd be waiting.”

“Did you wait a long time?”

Zhan Weijun's face was full of doting. “No, I just got here too.”

“Why don't you sit in the VIP room?”

“I wanted you to see me as soon as you get out of the elevator.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo 's smile grew even sweeter.

The two of them ignored the secretary, each with eyes only for the other. They entered the vice president's office together, closing the door behind them to prevent anyone from interrupting their romantic conversation.

The secretary was envious.

In the past, when the two of them were at loggerheads, they would have wanted to kill each other.

Once you fall in love with someone, you will cherish them at the top of your heart. You really hold them in your hands for fear of dropping them, and you hold them in your mouth for fear of melting them.

After Zhan Wei entered, he walked to the sofa in the reception area and opened the lid of the thermal lunch box. It was a three-layer lunch box. He took out each layer and placed them on the coffee table.

“I made them all this morning. They are nutritionally balanced and they are all your favorites.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo came over and saw the breakfast he brought. It was indeed what she usually liked.

“It looks delicious. It has good color, aroma and taste.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo sat down, took the chopsticks he handed her, and couldn’t wait to eat it.

“Zhan Wei, have you eaten?”

“Yes.”

“Take your time to eat. I’ll make you a cup of coffee.”

“Okay.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo was eating breakfast, and Zhan Wei went into the tea room to make her coffee.

As soon as he entered the tea room, Lan Dongxiao pushed the door open and came in with a thermos lunch box in his hand. As he came in, he said, “Romina (Lan Ruoruo , I saw that you didn’t have breakfast, so I packed it for you. You ate it all.”

Seeing that his sister was eating with gusto, Lan Dongxiao walked over and said, “Did Zhan Wei send it to you? That boy is quite attentive.”

He put down the thermos lunch box, “Brother, you are doing this in vain.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo smiled, “Brother, eat it yourself. Zhan Wei said last night that he would send me breakfast today. He cooks delicious breakfast.”

“Brother, you are forced to eat a belly full of dog food.”

Lan Dongxiao sat down opposite his sister. He didn’t know Zhan Wei was in the tea room and asked his sister, “My future brother-in-law is gone? Why didn’t I see him?”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4874

“Make me coffee in the tea room. Brother, do you want to drink coffee? Ask Zhan Wei to make two more cups.” Zhan Wei stuck his head out and called out to his elder brother, “I heard your voice, so I made two more cups.”

“Brother, you should also bring breakfast to Romina (Lan Ruoruo . I forgot to tell you that I will take care of Romina (Lan Ruoruo ‘s breakfast from now on. I will bring it to her every day.”

Lan Dongxiao said to him, “Zhan Wei, you can’t be partial to one and ignore the other. I have contributed a lot to the fact that you and my sister are together today. If it weren’t for my encouragement, you two might not have realized your true feelings yet.”

“You prepare breakfast for Romina (Lan Ruoruo , why don’t you prepare one for me too.”

Zhan Wei smiled, “As long as your elder brother doesn’t dislike my cooking skills, I will make more in the future and send your elder brother one.”

“You’re just kidding. I won’t compete with my sister for it. You said every day, can you really do it?”

Zhan Wei said seriously, “I, Zhan Wei, always keep my word. I do what I say. It’s not just breakfast, but also lunch and dinner. As long as Romina (Lan Ruoruo wants to eat what I cook, I can cook it for her every day.”

“Then you’ll become a stay-at-home husband, free from the responsibilities of managing Yangtai? Beware of Yangtai’s collapse,”

Zhan Wei said. “Yangtai is now as stable as a rock. Even if I’m not around often, it can still function normally.”

He had long since cultivated a strong management team.

Even Chang Xiao had to be brought in to retrain him in the company’s affairs.

Chang Xiao was the founder of Yangtai; how could he be allowed to be a hands-off manager forever?

Chang Xiao: ...His biggest regret was going to the company to gossip about Zhan Wei, only to be caught and forced to retrain him in the company’s affairs and fulfill his duties as a boss.

Mrs. Chang even said he’d ruined his carefree life just to gossip about the company. Chang Xiao’s management of the company meant less time for his wife and children. Mrs. Chang was used to her husband being a hands-off manager, and the family often went on trips together.

When Chang Xiao took on the boss role again, Mrs. Chang was really not used to it.

But there was nothing she could do. After all, Yangtai was Chang Xiao’s creation, and he had been a hands-off manager for so many years, and now Yangtai was a powerful and influential company in Yangcheng.

Chang Xiao only needed to follow the routine for many things, and he didn’t have to worry much. He had a capable management team under him, making things infinitely better than when he was struggling with Yangtai.

Chang Xiao sighed more than once. His daughter was still young. If she were in her early twenties, the elders would have also managed to lure Zhan Wei into being their son-in-law.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo wouldn’t have gotten the chance.

It was a shame, his daughter was too young.

She had to call Zhan Wei uncle.

“Brother Xiao is back at the company, too. He’s the founder of Yangtai.”

Lan Dongxiao had already heard that Chang Xiao had been brought back by Zhan Wei to run things. Chang Xiao, still eager to see the fun, had returned, but Zhan Wei had coerced and intimidated him, forcing him to end his hands-off days.

He had last run into Chang Xiao at a business reception and had teased him.

Chang Xiao's laughter was uglier than tears, and Lan Dongxiao felt much better.

We are all bosses, why can Chang Xiao just sit back and wait for the money, and be free and easy, while those bosses have to work themselves to death?

They have long been envious and jealous of Chang Xiao.

"That's right, Yangtai is not yours alone, he is the founder, the real boss."

"He has been free and easy for so many years, it's time for him to take on responsibilities, so that you can have time to accompany my sister. Although your proposal was successful, you two still have to continue to cultivate your relationship."

"In your free time, you can make a date, go on vacation, whatever, whatever makes you feel comfortable."

"Romina (Lan Ruoruo doesn't have to worry about the company. If you go on vacation with Zhan Wei, you can leave your work to your brother."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo looked at his brother twice, "I'm not a love-brained person who only cares about love. Can't Zhan Wei and I just be in love like this? I think it's fine. During the day, everyone is busy with their own careers.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4875

"After work, we can have dinner together, go shopping, watch a movie, and go on a road trip on weekends. Isn't it very happy, sweet and happy?"

Lan Dongxiao said to her: "You really don't know how to enjoy yourself. Big brother is willing to take over your workload, but you still don't want to play."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo had already eaten most of it, "I think it's good for Zhan Wei and I."

The breakfast that Zhan Wei prepared for her was not much in each item, but she would be full after finishing it all.

Zhan Wei brought out two cups of coffee, one for each brother.

Then he went back to the tea room and prepared a cup of coffee for himself.

Since falling in love, Zhan Wei was not in a hurry to go back to the company. He wanted to stay by Romina (Lan Ruoruo 's side every day, and he wished he could become her pendant so that they could be together forever and never be apart.

Even if they were working separately, Zhan Wei felt that they were separated and missed her very much.

Now, he understands that after his brothers fell in love, they like to be lazy and don't want to go to work.

He is the same.

"You two made such a big scene last night. The media reported it and it became a hot topic on the gossip news in our city."

Lan Dongxiao was actually very happy.

Zhan Wei's proposal scene was well decorated, and he proposed in front of so many people, which showed that Zhan Wei loved his sister very much.

The sister he cared about the most finally found a good home. Lan Dongxiao was happy for his sister, but also a little reluctant to let her go.

Zhan Wei sat down next to Romina (Lan Ruoruo , "I didn't want to cause a big sensation, I just wanted to be romantic."

As long as he put his heart into it, Romina (Lan Ruoruo would feel it.

"When are you getting married?"

Lan Dongxiao asked.

"I called my parents this morning and asked them to come over today."

Lan Dongxiao nodded, and sighed: "You two are progressing so quickly and smoothly. It's so enviable that you don't even have a rival in love."

My sister has rivals in love, but those rivals are very rational. After knowing that Zhan Wei likes Romina (Lan Ruoruo , those admirers gave up, knowing that they can't compare to Romina (Lan Ruoruo .

They dare not target Romina (Lan Ruoruo , because they can't afford to offend the Lan family behind Romina (Lan Ruoruo .

Of course, Romina (Lan Ruoruo is not someone who can be bullied. The rivals are rational. After confessing their love to Zhan Wei and being rejected, they retreated to the position of cooperation and gave up on Zhan Wei. They are worthy of being strong women in all walks of life, who can take it or leave it. Zhan Wei has no real rivals in love . Zhang Cheng and Romina (Lan Ruoruo had just a blind date, and the two were not really attracted to each other, so they can't be considered rivals in love. Romina (Lan Ruoruo said to her brother, "You should also marry my sister-in-law quickly so that we can live smoothly together. Isn't that good? Do you think I have countless rivals?" "You do have quite a few, but they're very rational. They retreated when they knew there was no hope. They're able to let go." "That's right. I wouldn't be afraid of ten rivals like President Su." Romina (Lan Ruoruo actually admired rivals like President Su. They were open and honest, rational, and able to accept reality. They wouldn't cling to anyone, let alone do anything to hurt others. Come to think of it, her relationship with Zhan Wei was indeed going smoothly. Perhaps it was because they had known each other for five or six years, had always been targeting each other, and understood each other well.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4876

From hostility to love, once they accepted the shift in their relationship, there was no psychological burden. There was no need to deliberately cultivate affection; they had already developed it from this mutual hatred and love.

"Go ahead and brag. Your future sister-in-law and I are planning to get married at the end of the year."

"If you two pick a date before ours, you can get married first. Big Brother has no objection."

Lan Dongxiao wasn't in a hurry, but his girlfriend's family was a bit worried. He and his girlfriend were both in their early thirties.

If a woman in her early thirties hasn't married yet, her elders in the family will be anxious.

"We're not sure when yet. We haven't even gotten our marriage certificate yet. It won't be too late to get one once the wedding preparations are almost done," Lan Dongxiao nodded.

Seeing that Romina (Lan Ruoruo had eaten her fill, Zhan Wei packed up her insulated lunch box and took it to the bathroom to wash.

Lan Dongxiao watched him do these things, feeling that he did them very naturally.

After Zhan Wei left, Lan Dongxiao whispered to his sister, "If you and mom and dad hadn't been to the Zhan family's old house, I wouldn't believe Zhan Wei would be the young master of a multi-billionaire family. He's too down-to-earth."

"It's not just him, his brothers are all similar. Only his eldest brother is a little high and mighty. He gives people a very cold feeling and is not easy to get along with."

"But in front of Sister Tong, his eldest brother is very gentle and considerate."

Lan Dongxiao smiled, "Being the head of the family is different. You need to have accumulated prestige and dignity."

"Brother is also the head of our family. Why don't you accumulate some prestige and dignity? You gossip all day long and worry about so many things that you shouldn't worry about. You're almost becoming a gossip man."

"People who don't know you and are not familiar with you will definitely think you are a company handyman without any dignity of the head of the family."

Lan Dongxiao: "...How does it involve eldest brother? Although eldest brother is not arrogant, the Lan Group is under the control of eldest brother, and there is no one who disobeys me."

The brother and sister were raised by their grandparents since they were young. They followed their grandparents back to the company when they were very young, and started to discuss business with their grandfather when they were teenagers.

Grandpa never hid the company's affairs from them.

The elders in the company watched them grow up and knew their abilities. Even though he didn't have the same majesty as Zachary, no one dared to look down on him as the heir to the Lan Group.

Everyone was convinced of him.

"Brother, you have to learn some things from Zhan Wei, so that my future sister-in-law will be devoted to you."

"What should I learn from Zhan Wei?"

Lan Dongxiao asked his sister. He was not inferior to Zhan Wei at all. Oh, his appearance was a little worse than Zhan Wei's.

If Zhan Wei's appearance could be rated 10 points, his would be 7 points.

Appearance is innate, and he didn't want to have plastic surgery, so there was no need to compare with Zhan Wei.

"So considerate. Didn't you see that Zhan Wei is considerate of me? His thoughtfulness makes me very happy and surrounded by love."

"In order to make me have a good breakfast, he said that he would get up every day to prepare breakfast for me and send it to our company. Big brother also saw the breakfast I had just now. It was very rich and delicious."

"Big brother has never sent a loving breakfast to my future sister-in-law, right? It was my future sister-in-law who sent you one."

Lan Dongxiao: "..."

"Big brother should also work harder on cooking. If you can control my sister-in-law's stomach in the future, are you afraid that my sister-in-law will be snatched away by someone else?"

Lan Dongxiao: "...I'm so busy every day, how can I have time to cook? I go home late at night and have to go to work in the morning. I don't even get enough sleep."

“Your future sister-in-law understands me, so she sent me a loving breakfast. She said that she also prepared it for me personally in the morning, but she is also very busy and often travels and flies everywhere. As long as she can send me breakfast three times a year, I, your brother, am very satisfied.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4877

People in their circle tend to marry people of their own level. Even if someone were attracted to ordinary girls, it wouldn't work out in the end; the threshold of a wealthy family is difficult to cross.

Cinderella is just a fairy tale.

Lan Dongxiao's girlfriend is also the daughter of a wealthy family and a strong woman. She's very busy with work, often traveling all over the world, so even Romina (Lan Ruoruo rarely sees her future sister-in-law.

Even Lan Dongxiao, her official boyfriend, can only keep in touch with his girlfriend through video calls to prove they're still together.

Many people believe that Mr. Lan is still single, as he's rarely seen around the opposite sex.

Grandpa Lan's concern for the siblings' marriages isn't without reason.

One appears to be in a relationship, yet they often don't see each other all year round, while the other, in her late twenties, still has no boyfriend.

It's his excessive concern that, when Romina (Lan Ruoruo and Zhan Wei's rivalry turned into love, Grandpa Lan urged his daughter-in-law to hurry up and get married.

“When will my future sister-in-law get some rest?”

“After this busy period, we plan to get married at the end of the year anyway. She said that after this busy period, we can have a month's honeymoon when we get married.”

“Yes, there is a business reception tomorrow night. You and Zhan Wei should go. Big brother is a man and has no one to accompany him, so he won’t go, so as not to see other couples and be envious.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo did not refuse.

She also received an invitation to the reception.

Zhan Wei must have received it too. With Yang Tai’s current status, as long as they are not Yang Tai’s mortal enemy, oh, even the receptions held by their Lan Group, will invite Yang Tai’s CEO, Zhan Wei and Chang Xiao.

Now that she and Zhan Wei have become an engaged couple, if Lan Group holds a reception again in the future, they will also invite the two CEOs of Yang Tai to attend.

“Big brother, go back to work. This breakfast...”

“I’m full. Big brother, give it to someone else.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo was full and couldn’t finish the breakfast her eldest brother had brought her.

Lan Dongxiao stood up and said, “I’ll ask your second and third brothers if they’ve had breakfast, and tell them to take it.”

With that, he left, carrying his insulated lunch box.

Zhan Wei, who had just emerged from the bathroom, saw Lan Dongxiao leaving and said, “Brother, you left so soon.”

Lan Dongxiao turned to look at him and smiled, “I’m not leaving. There’s nothing to eat here, and you brought breakfast to Romina (Lan Ruoruo , but you didn’t even prepare a portion for me.”

“I’ll accompany Romina (Lan Ruoruo to the cocktail party tomorrow night. Keep an eye on her and don’t let her get drunk,” Zhan Wei said with a smile. “Don’t worry, I’ll be there with her. I won’t let her get drunk. I ‘ll watch her and protect her from the alcohol.” When drunk, Romina (Lan Ruoruo flirted with handsome men. Having seen a drunken Romina (Lan Ruoruo , Zhan Wei wouldn’t let her get drunk again.

Even Romina (Lan Ruoruo didn't dare get drunk. The last time she got drunk and fell for Zhan Wei, things had progressed so quickly. Fortunately, she genuinely liked Zhan Wei.

Zhan Wei sat down, picked up his unfinished cup of coffee, drank it, and cleaned it.

He gave Romina (Lan Ruoruo another hug and kissed her lips before reluctantly leaving.

If Romina (Lan Ruoruo hadn't had a morning meeting, he would have stayed a little longer.

When Zhan Wei returned to Yangtai, it was already 9:30 in the morning.

The morning meeting was over.

Chang Xiao was staring at the mountain of documents he had to deal with, frowning, looking very distressed.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4878

Being the head of the household is too hard!

He is still not suitable for being the head of the household. Even though this house has been kept clean and tidy by Zhan Wei, he still finds it difficult.

Knowing that Zhan Wei is back, Chang Xiao immediately picked up the pile of folders and ran to find Zhan Wei.

Zhan Wei had just sat down and hadn't even turned on his computer when the door of the office was knocked open. He looked up and saw that it was Chang Xiao. He said, "Brother Xiao, don't you know how to knock on the door?"

"Oh, I knocked on the door."

Chang Xiao stepped out and knocked on the door again, but Zhan Wei didn't say come in. He suddenly realized that he had been tricked by Zhan Wei.

Immediately, he twisted the door handle, trying to open the door himself again.

As a result, the office door was locked from the inside by Zhan Wei. No matter how he twisted it, he couldn't open the door from the outside.

"Zhan Wei, A Wei, my good brother, please open the door and give me a hand. I feel dizzy and sleepy after reading so many documents. Please help me deal with even half of them."

"Look, you came back to the company late today, and I was the one who attended the morning meeting. There is no reason for me to deal with so many documents alone, right?"

"My good brother, please open the door, open the door!"

Chang Xiao knocked on the door and begged Zhan Wei to open it.

Zhan Wei said to him through the door: "Brother Xiao, it's just a few documents, just sign them, what's so difficult about it."

"I also have a pile of documents waiting to be processed here. Let's both do our own things. Go back to your office quickly and don't yell at my door. If I get unhappy later, I'll move the documents in my office over for you to process."

"I'm taking a vacation to accompany my fiancée. Anyway, you founded Yangtai, and I'm just a senior employee."

Chang Xiao: "...Good brother, you are also the boss of Yangtai now. We each own half of the shares. You are the boss, not an employee."

"Didn't you succeed in proposing? It's working hours now, and Miss Lan also has to go to work. She is busy. If you go there, you will only take up her precious time. What are you going there for? You should stay in the company and do more things and make more money."

"Once a man gets married, he has a family. He has to shoulder the burden of supporting it. And when he has children, he'll have to pay for their education, which requires a lot of money."

"Hurry up and make some money. The economy's tough right now, so we need to cherish our jobs."

Zhan Wei shouted, "Get lost!"

Chang Xiao immediately stopped knocking on the door and yelling. He rubbed his nose, grabbed his folders, and headed back to his office.

The secretary chuckled.

Chang Xiao couldn't help but say to the secretary, "What are you laughing at? I really don't know how to manage a household."

"Who told Mr. Chang to be so gossipy? He came back to the office to eat melons. Don't you know that the most important thing a man in love wants to do is to be lazy?"

the secretary said with a smile, showing no sympathy for Chang Xiao.

Mr. Zhan was right. Mr. Chang was the founder of Yangtai, but he neglected Motai. He was a very negligent boss. Now, it's time for him to take on his responsibilities as a boss again.

The company has over ten thousand employees, and it needs two people at the helm to lead them even further. At the very least, we need to protect everyone's jobs."

Chang Xiao: "..."

He muttered as he returned to his office.

Fortunately, Zhan Wei's proposal was successful. Once he and Romina (Lan Ruoruo were married, the passion would slowly fade and he would return to being the workaholic Zhan Wei.

Then, he could be a hands-off boss again.

Zhan Wei, a workaholic, would take over all his work, blaming him for being incompetent and slow.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4879

After several minutes, Zhan Wei finally unlocked the door. He opened it a little, peeked out, and didn't see Chang Xiao.

"Boss Zhan, Boss Chang's back in the office," the secretary said with a smile.

Zhan Wei hushed him, signaling him to be quiet, lest Chang Xiao overhear and repeat his earlier trick.

Chang Xiao rarely returned to the company, so he didn't have his own secretary.

Now, forced to return frequently by Zhan Wei, he didn't hire a new secretary, and they shared one.

The secretary knew more about the work than Chang Xiao did.

Sometimes, the secretary would internally complain, saying, "No wonder Yangtai was so indebted and nearly closed down. Boss Chang really wasn't cut out for business."

Yangtai's current status and future growth depended on Boss Zhan.

Boss Chang's greatest strength was his vision. He wasn't jealous of Boss Zhan's ability, but instead gave up half his shares, effectively tying Boss Zhan to Yangtai.

Now everyone in the company knew that their Boss Zhan was the son of the richest man in Dongguan.

They were even less worried about the company going bankrupt. It wasn't just that Yangtai was thriving, but also because President Zhan had a large family backing him. If Yangtai truly encountered difficulties, President Zhan's backers wouldn't sit idly by.

President Zhan and Vice President Lan had become a couple, and without the Lan Group stalking them, Yangtai's future was relatively smooth.

"President Zhan, would you like me to make you some coffee?"

"No, I had coffee at Romina (Lan Ruoruo 's place and I'm feeling pretty good now."

"Get back to work."

Zhan Wei closed the office door and sat down at his desk. He picked up his phone to send a message to Romina (Lan Ruoruo , but he didn't want to disturb her, so he didn't.

After sitting quietly for two minutes, he plunged into his heavy work. He was busy until the end of the day.

Chang Xiao knocked on his door again, and after knocking on the door, without waiting for him to speak, Chang Xiao pushed the door open and walked in.

“Awei, do you want to come to my house for dinner? Your sister-in-law said that she has prepared a lot of dishes and asked me to invite you. If Miss Lan is willing to do me the honor, she can also invite Miss Lan.”

“We are good brothers and good partners. Your proposal was successful, and we are happy for you. We will treat you two to a meal to celebrate for you.”

Zhan Wei said, “I have to ask Romina (Lan Ruoruo ‘s opinion.”

As he said that, he immediately called Romina (Lan Ruoruo .

After waiting for a long time, Romina (Lan Ruoruo finally answered his call, “What’s the matter? Zhan Wei, I’m entertaining clients. If you have anything, let’s talk after I’m done.”

“Brother Xiao said he would invite us to his house for dinner.”

“You tell Mr. Chang that he may not be free on weekdays. Let’s see about the weekend.”

Zhan Wei said with understanding: “Okay, then I’ll tell him, are you inviting the clients to dinner at noon?”

“We are already having dinner at the hotel and chatting while eating.”

Zhan Wei said “oh”, a little disappointed. She was entertaining clients, so he didn’t want to disturb her.

“You can have lunch by yourself at noon, don’t worry about me. I have to socialize in the evening. By the way, you can accompany me to the business cocktail party tomorrow night.”

Zhan Wei smiled: “That’s inevitable. I also received an invitation. I thought if you didn’t want to go, I would let Brother Xiao take my sister-in-law. Since you are going to attend, let’s go together.” Chang Xiao on the side breathed a sigh of relief.

Married at First Sight Chapter 488o

What he hated most were social engagements and attending various events.

He couldn't get along with them, and when they saw him, they always spoke in a sarcastic tone. Some even expressed envy and resentment.

Whenever the Yangtai CEO was invited, it was Zhan Wei who always attended.

"Then you go ahead and get busy. Don't drink so much."

"I drove here, I don't drink. They all drove too, and we didn't order any drinks."

They were all big business owners, very careful about their lives. They wouldn't drink if they were driving, and they wouldn't drive if they were drinking.

Zhan Wei reluctantly ended the call and said to Chang Xiao, "Romina (Lan Ruoruo has a client reception at noon and can't go. She said she only has time on weekends."

Chang Xiao put her arm around his shoulder, "Then let's go back for dinner. Your sister-in-law keeps complaining about you not going out for dinner in a while."

"How dare you say that? It's just that I'm too busy. This company is clearly... I've never seen such an irresponsible boss like you."

Zhan Wei wanted to say that Chang Xiao was the boss, but then he remembered that he also owned 50% of the shares and was the boss.

The two walked and talked.

Chang Xiaoxiao said, "I don't come back to distribute benefits during the holidays. Everyone knows my weight. I can't really help if I come back, and I might even cause trouble."

"I trust you. I'm leaving the company to you. I'm 120% confident."

As they entered the elevator, Chang Xiao's phone rang.

He loosened his arm around Zhan Wei's shoulders, pulled out his phone, saw the caller ID, and said to Zhan Wei, "Your sister-in-law called again, urging us to go back for dinner."

He answered the call.

Soon, the smile on his face disappeared.

Zhan Wei heard him ask angrily, "Why is she here? You asked her to leave! I can't even go back home for dinner."

He was used to his wife's cooking.

He didn't even think the food in a five-star hotel was as delicious as his wife's.

Zhan Wei didn't hear what Mrs. Chang said.

Soon, Chang Xiao hung up the phone and said to Zhan Wei, "Let's go to the Yangcheng Hotel. Your sister-in-law's cousin is here. Do you remember her? She likes you very much. She fell in love with you at first sight." "For the past two years, she's been bothering you at the company every day. You couldn't stand it anymore, so you kicked her out and ordered that no one else be allowed to work there."

To maintain their brotherly relationship and allow Zhan Wei to continue running Yangtai, Chang Xiao and his wife scolded the cousin and warned her that if she bothered him again, they would no longer support her family.

When Chang Xiao founded Yangtai, it was just a small company with only a few employees. He was certainly not wealthy, and after starting his business, he was heavily in debt.

Mrs. Chang's family was also ordinary. To fill the gap left by Yangtai, she borrowed money from her parents. Her cousin's family had once lent her 10,000 yuan. It wasn't much, but at least they were willing to lend it.

Who among ordinary families would have hundreds of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of yuan to lend?

Later, Yangtai thrived, and Chang Xiao became a billionaire. With his wealth, his material life was far superior. The couple were grateful and had repaid every loan from Mrs. Chang's relatives.

However, now, Mrs. Chang's relatives had become accustomed to Mrs. Chang's financial support. Whenever they needed money, they would ask her for a loan, claiming it was a loan but never repaying it.

Mrs. Chang had considered arranging for her relatives to work at Yangtai, and indeed, she had.

However, her relatives were hopeless, lazy at work, arriving late and leaving early, and even forming cliques to try to squeeze Zhan Wei out.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4881

Zhan Wei is Yangtai's savior. Wouldn't getting rid of Zhan Wei mean Yangtai will go bankrupt?

Mrs. Chang dismissed all her relatives from her natal family. From then on, the couple never arranged relatives to work in the company again.

This was to prevent their relatives from relying on being relatives of the boss and not taking the company's rules and regulations seriously, not obeying discipline, taking advantage of the company, and taking everything home.

Later, Mrs. Chang would rather give her relatives some money occasionally than arrange jobs for them.

Her relatives from her natal family also understood that no matter how good Yangtai was, they couldn't get in. Who told them that they had no real ability? They thought they could do whatever they wanted in Yangtai by relying on Mrs. Chang's relationship.

Who knew that Mrs. Chang and her husband trusted Zhan Wei so much.

Unable to stir up trouble anymore, they just behaved themselves.

Mrs. Chang's second uncle's daughter fell in love with Zhan Wei after meeting him, but after being warned by her cousin, she dared not pester Zhan Wei anymore.

I didn't expect him to come here today.

When she arrived, Mrs. Chang quickly called her husband and asked him not to bring Zhan Wei home for dinner, lest her cousin see Zhan Wei and become infatuated with him again.

After two years of not seeing each other, her cousin finally got a new boyfriend.

Zhan Wei said, "Then I'll go to Yangcheng Hotel to eat, but you can go home for dinner, she won't climb into your bed."

"Forget it, I have no appetite when I see her. If your sister-in-law didn't have to visit relatives from her mother's side, I wouldn't even want her to come in."

"Let's go to the hotel to eat. It's not just her who's coming, there are other relatives as well. It's a noisy family, I'm too lazy to deal with them, it's quieter to eat outside."

Chang Xiao said this, so Zhan Wei would not persuade Chang Xiao to go home for dinner anymore.

The elevator went down to the first floor and the two got out of the elevator. Chang Xiao wanted to ride in Zhan Wei's car, but Zhan Wei said to him, "You're reluctant to drive your new car?"

"Yes, I am. Don't you want to take me with you?"

Zhan Wei laughed and said, "If I'm reluctant to drive it, what's the point of buying it? Just to show it off."

Chang Xiao laughed heartily.

Men love cars. He doesn't have many hobbies, but he loves cars just like any other man. After he got rich, he bought a lot of nice cars and put them in the garage, driving whichever one he likes.

Besides buying cars, Chang Xiao also loves fishing. If he goes fishing, don't expect to see him all day.

Mrs. Chang hates him fishing the most. Seeing him going fishing, she even broke his fishing rod.

The two got in the car.

Zhan Wei drove.

After the car drove out of the company, Zhan Wei said to Chang Xiao: “Brother Xiao, I know that your sister-in-law’s relatives lent you some money, but over the years, you have paid them back with interest.”

“Now it’s not you who owes them, it’s they who owe you.”

“If you always help them like that, they won’t work hard to make money. No matter what happens, if they need money, they will ask you for it, and you will give it to them. They have no motivation at all.”

“It’s annoying that they always pester you for money.”

“Don’t indulge them like this, especially the younger generation. Let them go out and find a job. If they get into trouble in the future, don’t spend money to help them clean up the mess.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4882

Chang Xiao sighed, “I’ve talked to your sister-in-law about this, but she’s still thinking about the old times.”

“It’s really not a solution to keep going like this. They’re used to asking for money, and they think it’s easy. They always tell your sister-in-law that we’re so rich now, and if we just give them a little, they’ll be able to live lavishly.”

“My father-in-law and mother-in-law are very concerned about their reputation. Their daughter and son-in-law are rich, live in big villas, and drive luxury cars. They love to show off and take on tasks, and all the tasks they take on are handed over to your sister-in-law and me.” “I don’t know what to do to make your sister-in-law give up on those relatives and stop subsidizing them.”

In the past, the most she borrowed from those people was ten thousand, and the least was one or two thousand. But over the years, they’ve paid back far more than just tens of thousands, but hundreds of thousands.

Whenever those relatives’ children got into high school or college, their wives would help them. They really repay their debts.

The main thing is that their rewards make those people idle away, only knowing how to eat, drink and have fun, without any ambition to make progress, and they ask them to borrow money when they are short of money. This will only ruin them.

“They are just jealous of you now that you are rich. You and your sister-in-law should put on a show and tell them that Yangtai is in an economic crisis and is about to go bankrupt, and ask them to pay you back to help you through this difficult time.”

“Ask them for money again and see if they are willing to pay you back and lend you money again.”

“If they are unwilling to pay you back and refuse to help you again, my sister-in-law will give up and will no longer help you like this.”

Chang Xiao thought for a moment and said, “This is a good idea. I will rent an old house, and then the whole family will live there temporarily for a few days. When the children go to school, your sister-in-law and I will go back to your parents’ home.”

“Let your sister-in-law call home first or send a message in the family group, just tag everyone.

” “When you go back later, dress more simply and don’t drive your new car back. Just take the bus. If there is no bus, you can call an online car-Liberty service. When you arrive, ask your mother-in-law to pay for your fare.”

“You have to act realistically.”

Chang Xiaoxiao said, “Don’t worry, we can act well. After all, we have been poor for a long time.”

He’d endured poverty and hardship.

Deep in debt, his family scrimped and saved, reluctant to buy fresh groceries. Instead, they’d pick up other people’s yellow-leafed vegetables or go to the market in the evening to find cheaper ones. They’d only dare to buy meat once every ten days or two.

“When are you and Romina (Lan Ruoruo getting married?”

“Not yet. My parents are coming over today. Once the elders have chosen a wedding date for us, we can get the marriage certificate.”

“Yes, my parents are coming over today. I’ll pick them up at the airport this afternoon. I’ll leave the company to you.”

Chang Xiao: “...Okay.”

Zhan Wei’s parents had come all the way from Dongguan City for Zhan Wei’s most important event. No matter how reluctant Chang Xiao was, he had to bite the bullet and return to the company to work like a slave.

Workers call themselves slaves, and Chang Xiao felt that being a boss was just as much of a slave. They were under immense pressure. If they didn’t manage the company well, it would fail, and the workers would lose their jobs.

So these bosses, like slaves, desperately try to negotiate more business, sign more contracts, keep their companies busy and running smoothly, so that their workers can keep their jobs.

In a bad economy, sometimes even slaves have nothing to do.

“What time will uncle and aunt arrive?”

“My mom sent me the plane tickets. They’ll arrive at Yangcheng Airport around 3:00 PM,”

Chang laughed.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4883

Zhan Wei had to notify his parents on short notice.

The second wife and her husband had to book flights on the spur of the moment. They had originally wanted to come by private jet, but they had to apply for a flight route, so they gave up. The couple had just arrived.

The flight from Wancheng to Yangcheng took over three hours, and they didn't arrive until after three or four in the afternoon.

Not only did the second wife and her husband come, but also Tang Junye and his wife, and the third wife and her husband, all of whom were Zhan Wei's elders.

Before Zhan Wei's brothers got married, when each side met with their parents and discussed the marriage, Tang Junye and other elders were present.

Naturally, Zhan Wei followed suit.

If it weren't for the old lady's advanced age, she would have wanted to come to Yangcheng too.

Zhan Wei guessed that his grandmother wanted to come, so he specifically told his parents not to bring her along. She was old and not as strong as she used to be, so she should stay home and look after her great-grandchildren. Grandma had met Romina (Lan Ruoruo again.

It wouldn't be too late for her to join in the fun on his and Romina (Lan Ruoruo 's wedding day.

Zhan Wei planned to host a banquet in Wancheng and another in Yangcheng.

The two places were too far apart. When he got married, he would definitely have to return to Wancheng for the banquet. With so many relatives in the Lan family, it wouldn't be convenient to go there.

So, he wanted to hold two banquets.

He hadn't discussed these matters with Romina (Lan Ruoruo yet.

Well, he had just successfully proposed.
Let's talk about it after the elders are here.

"I'll go to the airport to pick you up this afternoon. I haven't met my uncle and aunt yet."

Chang Xiao said enthusiastically.

Zhan Wei looked at him and said, “You’re not my fiancée, why are you so anxious to meet my parents? With a son like me, why do I need you to pick me up from the airport?”

“Don’t try to avoid work. This afternoon, you should meet guests and talk business. Oh, yes, Vice President Shen from the Lan Group will come to discuss cooperation with our company. Don’t mess it up.”

“It was because my fiancée gave me face that she was willing to make peace with us and turn enemies into friends.”

Chang Xiao said, “You also know that I’m not cut out for business. Yangtai almost died in my hands. It was because I recognized your talent and recruited you into the company that Yangtai started to rise.”

“Yangtai has been able to reconcile with its sworn enemy. That’s a huge deal. This is our first partnership, so we can’t afford to make any mistakes. I’m afraid I won’t be able to negotiate well. It’s best if you stay at the company and discuss the cooperation. I’ll go to the airport to pick up your uncle and aunt.” Zhan Wei said, “We’ve pretty much done the negotiations. Just look over the contract and sign it if you think it’s okay. You don’t need to negotiate. I’m picking up my elders to discuss my wedding with my mother-in-law.”

“Brother Xiao, this is a major event in my life, more important than work. You’re the founder of Yangtai. I’ve spent years helping you build it up. Now I’m getting married. You can’t hold me back on such a major event, can you?”

Chang Xiao replied, “...Okay.”

The two of them went to the Yangcheng Hotel. Both of them were regulars, and upon arrival, the manager warmly invited them upstairs.

After dinner, as they were leaving, they ran into Romina (Lan Ruoruo and her group at the hotel entrance. She must have been escorting a client out.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo .”

Seeing his beloved fiancée, Zhan Wei smiled naturally, and there was only Romina (Lan Ruoruo in his eyes.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4884

Chang Xiao tactfully said, "It's not far from the office. I'll take a cab."

"Okay,"

Zhan Wei agreed, letting him take the cab back to the office.

Once in the cab, Chang Xiao muttered, "You're choosing beauty over friendship."

With a beloved, even he, a partner, had taken a back seat.

However, Zhan Wei had found true love in Yangcheng, and Romina (Lan Ruoruo was the eldest daughter of the Lan family. Marrying her would essentially mean he'd be living in Yangcheng permanently, and Chang Xiao wouldn't have to worry about Zhan Wei returning to inherit the family business.

Once Zhan Wei got married and settled down, he could leave the company to Zhan Wei again, and he'd continue to be a hands-off manager.

From now on, no matter what gossip broke out at the company, he'd never return to inquire. He could ask other managers for fresh gossip, and they'd still have the latest gossip.

Chang Xiao felt that Zhan Wei had dragged him back to work, and that his return gave Zhan Wei an opportunity.

Even if he hadn't returned, Zhan Wei, pursuing his wife, would have needed to find time, and naturally, he'd have pulled Chang Xiao, the founder, back to the office to manage it.

After years of being a hands-off boss, I felt like I had to contribute something to the company.

Yangtai is now stable under Zhan Wei's management. He has also promoted and nurtured numerous talented individuals, and the company's management team is far superior to that of Chang Xiao. Those who previously undermined the company and its owner were long ago fired by Zhan Wei.

Zhan Wei often stated that the company doesn't want idlers, and he won't retain any who only exploit the company, take advantage of the company's so-called management, and act tyrannically without any real work.

Mrs. Chang's relatives from her mother's side were just that kind of people. They had initially banded together to oust Zhan Wei, but in the end, they were all expelled by Zhan Wei.

Now, any friends or relatives who still want to work at Yangtai can only work as ordinary employees in the branch office, never again at the headquarters.

Even Mrs. Chang firmly supports Zhan Wei, and no one can challenge his position at Yangtai.

Previously, no one knew Zhan Wei's true identity and simply assumed he was getting a free ride, thanks to the generosity of Chang Xiao and his wife. Now that Zhan Wei's true identity was known, everyone assumed Chang Xiao and his wife had struck gold, managing to lure the Zhan family's seventh young master into Yangtai. The shares they'd given Zhan Wei were well-deserved.

"Are you and Mr. Chang coming over for dinner? Didn't Mrs. Chang say she made all the delicious food and invited you over?"

Romina (Lan Ruoruo asked with a smile as Zhan Wei approached.

Her client had already left.

Upon seeing Zhan Wei, the secretary, like Chang Xiao, left first, leaving the couple some time alone.

"I was planning to go to the Changs' house for dinner and was about to go, but Xiao received a call from my sister-in-law saying her cousin was coming, and told me not to go."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo , a clever woman, knew from hearing him that Mrs. Chang's cousin had a crush on Zhan Wei.

She didn't take it personally.

Zhan Wei's achievements in Yangcheng were obvious to everyone. He was young and handsome, and many strong women admired him, not to mention ordinary women.

How many could resist Zhan Wei's handsomeness?

"Mrs. Chang has a positive outlook on life. She didn't help her cousin to harass you."

Zhan Wei said, “She knows that I am the one who can make her family live a good life. How dare she anger me? I don’t even have any impression of her cousin.”

“My eyes are on the top of my head. Most people are not in my eyes. After I met you, no matter how good other girls are, they are not worth mentioning in my eyes.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo smiled, “We used to be sworn enemies.”

“So what if we are sworn enemies? It doesn’t prevent me from admiring you.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4885

“Are you free this afternoon?”

Zhan Wei asked.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) looked at him and asked, “Anything? With the seats we’re sitting in, which day would you be free? Even on weekends

, I sometimes have to work overtime to deal with work.” “But if you need any help, I can squeeze in some time for you.”

Zhan Wei was the only person she could make time for.

Zhan Wei smiled, “No, but my elders are arriving in Yangcheng around 3:00 PM, and I thought if you were free, we could go to the airport to pick them up.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) was stunned for a moment before saying, “They’re here so soon.”

“Since my proposal was successful, of course my parents have to come and discuss our wedding arrangements with your family.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) had heard him say he would notify his parents. She hadn’t expected her future in-laws to arrive so quickly.

“I called them at the last minute. They were in a rush. Otherwise, they could have flown in a private jet, and we wouldn’t have to meet them.”

Her mother blamed him for the hasty notification, saying they didn't have time to apply for flights, so they had to go to the airport to fly. Fortunately, the gifts had already been prepared.

Except for the grandmother, who was too old and her family did not agree to her coming with them, all the elders came. Each of them brought two suitcases filled with betrothal gifts for Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

His mother told him to rent a few cars to pick him up at the airport because there were so many boxes.

Since the two places were too far apart, his parents helped him prepare the betrothal gifts for Romina (Lan Ruoruo), which were mainly luxury goods, real estate, shops, and luxury cars, and asked him to prepare the cash himself.

In Yangcheng, there were also some things that the man had to give as a betrothal gift, so his parents asked him to prepare them in Yangcheng.

Zhan Wei had already made a list and wanted to buy some of them later, then pick up the elders and go buy the rest with them.

She had to be fully prepared before going to the Lan family to formally propose marriage.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) checked the time and said, "We'll be there a little after three. We need to go to the airport now. It's quite far from the city, almost a two-hour drive."

"Wait for me. I'll call my brother and secretary and ask them to cancel my afternoon schedule and have my brother handle any urgent documents."

"Okay."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) immediately called her secretary and had her cancel all her afternoon schedules. She then called her eldest brother to tell him she was going to the airport to pick him up and to handle any urgent documents.

Knowing that her future in-laws were coming, Lan Dongxiao expressed his understanding for his sister's request for the afternoon off.

"Let's treat them to dinner tonight,"

Lan Dongxiao said.

“Grandpa and Mom and Dad will tell us when they find out.” Since the Zhan family had arrived, the Lan family would naturally treat them to dinner.

“I’ll pick up my uncle and aunt later and invite them to dinner at our house.”

“Okay, then you and Zhan Wei go pick them up at the airport. You don’t have to worry about the company.”

Lan Dongxiao assured his sister to go pick up his parents-in-law at the airport and not worry about the company, as he would take care of it.

As for his cousins, their family was similar to the Zhan family, though not as united.

Their unity was half genuine, half fake.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4886

When their own interests aren’t involved, they’re truly united and can act in unison.

When their own interests are involved, arguments and conflicts will still arise. Fortunately, Grandpa is still around, and everyone is filial to him, so even if there are conflicts, they can be reconciled and reconciled.

After ending the call, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said to Zhan Wei, “I’ve arranged things for the afternoon. Let’s go. I’ll pick you up at the airport.”

“Your car or mine?”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) asked him.

Zhan Wei smiled and said, “We both have to drive there, and we need to hire a few cars to go together. Not only are my parents coming, but my uncles and aunts are coming too, and they’re bringing a lot of luggage.”

“We’ll need several cars.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo): "...You bought a house here, so you don't lack anything. Your parents can come with some daily clothes, and you didn't even remind them."

Zhan Wei said innocently, "That's not something I can control. Even if I told them, they would still bring a lot of things."

"No need to hire a car. I'll have my bodyguards drive two cars to the airport. Is that enough?"

Zhan Wei thought for a moment and said, "Four or five cars should be enough."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) immediately called the housekeeper and asked him to arrange for three bodyguards to drive a car each and go to the airport right away. She and Zhan Wei would be waiting for them there. She also asked the housekeeper to tell Grandpa that Zhan Wei's parents would arrive in Yangcheng around 3:00 p.m., and that the two elders would have dinner together in the evening.

After the call, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said to Zhan Wei, "I'll have my bodyguard drive directly to the airport. Let's go. Our two families will have dinner together tonight."

"Okay."

Zhan Wei had no objection to Romina (Lan Ruoruo)'s arrangement.

The two of them drove to Yangcheng Airport.

Upon hearing the housekeeper's announcement, Grandpa Lan quickly instructed the kitchen to check on the food supply for a dinner tonight to entertain his in-laws.

He also instructed Mrs. Lan to notify her brothers, uncles, nephews, and her relatives from her mother's side to come for dinner. Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) went to the airport to meet Romina (Lan Ruoruo). Back at the Chang family, Mrs. Chang's cousin waited for ages, but her brother-in-law and Zhan Wei never arrived for dinner. Instead, her cousin invited them all to eat.

After dinner, sitting on the expensive sofa in the Chang family's living room, her cousin felt a mixture of envy and a hint of jealousy.

This cousin wasn't the prettiest of the sisters, but she had the best luck.

After marrying her brother-in-law, Chang Xiao, she struggled for a while when his business struggled, even borrowing money from her mother's family to tide her over.

But things eventually improved, and the Chang family's life, along with her cousin's, improved.

In just four or five years, her cousin had moved from a small apartment to a large villa, driven by luxury cars and spending lavishly, unlike the others who hesitated before buying anything fancy.

Although my cousin is grateful and has helped me a lot over the years, it is still far from the life of a rich lady that my cousin lives.

If she could also marry into a wealthy family, enjoy endless wealth and glory, and live the same life as my cousin, wouldn't it be better than waiting for my cousin to give her some money?

Zhan Wei was the one who led Yangtai out of trouble and got half of Yangtai's shares. With his personal assets, he is definitely a wealthy family, mainly because he is very handsome.

Mrs. Chang, this cousin, fell in love with Zhan Wei the first time she saw him, and she still can't forget him for all these years.

She doesn't know Zhan Wei's true identity yet.

Mrs. Chang didn't tell her family about Zhan Wei's true identity because she was worried that her cousin would not be able to let go after knowing it.

The Chang family was not a wealthy family in the beginning, and even now it cannot be considered a wealthy family. In the eyes of many people, the Chang family is a nouveau riche and cannot be compared with the real wealthy family with a solid foundation like the Lan family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4887

Sister, why isn't my brother-in-law coming home for lunch?"

Mrs. Chang's cousin asked her.

"Doesn't my brother-in-law usually have to go back to the company? Why is he going back now? Is Zhan Wei ignoring company matters?"

Mrs. Chang's other relatives from her mother's side also looked at her.

Mrs. Chang had just finished preparing dinner for everyone.

She set down two fruit plates filled with the fruit she had cut for everyone.

Her cousin glanced at the two plates of fruit and said with a hint of disdain, "Sister, your family is so rich, why don't you hire a few more servants so you can have some free time?"

"Our family is so rich, and the fruit they eat is so ordinary. Why don't you buy some more expensive fruit and come back to eat it?"

Having lived through hard times, Mrs. Chang certainly didn't have the extravagant spending habits of the wealthy wives.

Chang Xiao was usually home, and the couple took care of the children together. Mrs. Chang wasn't tired at all. Now that the children were grown, her life was actually quite leisurely. She hired a part-time housekeeper to clean the house regularly.

Occasionally, she would clean and tidy up the house herself.

The food and drinks at home are not bad, but generally speaking, they are no different from those of ordinary families.

"These seasonal fruits are delicious. Expensive ones don't necessarily mean good ones. I still like to eat seasonal fruits. Each season is different."

Mrs. Chang complained in her heart: "My uncle's family is not well off, but this cousin is so arrogant.

Her family is so rich, but she doesn't have that kind of mentality."

"After all, the company was founded by your brother-in-law. As the founder, what's so strange about him occasionally going back to work at the company?"

"You're idle at home anyway, so you might as well go back to the company and do something to pass the time. Zhan Wei has been busy dealing with his life events recently, and he is still in charge of the company's affairs. I just asked your brother-in-law to go back and take a look."

Hearing this, her cousin hurriedly asked: “Is Zhan Wei getting married? Who is his girlfriend?”

“He is so handsome, and his girlfriend is not worthy of him unless she is a fairy. Sister, you didn’t want to help me at the beginning

. If you had helped me, maybe I would have married Zhan Wei.” Mrs. Chang put away her smile and said in a cold voice: “Xiao Ru, Zhan Wei doesn’t like you, not at all. How can I help you? Besides, do you think Zhan Wei is so easy to marry? What is his status, and what is your status?”

Her cousin was unhappy and said: “Sister, what’s wrong with me? I am your sister. Although we are cousins, we are still very close. We are a family.”

“Zhan Wei is just a migrant worker from another province. It was my brother-in-law who thought highly of him and recruited him into Yangtai and entrusted him with important tasks, so that he has room for development. I am the boss’s sister, and he is just a migrant worker. Am I not worthy of him?”

“If he doesn’t like me, I can pursue him and cultivate feelings, but my sister and brother-in-law won’t help me. If he marries someone else

, will he still concentrate on helping Yangtai in the future?” “Otherwise, ask my brother-in-law to take back half of the shares he gifted him. Yangtai shares are valuable now. Half of the shares! You can distribute them to our relatives, so we won’t live in poverty.”

The other relatives didn’t say anything, and they were thinking the same thing as Xiaoru.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4888

Everyone thought Chang Xiao’s gift of half of Yangtai’s shares to Zhan Wei was too generous. Zhan Wei was capable, but he was still just an employee. It would have been much better for Chang Xiao to divide his half equally among his relatives; after all, they were all family.

Zhan Wei was just an outsider. Even if he wasn’t given shares, he was earning a high salary. How could he dare not work?

If he didn’t work, he could be fired. Yangtai was now stable and could operate without Zhan Wei.

But Chang Xiao and his wife trusted Zhan Wei so much, treating him better than their relatives. Remember, when Chang Xiao founded Yangtai, his relatives borrowed 3,000 to 5,000 yuan, and some even borrowed 10,000 yuan.

Then, when Yangtai became successful, Chang Xiao gave half of his shares to Zhan Wei, an employee, for free, making Zhan Wei suddenly a multi-millionaire.

“Zhan Wei is not a wage earner. He is the seventh young master of the Zhan family, the richest family in Wancheng. He is a child of destiny who was born with a silver spoon in his mouth. The Zhan family is a multi-billionaire family. As for multi-billionaire family, even our Lan family cannot compare to the Zhan family.”

“Zhan Wei just wanted to prove himself, so he came to Yangcheng to find a job. He also has his own company in Wancheng, but those businesses are more or less related to his family business.”

“He always felt that his success in Wancheng was inseparable from the support of his family, so he ran to Yangcheng to prove his ability.”

“Zhan Wei’s girlfriend is Romina (Lan Ruoruo) of the Lan Group, the eldest daughter of the Lan family. They are a perfect match, a match made in heaven, how can we Cinderellas be worthy of them.”

Everyone was stunned.

Zhan Wei is not an ordinary wage earner.

He is actually the seventh young master of a multi-billionaire family.

“Sister, you made me miss the opportunity to marry into a multi-billionaire family!”

When Xiaoru came to her senses, she actually yelled, blaming Mrs. Chang for denying her the chance to marry into a multi-billionaire family.

Mrs. Chang’s expression turned cold.

A relative beside Xiaoru quickly tugged at her, reminding her not to offend Mrs. Chang.

“What do you mean by I harmed you? Zhan Wei doesn’t like you and doesn’t even look at you. You pester him and keep pestering him. If it wasn’t for your brother-in-law’s face, do you think you can still sit here and blame me?”

“Those high-ranking young masters are not easy to mess with. If you piss them off, you don’t even know how you died.”

“Besides, it’s not so easy to enter a wealthy family. People pay attention to being well-matched. Do you think everyone can be a Cinderella? Even Cinderella’s family background is not low. Cinderella is only bullied because she has no mother to protect her.”

“If we hadn’t stopped you, I’m afraid you wouldn’t even be able to beg for food now, and you might even die unclearly. You have the nerve to blame me, but you don’t even look at your own conditions. What qualifications do you have to marry a young master of a trillion-dollar family?” “You have no education, no looks, no ability, and no family background. It’s good enough for you to marry a slightly better man, but you still covet Zhan Wei.”

Mrs. Chang was also very angry with this cousin. She spoke without mercy, and every word was like a knife stabbing her cousin.

“I think your sister is rich now, and she looks down on us poor relatives. We helped you so much in the past and lent you so much money. Now that you are living a good life, you can’t stand me marrying into a rich family and don’t help me.”

Mrs. Chang sneered: “How much money did your family lend me in the past? How much have I paid back with interest in these years? I gave your parents tens of thousands of yuan during the holidays.”

“Isn’t it enough for me to pay back? I have paid back so much, but it has fostered your greed. You don’t know your place. Xiaoru, I tell you, from now on, I will no longer care about your affairs. Don’t call me when you have no money.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4889

“I don’t owe you anything!”

It was her uncle who lent her the money, not her cousin. In the past few years, she also helped her cousins from her mother's side a lot, and gave them a lot of money. She was too grateful for the favors and raised a bunch of ungrateful people!

"Sister, I... I just complained, I didn't really blame you for not helping me."

When Xiaoru heard Mrs. Chang say that she would never help her again, her arrogance immediately subsided.

"Sister, I was impulsive just now. It's my fault. I shouldn't have said that to you. Sister, we are sisters. Although we are not biological sisters, we have the same grandparents and are very close by blood."

"Even if our bones are broken, we are still connected by tendons. You can't just ignore me."

Xiaoru sat next to Mrs. Chang and took her arm affectionately.

Mrs. Chang forcefully pried her hand away and said coldly, "Xiao Ru, you're not a child anymore. You don't work every day and just sit around and rely on your parents. Your parents are old, and the money they earn from odd jobs isn't enough for you to support them."

"If you want to spend money, go earn it yourself. None of us owes you anything, and we have no obligation to be your ATM."

"You're not welcome in my house anymore!" Mrs.

Chang had long been dissatisfied with her cousin. She had helped so much, but her cousin still felt she owed her.

Yangtai had been built on Zhan Wei's strength. Her relatives from her mother's side were unable to help her, but seeing Yangtai's success, they came to her one after another, asking to work there. She shamelessly arranged jobs for them.

But they formed cliques, came in late and left early, took advantage of the company, and even tried to squeeze Zhan Wei out and share in his hard work.

Chang Xiao had argued with her several times, but for the sake of her family and her children, Mrs. Chang finally made up her mind and drove all those ambitious relatives back home.

The more honest relatives, those who genuinely wanted a job, didn't make things difficult for her, but she wouldn't arrange for them to work at Yangtai's headquarters anymore.

Mrs. Chang also knew that after that incident, her relatives were quite dissatisfied with her and her husband, and that even giving them money and things couldn't satisfy their greed.

When they were poor, relatives were still relatives.

When she became wealthy, she didn't look down on her poor relatives; instead, she gave them generously. Instead, the affection between relatives disappeared, replaced by calculation and greed.

"Sister..."

Mrs. Chang's expression was icy.

Seeing her like this, Xiaoru also became angry and snatched up her LV bag, a birthday gift from Mrs. Chang.

"If you don't want to come, then don't come. What's the big deal about a few bucks? Wait, I'm going to marry a rich man."

With that, Xiaoru stormed off.

The other relatives felt embarrassed, too. They'd been a bit over the top over the past few years, just as greedy as Xiaoru.

They'd lent Chang Xiao a small amount of money, yet Chang Xiao had paid them back ten, ten, even dozens of times what they'd lent him.

Whenever they faced hardship, as long as they asked for help, Chang Xiao would find a way to help them.

Chang Xiao and his wife truly lived up to the saying, "A drop of water is repaid with a spring of water."

"We, we're going back too."

Unable to sit still, several people stood up and said goodbye.

Mrs. Chang didn't try to stop them, but simply stood up to see them off. She did take the few things she'd prepared for them back home.

They were Yangcheng specialties, not worth much.

After the relatives had left, Mrs. Chang returned to the sofa and sat down, still furious.

She called Chang Xiao.

After Chang Xiao answered, she confided in her husband, complaining about her cousin.

Chang Xiao recalled what Zhan Wei had said to him.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4890

Zhan Wei said that repaying a favor too much would only harm him.

He felt his wife still cared about those relatives and couldn't truly sever ties. So Zhan Wei suggested they pretend that Yang Tai was in trouble and needed money, and then ask those relatives to return the money they had borrowed under the guise of a loan.

See if anyone would repay.

This would also help Mrs. Chang see the true colors of those people and give up on those relatives who only cared about taking advantage of her.

Chang Xiao comforted his wife and shared Zhan Wei's suggestion.

Mrs. Chang was silent for a moment, then said, "Let's talk about it later. They won't believe it now."

"Is Awei and Miss Lan's marriage settled?"

Mrs. Chang asked with concern.

“Not yet, but it will be soon. His elders will be in Yangcheng this afternoon. He won’t be back at the company that afternoon. He’ll be picking up his uncles and aunts at the airport. The two families’ elders will meet to discuss wedding arrangements.”

“We’ll also treat his uncles and aunts to dinner then.”

The couple was deeply grateful to Zhan Wei.

They also valued Zhan Wei’s parents.

It was a rare visit to Yangcheng by their elders, so they had to show their hospitality and treat Zhan Wei’s parents to a meal.

“Of course.”

“Old Chang, I’m worried Xiaoru will go and pester Zhan Wei. Do you think she’ll go crazy?”

Chang laughed and said, “Don’t worry. She couldn’t even get close to Zhan Wei before, let alone now. She can’t even compare to Miss Lan by a hair, so why would she compete with her?”

“Even Mr. Su and others who admire Zhan Wei don’t compete with Miss Lan.”

He knew he couldn’t win.

Their backgrounds and status were not as good as Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and Zhan Wei were the real match.

The main reason was that Zhan Wei loved Romina (Lan Ruoruo).

Mr. Su liked Zhan Wei very much, but after knowing that Zhan Wei loved Romina (Lan Ruoruo), Mr. Su let it go and only talked about business with Yang Tai.

“Just now they said that Zhan Wei was just an employee, and that we gave Zhan Wei too much face. I was so angry that I told him Zhan Wei’s true identity.”

“After our family’s life became better, Xiaoru was always jealous of me. She wanted to marry into a wealthy family and become a lady. For the sake of my uncle and aunt, I don’t want to bother with her.”

“I’m afraid that if she knew that Zhan Wei was the son of a wealthy family worth hundreds of billions, she would go and pester Zhan Wei again, causing trouble for Zhan Wei and Miss Lan.”

Mrs. Chang said, “Don’t worry, Yangtai is not something she can enter whenever she wants.”

“Zhan Wei usually drives to and from places, and the places he goes in and out are not places she can go to casually. Even if she wants to pester him, she has no chance to pester him. She also tasted Zhan Wei’s ruthless methods and suffered countless losses.”

“Unless she is really not afraid of death, that’s her business, we don’t care about her.”

“Uncle and aunt are such good people, how could they raise a daughter like Xiaoru who doesn’t know how to be grateful.” Mrs.

Chang’s uncle and aunt are still good.

Mrs. Chang sighed, “We were wrong, we shouldn’t have repaid them like that.”

“Since Zhan Wei is not returning to the company, you should do more work. This is a major event in his life and should not be taken lightly. We treat him like brothers. At this time, we should help him share the workload so that he can prepare for his wedding with peace of mind.”

Chang Xiao nodded, “I don’t go back to the company to work every day, but my ability is limited and I really can’t do it. Fortunately, Yangtai is stable now, and those management teams were trained by Zhan Wei.”

“With them around, I can still barely cope with it.”

If it were a few years ago, Chang Xiao really didn’t have that ability.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4891

“You should also make sure to rest. Don’t overwork yourself.”

“Don’t worry, I’m taking good care of yourself, honey. I’m taking a nap, even twenty minutes is fine.”

Mrs. Chang was furious with her cousin.

The couple ended the call.

Zhan Wei, the man who had caused the rift between Mrs. Chang and her sister, had already taken Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to Yangcheng Airport to meet his parents.

After three o’clock in the afternoon, Zhan Wei had been calling his mother sporadically.

After finally getting through, the second wife said, “Seventh Brother, the plane just landed. Are you at the airport? Wait a minute, just meet us at the exit.”

“Okay, Mom, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and I will be there. Aren’t you a lot of suitcases?”

“We each brought two suitcases. You and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) came together. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) is so busy. Why bother her and take up her precious time? We can just take a taxi to your place.”

The second wife felt sorry for her future daughter-in-law, feeling that her son was wasting her precious time.

Her time wasn’t as valuable as hers.

“Romina (Lan Ruoruo) brought several bodyguards and drove several cars. It’ll be enough for all your suitcases.”

Zhan Wei automatically ignored his mother’s complaints about him taking up Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s time.

After all, his parents had a daughter-in-law, and their son was sidelined. It was as if the daughter-in-law was their biological child, and the son was a gift for a phone top-up.

Zhan Wei: "...Actually, you can buy a lot of things here. You don't have to bring them all the way here." "Our treasures are out of stock right now, even if we want to."

Zhan Wei fell silent.

His betrothal gift to Romina (Lan Ruoruo) naturally included jewelry. He had bought quite a bit of jewelry in Yangcheng himself. He had started buying it after he fell in love with Romina (Lan Ruoruo). The jewelry his mother had given him was indeed more precious, and his grandmother would probably have given him some as well.

The jewelry in his grandmother's collection was truly valuable.

"Let's not talk about this for now. Mom and Dad should get off the plane first." The second wife hung up the phone without waiting for her son to reply

. The couple, along with Tang Qunye and the others, all got off the plane.

Twenty minutes later. "Dad, Mom, Uncle, we're here." Zhan Wei saw his parents and the others and waved and called out. Many people looked at him. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said to him jokingly, "You should come with a big sign, hold it high, and use a loudspeaker so your parents can hear you." "We came in such a hurry, we weren't prepared," Romina (Lan Ruoruo) laughed. After the elders came out, Zhan Wei hurried forward to take the two suitcases from Tang Junye and his mother. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) wanted to help, but the Second Madam quickly stopped her, saying, "Romina (Lan Ruoruo), you don't have to carry it. Let Zhan Wei do it. He's very strong." "It's okay." Romina (Lan Ruoruo) took a suitcase from the Second Madam and another from the Third Madam. The bodyguards she brought with her took the suitcases from the others. The Second Madam looked at Romina (Lan Ruoruo) as if she were her darling, her smile blooming like a flower.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4892

"Romina (Lan Ruoruo), thank you so much for coming to pick us up."

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) smiled. “Auntie, it’s only right. Zhan Wei didn’t tell me in advance, so I didn’t know my uncle and aunt were arriving this afternoon. If I had known, I would have made arrangements earlier.”

“Awei also notified us at the last minute, so we rushed over. It’s okay, Awei is here. I feel bad for taking up your time.”

“You’re so busy, and Awei still asked you to come? I just told him on the phone.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) smiled. “I just told my brother. I can leave at any time. Auntie, I will definitely come to pick you up at the airport.”

“Auntie, did you bring so many things?”

The second wife replied. “Not many, not much. It’s a little far. If it were closer, I could bring more.”

“I prepared some gifts for you and your family.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said, “Auntie, you’re so polite. You’re here as long as you can. You don’t have to buy gifts. Don’t spend money in the future.”

The future mother-in-law and daughter-in-law chatted happily.

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) did not ignore Tang Junye and the third wife, and would talk to them from time to time.

Zhan Wei’s father and his three brothers were quiet around the younger generation. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) greeted the three elders and chatted briefly, then Zhan Wei and his father and uncles walked and chatted.

“Auntie, why didn’t you bring Bao Bao and Bei Bei here?”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said to Tang Junye, “I missed them so much.”

“I wanted to bring them, but the old lady said they were almost done with summer vacation and needed to stay home to focus.”

“That way they wouldn’t have trouble adjusting to school.”

“When school starts, Bao Bao will be in first grade, so he’ll be an elementary student.”

Tang Junye’s eyes softened at the mention of her grandchildren.

They were her treasures. Then there’s Zhan Chi, Zhan Yuan and Ouyang Ya’s son, who’ll be attending kindergarten in September.

“Baby must be very bright,”

Tang Junye said. “His parents were both top students in school, so he and his sister shouldn’t be far behind. But it’s hard to say. So many parents with top academic scores have children who are poor students.”

Even so, Tang Junye was confident that her grandchildren wouldn’t be poor students.

Just look at their baby’s current intelligence.

By the time they started kindergarten, they knew a lot of words, were quick with numbers, and had a good memory. They’d also started practicing martial arts to strengthen their bodies, and had also begun studying the arts of music, chess, poetry, and painting. The Zhan family’s children needed well-rounded development.

“Look at how smart Bao Bao and Bei Bei are, they can’t be poor students. Is Bei Bei talking a lot?”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) had recently gone to Wancheng with Zhan Wei, staying at Youyou Villa for a few days.

It hadn’t been long since they’d returned to Yangcheng, but it felt like a long time had passed. She wondered if that adorable little girl would be able to talk a lot again.

Whenever Beibei called her “Auntie” in her soft voice, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) felt her heart melt.

“The child changes every day. Beibei can speak more now. She used to only be able to say two words, but now she can say longer sentences. But she’s getting more and more naughty. When she grows up a little, I’m afraid she’ll be able to get out of control.”

“Her grandmother dotes on her, and her mother always says that if everyone dotes on her like that, she’ll get spoiled.”

Serenity loves her child, but she doesn’t overindulge.

Now, she is the one who disciplines the children most normally in the family and doesn’t overindulge.

Even Zachary can’t bear to dote on his precious daughter, and he just pampers her blindly.

Tang Junye believes that his family tradition is good, and the child is still young, so a little pampering won’t spoil her, and his daughter-in-law is strict with the child’s discipline. As grandparents, they don’t focus on education, they just love their children.

Education is the responsibility of their sons and daughters-in-law as parents.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4893

Zhan Wei said, “You talk as if Auntie doesn’t dote on Beibei. You, as a family, dote on her. We dote on her, but we also discipline her when necessary. We won’t spoil Beibei.”

He hoped his niece would live as carefree as her cousin Shang Xiaofei.

Tang Junye smiled and said, “Of course. Your eldest brother and his wife know their limits. As long as they discipline the children, we won’t stop them.”

So far, her grandchildren have been very sensible.

The granddaughter is the envy of everyone. She is still young and just a little spoiled.

The group went to the airport parking lot.

The six elders got into Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s cars respectively, and the Lan family’s bodyguards were in charge of loading the things.

On the way, the second wife received a call from Mrs. Lan.

“In-laws,”

the second wife called warmly.

The elders of the two families had been getting along as in-laws for a long time.

“My dear relatives, have you arrived in Yangcheng? Have Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and Zhan Wei picked you up? We also wanted to go to the airport to pick you up, but Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said that it was not necessary and that she and Zhan Wei would go.”

“We are on the way. There is no need to trouble my dear relatives. Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) can come to pick you up. I even asked Zhan Wei why he asked Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to come too. Romina (Lan Ruoruo) is so busy. He could have just called two more cars and asked Romina (Lan Ruoruo) to come too.”

Mrs. Lan said, “Since you are here, I must go to pick you up at the airport. No matter how busy I am, it is not as important as picking you up.” “My dear relatives, after you get home, take a rest and come to eat. I have asked the kitchen to prepare dinner to welcome you.”

Grandpa Lan also notified the rest of the family to come to the mansion for dinner tonight.

The second wife smiled and said, “My dear relatives, you are too polite. That would be too much trouble for you.”

“We’re all going to be a family, why are you still being so polite? Don’t be polite to us, just treat us like you’re at home. Didn’t you treat us so warmly when we went to Wancheng?”

The second wife smiled and said, “Then we won’t be polite. We’ll go over for dinner later.”

“Okay, I’ll wait for you at home.”

The two mothers chatted on the phone for a while before ending the call. The second wife said to her son, “Awei, we’re going to the Lan family for dinner tonight. Bring the gift for meeting you first. You can prepare the betrothal gifts for Romina (Lan Ruoruo) and send them over on the day that your grandmother has someone choose for you.” The old lady had already asked someone to choose a good day.

“Okay, it’s not too late to give the betrothal gifts after the two families have agreed on the wedding date. Don’t rush. Prepare well. I’m only getting married once, and I can’t let my wife down.”

The second wife smiled, “How could I possibly let her down? Mom treats all three daughters-in-law the same. Mom, Dad, and your grandmother all gave the same gifts, no one was favored.”

“Your uncles and aunts have given some too. We, the elders, treat the younger generation equally. How much more you want to give is up to you. It’s up to your wallet and your heart.”

The boys had plenty of money, and they were very generous to their future wives.

Who gave less betrothal gifts when they got married? All of them gave exorbitant gifts.

“Thank you, uncles, and aunt and aunt.”

“Grandma also gave me so many gifts. She gave something for each granddaughter-in-law she married. I’m afraid her private treasury is empty. She even said she wanted some for Beibei’s dowry.”

Zhan Wei didn’t want the elders’ gifts, but since they gave them, he accepted them.

He really didn’t know how many good things grandma had.

Maybe even his eldest brother didn’t know, the old lady had accumulated countless treasures over her lifetime.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4894

“We elders treat everyone equally. Grandma gave gifts to your sisters-in-law when they came into the family, and she’ll definitely give gifts to Romina (Lan Ruoruo) too. Your grandma has so many treasures, she knows it all.”

“What’s given to the granddaughter-in-law is hers, and what’s given to Beibei is Beibei’s. Don’t worry, Beibei’s dowry won’t be used.”

It will be another twenty years until Beibei grows up and gets married.

Besides, Beibei is the only girl in the Zhan family. When Beibei gets married, she won’t have to worry about a dowry. Her uncles and aunts will prepare a generous dowry for her, not to mention her parents and grandparents.

“By the way, call your grandma first, so she won’t worry.”

The second wife and the others got off the plane and got into the car, but they hadn’t called back to report their safety yet.

She immediately called her mother-in-law, and the old lady quickly answered her call.

“Mom, we’ve arrived in Yangcheng. Old Seven has picked us up. Let’s go back to Old Seven’s house now,” the second wife said loudly to the old lady. With her age, the old lady’s hearing hadn’t improved, so she had to speak louder on the phone so she could hear clearly.

“Oh, we’re here,”

the old lady said, watching the children play. “You two have a good rest. I’m hanging up now,” the second wife said. After the old lady hung up, she said to her husband, “Mom must be watching over the little ones.”

“Whenever she’s with the little ones, she’s too impatient to talk to us,”

Zhan Wei laughed. “Ever since the baby was born, Grandma has only her great-grandchildren in her eyes. Not to mention Mom and Dad, even us, her once beloved grandchildren, have to step aside.”

Everyone laughed.

Two hours later, they returned to Zhan Wei’s home in Yangcheng.

The housekeeper had already tidied the house.

The second wife, after examining her son’s villa, said, “It’s not big enough. You should buy another, larger one, at least one bigger than this one, as your wedding house for you and Romina (Lan Ruoruo).”

“I’m looking at houses, but I haven’t found one suitable yet.”

Even without her mother’s reminder, Zhan Wei would have bought another large villa for his and Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s wedding.

Overhearing the mother and son’s comments, Romina (Lan Ruoruo) said, “Auntie, Zhan Wei’s villa is quite large. It has a front and back yard, and it has the largest area in this villa complex.”

“This one is quite nice, too,”

she said, undeterred.

Zhan Wei had spent a considerable amount on the house. At the time, she had no idea he was the son of a multi-billionaire family.

When she learned he’d bought such a large villa, she assumed he’d used all the money he’d received from Yang Tai to finance it.

Now she realized that buying such a villa was as simple as eating for Zhan Wei, a perfectly normal thing. With his wealth, he could afford many large villas.

“You two definitely need to buy a new house for your wedding, something bigger. This one is fine now, but it’s not big enough. When you have kids, you’ll think it’s too small.”

“A big house is enough so the children can run around and have fun at home. It would be best if we had space to build a playground for them, like our old house.”

Romina (Lan Ruoruo) laughed. “Auntie, your old house is a villa. It’s incomparable.”

“We in Yangcheng probably can’t afford such a large place to build a villa. Our old Lan family house is already very large in our circle.”

In Yangcheng’s upper class, the Lan family mansion is indeed the largest house. No one in Yangcheng has a villa like Youyou Villa.

The Zhan family built theirs fifty or sixty years ago, and with repeated renovations from generation to generation, it would be difficult for them to build such a large villa now.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4895

After putting down his things and taking a short rest, Zhan Wei took the elders and Romina (Lan Ruoruo) back to the Lan family.

Zhan Wei and Romina (Lan Ruoruo)’s relationship was set, and they were just waiting for the wedding.

Lao Ba Zhan Yue didn’t dare to confess his feelings yet.

After he rested for half a month, the white scarf wrapped around his hands was finally removed, and the injuries on his hands were all healed.

However, his working hours were still reduced. He told his eldest brother that his new house in Wansheng Garden needed to be renovated, and he often had to go to the building materials market to buy materials, so he didn’t have much time to go back to the company.

Zachary knew that Lao Ba’s real purpose was to get close to Zeng Xiaoya, so he reduced Lao Ba’s workload, allowing him to work when he wanted to and leave when he wanted to, so he had a lot more free time.

Summer vacation is over.

The children have all started school.

Only Bei Bei is still young and has not yet started kindergarten, so he can still stay at home with the old lady.

The other children have started kindergarten and don't go back to the old house on weekdays. They only go back to the old house to accompany the old lady on weekends.

The bustling Youyou Villa had regained its tranquility after the start of school. The old lady hated quiet the most and kept clamoring to live in the city so that she could be with her great-grandchildren.

Zachary took the old lady to his own home so that the couple wouldn't have to go back to the old house after work. There was no other way, as their daughter was accompanying the old lady at the villa, and the couple couldn't bear to leave their daughter, so they had to go back to the old house every day.

Bringing the old lady to live in the city was much more convenient; it was only a ten-minute drive from home to the company.

The villa owned by Zachary was also large enough for the old lady and Beibei, two ancestors, to take a walk.

One day, after Beibei fell asleep, the old lady asked the housekeeper to drive her to Wansheng Garden.

She heard that the eighth son hadn't returned to the company today and had gone to Wansheng Garden to watch the decorators work on the house.

The housekeeper said a little embarrassedly, "If the old lady wants to go out, she must ask the eldest young master or the eldest young mistress. Only after the eldest young master agrees can I dare to send her there."

"I told A-Yin, and he definitely won't let me go out. He only allows me to wander around the villa area. I know this place like crazy, so what's there to see?"

"Don't worry, I'm in good health. My family doctor comes to check on me every once in a while. I have a few old age ailments, but I'm taking the medicine Xiao Cheng prescribed for me. She's a miracle doctor."

"Her medicine is much better than what regular doctors prescribe."

"I think I can drive myself, it's just you guys who won't let me."

The old lady was a little angry that the housekeeper didn't listen to her, but mainly because her eldest grandson was controlling her so tightly.

She had a large family, and they were all very filial to her. She knew they didn't let her run around because they were worried about her health.

But they couldn't treat her like a patient; she was just old.

"Old Madam, we still have to ask the eldest young master for permission."

The housekeeper insisted before taking the old lady to Wansheng Garden.

The drive from here to Wansheng Garden took more than ten minutes, and in traffic, it would take more than twenty.

"Don't ask him, I'll call Tongtong."

The old lady felt that the eldest grandson was difficult to talk to, and the grandson's wife was easier to talk to.

The housekeeper smiled and said, "Old Madam, call the eldest young lady. If she agrees, I will drive you there."

At home, the eldest young lady's words still counted.

The eldest young master was a doting maniac, and whatever his wife said was his.

Outside, the eldest son was the master of the world, the mighty warrior who could call the shots and shake the entire Wancheng business world with a single stomp of his foot.

The old lady immediately called Serenity.

When she answered, she said, "Tongtong, Grandma's so bored at home. Beibei's asleep, and I'm even more bored."

Serenity smiled. "Grandma, you want to go out? Where?" Serenity knew what the old lady was thinking.

The old lady smiled back. "My granddaughter-in-law really understands me. Tongtong knew the moment I opened her mouth that Grandma wanted to go out. She's bored at home."

"Grandma isn't going far. She's just going to Wansheng Garden to see the new house that Old Eight bought. He's so particular about it, he even went to the building materials market himself to buy the materials. Grandma was curious and wanted to go take a look."

"Many of the shops on Wansheng Street are also ours, right? I'm stopping by to take a look at the ones I bought earlier."

She would buy them, hand them over to her daughter-in-law to manage and collect the rent, and then pass them down to Tongtong.

As long as her descendants were successful, the shops would continue to be passed down.

Serenity smiled and said, "Is Lao Ba over there now?"

"Anyway, he didn't go back to the company today. I know that if he is not in the company, he must have gone to see the decoration."

"There must be something wrong with the abnormality. There must be something strange about Lao Ba's house. Lao Jiu has muttered to me more than once, saying that he, the eight brother, attaches great importance to that house. Lao Jiu said that he looked around, but couldn't see any difference there."

"Grandma wants to go over and take a look, so I'll ask the housekeeper to drive her over. Grandma, don't play outside for too long. If Beibei wakes up and can't find grandma, she will cry again."

The old lady assured, "I'll be out for an hour, at most two hours. Beibei has played for so long and must be tired. She can sleep for two hours."

"Don't worry, I promise to be back home when Beibei wakes up."

"Then tell the housekeeper. He won't take me there without your and A Yin's consent," the old lady complained. She, an old lady, was now a mascot, confined to the family home. Any movement required the permission of her eldest grandson.

Even if the other grandchildren wanted to take her home for a short stay, they needed A Yin's approval.

"Okay,"

Serenity readily agreed, and the old lady handed the housekeeper her phone. Only after receiving Serenity's approval did the housekeeper dare to escort the old lady out.

Even so, they still brought the family's emergency medicine kit with them, fearing any emergency, and accompanied two bodyguards to ensure her safety.

Zhan Yue had no idea his grandmother had gone to see his house.

He hadn't returned to the office today because Zeng Xiaoya was on vacation. Upon learning this, Zhan Yue immediately told his eldest brother he needed to buy materials and wouldn't be back.

Then he ran over to ask Master Tang, the renovator, what materials he needed.

There was quite a bit, so he shamelessly asked Zeng Xiaoya to take him to the building materials market.

When he received the call from his grandmother, he and Zeng Xiaoya had just returned from the building materials market and had not yet returned to Wansheng.

"Grandma, what did you say? You are at the gate of Wansheng Garden?"

Hearing that his grandmother had arrived at Wansheng Garden, Zhan Yue called out softly, "Grandma, why are you here? Does my brother know you are out? Don't run around everywhere. You are old. If anything happens, my brother will scold you to death."

The old lady replied, "Your sister-in-law knew I was out. It was Tongtong who arranged for the housekeeper to drive me here."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4897

“Grandma hasn’t come to see your new house yet. Now Beibei is asleep, and I’m bored, so I came to take a look. Old Nine always says he can’t see why you value your new house so much, and he’s too young to see.”

Zhan Yue cursed his ninth brother in his heart.

What’s that kid always mumbling about to Grandma? I told him to buy a house, but he won’t.

And he likes to mutter to Grandma again.

Don’t you know that Grandma is the one who likes to gossip the most?

Grandma, although old, is still very shrewd. After Grandma comes over twice, she’ll find out that he has other intentions.

“I’m out buying materials and will be back in about ten minutes. Grandma, please wait for me at the door.”

Zhan Yue said, “My hand was injured at that time, and I couldn’t work, so I thought about taking charge of the decoration myself. What’s the difference? It’s just a large flat.”

The old lady said, “I don’t care what kind of house it is. I’m bored, so I came over to take a look and kill some time.”

“Okay, then grandma will wait for you at the gate of Wansheng Garden.”

“Okay.”

The old lady hung up the phone and said to the housekeeper beside her, “Old Eight is a little nervous. I came here suddenly to see his house, and he seemed a little panicked. There

’s probably something wrong.” The housekeeper smiled and said, “Old Madam, you think too much. Young Master Eight is just in charge of the decoration himself. What’s the problem?”

“I don’t know what the problem is yet. I’ll know after I’ve seen it and come a few more times. I brought up these guys, and I know them very well. As long as they get cocky, I know what they want to do.”

The housekeeper could only smile.

Zhan Yue on the other side said to Zeng Xiaoya after her grandmother hung up the phone: “Doctor Zeng, my grandmother is here to visit my house. I’m afraid she will misunderstand, so let me take you home first.”

“Is the old lady here? Can you introduce me to the old lady formally?”

Zeng Xiaoya was very interested in the old lady of the Zhan family and wanted to see her again.

She also knew that the old lady and the apprentice of the miracle doctor were old acquaintances.

Zeng Xiaoya really wanted to meet Doctor Cheng. Doctor Cheng was only a few years older than her, maybe ten years, but his medical skills were superb and he was known as a miracle doctor.

He came and went without a trace, so most people couldn’t get Doctor Cheng to see them.

But compared to the old miracle doctor, Doctor Cheng was still easy to see. The old miracle doctor was the one who was hard to find. Moreover, the old miracle doctor was very selective in his patients and was too lazy to treat ordinary diseases.

The old man liked to challenge those difficult and complicated diseases.

Doctor Cheng would treat any patient who was invited and had time, without being picky about the patient or the disease.

But Doctor Cheng was too busy and married into a wealthy family, so it was difficult for ordinary people to see her, let alone make friends with her.

Zhan Yue smiled and said, “It’s not that I can’t, but if I take you there, my grandma will think too much and think you are my girlfriend. She doesn’t care about things now, and she just says she is bored all day long, and then stares at us two or three unmarried grandchildren.”

“Whenever there is a woman around us, even a female mosquito, grandma will think too much.”

“Doctor Zeng is young and has no boyfriend. If you appear in front of grandma with me, grandma will definitely treat you as her granddaughter-in-law. I’m just afraid of misunderstanding.”

Zeng Xiaoya: “...Your grandma is also afraid that you can’t get married, so she keeps staring at you unmarried people.”

“She’s not afraid that we can’t get married, but she’s afraid that we don’t want to get married. None of us brothers can escape the palm of grandma’s hand. We are all urged by grandma to go on blind dates or chase wives.”

Zeng Xiaoya chuckled, “It’s understandable and normal. Maybe the elders in our country are all the same.”

“My parents are so busy. Whenever they think of me, they always nag me and tell me to date the right person.”

Zeng Xiaoya said, “I’ve been hurt in love, but I’ve gotten over it now. However, I don’t want to start a new relationship too soon. I’ll consider it when my work becomes more stable.”

She had no romantic feelings for the male classmate who pursued her, so after she rejected him openly, he also gave up.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4898

He hasn’t been around her lately.

But Senior Lin still refuses to give up and keeps pestering her.

She works the night shift, and every morning Senior Lin waits for her at the hospital gate after work, wanting to take her to breakfast.

She changes shifts and works the day shift, but Senior Lin still waits for her at the hospital gate every day, wanting to take her to the movies or go shopping with her.

Despite being clearly rejected several times, Senior Lin just won’t give up.

Senior Lin said that he has liked her for several years and he can't let her go, and asked her to give him a chance.

Alas, being liked by others can sometimes be a hassle.

She really doesn't have a crush on Senior Lin, and it's not just that she thinks his family will be a burden.

If she loves Senior Lin, even if his family background is quite troublesome, she has the ability to solve it and won't let the Lin family take advantage of him all the time.

The main reason is that she doesn't love him. If she doesn't love him, then she doesn't love him.

No matter what Senior Lin does for her or how good he treats her, she will not fall in love with him.

"Yes, don't worry, take your time, and you'll always meet a good man who's right for you. There are still many good men in the world."

"Don't beat our men to death with a bamboo stick just because of a broken heart."

Zeng Xiaoya looked at him and smiled, "Don't worry, I won't kill you no matter who I beat to death. The men in your Zhan family are famous for their loyalty."

Zhan Yue breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, she didn't hate him.

He has a better chance than Lin Jian.

The time they have known each other, totaling less than two months, is not enough. He still doesn't dare to confess his feelings, and it can be seen that Zeng Xiaoya has no feelings for him.

Others always say that the men of the Zhan family can pursue a girl with just a flick of the finger. The girl will rush to her.

Wrong.

It is difficult for them to pursue the girls they really like.

They are all very rational people, not crazy about girls, and will not be moved by his family background.

He still has to be sincere and do his best to win their hearts.

None of his brothers spent a year or two chasing their wives.

Zhan Yue is not in a hurry.

Seventh brother is not married yet. It's just that the proposal was successful, and the elders in the family went to Yangcheng for half a month and haven't come back yet.

It is said that the betrothal gift that Seventh brother gave to Seventh sister-in-law is not ready yet.

"If Dr. Zeng isn't afraid of my grandma misunderstanding you, then I'll introduce my grandma to Dr. Zeng."

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, "I'll just explain it to the old lady. She's seen you before. She went to the hospital to see you, but we never got to meet up close and have a proper conversation."

Zhan Yue grumbled inwardly. Grandma wouldn't believe Zeng Xiaoya's explanation.

As long as she saw her get out of his car, she'd understand what he meant by her. He was really worried that his grandma's enthusiasm would scare Zeng Xiaoya.
