

Married by Accident (English) Chapter 52 - Be in a safe place

Chapter 52: Be in a safe place

Leonard has just arrived at the company led by his half-brother after dropping Ayumi back to the apartment citing an urgent need. Of course, on behalf of the family company, he just had a problem and he was called by his half-brother to sort things out.

With his face flushed with anger, Leonard walked out of the elevator exclusively for the company's top brass and without asking the secretary in front of his half-brother's room, now walked straight in without knocking on the door first.

Of course the first sight that was currently seen was the CEO of his family company sitting on a chair and staring at the laptop screen. Then turned to look at him and still looked very calm when he asked.

"I thought you'd come this afternoon after taking care of Ayumi," said Stevan, who looked back at the laptop to finish the work that would soon be discussed at the meeting this afternoon.

Still feeling very upset and angry because his stepbrother interfered in the household affairs that had just started with Arabella. Leonard's long legs now walked closer and stood right in front of the company leader.

"What exactly do you mean? Why did you order people to pack all of Arabella's clothes? In fact she just married me on your orders, but now you're going on your own and taking all my wife's things out!" Leonard cursed which let out a fire of anger welling up in his soul and had been restrained all along on the way to the company.

Stevan is now silent and shakes his head at Leonard's stubborn and reckless attitude. In fact he did not understand at all what his stepbrother wanted.

"You should feel happy and thank me because there are no barriers for you to marry Ayumi. Then, why do you look angry and unclear like this when I'm going to take care of everything? You better focus on Ayumi and don't care about Arabella because I will take care of it." your divorce. Don't you want to show the world that Ayumi is your wife? So I'll take care of the rest."

Actually, Stevan intends to change Leonard's arrogant attitude by getting married. He felt that Arabella was a woman who was very fitting and suitable to change the attitude of his stepbrother. However, he never expected that a third person from the relationship between Leonard and Arabella would emerge, namely Ayumi.

It made him feel very sorry and guilty for the woman he had forced to marry Leonard, so he had to take responsibility for the actions he did to Arabella. Of course by separating Arabella from Leonard and giving her a proper job as a form of atonement for wrongdoing.

When he intends to find a job for Arabella because he can't hire her in the company he leads. Of course, with the excuse of not wanting to make his wife feel jealous and misunderstood, there happened to be a friend who was complaining about something.

His best friend just received a letter of resignation from the secretary for choosing to marry after suddenly being proposed by a lover, so he was frantic in finding a replacement when he was going abroad for a business trip that he planned to go with the secretary.

In the end, he immediately said there was someone with experience because he had worked in his company before but had to be fired because of his wife's jealousy. He recommends Arabella and intends to separate Leonard for the time being. Stevan thought that Leonard had feelings for Siri's recently married wife.

He felt confident because he had an experience that started with hatred. According to him, hate and love are only slightly different and always end up being a regret that is late when he realizes his true feelings.

Losing would make one realize how much it means to those who left and hope that Leonard would feel that Arabella was an important woman in his brother's heart.

Meanwhile, still furious that his life has always been ruled by Stevan, Leonard is now pounding the table to vent the emotions that fill his every vein. To make things on the table messy.

"I'm not a child that you always have to manage, Stevan! Everything has a limit and this time you're out of bounds for meddling in my personal affairs. Arabella is my wife and I have the right to do anything to her and you must not interfere in the fate of my household!" Leonard sarcasm with his jaw clenched and his face reddened, as well as the sound of his teeth grinding which indicates that he is currently being overcome by anger.

"If you weren't my stepbrother, I would have smashed your face and made your wife not recognize her own husband!"

Stevan who still looks very calm and not at all afraid of Leonard's threats, now plans not to say that currently Arabella is on her way to the airport to go to New York with his best friend.

He really trusts his best friend who is married and will never mess with Arabella because he loves his wife so much.

'Looks like I'll have to keep Arabella's whereabouts a secret so Leonard doesn't get reckless and mess things up. Arabella had to feel happy and live a quiet life without being bothered by Leonard. This is a form of atonement for what I've done,' muttered Stevan, who was currently silent and didn't intend to respond to Leonard's wrath.

"I have a lot of work to do because a meeting will be held soon. If you're done getting angry and venting everything to me, it's better to go home now," Stevan said in a flat tone and looked back at his laptop.

Meanwhile, Leonard who is now feeling very frustrated, looks on his hips and laughs loudly while looking at Stevan who doesn't care about his anger at all.

"Wow... amazing. You really make me want to finish you off, Stevan! Of course I'll leave you after you tell me where to take all my wife's clothes. Oh yeah, one more thing, where is Arabella now? know it. I can't reach her because she won't pick up the phone at all from me. Now tell me where Arabella is!"

Still directing a look full of rage, Leonard waited for an answer from Stevan who he wanted so badly to punch him in the face. However, he still held back because he hoped that Stevan would tell Arabella whereabouts. Until the answer from his stepbrother made him even more frustrated and clenched his fists.

"Don't worry because Arabella is currently in a safe place. You'd better get used to not calling Arabella your wife because the one who should be called a wife is Ayumi." Stevan spoke still with his gaze on the laptop and didn't want to see the expression on Leonard's face.

Until the sound of screaming from Leonard filled the study and managed to make him cover both ears.

To be continued...

Chapter 53: It's out of bounds

Leonard who felt very angry because of the very calm attitude of his stepbrother when he was asking a very serious question, but was not responded to at all. Even though he was very curious about Arabella's whereabouts, so his reflex immediately directed his hand to pound the table.

"Stevan! Quickly tell me what you did to Arabella! Or I'll report what you did to Qumaira. Sister-in-law will be very angry with you for hiding something from her."

"Moreover, sister-in-law has always been jealous of Arabella. It's not difficult for me to destroy your household!" threatened Leonard who was currently still directing his sharp gaze to make Stevan immediately tell the whereabouts of his siren wife.

Meanwhile, Stevan is not at all afraid of Leonard's threat because he has received protection from his brother-in-law. Before he could do anything, he had talked to Zaydan first because it was all related to his brother-in-law.

Zaydan, who doesn't want to fulfill his promise by marrying Arabella during her divorce from Leonard, provides a solution by guaranteeing the woman's life. Moreover, the plan is to make Arabella go far from Jakarta is the most appropriate solution.

She will be in America for two weeks, so that when Leonard marries Ayumi later, it will not be a hindrance. The most important thing is that Arabella will not demand to be married by Zaydan.

Now, Stevan who was still very calm when he saw Leonard's anger, felt that he had no other choice but to tell the truth. If just a moment ago he thought he wanted to hide the whereabouts of Arabella who might have been on a plane to New York with his best friend for a business trip.

However, seeing the attitude of his half-brother, made him feel that he had no other choice but to tell the truth.

"Okay, I'll tell you where Arabella is. By now she's probably on a plane bound for New York on a business trip. Don't worry because at this time, Arabella is already working at my best friend's company. My best friend needs a secretary because of the employees. his secretary suddenly resigned."

Stevan stopped what he was saying and wanted to see Leonard's response, who looked red in the face and indicated that he was currently filled with anger over his decision without first speaking to the siri husband.

Felt that his stepbrother was doing things on his own without first asking permission. Even though he was the husband of the Arabella series and thought he was very entitled to everything from her, it made Leonard feel very angry and hurriedly walked over to Stevan.

Not only that, he had even directed his hand to grab the shirt collar from Stevan because he couldn't hold himself back anymore.

"You are really being too much, Stevan! What right do you have to do this to my wife? You have absolutely no right to interfere in my household affairs!" cursed Leonard who was still staring intently with a flash of anger.

He really couldn't understand the attitude of his stepbrother who was too intrusive in his personal affairs.

"This time, you are out of bounds, Stevan! I can no longer tolerate what you did!" cursed Leonard who raised his hand up to punch Stevan in the face but didn't do it when he heard someone's voice.

Leonard's scream broke the silence in Stevan's study. At the same time, the sound of a door opening from outside, made Leonard and Stevan look back.

"Stop it, Leonard! What did you do to Stevan?"

Leonard who was currently overcome by anger, now completely ignored the screams. Then, he threw his hands from Stevan's collar and walked over to the person who had just entered the room.

To be continued...