

Chapter 76 Backbite

The setup of the launch site almost reached the end part.

The media at the scene had taken their seats.

In a hotel room, Matthew and Wendell were present, and even Coco. It was more appropriate for the family to be present on such an important occasion.

Matthew was very sophisticated; on his face, there was not much smile, a tightly knitted brow, and a serious forehead.

Wendell seemed to have some worries. Although the contract with the Lee Group could save his company, after the contract, the South Group would not fully belong to his family. They could save their company, but the future of the South family was still unknown.

Coco went to Wendell and said to him with comfort, "Wendell, do not worry. After the contract is signed, our company will be preserved. The future was still worth looking forward to."

Wendell nodded and smiled at Coco, "Coco, you shouldn't have come; today will be very chaotic, and I am afraid I can't take care of you."

"How can I not be by your side on such an important day?" Coco's tone was gentle.

These days, Coco had a bad time; The collapse of the South family was the last thing she wanted to see. She had made so much effort to finally become the hostess of the South family, and before she could enjoy a day of glory and wealth, the company was going to collapse. Why?"

As they were talking, someone came.

"Mr. South, there is a young lady called Miss. Fowler looking for you outside the door, saying that she was urgent to see you," a man said to Wendell.

"Miss. Fowler?"

Everyone thought of Caroline; there were only two Miss

Fowler, one was right here, and the other one was supposed to be Caroline.

"What is she doing here? Maybe she come to laugh at us! How could she do this?" Coco muttered.

"You go tell her that I don't have time today," Wendell also did not want to argue with Caroline at this time; Today is a day of life and death for the South Group.

"Wait a minute!" Matthew opened his mouth.

Wendell and Coco together looked at Matthew who said, "Wendell, you go see her."

"Dad?" Wendell was confused, "Caroline is not the same as before. She is now with Richard, so I think going to see her is not a good idea," Wendell said to his father.

Coco was unhappy.

"Okay," Wendell finally gave up and said to the man, "Bring her here."

"Yes," The man immediately walked out of the room.

Wendell didn't want Coco and Caroline to meet each other to avoid further argument, so he stood up and said, "Coco, wait for me here and I'll be right back."

Coco nodded her head and didn't say anything.

Wendell walked out and saw Caroline running fast to him, "Wendell, you can't sign it today!"

"Caroline, I have no choice. If we don't sign the contract with Lee, we will be finished," said Wendell.

Caroline gave the document in her hand to Wendell and said, "Look at it yourself. This is the trap Richard set for you! Once you sign it, the Lee Group will immediately withdraw its capital, and then Richard will acquire your company at the lowest price!"

Wendell panicked and opened the document Caroline handed him, which recorded Richard's plan.

"It's all Richard's trick!" Caroline said loudly.

"Richard's trick?!" Coco walked out of the room and said,

Fowler, one was right here, and the other one was supposed to be Caroline.

"What is she doing here? Maybe she come to laugh at us! How could she do this?" Coco muttered.

"You go tell her that I don't have time today," Wendell also did not want to argue with Caroline at this time; Today is a day of life and death for the South Group.

Wendell panicked and opened the document Caroline handed him, which recorded Richard's plan.

"It's all Richard's trick!" Caroline said loudly.

"Richard's trick?!" Coco walked out of the room and said,

"Caroline, since you are with Richard, how can you not know about such a big thing? Richard and the South Group have no enmity, and why would Richard want to attack the South Group? It is all because of you!"

"I found out yesterday!" Caroline retorted, "Richard did this without telling me so I didn't know about this at all!"

"I will not believe you! Caroline, you are the one who is good at playing tricks. At first, you let Richard make trouble for the South family, and now you come here to act as a good person!" Coco shouted at Caroline with hatred.

Coco held her arms and her tone was mean.

"Coco!" Caroline was so angry with Coco and she shouted at her, "I don't want to fight with you at this time! If you hadn't hung up my call yesterday, things might not have gotten so bad!"

"How can you blame me for this? I didn't blacklist you," Coco was weak-minded.

Wendell did not want to listen to their quarrel. He had been staring at this document.

"It is you who uses Wendell's phone to blacklist me. It must be you!" Caroline said loudly.

Coco immediately went to Wendell's side and held his arm, "Wendell, don't listen to her. Maybe it is Richard who sent her over to lie to us. This might be a trap!"

Caroline gritted her teeth. Coco was so good at making things worse!

"Wendell! We were together for so many years. How can you not believe me?!" Caroline asked.

"Even if that, Wendell did not marry you, so you might harbor a grudge. You even hurt our baby, and what can't you do?!" Coco questioned Caroline.

"I..." Caroline could not say anything.

Coco was like inserting a knife in Caroline's heart; Caroline had been guilty about causing Coco's miscarriage.

Caroline turned to Wendell and said, "Wendell, believe it or not. I have told you Richard's plan."

After saying that, Caroline was ready to leave.

At this time, Matthew walked out of the room, followed by his secretary.

"It is true that the agreement today cannot be signed," Matthew said seriously.

Then everyone looked at Matthew.

Matthew's eyes were full of things. Just now, his lawyers found something fishy in the contract that was about to be signed with Lee Group.

It turned out that this contract was indeed a trap.

"Wendell, today's signing ceremony is canceled," William said.

"But, Dad..." Wendell was hesitant.

"Cancel it immediately!" William repeated it.

Because of the cancellation of the contract, the media felt there must be some great news, and they all stood here, waiting for the representatives of both sides to appear so that they could interview.

There were some media outside who heard the rumors but did not receive an invitation, ready to catch some clues.

Caroline took a lot of effort to get out of the hotel entrance.

As soon as she came out, a Rolls Royce stopped, and John was standing there at the door.

"Miss Caroline, no, Mrs. Preston, Mr. Preston asks you to go back," said John.

Caroline was stunned.

She had just stopped Wendell from signing the contract, and how could she face Richard?

She ruined Richard's plan, so he must be very furious, and maybe he would even hit her! Caroline bit her lips. Anyway, this is already the case and she still had to question him about his plan.

"I will go with you to see him!" Caroline got into the car.

Chapter 76 Backbite

The Rolls Royce carried Caroline back to Richard's place.

Richard had already returned and was sitting on the sofa waiting for Caroline.

As soon as Caroline stepped into the house, she felt a strong hostile aura coming to her; this aura would be from Richard.

Chapter 77 Leaving Richard's Place

"Richard! Why are you doing this?" Caroline decided to make a pre-emptive strike and shouted at Richard as soon as she entered the door.

Richard raised his eyes and then lowered them, without speaking.

"You're going too far with this! Is it funny for you to ruin other people's company?!" Caroline angrily walked to the sofa but felt he was so dangerous, so she withdrew two steps back.

"You think you can do anything since you are rich and powerful, right? And do you think you can decide other people's life or death?" Caroline questioned Richard.

For the first time, Caroline felt that rich people were so annoying!

Richard coldly snorted, "Are you done with this?"

Once again, Caroline felt as if she had punched her fist into the air.

"Caroline, let me ask you a question," Richard asked seriously.

"What do you want to ask?" Caroline had nothing to say.

"Don't you think you're stupid? I'm helping you punish those who hurt you, and you're accusing me now," Richard sneered, "I think you can not distinguish between the right and the wrong."

Caroline carefully thought about it. It seemed that Richard did make a move against the South Group because of her. But the way he did was so cruel and Caroline could not accept it at all.

"But you are too ruthless. You want to destroy the South Group as a whole!" Caroline said.

"So what if it's ruined?" Richard didn't care about this at all.

Caroline's eyes are wide. Richard was really taking human life as nothing!

"What do you think of this?" Caroline asked.

"I don't care," Richard spread both his hands; the expression on his face was very indifferent.

"You don't care? The foundation of the South family for generations will be ruined by you! And in fact, it was Coco who stole Wendell from me, then why did not you do something to Coco?"

Richard looked at Caroline and didn't say anything.

Caroline saw something different in Richard's eyes.

"Is it you who..." Caroline was thinking about what was going on with Coco these days.

Coco was a star but there was no news about her recently. Could it be that Richard blocked Coco?!

"Richard!" Caroline roared, "What else have you done? Why didn't you tell me anything?"

"Since you don't want me to do it, then what's the point of me telling you about this?" Richard asked.

"I don't need you to do that! You stop all your plans immediately!" Caroline roared at him, "You are a horrible person and you are so cold-blooded!"

After Caroline said so much, the expression on Richard's face didn't change. When the word "cold-blooded" was said, his eyes turned unfathomable.

"Did you just say that I'm cold-blooded?" Richard asked.

"Yes, you are not only cold-blooded but also heartless! I do resent Coco and Wendell for betraying me, but I'm not going to take their lives! Do you think I'll appreciate your love? You'll only make me hate you more! I just want to leave you!"

Richard stood up.

Caroline was startled and took a small step backward.

"Caroline, you said you hate me?" he asked.

Richard's powerful aura made Caroline a little scared. She took a few more steps backward.

"I...I hate you. What are you going to do with me?" Caroline pretended that she was not afraid of Richard.

Richard's eyes deepened and he said, "You said you wanted to leave me?"

"That's right! I don't want to stay with you for another second," Caroline roared out

"Good! I'll let you go!" Richard said calmly.

Caroline heard Richard's words in a low voice.

"You said..." Caroline did not expect Richard would actually agree to her leaving.

"You said you let me go?" Caroline wanted to confirm.

"That's right! There is one thing," Richard's eyes were terrifyingly deep, "You'd better not regret it."

"I am so happy. How could I regret it?" Caroline said.

Richard sat down and hummed lightly, "Do not say this with certain. The future is not certain."

"Then, let's go have a divorce first," Caroline would be fully relieved when she got divorced.

"I'll give you one month. After one month, if you come back and tell me that you have no regrets, I will immediately have a divorce with you," said Richard.

Caroline spun her brain.

"I know you want to leave me right now but can't you just wait for one month? Or are you afraid that you will change your mind after a month?" Richard asked.

"I'm not afraid!" Caroline immediately retorted, "I will wait for one month!"

Caroline turned around and left, "Then I'm leaving!"

Just as she reached the door, John caught up with her, "Miss Caroline, please stay!"

Caroline stopped, "John, is there anything else?"

John smiled and held Caroline's cell phone with both hands, "You forgot your cell phone."

Caroline then remembered that when she escaped from Dream Island, she didn't carry the phone.

She picked up her phone from John's hand and said, "Thank you, John."

Caroline glanced at Richard who was sitting on the sofa, and then fled as if to leave.

John looked at Caroline's departing back and returned to Richard's side.

Richard's cold eyes were dark, "Is it installed?"

"Yes, and I have upgraded the positioning system for her phone. As long as the phone is with her, we can track her."

"What about the eavesdropping system?" Richard asked.

"I also installed. We can know all the contents of the text messages, and phone calls received on Miss Caroline's cell phone, and even the communication software was installed on her phone. Any text, or language information would be clear to you."

Richard nodded.

"But, Mr. Preston, do you really let Miss Caroline leave? The matter of the South Group is still in the limelight. Miss Caroline is bound to get involved. Although we have installed a positioning tracking system, Miss. Caroline might not take her phone with her?"

Richard exhaled, "That's exactly what I'm worried about; send someone to secretly follow her."

"Yes."

"Stay away from her. She is smart and she may find out at any time."

"Yes."

After explaining this series of things, Richard didn't relax even a little bit.

He wanted to see if Caroline could still survive after leaving his shelter!

But after Caroline left his place, she unexpectedly found that there was no place she could go.

Going back to the Fowler family? How could she have the courage to go back when she had signed the relationship severance letter?

She didn't know where to go other than the Fowler family, so she called Leo, or Louis. But Leo was not allowed to use communication devices.

Louis helped Caroline contact the apartment prepared for Leo and let Caroline live in it.

Meanwhile, Coco and Mark finally made a move.

Earth-shattering news immediately pushed Caroline to the limelight!
