Chapter 4899

“In that case, let’s go back to Wansheng Garden together.”

He told her, and she still chose to see grandma, so let’s meet.

Grandma will know sooner or later.

Grandma is such a shrewd person, he can’t hide it for long.

Look, because he is in charge of the decoration, grandma is suspicious, unlike Lao Jiu who can only mutter and think about it no matter how hard he tries, and really thinks that Wansheng Garden is very good.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, “Your grandma should not be as scary as you say. I saw her from a distance last time and I thought she was very kind.”

“My grandma is very kind, but she is an old child, an old child, you know, when people get old, they are like children.”

Zeng Xiaoya smiled, “That’s right.”

As they spoke, they quickly returned to Wansheng Garden.

Zhan Yue saw two familiar cars. After seeing the license plate numbers clearly, he knew that they were the cars of his eldest brother’s family, and grandma must be in the car.

He parked the car, rolled down the window, and honked the horn. After the driver also rolled down the window, he said to him, “Drive in and park in the parking lot. I’ll tell the security guard.”

“Yes, Eighth Young Master.”

Zhan Yue drove in first, then spoke to the community security guard, who let the two cars in.

After entering the community, Zhan Yue hurried out of the car. He walked quickly to the car where the old lady was sitting and waited. When the driver unlocked the car, he quickly opened the door for the old lady and offered her a hand to support her.

“Grandma, be careful.”

The old lady got out of the car with his help, saying, “Grandma is not old enough to need your help.”

But she was still happy that her grandson was considerate and filial.

She had loved them in vain, and now everyone was filial to her.

“This car is a bit high.”

After helping the old lady out, Zhan Wei said to her grandmother, “Grandma, you suddenly ran over and scared me.”

“What’s there to be scared of? As long as you don’t do anything bad, you don’t have to be afraid of me, unless you’re hiding something from me... Who is this girl?”

The old lady’s eyes lit up when she saw Zeng Xiaoya.

Zeng Xiaoya caught the change in her expression and suddenly understood why Zhan Yue had said that. It seemed the old lady had truly misunderstood.

“Grandma Zhan,”

Zeng Xiaoya said politely as she approached the old lady.

“Who are you?”

the old lady asked with a smile. She had already examined Zeng Xiaoya from head to toe.

This strange girl seemed to have gotten out of Lao Ba’s car, hadn’t she seen clearly? She hadn’t seen it clearly before, so it must have been Lao Ba’s car.

Lao Ba’s girlfriend?

When did this guy start to like someone?

And his family was completely unaware.

“Grandma Zhan, my last name is Zeng. I was Mr. Zhan’s attending physician during his hospitalization.”

The old lady said, “Oh,” and glanced at her grandson. Zhan Yue understood from her eyes.

He explained, “Grandma, after I bought the house, I found out that Dr. Zeng lived downstairs from me. She bought the materials for her house herself and hired the decorator herself, instead of handing it over to a decoration company.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4900

“I figured she had experience with renovations, and since I’d already visited her house, I asked Dr. Zeng to introduce me to a decorator. I also asked Dr. Zeng to take me shopping for materials, since she has experience.”

“I just went with Dr. Zeng to look at materials. I was planning to send Dr. Zeng home before coming back. Oh, there’s a building on Wansheng Street that belongs to her. The first floor is a clinic run by her uncle and aunt.” ”

Dr. Zeng’s house in Wansheng Garden has been renovated, but she hasn’t actually moved in yet.”

The old lady smiled kindly and said, “I see. No wonder it looked unfamiliar to me. So, you’re your new neighbor.”

“Does Dr. Zeng live on Wansheng Street?”

Zeng Xiaoya replied with a smile. “Yes, my grandparents bought the land and built the house, and the whole family lived there. Later, my dad and his family bought another house, but we still like to live here.”

“It’s crowded, lively, and it’s where we lived when we were kids.”

She had a deep affection for it.

“I bought a house in Wansheng Garden so I could go back to our old house and eat.”

She was busy with work and didn’t have much time to cook.

Eating takeout every day wasn’t healthy, so she decided to move back to the old house and enjoy hot meals every day.

“It’s better to be closer to home. You doctors are all so busy, how can you find the time to cook? Eating hot meals at home is so much better than takeout.”

“When our eighth son’s house is finished and he moves in, and Dr. Zeng moves in, you can give us some food money so we can help you with your meals.”

The old lady didn't ask Zeng Xiaoya to eat for free. The eighth son had kept Dr. Zeng's existence a secret from them. Even though they hadn't even started dating, she certainly couldn't let her grandson down.

If Zeng Xiaoya had contributed to the food expenses, she wouldn't have given it a second thought.

Zeng Xiaoya smiled, "That's not necessary. Mr. Zhan is also very busy. How can he come home to cook every day?"

Although Zhan Yue wasn't the head of the Zhan Group, he was the eighth son of the Zhan family. He was so wealthy that he didn't need to cook every day. He would have a chef at home.

Besides, Zeng Xiaoya still likes to eat at home.

The food her aunt cooked was delicious, too.

"Grandma Zhan, it's hot and sunny outside. Let's go upstairs and sit in my new house. Mr. Zhan's house is still under renovation and it's a mess."

The old lady smiled and said, "Okay, I just heard that Old Eight bought a house here. I was bored at home, so I asked someone to send me over to take a look."

"How long did it take to renovate Dr. Zeng's house?"

The group walked forward, chatting as they went.

The housekeeper and bodyguard followed silently.

Zhan Yue could hardly get a word in; it was all Grandma and Zeng Xiaoya talking.

"It's been a while, let's air it out for a while. I don't need a house, so I'm not in a rush."

"When I was renovating, I chose environmentally friendly materials, which will be much better," the old lady said. "Of course, materials must be good and environmentally friendly. It doesn't matter if I spend a little more. After the renovation, it still needs to be ventilated."

"I bought all the materials myself, so I'm more assured."

“Renovation is a complicated matter,” the old lady nodded repeatedly. She tilted her head and said to her grandson, “You should learn from Dr. Zeng and gain his experience. If you don’t understand something, ask him for advice. You haven’t experienced this and are most likely to be ripped off.”

Her grandson was sure he would be good at business.

But she couldn’t guarantee his personal life.

“I’m just asking Dr. Zeng for advice and experience. He even took me to buy the materials.”

“The decorator was the same one who helped her with the renovation. His craftsmanship is truly excellent. I’m very satisfied with the result.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4901

The old lady and her grandson exchanged glances, each understanding the other’s expression.

Ten minutes later, the old lady, with a cursory glance, toured her grandson’s newly purchased house.

Zeng Xiaoya explained that it was still under renovation, a messy mess, nothing much to look at, and the final result was not yet apparent.

The final result would only be apparent after the renovations were completed and a cleaning service was hired.

The group arrived at Zeng Xiaoya’s new home.

Upon entering, the old lady began praising the house’s decor. She could even praise a single sofa.

Her praise came across as genuine, not meant to curry favor.

Zeng Xiaoya washed the kettle and boiled some water.

“I don’t usually stay here, so I don’t have any water. I have to boil some now.”

“It’s okay, we’re not thirsty,”

the old lady smiled. While Zeng Xiaoya wasn’t looking, she subtly patted Zhan Yue and whispered, “Isn’t this interesting?”

Zhan Yue, knowing his grandmother had arrived and couldn’t hide it anymore, nodded obediently.

Then she quickly whispered, “Grandma, I haven’t confessed yet, don’t scare her.”

“Grandma can see it, don’t worry, grandma won’t hold you back. You kid, no wonder you want to buy a house here and even watch the decoration in person, it turns out you are just jealous.”

It was just that Laojiu was too young to see the tricks his family’s starling was up to.

Ayin and the others probably knew it.

“This child is blessed, it’s so comfortable to look at, grandma likes it.”

Zhan Yue chuckled softly, “Don’t you see who chose her? I fell in love with her at first sight.”

The old lady patted him twice.

Now she finally understood the real reason why Lao Ba had stayed in the hospital for so long.

It was all for Dr. Zeng.

She also wanted a grandson’s wife who was a doctor.

The old lady didn’t even need to inquire about Zeng Xiaoya’s family background, Lao Ba would definitely have found out.

Looking at Zeng Xiaoya’s qualities, it was obvious that her family was well-off.

As long as her family background was clean and her character was good, the Zhan family would not be dissatisfied.

With the Zhan family's current wealth and status, there was no need to arrange marriages to consolidate their position. Just let the children like it. She still trusted their judgment in the grandson she would raise.

Zeng Xiaoya poured the old lady a cup of boiling water and then brewed a pot of tea.

The tea was poured for Zhan Wei, the housekeeper and the bodyguards.

The old lady was old, so they didn't give her tea anymore, for fear of disturbing her sleep at night.

This detail made the old lady very satisfied.

After chatting politely for a while, the old lady became more familiar with her, and Zeng Xiaoya gradually relaxed, and the topic of conversation became a little more in-depth.

"Grandma Zhan, I heard that you know the old genius doctor and his apprentices. I wonder if you could introduce them to me. We medical students all regard them as idols."

"Grandma Zhan, I'm sorry, I really want to meet the old genius doctor and his apprentices, so I took the liberty to tell you this."

The old lady smiled and said, "I understand. It's not just you medical students who want to meet them. Even ordinary people, as long as they have heard of the name of the genius doctor, want to make friends with them."

"The old genius doctor is now retired and enjoying his old age. He only cares about enjoying his grandchildren and usually no longer sees patients."

Married at First Sight Chapter 4902

"Lingling has taken over her master's responsibilities. She's much more approachable than her master, at least not picky about patients or conditions. It's just that she's so busy that it's still hard for ordinary people to see her." "

If you want to get to know Lingling, there will be plenty of opportunities in the future. She comes to my house every now and then for a few days, and she's very close to my grandchildren's wives."

"When she comes, I'll have Old Eight tell you. Just go home with Old Eight."

Zeng Xiaoya didn't think twice and gratefully thanked the old lady. Despite her impertinent request, the old lady didn't think she was being rude, and was even willing to help her connect with others whenever she had the chance.

This old lady, rumored to be so powerful, was actually quite approachable. She wasn't as powerful as the rumors made her out to be; she was simply kind and gentle

. Zeng Xiaoya had a good impression of her.

It wasn't just that she was willing to introduce her to Dr. Cheng.

It was that she gave her a kind, bodhisattva-like impression. Talking to her and interacting with her, she easily let down her guard and was willing to tell her everything.

“Lingling is actually very easy to get along with. When you get to know each other better, you can exchange medical skills.”

Zeng Xiaoya smiled. “It's a blessing to have Dr. Cheng's guidance and instruction. I wouldn't dare discuss medical matters with her.”

Although Dr. Cheng was not much older than her, she had been practicing with a divine doctor since childhood. She had more experience than even their director, and her skills were so superb that many doctors admired her.

The old divine doctor was a legendary figure.

If she could get to know Dr. Cheng, and if it was true, as Grandma Zhan said, and they got to know each other better, maybe she could even meet one of her idols.

Her two idols were Cheng Lingling and her apprentice.

“What's the big deal? Lingling was a little aloof at first, but after getting to know her, she became just like any other person. No matter how skilled she is, she's still a human being, a person who lives in the world. Don't be so intimidated that you're afraid to talk to her.”

Zeng Xiaoya smiled.

She thought to herself, Grandma Zhan was the ancestor of the Zhan family, well-acquainted with all those legendary veterans. Dr. Cheng was a junior to Grandma Zhan, so naturally she would be very kind to her, and she wouldn't think he was aloof.

On second thought, I felt that since Grandma Zhan was a person with such good character, the people she made friends with would not be too bad in character either.

She chose to believe the old lady's words, believing that Dr. Cheng was an approachable person.

The old lady sat in Zeng Xiaoya's small home for half an hour.

"Doctor Zeng, my great-granddaughter is sleeping at home. She should be waking up soon. I have to go back. I'm afraid she won't be able to find me when she wakes up and will cry. She's the only one with me now."

She couldn't eat or sleep without seeing her great-granddaughter for a day.

The little one was also very attached to her great-grandmother.

During the summer vacation, the little one would video chat with her every day.

"Grandma Zhan, come visit often when you're free."

"Okay, I'm retired now and at home, so I don't have to deal with anything. I have plenty of free time. Whenever Dr. Zeng is free, I'll come visit and help our eighth son with the renovations."

Zeng Xiaoya said, "I still get a few days off every month."

"When I'm off, I'll have Mr. Zhan go back and get Grandma Zhan. Grandma Zhan is just like my grandma, but my grandma is rarely home, so I have to video chat if I want to see her."

The old lady smiled and said, "Okay, it's settled. Whenever you're off, I'll come over and we can have a good chat. I can also ask Dr. Zeng to take my pulse and check my body."

"When you get old, you always have some issues."

She also wanted to ask Zeng Xiaoya to be her personal doctor.

She hadn't said that yet.

“I don’t have any granddaughters, so I’m always jealous of those who have daughters and granddaughters. I love young girls like you the most. You’re so much better than these brats at home. I get upset just seeing them.”

Zhan Yue: “...”

Grandma, there’s no need to be so disrespectful.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4903

“Grandma, now that you have a great-granddaughter, your wish has come true. Stop looking down on us grandchildren,” the old lady said. “It’s only one great-granddaughter. I want more.”

People are greedy.

Once one wish is fulfilled, they crave more.

Wishes swell, one after another.

Before Beibei, the Zhan family hoped for a daughter. Now that Beibei is here, the family’s daughter-free streak has been broken.

Everyone’s hearts have become a little greedier.

They hope for a few more daughters.

The old lady said, “If each of you brothers has both a son and a daughter, grandma will be able to rest in peace.”

“Bah, that’s great luck, grandma, don’t talk about life and death.”

to do so.” “Medical science is advanced now. Otherwise, we can do IVF and have as many daughters as we want.”

The old lady scolded him, “Why suffer through IVF? You men are fine, but my granddaughter-in-law suffers. She can get pregnant by herself if she can, but she is not allowed to do IVF.”

“What is destined to happen will happen, and if it is not destined, don’t force it.”

“Those who are destined to have daughters will eventually have daughters. Your eldest brother and sister-in-law calculated for them and said they would have both a son and a daughter. Look, now they have Beibei.”

The old lady felt sorry for her granddaughters-in-law, but didn’t want them to do IVF just to have a girl.

Besides, IVF at a regular hospital wouldn’t determine the gender, and it would require a lot of suffering. She didn’t want her granddaughter-in-law to go through that.

Natural pregnancy was the best. If she could have a daughter, then have it.

If not, forget it. Anyway, now that she had Beibei, she had a great-granddaughter. Whether she could have more great-granddaughters, she would just let nature take its course.

Zhan Yue smiled and said, “I was just saying that. I wouldn’t really ask my future wife to do IVF. Of course, I’ll let nature take its course.”

“Even if I can’t have a daughter, I’m content with having Beibei as my niece. At least I have a niece.”

Zeng Xiaoya thought the old lady was very nice. She cared about her granddaughter-in-law and really loved her.

As an outsider, she couldn’t interrupt on such topics, so she just listened.

Zhan Yue noticed her and said to her with a smile: “I’m sorry to make you laugh, Doctor Zeng. My grandmother is partial to girls. She always says that she has no daughters and no granddaughters, and she always looks down on us grandsons.”

“She says that grandsons are not as considerate as granddaughters, and that girls are the cotton-padded jackets, careful, thoughtful and considerate. No matter how considerate we brothers are, it’s not worth mentioning in front of grandma.”

“My grandmother loves my sisters-in-law as her own granddaughters. We grandsons have to stand aside. If my brothers and sisters-in-law have conflicts, my grandmother always stands on the side of my sisters-in-law.”

The old lady said: “You men are rough-hearted. You are not as considerate and filial as granddaughters.”

“My granddaughter-in-law is married into the family. Of course I have to love her more so that she can feel at home.”

“Besides, my granddaughters-in-law are all very good. If there is no granddaughter, I have nine granddaughters-in-law, and it’s the same to love them as granddaughters. Your seventh brother is about to get married, but you and the ninth brother are still single.”

“I hope that in my lifetime, I can gather nine granddaughters-in-law.”

Zeng Xiaoya burst into laughter.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4904

The old lady’s words were hilarious.

Can you summon the Dragon Ball by gathering all nine granddaughters-in-law?

“Grandma Zhan, you’ll live a hundred years! You have such an outstanding grandson, a filial granddaughter-in-law, and now you’re a great-grandmother. You’re the happiest of old people. Happy old people always live a hundred years.”

The old lady said to Zhan Yue, “Listen to what Dr. Zeng said, and then think about what you said. Is it comparable? Girls are just so pleasant to listen to.”

Zhan Yue, looking helpless, said to Zeng Xiaoya, “See, my grandma is blatantly partial. It’s a good thing my eldest sister-in-law gave birth to a great-granddaughter, otherwise she would be even more partial.”

Zeng Xiaoya learned some of the Zhan family's affairs from the director. She knew that the eldest son of the Zhan family had a daughter, and the Zhan family doted on her. To this day, no one has ever taken a frontal photo of the little one.

Not only that little one, but even the younger generation of the Zhan family has been kept from the media. They are well protected by the Zhan family.

But it doesn't affect the children's ability to go out.

It's said that the Zhan family's children only officially appear when they reach adulthood and are ready to enter the business world.

If they are low-key, even if they make an official appearance, many people still don't know what they look like.

For example, when Zhan Yue entered the hospital, who would have thought that he would be the young master of the Zhan family.

If the director hadn't seen the eldest young master of the Zhan family, he wouldn't have guessed Zhan Yue's identity.

Of the nine young masters of the Zhan family, the most famous are the first three. The others are all low-key and rarely reported by the media. People who are not close to the Zhan family don't know or understand the others.

"It's true that girls are more likable. I have cousins, but I like my cousins more."

The old lady said, "That's right. Girls are likable, soft, and very cute. Our little baby is my sweetheart. She should be awake by now. I have to go back quickly."

Zeng Xiaoya and Zhan Yue sent the old lady and her group to the car. At the gate of Wansheng Garden, the two watched the old lady's car drive away.

"Grandma Zhan is very entertaining,"

Zeng Xiaoya said. "She's just like my grandmother, very kind and talkative, without any airs, just like any other old lady."

"Although our families are a little better off, we're still ordinary people, not gods. Don't treat us like we're from another world. We're all from the same world, just ordinary people. No one is a god."

"Your family conditions are just better off, aren't they? Great, okay? I've watched too many TV dramas and read too much about wealthy families online, and I think the wives of wealthy families are always conservative and feudal, and difficult to get along with.” ”

At home, they have the final say and are very domineering. Being the daughter-in-law of a wealthy family is not easy either.”

“Your grandmother is not like she sounds on the phone. I can tell she really loves her granddaughter-in-law. She treats your mother and other daughters-in-law very well, right?”

I’ve never heard of any conflicts between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law in the Zhan family.

When the eldest daughter-in-law of the Zhan family married into the family, Zhan’s biological mother wasn’t very happy, but no matter how unhappy she was, she never bullied her daughter-in-law.

Someone said something bad about the eldest young lady in front of Mrs. Zhan, and she was scolded by Mrs. Zhan.

A mother-in-law who protects her daughter-in-law can’t be too bad.

“No, grandma is very good to my mom and the others, just like her own daughters. My mom and the others are very filial to my grandma, and they get along like mother and daughter and friends, very well.”

“A few years ago, my grandma often took her three daughters-in-law out for travel, leaving her three sons behind.”

Now the old lady is old, and she has the heart but not the energy to run away with her three daughters-in-law.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4905

Zeng Xiaoya smiled and said, “Grandma Zhan is so funny. No wonder everyone says women who marry into your Zhan family are so lucky.”

“Many rich girls want to marry into your Zhan family,”

Zhan Yue smiled. It was true.

“How old is your little niece? She should be just over a year old. I think she was born last year. When your niece was born, your Zhan family gave out so many red envelopes that everyone in Wancheng knew about it.”

Even ordinary people like them had heard about it.

Many people who worked at the Zhan Group said the red envelopes they received were equivalent to their monthly salary, and some even more.

“Well, she’s over a year old and can walk. She doesn’t speak very fluently yet, but she’s growing up. Even after one summer vacation, she can already speak quite a bit.”

“When she’s older, she’ll probably be sharp-tongued and quirky.”

Zhan Yue’s face was filled with tenderness when he mentioned his little niece.

“My nephews are all in school, and now it’s just the little one at home with Grandma. When she falls asleep, Grandma gets bored. She heard I bought a new house, so she came to see me.”

“When she saw you, my grandma misunderstood and secretly asked me if you were my girlfriend.”

Zeng Xiaoya said, “Didn’t I explain it to Grandma Zhan? She still misunderstood.”

“She didn’t quite believe it, but she should believe it now. But my grandma likes you very much. Look, she’s chatting with you and ignores me, her own grandson.”

Zeng Xiaoya smiled. “You are her grandson, you can chat anytime. I’m just a passerby. If we can chat, we’ll chat more.”

The two walked to the Zeng family clinic.

“Xiaoya.”

Lin Jian’s voice suddenly interrupted.

He was carrying an exquisite bag and walking over from the other side of the street.

His car was parked in a parking space on the side of the street.

There were many parking spaces marked on one side of the street for people who came to buy things to park.

Seeing Lin Jian, Zeng Xiaoya's smile faded, and she complained to Zhan Yue in a low voice: "I have rejected Senior Lin several times, but he still doesn't give up."

Zhan Yue said: "If you really like someone, you won't give up easily."

Even if he is Lin Jian, he will not give up easily.

Zeng Xiaoya sighed.

She really doesn't like Senior Lin.

Lin Jian walked in front of the two people, he looked at Zhan Yue twice, and said: "Mr. Zhan is so idle, doesn't he have to go to work? Are you a vagrant?"

"I am quite idle. I go to work when I want to, and I don't work when I don't want to. I'm not a vagrant, I still have a job."

"Are you collecting rent for your cousin's wife?"

In Lin Jian's eyes, Zhan Yue might be a person who relies on his brother and sister-in-law.

"If my cousin's wife needs my help collecting rent, I'm happy to work for her. Anyway, my sister-in-law won't treat me badly. Giving me some rent as pocket money is better than many people going to work."

Lin Jian said sarcastically: "Mr. Zhan, you take it for granted to suck up your sister-in-law. She's just your cousin's wife!"

"My cousin's wife is rich. If I want to suck up her, she will be happy to let me suck up."

Serenity: Yes, I'm rich and can afford to support my brother-in-law, as long as my brother-in-law can withstand his brother's beating.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4906

Lin Jian was about to make a sarcastic remark when Zeng Xiaoya interrupted him, “Senior Lin, don’t you have to stay at the clinic?”

“I’ve seen all the patients who came to see me today. The clinic isn’t busy right now, and Yuehua is watching. I’ll be fine for a while.”

Lin Jian handed the exquisite bag to Zeng Xiaoya and said, “Xiaoya, I bought you a set of skincare products. I heard this brand is very effective and very popular among you women.”

Zeng Xiaoya took a look at the bag. It was indeed a brand of skincare products. This brand’s products were not cheap, with even a small bottle costing hundreds or even thousands of yuan.

Buying a full set would cost thousands or even tens of thousands of yuan.

A girl with an average income wouldn’t be able to afford this brand of skincare products.

“Thank you, Senior Lin, I don’t want them. You can take them back and give them to Yuehua. She’s worked in your clinic for so long and devotedly for you, and she’s exhausted. Give her two sets of skincare products to help her maintain her health.”

The nurse’s heart was filled with thoughts of Senior Lin.

Zeng Xiaoya hoped that Senior Lin would cherish the person he was with.

She said she didn’t love him and she didn’t love him no matter how good Senior Lin was to her. She would not accept it.

“Xiaoya, this is a gift from me to you. What do you want Yuehua to do? If she needs it, she can buy it herself. Although she has worked in my clinic the longest, I have not treated her unfairly. I will give her a raise every year and help her buy social security.”

“Her income is much higher than the nurses in big hospitals, and she is not that tired.”

Although Lin's clinic has a certain reputation, the neighbors nearby go to him for treatment when they have a headache or fever, but it is far behind the top three hospitals such as the Wancheng Central Hospital.

Therefore, no matter how tired Yuehua is, she is not as tired as the nurses in the hospital, but her income is higher than the nurses in the hospital.

Lin Jian considers himself a very good boss.

As long as you work in his clinic and work hard, he will give you a proper raise, and there will be gifts during festivals.

Salaries are increased every year, and there are also bonuses.

"Senior Lin, she likes you. Don't waste your time on me. I really don't have any romantic feelings for you. I have always regarded you as a senior and a brother."

Lin Jian slowly retracted the bag he handed out.

He looked at Zhan Yue again, "Xiaoya, is this why you're relying on your sister-in-law?"

"I'm afraid he doesn't even have a formal job. People with formal jobs don't have time to wander around outside during working hours on weekdays?"

"Yes, he is more handsome than me and looks much better than me, but being handsome can't be used to make a living, and you can't live on it."

"We are both doctors, and I run my own clinic, so we are suitable to be together. I have free time and can take care of my family in the future."

"Xiaoya, can you please not kill me with one knife? Give me a chance, let's try to date, okay?"

Zeng Xiaoya frowned, "Senior Lin, what are you talking about? Mr. Zhan just bought a house upstairs from me, and it's being renovated now, so I took him to buy materials."

"I don't love you, I just don't love you, it has nothing to do with others. If I were going to fall in love with you, I would have fallen in love with you a long time ago, and there would be no need to wait until now."

"Senior Lin, you are very good and excellent, but you are not suitable for me. I'm not attracted to you."

“You should cherish the people around you. She is the one who truly loves you. Although her family background is not so good, as long as she is devoted to you and lives with you wholeheartedly, those problems can be solved.”

Lin Jian and Yuehua’s families of origin are similar. If they are together, it really is a perfect match.

Don’t harm others, just be together.

Zeng Xiaoya didn’t say this.

“I don’t even love you, how can I try? Feelings cannot be compromised.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4907

“Senior Lin, go back! Stop wasting your time on me.”

Zeng Xiaoya walked past Lin Jian and walked away.

“Xiaoya.”

Lin Jian reached out and held her hand.

“Xiaoya, give me a chance, okay? I’ll treat you well. I promise to treat you well for the rest of my life, and only you.”

Zhan Yue forcefully slapped Lin Jian’s hand away from Zeng Xiaoya.

He hadn’t even held Zeng Xiaoya’s hand before, and his rival was trying to pull Xiaoya in front of him. Did he ask him before? Did he agree?

“Mr. Lin, just talk, don’t touch me.”

“Doctor Zeng already said he has no feelings for you, yet you’re still clinging to me. I’m a man, and I don’t like you either.”

Lin Jian sneered. “Of course you don’t like me. You want to compete with me for Xiaoya? Mr. Zhan, I tell you, even if Xiaoya doesn’t like me, she wouldn’t like a gigolo like you.”

“Xiaoya likes capable men. Someone like you who doesn’t even have a formal job isn’t even worthy of carrying Xiaoya’s shoes.”

“Senior Lin,”

Zeng Xiaoya said seriously. “I told you, this is between you and me. Don’t bring Mr. Zhan into this. Mr. Zhan is...”

“So what if I don’t have a job? Even without a job, I’m better than you. I know how to respect people, unlike Mr. Lin, who has no respect for Doctor Zeng and even grabbed her without her consent.”

Zhan Yue didn’t let Zeng Xiaoya reveal his true identity, letting Lin Jian think he was a man who only cared about his cousin’s wife. He didn’t want Lin Jian to accuse him of unfair victory, using his status to crush her.

Even without revealing his identity as the eighth young master of the Zhan family, he could still crush Lin Jian.

“I, I was anxious just now, and I pulled Xiaoya impulsively. Xiaoya, I’m sorry, I didn’t mean it.”

“Xiaoya, look at him, what’s good about him...Okay, let’s not talk about him, Xiaoya, I’m sincere to you, I have liked you for several years, and I go to ask questions to your second uncle every day, all for you.”

Lin Jian begged: “Xiaoya, can you give me a chance?”

“Senior Lin, I’ve said everything I should and shouldn’t say, you didn’t listen, I have no choice.”

“Sorry, I want to go home.”

Zeng Xiaoya left Lin Jian again and left.

Lin Jian wanted to hold her back again, but was stopped by Zhan Yue. He couldn’t touch Zeng Xiaoya.

Unwilling to give up, he followed the two of them.

Zhan Yue said to him: “Mr. Lin, Dr. Zeng doesn’t want to pay attention to you anymore. Can you please stop following him like a little tail? Dr. Zeng said that the nurses in your clinic love you very much. You should go back and have a good relationship with your nurses.”

Lin Jian refused to leave.

Men understand men.

Zhan Yue just likes Xiaoya.

Even if Zhan Yue hasn't confessed his feelings, he can see it.

Fortunately, Xiaoya didn't fall in love with the guy named Zhan, so he could still fight for her.

Everyone likes Xiaoya, so let's just compete fairly.

He runs a clinic, has a house, a car, and savings. His income exceeds many people. In terms of conditions, he is not inferior to this guy named Zhan.

He needs to hire a private detective to help him investigate Zhan Yue's family situation.

As for a love rival, you must know yourself and your enemy before you can defeat him and win the beauty.

Zeng Xiaoya quickened her pace.

Soon they returned to their own clinic.

Second uncle was treating a patient, and second aunt was playing with her mobile phone.

Seeing Xiaoya coming back, second aunt looked up at her, "Xiaoya is back."

When she saw the two men following behind, second aunt's smile was a little stiff.

Zhan Yue did not go to Zeng's house every day like Lin Jian, but he came here under the pretext of decoration, and Xiaoya never refused him once.

Compared with Lin Jian, the eighth young master of the Zhan family is much more sinister.

Second aunt is more optimistic about Zhan Yue.

As long as Zhan Yue is sincere to Xiaoya, what does it matter if he is from a wealthy family? With the good family tradition of the Zhan family, Xiaoya will not suffer any loss if she goes to the Zhan family, but will be very happy.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4908

It's like every time the two men meet, there are always countless secret battles.

At this moment, the two men came in together, you touch me, I touch you, both wanting to push the other to the back.

“Well, you're back, Second Aunt, you're not busy, you're not busy, I'm going upstairs.”

“Not busy, you go upstairs and rest, you finally have a day off.”

Second Aunt knew that her niece was tired of Lin Jian's pursuit.

Zeng Xiaoya went upstairs quickly.

“Second Uncle, Second Aunt.”

The two men greeted each other politely.

And then they both watched Zeng Xiaoya go upstairs.

Without consent, they both stopped at the second floor.

Second Uncle Zeng and his wife both nodded.

Then, Second Uncle continued to see the patient, and Second Aunt continued to watch her video.

Zhan Yue walked over.

“Second Aunt, is there anything I can help you with?”

“No, there aren't many patients right now, so I'm quite free. Xiao Zhan, have you bought all the materials?”

“Yes, the store will deliver them to you shortly.”

“Master Tang will tell me what materials he needs to buy at each stage, so I can just buy them in advance.”

Second Aunt nodded, then asked, “What stage is the renovation at?”

“Still tiling.”

“When it’s done, Second Aunt will come over to see it. We’ll be living upstairs from Dr. Zeng and become neighbors.”

Second Aunt Zeng smiled.

She dared to say that Zhan Yue had deliberately bought the apartment above his niece’s, hoping to get the upper floor first.

Actually, Lin Jian was in a good position. After all, the two clinics weren’t far apart. Even if they walked, they could reach the site in fifteen minutes.

“It wasn’t finished that quickly. Xiaoya’s house isn’t as big as yours, so it took quite a while.”

The main reason was that there were only three or four decorators.

The main force was Master Tang.

There were many tasks that only Master Tang did alone, while the others were just helping out. So the progress wasn’t that fast.

Zhan Yue wasn’t in a hurry either.

If he had been in a hurry, he would have arranged for the decoration team to come over. If he had arranged for the decoration team himself, the work would have been completed within a month.

The quality could also be guaranteed because there were more people and the work could be done faster.

“Did you meet Dr. Lin on the way?”

Second Aunt asked Zhan Yue softly.

“Yes, my grandma came to see my house and sat at Dr. Zeng’s house for a while. We just saw my grandma off when we saw Dr. Lin.”

Lin Jian got along better with Second Uncle Zeng. Although Second Uncle Zeng didn’t support him, at least he didn’t stop him. Second Aunt’s attitude towards him was very ordinary.

Lin Jian felt that Second Aunt was more inclined towards Zhan Yue. That boy was too handsome. Handsome men and beautiful women always make people partial to each other.

He did not blame Second Aunt.

Second Aunt had always been indifferent to him, but Second Uncle Zeng treated him as a student, which was much better.

“Doctor Lin bought a set of skin care products for Doctor Zeng. It’s a brand name. It should be quite expensive. Most of my sisters-in-law at home also use skin care products of that brand.”

He had never bought it, so he didn’t know how much it cost.

Anyway, his sisters-in-law would use it. It was a good thing, and good things are not cheap. You get what you pay for.

“Doctor Zeng refused. Lin didn’t give up. He kept pestering me and even blamed me. Doctor Zeng said that he only treated him as a senior and a brother.”

Zhan Yue whispered about his rival’s faults.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4909

Second Aunt Zeng said: “He is a good person, but his original family... I don’t want Xiaoya to support a whole family after she gets married and become someone else’s ATM.”

“In the future, if the relatives of that family are sick or in pain and need to be hospitalized, it will definitely trouble Xiaoya and us.”

“That will have a great impact on Xiaoya and will bring Xiaoya a lot of trouble, so I don’t support him.”

“Zhan Yue, if you like our Xiaoya, just express your feelings boldly and pursue her. Second Aunt is optimistic about you.”

Zhan Yue grinned, “Thank you, Second Aunt, for thinking so highly of me.”

“I will.”

“If Second Aunt needs any help, let me do it.”

“No, just go about your business. Go and see the decoration of your house and come over for dinner in the evening. After dinner, you can invite our Xiaoya to see two movies. She hasn’t relaxed for a long time.”

“I have to go to work as usual tomorrow.”

Zhan Yue said: “I’m afraid Dr. Zeng will refuse.”

Invite Zeng Xiaoya to see a movie. Zeng Xiaoya is not stupid and will know what he thinks of her.

“What’s there to be afraid of if she refuses? Ask her a few more times, and she will agree one day. Which man who pursues his wife won’t be rejected at first?”

Zhan Yue thought about it and agreed.

He looked upstairs, and then looked at his rival.

Senior Lin was chatting with his second uncle, and seemed to be asking medical questions.

Zhan Yue didn’t go over to make himself bored. He said something to his second aunt and left first.

Zhan Yue breathed a sigh of relief when he knew that his second uncle and aunt were not optimistic about Xiaoya and Senior Lin.

At around four o’clock in the afternoon, Serenity went to her son’s school to pick him up.

She also bought a string of candied haws, which were sour and sweet, and she loved them. She hadn't bought them outside for a long time. Usually, when she wanted to eat them, she would make them herself or ask the aunt at home to make them.

Soon, the baby came out of school.

Upon seeing his mother, the little guy ran over happily.

"Mom,"

he cried, running to Serenity and happily diving into her arms.

His parents loved him dearly, but they were busy with work, so they were happy to get him to school in the morning. In the afternoon, his uncle or the housekeeper would often pick him up after school.

His parents only came occasionally.

So, Zhan Muchen was delighted to see his mother pick him up.

Serenity hugged her son and then released him. She immediately handed him the string of candied haws and said, "Eat quickly! Don't let your dad know, or he'll say I bought you something out of the box."

Zachary, now married to her, had become more down-to-earth than before, but he was still the son of a wealthy family, and he had a certain air of pride in his heart. He always disliked street food as unhygienic and unsafe. Serenity was not allowed to buy any for the children.

Serenity usually didn't buy any, but she didn't think it was a big deal. Occasionally, she'd buy a string for her son, and they'd eat it in secret, afraid to let Zachary know.

She'd been eating it since she was a child and was in excellent health.

Zhan Muchen took the candied haws and asked, "Mom, have you eaten yet?"

"Mom ate one, and this one's for you."

Seeing her son was feeling a bit hot, she took out a tissue and wiped his sweat.

“Let’s go home. Mom doesn’t have any social engagements tonight. After dinner, I’ll take you two to the supermarket and play on the first floor.”

There’s a children’s playground on the first floor of the supermarket, where many parents take their children in the evenings. It’s air-conditioned, and they can also take care of their children. The children have fun there, and there’s plenty of company.

Serenity sometimes puts on some grim makeup, dresses the two children in plain clothes, and then takes them to the supermarket.

That way, she doesn’t draw attention to them, let alone the media.

With bodyguards secretly protecting the three of them around the clock, there’s no need to worry about their safety.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4910

She tried her best to let her children live like normal children, going out to the supermarket and jumping around with other children.

Live a normal life.

“Okay, Dad, are you going?”

“Dad’s not available. He has a social engagement, so he can’t go. Besides, if your dad goes with you, he’ll attract attention.”

Even if she could help Zachary put on makeup so that he wouldn’t be recognized, Zachary’s aura and demeanor were too strong. Walking in a crowd, his aura was particularly strong and would easily attract attention.

Plus, he didn’t like ugly makeup.

He was narcissistic.

“Oh, so is Grandma going?”

“If Grandma wants to go, take her. She spent quite a while at your eighth uncle’s new house today. She must have discovered something new and interesting.”

Zhan Muchen asked, chewing on a candied haws. “What did Grandma discover?”

“Don’t ask so many questions, little kid.”

“Mom doesn’t allow us kids to ask so many questions, and yet you want to tell me. Aren’t you deliberately trying to pique my curiosity without letting me know the answers? Are you trying to make me die of curiosity?”

Serenity pinched her son’s cheek in amusement.

“You little brat, you’re so quick to contradict Mom.”

Zhan Muchen was a chatterbox with his mom, always talkative. But he didn’t dare to let down his guard in front of his dad.

Although Mom was strict, she was gentler than Dad. Dad was too serious, and his gentleness was reserved for Mom and his sister.

“Baby, baby,”

Su Meng’s voice called from a distance.

They attended the same elementary school, but not in the same class.

Su Meng’s class had finished a few minutes earlier, so he left school before the baby.

It was Su Meng’s grandmother who came to pick him up.

Serenity walked over with her son.

“Auntie Hai,”

Su Meng greeted politely.

The baby greeted Mrs. Su, and Serenity called him “Auntie” as well.

“Tongtong was free to pick up the baby today. When I picked up Su Meng, I didn’t see your car and thought no one had come to pick him up yet, so I waited, thinking if no one came, I’d take him back for you.”

“I was free this afternoon, so I came to pick him up after school and told the housekeeper not to come.”

“Is Xiaojun busy?”

Serenity asked casually.

Before Mrs. Su could reply, Su Meng happily said, “Auntie Hai, my mom’s pregnant with my little brother.”

Serenity was surprised to hear this and asked, “Really? I didn’t even know when they were pregnant.”

Mrs. Su wanted to say that her grandson was too talkative. Her daughter-in-law had just gotten pregnant with her second child. She had bought a pregnancy test last night and tested it herself, and it showed two red lines. She hadn’t even gone to the hospital for a checkup yet.

No one else had told anyone, except her family.

She hadn’t expected her grandson to be so talkative, to spill the beans so quickly.

Fortunately, it was Serenity. She and Xiaojun were best friends.

It was okay for her to know.

Mrs. Su didn’t want to tell anyone else. She had to wait until Xiaojun was pregnant and it was three months old before she could tell anyone.

“I just found out last night. I think I’m pregnant. I took the early pregnancy test and it showed two red lines, but the second one isn’t very obvious yet. I want to wait a week and go to the hospital for another test.”

Serenity smiled and said, “That’s almost certain.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4911

“Auntie, congratulations on becoming a grandmother again.”

Mrs. Su smiled. “Thank you. I just hope it’s a girl this time. He’s so naughty.”

Su Meng was famous for his mischievousness.

Su Nan often complained about his mischief to Zachary.

The elderly at home doted on him, and sometimes Su Nan wanted to spank him.

Fortunately, he was smart; if he were dumb and naughty, Su Nan would have spanked him long ago.

Serenity smiled, “Meng is growing up and becoming sensible. It’s normal for children to be a little naughty. My baby is naughty too. Don’t be fooled by his quiet and obedient appearance.”

“That’s a lie. He’s just as insincere as his dad.”

Zhan Muchen: “...”

Was he very naughty?

Thinking back to the many troubles he’d gotten himself into, sometimes making his dad want to spank him.

Well, he was a little naughty.

But Mom said all children were like that, it’s just that boys are more active.

There were also girls who were very naughty. Beibei couldn’t stay still, and when she was quiet, she was always causing trouble.

“Su Meng, do you want some candied haws?”

The baby wanted to share his candied haws with his friends.

“Su Meng, auntie will buy you a bunch.”

Serenity said to her son, “You’ve eaten all of them, give them back to Su Meng.”

Mrs. Su said, “I’ll go buy them.”

“Auntie, I’ll go buy them, you take the two children to the car first.”

Serenity went to buy candied haws for Su Meng.

After her mother left, Zhan Muchen asked his friends, “Does Auntie Xiaojun have a little sister?”

“My mom’s having a little brother,”

Mrs. Su chided her grandson. “Talk about a little sister, don’t you want one?”

The boy, knowing his mom was pregnant, said it was a little brother.

Su Meng blinked his eyes and said, “But I think it’s a little brother.”

“Oh, my granddaughter, you’re going to make me disappear. Talk about a little sister, not a little brother.”

“You’re six years old, that’s not right. It’s a little sister.”

Su Meng made a face at his grandmother.

Anyway, he thought it was a little brother.

It wasn’t that he didn’t want a little sister; he really thought it was a little brother.

While a little brother isn’t as fun as a little sister, having a little brother is nice. Then, as the eldest brother, he’d have two little brothers to follow him.

How impressive!

“Grandma Su, Su Meng said Aunt Xiaojun’s baby is a little brother, so that’s a little brother. When my mom said she was having my sister, I said it was a little sister.”

“And it really is a little sister. Mom says we kids are very accurate.”

Mrs. Su: “...”

It seemed she was doomed to have no grandchildren.

Since the daughter-in-law is very likely to be pregnant with a boy, then let’s hope that the second child will be more obedient than the eldest.

Mrs. Su said that she disliked her grandson for being naughty, but it was actually the couple who loved and doted on him the most.

Generations are close, generation is close. This is fully demonstrated in her and her husband.

Soon, Serenity bought a string of candied haws.

“Auntie, let’s find a dim sum shop. We want to order something to eat and chat.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4912

Mrs. Su agreed.

The two of them each took their children back to the car and drove away from the school.

They found a seat at a nearby milk tea and dim sum shop.

They ordered a few snacks and two glasses of juice for the two little ones.

Serenity ordered a cup of coffee, while Mrs. Su only wanted a glass of water.

“Tongtong, it’s almost five o’clock, and you’re still drinking coffee. Aren’t you worried you won’t be able to sleep at night?”

“I’m used to it. Coffee doesn’t affect my sleep anymore. Even if I drink a cup at night, I can still sleep when I rest at the appointed time.”

Serenity said with concern, “If Xiaojun is really pregnant, tell her to get enough rest. She doesn’t have to go back to the company. Xiaofei and I are here. If she’s bored, she can go and look after the bookstore like she used to.”

Shen Xiaojun often looked after the bookstore.

Serenity, the mistress of the house, was getting busier and busier. With the several companies the three of them had jointly opened, their business was growing.

She and Shang Xiaofei both took the path of strong women.

Shen Xiaojun didn’t have such a strong career ambition. She would go back to the company to work, but she wouldn’t work as hard as Serenity.

Perhaps because her family had always been well off, she'd never felt the pressure of life and was accustomed to a leisurely lifestyle.

After getting married, she married Sunan, who had plenty of money. Even if she didn't work, he could still support her, allowing her to continue living a comfortable and leisurely life.

Running the bookstore was a perfect fit for her.

"Yes, she hasn't had any pregnancy symptoms yet, and she's new. She says she still wants to go to work. She says it's not her first time being a mother, she's experienced, and told us not to make a fuss."

Mrs. Su wasn't as nervous about her daughter-in-law's second pregnancy as she was the first.

Even her son and daughter-in-law were calm. They were happy to welcome their second child, but they weren't as nervous as they were when they first became parents.

Many people joke that when the first child comes, they raise it by the book because they're nervous, concerned, and inexperienced.

Then, when the second child comes, they act like a pig because they have experience and don't have the nervousness of first-time motherhood.

"Su Meng said it was a little brother. Well, I want a granddaughter, a granddaughter as soft and cute as your Beibei."

The Su family is not a Buddhist temple like the Zhan family, but the children in the family are mostly boys.

For example, Su Nan has many cousins, but very few cousins. There are some, but they are too many to fit on one hand.

At present, the only one of Su Nan's generation who is married is him and Su Teng, and both of them have sons after marriage.

The two little guys are energetic, lively and active. When they go out to play, they can give people a headache. At home, they can even overturn the roof and still give people a headache.

The elders hope to have a girl.

Girls are quieter than boys.

“Su Meng is over six now. He’s not sure, maybe it’s a girl.”

“Both boys and girls are your grandchildren,”

Mrs. Su smiled. “That’s right. Boys and girls are my grandchildren, and I’ll love them all the same.”

She caressed her grandson’s head lovingly. “But a granddaughter would be even better.”

Su Meng and Zhan Muchen were busy eating their snacks, not wanting to emphasize that their mother was pregnant with a little brother.

“Su Meng, my mom said we’re going to the supermarket tonight. Do you want to come with us? How about staying at my house tonight? We’ll study together tomorrow.”

The two little ones often did this kind of thing.

The elders of both families were delighted, saying that the two little ones were the Zachary and Su Nan of the past.

Strong bonds are cultivated from childhood.

“Auntie Hai, which supermarket are we going to? The biggest one?”

Shen Xiaojun sometimes took her son out shopping with her best friend, and naturally, they had taken the child to the city’s largest supermarket. The children’s playground on the first floor was a popular spot for many people to bring their children, especially now that the weather was hot.

Whenever parents take their children out to play, they like to take them there. There are free games, no money required, and they can also enjoy the coolness of air conditioning.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4913

“Yeah, it’s the big supermarket in Wancheng. It’s busy there too, and lots of kids go there to play at night.”

“Then I’ll go, Aunt Hai. I’ll sleep at your house tonight and go to school with my baby tomorrow.”

Su Meng shook his grandmother’s arm, “Grandma, please let me go home with Aunt Hai and play with her tonight.”

Mrs. Su helplessly tapped her grandson’s forehead, “Don’t go to Aunt Hai’s house so often. You’ll disturb her rest.”

“It’s okay, it won’t bother me. If he goes, my baby will have company. Even Beibei will be happy to have another brother to play with.”

“Now that we live in the city, it’s convenient for school. With Grandma coming to live with us, Beibei won’t have as many brothers to play with.”

Beibei, now more fluent in speech, would ask Serenity every day when the other brothers would come over to play with her.

It was usually on weekends that the children could get together.

“You’re going to stay at Aunt Hai’s house for a night. Be good. Don’t be as naughty and disruptive as you are at home,”

Mrs. Su warned her grandson.

Xiaojun is pregnant with her second child. Although she has no pregnancy symptoms yet, Mrs. Su also wants her daughter-in-law to have a good rest.

When her grandson goes to the Zhan family to play, she, as a grandmother, can have a night off, and her daughter-in-law can also have a quiet night and sleep well.

The two families have close contacts. During the summer vacation, the Su Meng brothers were sent to Youyou Villa to live for nearly two months.

“Grandma, I will be very good.”

Grandma said this, and Su Meng knew that grandma agreed.

The four of them sat in the dim sum restaurant for a long time before paying the bill and leaving.

Serenity took the two children home first.

Mrs. Su went to the bookstore alone. Shen Xiaojun was in the bookstore now. The junior high school students had just finished school. There were many parents of students at the school gate. They rushed into the bookstore when they needed to buy things.

Shen Xiaojun was alone in the store. She was used to it and could handle it. All she had to do was collect the money.

The bookstore had been here for years, serving successive classes of students, from freshman to graduates. Everyone was familiar with the shop, and no one would steal anything.

Plus, there were surveillance cameras inside.

Seeing Mrs. Su arrive alone, Shen Xiaojun instinctively asked, “Mom, where’s Su Meng?”

She hadn’t seen her mother-in-law pick up her son in such a long time, and she assumed she’d taken him home.

“I met Serenity and her son. Meng and Bao Bao went home. They said they’d stay at Serenity’s house tonight and go back to school together tomorrow. I’ll have some peace and quiet with him gone.”

“You can get a good night’s sleep tonight, too.”

“Are you tired? Do you want me to help?”

Mrs. Su asked, concerned, seeing so many people in the store.

“No, I’m just collecting money. It’s not busy.”

“Why did that kid go to Serenity’s house again? He’s been staying there for nearly two months over the summer, isn’t that enough?”

Shen Xiaojun picked up her phone and sent a voice message to a friend.

“Tongtong, please help me watch Su Meng do his homework. He will write sloppily when he is anxious to play. Also, he has to practice piano, martial arts, and calligraphy every day after school. He also has to draw when he has time.”

“Please remind him to practice for me. Next time his dad tests him and he doesn’t perform well, his dad will criticize him.”

Serenity replied to her: “Okay, I will let him do his homework and practice piano with the baby. They are both learning the same thing.”

“Sorry to trouble you. This kid just doesn’t stay at home. He always likes to run to your house.”

Shen Xiaojun was quite helpless.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4914

Serenity smiled and said, “They’re having a great time. My baby sometimes stays at your house, too.”

“I’ll take them to the Wancheng Supermarket later. It’s been a while since I’ve taken them out for a walk. I don’t have any social events tonight, so I have the time.”

Taking the children out for a walk was like giving herself a night off to relax.

After marrying Zachary, although Zachary doted on her and let her do whatever she wanted, she was the eldest daughter-in-law and the eldest grandson’s wife, with heavy responsibilities. It was impossible for her to live a leisurely and relaxed life like before marriage.

Sometimes when she felt irritable, Serenity liked to go out for a walk, not buying anything, just strolling around, feeling the fireworks of the big city, watching people coming and going, and feeling the hustle and bustle of the big city.

“What time are we going? Let me check the time. If I’m free, I’ll go shopping too. We haven’t been shopping together in ages.”

“After dinner, I have to watch them do their homework and practice their piano.”

“Okay, see you later.”

After sending the voice message, Shen Xiaojun said to her mother-in-law, “Mom, I can handle it. You go home first. I’ll close the shop and go meet Serenity directly to see if I can take the little brat home.”

It probably wasn’t possible.

The two little ones had a blast together, and they couldn’t bear to leave each other and wanted to live together.

Su Nan said he was worthy of being his biological son.

He did the same thing as when he was little.

He said he used to do that with Zachary and Duncan all the time.

Shen Xiaojun didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

However, after she and Serenity became close friends, Serenity would sometimes stay at her house. Her parents treated her like their second daughter.

She felt sorry for Serenity and her sister, who had lost their parents. Their grandparents and uncle were so heartless and treated them very well.

Whenever there is something delicious at home, Mother Shen will ask her daughter to invite Serenity over to eat, and then let Serenity stay at home for a few days.

It’s safe to say that the Shen family has helped Serenity a lot.

“If Ah Meng wants to stay at Serenity’s house, let him stay. You’re newly pregnant, so you need to get enough rest. He’s home, so it’s still a bit noisy.”

Shen Xiaojun said, “It’s new, it’s okay. It’s not my first pregnancy, so I’m experienced. Mom, I’ll be careful.”

She touched her belly and said, “I hope it’s a girl, as cute as Beibei.” A girl as sensible as Junyan would be fine too.

Even better would be twin girls, one as sensible as Junyan, one as adorable as Beibei. Haha, she’d be a winner in life.

Mrs. Su said, “A Meng said it’s a little brother.”

Shen Xiaojun: “...I’m still dreaming that I’ll have twin girls.”

“He’s over six, it’s hard to say. Daughter, I want girls!”

“Mom, that’s no use. The gender is determined in the last pregnancy and can’t be changed. What if it’s really a boy? Looking at pictures of girls every day makes him a sissy in the future?”

Mrs. Su: “...”

Forget it, let nature take its course.

Mrs. Su waited until the students had all gone back to school for evening classes and the bookstore was empty. She then gave her daughter-in-law a lot of instructions before leaving.

As soon as her mother-in-law left, Shen Xiaojun cleaned up and pulled the shelves that had been set up at the entrance back inside.

After finishing, she immediately went to meet Serenity.

The first floor of the supermarket had an area for children to play, with plenty of chairs for parents to sit nearby.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4915

The surrounding shops sell clothes, bread, milk tea, and more.

There are four floors above. Some parents leave their children on the ground floor while they go upstairs to shop, only to come downstairs to pick them up.

So many children playing together, they’re having so much fun that they don’t even want to go home.

This kind of excitement is something the young masters of billionaire families rarely experience.

Serenity brought her children here to experience this kind of hustle and bustle.

She took the three little ones to the supermarket, and Su Meng and Zhan Muchen ran to the children's playground. There were many children there and they could ride a train around the supermarket for 25 yuan per ride.

Many parents just let their children ride for a short while, then when they were asked to pay, they took their children and left.

There was also a large screen on the floor that changed from time to time, and the children loved jumping around on it.

There were also many small balls and rocking cars.

These children's playgrounds couldn't compare to the children's playground at Youyou Villa, but it was bustling with people.

Kids love crowds.

The two little ones hadn't seen everything at Youyou Villa's playground, and they were still excited to be here, throwing themselves into the fun with the other kids.

Two flower-shaped chairs, meant for parents to sit and watch their children, were occupied by several parents.

Serenity led her daughter over, letting her join the other children while she sat down on one of the flower-shaped chairs, each petal wide enough for two.

Serenity reminded the two older brothers to keep an eye on Beibei.

Beibei, on the floor screen, imitated the others, stepping on a groundhog that had popped out. When it retracted, she smiled happily.

Actually, it wasn't the children stepping on it; it was programmed to retract after a certain period of time.

Serenity pulled out her phone and sent Shen Xiaojun her location.

Not long after, Shen Xiaojun arrived.

"Here."

Serenity spotted her friend immediately, stood up, and waved to Shen Xiaojun.

Shen Xiaojun came over with a smile.

“Where’s the boy?”

Serenity pointed to the small court. “He’s playing ball with Bao Bao, and Bei Bei is still jumping here.”

Shen Xiaojun, noticing her son, let him and Bao Bao play. Seeing Bei Bei enjoying himself, she smiled and said, “You should take the kids out to play more often when you have time.”

“Look, Bei Bei is having so much fun.”

As long as they weren’t in the open with their bodyguards, they wouldn’t be recognized.

They would also deliberately apply a light, ugly makeup to make it less easy to spot.

They learned this makeup technique from the Jun family’s Second Young Lady.

The Jun family’s Second Young Lady’s makeup skills were so exquisite that in ancient times she would have been a master of disguise. Even her own mother couldn’t recognize her with her makeup.

Yang Xi: They would still be recognized.

She and Mu Qing had Jun’s Second Young Lady help them with their makeup before going to see a handsome guy, but they were recognized and caught by Ye Junbo and Ouyang Yu.

“I’ll take them out for a walk when I have time.”

After all, she, the eldest young mistress of the Zhan family, came from a poor family. Even though her ancestors were wealthy, her upbringing was nothing short of ordinary.

Even after being the eldest young mistress for several years, Serenity still enjoyed a simple life and tried her best to let her children experience this joy.

Surrounded by strangers who didn't know them, who would have guessed those children were the younger generation of the Zhan family?

With bodyguards secretly protecting them, Serenity wasn't worried.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4916

At that moment, two bodyguards, acting like parents, were watching Su Meng and Zhan Muchen on the small court.

Two of them were also watching Beibei, their eyes never leaving her.

This little girl was the Zhan family's precious child. If anything went wrong, they wouldn't be able to explain to the eldest young master.

Even with the eldest and young mistresses present, they didn't dare to look at Miss Beibei.

"Are you pregnant with your second child?"

Serenity asked her friend. "I thought you didn't want another."

Shen Xiaojun looked at Beibei and said, "I don't want a second child. I'm afraid it'll be another boy like Meng, who'll be so naughty. It's really a headache, but I also want to take a chance and hope for a gentle daughter."

"We don't have enough children right now, so we want a second child. Meng is older now. When the second child is born, he'll be seven years old and sensible. He won't bully the second child, but will only love his younger siblings."

"Does your sister-in-law want a second child?"

Serenity was referring to Cheng Qin, the current head of the Su family.

After Cheng Qin and Su Teng got married and had a son, they didn't make any move for a few years. They probably didn't want to have a second child too soon, or they simply didn't want a second child.

Their son is a little younger than Su Meng, but the two brothers often get into trouble together and are both naughty and active.

The Su family has few children now, and the two brothers are the apple of their eye by the elders, who love them deeply. Even if the two kids want to tear down the house, the elders will hold the ladder and let them climb up to remove the tiles.

“They should be preparing for a second child, saying that one child is lonely. Now the national policy has relaxed the three-child policy, so even having three children is legal and no longer an extra birth.”

A family like theirs can afford to have three children.

However, they usually won't have a third child, so a second child is within the scope of consideration.

“When I first gave birth to the baby, I also wanted to have only one. His father didn't want me to have another one either, saying that pregnancy was hard. He was nervous for months when I gave birth.”

“I said that the masters said that my husband and I are destined to have both a son and a daughter, and the second child might be a daughter.”

“He couldn't resist the temptation of a daughter, so he agreed to have a second child. Fortunately, we really have a son and a daughter.”

Shen Xiaojun said enviously: “I hope I can have both a son and a daughter, too. My mother-in-law said that Ah Meng said it was a little brother, and she was so worried. She asked me to buy some pictures of girl dolls and said that looking at them often will help me give birth to a daughter.”

“What if it's a son, but he's effeminate?”

Shen Xiaojun chuckled.

She'd said the same thing.

She and Serenity were indeed close friends, thinking the same way.

“Let it be. Beibei's going to find her brother.”

Shen Xiaojun stood up, walked over, and picked up Beibei.

“Auntie Jun,”

Beibei called her sweetly. She even kissed Shen Xiaojun on the cheek.

The soft, adorable baby's soft kiss melted Shen Xiaojun's heart.

"Is Beibei going to find her two brothers?"

"I'm going to find my brothers," the little baby said sweetly, pointing at her two brothers.

Shen Xiaojun carried the little girl over and handed Beibei to the two boys, telling them to play with Beibei and make sure their little sister didn't get knocked down by the other kids.

"Mom, when did you get here?"

Su Meng's face was red from playing, and his forehead was covered in sweat.

Even in the air-conditioned supermarket, he was sweating profusely, showing how much he was having fun.

"I've been here for a long time. You were so busy playing that you didn't even know your mother was here."

Shen Xiaojun took out a tissue and wiped the sweat off her son's face. She said to him, "Don't play too crazy. Come home with your mother later, okay?"
