Chapter 141 Lethargic Sleep And Tony Thoughts

New York, In a private seaside villa, Tony has returned to New York with Lin Rui and is still awake. Tony also senses that Lin Rui does not seem to have fallen asleep as usual. So Tony asked Happy to take Lin Rui to the guest room and call Dr. Weiss over.

After careful examination by Dr. Weiss, he felt that Lin Rui seemed to be caught in a deep sense of self-protection. Because Dr. Weiss found that Lin Rui's brain activity was very intense, but his body was very weak, and over time, Lin Rui's body was becoming weaker and paler. Although he doesn't know what this is, Dr. Weiss decided to add the necessary nutrients to Lin Rui, so that his condition can gradually be stabilized.

"Dr. Weiss, how is he? Was he injured? He was struck by lightning before, and then woke up by himself. The doctors who had treated him before thought it was a miracle. Now he is not going into that condition again, is he?" Seeing Doctor Weiss starting to pack up, Tony asked with some concern.

"Struck by lightning?! This is strange. I didn't see the marks that are usually left on lightning struck bodies on him. But his body is really weak now, and he is constantly consuming his own energy to supply the brain. I have to give him constant energy doses to keep him in his current state, but I don't know how long it will last. In a nutshell, this should be a self-recovery mechanism of the body. It may take him until his brain activity is no longer so intense to recover slowly." After sorting out his own examination of Lin Rui, Dr. Weiss responded seriously.

"Does the body consume energy for the brain? Is there something wrong with his head?" Tony had some doubts when he heard Dr. Weiss's answer. He had never heard of this before, but it seems that this explanation is also possible.

"I can't do a deep analysis without any instrument, so I can't tell you if there's really something wrong with his head, but the subconscious activities of his brain is very intense, far more than the activity level of ordinary people. If I wasn't sure that he is in a comatose state now, I might think that he is doing an intense mental exercise. But the human brain itself is a mysterious place, and there are many things that are still unclear about it." Shaking his head, Dr. Weiss could not fully understand the situation of his patient.

"However, even though his body is very weak now. But for a developing teenager, his muscles and bones are very well developed. It is no exaggeration to say that his skeletal density and muscle toughness is at least five times higher than those of ordinary people. Of course, this is my own estimate and it may not be very accurate." After talking about Lin Rui's mind activities and its problems, Dr. Weiss told Tony about another discovery that he made during the examination of Lin Rui's body. Because Dr. Weiss also knew that this young man was certainly not a normal person if he caused Tony Stark to be so worried for him, so he did not ask too much about his identity.

"More than five times the average person?" Tony's eyes flashed when he heard Dr. Weiss's words.

"Yes, but his genes are normal. He is not a Mutant and this is not an effect of any kind of biochemical process, so I think he may just be a well developing young man." In response to Tony's question, Dr. Weiss answered with one more sentence. Because Tony's testing equipment here is very complete, Dr.

Weiss made a test after discovering the condition of Lin Rui's body. The test results showed that everything was normal. However, everything that is normal is showing an abnormal performance.

"Dr. Weiss, all the examinations that you have done on Jackson today can't be taken out of this villa. I want you to assure me that you won't mention Jackson to anyone. After you leave today, forget that you have been here." Tony looked a little bad when he heard that Dr. Weiss had also tested Jackson's gene. Then Tony suddenly looked at Dr. Weiss with a serious face and said.

"Oh... of course, I won't say anything about my patients." He doesn't know why Tony was so serious, but Dr. Weiss still seriously agreed.

"No, Jackson is not your patient, you have never seen him. Today you just went out for a ride and drove the new sports car that I gave you." Dr. Weiss did not understand Tony's words, so he could only speak more clearly. There are so many secrets on Lin Rui that Tony can't take risks. Weiss's detection of Lin Rui's genes was unexpected to Tony. He could not let more people know the secrets of Lin Rui as he himself doesn't know them.

"Well, I see. I didn't come here today. I just went out for a few laps with excitement because of the new sports car." Dr. Weiss was not a fool either. After Tony said that, he finally responded.

"Well, you can go out and drive your sports car now." Laughing, Tony sent Dr. Weiss away.

"Yes, my car is outside." With a sigh of relief, Dr. Weiss put all the inspection results on his hand down and went out of the room without taking anything.

Then, taking a key from Happy, Dr. Weiss drove Audi's latest sports car directly from Tony's luxury garage.

"This little kid, why do you have so many secrets! Fortunately, you are here with me. If you are still lying in the intensive care unit of SHIELD, you would have been sliced by ??now." After the doctor left, Tony looked at Lin Rui, who was asleep in bed, whispering with a smile.

The more familiar he got with Lin Rui, the more mysterious Tony felt about the young man. From the very beginning, Lin Rui deliberately approached himself. Tony knew this guy was not easy. Tony still hasn't figured out the magical guardian given to him by Lin Rui. And Lin Rui often gives Tony some very constructive suggestions to the problems that he is currently having without him having to ask for it, which makes Tony wonder how Lin Rui knows so much in his little brain.

Tony feels that Lin Rui's most extraordinary mystery is that he released the Palladium Poisoning from his body with a glass of water. Tony has lost hope in life, but Lin Rui saved him with that magical glass of water. Tony still feels incredible about that.

Moreover, Tony also knows that Lin Rui must have known about his Palladium Poisoning, or at least knew that he was dying of an illness, or he would not have happened to give him that glass of water. Although Lin Rui did not tell him where that magic water came from, Tony knew it was Lin Rui's secret, a big secret. As a friend of Lin Rui, Tony did not particularly want to inquire about Lin Rui's secrets. Although he had been doing this before, of course, there was no gain.

However, Tony himself knows about the magic and secrets of Lin Rui and there is no need for others to know about them, especially those of S.H.I.E.L.D. Tony believes that one day when he is ready, Lin Rui will tell him his secrets. This trip to New Mexico, Tony also saw the aliens and alien technology. So, for the secret of Lin Rui, Tony had another guess. Of course, this speculation requires more evidence, and Tony feels that he should spend some money to fund an astronomical study.

“J.A.R.V.I.S, pay attention to Jackson’s situation and inform me as soon as anything changes.” After looking at Lin Rui for a few minutes at the bedside to make sure that he really was all right, Tony told J.A.R.V.I.S.

“Yes, sir,” J.A.R.V.I.S. answered as calmly as ever.

Tony then left Lin Rui’s room. From Thor to Earth, Lin Rui has not been in touch with his family for a long time since he touched Mjolnir. Dr. Erik had no contact with Lin Rui’s family, and the team had temporarily left New Mexico. So Tony wants to call and tell Lin Rui’s family to let them know that Lin Rui is here to help him so that they don’t worry.

Chapter 142 The Hope of System Resurrection

Just because Lin Rui touched Mj?lnir, he spent all of his Reward points and lost the system, ate the Advanced Spirit Fruit, and finally got back his life and was lying in bed at the time of suffering from side effects. In New York City, In the Osborn family’s manor, Norman Osborn, who had been lying in bed for a few months, finally decided to inject himself with the incomplete Recovery serum.

Dr. Connors had two different voices in his brain after injecting the gene serum. Norman Osborn knew from the beginning that he had another personality in his mind, a cruel personality completely different from his main personality. Norman Osborn, however, did not suppress the brutal personality. Instead, he slowly grew stronger and finally almost assimilated Norman’s normal personality. And that brutal personality has been urging Norman to inject himself with the gene serum quickly so that he can be released.

“Ah!~~~” As the green gene serum was injected into the body, Norman Osborn let out a comfortable growl.

As the gene serum came into play quickly, another personality in Norman’s mind completely overwhelmed his original personality, and his clear eyes were covered with a pale green color. Neither Norman nor his assistant who injected him with the gene serum found a strange dark shadow near Norman’s bed. The dark shadows grew more and more somber with Norman’s body’s recovery and the awakening of his brutal personality. Finally, the dark shadow slowly disappeared into Norman’s shadow, as if it had merged into it.

“Hahaha!...hahaha!” When Norman succeeded in recovering from the gene serum and from his illness, the brutal personality in his mind gave off a wild laugh. Gradually, laughter came out of Norman’s mouth that scared his assistant out.

Although the gene serum injected by Norman Osborn was not the kind of serum that Dr. Connors had originally developed that could be mutated into a large lizard, after some modifications to remove some of the side effects of the mutation, the gene serum is still very strong for the human body. Now Norman

Osborn is not a person who is afflicted with genetic diseases, but a demon who has super strength and is mental.

“The world needs people like us. It’s time for a big cleansing! To lead all those lost souls to greatness!” The voice in Norman’s mind became clearer as he frightened his assistant away. He repeatedly confused Norman, who had lost himself, with words. As for what he is shouting, no one knows.

Finally, listening to the voice in his mind, Norman Osborn went to the corner of the room and quickly opened the door to the secret room. Then Norman slowly walked down.

“System! System! Are you still alive? Speak if you are here!” Lin Rui, lying on the bed in Tony’s deluxe room, was sleeping, but his sea of ??consciousness was always active, and he was calling the system when he fell asleep.

At this time, only Lin Rui stood alone in the center of the empty sea of consciousness, his consciousness was still somewhat unstable, which was the consequences of the momentary force of Advanced Spirit Fruit. Lin Rui needs to slowly adjust his consciousness to allow it to recover to normal conditions so that he can wake up in good condition.

However, without the help of the system, Lin Rui can only endure the slow recovery speed of the conscious body, and he does not know what to do to speed up his recovery. But what the system seems to have done to save him before it was evaporated by the force of thunder has now completely disappeared. Lin Rui can feel that there is no existence of any system in his sea of consciousness.

“It seems that you really disappeared. I slowly realized your existence, but you have disappeared.” Looking at the empty sea of consciousness, Lin Rui was depressed.

From the three hidden quests that the system released instantly in order to save him, and the time that it delayed the release of hidden quests by the main system, Lin Rui finally knew what kind of system existed in his body. If the main system in Lin Rui’s mind is a super-intelligent system, then the system growing up with him is a bug product born out of the main system.

The system that grew up with Lin Rui could affect some of the main system’s operations, but certainly at a cost. At the same time, it can not interfere with the mainline quest issued by the main system, but it can give Lin Rui some obscure reminders. It can publish its own quests that are classified as hidden quests, thereby giving some reward points to Lin Rui. It can appear in Lin Rui’s mind at any time to talk to him and guide him to the next step. Most of the time, the system’s motive is to make Lin Rui change Marvel World’s plot dramatically, although Lin Rui doesn’t know why.

In fact, with the emergence of the main system and the mainline quest, Lin Rui has some guesses about the system that accompanied him, and its disappearance seems to confirm Lin Rui’s guess. It is a bug, a bug that is not recognized by the main system. When it wants a stronger line to work against the main system, it pays for it with his own existence.

The main system doesn't care about the life or death of the host, just like when Lin Rui almost died by Mjolnir, the main system just triggered a hidden quest without any other help. Because it's totally detached from the world, and it doesn't need to care about a person who is still growing up.

But the system with its own consciousness is different. It can only exist in the sea of ??Lin Rui's consciousness. Once Lin Rui dies, it would cease to exist. Therefore, It would rather risk the danger that It will never be there. The system still decided to save Lin Rui. Of course, this is something that Lin Rui doesn't know for sure. He just guessed the possible identity of the system.

"I really owe you, but how can I get you back? I don't have a clue!" Lin Rui remembers the system yelling at himself before it disappeared, but he simply didn't know how to revive it.

"Can you give me some hints?" Calling out to the empty sea of consciousness, Lin Rui was not used to the absence of a system.

"Call out System Shop." Without any response, Lin Rui finally had to find a way out of System Shop.

Call~

Soon, the System Shop appeared before Lin Rui without wasting any time. The disappearance of the system does not affect any function of the main system. The use of System Shop and Reward points is not a problem. But there is no quick query function. It seems that it is the system's convenience to Lin Rui. However, Lin Rui found that there was an extra line of small words in the column of how to use his Reward point.

"Reward points sacrifice? When the goods in System Shop do not meet the requirements of the host, Reward Point Sacrifice can be performed. The host can make System Shop meet your requirements by sacrificing Reward Points." Soon, Lin Rui could see what the extra line was.

"Sacrifice! This System Shop sure is powerful! There are ways to create something that doesn't exist!" After understanding the meaning of the small line, Lin Rui was really shocked. The meaning of this sentence is actually telling Lin Rui that he can resurrect the system by offering reward points.

Lin Rui has already seen many times how powerful the System Shop is. As long as you have enough Reward points, everything can really be converted. But after all, the system is not a general item, it is born out of a bug in the main system, He did not expect System Shop to be able to revive it in this way. Isn't this create bugs for themselves?!

In fact, Lin Rui does not know, in general, the main system does not allow System Shop to make bugs. But before the bug system got a lot of Reward points from Lin Rui, it wasn't that It didn't do anything with them. It had expected that It might disappear one day. The system had already left a backdoor in the System Shop. As long as it dies and Lin Rui is still alive, there will be an option in the System Shop to resurrect itself. In other words, the system has long left a bug in the System Shop, just under the eyes of the main system.

Now, as long as Lin Rui continues to sacrifice enough Reward points, the system will be revived one day sooner or later. However, the number of sacrifices will be an astronomical number. Lin Rui is now poor and only have a few hundred Reward points left, it is a drop in the bucket for what he needs. However, as long as there is hope, Lin Rui will not give up. At this point, Lin Rui stayed in Tony's luxury villa to recover and waited for another main line quest to be completed.

Chapter 143 Green Goblin

"Mom, I know. I'm very good here with Mr. Stark. Dr. Erik's research is temporarily over, and Mr. Stark has just had an experiment here, so I came directly to help. I'll be home in a few days when I'm not busy. Don't worry about it." Lying in bed, Lin Rui, who is awake, is talking to his mother on the phone.

Lin Rui's parents are still confused about Lin Rui's sudden return from New Mexico, but instead of returning home, Tony notifies them about him. But that's Tony Stark. There's no reason why they don't believe what he says. Moreover, Lin Rui woke up after a whole day's sleep, which put a big relief to his parent's worries.

"Well, then you have to study hard with Mr. Stark. This is a good opportunity. If you are busy with the experiment, you don't have to hurry to come back home, finish the experiment first. Anyway, It doesn't make any difference whether you are at home or not." On the other end of the phone came Lin Rui's father Lin Hai's voice. Compared with his mother's worries about his son, his father clearly felt that this was a good opportunity to learn.

"I see! I'm going to hang up." With a grin, Lin Rui knew that his Dad would say that.

"Well, what do you need to call home again?" He sighed and hangs up.

Call ~

"Sure enough, they are my parents all right!" Lin Rui threw the phone to the bedside and snorted.

After a whole day of resting, Lin Rui finally woke up from a deep sleep. The unstable consciousness is almost recovered, and Lin Rui has an unexpected discovery. That is, there are still many remnants of the effect of Advanced Spirit Fruit. Obviously, Lin Rui did not completely explode with the effect of Spirit Fruit at that time. Fortunately, there were still some residues, otherwise Lin Rui could not have easily recovered.

As his conscious body slowly recovers, the remanent power of the Spirit Fruit also helps Lin Rui, so he was able to repair his damaged conscious body in one day and even have some growth, it's a blessing in disguise. As his consciousness increased, Lin Rui felt more sensitive to the world.

Although it's impossible for the conscious body to break away from the sea of consciousness and control the whole body like when Spirit Fruit was used out two days ago, Lin Rui's perception did increase a lot. He believed that sooner or later, his consciousness could reach the strength to drive away the thunderstorm.

Because of the high nutrient content that Dr. Weiss gave to Lin Rui, Lin Rui's injuries after he woke up were almost gone and he was as good as new, and there was no physical weakness because his brain consumed too much energy. However, in order to recover to his peak state, Lin Rui will slowly refine the consumed internal energy. Now he is just a slightly better person with better physical quality than ordinary people.

“Huu~J.A.R.V.I.S, is Mr. Stark not here?” Pulling the needle from his hand, Lin Rui climbed down from the bed. After lying for so long, he needs some exercise.

“Mr. Stark went out earlier today. If you need anything, you can tell me directly.” J.A.R.V.I.S quickly answered Lin Rui’s question.

“Well, nothing, but I’m hungry now. Is there anything to eat in the kitchen?” Since Tony is not here, Lin Rui has nothing to say to J.A.R.V.I.S., but he is really hungry.

“There are some ingredients in the kitchen. Do you need a chef? I can call Mr. Stark’s private chef.” J.A.R.V.I.S. gave a very thoughtful suggestion.

“Uh ~No, I’ll make it myself if I have any ingredients.” Shifting his hand, Lin Rui refused J.A.R.V.I.S. Lin Rui doesn’t want to be so troublesome to others, and he doesn’t want other people to know about his relationship with Tony.

Then, Lin Rui took a clean set of clothes from his suitcase and walked into the washroom. In order to ensure that Lin Rui had a good rest here, Tony didn’t even have Pepper over, and it was even more impossible for someone to change clothes for Lin Rui.

An hour later, using ingredients from Tony’s kitchen, Lin Rui sat in a chair in the lobby and began to eat.

“J.A.R.V.I.S., turn on the TV and see if something big has happened to New York recently.” While eating his own meal, Lin Rui said to J.A.R.V.I.S. He really doesn’t think of himself as an outsider now. Lin Rui also guessed that Tony might have found something extraordinary in him. Now that Tony acquiesced, Lin Rui has nothing to hide.

With a promise, the huge screen TV in the lobby has been turned on by J.A.R.V.I.S. and automatically tuned to the real-time news channel. J.A.R.V.I.S. heard Lin Rui’s words, he wanted to see what had happened to New York recently.

“Senator Kelly reiterated the importance of Mutant Registration Bill, urging all Mutants in the United States to register...” The first news is about Mutants. A member of Parliament on TV is still talking about Mutants Registration.

“Mutant Registration Bill” has been in existence for several years, but it has not achieved the effect of wanting to control all Mutants, but it has also aroused some of the dissatisfaction of Mutants. There are Mutants who are willing to go to Registration, but they are not many. And those Mutants went to register themselves because their mutation is not suitable for their life or the lives of people around them. After the Registration, they can get gene Suppressor serum for free of charge, so that they can live a life like a normal person.

But even those Mutants who have injected the variant gene Gene Suppressor serum will not really be able to live the same life as ordinary people, because they are all Registered with the government, and others will always have opinions on them. This situation has also led to fewer and less Mutants willing to go to the Registration, and the support of this Bill can only be called over and over again, but the effect is minimal.

“Boring...” Looking at the speech of the member of the parliament on the TV, Lin Rui rolled his eyes and said.

“Mutants Registration Bill” sounds good to help all Mutants, but it’s just a kind of rigid control for those who can’t be controlled by the upper class. Once the Registration is completed, Mutants’ information is under the control of the government, and they have numerous ways to deal with people they already know.

So even the superheroes type mutants represented by Professor Charles are not so supportive of the Mutants Registration Bill, let alone other Mutants forces that hate the government to their bones. Among them, Magneto’s Mutants Brotherhood is the most resistant to this act and they have acted more than once to put a stop to this Mutant Registration Bill. Now, although most of them were blocked by the police, they always succeeded, so Mutants had been a thorn in the eyes of high-level people. This also prevented Professor Charles and Magneto from sitting down and talking. After all, they had different ideas and pursuits.

“Breaking News: Just half an hour ago, there was a malicious attack in a hotel in New York Manhattan. According to those who attended the banquet, the attacker was a man wearing a green mask and driving special flying props. Here, we hope that the general audience will pay attention to safety, once found...” Just as Senator Kelly was talking nonsense on TV, the picture suddenly changed and an instant news broadcast began.

“Malicious attacks? Wearing green masks and flying props?! Green Goblin!” Seeing the live footage on TV shows the damage caused by the attack, as well as reports from reporters in front of the scene, Lin Rui’s eyes suddenly widened.

The emergence of Green Goblin was unexpected by Lin Rui. Dr. Connors clearly no longer studied the mutated gene serum. The experimental data were destroyed. Lin Rui thought Green Goblin would not appear. After all, Lin Rui doesn’t know how the world’s Spiderman plot will evolve. He can only hope that everything will be okay. But the reality is obviously not what Lin Rui thought, Green Goblin still appeared.

“This is awful, I hope I can find a way to solve this problem in a peaceful way.” Looking at the bombed hotel on TV, Lin Rui frowned and said to himself.

Green Goblin is more than just a super-criminal, he is also Harry’s father. If Lin Rui kills Norman, then Harry will not feel good after he knows himself or Spiderman’s identity. Lin Rui doesn’t want this to happen.

“J.A.R.V.I.S! You can tell Mr. Stark that I left early.” Quickly packing up the tableware, Lin Rui had already run outside. He has to contact Spiderman quickly and the Green Goblin must be handled with care.

Chapter 144 90-Year-Old Veteran

Just when Lin Rui woke up from Tony's luxury villa and saw the news about Green Goblin on TV, Tony was at the headquarters of S.H.I.E.L.D., he was invited by Nick Fury. Nick's reason for inviting Tony was to thank Tony for his action in New Mexico yesterday, not only to protect civilians, but also to keep S.H.I.E.L.D. from making a fool of themselves. Of course, the real reason did not come out until Tony arrived at S.H.I.E.L.D. headquarters and Nick personally received him in his office.

"Director Nick, I don't know where you got this guy, but I really quite like him." Looking at the soldier in front of him, who had a good face and a strong figure, Tony said to Nick Fury, who was beside him. If Nick finds him just to let him meet a Captain America possie, he really feels that Nick's brain must have been damaged.

Yes, the soldier standing in front of Tony looks exactly what every American is familiar with: Captain America. But he has to say that this Cos-player should be at the top level. The soldier's appearance, temperament, eyes, and stature are no different from that of Captain America in history.

Captain America is so famous and has a high reputation in the United States, in addition to his heroic behavior during the war, many of the precious video files he left behind are also one of the reasons. A hero wants to be remembered by the world. What is indispensable is propaganda and what he has left for future generations and Captain America had done these things. Therefore, among the heroes of wartime, only Captain America has achieved the achievement of becoming a national idol.

"He's not a cos-player, He is Captain Rogers." Guessing Tony's performance, Nick said with a smile, and the latter remark was obviously addressed to the soldier.

"Tony Stark, son of Howard Stark. I didn't expect Howard, who was so romantic at the beginning, to find his true love. He must be very happy when he was old." Just after Nick called Rogers, the soldier looked at Tony and suddenly said, "And I'm sorry that Howard died. He was a great scientist."

As Nick has just said, this soldier is not Captain America's cos-player, but the real Captain America Steve Rogers. In fact, Nick Fury had already found the frozen Steve a few months ago, but in order to make Steve slowly adapt to modern life, Nick has been arranging some tactics for him fighting against terrorists these days, using Steve's most familiar way to make him better accept to the modern life. After all, he was an old man who had been under the ice for seventy years.

The most important part of Nick's Avengers plan is Captain Rogers. The soldier with the most perfect character, the most Just belief, and the idol role of other Avengers members, who made him an indispensable leader in Nick's formation of the Avengers. And after Nick repeatedly failed to recruit Tony, he had to take out Rogers.

"How much do you know about my father? And who asked you to speak to me in that tone?" Tony, who had a relaxed face, heard Steve Rogers' words and like a cat whose tail has been stepped on suddenly got angry and shouted at Captain Rogers.

Tony, who has always enjoyed his life, has always had a sadness that cannot be filled. That is the tragic death of his parents. As Captain Rogers said, Howard Stark's original disposition was no worse than Tony's. In his forties, he found true love, the mother of Tony. Then in the fifties, he and his wife had Tony, so Howard was very fond of Tony. This also led to Tony's being still small when Tony's parents died unexpectedly. This forever left a pain in his heart. So, when Steve Rogers mentioned his father, Tony blew directly.

"My name is Steve Rogers. As for how I know your father, I worked with him for a while, and he helped me a lot during the war. It can be said that without Howard Stark, there would have been no wartime victory for me." In the face of Tony's question, Rogers did not care, but seriously introduced himself, "So, I should still be a person who knows your father better, we were friends at the time."

"Steve Rogers? Ha-ha, it's really very similar. Nick, you want me to believe that a man who has been dead for seventy years is standing in front of me right now. Even if Captain America was not dead, he should be ninety by now. If you want someone to play Captain America, you should find an old man." In front of Steve's calm reply, Tony slowly regained his mood, and then said to Nick, who was watching the play.

Steve's eyebrows jumped when he heard Tony say he was a 90-year-old man. Although his body remained in his early twenties during the ice-bound days, Steve still had to accept the fact that he was almost ninety. A man who is old enough to be someone's grandfather wakes up one day at a young age, of course, no one is going to be happy about it.

"Tony, there is no evidence in history that Captain Rogers is dead, but he was missing. And I found Captain Rogers some time ago frozen in ice, so he had remained at the age where he went missing." Facing Tony's disdainful tone, Nick had to explain.

"Oh, so it's that simple to stay young, I think all the richest people in the world are going to go crazy over this." Tony obviously didn't believe Nick's explanation. Being frozen for seventy years, and finally waking up like a normal person, this kind of thing seems impossible to Tony.

"That's because Captain Roger had the super-soldier serum in his body. This serum makes Captain Roger far better than any ordinary person, so he was able to live under the ice." To convince Tony that Roger was the real Captain America, Nick had to patiently continue explaining.

"Super Soldier Serum? That is the only thing that was perfect in Captain America?" Tony took it seriously when he heard Director Nick's words. If Captain America had not died under the ice, he might have been alive because of the super soldier's serum.

"Yes, Captain Roger is the perfect super-soldier. It can be said that the super-soldier serum was tailor-made for Roger." Nick added. "Now do you believe that he is Captain America?"

"Even if he's Captain America, he's just a ninety-year-old soldier out of touch with the times. Nick, what on earth did I come here for?" Now that Nick's talking about it, Tony's questioning is not interesting. Anyway, if he wants to really test it, he can take Steve's blood sample and do a test, Nick won't fool himself about it.

"Mr. Stark, I am only twenty-seven. And, I was a friend with your father. Shouldn't you respect me a little?" Steve, standing beside him, finally couldn't stand Tony's 90-year-old comment. Even if he had been frozen for seventy years, he was only eighty-seven now.

"Oh, is it necessary to take the age of the people?" Faced with Steve's discomfort, Tony made no progress to correct himself.

Hey! You two, I didn't let you meet to see you bickering!" Just as the gunpowder odor between Tony and Captain gradually escalated, Director Nick stepped in in time.

"Tony, I asked you to come over mainly to let you know about Captain Roger. You know that I have been forming the Avengers, and Captain Roger will be a very important member of this team. If you are willing to join, I hope that you can cooperate with each other." Turning around, Nick still wants to bring Tony in.

"I've been thinking about this, but I don't think we'll be able to cooperate further for the time being until you have completely solved the problem I mentioned last time." Taking two steps back and sitting on the chair. Tony responds faintly.

In fact, after Nick's long talk, Tony is almost ready to agree. After all, although Nick was planning to use his father's legacy as leverage but Nick's original intention of forming the Avengers was in line with Tony's ideas. But Tony has always remembered what Mirage Knight said to himself before. S.H.I.E.L.D. has a lot of hidden trouble in it. Tony does not want to join the Avengers only to get stabbed in the back.

"Well, I have been secretly investigating the incident. There are already some clues." Somewhat helpless, Nick had to accept Tony's excuse. Moreover, he did notice the discord within S.H.I.E.L.D., and he was digging out the rats bit by bit.

"That's all right. I'll go back first. There's something else I need to do at home." J.A.R.V.I.S. has just notified Tony that Lin Rui is awake, and he has something to say to Lin Rui.

"Well, Tony, there's one more thing you can do for me." Just as Tony turned to leave, Nick stopped him.

"What's up?"

"I want you to help Captain Roger adapt to modern life a bit faster. You know, even the top soldiers need to relax and rest."

"Me? You're asking me to take Captain America to relax? Adapt to modern life?" It seems that he heard something funny and Tony asked in a strange tone.

"It's also to let you two get to know each other better." Nick knows that Tony will have this reaction, but he continues to insist. As for Steve, he promised before, but he didn't know that Tony would be such a person.

"Well, I'd be happy to bring this 90-year-old soldier back to modern times. But I'm leaving now and I'll contact you again." Tony, who wanted to refuse, seemed to think of something and suddenly agreed.

Then Tony turned and waved and strode out of the room, leaving behind Steve and Nick with a helpless face.

Chapter 145 Goal That Is Hard To Start

Booming ~ call ~

In Queens, New York, Lin Rui rushed home in a luxury sports car and stopped in front of his house. Lin Rui, who was in a hurry, drove a car directly from Tony's garage. Tony now flies almost everywhere. So many luxury cars in the garage are furnished, so him being driving them out is routine maintenance.

“Hey! Jackson! I heard that you went to New Mexico. How was the scenery there?” Lin Rui just got out of the car and was seen by his neighbor. He greeted Lin Rui warmly.

Neither did Lin Rui’s parents inadvertently disclose it, nor did they discover it by themselves. The Neighbours near Lin Rui’s house seem to know that Lin Rui has something to do with the famous Tony Stark. They heard that Mr. Stark appreciated the Lin family very much. Last time he came to look for him, he bought the garage two blocks away directly. Lin Rui returned from his trip to New Mexico and drove back in a fantastic limited-range sports car, which enabled his neighbors to believe that Lin Rui has somewhat of a strong relationship with Tony Stark.

“Hello, Mr. McKay. The scenery of New Mexico was very good. I suggest that your family choose to travel there as well.” As he politely greeted the neighbor, Lin Rui walked quickly towards his home.

“Haha, I will!” Laughing as Lin Rui walked into his yard, the neighbor answered back.

Call ~

Quickly rushing into his room and throwing his luggage in the corner of the room. Lin Rui took out the mobile phone that belongs to Mirage Knight from the drawer under the table. Because his trip to New Mexico was also considered a regular trip, and he would not be in New York. Even if something happened here, he couldn’t get involved, so he didn’t take the cell phone with him when he left.

“Hey! Spiderman, how have you been? I’m back.” He dialed Peter directly as he wanted to talk to him about Green Goblin.

“... I also heard about the guy wearing the green devil mask. I called because of him... Okay, let’s meet at the base at night. After a brief chat with Peter, Lin Rui made an appointment with him to go to the Guardian Base for a detailed discussion at night.

After contacting Peter, Lin Rui took out his own cell phone and dialed a number again, this time for Harry. Since Green Goblin was Harry’s father this time, Lin Rui thought it might be better to prepare Harry first. Perhaps if Harry knew that Green Goblin was his father, maybe he could help Norman Osborn to recover to a normal person.

Lin Rui remembers that in the original plot, Norman Osborn seemed to be transformed into Green Goblin because of a violent demonic personality created by schizophrenia. If Harry had known what his father had done early and stopped it, Norman Osborn might have suppressed the brutal personality in his body because of his son. Sometimes the power of family will prevail over everything.

“Hey! Jackson, I haven’t heard your voice in a long time. How was your life in New Mexico? Is the study of astronomy very boring?” The phone just turned on and Harry’s voice came over.

Listening to Harry’s tone, he seemed to be in a good mood, the company’s business has basically stabilized, and Harry is now working to adjust Oscorp’s future direction. Once Tony’s micro Arc Reactor is fully integrated into the energy market, Oscorp will also need to respond.

“Well, actually I’ve come back, and I’m at home now. Something happened to the research team in New Mexico, and the research ended ahead of time.” Simply answering Harry’s words, Lin Rui continued, “Harry, how have you been lately? How is your father?”

"Haha, thank you for your concern. I am very good, my father is also very good. He has already got out of bed two days ago, and now he can work normally. My father returned to the company and my life got a lot easier." Harry's laughter came from the other end of the phone, apparently happy with Norman Osborn's improvement.

Harry feels that he must have had a lot of good luck recently. The company's internal problems have been solved and now the company is gradually on the right track. His relationship with Gwen was also stable. He also went to Gwen's house to meet his parents. Police Captain George was quite satisfied with Harry. Although Harry feels that after being recovered his father's personality seems to have changed, such as irritability and anger, Harry feels that this is normal and that anyone who lies in bed in pain for several months will be mentally disturbed. Harry felt that as long as he waits patiently, his father would return to what he used to be.

"Is that right? I'm glad to hear that. By the way, I haven't visited Mr. Norman yet. Since your father is recovered now, I think Peter and I should come and visit him." Lin Rui's tone remained unchanged as he suggested this. Lin Rui has never seen Norman Osborn. If Norman can be solved under normal circumstances, Lin Rui will certainly not choose to fight him.

"That's good! I'll tell my father that you'll come with Peter. I think my father will like it." Harry responded happily to Lin Rui's words.

In fact, Harry wanted to introduce Lin Rui to his father for a long time, but Norman had been ill in bed before. Now that he has recovered, Harry must introduce his new good friend to his father. Peter had known Norman before, but he had only met a few times and was not familiar with him.

"Well, that's settled. I'll be looking forward to meeting Mr. Norman." Say this to Harry, Lin Rui is a little relieved. At least from Harry's words, Lin Rui knows that Norman Osborn is not completely mad, otherwise, Harry would not be so happy.

"I'll see you at my house next time."

After making an appointment with Harry, Lin Rui hung up. Lin Rui had to find a good solution to deal with Green Goblin. Like the last time with Dr. Connors and how he was dealt with, Lin Rui wanted to nip the threat behind him in the cradle. But now Lin Rui has a big problem, that is, his Reward Points. Hundreds of Reward points can't do anything for today's Lin Rui, he can now only count on Tony's mainline quest to be completed as soon as possible.

Soon, as night fell, Lin Rui arrived at the Guardian Base early. Lin Rui did not intend to involve Daredevil and Jack in the fight against Green Goblin because, after all, it was the father of their good friend Harry. If the two sides fight, all kinds of attacks will be used and a fired bullet has no sight, no matter which side is injured Lin Rui will not be better. So he decided to solve the problem with Spiderman. Of course, Lin Rui wants Peter to know that green goblin is Harry's father.

"Hey! Mirage Knight, last time I heard you want to retreat, I thought it would be a long time before I saw you. Unexpectedly, only a week has passed and you came back." Lin Rui did not wait long in the base, and Peter came in from outside. Obviously, Peter had also read some cultivation Chinese novels where the protagonist will go in closed-door cultivation and will come out years later and kill all of his enemies.

“There was an accident, the retreat ended early. Not to mention me, how much do you know about the new York New bad Guy with a green demon mask?” Giving a simple explained, Lin Rui began to ask about Green Goblin.

“Well, I don’t really know much about him. I was late when he attacked the party and couldn’t meet him head-on. However, from the scene and the description of those survivors, he should be using a brutal element armed machine with many high-tech pieces of equipment.” Sitting down on his sofa, Peter said slowly, “I tried to track him, but I didn’t get much. This fellow’s flying gear is fast, at least faster than I’m swinging around the building with spider silk.”

“Peter, in fact, I came early this time because of this fellow.” Looking at Peter, Lin Rui suddenly called his name. Although Peter has exposed himself to Lin Rui for a long time, Lin Rui usually does not call him by his name and has always been calling him Spiderman.

“Eh? What’s up? Did you find anything?” Sharply aware of Lin Rui’s strange tone, Peter asked curiously.

“I already know who the man wearing the green devil mask is.” Nodded, Lin Rui answered earnestly.

“Who?!”

“Norman, Norman Osborn.”

Peter: “What?!”

Chapter 146 Osborn’s Guest

After hearing Lin Rui’s words, Peter was silent for a long time. He was shocked by the news. Peter didn’t question the authenticity of Lin Rui’s news much. He believed Mirage Knight would not joke about it. Moreover, Peter didn’t know that Mirage Knight was Lin Rui, so he certainly thought that Lin Rui standing in front of him as Mirage Knight only regarded Norman Osborn as a target to be solved.

“Really?” Although he believed in Lin Rui, Peter still couldn’t help but ask more.

“The source of the information is very reliable. Of course, we can also verify it in person.” Nodding, Lin Rui replied. Lin Rui also hopes that Green Goblin is not Norman Osborn, so he has little scruples. But such an idea should be naive.

“Mirage Knight, do you know about my friendship with Harry Osborn?” Getting a positive answer, Peter suddenly asked Lin Rui. Peter just found out that Mirage Knight’s tone is a bit odd. He seems to be hesitating and not sure of himself and not as determined as he used to be when dealing with the New York underground underworld or the Vampire problem.

“Yes, I know that you and Harry Osborn are good friends. So, we can try to solve the problem named Norman Osborn in a way that does not hurt your friend or your friendship.” Since Peter already guessed it, Lin Rui did not hide it.

“That’s it! Like the last time we dealt with Dr. Connors, we could solve this problem before Norman did more harm! ” Peter squeezed his fist hard and said earnestly.

“Well, this is why I didn’t inform Daredevil and Jack.” Nodding, Lin Rui was originally prepared for this.

“However, why did Norman attacked those people? Also, where did his equipment come from? Oscorp doesn’t seem to have such advanced equipment.” Knowing that Mirage Knight had the same thoughts as himself, Peter was relieved. Then he raised another question that is bugging him.

“Norman Osborn seems to be in a very unstable situation because of his previous illness. And he has injected himself with a gene serum that has not been researched successfully to cure his illness, so it has become like this. As for his high Technology equipment, they should be the test products that Oscorp Industries has never published. After all, Oscorp is also a super large group.” Lin Rui gave a reasonable answer to Peter’s question.

“Gene serum? Was it the one that Dr. Connors had researched before?!” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Peter asked in surprise.

“Yes, it’s that gene serum. Although we know that Dr. Connors has destroyed all the remaining serum and its formula, Norman Osborn apparently got a sample and the required formula to make the gene serum before.

Damn it! Dr. Connors and I are on the verge of success. Now clinical trials have been carried out in medium-sized mammals, and human trials will soon be carried out! Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Peter said helplessly.

“Well, we can’t change how he turned out to be like this. The key now is to stop the attacks that he may continue to launch next.” Moving the computer on the desk to Peter’s face, Lin Rui went on to say, “From the crowd that Norman Osborn attacked last time, it seems that he was targeting some upper-class people in New York City. I think they should belong to Oscorp’s rival companies.

“You’re right. The banquet was hosted by the director of Weiss Group, one of Oscorp’s biggest rival. Although I don’t know why Norman is behaving like this, he seems to be venting his anger on these rival companies.” Just after Lin Rui said that, Peter had found some information about the attacker on the Internet, which just confirmed Lin Rui’s analysis.

“It seems that if we don’t solve Norman Osborn before he starts his madness again, then we can only pay attention to the competitors of Oscorp Industries.” After rubbing his eyebrows, Lin Rui has only such a plan for the time being.

Faced with such a villain, Lin Rui did not know how to solve the problem. According to Norman’s mentality, it seems that death would be the only way to safely do this, but he is Harry’s father! Even though Harry would never know that his father had died because of his two good friends, Lin Rui might never be able to face Harry and get along with him as well as he is now.

“I’ll pay attention to Norman when I go to Harry’s house and see if I can confirm Norman’s situation. Maybe we would be able to solve the problem easily.” While searching for relevant information on the computer, Peter said quickly.

‘I can only hope so’, Lin Rui thought in silence. In fact, Lin Rui knows what Peter meant. If Norman Osborn is determined to be aggressive because he got mutated by injecting the gene serum, they can give him an antidote just like they did with Dr. Connors before. However, Lin Rui knows that Green Goblin does not exist only because of the gene serum, but also because of the brutal personality in Norman’s body.

Then Lin Rui and Peter worked out more detailed plans for the next action at the base, trying to stop Norman before he hurt someone again.

It's been three days since Norman in the avatar of Green Goblin had attacked a party, and for the next three days, Lin Rui and Peter have been following the itineraries of the executives of companies competing with Oscorp Industries in New York. All in all, these three days have been quiet. Today, it's Harry's day to invite Lin Rui and Peter to his home. Harry wants to officially introduce his two good friends to his father.

Getting dressed up early at home, Lin Rui needed to wear something a little more formal as he is going to meet with Harry's father. Although Norman is their target, he is also Harry's father. Lin Rui was ready by the time Harry sent the car to the door of his house.

"Jackson, be more respectful when you meet Mr. Norman. You're an adult now." Before Lin Rui went out, Lin Hai told him.

"I know, Dad. I am just going to see Harry's father and not to apply for a job." Nodding, Lin Rui answered somewhat helplessly.

"Oh, yes. After all, you're so familiar with Mr. Stark that you won't be able to speak without encountering an influential figure." Lin Hai smiled at his son's words. For his son, Lin Hai has slowly accepted all kinds of weird high-level communication networks. Perhaps this is the destiny of some people.

"Then I'm going. The car is waiting." Finally, after straightening his clothes, Lin Rui has stepped out of the house.

"Well, don't let me hold you back." Lin Hai waved his hand and said with a smile.

Then Lin Rui strode out of the yard and went to Harry's car that had come here to pick him up. On the other side, Peter was already there. Unlike Lin Rui's light suit, Peter quietly wears his Spiderman suit inside his clothes.

Almost forty minutes later, Lin Rui and Peter finally reached Harry's home and arrived in front of the gate of an luxury house in downtown New York. Led by a waiter at the door, Lin Rui and Peter entered the house unobstructed.

"Hey! Jackson! Peter!" Soon, Harry greeted them in the house.

Call ~

Laughing and embracing Lin Rui and Peter separately, Harry was very happy. Harry had no friends at all, mostly under Norman Osborn's strict education. Lin Rui and Peter were the only two friends that he really knew. Today, Harry is very happy that he can introduce these two excellent friends to his father. Moreover, Harry has not yet told Norman about Gwen, and he intends to introduce Gwen to his father after this meeting so that Lin Rui and Peter can help to say something good about her.

"Haha, Harry, you look so happy!" Lin Rui said with a smile.

“Of course, I’m glad to introduce my two excellent friends to my father.” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Harry smiled and answered, “Come on, my father can’t wait to see you, and he’s glad that I am bringing my friends to see him.”

“Well, we don’t want Mr. Norman to wait for us.” Peter laughed and said. However, compared with Lin Rui’s natural look, Peter’s body is a little tightened.

“Hey! Peter, relax! My father won’t eat you, and he won’t mind waiting for a while.” Noticing Peter’s nervousness, Harry said with a laugh.

“Ha-ha, you’re acting like a soon to be bride coming to meet her inlaws for the first time!” To alleviate Peter’s embarrassment, Lin Rui joked around.

“Speaking of my parents, Gwen and I need your help. I haven’t told my father about Gwen and me yet...”

Then, under the leadership of Harry, Lin Rui and Peter walked step by step into the room where Norman Osborn was.

“Father, Jackson and Peter are here.” Following Harry into a simply decorated hall, they saw Harry said to a middle-aged man sitting on the sofa in front of him.

Call ~

Under the gaze of Lin Rui and Peter, the middle-aged man slowly got up from the couch and turned to face them.

Chapter 147 Norman Osborn

The middle-aged man standing up from the sofa is Harry’s father Norman Osborn. Unlike the online photos and videos, Norman Osborn seems younger and has a different temperament in front of Lin Rui and Peter. Of course, there must be some differences between the videos and photos on the Internet and the real self, but Lin Rui thinks this is the temperament of Norman’s other brutal personality.

“Dad, that’s Jackson I’ve been talking about with you. He’s my good friend like Peter.” While taking Lin Rui and Peter forward, Harry introduced Lin Rui to his father. Harry and Peter had known each other for a long time. Norman Osborn had known Peter before. After all, Peter’s father had worked in Oscorp before, so there was no need to introduce him.

“Hello, Uncle Norman / Mr. Osborn.” After Harry introduced, Peter and Lin Rui greeted him politely.

“Hello. Jackson, you don’t have to be so polite, just call me uncle, like Peter does, I am very glad that you can come today.” Smiling at Lin Rui, Norman said kindly.

“Okay, Uncle Norman.” Although Lin Rui had a feeling of being cheap, he still called him uncle.

“Ha-ha, come and sit down. I’ve been very happy to hear Harry say his friends are coming to visit me the other day. I’ve known Peter for a long time. His father used to work with me. He was a very capable biologist. And Peter is no worse than his father it seems. I heard you’ve been doing research behind Dr. Connors?” Greeting Lin Rui and Peter to sit down, Norman started chatting like an ordinary parent.

“Yes, Uncle Norman, I am happy to be able to follow Dr. Connors on his research.” In the face of a guy who might be a super bad guy, Peter tried to behave normally. However, when Peter saw Norman this time, he obviously felt that this person was different from the person he had met when he was a child. Perhaps Mirage Knight’s information is true.

“Well, if there is anything you need in the experiment, you can ask Oscorp for support, as I always tell Harry, Oscorp is always supportive of these valuable research.”

“Thank you.”

“Jackson is also very amazing. I know that your grades in the school have always been on the top. And, recently, Tony Stark seems to appreciate you. I don’t know if this is true?” Norman turned the topic to Lin Rui and he seemed interested in the relationship between Lin Rui and Tony.

“Uh ~Well, actually, I’ve only done Mr. Stark a few small favors. And Mr. Stark is not a person who likes to be in someone’s debt, so he once invited me into Stark Industries, but I refused.” Faced with Norman’s inquiry, Lin Rui answered with a smile. This vague truth is the hardest to read. Lin Rui doesn’t want Norman’s discontent because of his relationship with Tony.

You know, the other personality in Norman’s body is very unstable. Maybe he takes Stark Industries as his target. If he is very close to Tony, Norman may see him as an enemy, which is not conducive to his actions.

“Oh? Is it? Why did you refuse such a good opportunity?” When he heard Lin Rui’s answer, Norman looked down and asked, apparently interested in Lin Rui’s choice.

“Dad, Jackson did not only have good at grades but he also has a wide range of hobbies. He will make great achievements in any line of work. So I think that’s why he didn’t entered the Stark Industries.” Just as Norman went on to ask Lin Rui, Harry cut in. Today was a good day and his friends had come to visit his father. Harry thought it was not appropriate for him to ask these questions all the time, so he interrupted.

“Yes, I’m dabbling in everything myself, so I don’t want to fix my future so early.” After Harry’s removal, Lin Rui himself explained.

“Well, that’s good. Young people should be like this. Since they have time and ability, they can make more breakthroughs. Maybe they will make greater achievements in the future.” Nodding, Norman laughed and said, “And if you want, you can come to Oscorp in the future, we will welcome you anytime.”

“Thank you, Mr. Norman.”

“I said you can call me uncle.”

“Er... Thank Uncle Norman.

Next, three young people and Norman chatted in this simple and quiet hall about everyday life, learning, funny things, and all kinds of jokes. They weren’t Green Goblin, Spiderman and Mirage Knight here, this was just a simple and normal meeting between friends and parents.

"Well, there's still about half an hour before we eat. Harry, you can take your two friends around. I'll take a rest first." After talking for a while, Norman seemed tired and said to Harry.

"No problem, Father, you go to rest first." With a promise, Harry helped Norman up.

Call ~

"Peter, Jackson, It was good to meet you. We'll talk later at the dinner table." Standing up, Norman says to Peter and Lin Rui, who are standing up with them.

"So are we."

Then, Norman left the hall and left the rest of the time to three young people.

"Huh-Harry, Uncle Norman is really recovered. And he looks younger than before. Do you know what's going on here?" It was not until Norman left the room that Peter singed before he asked Harry.

"Do you think so, too? In fact, I don't know how my father recovered. Maybe the disease just resided and my father recovered or maybe those medicines really did work." Hearing Peter's words, Harry answered with a laugh.

"But don't you feel uncle Norman is different from before?" Harry must be happy to know that his father's condition was finally recovered, but Peter still had to ask.

"My father's personality did change after his physical recovery, but he's been lying on the bed ever since he was ill. I think it's normal, maybe he will slowly recover his old personality." Hearing Peter's words, Harry smiled back and answered. In fact, Harry also found some differences in Norman, but after all, it was his father, and he would not doubt anything.

"All right, Peter. Let Harry show me around their luxurious house. I haven't been there before." Just as Peter wanted to ask something, Lin Rui cut in. Peter is too anxious and in a hurry right now, he can't ask Harry anything, lest he create some problems.

"Well, Jackson, although our family home may not be as high-tech as Mr. Stark's seaside villa but it would still take us half an hour to tour it. Come, let's start here." With that, Harry took Lin Rui to the tour.

"Haha, I'm looking forward to it." Laughing, Lin Rui followed Harry to tour his home.

As for Peter, after Lin Rui interrupted him, he knew he was too anxious, so he also followed Harry and Lin Rui. But Peter also had a secret mission to investigate whether Norman's equipment was hidden in the house or not.

"This wooden cabinet belonged to Sir Wright some two hundred years ago... this is..." With Lin Rui wandering in a wooden corridor, Harry explained to him some of the antiques laid aside.

"Mr. Stark doesn't have these things at home. He doesn't seem interested in these antiques. He's more interested in high-tech products and some inexplicable works of art." With Harry around, Lin Rui has not forgotten to compare this house to Tony's villa.

"Oh, Mr. Stark is such a person."

“Harry, you take Jackson and I’ll go to the bathroom.” Just as Lin Rui and Harry were walking ahead, Peter suddenly said from behind.

“Well, you know where the toilet is. Come and see us after you’re done.” With a promise, Harry left Peter alone.

Then Harry and Lin Rui continued to move forward, while Peter hung back and left in the other direction.

.....

Chapter 148 Spiderman and Green Goblin

Two hours later, Lin Rui, who had already had dinner with Harry and his father, left with Peter after dinner. Previously, under the cover of Lin Rui’s intention, Peter carefully examined the luxury house but found nothing. Of course, Peter did not check Norman Osborn’s bedroom because he was resting inside.

On the way back, Peter and Lin Rui did not ask Harry to send them anymore. They said they wanted to hang out for a while. No one knows what Lin Rui and Peter really thought. Walking slowly along the roadside with Lin Rui, Peter seemed a little absent-minded.

Seeing Norman Osborn again today, Peter can feel that the uncle in front of him is no longer the respectable man he used to be. As Peter grew used to his powers, his ability to sense people with spider-sense became more and more amazing. More than once today, Peter has sensed a discordant spiritual fluctuation in Norman Osborn and Norman’s irrational physical condition. Norman Osborn is not only recovering from his illness, but Peter feels that Norman is at least several times more strong than normal people.

“Ah! What on earth should I do about it? Harry must not know, or he will be very sad or he won’t simply believe me.” As he walked, Peter’s heart was full of regrets.

“Hey! Peter, why are you looking so worried?” Lin Rui certainly knows what his friend is upset about, so he is ready to help him relieve some pressure as a good friend. Lin Rui didn’t have so much entanglement for Norman. If he wasn’t Harry’s father, Lin Rui would have already solved him.

“Hhh~ It Nothing, I just felt a little strange seeing Uncle Norman today.” Hearing Lin Rui, Peter squatted and explained briefly.

“Yes? Maybe because you haven’t seen him for a long time.” Lin Rui perfectly pretends that he doesn’t know anything.

“Well, maybe. Well, Jackson, I’ll have something to do later. You go back first.” Being anxious to solve Norman Osborn’s problem, Peter patted Lin Rui on the shoulder and said.

“Well, I’ll go home first and call me if u\you are worried about something.” With a nod, Lin Rui did not ask Peter where he was going. He promised and went to the subway station ahead.

Watching Lin Rui disappear at the entrance to the subway station, Peter stays in place for a while and then turns back to the original road. He decides to do something. If Peter succeeds in what he has to do next, he may be able to solve the threat of Norman Osborn perfectly. As he returned to the original road, Peter unconsciously put his hands on his bag.

After Peter disappeared at the crossing, the vanished Lin Rui came out again from under the subway crossing behind him. Looking in the direction of Peter's disappearance, Lin Rui shook his head. "I know this kid won't be so honest."

Then Lin Rui followed Peter in the same direction. However, Lin Rui chose another way, which is more concealed and it would not be easy for Peter, who had spider-sense, to discover him.

It was getting late, and after talking to his father, Harry took a car to the company. Although Norman Osborn's body is now fully recovered, Harry is in charge of most of the company's business, and Norman seems less concerned about the company's business than before.

After Harry left, a flexible red figure swished from the next building to the wall outside Harry's house. It was Peter who came back as Spiderman. In order not to hurt Harry, but also to stop Norman Osborn from carrying out any more destruction and death, Peter decided to solve the problem today. He was carrying the antidote of the gene serum with him.

Peter, who had already knew everything about Harry's house, quickly sneaked in from a landing window, he was planning to confronted Norman Osborn to make Norman realize that his actions were wrong, preferably by turning himself in. If not, Peter would have to give him the antidote, even though it might cause Norman Osborn's condition to relapse. Although it will hurt Harry, it's much better than Norman Osborn's attempting to hurt someone again and Harry finally finding out about it.

So, when Norman Osborn was sitting on the sofa in his room and drinking red wine, Spiderman had quietly appeared in his room.

"Hello, Norman Osborn." Peter appeared in from of Norman and greeted him.

"Eh? Spiderman?" Seeing Spiderman suddenly appear in his room, Norman is calm, his face is just a little puzzled, "What's is New York's famous Vigilante doing here? Are there any thieves in my house?"

"Norman, I know what you did. I just want to talk to you today. You'd better surrender before your actions do more harm." Looking at Norman Osborn, who was smiling in front of him, Peter didn't beat around the bush and said directly.

"Surrender? I don't know what I've done to hurt others." Faced with Spiderman's request, Norman said lightly. Looking at his calm appearance, ordinary people may be really deceived by him. But Peter already felt that the weird smell of Norman was beginning to emerge and any other average person would not be so calm facing him.

"Four days ago, at the Greenwich Hotel in Manhattan, do you remember? You might not have dressed up like you are now. I really want to know where you hide those equipment. Is it in the closet behind you?" Seeing Norman continue to play silly, Peter asked straightforwardly. Peter had looked at the entire house before, except Norman Osborn's room. Now Peter came in and finally sensed what was hidden behind the wall behind Norman.

After hearing Peter's words, Norman's expression, which had been very calm, finally changed. He leaned on the sofa and sat up slowly. His hand, which was holding his glass, also dropped.

“What a surprise! Spiderman, can you tell me how you know it’s mine? I don’t seem to have left a clue.” Looking closely at Spiderman, Norman finally admitted that he was the one wearing the green mask suit. However, he wondered why Spiderman knew it was himself.

“Naturally, I have my own sources. As for you, it’s not too late to stop now.” He heard Norman admit and Peter still felt very uncomfortable. He had a slight expectation that the fellow was not Norman’s.

“Stop? Why do I have to stop? I’m doing the right thing, and those guys deserve it!” Under Peter’s questions, Norman’s silent and cruel personality finally ceased to hide and gradually emerged, and his expression gradually became arrogant.

“Mr. Osborn, it seems that you are really crazy.” Seeing Norman’s expression becoming crazy and his language irrational, Peter had no choice but to draw this conclusion.

“Am I crazy? Hahaha! I’m awake now!” As he shouted, Norman had instantly pressed the button of a remote control device in his hand.

Hoo!

The moment Norman Osborn pressed the button in his hand, the wall behind him opened instantly, and a green flying skateboard rushed out and hit Spiderman directly in the room.

Peter, who had been prepared for it, dodged the impact of the flying skateboard with a backward somersault. Then Peter fired a cobweb at Norman. He wanted to tie Norman up. Nevertheless, Norman, whose body was genetically modified by serum, was no longer an ordinary man. When he stepped on the ground, the whole man jumped back three meters. Not only did he escape the attack of the cobweb, but he also rushed into the secret room behind him in an instant.

Hoo!

Just as Peter was about to catch up with him, the skateboard he had avoided rushed back. Peter had to give up chasing Norman and continue to avoid the impact of the skateboard.

Puff! Two spider threads hit the flying hoverboard running around the room. Peter then threw the flying hoverboard out of the window in a circle with great strength.

Gulu~Gulu~

Just after Peter temporarily solved the problem of the flying hoverboard, two small metal balls suddenly flew out from the front secret room and quickly rolled towards Peter’s feet.

“Damn it!” After seeing what the two metal balls were, Peter scolded and shot spider silk at the back wall. He flew back the next second.

Boom! Boom!

Just before Peter flew out, the two metal balls on the ground exploded directly, and the huge blast wave shook Peter to the wall, which was not far away. The whole man was sticking to the wall, and Peter now looked like a spider.

Call ~

Falling from the wall to the ground, Peter stared dead at the secret room in front of him, and he could sense a threat coming slowly out of it.

Click-click-click-click ~

In the smoke, Norman, armed with clandestine armor, came out of the closet. The steel battle suit is not unique to Tony, and Oscorp has been developing it secretly for a long time. Norman wears the latest semi-covered armor. Although it has many shortcomings compared with Tony's Iron Man Armor, it can also greatly enhance the individual combat capability. Especially when equipped with the flying hoverboard, the armor can be used for flying operations even without Arc Reactor.

Hoo!

Just after Norman came out of the closet in his armor, the hoverboard that Peter had just thrown out of the window flew back again. With a slight leap, Norman was already standing on the flight hoverboard. Green Goblin is officially on the stage.

Chapter 149 Strange Change

Hoo!

"I really don't want to fight with you! Norman Osborn!" Turning around and avoiding several darts from Norman's hoverboard, Peter shouted as he fired spider silk to block Norman's flight route.

"Ha-ha-ha, you can't help it! Little spider!" Norman, wearing a devil mask, completely unleashed his evil personality and controlled the skateboard to chase Peter in a spacious space.

Da da da ~

Suddenly, under the hoverboard, a black hole muzzle emerged, and then a tongue of fire sprayed out quickly. Peter, who was unable to exert his advantage under the influence of the environment, could only run with his head in his arms.

"Spiderman, you shouldn't have come to my door!" With an alloy knife poking out of the arm of the semi-covered armor, Norman rushed at Peter, who had been pushed into the corner.

Puff!

A powerful spider silk blocked the muzzle under the flying hoverboard, and Peter jumped directly onto the flying hoverboard in the next moment.

"Mr. Osborn! This is what you forced me!" That's what you forced me to do!" Faced with Norman's madness, Peter had no intention of persuading him anymore.

Hoo!

Standing firm on the hoverboard, Peter punched Norman in front of him. Norman's robotic arm, however, has blocked his punch. Moreover, the blade on the mechanical arm is facing Peter's fist.

Puff!

Just when Norman thought he could cut Spiderman's right hand with his knife, a spider thread suddenly spewed out of Peter's wrist and directly tied Norman's robotic arm.

Peter pulled hard aside, and Norman was almost pulled down from the hoverboard by Peter. Fortunately, his foot machinery was connected to the hoverboard.

Bang!

However, to Norman's surprise, he could not escape Peter's next punch. A Powerful fist hit Norman's mask directly, and the eerie green devil's mask was directly blown apart by Peter.

"Ah! Die you insect!" Although Peter had a good punch, Norman Osborn, whose body was strengthened, was clearly able to withstand it. After roaring in madness, his chest armor suddenly opened and two micro missiles were launched.

"Oh, come on!" Peter's spider sensation began to crazily remind him of coming danger when Norman's armor was still moving, but Peter was shocked to see two missiles coming in close range. Even if he was hit by the coming missile, Norman would still be at the center of the explosion at such a close distance. Was he so confident in the defense of his armor?

But whether Norman thought he was in danger or not, Peter didn't want to take it on his behalf. So, his right hand loosened the grip on one of Norman's robotic arms, Peter jumped off the hoverboard the next moment. He quickly fired spider threads and connected them to the huge landing window. Peter flew out of the window when the two missiles came after him.

Boom ~ bang~

Two missiles that did not catch up with Spiderman exploded shortly after they burst out of the window, shattering the huge floor glass directly and drawing attention from people on the road outside. But now Peter doesn't care about the people outside. Peter, who dodged the missile, rushed into the room again, he didn't believe he could not deal with a man who armed himself with high technology.

Puff! Boom!

In the already dilapidated room, Spiderman and Green Goblin are coming to fight. Spiderman has his own flexibility and strength, while Green Goblin has high tech weapons and armor with his powerful strength. The fight was brief, but there were already a number of wounds on Peter's body, either from a close encounter with the flying hoverboard or from an alloy knife on Norman's robotic arm. Norman was not intact either and Peter had given him several blows. If not for the protection of the armor, Norman would have already fallen to the ground.

After fighting around for more than a minute, Norman couldn't beat Spiderman and he had already exhausted most of his weapons, he fired a piece of shrapnel to drive Peter back, then he flew his hoverboard back into the secret room.

Boom!

And just as Peter dodged the incoming projectile and was about to chase him in, Norman flew out in the next moment. But this time he didn't have a flying hoverboard under his feet, and his posture of flying out was not right. The whole person flew upside down and it looked as if he was thrown out by something or someone.

Boom boom!

Knocking over the sofa and the table, Norman tumbled to the ground. Then, in front of Peter's astonished eyes, a figure emerged from the secret room.

"Mirage Knight!" Peter shouted in surprise as he saw the man coming out of the secret room.

The person who kicked Norman out of the secret room was Lin Rui. He had sneaked into the house as soon as Peter and Norman had just started fighting. When Norman and Peter were fighting, Lin Rui sneaked through the walls of the secret room and sneaked in from the other side. He just wanted to prevent Norman from continuing to replenish his weapons or use the secret room to escape. This secret room has more than one exist that can be used to go out. However, his preparation was just right. Norman did not expect that there was someone waiting for him in the secret room. When he rushed in, he was directly kicked by Lin Rui from the flying hoverboard.

"I know you want to minimize the threat as soon as possible, but can you let me know in advance?" Coming out of the secret room, Lin Rui looks at Peter whose Spiderman suit has been shredded a lot and said helplessly.

"Oh, It's because I knew you will come." Peter smiled and said easily. With the help of Mirage Knight, Norman without his flying hoverboards and only in his armors cannot take on both of them. So now Norman seems to only have one choice which is to surrender himself.

However, Norman seems to have no intention of surrendering. With his head down, Norman's chest was heaving violently and his heavy gasps were exceptionally clear in the room.

"Mr. Osborn, you've lost. Turn yourself in. It will do us all good." Staring down at Norman Osborn, Peter persuades again. Meanwhile, Peter took the antidote he had prepared in his hand.

But Norman, with his head down, did not respond. Then, all of a sudden, there was a scary scratching sound in the quiet room, like someone scratching the floor with their fingernails.

"Ha ha ha ha ha ~ surrender? That's not my choice!"

A strange laugh came from Norman who was on the ground, and then he shot up from the ground with great speed and rushed towards Peter and arrived right in front of him. His hand swung out, and the hard nails that had come out at some time Or other went toward Peter's neck, and there was a faint green light above them.

Tittered ~

Norman's surprise attack cost Peter something as he was injured. Although he tried to retreat, he still got a gash in his neck. It wasn't deep, but it was bleeding.

“Hahahahaha! Let’s die! Die!” Norman’s body seems to have undergone a special variation. His spirit and body seem to be completely unhuman. Waving the mutated arm, Norman stepped forward and chased Peter.

And when Peter was in danger, Lin Rui did not come forward to help him at first, instead he seemed lost. It turned out that when Norman suddenly broke out, Lin Rui felt a strange fluctuation from him that he had never encountered before. This is not a power generated by genetic variation, it is an evil force, a force that may not belong to this world.

To describe that power, the volatility of some of the magic items that Lin Rui used before is very similar to Norman’s power. However, the magic items used by Lin Rui are very normal magic, similar to amulets and spring water or others like that. But the fluctuations in Norman gave Lin Rui a very uncomfortable, very strange feeling. So he was stunned when Norman suddenly broke out with this power, but he quickly recovered. Regardless of why Norman has this power, Lin Rui is here to solve the problem.

Lin Rui’s shot out a blade light, and the Thunder’s power stored in the Thunder blade has increased Lin Rui’s attack power by at least double. Regardless of Norman’s power-up, Lin Rui has the confidence to make it disappears.

Sensing an attack from behind, the crazy Norman abandons Spiderman and quickly turns around. It was too late to hide, so Norman had to cross his robotic arm across his chest. At the same time, a strange black fog poured out of his body and shrouded his entire body.

Boom!

The powerful blade light directly Sliced through the black mist that seemingly enveloped Norman and then it struck his crossed robotic arms. Kakaka – The Seemingly defensible Robotic arms broke in a fraction of a second, and Norman was blown away by the force of the impact. If he wasn’t blown back by the shockwaves that the blade light would’ve cut his arms apart. It wasn’t that Lin Rui didn’t want to restrain his powers, but Norman’s power was making him feel very uncomfortable. He was worried that if he held back now, something unexpected would happen.

Bang!

After getting hit again, Norman seems to have lost his ability to fight. Lin Rui could no longer sense the strange and evil power, it seems that the power has been purified by the power of thunder.

Slowly approaching Norman, Lin Rui wants to confirm that the danger is over. However, just at the moment when Lin Rui walked in front of Norman, a dark shadow rushed out of Norman and rushed directly at Lin Rui!

Shizzle!

Lin Rui brandished his thunder blade in an instant and the purple thunder’s power was wrapped around him, blocking the black shadow from the outside. The Thunder power and black shadow intertwined and Lin Rui can hear the squeaking sound similar to that of a red hot iron piece being thrown into the water.

Just when Lin Rui was trapped by the dark shadow, Norman on the ground suddenly got up with black and cold eyes. Before Peter could stop him, he rushed to the window and jumped out. And behind him, the flying hoverboard raced out and caught Norman outside. Then, without waiting for anything, Norman sped off on the flying hoverboard.

Chapter 150 Strong Harry

Wū wū ~ wū wū ~

The sound of sirens was already audible in the streets nearby as the missiles that had exploded from the house would be enough to prompt a massive police presence in New York City. At this time, Lin Rui is still being enveloped by the dark shadow in the house.

Huh~

In the darkness, Lin Rui's eyes suddenly flickered with a purple light, then the blade light around his body explodes, and a large purple electric light instantly clears the dark shadow surrounding him. After a scratching sound, the shadows scattered by Lin Rui quickly Disappeared into the ground.

"Mirage Knight! Are you all right?! What was that!?" Only after the shadows had disappeared did Peter rush from behind, startled by the sudden rush of something dark at them from Norman.

"I don't know! But it certainly isn't a good thing. The police are here. Let's get out of here first." As the siren outside drew nearer, Lin Rui did not give Peter much explanation.

"Well, let's go. Just, this can't be hidden from Harry." With a sigh of relief, Peter looked at the room that was destroyed in the fight and he looked at the secret room in front of him.

"There is no other way, he will know about this sooner or later. At least, now his father has been exposed in advance, maybe it would be better for him." Lin Rui also knows that Harry may not accept such a thing, but he would have to know sooner or later.

Then, before the police arrived, Peter and Lin Rui jumped out of the window and disappeared into the forest of buildings outside.

Wū wū ~

Just as Lin Rui and Peter were fighting Norman Osborn in the house, Harry, who had already handled the matter at the company, quickly received news of an attack on his house. Harry was in a hurry when he called his father, but he couldn't get through. So, when Harry rushed back to the house, he could only see his father's room which is now classified as the scene of the accident by the police. Soon, Harry knew what was going on here, and he was left stunned by the hidden room full of High-tech weapons in his father's room.

“Mr. Osborn? Mr. Osborn? Do you have any idea that your father was making these weapons illegally?”
A fat police officer asked Harry as his head continued to go down.

Harry: “...”

Harry couldn't think normally at the moment. He couldn't understand what was going on. He didn't know why there was such a secret room filled with weapons in his father's room. He didn't know what the flying hoverboard and demon mask represented. Maybe Harry knew it inside, but he would rather not believe it now.

“Mr. Osborn? Mr. Osborn?” Seeing Harry didn't respond, the police officer shouted twice with impatience.

According to the scene, the missing Osborn's largest shareholder, Norman Osborn is likely to be the attacker who caused heavy casualties in the Greenwich hotel in the past few days. Harry is Norman Osborn's son, and the officer has little patience for the son of a criminal.

“Hey! Harry...” Just as the officer was about to reach out to pat a stunned Harry, his outstretched hand was suddenly caught.

“Hello, Officer will.” The man who grabbed the officer's hand was Lin Rui, who had been waiting for Harry to learn that his father was the Green Goblin. When the police arrived, Lin Rui used his press card to enter the house but he was blocked from the scene of the accident, but he couldn't resist sneaking in when he saw Harry's appearance.

“You are? The captured officer Will looked curiously at the young man holding his hand.

“I'm a friend of, uh, Mr. Osborn, and I don't think it's appropriate for Mr. Osborn to be questioned right now.” Lin Rui wanted to say that he was a journalist, but if he said so, He would probably be thrown out.

While Lin Rui was talking to Officer Will, he quietly clapped Harry behind his back twice with his other hand. Warm internal energy quickly rushed into Harry's body to calm his speechless and chaotic mood.

“I understand that this is not a good time, Mr. Osborn, but...”

“Thank you, Jackson. I'm fine now.” Just as Officer Will was about to say something more, Harry recovered and smiled at Lin Rui.

“Officer will, we have a detailed record of these high-tech weapons in our Oscorp's weapons development department, and I'll have them brought back if you need to check them. My father, you said, had these weapons in his possession. It was Oscorp's property. There is no such thing as an illegal weapon.” After a few words with Lin Rui, Harry reemerges as the powerful Oscorp's heir, answering Officer Will's question in a few words.

Oscorp is indeed developing new weapons for the army, but these are apparently unreported developments that Norman stored in his secret room. But these things are nothing for such a big company, don't you allow yourself to speed up with the development?

“Mr. Osborn, are you saying that these weapons in the secret room are all legal?” Officer will asked him, frowning at Harry's reply.

"Of course it is. Officer Will should know that the military has been working with companies that have the ability to develop and manufacture new weapons, and we at Oscorp are one of those companies. And I want to correct a mistake in your words. This is not a secret room, but a safe room." Harry, who has come to his senses, is worthy of being the head of Oscorp Industries. In a few words, he had brought the situation under control and also pushed back the crimes connected to Norman Osborn.

"Oh, a safe room. Indeed, if you have so many high-tech weapons in your home, you really need a safe room." Annoyed by Harry's response, Officer Will lowered the notepad in his hand and said softly.

"What about the flying device and the devil mask? How would you explain that? I think you should know that these two things are the equipment of the murderer who caused heavy casualties at Greenwich Hotel a few days ago." Although Harry's answer was sharp, there is more deadly evidence here. The flying hoverboard and the devil mask in the secret room are the same as those of the Greenwich hotel attacker who caused mayhem in the past few days. This is the most direct evidence.

"About this, I suspect that my father was threatened and kidnapped. These things were provided by my father to the attacker under duress. So I hope the police will find something and get my father back as soon as possible." Harry knew this was inevitable, so he had prepared an excuse from the start.

"Threat? Kidnapping? It's possible." When he heard Harry's words, Officer Will seems to think that there was a small chance that what Harry said might be true. Norman Osborn, after all, was rich and powerful and had no reason to do something like that. "Okay, Mr. Osborn, we are done here, I will inform you of the progress."

"Thank you. By the way, if you want to take these weapons away as evidence, you'd better make a special case. I don't want Oscorp's latest product to get leaked by this, you know what this would mean for all the parties involved." Officer Will was about to turn away when Harry reminds him.

"Oh~ I know, Mr. Osborn. We don't have to take these weapons, as long as you give us a detailed list." Will is just a small police officer, he is not too stupid enough to find trouble with the US military.

"Well, I'll have it given to you as soon as possible." With a sigh of relief, Harry calmly watched as Officer Will slowly left.

As Officer Will walked away, Harry, who had been standing steadily, suddenly shook, but Lin Rui caught him just in time.

"Are you alright, Harry?" Holding Harry, Lin Rui asks anxiously.

"Thank you, Jackson. I'm fine, just need to take a break." With a forced smile to Lin Rui, Harry whispers.

The impact on Harry was too strong. He had just been forced to look at his father's room and a secret weapon room he didn't even know about, and the flying hoverboard and the glaring green devil mask. Combining his father's recent improvement in health and changing personality, Harry has come to the conclusion that his father, Norman Osborn, was the man who attacked the Greenwich hotel.

Although he knew that the man was the father, Harry could not really tell the truth in front of the police. He was the son of Norman Osborn after all, and he preferred if his father was kidnapped.

“Well, I’ll help you out.” Knowing that Harry was not in good condition, Lin Rui helped him slowly away from the scene.

“Jackson, didn’t you go home with Peter? Why are you still here?”

“Well, Peter said he was busy, and I was just hanging around, and when I heard there had been an accident, I came to see.”

“Oh.....”
