Chapter 131 Requesting Reinforcements

Bang~

Bang~

The huge humanoid Destroyer walked toward the town in a step-by-step manner, and everything in its way was completely destroyed. It is called Destroyer, and destruction is its characteristic.

"Where's our special service force!?" With a loudspeaker in one hand and a mobile on his ear, Coulson shouted angrily. Coulson couldn't bear the fact that S.H.I.E.L.D. was being bullied by a "robot".

"It will take at least an hour for the special forces to come from the headquarters, which is still the same time for fighter planes." Soon, a reply came from the phone.

Because this time they were only an experimental research team in New Mexico, they thought that there would be no violent incidents, so they only brought a small team responsible for security issues. However, this team is obviously unable to deal with this level of "robot".

"Damn! By the time they come from the headquarter, the whole town will be leveled!" Putting the phone aside, Coulson could only watch helplessly as the giant humanoid weapon stepped into the town ahead.

Dī dī~

Just as Coulson looked helplessly as Destroyer walked into the town in front of him, the phone that he just put aside began to ring again.

"You better have some good news for me!" Picking up the phone, Coulson asks in an unhappy tone.

"Jackson woke up." A very exciting voice came from the other end of the phone. It was obvious that Lin Rui's waking up was a miracle for the people on the other end of the phone.

"Woke up?! Didn't the doctor diagnose that he was already in a vegetative state? Where did a vegetative man stay in a coma for a day?" It's good news that Lin Rui woke up. At least he doesn't have to worry about Tony. But It's just too fast and Coulson asked incredulously.

"Yes! He just woke up! And he is not only awake, but he can also already get out of bed. Although he is still weak but compared to a few minutes ago of him lying in bed as a living dead person, the current situation is a miracle!" the person on the phone continued to answer with excitement.

"He can get out of bed? Well, let him recover, I have something important to do here. Take care of him and don't let him do anything else." Coulson's immediate problems are even more serious and he would not care for Lin Rui's miracle recovery.

"But there's another..."

Click~

The person over there seems to have something else to report to Coulson.

But Coulson has already ended the call.

"Hawkeye, can you stop that robot? The special service force will take an hour to arrive from the headquarter, we can't wait for them." Coulson contacts Hawkeye with his comms. Hawkeye is a special secret agent and Coulson won't let Hawkeye shoot and expose himself until the critical moment.

"I can try, but you shouldn't hold much hope." Soon, Hawkeye's answer came from the comms.

"Just try to delay it!" Coulson can only say that.

At the end of the caller that Coulson had just hanged, Lin Rui had already put on a clean dress at the experimental base where Mj?lnir was located. His consciousness is recovered and he has regained control of his body. His internal energy is exhausted and his physical body is too weak, other than that, Lin Rui has no other problems. He should be completely recovered after resting for the next few days and taking more nutrients.

"Jerry, what's the matter? May I go now?" Getting dressed, Lin Rui asked a medical staff who had just come in.

"You can walk, but I suggest that you stay here and be watched for a few days. After all, you just wake up. You're still very weak. If something happens again, it would not be good." Jerry is the person who just reported to Coulson. He just wanted to ask Coulson if he could let Lin Rui leave, but Coulson obviously didn't have time to listen to him that much.

"Don't worry, I'm fine. Doesn't the test result show that I'm okay? What's more, it's a mess outside now. Maybe I can help." Shortly after Lin Rui woke up, all the armed men in the base were transferred. After a little inquiry, Lin Rui soon knew what was going on outside.

"Yes, but it's none of our business. Naturally, someone else will be responsible for it." Jerry is just a medical worker. He belongs to the logistics department of S.H.I.E.L.D., and it doesn't matter to him what the armed confrontation is.

"Of course, I'm not going to go to the battlefield myself. But my friends are in danger and I can help them. Goodbye, Jerry." Laughing, Lin Rui has packed up his things and walked out of the ward.

"The humanoid robot that is attacking the town seems to be the Destroyer. It is not known whether this Destroyer is the same as the one in the movie. The one in the movie does not seem to be so powerful." Lin Rui has already pulled out his mobile phone.

In the movie, The Destroyer only shows a part of its ability, the ability to emit a flame laser from the head, a super defensive body, a powerful force, and a changeable shape. It looks like an alien version of Iron Man, and it can't fly.

"With so many unanswered calls, Coulson seems not to have told anyone about his near-death experience. It's a bit unkind, but at least no one is getting worried." Glancing at the top of his phone, Lin Rui knew that Tony had been contacting himself.

Soon, Lin Rui called Tony. He has just come back from the brink of death. Lin Rui has no internal energy on him and his Reward Points are only a few hundred points and he can't deal with Destroyer in this situation at all. So he needs some help. Lin Rui can't expect Thor to suddenly regain his thunder power when he's finally about to be killed. Maybe Odin won't release the enchantment at all. Maybe something has happened over Asgard. Lin Rui needs to be prepared for it.

"Hey! Jackson, you finally called back, I thought you were abducted by S.H.I.E.L.D." The phone soon got through and there came Tony's teasing voice.

"Mr. Stark, my situation is somewhat complicated, and it's hard to explain now. But I need your help now." Not explaining what had happened to Tony, Lin Rui said in a serious tone.

"What kind of help?" Tony also became serious after hearing Lin Rui's tone.

"An unidentified dangerous robot appears in the small town of Puente Antiguo, New Mexico. It is destroying the entire town. I need you to send the Iron Man to suppress it." Without any nonsense, Lin Rui directly stated his request.

"Unidentified robot? Who the hell is creating this trouble?" Tony was a little surprised to hear Lin Rui on the other side of the phone. He just got rid of Ivan. Is there anyone else secretly trying to replicate the Iron Man Armor?

"It shouldn't be, but we're short of weapons to fight that robot right now. Tony, send Iron Man over as soon as possible, the more the better!" The anxious Lin Rui no longer called Mr. Stark but Tony.

"Okay, I'll send Iron Man over in a minute. I'll get J.A.R.V.I.S. to contact you." Tony agreed without further details.

"Thank you!" With thanks, Lin Rui hung up. By this time, he had rushed out of the experimental base and saw various parked S.H.I.E.L.D. cars parked outside, Lin Rui picked one at random and rushed towards it. Then he drove the S.H.I.E.L.D. car quickly to Puente Antiguo town.

New York, Tony's basement.

"J.A.R.V.I.S., use satellite to get the real-time picture of the town Jackson just mentioned." After hanging up, Tony did not directly send out the Iron Man but called J.A.R.V.I.S. to reach the satellite to see the situation.

"Puente Antiguo, New Mexico. The pictures are being transmitted, the transmission is completed.

Hum~

Boom! Boom!

Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S has completed the satellite docking and picture transmission. Then, a picture of a silver-white huge humanoid body appeared in front of Tony.

"Send five Mark three to support Jackson, I think five Iron Mans Armors should be enough for this big guy." After confirming that Lin Rui's information was accurate, Tony immediately dispatched Iron Man.

"Yes, sir." With a promise, J.A.R.V.I.S. has started five Iron Mans stored in the basement.

Boom ~ bang ~ bang ~ bang ~ bang ~

Soon, five Iron Man Armors rushed out of Tony's luxurious seaside villa, rushing to the sky and heading for New Mexico. Tony's Mark III is faster than Quinjet. After all, their size is small and the propeller still uses Arc Reactor technology.

"J.A.R.V.I.S., With the Iron Man Regiment, pay attention to the protection of civilians and Jackson when they arrive. That fellow is bold and adventurous. I don't want to see anything happen to him." After the departure of five Mark III, Tony commanded J.A.R.V.I.S.

"Yes, sir."

Chapter 132 The Support Arrives

Just as Destroyer arrived on Earth, the four Asgard Warriors and Jane and others gathered together and were chatting, and the air column apparently created by Bifrost attracted their attention.

"Was somebody else coming?" Looking at the air column, Darcy asked nervously.

Boom ~ bang ~ bang ~

Neither Thor nor the Four Warriors answered, but then they saw flashes of fire and explosions in the desert. Seeing this, Thor and the Four Warriors are wearing heavy expressions, they have guessed what had come after them.

"Jane, you have to get out of here!" Knowing Destroyer was coming, Thor urged Jane to leave. He didn't want them to be involved in such dangerous things.

"What about you?" Jane asked worried, holding Thor's hand.

"Thor's gonna fight with us!" Hogun shouted excitedly. He didn't seem to know that Thor had been deprived of his power.

Sure enough, Thor was embarrassed to hear Hogun's words. But he can't directly say that he can't fight with them without his divine power. He can only use a more euphemistic statement.

"My friend, I'll only be in the way, or worse, get one of you killed. However, I can help get these ordinary people to safety." Thor was quick to find a perfect excuse.

"Eh! Let's go now. Here we are!" Hogun, a straightforward man, does not mind Thor's choice, which is indeed the best choice for Thor.

"Jane! Let's get everyone out of here!" After patting his friends on the shoulder, Thor and Jane went with them to evacuate the ordinary people of the town.

Boom ~ bang ~ bang ~

By the time Thor evacuated ordinary people, Destroyer had cleared the barriers all the way to the streets of Puente Antiguo, then stopped in the middle of the road, in front of which were four Asgard warriors.

"For Asgard!!" With a roar, Hogun flew directly to Destroyer with the help of his teammates.

Whirl!

With his axe raised high, Hogun flew towards the Destroyer!

Bang!

However, the Destroyer simply slapped Hogun out of the way with a simple wave. Hogun ended up crashing into a car and couldn't move for a while. If he hadn't been an Asgard's warrior, protected by divine powers, the slap would have killed him directly.

Bang Bang

Destroyer did not stop and stepped up to Hogun, who had fallen into the car. Hogan's heart trembled as he met with the pressure that the Destroyer presented. The weapon Asgard used to guard the treasure room is not ordinary. It is too uncontrollable and too powerful.

"Ha!" Just as Destroyer was again brewing to shoot a flame beam to burn Hogun directly, Sif suddenly rushed in from behind.

Jumping high, Sif jumps directly onto Destroyer's back! Puff! With a single blow, Sif directly put her blade in Destroyer.

"Hey! Good job! Sif!"

Destroyer is obviously a combination of magic and technology of Asgard, although Asgard's civilization is somewhat difficult to understand as the four warriors are using primitive cold weapons in close combat. The result of such a battle was obvious. When everyone else thought Destroyer had been defeated, its metal-like components suddenly twisted and rotated one by one, quickly turning towards Sif. Destroyer's head sprayed a flame beam again without paying attention to the chest spear.

Although Sif was surprised, she escaped Destroyer's fire attack and started running away with her teammates.

Hum~

The four warriors who were running away were constantly under heavy fire and Destroyer directly shot them all out. The four warriors from Asgard had nothing that can help them against Destroyer.

Boom ~ bang ~ bang ~

Resolving themselves, the four warriors stopped on the road, Destroyer continued to walk forward, and Thor and Jane were hiding in the corner of a house behind them. Destroyer, who was ordered by Loki, will not let Thor go. It will ensure that Thor will not interfere with Loki's plan in Asgard.

"Jane! I'm going to do what I'm supposed to do!" Seeing that all of his best friends were hurt, Thor handed Jane to Sif as they steadily stepped out of hiding.

Since he couldn't stop Destroyer, Thor felt he could try to talk to Loki. He didn't think his brother would really kill him. Perhaps, there is really some misunderstanding in this, and he should do what a brother should do to persuade his brother to turn around.

Bang

After Destroyer kicked a car in front of him, Thor had already reached it. Looking up, Thor looked at Destroyer in front of him. "Loki, brother, whatever I have done to wrong you, whatever I have done to lead you to this, I am truly sorry. But these people are innocent. Taking their lives will gain you nothing."

"So take mine and end this." Finally, taking a deep breath, Thor felt he could gamble once. He is betting that Loki doesn't really want him to die. He's a good brother.

Whirl ~

After Thor said these words, the flame in Destroyer's body slowly went out, and Loki in Asgard seemed to have stopped. However, just as Thor really felt relieved, Destroyer, who had turned around, suddenly waved backward, aiming at Thor behind him.

Bang!

Thor could not respond to Destroyer's huge arm. Just when he thought he was going to die, a red figure suddenly rushed out of the sky and landed right in front of Thor, helping him stop the blow. But Destroyer's blow was so powerful that the red figure was also pulled out. So the red figure flew backward and hit Thor out.

Puff~

After being hit hard, Thor felt that he had broken several ribs, but nothing serious happened. But the red figure he bumped into and flew out did not fall to the ground with Thor. In front of Thor's and Jane's surprising eyes, the red figure sprayed blue flames under his feet and rushed up into the sky in an instant. There, four guys in the same shape as it are suspended above Destroyer.

"Iron Man!"

"Iron Man!"

Just as Thor and four Asgard warriors were wondering what those flying things that looked like Destroyer are, Darcy was crying out excitedly in the back. Dr. Jane and Dr. Erik are also thrilled. Iron Man is now very famous in the United States and around the world and there should be only a few people who don't know him.

"It's Iron Man! We're saved!" Looking closely at the five Iron Mans flying in mid-air, Darcy continued to shout excitedly. Compared with Jane and Dr. Erik's calmness, the younger woman is obviously obsessed with Iron Man.

When Destroyer almost killed Thor, Tony's Iron Man Regiment finally arrived before S.H.I.E.L.D.'s Special Force. Five Iron Mans suspended in mid-air reflected brilliant light in New Mexico's sunshine, five pairs of cold and metallic eyes facing Destroyer below.

"Did Coulson asks Tony for help?" Looking at the five Iron Man flying in the air, Hawkeye, who was hiding in the dark, whispered.

Hawkeye didn't know that Lin Rui was awake, so he naturally thought of the support of Iron Man as Coulson's help. However, Tony's ability to send support so quickly made Hawkeye surprised. He knew that Tony's attitude toward S.H.I.E.L.D. was not very good at the moment and it is not so good that Tony would send out five Iron Man bots at once. However, Hawkeye soon knew why these Iron Mans appeared so quickly.

Booming~

Just after Iron Man rescued Thor from Destroyer, the battlefield was temporarily quiet. Iron Man, suspended in mid-air, did not immediately attack Destroyer, and Destroyer seemed to be watching the five robots that suddenly appeared. Just then, a S.H.I.E.L.D. car suddenly rushed into the battlefield and stopped not far from Destroyer. Then a young man jumped out of the car.

Puff!

After racing all the way, Lin Rui's feet were weak. But he won't let go of such an opportunity.

"Jackson! What's he doing? It's dangerous there!" Seeing the young man suddenly rushing into the battlefield, Jane shouted worriedly behind them.

"Jackson?! He's not... It seems that these Iron Man are not Coulson's help, but Tony sent them to protect him!" Hawkeye, who was hiding in the dark, was surprised to see Lin Rui as according to his knowledge, Lin Rui was still lying in the intensive care unit. But soon he figured out what was going on.

Regardless of what Jane and Hawkeye thought about Lin Rui's appearance, Lin Rui was somewhat excited. "Is this Destroyer? The shape is similar to that in the movie, but I don't know if Tony's Iron Man can deal with it.

"J.A.R.V.I.S! Armed!" Looking at Destroyer below, Lin Rui suddenly shouted at himself.

Chapter 133 Saw

On the way to Iron Man Regiment support, Lin Rui has contacted J.A.R.V.I.S. These Iron Man are all controlled by J.A.R.V.I.S here, and Lin Rui's is a special protection unit with a little command, and Lin Rui wants to take advantage of this command.

Hoo!

As Lin Rui shouted, an iron Man suspended in mid-air suddenly rushed down to his position, and Lin Rui waited with open arms.

"What is Jackson doing? Why is the Iron Man rushing towards him!?"

"Oh! Iron Man won't think of him as an enemy, would it?!" As the Iron Man rushed toward the ground to Lin Rui, Darcy behind him shouted worried. However, what happened next was enough to make the girl more shocked.

Kakaka~

As the Iron Man rushed to Lin Rui, the fully sealed steel battle armor quickly opened from behind, and the steel arms and legs changed rapidly.

When the Iron Man Armor rushed to Lin Rui, it had become a fully opened steel battle suit. Then Lin Rui just made a simple move and took a step forward. Then he was quickly wrapped in an open steel battle armor. The whole operation took less than five seconds and the unarmed Lin Rui was armed with an Advanced Iron Man Armor.

Puff!

Putting on Tony's Iron Man Armor, Lin Rui has sprung up in the next moment, "J.A.R.V.I.S! Let's teach this big fellow a good lesson!" He's going to have a good look at how the Destroyer works.

"Yes, Mr. Jackson."

Da da da! ~

Instantly, with Lin Rui's Iron Man Armor on, five Iron Man opened fire on Destroyer below.

Ding Ding~Dangdang~

The large Destroyer was instantly submerged in the Iron Man's high-intensity hot weapon attack, and numerous fast-fire bullets directly covered the Destroyer. But listening to these clanging sounds, Destroyer's defense easily blocked these fast-fire bullet attacks.

Boom!

Passively taking a beating is not Destroyer's character. Faced with Iron Man flying around in front of him, Destroyer fires a flame beam to attack quickly. However, the Iron Man's flexible flight prevented attacks like that from hitting them at all and the Destroyer was only able to shoot in vain into the sky or nearby houses.

Rumble~

.....

"Jackson is Iron Man?!"

"It seems like this, those Iron Man seem to be listening to him."

Looking at the fierce battle in front of him, Darcy and others who had been hiding behind had long been stunned. The sudden arrival of Iron Man made everyone very excited, but Jackson suddenly put on an Iron Man Armor, which made Jane feel shocked. As they all know, although there are many Iron Man Armors, there is only one real Iron Man, that is Tony Stark.

"Erik, where the hell did you get your intern from?" Looking ahead at the battle between Iron Man and Destroyer, Jane asked Dr. Erik.

"Oh... I don't know. He was introduced by Professor Haimer. He said that it is an influential figure asking him to help." Erik certainly didn't know the origin of Lin Rui. He's just helping Professor Haimer.

"Do you remember when those guys who claimed to be S.H.I.E.L.D. confiscated our stuff? Jackson mentioned a Tony before, would that be The Tony he mentioned...?" Darcy turned her eyes around and suddenly said that, she had guessed that Lin Rui might have a friendship with someone.

“Tony Stark! The Real Iron Man! Does Jackson know Tony Stark?!”

“Five Iron Mans were dispatched directly to deal with this alien weapon, and one of them was given to Jackson. I don’t think that’s easy to understand.”

“What are you talking about? The few flying weapons are quite powerful.” Just as Jane came together to discuss the relationship between Jackson and Tony, Thor came over with the help of Hogun.

The Asgard fighters had never seen Iron Man, an advanced weapon on the planet, and Thor was surprised that Destroyer had no way to gain an advantage over the flying tin can.

“That’s Iron Man, a special weapon used to protect civilians on Earth. With it, that big fellow should soon fail.” Darcy explained to Thor enthusiastically. It’s a good time to show off the advanced technology of our civilization to the alien civilization. Darcy is proud of the communication between the two civilizations.

“It’s really great. However, it is unlikely that they will be able to defeat Destroyer. Although their attacks seem powerful, they do little damage to Destroyer.” Hogun observed the situation in the next battlefield and calmly analyzed it.

Although the Destroyer on the battlefield has been suffering from the indiscriminate bombing of five Iron Man, it has not suffered much. I don’t know what materials are used to build Destroyer’s super defense. Iron Man’s bullets and missiles can only produce some impact on it. Even after penetration, it quickly recovers. This thing is not only a product of science and technology but also a product of magic.

“J.A.R.V.I.S., can you analyze it? This fellow’s weakness!” While flying fast around Destroyer, Lin Rui asked J.A.R.V.I.S. loudly.

“The material analysis of this human-shaped structure is fruitless, and the source of its attack can not be analyzed. The impact of a thermal weapon is ineffective for its damage. Although a kinetic weapon can penetrate its body, it can recover very quickly.” J.A.R.V.I.S. quickly gave his own analysis.

Hum~

“And the result? I want a way to defeat it!” He drifted away from a flame and Lin Rui shouted.

Destroyer’s manufacturing materials are definitely rare materials of Asgard. It’s normal that J.A.R.V.I.S. can’t analyze it. The source of attack energy should be magic, and J.A.R.V.I.S will obviously not be able to detect it. But Lin Rui doesn’t care about this. What he wants is a way to beat Destroyer.

“Although the enemy’s energy center is uncertain, the position of its energy output has always been its head. Suggestion after analysis: Attacking its head with all one’s strength may destroy its energy center.” Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S. gave a solution.

“Yes! It’s the head that fires the flame beam!” After being reminded by J.A.R.V.I.S., Lin Rui remembered how Thor defeated the Destroyer in the original movie. Relying on the equally indestructible Mj?lnir carrying the power of the incomparable Thunder, a hammer smashed Destroyer’s head and defeated Destroyer. This approach provided by J.A.R.V.I.S is similar to Thor’s method of defeating Destroyer, except that Lin Rui does not know if Iron Man can block Destroyer’s flame beam and explode its head.

"J.A.R.V.I.S., have you analyzed this guy's attack power? If we use a palm cannon against the bombardment, how many chances are there to force its attack back?" Lin Rui needs J.A.R.V.I.S. to provide a workable data.

"The instantaneous attack power of the enemy is up to 30% of the Arc Reactor's energy. If you want to fight it with the palm cannon, you have to push back its attack using that much energy for three seconds. But we don't know if its attack power will rise again and how much energy savings it has. It's not wise to fight it head-on." Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S. reported the results of his analysis to Lin Rui.

"But if we don't do that, this guy's going to tear down the town. Moreover, we are five-to-one, that is to say, we can completely force its attack back!!" Hearing the analysis of JARVIS, Lin Rui's mouth turned up slightly. This is not the time for calm analysis. "J.A.R.V.I.S., just do it!"

"Jackson, don't be impulsive. I'll send five more Iron Man over. You just need to drag for time, you don't need to take any risks." Just as Lin Rui was preparing to deal with Destroyer as planned, Tony's voice burst in. It's good that he let Lin Rui play in his Iron Man Armor. Tony won't let Lin Rui risk his life anymore.

"Tony, this is not the time to wait for the support!" Lin Rui apparently did not intend to listen to Tony. He felt that the risk was worth taking. "J.A.R.V.I.S., let's start!"

"J.A.R.V.I.S., remove Jackson's control. Now let's start putting this big guy off and waiting for follow-up support. Knowing that Jackson would not listen to himself, Tony went directly to J.A.R.V.I.S.

"Yes, sir." J.A.R.V.I.S. of course listens to Tony's words. After promising, Lin Rui's control over the Iron Man Armor has been lifted. All of them are now controlled by J.A.R.V.I.S.

"Really! J.A.R.V.I.S.!" Lin Rui shouted helplessly when he was deprived of control, but he was trapped in an Iron Man Armor.

J.A.R.V.I.S., who accepted Tony's order, perfectly executed his actions and harassed the Destroyer with all his strength, it kept using weapons to hinder its progress and kept it focused on Iron Man. But just as five Iron Man and Destroyers came and went towards each other, Destroyer, who had always had only one way of attacking, suddenly stopped firing flames.

"Eh? What's wrong with it? Did his energy core depleted?" Seeing Destroyer stops firing the flame beam, Lin Rui, who was protected by the Iron Man Armor and flying around the battlefield, stared at it with some confusion.

Buzz~

While Lin Rui was wondering, a strange wave came out of Destroyer standing on the ground. Then Destroyer held his two huge palms flat in front of him and closed them in the next moment, like a clap.

"What is it doing..." While Lin Rui was wondering about Destroyer's action, an invisible shock wave rushed out of Destroyer's hands and hit him instantly.

Boom!

Chapter 134 Hard Fight!

Boom!

The invisible shock wave instantaneously passes through four Iron Mans around Destroyer, then the wave rushes out about 20 meters before it disappears. Lin Rui, who was controlled by J.A.R.V.I.S. and hiding in the distance, just avoided the shock wave, although he did not know what its power was.

Zi Zi Zi

Just as Lin Rui wondered what Destroyer's action meant, an abnormal noise came out of the Iron Man Armor.

"J.A.R.V.I.S. What's wrong? It sounds a little bad." There was a bad feeling in Lin Rui's heart and he asked quickly.

"The other four Iron Man Armors were attacked by an unknown shock wave. Their control system had irreparable faults and they would not be able to fight now." Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S. calmly responded to Lin Rui.

Bang ~bang ~bang ~bang ~bang~

Just after J.A.R.V.I.S. answered Lin Rui's question, the injectors under the four Iron Man Armor feet around Destroyer were instantly extinguished, and then they fell from the air and slammed on the ground.

"What....! What's going on? How did the control system suddenly break down? Aren't you the best AI?!" Looking at the four unmoving Iron Man Armor in front of him, Lin Rui screamed nervously at J.A.R.V.I.S. as they hit the ground like an iron dump.

"There was an undetectable problem that could not be repaired." A 3-D projection screen showing the conditions of the Four Iron Man Armors flashed in front of Lin Rui, J.A.R.V.I.S. could not determine what was going on.

"Undetectable, not..." Seeing the test results of J.A.R.V.I.S., Lin Rui suddenly thought of something.

The Destroyer in the movie had only one attack before he was smashed apart by Thor's hammer: a flame beam from his head. But now, because of Lin Rui's involvement, the Destroyer has clearly come up with a second type of attack that directly invalidates the four advanced Iron Man Armor. And J.A.R.V.I.S. can't detect the problem at all, so Lin Rui can only think of one thing, that is magic. The Destroyer is one of Asgard's most powerful weapon, its body must have a complex and powerful magic array. Now the trouble Iron Man has brought to it caused it to no longer confined to the use of the head flame beam, but to the use magic, that Iron Man Armor can not deal with.

Bang ~ Bang ~

Without the Iron Man Armor hindrance, the Destroyer stepped on one of the Iron Man Armor that had fallen to the ground. Rubbing ~ rubbing ~ Then, the Destroyer kicked one foot and shattered all four Iron Man Armors that has lost all of their power. Stepping on these annoying Tin Man, Destroyer continued to walk towards the location where Jane and Thor were hiding.

"J.A.R.V.I.S, How long till Tony's support arrives?" Looking at Destroyer's step by step approaching Thor, Lin Rui asked quickly.

“Five minutes and thirty-seven seconds,” J.A.R.V.I.S. answered quickly and accurately.

“That’s too late. If we don’t stop it, the people here won’t even last for three minutes at all! Tony, did you hear me? Let J.A.R.V.I.S. release its authority. These civilians need help!” Hearing that there were more than five minutes to go before the support came, Lin Rui shouted loudly in the Iron Man Armor.

The Iron Man Armor worn by Lin Rui was okay. It would be easy if he wanted to leave, but Thor would die by Destroyer’s hands if he does that. Although Thor may get back his thunder power back, Lin Rui feels it’s not safe to gamble with his life.

“Ok, I’ll let JARVIS let go of the restrictions. But once you’re in danger, or that guy uses that trick again, J.A.R.V.I.S. will force you to leave.” After a little wait, Tony agreed to Lin Rui’s request. But if Lin Rui is really in danger, Tony will protect him first.

“I know, I will try my best to stick to your support! Now, J.A.R.V.I.S., let’s fight together!” By agreeing to Tony, Lin Rui found himself again in control of the entire Iron Man Armor the next second.

Puff!

The next moment, Lin Rui, who was hiding in the distance, had rushed towards Destroyer in his only intact Iron Man Armor.

Bang ~ Bang ~

Watching the four Iron Man inexplicably fall out of mid-air and then crushed by Destroyer’s foot, the people hiding on the edge of the battlefield were nervous. The Iron Man, who was supposed to be powerful, was crushed so simply that only one left that was protecting Lin Rui in the distance. Jane and others felt their heart being crushed inside. How could this happen?

“It seems that the powerful weapon you said is not able to withstand Asgard’s magic!” Hogun said as he saw Destroyer using the magic shock wave to defeat the four Iron Man Armor. I don’t know if he is happy because Asgard’s weapon is strong or be sad because no one is going to stop the Destroyer. Maybe the former is more.

Magic? Does this really exist?!” Darcy was surprised to hear Hogun’s words.

“Now is not the time to discuss whether magic exists or not, I think we should go!” Interrupting Darcy’s question, Jane has urged everyone to leave, the Destroyer doesn’t seem to let them go. As for Jackson, he was protected by Iron Man Armor alone, he is much safer than they were.

Boom!

And just as Thor and others continued to retreat, they suddenly heard a loud noise behind them, the sound of the explosion, but the Iron Man Armors were clearly gone. No, there is still Lin Rui’s one!

“Hey! Big guy! I’m still here! Come on!” A missile pushed Destroyer back a few steps, and Lin Rui shouted loudly in front of him.

Hoo!

The Destroyer wasn't planning to deal with the Iron Man Armor that was being used by Lin Rui and was hiding in the distance, but after seeing Lin Rui rushing up, the Destroyer fired a beam of flame towards him.

"Wow! The sneak attack is not good!" The ejector beneath his feet sharply increased power and Lin Rui instantly escaped Destroyer's attack.

However, this time Destroyer seems determined to shoot down Lin Rui, the annoying fellow. The flame beam keeps chasing Lin Rui in the sky, moving faster and faster. Lin Rui had to keep flying around in mid-air, making some difficult moves to avoid the attack beam.

"It seems that its magic attack just now can not be released casually, it may only be released in definite intervals." As he was flying at high speed, Lin Rui watched Destroyer's movements and thought to himself, "But that's not going to work. My attacks aren't working against him and his energy source isn't seem to be depicting!"

Boom!

Just as Lin Rui was thinking about how to break the situation, Destroyer's flame suddenly caught Lin Rui's Iron Man Armor. Although only a little bit was encountered, Lin Rui was shot and flew out.

"Damn it!" After a few laps in the air, Lin Rui finally stabilized the Iron Man Armor. However, he does not intend to continue to circle Destroyer now.

"J.A.R.V.I.S., how much energy does Arc Reactor have left?" After checking the condition and performance of his Iron Man Armor, Lin Rui asked J.A.R.V.I.S.

"Seventy-three percent."

"It should be enough! I won't hide this time! Isn't that right?! Who's afraid of who?!" Hearing the response from J.A.R.V.I.S., Lin Rui shouted. Although 73% of the energy is enough to keep Lin Rui in Destroyer's flame for more than two seconds, Lin Rui bets that he can blow up Destroyer's beam in two seconds.

"Jackson, this is not in line with the calculations..."

"J.A.R.V.I.S., sometimes you can't exactly follow the calculation results. Prepare palm cannon, start power... 100%!"

Boom!

Just as Lin Rui stabilized his position in mid-air, Destroyer's flame beam had returned. But this time Lin Rui did not escape. Faced with the powerful beam, Lin Rui raised his right hand directly. Then a striking white beam rushed out of the palm of the Iron Man Armor and landed directly in mid-air with Destroyer's flame beam.

Boom!!

Chapter 135 Him 0 Me 1

Huh!

The dazzling magical flame beam and the pure white ark energy are on the top and bottom. Compared to the palm cannon, Destroyer's flame beam is thicker, but Arc Reactor's 100% power output energy laser has withstood the bombardment of the flame beam.

"J.A.R.V.I.S! Also give 100% output on ejectors!" Rising his trembling right hand, Lin Rui shouted.

Boom!

J.A.R.V.I.S. did not respond, but the ejectors of the Iron Man Armor were instantly provided more power.

"Ah-ah!" Howling, Lin Rui quickly pressed towards the ground under the push of the ejector. Like Thor, he had to force Destroyer's own attack back and let it explode inside itself.

However, Lin Rui apparently overestimated Iron Man Armor and underestimated the Destroyer. When Lin Rui and Destroyer are shooting at each other, the energy of the Arc Reactor is declining rapidly, but Destroyer's attack is not weakening at all. Soon, two seconds passed.

Boom~

"The energy of the reactor has dropped to 11 percent. You have to give up on this plan." As Lin Rui struggled toward the ground, J.A.R.V.I.S. suddenly warned.

"No! Not now! Hold on!" Lin Rui will not give up so simply. He will destroy Destroyer here.

The point is that Lin Rui believes that if he defeats Destroyer, he will trigger a hidden quest, which will give him a lot of Reward points. Now that the system has disappeared, Lin Rui's ability to quickly capture Reward's power depends on these hidden quests.

"The energy of the reactor is reduced to five percent, forced to withdraw." Just as Lin Rui was still struggling against Destroyer, J.A.R.V.I.S. had taken control of the Arc Reactor's energy quickly when it reached the alert line. Then he had taken Lin Rui out of Destroyer's attack.

"J.A.R.V.I.S!" Lin Rui, who lost control, shouted unwillingly, but he also knew that there was no chance to fight again.

Boom!

However, just as J.A.R.V.I.S. controlled the Iron Man to retreat with Lin Rui, the Destroyer's flame beam power suddenly increased several times, and the suddenly enhanced beam instantaneously engulfed Lin Rui, who had not yet retreated.

"Jackson!"

"Ah! No!"

"Jackson!"

After Lin Rui's Iron Man Armor was swallowed by the sudden increase in the flame beam, Darcy and Jane on the ground sent out an incredulous exclamation. They were already retreating before but if it wasn't for Lin Rui, who not rushed out to help them stop Destroyer, they would not have been able to evacuate safely. So, seeing that Lin Rui was swallowed by the flame beam, the four warriors and Thor were also stunned.

“This is tough!” Hawkeye, who has been hiding in the dark, looks worse. Hawkeye would have been ready to attack if he hadn’t seen that Iron Man’s attacks had no effect on Destroyer, and now he could only watch Lin Rui being swallowed up by a powerful beam of light.

Even Tony’s advanced Iron Man couldn’t cope with the big guy who didn’t know where it was coming from. Hawkeye didn’t know what kind of disaster it would cause. Moreover, Lin Rui was just hit by that light beam and may be dead now.

Whirl ~

After the suddenly enhanced flame beam engulfed Lin Rui. The Destroyer then ended releasing its flame beam. The empty head closed again, leaving only the mouth and two eyes. The Destroyer, who had just undergone a powerful skill-to-skill duel, seemed to need a break, standing where he was and not heading straight for Thor.

And just when everyone thought that Lin Rui was swallowed by Destroyer’s flame along with his Iron Man Armor, a tiny spot suddenly appeared in the sky. That tiny spot turned into a figure, he was shaking his limbs wantonly in order to achieve balance.

“Ah, ah~” Lin Rui screamed as he landed fast from high altitude, trying to stabilize himself.

Although Destroyer’s flame beam just swallowed up the Iron Man Armor, the defense of the Armor still supported him for a while. Before the Iron Man Armor was broken, Lin Rui was sprayed from the back of the Armor by J.A.R.V.I.S. The position of the Iron Man Armor that was originally hit by the flame beam to the high altitude is very high, so it will take a while for Lin Rui to be sprayed out of the Iron Man Armor and fall to the ground.

For the average person, the higher he falls from the more tragic it is, but this is not necessarily for Lin Rui. Because he has internal energy, he can also do amazing light work. However, even if Lin Rui’s internal energy is adequate and he is skilled in light work, falling from such a high position will certainly result in death. Moreover, his body is now empty, without a trace of internal energy, and he can do nothing at all. So Lin Rui could only shake his limbs and shout in horror in mid-air.

“Ah ah ~” Lin Rui wants to mobilize the internal energy in his body, but he can’t sense a trace of it at all. He doesn’t want to die like this.

Whirl ~

Getting closer and closer to the ground, Lin Rui is falling faster and faster, and the accumulated kinetic energy is getting stronger and stronger, so that when he falls to the ground, he may not even look like a human corpse.

“That is Jackson!”

“He is not dead! Hurry to save him!”

Lin Rui finally fell to the position where Darcy could see him, but it didn’t make them feel relaxed. The speed that he is falling from will definitely result in his death, unless he is Superman.

“Jackson! If it weren’t for me!... Loki!!” Thor’s heart was filled with remorse as he watched Lin Rui, who was about to fall to the ground.

Thor knows that all these people around him are suffering because of him. If it weren’t for protecting him, the four warriors would not have been hurt, and Jackson, a brave young man, would not have to die. At this moment, watching Jackson dying in front of his own eyes, Thor’s sense of regret and responsibility burst into flames.

Kaka~

In the research base of S.H.I.E.L.D. in the desert, Mj?lnir, which was circled on the ground, seemed to feel something. Originally, the hammer that grew in the ground suddenly vibrated twice, and some cracks were generated on the ground pressed by it. However, the hammer was finally quiet.

Whirl!

With his heart full of regret for the injuries of people around him, Thor has rushed quickly from a distance towards Lin Rui’s direction. He’s going to catch Lin Rui, which may kill both of them, but he’s going to try, too. He can’t let a young man die, a young man who believed in himself from the very beginning and was willing to help him.

Just as Thor rushed toward where Lin Rui would fall, outside the town, a figure several times faster than the speed of sound was racing up.

“Ah!”

Lin Rui is less than 100 meters away from the ground. At his current speed, he will have a close contact with the earth in less than three seconds. And just as Lin Rui was desperate, he suddenly caught a glimpse of a familiar figure coming from the side.

Hoo!

The next moment, Lin Rui was like a huge jumper who got pulled up at the last minute. The rushing figure grabbed Lin Rui, who had fallen sharply, and rushed down with him to alleviate the sudden drop in acceleration. However, the instantaneous opposite acceleration almost caused Lin Rui’s body to be twisted directly, but somehow he had also practiced and his body was not really twisted, but injuries were inevitable.

Whirl ~

Flying obliquely out a hundred meters, the Iron Man who caught Lin Rui slowly slowed down and finally landed steadily on the ground.

“Jackson, Kid, will you just listen next time?” Tony’s voice came from the Iron Man Armor, holding Lin Rui, who was already exhausted. With that, the steel helmet opened automatically, revealing Tony’s worried face inside.

“Oh, is there next time?” Looking at Tony, Lin Rui asked for a weak smile.

“No!” Putting on a teaching-a-child look, Tony said wickedly.

Chapter 136 Aggressive

In fact, no matter how smart Lin Rui looks and how mature he behaves, he is still a 16-year-old boy, so Tony still treats him as a child most of the time.

"How come you are here so soon, didn't you say that you will arrive in five minutes?" Instead of continuing to talk poorly with Tony, Lin Rui asked doubtfully. Calculating the time, Tony should still be on his way now.

"I ran several red lights," Tony answered improperly.

In fact, Tony's Iron Man Armor is a little better than the one Lin Rui just wore, so it can shorten the time by nearly half. The other Iron Man Armors are still on the way, but they are coming soon.

"Oh, you can let me down now. It's so uncomfortable to be held like this. Hard steel is separating me." After a while, Lin Rui has recovered a little, so he asked Tony to put himself down.

"No hurry, I'll take you to your friend." Instead of listening to Lin Rui and putting him down, Thor started the ejector again.

Hoo!

Soon Tony flew over to Thor with Lin Rui in his arms. Then he carefully put Lin Rui down. Darcy rushed to help Lin Rui, who was weak in limbs. Although she was shocked by the appearance of Tony, the real Iron Man, it was obvious that taking care of Lin Rui was the most important thing right now.

"Jackson, are you all right?" Seeing that Lin Rui was rescued, Thor asked with concern, he had just planned to use his life to follow Lin Rui. Lin Rui was his first friend in this strange civilization, and Thor didn't want anything to happen to him.

"I'm all right. Just need to take a break." With a difficult wave, Lin Rui said he was okay.

"Mr. Stark, you..." Just after Tony rescued Lin Rui, Dr. Erik on the other side politely wanted to say hello to Tony, but he was interrupted before he finished.

"Jackson, is that the big fellow who almost killed you?" Tony looks at the quiet Destroyer in the street ahead and asks Lin Rui.

"Uh-yeah. However, it has a way to destroy the control system of the Iron Man Armor. Be careful if you plan to deal with it." Although he doesn't know why Tony suddenly asked this, Lin Rui gave a very cooperative answer and finally reminded him of the clap attack.

"I Know, Don't worry, I will blow it up!"

Hoo!

After saying this, Tony has already risen to the sky. At the same time, an Iron Man squad also rushed out of the town of Puente Antiguo, with fifteen Iron Man behind Tony, which is more powerful than the previous five Iron Man. Apparently, five Iron Man Armors were destroyed, Lin Rui was injured and Tony had been provoked. And for Tony to get his revenge, he will destroy the thing that caused this headache with money (15 Iron Man, the total value has been billions). Tony is now preparing to do this, killing the big guy with the number of Iron Man.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Fighting erupted in an instant, and Tony would not let his Iron Man regiment get too close to Destroyer by getting specific battle data from J.A.R.V.I.S. As long as Destroyer does something weird, J.A.R.V.I.S. will keep Iron Man Regiment away quickly, so that it will not be disturbed by the magical fluctuations like it did in the past.

However, although Destroyer has not been able to fight back by the bombing of more than a dozen Iron Man, these ordinary attacks still cannot pose any threat to it and they can only hold it. Therefore, Tony finally chose the same attack method as Lin Rui: Palm laser cannon. Only this time, 15 Iron Man jointly released palm laser cannons at Destroyer, and it was 100% of Arc Reactor's power.

Buzz~

Destroyer resolutely produced a flame beam in the face of a palm cannon that attacked him and this flame beam was more powerful than before. Destroyer's flame beam, however, was forced back in less than a second with the full output of fifteen Arc Reactors. Destroyer's enormous head twists as the laser cannon converges in one place and the flame beam that Destroyer itself produced is forced back in itself.

Boom!

With a loud noise and such a powerful attack, the indestructible Destroyer was completely blown up from the head, the whole upper body was blown up, but the inside was empty. The energy surging through Destroyer's body, which was destroyed from the top of his body, quickly extinguished and it finally fell to the ground powerlessly.

Rumble~

Destroyer has fallen, but Darcy and others hiding on the edge of the battlefield still can't believe it. Just now, the magical Destroyer was destroyed by fifteen Iron Man. What about its previous trick? Obviously, they don't know that magic has a valid range.

"I know that it would work! I have to fight hard and let it collapse from the inside! Oh! It hurts!" Seeing Destroyer fall completely, Lin Rui shouted with excitement. However, when he waved, he apparently remembered his condition and cried out in pain.

Huh!

After destroying the Destroyer, Tony has already flown back again. Slowly falling in front of Lin Rui, Tony put down his helmet.

"Although your method is correct, can you find out next time whether you have the cost of completing the plan? J.A.R.V.I.S. has just calculated that 15 Arc Reactors have only 11% of their energy left. Do you think you can beat it with the previous five Iron Man even if they were not damaged?" Tony apparently also had a lot of complaints about Lin Rui's failure to listen to himself and almost had an accident. He was also worried about Lin Rui.

"I know, I was wrong. However, the situation did not give me too many choices. It was either that or watch it hurt my friends." With a pale face, Lin Rui admitted to his recklessness.

"It's good that you know you were wrong, but somehow you've come up with a workable way to attack. Besides, this incident reminds me that you shouldn't think about touching the Iron Man Armor in the future." With a nod, Tony is not going to let Lin Rui drive his Iron Man Armor anymore. It's too dangerous.

"Oh, no!" Hearing Tony's words, Lin Rui continued to pretend to be pathetic. Lin Rui can't fly with his current strength. Iron Man is a cool way to fly.

"Not happening." In the face of Lin Rui's skillful acting, Tony was not at all impressed.

Just as Tony and Lin Rui were chatting here, a few people on the side were ignored. This embarrassed Dr. Jane and Dr. Erik, but they didn't interrupt Tony. They were not a hierarchical person. Fortunately, Lin Rui remembered them and turned his eyes to Tony after a little chat.

"Mr. Stark, I think I haven't had time to introduce you to my internship tutor: Dr. Erik, and Miss Jane Foster, and Miss Darcy, who is her assistant." Lin Rui only introduced these guys, because he hasn't figured out how to introduce Asgard's guys and Thor to Tony.

"Nice to meet you, Beautiful Miss Foster and Miss Darcy. Of course, Dr. Erik you too. I have always admired your work." After Lin Rui introduced them, Tony smiled and said hello to Jane.

"I am honored to meet you, Mr. Stark!" Dr. Erik, Jane, and Darcy are very excited because they are standing in front of Tony Stark, the real Iron Man.

"What about these guys? Was there a costume party here?" After Tony greeted Jane and the other two, he turned to Asgard Four Warriors and asked. Tony temporarily ignored Thor, who was normally dressed, because he didn't think the big man mattered at all.

"Well, they are..." Lin Rui doesn't know if he should tell Tony about Thor's real history. Maybe Tony will let them stay and explore alien technology.

"We are the warriors from Asgard!" Lin Rui hasn't figured out how to introduce themselves yet and the big man Hogun has already introduced himself there.

"Asgard? Which tribe is it? Now there are people who call themselves warriors?" Glancing at Hogun's dress, Tony asked lightly.

"They are warriors from Asgard, an alien civilization. For some reason, Thor, the handsome man over there, unexpectedly came to Earth. These four warriors came to him, and the big fellow just came to chase them down." Finally, Lin Rui decided to tell Tony the truth. Anyway, Loki will do something crazy in the future, so it's better to let Tony meet them here.

"Ha? Jackson, Did you hit your head? Alien civilization?" To hear Lin Rui's words, Tony's face was one of disbelief, the alien civilization was like that. It really made Tony somewhat disappointed. Although the Destroyer has some strength, it doesn't make Tony feel threatened.

“Mr. Stark, that’s true. The project I’ve been working on is about Einstein Rosen Bridge, a space tunnel that connects two spaces. Thor and the big guy came through Einstein Rosen Bridge, and we have a lot of data and patterns to prove it.” Seeing Tony not believing it, Jane said quickly from the side.

“Jackson, is that true?” Seeing Jane and Lin Rui being serious, Tony asked again.

“It’s hard to believe, but Tony, it’s true. Do you remember what I gave you? You asked me where I got it. I never told you.” Looking at Tony, Lin Rui said earnestly. What’s more, Lin Rui suddenly found out that his magic items had a very good explanation for their origins, extraterrestrial items, mysterious powers. Of course, why does he have those things can be explained by another story.

“You mean...” Tony’s eyes flashed at Lin Rui’s words. J.A.R.V.I.S. has not made any progress in the detection of the Freya Guardian and Elf Holy Spring Water given by Lin Rui, which could be well explained if it were an alien item.

Whirl!

Shortly after Tony’s Iron Man Corps defeated the Destroyer, several S.H.I.E.L.D. black cars rushed into the battlefield. S.H.I.E.L.D. With the late support, Agent Coulson was coming down from the front of the car.

Chapter 137 Can’t Go Back

Seeing Coulson coming here, Tony’s face was a little bad. “That annoying guy id coming over.”

Because Tony hasn’t promised to join S.H.I.E.L.D., Nick gave Coulson a dead order, to be sure to get Tony.

“Tony, I don’t think he can get into trouble with you right now. This is just too urgent and there is something I haven’t told you yet.” Seeing Tony’s look, Lin Rui smiled and said.

“What’s the matter? I’d better let this fellow go.” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Tony asked curiously.

“I was at the research base of S.H.I.E.L.D....” Then Lin Rui was ready to tell Tony about the fact that he was almost killed by lightning at the S.H.I.E.L.D. experimental base.

“Hello, Mr. Stark, I am very happy to meet you here, thank you for helping us solve this big problem!” However, Lin Rui hasn’t said anything yet and Coulson has come quickly to talk to Tony.

“I’m too lazy to take care of your troubles. If Jackson hadn’t asked me for help, do you think I would be here? Also, this time six of my Iron Man Armors were destroyed and twenty Arc Reactors were consumed. I will send the bill to your S.H.I.E.L.D.” Glancing at Coulson, Tony said lightly. Tony is still considering whether to cooperate with S.H.I.E.L.D or not because he won’t let others take advantage of him.

“Uh-huh-huh, Jackson, I hear you’re all right. That’s great!” Hearing Tony’s words, Coulson can only turn to Lin Rui helplessly.

Coulson knows that even if he doesn't say it, Tony will still know what happened before to Lin Rui and it would be better if he is told now rather than later. Anyway, Lin Rui is fine now, and Tony has no reason to find trouble with him.

"Eh? Okay? What's all right? Jackson, what happened?" Hearing Coulson's words, Tony asked Lin Rui doubtfully.

"That's what I was going to tell you just now. I had an accident at the research base of S.H.I.E.L.D., where there was a hammer, Thor's hammer. When I was studying the hammer, I was struck by thunder and almost died there." Standing out, Lin Rui simply talked about what had happened to him. Of course, Lin Rui would not say that his bad luck triggered Mjǫlnir's ban and he almost died of thunder and lightning. He could only say that it was an accident.

"Struck by thunder?! Almost dead!? How are you doing now? Will there be any sequelae? If you become a fool, it will be bad." Tony was shocked when he heard Lin Rui's words, and reached out to examine Lin Rui's head. The key is that Lin Rui has been driving an Iron Man Armor and fighting with Destroyer for so many rounds. I really don't know how he did it.

"I'm all right, but I'm still weak. I've had my ass kicked by that fellow. That's why I have these injuries." Shaking his head, Lin Rui said he was okay.

"Well, it's a bit of swelling. You will all good in a few days. However, Agent Coulson, shouldn't you give me an explanation?" Letting JARVIS carefully check Lin Rui's body, Tony was relieved seeing the results, and Tony asks Coulson with a bad face.

"Well, Jackson himself asked to join the research team, and the accident was totally unexpected. We've done our best to cure Jackson and he is recovering now." Faced with Tony's bad voice, Coulson carefully explained. After that Coulson looked at Lin Rui, hoping that the young man would say something nice.

However, the person he asked for help was obviously wrong. Lin Rui would not help S.H.I.E.L.D. and Tony get along well. "I felt that I had nothing to do with their treatment when I woke up. It was all luck." That's Lin Rui's response.

"This....."

"Agent Coulson, I don't think there's much more to say between us. Jackson, I'll ask J.A.R.V.I.S. to send you back to New York right away and give you a good check-up." Seeing what Coulson wanted to say, Tony interrupted him with a wave of his hand and then spoke to Lin Rui.

"Well, don't worry about that. I'd like to stay here a little longer. At least, I want to see my friend go home safely." With that, Lin Rui looked at Thor, who had never spoken at all. "Thor, my friend, Are you going home now?"

It seems that he didn't want to be involved with Lin Rui. After Tony broke the Destroyer, Thor didn't speak much, especially when he was afraid to face Lin Rui who almost died.

"Yes, my friend, I'm glad to be able to go home. You can rest assured that once I get back to Asgard, I'll teach my brother a good lesson." Seeing Lin Rui looking at himself, Thor finally stopped being silent and said it seriously.

“Well, I believe in you.” As long as you don’t want to break out of the property control and be played by Loki, Loki is just general in terms of force. This is Lin Rui’s thought. Of course, this is based on the premise that Odin will return his Divine power to him after Thor returns to Asgard.

“Well, you’ll come back with me when they get back to that Asgard.” Tony felt the same after hearing Thor’s words. Moreover, if these people are really aliens, Tony needs to see that space transfer technology.

“Uh ~that, Thor, isn’t it? You didn’t tell me the truth!” Just as Thor and Lin Rui were talking to themselves, Coulson broke in again.

As a top-secret agent, Coulson would be foolish to lose track of the situation now. The big man who broke into the research base was obviously not Lin Rui’s friend. And from the nonsense he shouted when he broke into the base that night, Coulson can be sure that he still has four strangely dressed people from the same place as the magic hammer. They are aliens!

Coulson, if you had a better attitude, you might have known it. But now, I’m going home. You have to return Jane’s test materials and equipment to her, so maybe we can be allies. Of course, for Jackson’s sake.” Thor didn’t look very good about beating the guards up last night.

“Of course, Miss Foster can have her equipment back, she’s gonna need it to continue her research, we just borrowed it for a while.” In response to Thor’s request, Coulson agreed to it. SHIELD is already on bad terms with Tony, and Coulson doesn’t want to lose a friendly and powerful alien civilization ally.

“Jane, would you like to see the Bifrost that I mentioned before?” Not talking to Coulson, Thor looked at Jane, who was beside him.

“Ah?! Of course!” Hearing Thor’s words, Jane was a little excited.

“Then let’s go!”

Then, Thor and their group drove to the desert, followed by a large number of people from S.H.I.E.L.D.

“Heimdall, please open Bifrost!” When he reached the position Bifrost had opened before, Thor shouted up into the sky. As the God guarding Asgard, Heimdall has the ability to penetrate the nine Realms and to see anyone in the nine realms.

Whirl ~

Just after Thor had finished that sentence, a large dark cloud suddenly appeared in the clear sky, and a thunderstorm cloud soon appeared over Thor’s position, which was the precursor of Bifrost’s opening.

“Jane, you can rest assured that I will come back after I have settled things on Asgard.” Standing outside the circle with Jane in his arms, Thor assured Jane affectionately.

“I’ll wait for you.”

Hoo!

“Good-bye.” Thor had rushed into Bifrost after saying his farewell to Jane. There, four warriors were waiting for him.

Then, the magical Bifrost opened, and a beam of light instantly shot from the sky to cover Thor and others.

“Wow! Is this the door of space? It looks more like a magic array. Lin Rui, standing next to Bifrost, looked at the beam carefully and felt it unconsciously.

“It’s really amazing.” Tony, standing beside Lin Rui, also sighed, he had let J.A.R.V.I.S record the spatial fluctuation of Bifrost in all directions.

The next moment, the beam disappeared, and the people inside disappeared. Incorrect! Four of them disappeared, and one person stayed where he was.

“What happened? Why am I still here?” Thor, who had not been sent back to Asgard by Bifrost, looked around blindly and did not know what had happened.

“Heimdall! Let me go back! Asgard needs me!” Thinking that there’s something wrong with the Bifrost, Thor shouted into the sky. However, the normal sky did not change anymore, Heimdall has not responded to Thor’s call.

“No?! Thor can’t go back!? What is happening in Asgard? Lin Rui was surprised to see this on the sidelines.

Although Thor didn’t regain his powers, Asgard should be facing threats now, and even then, Heimdall didn’t let Thor go back. There is only one explanation for the current situation, that is, Asgard has an accident.

“Heimdall!” Under Bifrost, Thor was still shouting, but it was all in vain.

“It seems that your friend can’t go home for the time being.” Looking at Thor’s voice, Tony shrugged and said.

“Well, that seems to be the case.” Lin Rui didn’t know what to say.

“Heimdall!”

Chapter 138 Loki’s Plot

There is a beautiful nebula in a constellation not known how far away from Earth. The most powerful Asgard in Nine Realms on the world tree is located in this nebula. After Thor was banished to Earth by Odin, something did happen to Asgard, but it was not what Lin Rui had guessed.

Because the Frost Giants broke into Asgard’s Treasury at Thor’s coronation ceremony, Thor failed to complete the ceremony and became Asgard’s king. With four of his warriors and Loki, the resentful Thor rushed directly to Frost Giant’s planet, Jotunheim, for his revenge and was finally driven to despair by Laufey and when everything seemed lost, they were saved by Odin.

This series of things is obviously Loki’s conspiracy. As Asgard’s second prince, Loki felt that Odin was a little detached from an early age and did not like himself very much. No matter how good Loki performed, Odin always preferred Thor to him, which made Loki very uncomfortable and resentful in his heart.

Loki is not necessarily worse than Thor in terms of magic than in force. Compared with strategy, Loki is far ahead of Thor, who couldn't even count how many enemies were there. Thor only knows how to rush on the battlefield with a hammer, which seems to be the most foolish thing in Loki's eyes. However, from childhood to now, Odin always intentionally or unintentionally ignored Loki's excellence, and finally decided to pass the throne of Asgard to Thor. Although Asgard's King had to control Thor's power, Loki was not happy with this decision.

So at Thor's coronation ceremony, Loki interrupted the ceremony with a little trick. Later, he tricked Thor to go and get his revenge on the Frost Giants. After Thor successfully provoked a war between Asgard and Frost Giants, Loki knew that his plan had succeeded. Thor made such a big mistake that Odin would not pass the throne on to Thor, at least not now. Thor, who provoked the war between Asgard and Frost Giants, will no longer be sent to the front line and Loki will have a chance to show Odin that he is stronger than Thor.

However, the plan has been perfect in the early stages of implementation. Thor headed towards Jotunheim for his revenge and attacked the King of Frost Giants, Laufey, the war between them was inevitable after that. Thor, who caused all this, was deprived of his divine power and banished, and Mjolnir was also mythologized. But in this project, Loki found something that shocked him. In the battle with a Frost Giant, Loki found himself immune to Frost Giant's frost power. To find out more about this, Loki went to the Treasury and picked up Frost Giant's Casket of Ancient Winters.

After that, Loki discovered a shocking secret, the reason why Odin had been biased toward Thor for so many years. The reason was his background. He's not of Asgard. He's not Odin's son. He's not Asgard's second prince. He's a descendant of Frost Giant and Asgard. He's half Frost Giant. Everything became clear. The doubts that Loki had for so many years were finally solved but in this cruel way.

Just after Loki learned about himself through the Casket of Ancient Winters, Odin appeared in the Treasure Vault. Then Loki and Odin had a big fight. No one knows what happened behind, but when the guards rushed in, Odin was found unconscious on the ground.

Then, after Odin suddenly fell into Odin's sleep, Loki took over Odin's baton and began to exercise the king's rights in Asgard. And Loki, who discovered his secret, secretly returned to Frost Giant's planet to find Laufey and made a deal with Laufey after revealing his identity. That is, to let Laufey lead his troops into Asgard and kill Odin and let Loki really sit on Asgard's throne.

However, Odin's sudden serious injury and Loki coming into power did not sit still with Sif and the Warriors Three and they began to have some doubts, so they decided to go to Earth to find Thor and bring him back to deal with this situation. In order to continue to let Thor stay on Earth and not interrupting in his plans and in order to let Laufey completely believe in himself, Loki sent the Destroyer to the Earth to stop Thor's return.

Because of Loki's identity and with Thor in exile and with Odin's serious injuries, and Loki's pursuit of Thor, Laufey finally believed Loki's words and sent people into Asgard. He himself came to Asgard for revenge. With Loki's help, Laufey broke into Odin's palace.

And just when Laufey wanted to kill the Allfather of Asgard, Odin, who should have been seriously injured, suddenly opened his eyes in the bed and stood up with a blinding light, and instantly burst out with a powerful power, power that does not belonged to a dying god.

“You’re not seriously injured?!” With frost-frozen swords in his hands, Laufey stared at Odin in shock as he stepped out of bed.

“What do you think?” The answer to Laufey was Loki, who had been standing behind him. Then Loki shot Laufey with Odin’s scepter.

Boom!

The powerful energy instantly slammed into Laufey and he hit the solid wall of Odin’s palace. If it wasn’t for Laufey’s own strength and that he blocked the attack in front of him with his Frost Sword, Loki’s blow might have killed him.

“Cough! Loki! Odin! It turned out that all this was your conspiracy!” Climbing up from the ground, Laufey screamed with blood in his mouth.

“It’s true that I have Frost Giant’s blood in me, but I still half Asgardian. Did you really think that I would betray my home to you?” With Odin’s scepter in his hand, Loki looked at Laufey’s disdain.

Although Loki really cares about his background, he grew up in Asgard and was educated and raised in Asgard. Although he was unhappy about Odin’s bias, it was a reaction of normal children. Loki won’t eat betray relatives just because of half of Frost Giant’s blood in his body. He’s the second prince of Asgard. He’s not an unlucky child who has been abused for a lifetime. Why would he help the Frost Giant? There’s no reason for him too.

Kakaka~

Just as Loki dismissed the question, a huge frost suddenly burst out of Laufey’s corner and it froze most of the palace in an instant and the frost quickly spread toward Loki and Odin.

Boom!

Faced with Laufey’s counterattack, the Odin scepter in Loki’s hand glowed with gold light. As for Odin, he waved his hand and pushed back the frost.

“Laufey, do you really think that you will win this war? I can still fight even if I am this old!” Odin shattered the ice that filled half of the palace.

The wounded Laufey, who had broken through the wall behind him by frosting it, was ready to flee, this time in response to this conspiracy. In the absence of Odin’s injury and Loki’s rebellion, Laufey was left with only one dead end.

Loki apparently did not intend to let Laufey run away so simply and another powerful magic attack shot toward him.

An ice wall was erected behind Laufey to block the attack and Laufey jumped out of the gap. When the ice wall behind him was blown away, Laufey just flew out with that impact.

“Father! I’ll go after him!” Watching Laufey escape, Loki shouted at Odin.

However, Odin waved his hand. “Laufey can’t escape. How to deal with the Frost Giants is the most important thing now.”

Taking his scepter from Loki, Odin has recovered the majesty of the former Allfather. Perhaps Laufey’s escape was deliberately done by Odin. A badly wounded leader is enough to deter the Frost Giants, especially since Laufey knows that Odin is not injured and that the war may end soon because of this. Odin did not want to exterminate the Frost Giants. He wants peace in Nine Realms.

“Yes! I’m going to arrange for the soldiers. But Thor...” Understanding Odin’s meaning, Loki responded quickly, but finally mentioned Thor on Earth.

Loki sent the Destroyer to Earth just to prevent Thor from returning to Asgard. He wasn’t really going to kill Thor. Even if Lin Rui didn’t interrupt, Destroyer would only seriously hurt Thor. Anyway, for Loki, it is hard to have a chance to bully his brother, he will not let it go so easily.

“This battle was initiated by you and Thor. Since I banished Thor, it is natural that he will come back when he realizes where he is wrong and when he really understands responsibility and compassion. And for you, the battlefield on the front line is your punishment. Didn’t you always want to show off your talents? Winning this battle will be the best proof.” Obviously, Odin is not a fool. He had seen what Loki had done. However, the incident also reminded Odin that it was time for Loki to really do something as Asgard’s second prince. As for Thor, he’s still staying on the earth for a while. Heimdall will keep watching him.

“Yes! Father!” When Loki heard Odin’s words, he said yes excitedly. He finally had a chance to show Odin his talent. He’s not the younger brother who’s been shadowed by Thor’s light. He’s Loki. He’s also a god!

In this way, when the Earth’s Destroyer was destroyed by Tony and Thor planned to return to Asgard, Heimdall only took back Sif and the Three Warriors. Poor Thor, who had been set aside by his dear brother for his recklessness, could only reflect on the earth now.

Chapter 139 Thor’s Plan

Earth, New Mexico, USA, at the research base of S.H.I.E.L.D. Tony, Lin Rui and Thor were all at the base. Thor, who had been unable to return to Asgard, was in a bad mood and Lin Rui was chatting with him and persuading him.

“Thor, although you can’t go back to Asgard now, didn’t Miss Sif just come back with information? Asgard is safe. Loki was sent to the front lines by your father and the king. You can just take a vacation here on Earth.” Sitting on a couch in a temporary office arranged by Agent Coulson, Lin Rui looked across at Thor and tried to persuade him.

When the four Asgard warriors returned, they found that Loki and Odin had planned everything, and Thor’s exile was not over. So, in order not to worry Thor, Sif came back to Earth again through Bifrost and told Thor the news. Sif told Thor that he can only return to Asgard if he regains his divine powers by himself, but Sif doesn't know how Thor can regain his divine powers back and others can't help him.

Thor was very depressed about it. He has tried to lift Mjolnir again, but it seems that Mjolnir, which was close to him before, did not know him at all at this moment. It did not respond to his calls at all. Lin Rui was struck by thunder when he touched the hammer for the first time.

"Asgard is in the midst of a war, but I am trapped here, unable to help!" Thor obviously didn't want to take a vacation, and the war genes in his body would not let him rest if there's a war to be won.

"Maybe your father did this intentionally. Can Frost Giant defeat Asgard even if you are not there?" Seeing Thor acting like this, Lin Rui started to switch his strategy.

"Of course it's impossible! Asgard is much stronger than the Frost Giant, and we have Loki as the leader, the Frost Giant has no chance at all." Hearing Lin Rui's question, Thor answered aloud.

Apparently, Thor is well aware of Loki's talent, even though he is put in this situation by Loki. As Loki grew up, Thor was the person who knew him the best. He knew that Loki was uncomfortable with him being prioritized by Odin. He knew that Loki's magical accomplishments were remarkable. So he would let Loki do everything, and try to protect Loki from the outside, and be a good brother to him. Even if he was in his current situation because of him, Thor would not resent Loki.

"What are you so worried about than? And currently, you are just a mortal, you can't even raise your own weapon. What can you do even if you return to Asgard? Go to the frontline as cannon fodder? Or stay in Asgard, seeing other soldiers being mobilized before the war, I don't think you're fit to do that." Hearing Thor's answer, Lin Rui continued.

Although the current plot is far from what Lin Rui knows, it is going in the right direction. Asgard wasn't attacked, Loki wasn't doing anything, Bifrost wasn't destroyed, and Thor remained on Earth, which was good news for Lin Rui.

Because Lin Rui first helped Thor, Lin Rui was Thor's first friend on Earth. As long as Lin Rui makes good use of this friendship, there will be great rewards in the future, which Lin Rui firmly believes in.

"But, what if I can't recover my power? If I can't lift my hammer, ever? Then I'll never go back to Asgard." As his tone faded, it all became clear, Thor wasn't really worried about Asgard's safety. What he worries about is himself. He worries that he would always remain a mortal being. Thor was given Mjolnir by Odin in the myths and even now he doesn't know how to regain his divine power.

"Have you ever thought that this may be a trial for you. In the past, you were invincible with your powers of thunder, now that you have lost that power and become an ordinary person, what kind of person will you become? Sometimes, ordinary people can create and do great things, why don't you try it?" Lin Rui can't directly tell Thor that this is Odin's trial for him, but he can remind him in an indirect way.

"Jackson! You are right! But what should I do? I have never been an ordinary person before." Thor seems to think that Lin Rui is right, but he has no idea what to do to be a good ordinary person, especially when he is still in such a strange civilization, surrounded by people who can't understand him.

"It's up to you to find that out and you can't let other people teach you how to go step by step. I believe you can do it well. Of course, I will not refuse when you need help." Lin Rui didn't know how to get Thor back his powers. It seems to be something that only Thor can comprehend.

"That seems to be the only way. Jane invited me to come back with her, and she continued her research project. She said I might be able to help." Thor, who was told by Lin Rui, went on. It seems like a good choice to be with a beautiful woman. The trial is always there. Thor doesn't mind making the trial more loving.

"Well, that's a good choice too. At least you have your own business to do." Now Lin Rui is not going to let Thor follow him. He has no time or spare energy to discipline such an alien. Let him learn some earth civilization and know the life of the earth with Jane first.

"That seems the only way." With a nod, Thor has accepted the reality.

As for Mjolnir, it doesn't matter if Thor can't lift it. S.H.I.E.L.D. can't take it anyway. They are also not likely to find anything useful, that is the product of magic, the development of civilization is different, how can they obtain effective information?

"Well, that's it. Tony has been urging me back to New York, I hope to see you in New York, Thor." With that, Lin Rui handed Thor a cell phone with some contact information from Lin Rui.

"I will, my friend." After taking the phone, Thor said seriously.

"And S.H.I.E.L.D., the organization that hides your hammer. They may want to get to know you better, but I suggest you don't talk to them too much, at least not now." Before leaving, Lin Rui started tripping S.H.I.E.L.D. again.

S.H.I.E.L.D. has many mysterious and powerful items, such as the Magic Cube that hold one of the Infinity Stones. But Thor and Asgard were, after all, the first real alien civilizations they had ever come into contact with and Thor's people have seemed to have mastered their technology and their civilization is several times more powerful and technologically advanced than Earth's. So, with the nature of S.H.I.E.L.D., they won't miss such a good opportunity. Thor being left on Earth is the best way for S.H.I.E.L.D. to learn about Asgard and get extraterrestrial technology or other power, but they also need Thor's cooperation. But until S.H.I.E.L.D. cleans up their internal worms, Lin Rui won't let Thor fall into their hands.

"No problem. I don't like them anyway. Even if you don't say anything, I won't say much to them. As for my hammer, let them keep it for a while." Hearing Lin Rui's reminder, Thor agreed directly. It was just a small matter.

"OK, then I'll go first. Tony should have began to get impatient with Coulson's nonsense." By the end of their conversation, Lin Rui had risen from the sofa.

"Haha, see you later! My friend!" Thor laughed and opened his arms to give Lin Rui a big hug. The big man over two-meter tall with a strong figure almost drafted Lin Rui. After all, he is still injured.

"Cough, all right. Say hello to Miss Foster and Dr. Erik for me and tell them that I am sorry for leaving like this." Freeing himself from Thor's embrace, Lin Rui said palely.

“No problem!”

Then Lin Rui and Thor left the office. After they left, the cameras in the corner of the office flashed twice, they were previously disabled by J.A.R.V.I.S. on Lin Rui’s request. He didn’t want his conversation with Thor to be heard by S.H.I.E.L.D.

Chapter 140 Back to New York

While Lin Rui and Thor were chatting and temporarily arranging Thor’s life on Earth, Coulson was talking to Tony in another room at the experimental base.

“Mr. Stark, Jackson is one of the third sequence talents of our SHIELD. We won’t deliberately put him in danger. It was definitely an accident before.” Back at the base, Coulson continued to explain to Tony that Lin Rui had been struck by lightning, and it seemed that Tony had never forgiven him.

“The third sequence of talents? Is Jackson going to be working for you SHIELD? I think Jackson will have a better future in my Stark Industries. Maybe other SHIELD talents should consider joining another club.” In the face of Coulson’s explanation, Tony disdained it very much.

S.H.I.E.L.D. is a large organization that has great influence all over the world. Among them, a variety of high-tech talents are the most important part needed to support such an organization. If Tony really poaches up a few of them, it will be of great benefit to the development of Stark Industries.

“Haha. As long as Mr. Stark is willing to cooperate with S.H.I.E.L.D., these are not non-negotiable.” Coulson is still pulling Tony to S.H.I.E.L.D.

The cooperation between Stark Industries and S.H.I.E.L.D. is very important to S.H.I.E.L.D. Because of some problems in Congress these days, the funds provided to S.H.I.E.L.D. suddenly became short. Director Nick recently began to look for new sponsors and Stark Industries is undoubtedly a big financier.

“I will discuss this with Nick, but recently he seems very busy.” Although Tony has a lot of dissatisfaction with SHIELD but working with them can really bring a lot of benefits to Stark Industries and Tony will not be so uncomfortable all the time.

“Mr. Stark, I have already talked with Thor, and now I can go back to New York.” Just as Coulson was about to continue to chat with Tony, Lin Rui pushed in from the outside.

Lin Rui had a very long day, and his physical and mental condition is not very good now. If it hadn’t been for Thor, Lin Rui would have gone back to New York for a good rest. The Reward Points are completely exhausted, and the side effects of Advanced Spirit Fruit are slowly emerging. Lin Rui didn’t seem to be weak at this point, but he’s really losing his grip.

“Well, let’s go back. I’ll arrange someone to take your stuff back for you. As for Dr. Erik, he’ll definitely give you high marks for your internship.” With a nod, Tony didn’t want to spend more time at this boring experimental base.

“That ah, haha...” Lin Rui laughed when he heard Tony talk about his internship as he didn’t really care about Dr. Erik’s comments.

Then Tony and Lin Rui flew out of New Mexico in Iron Man Armors and headed for New York. This time, Lin Rui's Iron Man Armor is totally controlled by J.A.R.V.I.S. Tony won't let Lin Rui play with Iron Man Armor anymore. He's a fatal madman.

After Tony and Lin Rui drove Iron Man out of the S.H.I.E.L.D. experimental base, Jane and Darcy, who was resting not far away, looked up and watched them leave.

"Mr. Stark and Jackson left, we should also tidy up the experimental data." It was not until the two Iron Man shadows in the sky were invisible that Jane climbed up to her RV and said.

Jane's experience was shocking enough, and her research was proven before her eyes. Although she still doesn't understand how Bifrost or Einstein Rosen Bridge came into being, seeing this space passageway first hand is something that she needs to continue her research. Moreover, Dr. Erik put his research aside and began to help Jane study her subject with all his strength.

"Ah! There's goes the handsome guy, I don't know when I can see him again!" While holding the lab equipment, Darcy looked at Lin Rui's direction.

"Hey! Let me help you!" Just as Jane was carrying the boxes, Thor came out of the experimental base and greeted them with a smile.

After talking to Lin Rui, S.H.I.E.L.D. did not let him leave immediately. Agent Coulson personally invited Thor to join S.H.I.E.L.D., which was an alliance. But Thor, who heard Lin Rui's reminder, didn't simply say yes. He just pushed him through with a loud laugh. He's not silly. Coulson can't force Thor to stay. After all, this alien visitor is not powerless. There is an entire Advanced civilization behind him that can come to the earth through Bifrost at any time. So Thor chose to leave with Jane and live with them for a while, looking for ways to regain his divine power back.

"Hey! Big guy, didn't you find a way to go home?" Seeing Thor coming, Darcy asked with a laugh.

"When it's time to go back, I will naturally go back. Now, I will live on the earth." Taking the box from Darcy's hand, Thor replied with a smile.

"I'm glad you think so. There's a real alien here. I think you will be very helpful in our research." Jane is also happy that Thor would like to go with them as she still has a lot of questions to ask Thor about Asgard.

"Haha, I am not a scientist." Thor moved the box to the RV and then went to Jane's side. "By the way, Jackson gave me this before he left. He said that I could use it when I wanted to contact him, and he said you could teach me how to use it." With that, Thor handed the phone that Lin Rui gave him.

"Well, this is called a mobile phone. We use this here to contact others. As long as you have his number, no matter how far he is from you, you can talk to him through this mobile phone." Seeing the mobile phone held by Thor, Jane laughed and began to explain.

Hoo!

"Ah! Did Jackson give it to you? There must be his cell phone number in it! Show me!" Before Thor expressed his surprise, Darcy had rushed over.

“Ah! Jackson didn’t say he wanted to call you!”

“Jane~”

“Okay, okay~ but you can’t just call him!”

“I Know!”

When Jane and Darcy in New Mexico started fighting over Lin Rui’s phone number, he was asleep tens of thousands of meters above the ground. It’s not sleeping, it’s more like a kind of exhausted body self-dormancy. J.A.R.V.I.S. had full control over the Iron Man Armor and Lin Rui, who did not need any brains to control it, fell asleep during the high-speed flight.

“Sir, Mr. Jackson is asleep. Physical tests show no abnormalities.” After Lin Rui fell asleep, J.A.R.V.I.S. dutifully reported his case to Tony. Of course, J.A.R.V.I.S. did not detect what happened to Lin Rui. This was mental fatigue. The data of J.A.R.V.I.S. had not advanced to this level.

“It seems that he’s really tired, I don’t know how he managed to keep it up to now. J.A.R.V.I.S. Speed up and ask Dr. Weiss to be ready. Jackson will need a full body checkup and a lot of rest.” Tony gave instructions soon after hearing the report of J.A.R.V.I.S.

Bang!

The next moment, the power of the two Iron Man ejectors flying above 10,000 meters rose again and they headed for New York at a faster speed.

During the time when Lin Rui went to New Mexico, New York was all right and there was nothing particularly noticeable. Spiderman continued to fight offenders, as usual, Daredevil and Jack began to go deep into Kingpin’s sphere of influence, and everything went smoothly.

However, in the seemingly calm New York City, there have been several undercurrents in the dark that have begun to surge. The Vampire family is gone, and many families and forces that have cooperated with them have suffered a lot. The New York police also took the opportunity to clean up a group of underworld forces, which is part of Lin Rui’s mainline quest.

In addition to these hard-hit Mafia forces, there are some who are beginning to move foolishly. Some of them are well-known and some are deeply hidden, but each of them has strong strength, enough to bring trouble to the whole world. Now they’re ready to do it.
