Chapter 121 Thor

Climbing up from the ground, the big blonde, somewhat confused, shook in place for a few times.

"My... hammer? Hammer?!" Holding his dizzy head, the alien visitor looked for his partner everywhere. Obviously, the big blonde was the God Of Thunder Thor, who was banished from Asgard by Odin.

"Yeah, we can tell you're hammered. It's pretty obvious." Darcy was relieved to see that Thor was okay.

"(Gasp) Oh, My God. Erik! Look at this, we have to move quickly before this all changes!" Since the guy who was hit was fine, Jane was attracted by the mysterious pattern on the ground, and quickly yelled at Dr. Erik to record.

"Jane, we have to take him to the hospital!" Dr. Erik was still a little worried when he saw Thor still talking to himself.

"Father!" Without finding his hammer, the God Of Thunder began to shout towards the sky.

"He's fine. Look at him!" Jane obviously does not think Thor needs to go to the hospital.

"Heimdall! I know you can hear me! Open Bifrost and let me come back!"

"Okay~ Hospital, You go and I'll stay back here." After Thor continued shouting in the sky, Jane finally changed her tune. But she will not give up such a good opportunity to gather this information.

"What realm is this? Alfheim? Nornheim?" The God Of Thunder, who did not receive a response, turned to several people around him and asked.

"New Mexico." Darcy, who had just been frightened by the storm, answered, holding up the light and the shotgun in her hand. God Of Thunder's actions gave her an abnormal feeling that she needed an electric shotgun to give herself a sense of security.

"You dare to threaten me, Thor, with so puny a weapon?!" Seeing Darcy illuminating himself with light and pointing some kind of weapon on him, Thor asked disdainfully.

(Fires Taser Gun)

"Uh-uh-uh-uh"

Thump!

There is no doubt that Darcy fired and Thor, who had been deprived of his powers, was shocked directly by an electric shotgun. Lin Rui, standing next to Darcy, had no intention of meddling from the very beginning, which made it easier for Darcy to subdue Thor.

Soon, with the help of Lin Rui, Thor was moved into the car. After Jane recorded the mysterious circles on the ground, they drove back again. In fact, Lin Rui wanted to stay and wait for the hammer of God of Thunder to arrive, but he had no better reason, so he went back with Jane and others. After all, The God Of Thunder's hammer will not be taken away even if it falls down, Only someone worthy would be able to lift it as it was said by Odin.

"Name?"

"He said it was Thor."

"What is your relationship with him?"

"Uh....."

Jane and Darcy are registering Thor at the town hospital on the edge of the desert. As for Lin Rui, he stayed in the ward to make sure Thor woke up without causing any trouble.

"Woo..." Soon Thor, lying in bed, woke up. Despite being deprived of divine power, Thor's own strength is greater than that of an average person.

"Well? Where am I?" When Thor opened his eyes, he found himself in a completely unfamiliar place. He was "locked up" in a white room surrounded by some guys in weird white coats, one of whom still had "weapons".

"Who are you? How dare you attack the son of Odin!" Seeing the guy with the "weapon" walked to his side, Thor suddenly shouted and was about to jump down from the bed.

But just as he was about to sit up, a hand suddenly appeared on his chest and pushed him back. The God Of Thunder was pinched by one hand to the bed that he could not even move.

"You'd better lie down. We don't mean you any harm, Thor." Of course, it was Lin Rui, who had been here all the time, and Thor, who was no longer divine, was a slightly stronger human being. Lin Rui suppressed him with only a little internal energy.

"Who are you?!" Thor felt a huge force from the hand on his chest and squinted and asked.

"We can introduce ourselves later. Now let the doctor finish the checkup." Lin Rui did not answer Thor. "Doctor, don't worry, take the blood."

Although Thor is now on the earth, Lin Rui is curious about the difference between his body and human beings. So, while Thor is still a human being, he can check it as there will be no such good chance in the future.

"You dare to hurt me, Thor!" Thor could only watch the small weapon pierce his arm and draw some blood.

"God Of Thunder? No, you are just Thor now. Or do you think this little thing would have been able to hurt you otherwise?" Seeing Thor still yelling, Lin Rui faintly reminded him. He doesn't want to continuously consume his internal energy to keep this stupid big fella "quiet", this is not his style.

"What are you talking about?! I am God Of Thunder! Thor!" Hearing the words of Lin Rui, Thor, who shouted, couldn't believe it, and struggled harder. Perhaps Thor knew that he had been deprived of his power and was exiled by Odin, but he could not accept it for a while.

"Ok, doctor, you'd better give him some injections to help him keep quiet. I don't want him to take your room apart." Seeing Thor still not calming down, Lin Rui had to ask the doctor to prepare a tranquilizer.

"Happy to." The doctor who had been scared by Thor's yelling replies quickly and then took out the tranquilizer.

Puff

"You're no match for the mighty..." Soon, Thor, who was given a tranquilizer, has already sleeping heavily.

When Jane and Dr. Erik learned that Thor was fine but still not awake, they went back to their lab. After all, Thor was given a tranquilizer, and they had a major discovery tonight, they didn't have time to stay in the hospital to wait for Thor.

Of course, Lin Rui volunteered to stay and watch Thor, nicknamed him responsible because he drove the car that crashed into Thor. However, no one knows the real intention of his stay. After all, not everyone believes that extraterrestrial visitors will fall from the sky.

In this way, when Jane and Dr. Erik studied their latest discoveries overnight, Lin Rui stayed at Thor's bed, thinking about how to fool the prince of Asgard who was shot down.

Obviously the sedative given by the doctor was not enough for Thor, and Thor woke up in the early hours of the morning.

"Are you awake?" Sitting at Thor's bed, Lin Rui looked at him faintly.

But Thor, who woke up this time, seems a little different. He didn't yell or jump out of bed with excitement. He just kept his eyes open and looked calmly at the white ceiling of the ward. Seeing Thor in a daze, Lin Rui did not disturb him, so he sat quietly aside.

"Who are you?" About five minutes later, Thor's gaze finally refocused and asked Lin Rui, who looked sideways.

"My name is Jackson Lin, you can call me Jackson." This is Lin Rui's answer, simple and clear.

"Where is this?" Jackson." Thor then asked.

"Earth, the United States, New Mexico, In a Small Town, you are now in the town's only hospital."

After hearing where he was, Thor didn't say a word again, he seemed to be sorting out something.

"So, I was really exiled. The hammer is gone, Asgard, the Allfather..." A few minutes later, Thor spoke again and said something that normal people didn't understand. Of course, Lin Rui is obviously not a normal person. He knows what Thor has experienced.

"Now, Thor, would you like to tell me where you came from? Who are you?" Although he knows who Thor is, Lin Rui has to ask out of respect.

"Thor Odinson, I came from Asgard, a place you wouldn't know of." Taking a faint glance at Lin Rui, Thor answered.

“Oh, you can’t guarantee this.” Lin Rui smiled as he heard Thor. “So, Thor, why are you here?”

“I made some mistakes, I was deprived of my power by my father, and I was exiled. I need to find my hammer and then go back to Asgard.” Anyway, this is not a big deal for Thor. He’s now banished to a small planet he doesn’t know. He’s going back to Asgard.

“It shouldn’t be that easy. After all, if what you say is true, you are just an ordinary person now. And the Asgard you’re talking about should be far away.” Hearing Thor’s words, Lin Rui said lightly.

As Lin Rui knows, Thor was banished by Odin and the hammer was mythologized. Only when Thor realized his humility and compassion can he lift the Hammer again and gain his strength back. But Lin Rui, who remembers the plot, never understood how Thor finally lifted the hammer. He did not learn anything about humility and compassion on Earth at all. He just had a love affair here.

In the end, Thor raised the hammer and defeated the Destroyer. It was more like Odin couldn’t bear to see his son killed by his own war weapon and untied his own words. Therefore, Lin Rui does not whether this would become a reality in this world. What happens if Thor wasn’t able to lift the Hammer as he did in the movie for the final counterattack.

“Indeed, I am an ordinary person now. But Jackson, you’re not. I can feel your strength. Would you like to help me?” After Lin Rui finished, Thor stared at him and said it seriously.

Lin Rui: “...” This stupid big man doesn’t seem to look so stupid anymore?! This is Lin Rui’s current psychological thinking.

Chapter 122 Not The Same

It seems that Thor’s movie image is too deeply ingrained in Lin Rui’s mind as he never considered anything else. He has always been a good-looking warrior in Lin Rui’s heart, but his IQ and EQ are not high and he is impulsive. But after Thor woke up again and he had a simple conversation with Lin Rui. Lin Rui can confirm that Thor may have seen a little impulsive at first, but he’s not a big fool, although he’s really tall.

“Uh... Why am I not an ordinary person?” Instead of admitting it at first, Lin Rui asked.

“Although I was a little startled to be in another room, I still remember that it was you who pushed me on the bed. Not to mention that you have such strength in a little child’s body, I can also feel the magical power from your hands, like some kind of hierarchical suppression. I don’t think everyone in your place has your strength, do they?” Looking at Lin Rui, Thor answered calmly. Even in Asgard, a warrior who can use magic rarely have the strength that Lin Rui possesses at such a young age.

“Haha... Indeed, not everyone here has my strength. Also, I don’t like being called a kid. Besides, can’t you have a better attitude when you ask for someone’s help?” Faced with Thor’s questions, Lin Rui’s face was somewhat bad. If Thor was a big fool, he could simply fool him. Now, obviously, it would not be so easy to fool him.

“So, Jackson, would you like to help me find my hammer and help me get back to Asgard?” Apparently felt the change in Lin Rui’s attitude, Thor said with a smile.

"I didn't feel your sincerity at all." Grinning slightly, Lin Rui really thinks this God Of Thunder is not simple. Perhaps, in the beginning, he should not be as simple as he thought. A war god who often fights on the battlefield with various alien races, even if he is not good at winning with strategy, does not mean that Thor is really a stupid big man who can only fight with his hammer.

"Jackson, I remember when you found me there were three other people with you. Do they all know the power you have?" Obviously, it's not only Lin Rui who discovered Thor's differences. Thor also roughly judged Lin Rui's situation, but not yet so precise, so he made a bold guess.

"Oh, of course they know." Lin Rui won't let Thor succeed. Thor wouldn't know if he is lying or not. But he knows Thor's situation now. It is absolutely not good.

"Really? So Jackson, are you going to help me? I think you've been interested in me since the beginning. Actually, I'm just wondering if you know anything about me." Although he didn't see that Lin Rui was lying, Thor decided one thing was that the kid in front of him was really not easy. He seemed to be surprised at what he said as if he had known it for a long time.

"If anyone tells me later that Thor is the stupid guy in the movie, I am gonna murder him!" This is what Lin Rui thought at the moment.

"Well, I am indeed really interested in you, I promise to help you. But you can't talk to my friends. Also, you will owe me a favor." Finally, Lin Rui promised Thor. Anyway, he came over and wanted to see the Asgardian God with his own eyes. Helping Thor to regain his power while the said god would own him a favor is just an added benefit.

"Rest assured, Jackson, you'll know how valuable this favor is." With Lin Rui's assurance, Thor smiled at him and said.

"Hope is it. Ok, let's go, the day is about to start. We need to go back and talk about your business." In this way, Lin Rui and Thor's first formal conversation ended in a somewhat weird atmosphere. The crown prince of Asgard and the Vigilante on the earth made a verbal agreement between them.

The sky soon turned bright and Lin Rui and Thor also talked a lot while waiting for the dawn to approach. About Asgard, about the earth, this gives both sides a clearer understanding of each other. Thor easily accepted some of the things on earth, but he was surprised that Lin Rui was not surprised that he was an alien. This discovery made Thor more certain of his guess, Jackson is not an ordinary person.

"That sounds like the phenomenon you are studying seems to be related to the opening of Bifrost. That... Er -" After talking about their respective humanities, Lin Rui and Thor have talked about what Jane is doing.

"Jane, Miss Jane Foster. She's been looking for that kind of signal for months, and it seems that this time you've been thrown down provides us with the most authentic information." With a nod, Lin Rui picked up what Thor wanted to say.

"Well, yes, Jane. It seems that she is a real scholar, and she is so beautiful." Jane's ability to detect anomalies and lock in that magical pattern is really powerful, but Thor's focus seems to be wrong.

"Oh... I think we should be able to leave now." Not wanting to comment on Thor's words, Lin Rui has already stood up from the stool.

"OK, but I don't have any clothes to wear right now." Getting up from bed behind Lin Rui, Thor stood barefoot on the ground and looked at Lin Rui and said.

"Aren't you wearing some now? Come on, big fellow." Lin Rui had no time to find Thor a suitable suit and let him dress well in his sick clothes.

"I'm sorry, sir. His uniform must be returned to the hospital before he can be discharged. Moreover, his admission record is incomplete." While taking Thor with him to leave, Lin Rui had some trouble getting out of the hospital. The nurse did not intend to let Thor go out in his medical uniform like this, and his identity information was not at all in line with the rules.

"Well, beautiful nurse, we've paid all the admission fees. Shall I pay for this uniform?" Thor couldn't possibly have an identity, because he wasn't an earthman at all, so Lin Rui was going to talk a little bit about it.

"You have a sweet mouth, but you can't." Obviously, the fat nurse did not fall for Lin Rui's words.

"Why do you say so much? Why can't we just leave? They can't stop us at all." While Lin Rui was still trying to figure it out, Thor, standing behind, was a little impatient. Now he has only a thin sick suit and he is barefoot. He feels as cold and uncomfortable as ordinary people.

"Here, we need to follow some rules, I thought you just understood what we said in our conversation." Lin Rui turned back and explained that as he didn't want Thor to make trouble.

"You may have said that, but I didn't listen to it. That's another thing." As Asgard's prince, Thor has his own pride with arrogance mixed in it.

"OK! I have a way. Wait a minute. You can sit over there." I'm not sure, but Lin Rui knows someone should be able to help.

"I won't wait long." After pulling at his clothes, Thor went to the seat next to the corridor and sat down.

"Ah! Why did I promise to help him? At first, I just wanted to come and see it!" Seeing Thor, Lin Rui has a big headache. Then Lin Rui smiled at the nurse and took out his phone. "Hello, Kaecilius, this is Jackson. I have something I need your help with..."

After Lin Rui called for help, Kaecilius came quickly with some clothes suitable for Thor. With the help of Kaecilius, Thor quickly completed the discharge procedure. Sometimes this is the case. As long as the right person is found, some rules can be avoided.

"Thank you, Kaecilius, I still have to trouble you to send us back." Sitting on the off-road vehicle, Lin Rui smiled and thanked Kaecilius.

"No, you can find me if you have any problems here. I am happy to help. However, are you sure that this guy is mentally okay?" Laughing and waving, Kaecilius was more interested in Thor's behavior. Because he was looking up and down in the car now, as if he had found something interesting.

“Uh... He’s just a little excited, he won’t cause any problem.” Thor had never seen a car so he reacted like this, and Lin Rui remembered Thor’s visit to a pet shop to find a horse in the original plot.

“Ok ~”

Soon, Kaecilius took Lin Rui and Thor to the door of Dr. Jane and Erik’s laboratory warehouse. At this time, it was surrounded by more than a dozen black cars, and some shouts came from the experimental warehouse.

.....

Chapter 123 Meeting Coulson Again

“Hey! This is my research material! You can’t take them away like this!” In the lab, Jane was trying to stop the group of guys who were carrying their things out.

“Miss Foster, I am Agent Coulson of S.H.I.E.L.D.” When Jane stopped those suited men, a guy who looked like the leader came to her and introduced himself.

“Is that suppose to mean something to me? You don’t have the right to do this!” Jane doesn’t care what S.H.I.E.L.D. is or what it can do. She has worked hard to collect this data.

“Jane, let go. It seems this situation is a lot worse than we thought.” Dr. Erik, apparently much calmer, persuaded her to let go before things can get chaotic.

“Impossible! These are my efforts, my life!” Dr. Erik’s persuasion is obviously useless and Jane fully carries forward her stubborn character.

“We are investigating a security threat. We need to appropriate your records and atmospheric data.” Faced with Jane’s stubbornness, Coulson simply explained.

“By ‘appropriate’ do you mean steal?!” Jane could not accept such an explanation.

“Here, this should more than compensate you for your trouble.” Anyway, things have been taken away, and Coulson won’t explain so much to people who don’t have anything to do with it.

“Compensation?! I can’t buy these instruments on Radio Shake. Most of these instruments are made by myself! Listen, I am on the verge of understanding something extraordinary. My test data is in these instruments. You can’t... Hey! Jane still wants to argue for it, but the book that was taken out by her was taken away by the black man on the side.

“Miss Foster, believe us, we are not bad people.” Coulson was ready to leave, and he didn’t want to stay here anymore.

“Hey! You can’t do this!”

“So, Agent Coulson, can you really be called a good person for such actions?” Just as Coulson was about to leave, and Jane had exploded, a voice came from behind that they both knew.

Dada~

“Jackson! You are back!”

“Jackson? Why are you here?”

The first sentence was said by Darcy and the latter question was issued by Agent Coulson. From Coulson’s first contact with Tony, he met Lin Rui, who apparently knew him. However, Coulson didn’t know that Lin Rui was here which is a bit strange. The team observing him should have reported Lin Rui coming here to Coulson.

“Agent Coulson, you really have the style of S.H.I.E.L.D agents, doing something like this.” Without answering Coulson’s question, Lin Rui went straight up to him and said.

“Jackson, since you know this is S.H.I.E.L.D. operation, you should not interfere. If these people are your friends, please advise them that we will return the information and instruments in the future.” Coulson really didn’t know that Lin Rui would be here. Faced with Lin Rui, Coulson would certainly not brush him away like ordinary people without explaining a word.

“I know what S.H.I.E.L.D. does, but can you return Miss Foster’s book? It’s just a notebook. It’s not worth mentioning compared to how many instruments and research you dragged away.” Standing in front of Coulson, Lin Rui asked lightly. Although it’s normal for S.H.I.E.L.D. to take Jane’s information and things, it’s not a good explanation. It’s not humane to leave nothing behind. Lin Rui also wants to see if Jane can work out something deeper.

“You know that’s not possible. All the information needs to be retrieved...” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Coulson refused without thinking.

“Really? Maybe I should call Tony. I think he’ll be happy to hear what is it that you are doing here, Agent Coulson.” Knowing that Coulson would refuse, Lin Rui had taken out his trump card.

S.H.I.E.L.D. had just offended Tony some time ago and now Nick Fury is eager to recruit Tony for the Avengers, so Tony is now a VIP to S.H.I.E.L.D. Agent Coulson, who has been in charge of Tony, obviously knows this, so when Lin Rui mentioned Tony, his face changed.

“I think I’d better call.” Seeing Coulson still remains silent, Lin Rui has pulled out his cell phone.

“Well, Harvey! Return Miss Foster’s book to her!” Seeing that Lin Rui really called Tony, Coulson finally did not insist. It’s just a book. It’s not worth making Tony upset about S.H.I.E.L.D. anymore than it already has.

“Thank you.” Taking Jane’s information book, Lin Rui smiled and thanked Coulson.

“Jackson, you can’t get involved in this.” Still stiff-faced, Coulson reminded him and left.

Huh~

Looking at Coulson and the men in black driving away, Lin Rui turned around and returned the book to Jane. “Miss Foster, that’s all I could do. I’m sorry.”

“Thank you! Although I don’t know how you did it.” After receiving the book Lin Rui handed over, Jane didn’t know what else to say.

“Wow! Jackson, how did you do that? Who is this Tony? Even these people knew him. That Coulson guy seems to be afraid of him.” Darcy has already rushed to Lin Rui and hugged him.

"It's nothing, we just know each other. Their department has higher rights and is mysterious. However, they will return your information and equipment, Miss Foster." Breaking free from Darcy's hug, Lin Rui explained briefly and assured Jane.

"As for Tony, he's just a friend of mine. Coulson is not afraid of him, but of the trouble he is able to bring and Tony is obviously the one who can bring him big trouble." Lin Rui just deliberately said only Tony's name, not Mr. Stark.

Tony is a common name, but once you add Stark, it's totally different. although there may be tens of thousands of Tony Stark in the United States, only one has the impact behind his name that can play a role in this situation.

"I knew you had a lot of money!" Slapping Lin Rui's on his shoulder, Darcy said excitedly.

"Jackson, thank you." Dr. Erik also sincerely thanked Lin Rui, he did not expect his intern to have such a big come.

"Hey! Jackson, everything okay in there?" Just as Lin Rui watched Coulson leave in frustration, Kaecilius's voice came from behind.

Then Thor came along with Kaecilius. Just now Lin Rui asked Thor and Kaecilius to wait in the car because he didn't want Coulson to see Thor. Perhaps Coulson, a senior agent, could see something wrong with Thor. After all, SHIELD may have dealt with aliens before.

"Everything's all right, Kaecilius." Seeing Kaecilius worried, Lin Rui answered with a smile.

"It's okay, those government officials have great rights, but if they want to do something on our site, they first have to get clear with us. So, if you have any problems next time, remember to look for me." Kaecilius obviously saw the overbearing of those black-dressed people and reminded Lin Rui. Thor, who came in with Kaecilius, didn't talk and just faintly looked at a few people.

"Thank you, but they shouldn't come back to trouble anymore." Lin Rui is concerned about Kaecilius, but he does not think that SHIELD would care about the local Law Enforcement.

"He's the guy we bumped into last night! I didn't expect to see a handsome man now!" While Lin Rui was chatting with Kaecilius, Darcy saw Thor standing there like a model, and said foolishly.

"Uh-yeh, Every test was done upon him by the doctors. Everything is OK. But he lost something in the desert last night, and I promised to help him find it." Seeing Darcy noticing Thor. (Of course, she would notice the handsome man who was over 1.9 meters.) Lin Rui explained briefly on the side.

"Hello, I am Thor Odinson, from Asgard." After Lin Rui finished, Thor, a very gentleman, took the first step to introduce himself, and of course, he came to Jane. Although Thor is a god, he lives in the city and knows some basic etiquettes.

"Hey~ hello, I am Jane Foster. This is Dr. Erik Selvig, my friend, and teammate, this is my research assistant Darcy." Looking at Thor greeting herself politely, Jane briefly introduced the people on her side.

"So you're studying stars? And Bifrost?" Thor was interested to hear Jane's introduction.

“Eh? What Bifrost?” Hearing Thor said that word, Jane didn’t know what he meant.

“Well, well, let’s go in first. The sun is dead outside.” Not wanting to talk too much about extraterrestrials in front of Kaecilius, Lin Rui pushed Thor to the warehouse lab.

“Kaecilius, you go back first. Thank you so much for today.” While pushing Thor in the Laboratory, Lin Rui said goodbye to Kaecilius.

“OK! Call me if you need anything.” Waving his hand at Lin Rui, Kaecilius turned and headed for his SUV.

“Thor, what did you just say about Bifrost?” Following Lin Rui and Thor, Jane asked aloud, she thought the Bifront must have a lot to do with her research.

Darcy also came inside, leaving Dr. Erik alone outside, as if thinking about something important.

“Asgard? The name... so familiar...”

Chapter 124 Finding The Hammer

Most of the experimental equipment in the experimental warehouse were confiscated and all the data was gone with them, Jane’s experiment could not be completed temporarily. However, she now has at least her own transcript and an alien who was dumped over to Earth.

“So, Asgard really exists, and you came to Earth through the Einstein–Rosen bridge?” Lin Rui, Thor, and Jane were sitting in a fast-food restaurant in the town eating breakfast, and they had heard Thor’s explanation of their origins. But besides Jane’s surprise, neither Dr. Erik nor Darcy believed Thor’s words.

“But we prefer to call it Bifrost.” After eating all three waffles in front of him, Thor smiled at Jane and answered.

“Asgard, how is this possible?! Are those all true? Nine Realm? The god’s palace!?” Dr. Erik, who also heard Thor’s history, was not so receptive, but apparently he knew something about Asgard and the Nine Realms.

“Doctor, do you know anything?” Jane asked curiously at Erik’s exclamation. She didn’t know that Erik had studied these alien civilizations before and he didn’t believe it all the time.

“I have done some research on it, but I always thought that those stories are only in mythology. But if he really came from Asgard, then those stories are likely to be true!” Looking at Thor, Dr. Erik said something exciting and incredible. If it can be proved, then they will be the first to make contact with extraterrestrial civilization!

“What is it?” Darcy is interested in these things now.

“It’s a Nordic myth. Legend tells us that there is a great world tree in the universe. It breeds nine realms full of life. Among them is Asgard, a country with a great God Odin...” As the rest of the audience watched, Dr. Erik spoke slowly about what he knew.

“The story is very mythical, but most of it is still true. It seems that the Asgardians left behind some stories after helping the Earth.” After listening to Dr. Erik’s story, Thor’s calmly said after finishing three waffles. "Asgard is not only one of Nine Realms, but also the greatest one. We are responsible for safeguarding the security and peace of the world tree and Nine Realms."

"Well, you did a good job!" Hearing Thor boasting, Darcy rolled her eyes and muttered.

"Your human civil war is not within our protection. An intergalactic war between two or more races is our focus. Just when I was dropped here with my powers stripped from me, Asgard was fighting the Frost Giants." Darcy's words were not loud, but they weren't very low, so Thor heard them.

"So, now that you are in a war, why are you here? You just said that you are the prince of Asgard, a god of war. As a god of war, shouldn't you be at the front of the battlefield in this race war?" This time, Jane asked, but this question was a little awkward for Thor.

"Because... this war broke out because of me." In the end, Thor still admitted his mistake. But it is already too late. If he had bowed to Odin early and admitted his mistakes, Odin would not have sent his child to the earth for reflection.

"So, you mean that you started an interplanetary race war!!" Hearing Thor's answer, Jane couldn't believe it.

"Oh... you can say that, so I was deprived of my power, the symbol of my power, my hammer was taken from me, and I was exiled. However, I will definitely get back my power, I will find the hammer and return to Asgard again and lead the brave Asgard fighters and wipe out the Frost Giants!" The atmosphere was a little awkward, but Thor quickly fooled it with his aggressive oath.

Gu Du~

After drinking the breakfast tea, Thor raised his hand and threw the cup away, indicating that he liked it very much. The cup had been thrown out, but it was not broken on the ground but was caught by one hand.

"Thor, here, when we like something, we don't throw it, but ask the waiter for a refill." Lin Rui, who has a few black lines hanging on his head, slowly put the cup on the table and then said seriously to Thor.

"Oh, is it? You didn't mention it before!" Listening to Lin Rui, Thor was surprised and he brought the cup to his hand again.

Crack!

This time, Lin Rui did not catch the cup thrown on the floor by Thor. Since he just likes to do it, Lin Rui is too lazy to take care of him.

"I like it very much, bring me another!" That's Thor. He wants to do what he wants to do, whether or not he's told that he's not right. It was because of this kind of behavior that Thor who deprived of his divine power by Odin and was banished to the earth.

"I think I'm beginning to regret promising him in getting the hammer." Seeing Thor's like this, Lin Rui held his head and thought in silence. This Thor is not foolish or simple, but he is still arrogant and blind. He did not even respect Odin, let alone these little earthlings.

Thor's actions apparently startled Jane, but they could only follow him to clean up his mess. As for Lin Rui, he didn't want to reveal his secrets to Jane so he had to let Thor behave in this way. Otherwise, Lin Rui would've taught Thor how to be a human rather than a God while he's still a human. But Lin Rui knows that Thor will get back his hammer and his power and by that time the teachings may turn towards him. Lin Rui remembers that in the movie, Thor was the only Avenger who could take on the Hulk physically. Lin Rui doesn't want to anger the God Of Thunder.

Just as Thor threw the cup on the ground and Jane was explaining to the restaurant waiter, the two locals pushed in and walked in while discussing the interesting things happening in the desert. It seems that there is a satellite that fell from the sky, and it is very heavy, no one can lift it up.

"Where's that thing you just said?" Thor, who sat at the table and continued to eat waffles, was keen to hear the conversation over there, and quickly cut in and asked.

"Fifty miles west of here." Under Thor's very deterrent body shape, the two local cowboys quickly explained.

"Jackson, let's go, I think I found my hammer." Hearing the location of the "satellite", Thor shouted to Lin Rui as he walked outside. He can still remember that this young man with some strength promised to help him find his hammer. This is the time to take him.

"Hey! You can't just call one of my researchers away, especially if we don't know what you're going to do yet?" As Lin Rui stood up somewhat helplessly, Jane suddenly stopped in front of Thor and shouted loudly.

Although Jackson is an intern with Dr. Erik, he's also a member of their research team, Jane will not let Jackson and Thor leave until she figures out what the Prince of Asgard is going to do.

"Don't worry, Miss Foster. I promised Thor when I was in the hospital that I'll help him find his hammer. Don't worry, I'll be fine." Lin Rui didn't expect Jane to stand up and obstruct Thor so he had to explain.

Although Lin Rui was also reluctant to be led by Thor, he also wanted to see what God Of Thunder's hammer was like. If he had the chance, he would like to hold it and see if he could lift the hammer, though it was impossible.

"If you're worried about Jackson, I don't mind if you come along." There was no anger at Jane's obstruction and Thor suggested with a laugh.

"Good! I'll go with you!" Jane believed Thor's story, so she was willing to take risks for her own research.

"Jane! Don't be too impulsive!" Dr. Erik persuaded her to not go, he still thought it was just a story. As for Thor, he was just a fantastic psychopath who happened to know the myth. After all, there is no evidence that he is an alien.

"Nothing, Erik, I believe we will be fine. Let's go, Jackson." Picking up her jacket, Jane has taken the lead.

"I like this woman." Looking at Jane's stubborn back, Thor smiled and said to Lin Rui.

Lin Rui: "... It seems that no matter how much the story changes or how smart Thor is, some things will never change. That's Lin Rui's thought of the day at the moment.

Chapter 125 Thor That Does Not Listen To Advice

Despite Dr. Erik and Darcy's warnings, Jane and Lin Rui and Thor soon got on the road, and Jane volunteered to drive and Lin Rui would not argue with her. Lin Rui and Thor are sitting behind the driver's seat in the RV. Now that the equipment in the RV has been looted by Coulson, there is quite a bit of space here.

After playing with his cell phone for a while, Lin Rui saw that Thor had been looking at Jane driving in front of him but hadn't spoken to her, so he felt that if he did not break the silence, Jane would be stared at for the whole drive by Thor. "Thor, you said that was your hammer, but someone had found it. Wouldn't it be taken away?"

"No one can lift my hammer, except me." Hearing Lin Rui's question, Thor turned his eyes back and said proudly. That's the hammer of God Of Thunder. Without the power of God Of Thunder, it's impossible to be recognized by Mjolnir. That's the magic enhancements done to it at the very beginning of the casting of the hammer. Of course, Thor said less about Odin as Odin had more advanced powers that enable him to lift the hammer without any problems.

"That's your wishful thinking now. The hammer that Odin endowed with his magic will not be lifted so simply by you again." Hearing Thor's words, Lin Rui thought in silence.

"Oh, that's interesting. When you find your hammer, do you mind if I try to lift it?" Although he's thinking something else, Lin Rui obviously can't say it out loud and he really wants to try and lift the God Of Thunder's hammer.

"Of course, if you lift it up, it doesn't matter if I send Mj?lnir to you!" Hearing Lin Rui's request, Thor generously agreed. Since Thor was given the hammer to control his powers, no one has been able to lift it except him and Odin.

"Oh, I just wanna try it, I don't like to run around with a hammer." Laughing, Lin Rui said he wasn't interested in Thor's hammer. He feared that once he showed interest in his hammer, Thor's countless heroic stories would follow.

Sure enough, after Lin Rui said this, some of the things Thor wanted to boast about were choked back. Although Thor wanted to tell Lin Rui that only those who wield weapons of powers similar to his hammer are powerfull but he did not say that when he looked at Lin Rui's small body.

However, although Lin Rui and Thor talked to each other and finally elevated the awkward atmosphere in the RV. Thor had gathered in the front seat to talk to Jane. Instead of caring about how the relationship between Thor and Jane developed, Lin Rui now worries that Coulson may have enclosed the hammer. In the original story, Thor bursts in and finds himself lost when he can't lift his hammer. Erik finds an excuse to rescue him. Moreover, when Thor was in custody, Loki came to deceive him that Odin was dead, leaving Thor immersed in self-blame.

But in Lin Rui's opinion, these plots are completely nonsense in reality. Now Thor is just a strong ordinary man. He couldn't have broken through so many security personnel to get to the hammer. Would the security guards of S.H.I.E.L.D. be so useless? Moreover, Dr. Erik could not have saved Thor from breaking into S.H.I.E.L.D. so easily and Coulson would not have released him without a full background check.

So to get Thor to his hammer, Lin Rui can only expect Coulson to move less quickly. If the hammer is really sealed up, Lin Rui can only advise Thor not to be impulsive, because he can't lift the hammer right now. Tony's face is not always useful, and Lin Rui doesn't want S.H.I.E.L.D. to pay too much attention to himself, even though he has already been noticed.

The RV drove very fast in the desert rocks and within forty minutes they reached their destination. After seeing the crater that was created by the hammer, Lin Rui was still a little shocked. It was really something from an alien civilization.

Now, in the middle of the pit, there are a lot of S.H.I.E.L.D. agents who are driving out the local people who came here to join in the fun. The Hammer has been blocked by a simple fence in the center and then they are going to build a small research base centered around the pit, specializing in the weird hammer that can't be picked up or moved at all. Although Lin Rui arrived earlier than the original plot, S.H.I.E.L.D. had already taken charge of the area.

"It seems that we're a little late. Whether it's your hammer or not, they have it now and fighting them is not good. I think maybe you don't need to rush back to your hammer for the time being." Standing at the edge of the huge pit, Lin Rui said to Thor, who was next to him.

"That's my hammer. How can they take over my stuff?" Thor doesn't understand Lin Rui's words and has already walked into the pit.

"Miss Foster, you stay here." Saying this to Jane, Lin Rui has chased Thor down. "Can't you listen to me for once?"

"Although I was exiled, Mjǫlnir will recognize me. As long as I get my hammer, I will recover my power," Thor said as he walked.

It should have been correct. Thor, who was deprived of his divine power under normal circumstances, only needs the hammer and the power of God Of Thunder contained in it will help Thor to recover again. However, that was the case when Odin did not give his words of restrictions to Mjǫlnir. Now, the hammer would not recognize this Thor and it will not help him in regaining his power.

"I know that hammer is yours, but now it's under the supervision of the U.S. government. It's no good for you to rush through like that. And don't forget that you're just a human being now." Following Thor, Lin Rui earnestly persuaded him.

"As far as those guys are concerned, I can deal with them without my divine power." Thor wouldn't put the S.H.I.E.L.D. soldiers who stood outside to patrol in the eyes. He was a god and even without his powers, he would be able to deal with them. However, he may have forgotten that he was pushed on his hospital bed without being able to move by a small child when he said this sentence.

"OK, then you go. I'll take you back when you get a bruised nose and a swollen eye." Seeing that his persuasion has failed, Lin Rui stopped. He bet Thor would come back in vain and he would not even be able to look at the hammer before he gets subdued by the agents of SHIELD. It shouldn't be too hard for Lin Rui to go to Coulson afterward to redeem him. After all, someone here is also interested in the hammer that can't be lifted.

Without paying attention to Lin Rui, Thor just waved his hand and continued to walk toward the fence that was surrounded.

"Hey! It's my hammer, I'm going to take it away." Thor yelled in front of the guardrail.

"This place has been taken over by the government. You need to leave the premises." For Thor's request, the guard outside only thought that Thor was a fool who came to try the magic hammer. Because before S.H.I.E.L.D. arrived here, the magic hammer had been tried by countless people but no one had been successful in picking it up.

"Well, I will leave." Seeing that he was stopped, Thor nodded and was ready to turn and leave.

"Huh? What's going on? How easy is he to..."

Puff!

Lin Rui's murmur is not over yet and Thor, who turns over there, has taken advantage of the two guards' relaxed vigilance to quickly punch one guard and knock the other out, then he kick the first one and knocked the two guards out.

"I said that I am coming to take my hammer." Clapping his hands. Thor has already walked inside the guardrail.

"Oh! That must have hurt!" Seeing Thor knocking out the two guards and sneaking into it, Lin Rui only felt bad for the two guys on the ground. As for Thor, who sneaked in, Lin Rui waited for him to be caught.

Puff!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Soon, a fight broke out over the fence, and Thor was found. The fighting lasted for about a minute and then stopped. Either Thor leveled everyone or Thor was leveled, Lin Rui preferred the latter.

After a while, Lin Rui felt that whatever the outcome was, it should be over. So he began to walk slowly to the front and finally squatted down beside the two fallen guards.

"Hey! Are you okay? I came to see Agent Coulson. Can you help me?"

Chapter 126 Exchange Conditions

In the crater that was created by Mj?lnir, a small laboratory was quickly built. S.H.I.E.L.D.'s Infrastructure process was quite efficient. Now, Lin Rui and Coulson are sitting face to face in a simple little room.

"Jackson, what are you doing here again? Did you come here to get the things of your beautiful instructor back? As I said before, we will not return them until we have finished our own research." Sitting in his chair, Coulson looked at Lin Rui, who was sitting in front of him and said lightly.

“Uh... I know, I’m not here to ask you for the test data and instruments.” It was embarrassing, but Lin Rui went on to say, “I actually heard that something magical had been discovered here, so I wanted to come and see it.”

“Something magical? You mean the hammer, it looks like the hammer is connected to the earth.” Although S.H.I.E.L.D. has blocked it, the hammer has been exposed for a long time before, and it’s nothing new for someone to know about it.

“Well, I’ve heard that nobody can pick up that hammer and even with a machine, it can’t be moved, even a bit, so I’m interested.” With a nod, Lin Rui said that and he is really interested in the hammer. “Agent Coulson, can you let me try it?”

“Jackson, do you know what is happening now? This is a first-class level event, especially since we just had an intruder. Don’t you think that it is a bit inappropriate for you to make this request now?” Looking at the young man in front, Coulson asked two questions. For Lin Rui, Coulson is very optimistic. A young man who is smart and courageous and has a relationship with Tony Stark, S.H.I.E.L.D. is sure to absorb him.

“Well, it’s not really appropriate. Well, Can you let me look at the hammer and can you release the man who just broke in? He’s a friend of mine, he just wants to try that hammer.” Guessing that Coulson won’t let himself touch Mj?lnir so easily, Lin Rui asked something else. Lin Rui feared that Loki would appear after Thor had been locked up for a long time, and he didn’t know what would happen.

“You said that the intruder was your friend? He just beat down fifteen special troops agents. Your friend is quite amazing.” Coulson thought that Lin Rui had been joking with himself. He thought that the guy was a terrorist just now. Now Lin Rui said he was a friend.

“I am really sorry, he’s a bit lose in his head. After he heard that there was a hammer that no one can pick up, he came over here to try himself. As for hurting those special troops, he wouldn’t even be able to get past one of them, how can he beat that many, are you sure they were good as they had said?” Lin Rui first apologized for Thor, then asked a question full of sarcasm to Coulson.

“I would just pretend that you didn’t say the last sentence. However, your friend’s mental problems are not small. After we caught him, he kept shouting that the hammer belonged to him.” Coulson couldn’t help but twitch after hearing Lin Rui’s sarcasm. But it is true, his subordinates had been dumped by a single guy.

“Well, I’ll try to persuade him.” “Sincerely” Lin Rui assured.

“Then take him away when you go out, the guy is going crazy there.” Coulson also did not explore whether Lin Rui was telling the truth, and he had no time to tangle with them.

“Thank you, Agent Coulson. Actually, I’ve been interning behind Miss Jane Foster, and I think I can help you with this hammer. After all, didn’t you confiscate Miss Foster’s information to study for yourself just because you didn’t want to involve ordinary people in this mess? And I’m somewhere in the middle. I know you both exist and I have professional knowledge.” Thor’s business is not important. Lin Rui also wants to study Mj?lnir. So he volunteered to recommend himself, and as for what he said, he had indeed been following Jane in the internship, anyway, in a research group, it was not a lie.

"Ohh? Jackson, do you really know these things?" Coulson's eyes lit up at Lin Rui's words. Jane's materials and equipment have indeed been moved here, but it will take some time for SHIELD to understand them, which is far from being helped by someone who already knows them.

"Of course, I bet you have already made the connection that the magical hammer might be an alien item?" Slightly tilted his lips, Lin Rui asked.

"It seems that you really know something? Maybe you can really help us." When he heard Lin Rui, Coulson felt that the observation talent that made Lin Rui the third sequence candidate was a bit low.

"I'd love to." Spreading his hands, Lin Rui said earnestly.

"Well, I agree with you to join the research group. But you should know what to say and what not to say." With Tony's relationship, Coulson took it for granted that Lin Rui's understanding of S.H.I.E.L.D. was due to Tony, so after thinking about it for a while, Coulson agreed to his proposal.

"Of course, I know the level of confidentiality that this kind of thing requires." Laughing, Lin Rui promised, "Well, let me send that big fool back first, and then I'll come back and help you with that magical hammer. After all, we were there, experimenting on the spot when that thing appeared."

"Well, I'll say hello to the guard who's holding that fool." With a wave, Coulson let Lin Rui go.

"Thor, are you okay? I heard that you were caught." Leaving Coulson, Lin Rui was taken to Thor's room and asked with a grin when he saw Thor on his stool.

"That's all right! How could these ordinary people stop me if I hadn't been powerless now?" Although there were many injuries on his face and body, Thor said proudly.

"I know you're good, but aren't you powerless now? And your hammer won't come back. Do you really think you can pick up the hammer if you touch it? If the hammer was still connected to you, it will fly over when you call it. That's what you said to me." Sitting at the table in front of Thor, Lin Rui said lightly.

"Maybe it's just sleeping. I'll know once I held it in my hand." In fact, Thor knew that he had lost his connection with Mj?lnir, but he was reluctant to admit it.

"Well, now you know that these ordinary people can hurt you. So, put the hammer out of your mind for a while and I think you'll get it back once you are ready. Now, you'd better go back with Jane. I promised one of the supervisors here and they will let you go." Sitting on the table, Lin Rui opened his eyes and began to fool Thor.

"Jackson, I know you are not an ordinary person, you have promised to help me. I trust you, I hope you don't let me down." Staring at Lin Rui's eyes, Thor said seriously.

"Rest assured, what I promised will be done. Now, let me take you out." Standing Up from the table, Lin Rui started unlocking Thor's cuff holds with a key in his hand.

A few minutes later, Lin Rui and Thor walked out of the test area under the care of several guards. Lin Rui came out of his own, and Thor was forced out. After all, his first impression of these guards was not good.

"You go back first, I should be able to come back soon. Remember, don't cause any trouble. I'll help you." Before Thor left, Lin Rui told him two more sentences. He now wants Thor and Jane back to have a good relationship or something.

"I'll try." Looking at Lin Rui, Thor agreed. He also came to the earth less than a day ago. His understanding of the world civilization is almost all known in the chat with Lin Rui. He still needs to learn a lot.

Then Thor left in front of the eyes of the guards he had thrown down. Jane has been waiting outside. They should be able to safely return to town.

"Huh! At last, I fooled him away! But looking at Thor's mental state, didn't Loki come to him? Or is it because we were too soon and Loki hasn't come yet?" Lin Rui sighed with relief as Thor disappeared. But there was still a doubt in his mind: Loki, the second prince of Asgard who had banished Thor, where is he?

"Nevertheless, it's better if he did not appear. The guy is full of lies, Thor is not so normal and Loki may be more cunning than shown in the movie, I hope to never meet him." Shaking his head, Lin Rui turned and walked towards the experimental base.

God Of Thunder's Hammer, I'm here. Nobody can lift it? I've always wanted to try!"

Chapter 127 Accident

It took half a day to build the experimental base around the hammer. And Lin Rui was also successfully involved in the research group by Coulson, which is also a test of Lin Rui's third-tier talent.

"Jackson, right? I heard that you have temporarily joined our research team. I wonder if you have any history with Agent Coulson? Are you related to Agent Coulson?" In the research group lounge, a 30-year-old man approached Lin Rui and asked. It looks like he wants to know Lin Rui's details and how to get along with him. Although S.H.I.E.L.D. is a complex organization, a good relationship with an Advanced agent is of great benefit.

"Oh, Agent Coulson? No, I am not related to him." Lin Rui smiled and denied his guess when he heard the man.

"Really?" It doesn't matter then. They naturally don't have to pay much attention to Lin Rui. The man turns around and leaves.

"I'm here to help. After all, Mr. Stark has something to do with your S.H.I.E.L.D." Seeing the man turn away and the other researchers looking away from him after his last sentence, Lin Rui adds another sentence.

"Mr. Stark? Which Stark?"

"You don't mean Stark's Stark?" Hearing the word Stark, the man who just turned quickly turned back and asked with some surprise.

“Are there really that many Stark?” Lin Rui asked while smiling.

Lin Rui just came over to see and study Mj?Inir. He doesn't really have to work with these people but he didn't want to alienate himself either. It's better to let them know from the beginning that they are not in the highest position in the hierarchy here.

“Jackson, what is your relationship with Mr. Stark?” This time, a woman asked, much more careful than before.

“Relationship? We are friends.” Lin Rui answered generously, this is the only way that these researchers will not work against him as Lin Rui knows that may happen in a small group.

“Hey~that, Jackson, wait for us to start research, you can follow me, I will help you.”

“I will also help you, I have been doing research in this area for a long time!”

” I am the senior, I should help him!”

After Lin Rui talked about his relationship with Tony, the researchers gathered in front of him and began to show off. Tony Stark, Iron Man is still a good brand.

“Well, I'll learn from you. But should we start? We should finish the research earlier and get the results earlier.” Smiling, Lin Rui wants to try the hammer.

“Of course, we'll go now.”

“I can't wait!”

“Let's go!”

At Lin Rui's suggestion, these researchers were excited and they began to prepare the instrument to go to the center to study the hammer.

“This Jackson, on the contrary, is quite capable,” Coulson muttered helplessly when he saw everything on the screen in his office.

“That's where he's smart. And what he said is true, Tony really likes him, otherwise, we would not give him so much leeway.” Behind Coulson was Hawkeye, another agent responsible for the incident.

“You say, what is the relationship between him and Tony? Is it really a simple appreciation? It's said that Tony has let him worn the Iron Man Armor. It's not just like him.” As Lin Rui and the researchers on the monitor left the room and headed for the hammer, Agent Coulson asked Hawkeye silently behind him.

“What do you mean? Tony has Pepper!” Hawkeye apparently misunderstood Coulson's meaning, shouting in disbelief.

“Oh, I certainly don't mean that. I mean there may be blood relationships between them, you know.” Coulson certainly understood what Hawkeye had misunderstood and quickly explained.

“But haven't you done the test long ago? Jackson can't be Tony's illegitimate son. There's no intersection between the Stark and Jackson families either.” Hawkeye did not understand Coulson's words.

"I don't know. Anyway, I think there should be something between them that we don't know." Shaking his head, Agent Coulson said lightly.

"Maybe it's just fate? Tony is a genius, Jackson is also a genius, geniuses attracts geniuses.

"Maybe."

"Jackson, that's what we're going to study, a hammer that fell from the sky, a magical hammer."

"It's like it appeared here out of thin air and rooted itself in the ground. Even if we empty the ground, it will follow the landing and cannot be picked up.

"We can't detect what it was made of, at least not any of the known materials on Earth."

"We can't find the origin of those patterns on the hammer, it isn't like any culture of the earth."

"So, we came to a conclusion."

"That is, it's an alien item. And we've got Jane Foster's research, your former mentor, and her research has helped us to identify that further."

Bringing Lin Rui to the hammer, the researchers opened their mouths one by one to tell him what they knew about the hammer, thinking that this would make Lin Rui feel good about themselves. But Lin Rui knows far more than they do.

"Miss Foster's research, I know, is correct. The hammer probably came through the Einstein Rosen Bridge, and I'm sure you all know what happened in the desert yesterday." Slowly approaching God Of Thunder's hammer, Lin Rui said without raising his head.

"It's probably Einstein Rosen bridge, but we haven't personally tested it when the vision happens, and Miss Foster's research is only partially documented and can't be determined."

"Moreover, we need to assess whether the incident was unexpected or regular. This is not reflected in Miss Foster's research. You know, if we determine that there is a stable and transmissible Einstein Rosen Bridge here, it means not only that we have been in contact with an alien civilization, but also that we are more likely to have consequences that we cannot afford.

As Lin Rui slowly approached God Of Thunder's hammer, two senior researchers behind him took the information in their hands seriously. Although the hammer excites them, they have not forgotten how great a threat an extraterrestrial civilization, especially an extraterrestrial civilization that can build stable space channels, poses to the earth. This is not only a great discovery but also a discovery that may bring destruction to the earth.

"Well, I quite agree with you. However, I think the appearance of the Einstein Rosen Bridge is only an accident, and the appearance of the hammer should be just an accident too. But once we have determined that the Einstein Rosen Bridge is on Earth, we'd better start preparing ourselves for extraterrestrial civilization. Crossing the fence around God Of Thunder's hammer, Lin Rui has come to it.

And he's also guiding fellows around him and Coulson on the side of the monitor, although Asgard's responsibility is to protect Nine Realms and Earth is within its protection. But Lin Rui knows that Asgard is not safe and the Earth is not. In a year or two, the Invasion of the New York War will come and Lin Rui will not watch as the Earth is invaded without any preparation. Moreover, Lin Rui had a hunch that if the Invasion of New York really happened, it would not be the little fuss that was shown in the movies.

"Ha-ha, isn't this our job?" Hearing Lin Rui's words, the researcher standing outside the fence echoed with a smile.

By this time, Lin Rui was very close to God Of Thunder's hammer, and he seemed to have seen something wrong with it.

"Jackson, you're a little too close. It's against the rules." The reminder from the researcher behind him was ineffective, and Lin Rui, standing next to the God Of Thunder hammer, slowly extended his hand.

"Hey, Jackson, we can't get so close to it without authorization!" As Lin Rui held out his right hand towards God Of Thunder's hammer, the researcher behind him warned again, but it was still useless.

"What is he doing?" Just wanting to see if he can pick up that hammer? At the other end of the monitor, Coulson also saw Lin Rui's movements, muttering helplessly.

Hoo!

Finally, Lin Rui's right hand was held on the handle of God Of Thunder's hammer after the reminder was failed again. The next moment, Lin Rui's body shook with an electric shock, then there was no movement, he stood there like a sculpture holding the hammer of God Of Thunder.

"Jackson? Jackson?"

"Hey! Are you all right? Nobody can move the hammer a bit."

Boom!

Crack!

Just as Lin Rui was holding the God of Thunder hammer and the researchers called him from behind, a thunder suddenly appeared over the research base and then it descended straight down, towards the God of Thunder hammer held by Lin Rui.

Rumble~

Chapter 128 Crisis

Rumble!

Boom.

"What happened?! I need to know now!" Looking at the blurred screen in front of him, Coulson shouted in his walkie-talkie. Just as Coulson was about to watch Lin Rui pick on the hammer, a flash suddenly fell in front of the camera and the screen blurred. But before the screen blurred, Coulson saw a thunderbolt hitting Lin Rui.

“Let me go and see!” Hawkeye, who had been watching the screen with Coulson, had not waited for his permission and had rushed to the scene with his own special weapons in his hand.

“Damn it! What happened?!” Looking at Hawkeye’s back, Coulson, who still had no specific reports from his men, pounded hard on the table.

Time went back a few seconds, just before Lin Rui reached for the hammer. Lin Rui, who crossed the fence, was only meant to try the hammer that nobody could lift, but when he approached Mj?lnir, he was attracted by an inexplicable feeling, as if there was something luring him to take Mj?lnir. Lin Rui had this idea, so he reached out naturally.

Just as Lin Rui touched Mj?lnir, a powerful force erupted from Mj?lnir and rushed directly into his body along with Lin Rui’s hand.

Boom!

It’s like a crack in a levee, from which numerous torrential floods burst out and instantly drowned the small village behind it.

The Thunder’s power contained in the hammer is like a flood, and the hammer is the flood control dam. As for the small village flooded by flood, it is Lin Rui. I don’t know what happened. When Lin Rui touched the hammer, the force that should have been restrained inside suddenly had an outlet and rushed into Lin Rui’s body.

All this happened so quickly that Lin Rui’s thoughts could not respond at all. The internal energy in Lin Rui’s body had been washed down before he had time to defend himself. So, in theory, Lin Rui should have been evaporated by this powerful force in an instant. However, something always happens unexpectedly. Just as Lin Rui was about to burst with thunder all over his body, a flash of light flashed from his mind and the system came out.

Ding ~

“Congratulations to the host for triggering hidden quest: Take God of Thunder’s hammer: Mjolnir. Quest complete Reward: 500,000 Reward points.” Time seemed to be fixed and then Lin Rui heard the empty voice of the main system in his mind.

“What happened? What’s happening to me?!” Lin Rui, who was totally unaware of the situation, ignored the hidden quest and shouted loudly in his sea of consciousness. Although he didn’t realize what was happening with the hammer and him, Lin Rui knew something was wrong was happening when the main system set time to drag him to the sea of consciousness, so he was very nervous.

Call ~

Soon, the system slowly gathered in front of Lin Rui. However, compared to the previous, the light of this system seems to be dim.

“You just seem to have triggered the self-awareness of God of Thunder’s hammer, it’s just testing if you are qualified enough to pick it up, but you can’t afford it now, you are too weak on the fundamental level, so this is the result now. If it hadn’t been for me triggering that hidden quest right now, you would be dead by now.” Slowly drifting in front of Lin Rui, the system tone calmly explained to him.

“So, what are we going to do now? I mean, I’m not dead because the quest publishing now, but once the hidden quest publishing is over, I’m still going to die?!” Hearing the system, Lin Rui was almost scared to death, so he asked in a hurry.

“Oh... this is true. Of course, if you can complete this quest, then there is no problem.” Faced with Lin Rui’s question, the system gives an answer.

“Then tell me how to pick it up! I don’t want to die like that! I just wanted to try picking it up! So many people have tried before me so why only I would have an accident!?” Hearing the system’s answer, Lin Rui roared. He had no idea that this would happen just after he touched the Hammer.

“If you can break Odin’s enhancement and restrictions on it and get Mj?lnir’s power, you can pick it up. However, although the system Shop will be able to provide something that can break Odin’s enhancement and restriction and gains Mj?lnir’s power, it is not something you can afford right now.” The system quickly gave Lin Rui’s solution, but that was also an impossible solution.

“One and a half million?! It takes 1.5 million Reward points to crack Odin’s enhancement and restrictions on it and get Mj?lnir’s power?! What kind of ghost advice is this?!” As soon as he opens the system shop, Lin Rui has found the item in System Shop that meets these two conditions. However, as the system says, it is impossible for him to afford it. “Am I really going to die like this? This is not the end I deserve! System, you must have a way! I beg you, help me!”

At Lin Rui’s hysterical plea, the system was silent. The white light that represents the system flickers in front of Lin Rui’s eyes as if something was happening.

“Lin Rui, remember, you will owe me one after this.” After being quiet for a while, the system suddenly came out and say such a sentence. Then suddenly, the flickering white light burst out, illuminating Lin Rui’s whole sea of consciousness.

Ding ~

“Congratulations to the host for completing the hidden quest: get the friendship of Asgard God Of Thunder Thor. Quest Reward: 10,000 Reward points.”

Ding ~

“Congratulations to the host for completing the hidden quest: to become the third sequence candidate of S.H.I.E.L.D. Quest Reward: 5,000 Reward points.”

Ding ~

“Congratulations to the host for completing the hidden quest: trigger the hidden quest for the hammer of God Of Thunder. Quest Reward: 3,000 Reward points.”

Hoo!

Just after the white light burst from the system, Lin Rui heard three announcements for completing three different hidden quests. These three hidden quests provided Lin Rui with 18,000 Reward points, but these Reward points are still a drop in the bucket for Lin Rui.

"I can only deceive the main system for a short time, quickly exchange the Advance Spirit Fruit!" After the publication of the hidden quest, the white light filled with Lin Rui's consciousness shrank back in an instant, leaving only a little light, and the sound of the system came out of it, sounding very weak.

"Advanced Spirit Fruit! 50,000 Reward points! Confirm exchange!" There's no time to ask why the system wants to exchange this. Lin Rui has spent 50,000 Reward points to convert it out. Among the 50,000 Reward points, he had just consumed were the three hidden quest Rewards, and the others had just consumed the rest of his Reward points, which he had planned to save for Advanced Lineage Reward.

"Keep in mind that Advanced Spirit Fruit can help you raise your spiritual power to a very advanced level and you can think of it as an escalating control of the consciousness. As long as your strengthened consciousness can drive the thunderstorm out of your body, you will be all right. But spirit fruits are generally slowly elevated spiritual calmness to strengthen the consciousness, you have no time, you can only let it out directly in the beginning before your consciousness is ripped apart. It's a waste of spirit fruits, but you have no choice." After Lin Rui converted the spirit fruit, the system quickly explained to him the use of it.

"System, what did you do?!" Holding a glowing diamond-shaped fruit in his hand, Lin Rui wants to know more.

"Lin Rui, I don't have much time to waste! Use Advanced Spirit Fruit! Remember, control! Control! I'll wait for you to wake me up!"

Puff~

After the last sentence, the white light representing the system exploded in front of Lin Rui's eyes and disappeared completely from his sea of consciousness.

Seeing the disappearance of the system, there is no way but to swallow the spirit fruit in his hand.

Hum~

Instantly, a dazzling blue light bursts out in Lin Rui's sea of consciousness, which represents the light of spiritual power.

"Ah-ah!" As if his consciousness was being torn by force, Lin Rui's consciousness opened its arms and roared.

Hū ~

Just as Lin Rui swallowed the Advanced Spirit fruit and his spiritual strength began to soar, the hidden quest hanging above the sea of consciousness about picking up the God of Thunder's hammer was slowly dissipating. As long as that line disappears completely, it means that the hidden quest has been released and Lin Rui will not be protected by the main system. He must quickly strengthen his consciousness and then drive out his thunderstorm.

"Ah! Give me a burst!" In spite of the soul torn pain, Lin Rui directly exploded the effects of Advanced Spiritual Fruit.

Rumble~

The next moment, in Lin Rui's sea of consciousness, his own consciousness enlarges instantly in a burst of blue light. To say that Lin Rui was only a reef in the sea of consciousness before, now he is an island. Little reefs have no territorial waters, but islands do. Lin Rui has his own territorial waters now. It is a powerful consciousness that can be controlled.

Hoo!

The instantly intensified consciousness, under the control of Lin Rui, it rushed out of the sea of consciousness and came to his own body. Here, countless explosive thunderstorms are moving, waiting for the protection of the main system to disappear and Lin Rui will evaporate in an instant. At this time, Lin Rui realized that there were only a few faint traces of the hidden quest line left.

"Get out of here!" Finally, just moments before the quest was released and disappeared, Lin Rui let out this roar with his own soul.

The powerful consciousness that covers his entire body rushes to those bursting thunderbolts in an instant!

Chapter 129 Vegetable

Boom!

The Thunderstrike that breaks into S.H.I.E.L.D. Temporary Research Laboratory from the sky appears and disappears quickly, just like a simple thunderstrike. However, the location of this splitting is on Mjolnir in the center of the lab, while Lin Rui was holding the Mjolnir.

"Ah!"

"Help!"

"Jackson!"

A powerful thunderstrike frighten a few researchers standing outside the guardrail, they felt their legs go weak and they fell to the ground with a soft thud. There were people who cared a little about Lin Rui calling his name, but none of them dared to come forward to check on him.

Da da!

Soon, the team in charge of laboratory security rushed in and brought out all the researchers who were frightened to their feet. Then a man with an arrow bag and a composite bow rushed in. Hawkeye pushed aside the security guard and rushed to Mjolnir, where Lin Rui was lying on the ground, dead or alive.

"Damn! How could this happen?! Medical team!" Quickly examined the vital signs of Lin Rui, Hawkeye's eyes changed instantly and then he shouted loudly toward the back.

Soon, a team of doctors broke through the crowd and came running from behind.

"His heart stopped beating. Shot him with a dose of adrenaline, try to restart it!" Walking away from Lin Rui to make room for doctors, Hawkeye quickly ordered. However, although Hawkeye told the doctor to do his best to rescue, he himself did not think it would have much effect.

Drop ~~~

The ECG Machine issued out a low pitched monotonous and continuous voice that indicated that Lin Rui's heart has stopped working.

"One shot has no effect! Take another shot!"

"One two three four five! One two three four five!"

"Come on! Come on!"

"One two three four five! One two three four five!"

Drop ~~~

A few minutes passed and the best rescue time was over and Lin Rui's physiology did not respond at all. The medical team in charge of the rescue has given up, and although they want to save the young man, they can do nothing about it.

"This is not going to work!" Hawkeye knows the final result as the medical team has given up the rescue.

Lin Rui is not an ordinary person. He is a very good young man himself and he belongs to the third stage candidates of S.H.I.E.L.D. He also has a deep relationship with Tony Stark, and Harry Osborn, who is now the head of Oscorp. Hawkeye didn't know how much trouble Lin Rui's death would bring to S.H.I.E.L.D., especially if he died in a secret facility of S.H.I.E.L.D.

"Coulson, do you think Tony will let us go?" Hand in-ear, Hawkeye asks Coulson with an ugly face.

"I don't know, but I don't think it's going to be that good."

Drop ~~ drop~~

Just as the medical team packed up and prepared to retreat, the sound of the ECG monitor that had not been removed from Lin Rui suddenly paused. After a second, it rang again. It detected the heartbeat, Lin Rui's heartbeat.

"Medics!" Hawkeye, who had a strong observation, discovered the situation for the first time and hurriedly yelled at the medical team that was withdrawing.

Drop ~Drop ~Drop~

Returning to Lin Rui, the medical team watched the faint but firm heartbeat of the ECG monitor. They were shocked. They witnessed a miracle. Then, with the careful movement, Lin Rui was lifted onto a stretcher. Next, he would receive the most advanced treatment of S.H.I.E.L.D. and he will recover.

"Huh! Coulson, it seems that at least we don't have to worry about Tony taking out the Iron Man Regiment to blow up S.H.I.E.L.D." Hawkeye was relieved to see Lin Rui being carried away.

Just as Lin Rui was chopped by a thunderstrike attracted by Mjolnir and hovering on the verge of death. In New York City, far from New Mexico, Tony is improving his Iron Man Armor in his lab.

“Sir, S.H.I.E.L.D. sent a message.”

“What’s the matter? I haven’t thought about the Avengers Initiative yet. Tell Nick not to worry so much.” Although Tony knows a lot about S.H.I.E.L.D. now, he doesn’t owe them anything. Tony has to think slowly about the Avengers Initiative.

“What happened to Jackson? S.H.I.E.L.D. Did those guys find Jackson? Don’t they know Jackson’s relationship with me?” Putting things down, Tony asked curiously. Tony did mention S.H.I.E.L.D. briefly with Lin Rui, but absolutely not in-depth. In Tony’s view, Lin Rui probably only knew that S.H.I.E.L.D. is a mysterious government department.

“S.H.I.E.L.D. recently had a study in New Mexico. Just now, Mr. Jackson joined their research team. This is the message from Agent Coulson.” J.A.R.V.I.S. quickly told Tony about the contents of the mail.

“Oh, yes, Jackson did go to New Mexico to study astronomy. Did S.H.I.E.L.D. also study astronomy there, and how did they recruit Jackson? They don’t want Jackson to join S.H.I.E.L.D., do they? Tony frowned slightly hearing J.A.R.V.I.S’s words.

“J.A.R.V.I.S., send an email asking about their research there. Also, give Jackson a call for me, I want him to pay attention, but I can’t just fool S.H.I.E.L.D. over.” Thinking about it, Tony quickly orders J.A.R.V.I.S.

“Yes, sir.”

Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S. responded, “Sir, S.H.I.E.L.D. responded that the research belongs to the first level of confidentiality and cannot be disclosed. Mr. Jackson couldn’t get through, but I tracked him down to his location at the S.H.I.E.L.D. experimental base.

“At level one security, You couldn’t get through Jackson. What the hell is SHIELD doing there?” Tony’s eyebrows tightened when he heard from J.A.R.V.I.S. But he couldn’t be sure there was a problem. After all, Lin Rui couldn’t make a phone call if he joined the research group at a level of secrecy.

“Forget it. J.A.R.V.I.S., please pay attention to Jackson’s phone and call him as soon as you can.” Finally, Tony can only arrange this.

Tony feels that S.H.I.E.L.D. should not use the first-class experiment to kidnap a talent, which is inconsistent with their identity. But Tony doesn’t know what Lin Rui has just experienced. Coulson didn’t tell Tony about Lin Rui’s near-death experience in order to keep him out of trouble. Otherwise, Tony may send in the Iron Man Regiment to them and Coulson wouldn’t be able to afford the consequences, at least until Lin Rui’s situation stabilizes.

Just after Tony failed to ask Jackson for information, the S.H.I.E.L.D. experimental base in New Mexico. Coulson and Hawkeye were standing outside an intensive care unit and on the other side of the transparent glass lay Lin Rui, still unconscious.

Although Lin Rui's heartbeat is recovered, his vital signs are still weak. Without the S.H.I.E.L.D. Advanced maintenance system, Lin Rui may die at any time. Now Lin Rui is like a vegetative person, with no other response except heartbeat and breathing. His brain waves are quiet.

"What is the doctor's diagnosis?" Looking at the comatose young man in the ward, Hawkeye asked Coulson next to him. Although Lin Rui is not dead now, the situation is no better than that.

"Deep coma does not detect any brain activity. There are no physical injuries, only severe nutritional deficiencies, and dehydration. Simply put, vegetative state." With his brows wrinkled, Coulson spoke of the doctor's diagnosis.

"It's really not easy to do! I heard that Tony asked about our experiment, and he also called Jackson's cell phone. When do you think he'll find something wrong?" Shaking his head, Hawkeye felt unlucky to put such a thing on the table.

"I can only hope that this little fellow will get better, otherwise I can't hide it for long. I'll report this to Director Fury and see what instructions he has. Coulson had nothing to do at the moment. If Lin Rui was a S.H.I.E.L.D. worker, it's all well settled, but he's not. He's just coming to help temporarily.

"That's the only way, but how much hope does he even have? Even with the best treatment of S.H.I.E.L.D., the chances of him waking up are slim.

"It's up to him now."

Chapter 130, Asgard's Visitors And Waking Up!

Thor and Jane had returned to their empty laboratory when Lin Rui was almost killed by an inexplicable thunderbolt for touching Mjolnir. For Lin Rui not coming back with him, Thor just said he went to the government department to help. Although Jane felt terrible, at least at first she felt that Lin Rui was on her side, she didn't ask much, because Lin Rui was obviously not an ordinary person.

"Thor, can you tell me your story again? About your hammer, and Asgard." Now that her experimental data and research equipment have been taken away, Jane is more interested in the handsome man who claims to be an alien.

"Of course, I am happy that you are interested in this. I will slowly tell you that Asgard is a great country." Smiled, Thor said earnestly.

Now that his exile has become a reality and the hammer does not listen to his call, Thor feels that he might as well rest on this inferior planet for a while and wait for his father's anger to subside, he will naturally let himself go back. Thor is Asgard's crown prince, and Asgard needs him. Of course, that's Thor's very normal idea. But he didn't know that there was his good brother Loki in it. Asgard is now in some big trouble, and Odin can't take care of his eldest son.

"So, let's start with the simplest. Who are you? Thor."

In this way, Thor spent a quiet day on the planet while talking to a beautiful woman, she has never heard of things he has seen, she is enjoying the stars together under the night sky, and popularize the knowledge about galaxies. This made Thor feel very satisfied, sometimes, in addition to killing, Thor is also an ordinary person who needs a break. In this way, Thor and Jane quickly became interested in each other and quickly warmed up to each other.

While Lin Rui was still lying in the intensive care unit of the S.H.I.E.L.D. experimental base and Thor and Jane were getting in love together, a Bifrost quietly descended on the desert of New Mexico, and three men and one woman dressed strangely, suddenly appeared in the desert. The four warriors were obviously Thor's friends and they had sensed something wrong with Loki, so Heimdall opened the Bifrost and sent them down. They're going to help Thor regain his powers, pick up the hammer and go back to Asgard.

However, in order to stop Thor's return, Loki, who had already colluded with Frost Giant, sent Asgard's powerful humanoid weapon: The Destroyer after the four warriors left. He wanted Thor to be exiled forever and he will sit on Asgard's throne.

"Haha! Thor!"

"Thor!"

"We found you!"

The Four warriors dressed weirdly came to the town, New Mexico. They soon found Thor with Jane and they were standing outside the glass door, shouting excitedly.

"Haha! My friends!" Thor, who was washing the dishes, heard the sound behind him and turned to see his best friends.

Shatter ~

With the arrival of Lady Sif and the warriors three of Asgard, the cups in the hand of scared Jane and Dr. Erik dropped on the ground and shattered. They were discussing whether Thor's story is true without any evidence, but the four people in front of them startled them, including Jane.

"It's great to see you!" Laughing, Thor and the four people hugged one by one.

"I can't believe it!" Dr. Erik, who has been studying the myth of Odin in Northern Europe, looked at the people in front of him and they looked like they were really coming out of myth.

"Haha! Please allow me to introduce myself, Miss Sif and the Warriors Three." A huge person, with a beard, embraced Thor and went to Jane and introduced himself with a smile.

Then, Hogun told Thor that they came to take him back to Asgard. Odin suddenly became seriously ill, and Loki took control of the power. They felt something was very wrong. However, Thor tells them that he is now deprived of his divine power, even if he does return to Asgard, he will not be of much use. There is no good way for these four warriors to deal with this situation.

Just as Asgard's four warriors found Thor and began to think about countermeasures, Coulson had discovered the circle pattern underneath the Bifrost Desert that had not completely dissipated. When Coulson led his team to study the circle pattern, a storm fell from the sky, just covering the circle. When the storm dissipated, a four-meter-high humanoid body appeared in front of Coulson.

“What is this? New robots? Stark’s new products?” Seeing a guy who suddenly appeared in front of him, Coulson asked a special agent around him.

“I don’t know, that guy never tells me anything.” Coulson reluctantly said something when he heard the agents around him.

Especially in the case of Lin Rui, Coulson wouldn’t ask Tony if this humanoid is his new Iron Man Armor. So, he picked up the loudspeaker.

“Hello! You are using unregistered weapons technology. Identify Yourself!” Coulson shouted in the loudspeaker.

Boom ~ bang~

Destroyer stopped at Coulson’s cry. However, before Coulson could breathe a sigh of relief, a powerful flame beam had already shot out of Destroyer’s head.

“Incoming!”

“It launched an attack!”

“Get Away!”

Boom ~ bang ~ bang ~

Under Destroyer’s indiscriminate attack, Coulson, who did not bring as many attacking teams, was directly attacked. In the end, Destroyer took a stride to the town not far away, and Thor and his four warriors were there.

.....

While the four warriors in Asgard came to Earth to find Thor, and then Destroyer chased after them, Lin Rui lying in the intensive care unit of S.H.I.E.L.D. was still not moving.

However, this is only an appearance or a scientific instrument. In the deep sea of ??consciousness of Lin Rui, he is not as calm as outside. But it’s just a matter of appearance or scientific instruments. In Lin Rui’s deep-sea of consciousness, he is not as calm as he looked on outside.

“It hurts!! It hurts!” With the mental power of Advanced Spirit Fruit, Lin Rui used his own reinforced body to drive out the thunder from his body, but it also left a serious injury in his body, in which the near-death experience was just a trivial point.

Although the thunderstorm was successfully driven out, the conscious body suffered a lot of damage. The feeling that his soul was being torn has been painful for Lin Rui to say the least, he has been rolling and howling in his sea of consciousness. It was not until the effects of the Advanced Spirit Fruit were gradually exhausted that Lin Rui’s consciousness gradually stabilized. However, his consciousness has returned to the size before he consumed the Spirit Fruit, which is the consequence of incorrect use of Advanced Spirit Fruit. However, Lin Rui would not regret it, it saved his life.

“Huh! This was really dangerous! My Reward points are almost completely exhausted, and my consciousness is also hurt. I shouldn’t have touched that damn hammer!” His consciousness gradually stabilized and Lin Rui was helpless and talking to himself. Originally, because of the completion of the mainline quest, Lin Rui was very wealthy in terms of Reward Points. But with this current event, his wealth has now become a few measly hundred points, turning him into a beggar.

“System, system are you there?” With his conscious recovered, Lin Rui began to call the system out from his sea of ??consciousness.

This time, Lin Rui was able to weather the storm and relied entirely on the help of the system. If it weren’t for those hidden quests issued by the system, he wouldn’t have the time and enough Reward points to redeem the Advanced Spirit Fruit, and he wouldn’t be able to drive away the power of the Thunder from his body. However, the system seems to have paid a lot to save Lin Rui. The way the system finally disappeared made Lin Rui feel bad, especially the last sentence that Lin Rui shouted seemed to be a farewell.

After shouting a few times, his sea of ??consciousness is still empty and there is no other movement besides himself. Previously, the system would hide itself if there was any conflict, but Lin Rui knows that this time it’s not the system that hides, it’s the real thing.

“System, you can rest assured, I will find ways to let you appear again.” Linking what the system finally said with its long-standing eccentric behavior, Lin Rui also understood what the system might be. But Lin Rui has no other way. He will let the system appear again, no matter what the cost.

“But now I have to wake up. There are still some things out there that I need to help with!” After wandering in the sea of consciousness for a while, Lin Rui finally abandoned his search for the system.

After that, Lin Rui’s consciousness soon faded and finally disappeared from his sea of consciousness.

Drop~

In the intensive care unit, a weak wave suddenly jumped out of the instrument that had been testing Lin Rui’s brain waves. Then, more and more strong fluctuations appeared on that instrument. Lin Rui is waking up!
