

Marvel 21

Chapter 21 *hidden*

Empire State High School, Lin Rui's class. They saw Captain America together, ate Chinese food together and went shopping together. Lin Rui and Peter had a closer relationship now. So when Lin Rui said he was going to work part-time in The Daily Bugle, Peter expressed concern and surprise.

"Jackson, are you short of money? We're only in the first year in high school now. Isn't it too early to go out to work part-time?" Tom asked curiously as he approached Lin Rui. Although he knew that Lin Rui had been working in the community service center since childhood, going to the newspaper outside was the real job.

"It's nothing, I just had a sudden desire to do something by myself and save some money, I planned to go out for the summer vacation. Besides, I found it interesting to be a journalist." Lin Rui explained the reasons he had long thought about.

Although Lin Rui is only a freshman in high school, there are many 16-year-old high school students working part-time jobs in the United States, but they don't have any formal jobs. And Lin Rui doesn't need to be a full-time employee of The Daily Bugle. He just needs a journalist's name.

"But why are you going to The Daily Bugle?" asked Peter. "New York reporters are not so good, especially such tabloids reporters." Even if Lin Rui wants to work part-time, he should have better choices, such as in his family's Chinese restaurant.

"Yes, if you want to intern in advance, I can recommend you to my company for an internship, you are very smart." Harry also said, he really thought it was a good choice for Lin Rui to go to his company with his intelligence.

"Ha ha! I heard before that you had introduced Gwen to an internship, so I didn't want to join in on her fun. Besides, I think I would like to be a journalist. "Lin Rui certainly knows that Oscorp is a good choice for an internship, but he's not doing this permanently. He just wants to approach Tony Stark to finish his quest.

"Well, now that you've made up your mind, we can only support you. Maybe you can become a famous New York journalist." When Lin Rui said, Tom had to show his support.

"Hey hey! That's not true!" Lin Rui blinked and answered with a smile. If he would take some indecent photos of Tony then he would have a very angry and very rich person after him.

In this way, Lin Rui's part-time job in The Daily Bugle was all settled with his friends. As for Lin Rui's parents, they always supported their son. After Lin Rui and his friends had finished talking about it, Peter, who had returned to his seat, thought a lot. Jackson's family is already wealthy and he is still doing a part-time job. Do I really want to rely on Uncle Ben and Aunt May all the time? Peter could not help thinking so.

Looking back at Lin Rui, who was listening to the teacher carefully, Peter felt that he also need to look for a part-time job. Because he liked photography, Peter had saved a lot of money for a long time to buy himself a camera and it seemed good to take part-time photographs in newspapers. But Lin Rui has chosen a newspaper reporter, and Peter instinctively ruled that out.

I just heard Jackson say that Gwen went to the Harry company for an internship, maybe I can also do that? However, it seems that it will be troublesome for Harry. If I can't find a suitable part-time job in some time then I will ask Harry and he wouldn't mind then. Simple-minded Peter didn't wonder why he didn't know Gwen had interned with Harry and Lin Rui knew and he just thought it will be good to work with Gwen. Maybe he can take this opportunity to deepen his relationship with Gwen. The thoughts in Peter's adolescent head flew in another direction in an instant.

Lin Rui, sitting in his seat, seems to be listening carefully to the class, but in fact, he is completely immersed in his own world. He's thinking about how to become a part-time employee in The Daily Bugle, which may not be difficult. As long as he doesn't ask for too high salary, he believes that the stingy boss will be happy to accept it. As for how to approach a big man like Tony Stark as an intern journalist, he needs a good plan.

"System, do you have any good suggestions?" He already has a general plan, and he needs some help in the details.

"I have to say that your plan looks perfect, at least as a journalist it's easier to get close to Tony Stark than as an ordinary person. But how can you interview Tony? Or would Tony be willing to be interviewed by you? This is not something you can accomplish with your camera behind you. How can you get Iron Man's friendship if you can't communicate? The system first affirmed Lin Rui's plan and then raised some questions.

"Tony is a guy who doesn't mind being loved by a spotlight. It Shouldn't be difficult to interview him, should it?"

"The premise to that is that the reporter who interviewed him is a beautiful woman. You think that a playboy like Tony Stark is willing to let an intern reporter who is a high school student interview him. Unless you are a beautiful woman, but Tony seems not interested in children, he prefers mature. One sentence in the system dispelled Lin Rui's optimism.

"If you say that, I can only take photos from far away? That's not enough!" On hearing the system, Lin Rui said with some distress.

"Yes! Miss Pepper! Tony Stark's personal assistant. Although Tony is a playboy, Miss Pepper is his true love, and he has always loved her in his heart. Maybe I can start from this. Suddenly there was a flash of inspiration in his mind. Lin Rui thought of the beautiful secretary beside Iron Man. Of course, Tony later made Pepper the CEO of Stark Industries because he was so lazy!

"Well, this is a solution. If you can make Miss Pepper feel good about you, then you have a great chance to interview Tony Stark." Seeing Lin Rui's excitement, the system responded faintly.

"Heh heh! Maybe Miss Pepper likes a handsome young man like me!" Lin Rui, who thinks he has found a breakthrough, said with a smile. Maybe I have to do something by myself and meet Tony's true love once in a while.

System: "..."

"But what is with the mainline quest released this time? Although getting to know Iron Man will really be a boost on my Superhero's way, it seems to have nothing to do with my own strength improvement right now. Tony's case has been put aside for the time being. Lin Rui has had this question since yesterday. Getting to know Iron Man is just an accumulation of personal contacts. If he wants to become a Superhero, strength is still fundamental.

Buzz!

"Mainline quest release: under the night, the evil forces are expanding, seriously threatening the security of New York. As a little-known Vigilante, the host has an obligation to remove these evil forces and ensure the safety of New York. The target of quest: Fight against the dark forces in New York and consolidate the safe living environment of New York. Quest completion schedule: 1/100." Just after Lin Rui asked that question, the sound of the system in his mind suddenly became empty and then he was issued a mainline quest.

Lin Rui: "..."

Why do I have such a big mouth! Wasn't it enough that I already had a quest that requires me to meet Tony Stark, why do I have to ask for even more trouble! Lin Rui, who received the quest, couldn't wait to slap himself, but he is now in the space of consciousness, even if he gives himself two slaps he wouldn't be able to feel them.

"Actually, I just wanted to remind you that mainline quest will not make you feel so relaxed. If you want to be a Superhero, constant fighting is the best way to grow up. You know that too. The voice of the system changed back to its original form again as he said faintly.

"Oh! It is also expected. The one percent completion should be my previous attack on Jeston Gang and the time I had to deal with the Russian gang with Daredevil." Now that it's done, Lin Rui has to accept it and look at the 1% Quest Completion and ask the system.

"Yes, that's exactly what you did before."

"It seems that I have to die with Jeston Gang! Maybe, I really need a helper." Thinking of this, A figure flashed in Lin Rui's mind, It was a guy who made him cry in the training space.

"But before that, I need a cool name!" Already on Superhero's way, Lin Rui really felt that he needed a cool and intimidating name.

System: "..."

After thinking about it for a while he could not come up with a name that suits him and Lin Rui turned to Tom and Peter. These two guys are his fans, maybe they have already named him something.

"Hey! Tom! Do you remember the new Vigilante?" For insurance, Lin Rui asked the first question. After all, Tom hasn't mentioned that Vigilante these days.

"Of course! Because of him, the crime rate in Queens has dropped a lot in the nights! I have always regarded him as an example! But he only appeared in the evening, and his whereabouts were swift and uncertain. Nobody really saw him today." Hearing Lin Rui's words, Tom answered earnestly, saying that there were still some minor regrets.

"Is that right? Does the new Vigilante have a name? Like the nickname of Daredevil in Hell's Kitchen? Lin Rui asked, showing some interest, just to know if there are any good names here.

“Of course! Mirage Knight! This is the name we gave him! Is it very domineering! He is like a knight that delivers justice and disappears like a phantom! I also asked Jess from the next class to help me get a Mirage Knight fans website, now there are already more than a thousand members!” Seeing Lin Rui’s interest, Tom said happily.

“Mirage Knight?! fans website?! Tom, you really make me stand out!” Lin Rui had to sigh at what Tom was doing. However, the name Mirage Knight is ok. Although it is almost in accordance with his own Phantom Suit, at least it sounds okay.

Okay, what’s the name of the Mirage Knight website? I’m going to add it too!” Lin Rui simply explained and pulled out his mobile phone to join his own fans.

Chapter 22 Mirage Knight

“Jackson, when are you going to report on The Daily Bugle?” At the end of the afternoon, Tom followed him and asked.

“I’ve already submitted my e-resume online, and the other party has already responded. I’ll report this weekend.” Lin Rui casually answered as now he had to deal with more things than just Tony.

“Oh.” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Tom responded in a low voice with a somewhat depressed look in his eyes.

“Eh? Are you okay? You don’t seem very happy? Feeling Tom’s mood Lin Rui asked curiously.

“Haha, of course, it’s nothing!” Hearing Lin Rui’s question, Tom looked up and smiled and answered. But the gloom in his eyes was hidden.

“Well, go home. I’m still busy tonight!”

“What’s up?”

“I promise not to talk to others!”

“No!”

“What the hell is it?! Is it about a girl?!”

“No!”

In the evening, Lin Rui who was hiding in his room opened a drawer under his desk and took out a book from it.

The thumb scratches across the side of the book and flips over quickly. The next moment it stops. A simple business card is clipped to the page where Lin Rui stops. On the white business card, the identity of the owner of the card is introduced in simple black letters: Matt Murdoch, partner of Maggie Law Firm, 352 Hell Kitchen Fifth Avenue. Matt doesn’t seem to mind exposing his real identity to Lin Rui. He seems to be as sure that Lin Rui won’t say it.

A simple introduction to a simple business card, like Matt, seems to be a simple person. But Lin Rui knows that Matt has been trying to train himself since he was a child. Especially after the blindness of his eyes stimulated the potential of his body, At this time, Matt has almost exploited his body to its own limit and his force value is very high.

“Matt should be a good helper if we continue to deal with Jeston Gang. I think he should be very willing to work with me to eradicate the underworld gangsters in New York. After all, these people are closely related to Kingpin. With Matt’s business card in hand, Lin Rui muttered softly.

“Ok! That’s it! With the Daredevil in the Hell’s Kitchen and the Mirage Knight against the enemy, my name will eventually resound throughout New York!” Looking forward to his future, Lin Rui took out his mobile phone and began to dial the number on his business card. He wanted to send text messages, but it suddenly occurred to him that Matt could not see, so he had to call directly, hoping that the other party would remember his partner who had fought together.

Dudu ~

“Hello, this is Matt Murdoch. What can I do for you?” After two beeps, the other end of the phone was connected, and a somewhat elegant male voice passed to Lin Rui’s ear through his cell phone. In real life, Matt is a good lawyer who helps people fight lawsuits everywhere. There is always someone who usually calls him for help.

“Cough! That... I was the anonymous person who fought with you in Manhattan two days ago. However, I have my own name now, you can call me Mirage Knight!” A nervous Lin Rui first mentioned what happened two days ago, then hurried out to tell his name.

“Eh?! It’s you? What happened, It’s only been two days, are you looking for the Jeston Gang again?” Matt was surprised to hear Lin Rui’s voice but soon recovered his composure. He did not doubt Lin Rui’s identity, after all, only himself and the young man knew that.

Last time he fought with Lin Rui, Matt knew that Lin Rui might be very young, but now he heard a tender voice coming from the phone. Matt felt that he had overestimated Lin Rui’s age. Perhaps the Mirage Knight is still a high school kid. (The face of Phantom Suit has the effect of changing the sound)

“Er... That’s true. There is a saying that with great power comes great responsibility. Since I have this ability, I have to do more for this city?” Lin Rui blushed and stole Spiderman’s life message from Spiderman’s Uncle.

“With Great power comes great responsibility? Ha-ha, I didn’t think that even when you are so young, you had already thought so much. So what do you want to do now? Do we directly rush to Jeston Gang’s site and wreak havoc? Lin Rui’s words were repeated, and Matt’s mouth on the other end of the phone was slightly tilted, apparently bluffed.

“... It’s not as exaggerated as you said, but it’s almost the same. Find the trading points for Jeston Gang’s underground activities and strike them one by one. However, I don’t have any reliable sources. It would be too tiring to try my luck in the remote street factories every night. So...” For his target ally, Lin Rui chose to be honest.

“So you’re calling me to form a team, not only to have more hands but also to get some information.” Matt understood the meaning behind Lin Rui words.

“Well, that’s right! I think you and Wilson Fiske have been fighting for so long that you should have your own channels to collect information. Lin Rui honestly admitted his intention.

“I do know most of New York’s trading places and some hiding places, but many of them are not something we can break through. However, if we work together, it should be enough to cause them a lot of trouble. Matt gave Lin Rui a positive answer.

Blindness took Matt’s light away, but it gives him tremendous sensitivity. Every night, as long as he listens wholeheartedly, he can sense the crime happening outside, which is why he is blind but knows his surroundings better than ordinary people.

“So you would like to team up with me?” On the other end of the line, Lin Rui asked excitedly.

“Are you going to do it alone if I don’t want to?” Instead of answering Lin Rui immediately, Matt asked.

“Well, I always did it alone.” Because of the mainline quest, these things are something that Lin Rui can’t escape from.

“Well, I’ll form a team with you. But if we are both together, the goal will not be just Jeston Gang. My hatred with Wilson Fiske has long been irreconcilable. Are you sure you want to dive in these kinds of waters? Although Lin Rui has agreed to form a team, Matt asked one more question.

“Of course! I told you before that my goals are not fixed, all of these evil forces are my targets. Lin Rui did not hesitate to say yes after hearing Matt’s words. He was also worried that a Jeston Gang would not be enough for completing the mainline quest.

“That’s good. I’ll help you keep an eye on their movements. Just wait for my news, remember, don’t be impulsive.” Now that he has formed a team with the young man, Matt naturally needs to take care of him a little.

“I Know, Daredevil!”

“Then see you next time, Mirage Knight!”

“Ha ha! Goodbye!” At the end of the phone, when he heard Matt calling his name, Lin Rui responded happily and finally hung up.

“With Matt as an ally, this quest should be completed smoothly!” With a Vigilante team, Lin Rui was very excited.

Just then, a golden light flashed in his mind.

“Congratulations to Host for Achievement: Front Alliance! Although Superhero embodies personal heroism, team strength is always greater than individual strength. The host and Daredevil have successfully formed the initial Vigilante team. Completing this achievement Reward: 500 Reward Points.” Really, Reward points are raining from the sky lately, Lin Rui just wanted to find a helper and actually completed a hidden achievement.

“Ah! This is ok! It seems that there are a lot of hidden achievements!” Lin Rui was happy to see the Reward point that he had been awarded.

“Systems, do you think I’ve been transshipped recently?” Lin Rui, who was happy, asked in his mind.

But he didn’t get a response. It seems that the system doesn’t want to talk to him now.

“Ah! Let’s have a good rest! I will be quite busy from now on!” The system didn’t respond, so Lin Rui was ready to wash and sleep. He now has two mainline quests and once the plan starts, he really wouldn’t have much free time.

And while Lin Rui made plans for his mainline quest, several people were talking in a private room in New York Manhattan, an industry in Jeston Gang.

“Helles, that fellow in Queens has reached over here. Don’t you want to do something about it?” A well-dressed man in a suit that looks like an elite sits on a leather sofa and asks a rude man sitting in front of him. It’s easy to guess that what he just said should be Lin Rui or Mirage Knight.

“The new guy in Queens is very strong. Not only is he fast, but his power is also great. An average person is not his opponent at all. Moreover, he seems to have the ability to block bullets.” Looked at lightly by the man in the suit, the burly Helles standing below was somewhat restrained and answered honestly.

“I don’t want to hear how strong he is. I just want you to find a solution. We can’t let a Vigilante who we don’t even know where he came from hit Frankenstein Family. Even if we don’t care, people will gossip. The man in the suit sitting on the sofa said faintly and it seemed that he did not put Lin Rui strength in his eyes.

“Yes! I have already contacted Professor Frank, he will provide us with support.” Seemingly frightened, Helles answered in a hurry with cold sweat running on his forehead.

Professor Frank? Are you going to use those guys? This is also a solution. Well, I’m just going to ask you a little bit about it. It’s up to you to figure out how to solve it. On hearing Professor Frank’s name, the man in the suit was only slightly interested. Then he stood up from the sofa and walked out.

“Don’t let me down.” When he came to the door, the man in a suit slowed down and said a little.

“Certainly not! Master Ross!”

Chapter 23 Matt Is Missing

Since the alliance with Daredevil that night, Lin Rui has been waiting for his news. But he did not receive any reply until Friday. In spite of his anxiety, Lin Rui did not call again to inquire. He believed Daredevil would arrange things according to him.

“Hey! Jackson, do you have any plans for this weekend? At the end of the week, Tom asked Lin Rui as he walked on the way out of school.

“Well, I am going to “The Daily Bugle” this weekend, you know.” Lin Rui replied.

“Ah, yes! Peter, what about you?” Remembering that Lin Rui had found himself a part-time job, Tom turned to Peter on the other side.

“I’m going to visit Harry’s company. He promised to introduce me to an associate professor of bioengineering, hoping that the associate professor would let me be his assistant intern.” Peter later turned to Harry for help, though only for introduction, but with Peter’s achievements and efforts, it should be all right.

“Ah!? Are you going to an internship too?” Tom was surprised to hear Peter’s words. Their high school life has only begun for half a semester. How come all his friends around him are thinking about internship one by one?

“There are differences between assistant interns and interns, but you can understand that as well.” Peter didn’t explain much to Tom either, he answered casually.

“Harry is also getting involved in his company as the future owner of the Oscorp company. In this way, I am the only one who is the most idle now!” Said Tom unexpectedly found himself unwittingly pulled aside by everyone, when he was still thinking about playing in high school, Lin Rui and others had found their future direction. Think of this, Tom’s mood is unconscious and depressed.

Lin Rui and Peter didn’t mind Tom who was suddenly silent next to them. They had their own thoughts at the moment. Lin Rui was wondering if he would receive Matt’s news tonight and the weekend’s report to The Daily Bugle went well. Peter was worried about whether Oscorp’s associate professor would accept him as an assistant intern, and if he succeeded, he could meet Gwen at work.

If Lin Rui and Peter didn’t concentrate too much on their own affairs at this time, they would surely find Tom in an unusual mood. Of course, even if they find out, they won’t feel so bad. After all, everyone is different. They don’t have to be responsible for other people’s lives. In this way, Lin Rui and others return home with thoughts filling their hearts and minds. This weekend will be an inactive holiday.

After dinner, Lin Rui returns to his room and puts his cell phone on the table. If there is information or a call, he will see it the first time. Then he turned on his computer and began searching for information about Tony Stark, Frankenstein Family, Jeston Gang, even Wilson Fisk, and Russian gangs. These things have been done by Lin Rui for nearly a week, but they have not yielded much result.

Tony’s news is always a piece of big news because he doesn’t care about what others report about him at all. Where he goes to the party every day, chat with which girl for more than five minutes and disappear with which star in the evening, these messages can be detailed to every minute and second. However, this doesn’t help Lin Rui at all.

As for the rest, there is not much news. Frankenstein Family is obviously a family of aristocrats with a long history and the information on the Internet is also some ordinary introductions. Although these accusations against the family can be found in some corners, comprehensive information cannot be formed.

Jeston Gang has some introductions, but it’s just a gangster gang in New York. It doesn’t involve their base and some trading sites or content at all.

Wilson Fiske, or Kingpin, Lin Rui, accidentally failed to find any information about him on the Internet, only to say that he was deeply hidden. Russian Ross gangs have very few news. It is impossible to find effective information by relying solely on the Internet. After all, there is no such magical group as the sunrise masses in the United States.

After turning over more than a dozen pages, Lin Rui, who still has no harvest, once again looks at the mobile phone on the desk, expecting it to ring.

Buzz buzz ~

It seems that Lin Rui's strong expectation has worked. The mobile phone on the desk suddenly starts to vibrate. A phone call is coming!

Lin Rui has quickly got his cell phone in his hand. He didn't even glance at the caller's display. Lin Rui had pressed the button to connect in the next second.

"Hey! Matt? You finally called me!" As soon as the call connected, Lin Rui could not wait to say. He's been waiting for almost a week. If there was no news tonight, he was going to Manhattan to find Matt.

"...Hello, I am not Matt." However, after a slight silence on the other end of the phone, there came a strange female voice.

"Er... Wait! Who are you?" Lin Rui, who was sure he had heard it correctly, was stunned. He looked down the phone number quickly. It wasn't Matt's, so he asked in surprise.

"My name is Claire, a friend of Matt's. I also know Matt's other identity. I need your help. When Lin Rui was confused, the woman on the other end of the phone quickly introduced herself and showed that she needed help.

"You know Matt's identity?! What happened? Claire?" Lin Rui suddenly got nervous when he heard the woman on the phone. A person who knows Matt's other identity, a person who comes across something to help him or her, needless to say, Matt is in some dangerous situation.

"It's Matt. I haven't heard from him for two days! There was nobody in the basement, and there was no place where he often went to heal his wounds. I was worried about what had happened to him. Matt gave me this number the other day, saying that if anything happened to him, I could call for help. Sure enough, Claire on the other end of the phone spoke quickly about what happened to her.

"Matt's missing?! Is it because of the Jeston Gang, did he get caught gathering data? Hearing Claire's words, Lin Rui frowned tightly and thought that this was the most likely scenario.

"Can you help me? I don't know who else to call!" Claire on the other end of the phone asked anxiously when Lin Rui was a little silent. As one of the few people who know Matt's other identity, Claire is worried about Matt.

"Don't worry, I'll help you. I'll find Matt. No matter what happens to him, I'll bring him back. All you have to do now is calm down, search carefully for the clues before Matt disappears, and let me know immediately what you find. Feeling Claire's worry, Lin Rui quickly agreed. Whether Matt had an accident for his own reasons or not, Lin Rui would not let it go. They are now allies.

"Thank you! Pay attention to your safety! I don't want you to be missing as well."

“You too!”

After hanging up, Lin Rui was quick to think. Matt disappeared for two days, the day after he investigated Jeston Gang. If he had been caught at that time, the situation would have been very bad now, provided that he had not been killed directly.

But Lin Rui certainly thought Matt would not die so simply. He was Vigilante of Marvel World, and the protagonist halo would envelop him. But Lin Rui doesn't know for sure, because Daredevil's protagonist aura may not be as powerful as it is now. After all, according to the original script, Daredevil would not provoke Jeston Gang.

“Systems, do you have any special props that can help me find certain people?” With a little thought in mind, Lin Rui turned to the system for help.

Brush!

As soon as Lin Rui's voice fell, a green light came out of the System Shop in his mind. Then the voice of the system came out: “Allied Arms, bronze Arms endowed with mysterious magic, have magical powers. Value 100 Reward Point. Are you sure about the exchange?”

Hoo!

The next moment, the green light dissipated, revealing a palm-sized metal item inside. It was a rectangular, compact armguard with a point radian. It was a bit like props in the war scenes of the Middle Ages in Europe and the United States.

“Sure!” Lin Rui bought the armband before it was clear about its effect. He's not very rich now, but he won't be stingy at 100 Reward Points.

Brush!

The next moment, the Allied arm that existed in his mind was turned into a dot of fluorescence and dissipated. In reality, the fluorescence converges on his right arm, slowly forming a small arm guard.

“How do I use this? System. ” Looking at the automatic armguard equipped on his body, Lin Rui then asked the system.

“The Allies guard arm is a magic item, it can help you find the Allies in a special way. You just need to let it know that Matt is your ally, it will show the position of Matt at this time. The system knows that Lin Rui is very anxious now and quickly explains the use of the armguard.

“How can I let it know that I am allied with Matt?”

“Simple, you can stick the business card that Matt gave you before. Just an item belonging to the ally can bind the identity, very simple.” The system then reminded.

“Good!” Hearing the system, Lin Rui quickly found Matt's business card. Fortunately, he didn't throw it away, otherwise, it would be impossible now.

Hoo!

Putting the card directly on the arm guard on his right arm, Lin Rui stares nervously at it, waiting for the next change.

Buzz ~

Not to Lin Rui's disappointment, the business card just touched the guard arm, which was still dim, emitted a light green light, quickly connected to the card. The situation lasted for a few seconds, then the green light retracted and the business card slipped off the armrest.

"Is that it?" Looking at the silent arm, Lin Rui asked again.

Hoo!

Without waiting for the system to answer, there was another movement on the guard arm. The surface of the armguard, which was originally metal, appeared with several ripples like running water. Then the ripples disappeared and the whole armguard became as smooth as a TV display screen. At this point, there are two green dots on the display screen, one of which is very bright green, while the other is very weak.

"The green dots represent your allies. If you feel it, you will know where Matt is now." The system reminded him at the right time.

"I see!" Following the system's reminder, Lin Rui soon learned Matt's position through his arm guard and that he was not in a very good situation at the moment.

Brush!

In the next second, Lin Rui was equipped with Phantom Suit and rushed out of the window. The rescue of Daredevil has officially begun!

Chapter 24 Rescue

Whirl!

Brush!

Near an empty street, a dark shadow rushed past the wall. The figure hidden in the shadow could only be seen by his outlines when it was illuminated by the street lamp. His speed was too fast.

Lin Rui, who left home quietly, did not take the subway this time. Instead, he 'borrowed' a car and rushed to the position shown on the Allied arm guard. He got out of the car three blocks from where Matt was, in case anyone noticed him. Then he switched to Phantom Suit and headed for Matt quickly and covertly.

Whirl!

Brush!

Suddenly the fast-moving figure stopped and before Lin Rui appeared a broad river, the Hudson River across New York. In front of Lin Rui, there is a small river port, besides a seemingly ordinary concrete factory building, there are some containers pushed together beside the port.

Feeling the position of Matt on the Allied arm guard, Lin Rui's eyes slowly focused on the factory in front of him. "Matt is right there!" I don't know how he is now. I hope I can go on my own!"

After locating Matt, Lin Rui eyes flashed as he rushed out again. This time, however, he paid more attention to hiding in shadows, which had already brought Phantom Suit's effect to its limit.

"Roger, you said you've been torturing the blind man for almost two days, but he said nothing. Does he even know anything?"

"I wasn't going to keep him, but this guy had a lot of connections with the Russian gangs and he is a wanted man by them. Whether he is given there or killed here, it won't really make any difference, but Boss doesn't know where this guy is related to the one we've been fighting against. That's why we have been keeping him here in hopes that he will be able to get our guy here."

Just as Lin Rui was heading for the port, two tattoo men were chatting in front of a container in the concrete factory building. There was a simple room opposite the container and there were about thirty people in the whole factory building. From what they said, he can see that Matt was really caught by Jeston Gang, but he doesn't know how they caught Matt with their strength.

"But it's been two days. Will that guy come? Maybe he didn't even know that the blind man was caught by us, or that he didn't dare to come over, or maybe he couldn't find it here." The man who asked the question raised his doubts again.

"Oh, this blind man was not caught by us! If it hadn't been for those two, we would never have caught this guy. And if that guy really doesn't come, he'll have to be killed. What's the use of a useless bait? Roger is still shocked by the fight he fought two days ago. It was not a normal fight.

"Where did the two people come from? I was not there in the fight two days ago. What the hell happened!"

"Ah! I don't know where they came from, but they came here on our bosses orders. But I can tell you that they are not normal human beings. Including the blind who have been imprisoned here for two days!" Looking back a little bit on the fight two days ago, Roger reminded his companions a little and at the end, he gave a sign towards the container behind him with his eyes.

"Not a normal human?! Isn't that too exaggerated?!" Hearing Roger's words, his companion was obviously not convinced.

"Hum! So what do you think we're doing here? Do you think that so many people are needed to deal with ordinary guys? And if that Queens guy comes over, it's not us who is going to deal with him, it's..." Roger looked at the small room opposite to them when he said the last sentence. He didn't know who was in it.

"In that room is the person who caught the blind man!"

"Well, it was Boss who paid a lot of money to them to come here and deal with that guy from Queens. If he really dares to come, they will make sure that he wouldn't return! " Roger vowed that no one would doubt the strength of the inhuman people after they had seen their abilities.

Hey!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

While Roger was talking to his gang colleague who had just changed shifts, a few special sounds came out of the huge workshop, like something moving at a high speed. Then, a series of loud noises burst out over the factory building and the smoke and a pungent smell came down in an instant.

"It's him! He did come! Avoid it! Roger, who had just talked big about the two powerful people in the room, had run towards the edge of the factory building with his head in his arms the next moment. Before he ran away, he had not forgotten to remind the new people beside him. However, the newcomer had disappeared before he reminded him, and he seemed to have noticed the unusual movement above the factory from the very beginning.

"Don't panic! Wear the infrared night vision device!"

"Groups close to each other! Don't shoot at will!"

At the next moment when the accident suddenly broke out in the factory building, a powerful voice came from some panicked people, arranging the enemy affairs in an orderly manner. Jeston Gang has suffered a lot from Lin Rui's attack, and apparently knows a lot about his usual methods. Although he was fast and powerful, once there was no smoke for hiding, he would be nothing in front of heavy fire.

Hoo!

Just as everyone in the Jeston Gang below took out their guns as insurance and quickly gathered together, a figure covered in a black overcoat burst from the smoke fell straight to the ground. And this person's destination is also very clever, he just fell in the middle of a group of four people as they were backing towards each other's back and hadn't yet finished their circle.

"Over there!"

Without being reminded, such a large movement had already attracted the attention of the four retreaters, and just as they turned around quickly, a cold blade light had already passed behind them.

Pump!

Four consecutive unsearchable sharp edges crossed the sound of the flesh. The next moment, the four people who turned around had no movement.

Rub!

While the movement of four people around him stopped, the figure in the middle has instantly rushed out of the encirclement circle, towards the factory's more open space.

Pop Pop Pop! ~

After the figure rushed out, the four people who stayed in the same place burst open at various places and blood rushed out at the same time and then they fell on the ground one by one, dead. Killing four people in one second. That's Lin Rui's strength now. Although the sneak attack and weapons played a big role but he does have such strength now.

"Ah! Look out! He's over there!!!"

“This way! This way!

Four people were killed at once and the leader who had given the order before screamed in a panic.

Whirl ~

At that moment, the smoke falling from above finally fell shrouding Lin Rui who has just rushed out again. It's a good game for Lin Rui to hide again after a hit. However, although the current smoke can help him cause some trouble to Jeston Gang's guys, it is no longer fatal, because they are already ready, everyone wears infrared night vision, especially restraining his smoke concealment ability.

“Er!”

Another blade flashed through the smoke, accompanied by a scream that stopped halfway.

Bang!

Bang bang!

The smoke shrouded Lin Rui's appearance and his momentum and finally, someone could not help shooting in the smoke. Although they knew that the chance of hitting the ghost figure was very small, they could not let him kill them all without putting up a fight.

Rub! Rub! Rub!

Under the feet of the wind, Lin Rui shuttled quickly in the crowd and bullet rain. His right hand holding a long blade full of melted flame lines, each slash will kill an enemy.

“System, this blade is good! It's a Hundred Refined Divine Weapon, the 200 Reward Points weren't wasted! ” While killing his opponents in the factory, Lin Rui can also take time to speak to the system in his mind.

In fact, after confirming that Matt was in the factory, Lin Rui knew that there must be a lot of Jeston Gang guys guarding it. It would be impossible to rush through the gate. However, the roof of such a large factory building is relatively shabby, and Lin Rui can easily open a gap in the roof. In this way, he threw a smoke bomb from above and rushed down the smoke to hit Jeston Gang by surprise.

This time, Lin Rui no longer held anything back and directly bought a Hundred Refined Divine Weapon worth 200 Reward points from the System Shop. And because he practices “Soaring Dragon Art” every day, his strength is much higher than it was at first. If Jeston Gang keeps comparing him to his previous strength, then they are making a big mistake.

“You better settle down or you won't be able to save Matt so easily today.” Hearing Lin Rui's words, the system reminds him faintly.

“Is that right? Then I'll show you! ” It's clear that Jeston Gang's are not his opponents, Lin Rui said.

Puff!

With a sense of responsibility to rescue Matt and a willingness to win the system, Lin Rui is more sharp and quick. Jeston Gang's guard in the factory has fallen nearly half, but so far Lin Rui's side has not been touched. Although they did see Lin Rui with night vision, they didn't shoot him so quickly. They can only watch as Lin Rui shuttle in the crowd and killed their teammate one after another.

"What's the difficulty? It's easy for me to save Matt. I'm afraid the system doesn't know how good I am now. Although the effect of the smoke bomb is almost over, Lin Rui's opponents are almost all defeated. Today's rescue plan seems easier than expected. Lin Rui thought in silence.

Buzz! ~

And just as Lin Rui swings his blade forward again, a sound of a sharp blade breaking into the air comes to his ear. At the same time, Insight Technique, which he has been keeping at a high level, suddenly issued a dangerous warning!

At the critical moment, Lin Rui's long blade in his hand forcibly stopped the momentum of splitting out and circled an arc to block his right side.

Ding! Ding! Ding Ding!

Chapter 25

Ding Ding Ding Ding Ding!

A dense metal clash was heard on Lin Rui's long blade. Then he was pushed back several steps by a strong push from the blade.

Hoo!

In retreat, Lin Rui's eyes stared slightly, his hands grasped the blade and quickly dismantled the force, then he stopped on the ground again. Then, with the fading smoke, he looked in the direction from which he was attacked. At this time, he has not had his initial relaxation, from the attack just now, he guessed that maybe it was as difficult as the system said.

Whirl!

The smoke that had shrouded the entire factory building had finally dissipated. For the first time, Lin Rui showed up in front of everyone in Jeston Gang, wearing a mask, of course. At this time, more than a dozen Jeston Gang members fell to the ground in the huge factory building. The blood almost covered the ground, so Lin Rui was the real killer this time.

"Over there!"

As soon as Lin Rui appeared in front of everyone, he was surrounded the next moment. However, Jeston Gang members did not shoot this time. Everyone around Lin Rui was at least three meters away and the guns in their hands were shaking unconsciously. The dozen or so companions lying on the ground fully showed how powerful the man was in front of them and they heard that bullets were ineffective against him. Jeston Gang's members are just supporting actors today. They don't want to taste the power of the long blade in Lin Rui's hands.

At the same time, he did not put a dozen people around himself in his eyes. Lin Rui repositioned his blade and stood in one direction. In that direction, two guys, one tall and one short, who are obviously different from Jeston Gang, look at Lin Rui expressionlessly.

“Is he a ninja? Was it The Hand or some other organization that hired him?” When Lin Rui was surrounded, Stane, who was hiding behind the Jeston Gang members, looked at Lin Rui’s dress and muttered to himself.

No wonder he regards Lin Rui as a ninja, covered in black clothes (because dark gray looks almost black in the light), plus the mask that blocks most of his face. The main thing is the long blade in Lin Rui’s hand. It’s true that the blade used by Ninja is somewhat similar. Moreover, he attacked in smoke and he goes around in the shadows with great speed, which is just some of the characteristics of a Ninja.

“But why did he came to them for trouble?! Not to mention he is a Vigilante!” Stane shook his head again, feeling that his guess was somewhat unreliable. Next, he was not bothered and focused on the development of the situation in the arena. There, Lin Rui seems to have been confronted by the two ruthless people their boss invited.

Da Da ~

Da Da ~

On the court, the two expressionless guys who had stood outside the encirclement circle had crossed the crowd to Lin Rui and finally stopped two meters before him. And as they approached, Lin Rui kept staring at them, because he felt a greater threat from them than a dozen powerful guns pointed at him.

“What’s the origin of these two guys?! What was it that attacked me just now? Was it a hidden weapon?” Hidden under the mask, Lin Rui was already guessing the origin of the two people opposite to him. He was also curious about the weapons that had just attacked him. They were obviously weapons like darts, but Lin Rui couldn’t be distracted to look for them now.

“You are the target we came over for this time?” When Lin Rui looked at the two men in front of him, the strong bear like guy in front of him asked in a muffled voice.

“Target? Are you really targeting me? Although the bear man just said such a simple sentence, Lin Rui has roughly guessed what it is.

Lin Rui himself had been on a collision course with Jeston Gang. It was normal for them to find someone to deal with him, but Matt just happened to run into them first. But it’s also for his own reasons that Matt was captured, or Matt wouldn’t provoke the Jeston Gang.

“Did you catch my friend?” Lin Rui, who had probably figured out what it was, looked coldly and asked the two people in front of him.

“You mean the blind man? His strength is really good, but that’s it. Now he lies half dead in that container. If you have the ability, you can rescue him. Hearing Lin Rui’s cold words, the short man showed a sickening smile and pointed to the container behind him.

“If that’s what you want!”

Bang!

No more nonsense. He had to make sure that Matt was alright. They have also seen Matt’s true face so he needs to kill them all to protect him, He will kill them both no matter what their origin is.

As soon as Lin Rui's voice fell, his figure turned into a blurred shadow as he rushed towards the two men in front of him. His blade glowed from his internal powers as he used it.

"Roar!!" Although Lin Rui's speed is very fast, the two men in front of him are obviously not ordinary people. The strong bear like man just roared and rushed towards Lin Rui to attack him ignoring his blade!

"Snort! Since you are looking for death, then you are quite welcome here!" Lin Rui, who was rushing forward, did not expect that the other party would rush towards him, He swung his blade at the waist of the strong man. (By contrast with Lin Rui's height, he can only attack there.)

Whistling!

After practicing Soaring Dragon Art for more than a month, the internal energy accumulated in the body has been fully mobilized. With Hundred Refined Divine Weapon, Flowing Flame Blade in hand, Lin Rui can easily cut a strong man in front of him into two parts with all his efforts.

Puff!

In this way, Lin Rui's blade has split on the robust man instantly and made an unavoidable positive impact. The Robust man's clothes were instantly broken by the blade aura. After a muffled sound, the blade had cut through his skin and cut into his big body.

"Dead!" ~ Ah ~!?' Seeing that his opponent was directly hit by him without any evasion, Lin Rui thought he had killed at least one of them, but in the next moment, he found something wrong.

Squeak! Squeak

The sharp Flowing Flame Blade did cut into the robust man's body, but it did not go any deeper than ten centimeters, which was not fatal to the robust man's size. Lin Rui, who holds the handle of the knife, feels very real resistance. His knife did not cut the robust man's body and it also stuck, Lin Rui felt that he had not cut a human body but the body of a thousand-year-old tree!

"What the hell!?" No blood was seen from the wound cut by Lin Rui, who couldn't help but stare at it.

"Ah! Ah!!" The strong man who was stuck by Lin Rui weapon didn't bleed, but he was obviously injured. He slammed his hands towards Lin Rui's head. With his physique, if it connects, Lin Rui will have to use a protective symbol to keep himself alive.

Whirl!

At this critical moment, Lin Rui can no longer think about what's going on. A surge of strength poured all over the stuck blade in front of him.

Buzz! ~

Instantly, the stuck Flowing Flame Blade emitted a faint fire-red light, which broke the hard muscles joined together by the hinges of the blade body. This time, the wound finally bled with the destructive power of the internal energy.

“Ohh!!” Unexpectedly, he was injured by the man in front of him. The robust man gave a cry of pain, but he did not slow down the movements on his hands.

Rub! Rub! Rub!

Bang! Bang bang!

Lin Rui, who escaped the attack of the robust man, retreated to the empty space of the factory building and once again escaped the Jeston Gang crowd who fired their guns. Although they brought in strong foreign aid, it would be best if they could kill this fellow themselves.

However, Lin Rui obviously won't give them another chance. In the process of rapid movement, Lin Rui has thrown a lot of smoke bombs around again. Anyway, they are not worth the money they cost anymore. They are not very good to block the enemy's sight. But It's better than those bullets hitting him and consuming protective symbols. After seeing the thickness of the strong man's skin, Lin Rui also knows that it's not going to work out tonight.

Puff!

Puff puff!

“Retreat! Quickly Retreat!” Stane, who had been hiding behind, shouted nervously after seeing Lin Rui using his old skill. He didn't want his men to suffer anymore. Let those two non-human beings deal with this guy.

Da Da! Da da da!

At the command, the fight-free Jeston Gang rushed off and quickly retreated to the edge of the factory building to avoid the smoke. Looking at them, they shouldn't be doing any shooting later.

“Sure enough the smoke bombs were enough to frighten them! But how can I defeat these two strange people?! Several smoke bombs scared away the little soldier who wanted to fish in muddy water. Lin Rui's headache now was the two weird guys standing opposite to him.

Outside the smoke, the wound between the waist and abdomen of the robust man was still bleeding, and Lin Rui's internal energy transmitted by the blade was constantly causing damage to his wound.

“Ah ah!” ~ How dare you hurt me?’ Feeling that there was no improvement in his waist wound, the robust man stared at the smoke ahead and roared.

However, because of the smoke, he could not see the location of Lin Rui. And now he won't rush towards Lin Rui recklessly. His proud defense has been broken, which means that he is no longer invincible.

“Worm! Push him out!”

“I Know!” With a faint voice, the short man who had been standing behind the strong man finally came out.

He twisted his neck and looked straight into the smoke. The next moment, his eyes had a strange change, his entire eye quickly covered with a dark green color and his pupil is instantly reduced to a small point size.

“Heh heh! Found him!” Two seconds later, the short man’s rapidly rotating eyes stopped and then he raised his hands.

Ka Ka~

The sound of a bone piercing the skin came out in this space and it sounded extraordinarily creepy. The little man had a sharp bone spur coming out of his hands ten fingers. It looked frightening.

“This is!?” Of course, Lin Rui, hiding in the smoke, saw the change in the little man’s hands. His expression was frightened again, but it seemed that he remembered something.

Before Lin Rui could figure it out, the ten bone spurs on the little man’s hand had burst out of his hand, pointing directly at where he was hiding as if the little man could see him in the smoke!

Puff puff!

Ding Ding! ~

Some of them were avoided and the rest were blocked with his blade, but Lin Rui’s face was even more ugly.

“Mutants!”

Chapter 25 Mutants

Mutants!”

In the fog, Lin Rui, who escaped the bone spur attack said the words that represented a particular human group and he already knew what he had been attacked with before. It’s no use for Lin Rui to hide again as he has been already found. He slowly stepped out of the fog and reappeared in front of the other party.

“Roar!”

Boom! Boom!

After Lin Rui appeared, the little Mutant who could see through the smoke had already had ten bone spurs on his hands. As for the robust man who has been waiting for Lin Rui to appear has already slammed towards him and his speed has once again increased, he really looked like a humanoid tank.

As the humanoid tank rushed toward Lin Rui, the small mutants bone spur attacked again and the direction he attacked just blocked several directions that Lin Rui could dodge.

Huh!

Faced with Mutants whom he had never met before, Lin Rui looked calm and felt the internal energy of practicing Soaring Dragon Art. He grabbed Flowing Flame Blade and rushed out again against the bone spur coming from ahead.

Dang Dang!

Bang!

“Die!” The humanoid tank mutant, who had almost exploded with his maximum strength and speed, was about to hit Lin Rui, he was confident that the little fellow in front of him would be crushed directly under his violent impact.

Puff!

However, the blade in Lin Rui’s hand once again circled around him to ward off the bony spur attack and then he jumped into the air to escape the deadly impact of the humanoid tank. This is the advantage of flexibility, but also the disadvantage of large volume and high speed: The mutant is not flexible enough.

Bang!

Lin Rui was flying in the direction directly above the humanoid tank and kicked on his broad shoulder as he flew over the tank’s tall body. Although he did not do any harm to the big man below him, this was not his plan to begin with as he directly rushed towards the small man behind him at a faster speed. Although the humanoid tank has exploded at his maximum speed, there is no way that he is as flexible as Lin Rui. And Lin Rui did not intend to waste time on this humanoid tank. The little man behind him had a very low defense, so it would be better for him to defeat him first. At that time, even if the humanoid tank mutant still wants to entanglement with him, he will be able to relax, which is Lin Rui’s short-term strategy.

The humanoid tank stepped out of several holes on the ground and stopped quickly, but it was too late for him to come back and rescue the man named Worm. However, Lin Rui did not see the expression of the tank behind him. Although he tried hard to return, there was not a worried expression on his face.

Dang Dang!

Lin Rui, who rushed forward rapidly from mid-air, once again wielded his blade to block the bone spurs coming from ahead, which, although powerful, were still within the reach of Lin Rui.

Lin Rui, who had flown up to Worm, switched his blade in an instant and used his internal energy to wrap a special fire-red light around the blade that had previously broken through the tank’s defense. In order to be safe, Lin Rui directly exerted all his efforts. Since the other party was a Mutant that he did not know, there was no need to hold back at all.

Whirl!

Chi Chi!

The shadows of the blade moved with a gust of air and even the surrounding air was scorched and hiccupped. Faced with Lin Rui’s blade, which was enough to cut the humanoid tank, Worm’s eyes turned quickly again and the green light emitted by his eyes were even eerier.

Boom!

The next second, when Lin Rui thought he was going to hit, the blade light whistling down broke into nothing. The blade light was accumulated by most of his internal energy and it rushed out of the blade body and splintered into the concrete floor, directly splitting the hard ground out of a large pit and created a small explosion.

“What?!” His own full attack was actually avoided. Lin Rui was a little stunned even if he calmed down now. However, just at the moment when he was slightly stunned, a shadow had already rushed to him and an attack followed!

Puff puff!

A series of consecutive assassination attacks broke out in Lin Rui's body. He doesn't know when but Worm's bone spur pierced Lin Rui body and every part of his body turned into a weapon.

“Oh! Um!!” Lin Rui couldn't help but scream at the close-range attack. In the next moment, he quickly lifted the long blade toward the top of his head just in time to block Worm's next attack.

Whirl!

Bang!

A blasting noise was heard in the open factory building, and then a slightly confused figure came back from the center of the explosion. It's Lin Rui! At close range, he was repulsed by a seemingly weak Worm. Although there are unexpected reasons, it is enough to show the strength of Worm.

Teng!

The retreating Lin Rui stepped out several shallow footprints on the ground and finally stabilized himself. Then he stood still and didn't know if he was hurt and he retreated in a direction just far from the position of the humanoid tank.

Damn it! The protective charm was blown up directly! How is this guy faster than me!?” Lin Rui's face was hard to read as he stood on the ground. Although he was not injured, a protective charm on his body is already completely scrapped, It got used up in protecting him from the last attack.

Although Lin Rui seems to have fallen into a total disadvantage in the previous encounter, he was not injured because of Phantom Suit and the protective charm on his body. He was just in a bit of a mess. Moreover, Lin Rui already knows how Mutant, nicknamed Worm, avoided his blade. He must have the ability to explode rapidly and mutate in addition to bone spurs all over his body. He just doesn't know how long it will last and how fast it will last.

“Eh? You haven't fallen yet?! It seems that what they say about you being able to block bullets must be true, but I don't know if it's your ability or some kind of high-tech? While Lin Rui was thinking about countermeasures, Worm looked at him and unexpectedly said something.

“Hum! You don't need to worry about it! But when did you Mutants become Jeston Gang's fighter? With a snort, Lin Rui asked straightforwardly. He also meant provocative relationships. He didn't think the two Mutants in front of him were Jeston Gang members.

“We take the money and do business. No matter who you are, you are doomed to die here.” There are no other thoughts in Worm’s head because of Lin Rui’s words and he faintly responded.

“It depends on whether you have the ability!” It’s no use talking about it. To save Matt he has to defeat these two no matter the cost.

In the next moment, Lin Rui has disappeared with his blade in his hand again. This time, he has no intention of playing tricks anymore. He rushes straight towards Worm in front of him.

“Since you want to die so quickly, then I will fulfill your wishes!” Worm was irritated by Lin Rui’s words and he also disappeared from his original space as he rushed towards Lin Rui!

Bang! Bang bang!

Worm and Lin Rui fought against each other again just before the humanoid tank was ready to move in the rear. The sharp bone spurs and the light of the blade that Lin Rui waved shot out in the central air. These two fast guys were wrestling with each other and the humanoid tanks relying on his defense and strength could not get in for a while.

Pump!

Using his flexibility Worm avoided Lin Rui’s blade and stabbed Lin Rui several times at the key points but was still blocked by Lin Rui’s newly converted protective charm. However, if this goes on, Lin Rui’s Reward points will be used to exchange protective charms. Although his current Reward point can be converted into a number of protective charms, it is impossible for him to keep the charms in place when he is uncertain about the limits of the Worm mutation.

“System! Is there no way to restrain such a situation?! The long blade in his hand has been used for defense and Lin Rui shouted in his mind.

“That depends on whether you want it or not?” Lin Rui’s voice just fell and the calm voice of the system came out.

“Now that it’s all here, why wouldn’t I want it?” There’s no time, hurry up and tell me! “

“Since you are not as fast as him, you can only...” At the urging of Lin Rui, the system gives its own suggestions.

“Good! That’s it. Please change it for me! ” Communication in the mind only took a single moment and Lin Rui has decided.

Puff!

In reality, Lin Rui once again failed to block Worm’s assault and his second protective charm was broken. This time, he did not exchange new charm from the System Shop.

“Get Lost!” At the moment the protective charm was broken, Lin Rui circled Flowing Flame Blade around his circumference and pushed Worm out.

“Well?!” Worm, who was pushed back by Lin Rui, did not attack again but looked doubtful. On the last hit, he seemed to feel that the strange defense that had been blocking his attack had disappeared.

“Hoo Hoo!” Lin Rui drag the Flowing Flame Blade in half kneeling position on the ground and gasping for breath.

“Is this it? If that layer of defense disappears, you’re really going to die here.” Watching Lin Rui’s state carefully, Worm made a comment.

Boom!

Boom!

At this moment, the humanoid tank that had been watching the battle not far away finally found the opportunity to stride toward the semi-kneeling Lin Rui.

Hoo!

Feeling the humanoid tank rushing up from behind him, the exhausted Lin Rui suddenly stood up and grasped the Flowing Flame Blade with both hands, a layer of fire-red light reappeared on the blade. For the moment, Lin Rui injected all of his remaining internal energy into the Flowing Flame Blade. In the next moment, Lin Rui turned quickly and the blade in his hand circled half a circle and flew out instantly. The target was the head of the humanoid tank that was rushing towards him from behind.

“Er! Uh! You! ~...” The huge humanoid tank could not avoid the coming blade at all. He could only see the fire-red light in front of him pierced his forehead in an instant.

A sudden slowdown of the body in full forward motion followed by a pause. The humanoid tank weakly raised his hand and pulled them on his head twice, trying to pull out the blade that had been inserted into his head.

Whirl!

Boom!

The huge body swayed twice and finally fell down. At this point, The two mutants hired by the Jeston Gang to deal with Lin Rui, He had defeated one of them.

Chapter 27 Broken And Injured

Lin Rui, who suddenly stood up and threw the Flowing Flame Blade out did not look at the results but quickly turned back to face the front. But he was obviously late.

Titter!

The sound of a sharp blade piercing the skin and the muscles came from Lin Rui, Worm’s right hand has pierced Lin Rui’s stomach. Needless to say, the bone spur must have penetrated Lin Rui’s body. Worm, who had been watching Lin Rui’s condition, gave up Lin Rui’s fight against the humanoid tank and rushed back as soon as he turned around and threw the blade.

“Uh-huh!” Lin Rui, who was attacked by Worm, muttered. It was the first time he had been so badly injured.

Hoo!

However, at that moment, the already reacting Lin Rui grabbed Worm's arm with a cold and cruel look under the mask.

"No! It's you who is going to die!" With a low cry, Lin Rui grabbed Worm's right hand.

Kaka!

With a snap, Worm's right arm was broken by Lin Rui. Although there was little internal energy left in his body, Lin Rui's strength was higher than that of Worm.

Hoo!

After breaking Worm's arm and preventing him from shooting bones deep into his body, Lin Rui slapped him on the chest.

"Ah! Ah! Worm screamed as his right arm was broken and bone spurs had begun to appear all over his body.

"Go to hell!" Instead of letting Worm do it again, Lin Rui loosened his arm and put his foot in his chest.

Whirl!

Worm, who was just about to burst out with numerous bone spurs was kicked by Lin Rui and Lin Rui also stepped back quickly.

"Ah ah ah! I am going to kill you!" Worm was enraged as his right arm was broken and his chest was kicked, He shot more than a dozen bones spurs in midair.

"Hem! Blast! " However, the retreating Lin Rui said in a cold and low voice.

Bip!

"What?!" Worm, who had just landed on the ground, suddenly heard a strange noise coming from his chest. He looked down and saw something on his chest. He didn't know when but a metal disc the size of a beer bottle cap was added on his chest. At that time, it was shining red.

"No!"

Bang!

Boom!

In the next moment, Worm, who had already figured out what the thing on his chest was, shouted. At the same time, a violent explosion occurred in his chest. His figure was directly covered by the fire of the explosion and some broken limbs could be seen flying out.

"Who is the dead one now?!" Lin Rui, who avoided the aftermath of the explosion, muttered and then rushed quickly to the position where the humanoid tank fell behind him.

On the way to the humanoid tank's fallen position, Lin Rui waved and threw a few smoke bombs around him. Although he defeated the two Mutants, there are still a lot of heavily armed Jeston Gang members in this factory. Now he no more energy to deal with them.

Bang bang bang!

Lin Rui's figure was again shrouded in smoke and disappeared from the shocked eyes of Jeston Gang not far away.

"What shall we do? Stane?" Watching the black man defeat the mutants, Jeston Gang members, who were far away from him, asked Stane in horror.

"What to do?! Shoot! Shoot!" Stane, who was also frightened by Lin Rui's strength, roared, if they do not stop Lin Rui now, they would be killed one by one if they did not fight back.

Bang bang bang!

Da da da! Da da da!

Stane shouted and fired and every member of the Jeston Gang around him shot in the smoke. Instantly, countless bullets were fired into the smoke ahead, almost dispersing the diffuse smoke.

Da da da!

Despite the frightened movements of Jeston Gang members around him, Lin Rui in the smoke has taken his own Flowing Flame Blade and has come to the front of the container that held Matt. Without any hesitation, Lin Rui swung up and hit the container with his blade.

Sii!

The blade flashed and the hard container was cut open by Lin Rui. In the next moment, he had flashed in. Ten seconds later, Lin Rui jumped out of the container carrying a comatose man.

Lin Rui, carrying Matt, patted his waist and a rope with a metal hook rushed out of his belt instantly, shooting directly over the factory building. The metal hook was smoothly stuck in the slot in front of Lin Rui and in the next moment, Lin Rui quickly caught Matt from the ground and was pulled up.

"Up! Quickly! Shoot! Shoot!"

Bang! Bang bang bang!

Da da da! Da da da!

Puff! Puff puff!

The bullets hit Lin Rui and Matt, shaking their fast-rising bodies, but they couldn't really hurt them. As he rose to the top of the building, Lin Rui suddenly shook his hand and threw out several small metal balls, some of which hit the ground and some of them flew to the walls around him.

Da!

After this last step, Lin Rui and Matt finally landed on the roof of the factory building. Without any hesitation, Lin Rui carried Matt and left farther away.

Da da da!

Da da da!

Lin Rui and Matt's figure have disappeared from the top of the building, but the Jeston Gang members below are still unconsciously shooting at them, as if they were going to shoot the roof down.

There was no shadow of the man in black and Stane suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart. During the chaotic shooting just now, he seemed to see the fellow throwing something outside. He thought it was the same smoke bomb as before, but no smoke exploded.

"Not good! Run!!" Looking at the little things that had flown down from above, Stane finally saw the metal balls that had landed everywhere in the factory building. He remembered the sudden explosion of Mutant just now. Stane turned pale in an instant and then rushed towards the exit. He did not forget to warn others.

However, he apparently discovered it too late. Before he had rushed out two steps, there was a violent explosion all around the factory.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Kakaka!

The power of the explosion spread out in the sealed factory, the ground exploded and the walls cracked. The location chosen by Lin Rui just blew up the main structure of the factory building and in a shake, the whole factory began to collapse.

Bang!

Boom!

"Ah! Save me! "

"No! Ah! ~ "

In less than a minute, the 500-square-meter factory collapsed in loud noise and all of Jeston Gang's members were buried underneath.

"Huu! The power of this miniature bomb is really strong. It is no wonder that each of them cost 50 Reward points!" Lin Rui, who had already carried Matt to hide a hundred meters away, witnessed his masterpiece and muttered to himself.

"Ohh! It hurts!" It was only when he finally decided that everything is resolved that Lin Rui tried to relax, but he couldn't help crying out because of the severe pain that came from him.

In the battle just now, the system's advice to Lin Rui was to lure the enemy deep. Let Worm attack with his deliberate flaws. When he thought he could kill him with one stroke, Lin Rui instantly retaliated.

Although he finally succeeded in killing Worm, the bone spurs that have pierced into his body remained in his body, causing him constant harm.

“Ah!~” Endured the pain, Lin Rui closed his eyes and reached towards the wound and then there was a more miserable cry in the night.

Patter!

Patter!

With Lin Rui pulling out the bone spurs from his body, the blood that has been blocked in the wound is running out.! He quickly pulled out a special treatment spray that was exchanged from the System Shop and sprayed it on the wound.

Silk coolness came from Lin Rui’s stomach and blood from the wound slowly stopped gushing out. After stopping the bleeding, Lin Rui managed to treat his wound simply.

This time it was really dangerous!” Lying on the side of the road, Lin Rui sighed and muttered.

In this operation, Lin Rui consumed four protective charms. That’s 400 Reward points. And then there were the mini bombs that Lin Rui converted, seven of which were already 350 Reward points. As for the smoke bombs thrown out without any consideration in battle and the final automatic suspension rope also cost a lot of Reward points. With Lin Rui’s Flowing Flame Blade and allied arm guards, the cost of Reward points has already exceeded 1,000 points. To save Matt, Lin Rui bled heavily this time.

Glancing at Matt, who was still in a coma, Lin Rui did not feel much pain. Lin Rui thinks it’s worth spending more than a thousand Reward points to save his allies.

After dealing with himself, Lin Rui also gave Matt a simple physical examination. He found that Matt had many wounds all over his body, though not fatal, but shocking enough. It seemed that Matt had a very bad time these two days.

Puff!

Spraying some special treatment spray on Matt, Lin Rui didn’t plan to rest here again. There was such a big explosion at the front of the dock, which would surely attract the police. He would take Matt and leave as soon as possible. Simply clearing up the bloodstains on the ground and the bones, Lin Rui took out his cell phone and dialed a number.

“I am Mirage Knight, Matt is here with me but he is injured, where are you now?”

“Okay, I’ll be right there!”

Lin Rui hung up after speaking some simple words on the phone. Then Lin Rui pulled out the suspension rope that was fixed at his waist and wrapped it around Matt several times, which would make them both more comfortable when he left behind.

In the next moment, Lin Rui once again carried Matt in the darkness and soon disappeared into the darkness.

Shortly after Lin Rui left, harsh sirens and fire trucks came from the pier. New York police dispatched more than a dozen police cars and firefighters and ambulances rushed in after they found the wharf exploded. However, Lin Rui felt that their arrival did not help much. Under such an explosion, the Jeston Gang members inside would not survive.

Chapter 28 Poison

New York has a well-known urban dark area, Hell's Kitchen in Manhattan and it is here that Matt lives. Because of historical reasons, most of the poor people live here and gangs of all sizes are also active here. The crime rate is very high in this area.

Despite the expansion of Manhattan's business center in recent years, Hell's kitchen has been flooded with business leaders and the price of barren land is soaring. But this is not good news for local residents, many of whom have to sell their houses at a lower price and move away from the place where they have lived for most of their lives because of the coercion and lure of real estate development companies. One of the reasons why Matt and Kingpin have not dealt with each other is the forcible demolition of Kingpin's forces.

Matt, who is a lawyer during the day, provides free legal advice and help to many poor people in Hell Kitchen, most of which are about the cases of forced demolition and purchase of land and property. Those big business crocodiles just give them some money to get rid of the poor. But for those who were born and bred here, this is their root and not a place to be abandoned. The same is true for Matt, who grew up here so he will try his best to help them, although he will encounter a series of obstacles.

Matt has not always worked alone. As a lawyer, he had his good friend, Foggy Nelson, as a partner. At night, as Daredevil, Claire, a kind nurse, had been quietly supporting him. Now he has Lin Rui, a powerful ally, even though he was badly hurt this time by helping Lin Rui inquire about the Jeston Gang.

Matt has always lived in a large basement because of his special identity and blindness. In this way, he can practice with ease and he can calmly sense what is happening outside. Now, in that basement, a beautiful woman is walking around the hall, pinching her cell phone and worrying about it.

Just when the beautiful woman didn't know how many circles she had circled around the sofa, a noise came from the front basement door.

"Who is it?!" Claire suddenly picked up a long stick placed next to the sofa and asked nervously.

Whirl!

Da Da ~

"It's me, Mirage Knight!" With a heavy footstep, Lin Rui's voice came from the door. After calling Claire for the address, he finally returned Matt back.

Hoo!

"Ah! Matt!" Seeing Lin Rui come in with a comatose Matt on his back, Claire throws the stick out of her hand and rushes up.

“How is he?!” She asked as Lin Rui to put the comatose Matt on the sofa.

“He has been injured in many places, but I have already given him a simple treatment and those injuries will not continue to deteriorate. But he needs further careful treatment, I think you should be able to help with this. Ignoring Claire’s neglect of him, Lin Rui answered quickly.

“Eh! There are a lot of first aid medicines here. I’ll get them now!” As Lin Rui said, Claire had simply checked Matt’s condition and stood up and ran to the back of the basement.

Hoo!

“Ah!~ It hurts!” After Claire went to take the first-aid item, Lin Rui slowly made it down to the sofa and couldn’t help but scream.

On the road, carrying Matt on his back took a lot of effort. He had exhausted his internal energy in the fight at the dock, and his abdomen was punctured by the last blow of Worm. In fact, he was seriously injured. Low-Level Treatment Spray can only stop bleeding and promote body Recovery, but the wound Recovery is not ideal because of his intense movements. It was just a matter of importance. He couldn’t delay with Matt.

Hoo!

Opening the Phantom Suit, Lin Rui looks at his abdomen which was still bleeding and it seems that the wound has not healed well. What’s more, there’s a little black substance in the blood that’s oozing out now. Lin Rui didn’t notice the color change of his blood. His face covered by a mask was pale, which was not a normal phenomenon.

“Huh! It seems that I also need to rest!” Feeling the feeling of exhaustion from all over the body, Lin Rui sighed and leaned on the sofa to sleep.

Da da!

Da da!

And just as Lin Rui slowly closed his eyes and leaned toward the sofa, Claire, who had just run behind to get the first aid item, had run back. At the sound of footsteps, Lin Rui, who was about to fall asleep instantly woke up. He didn’t want Claire to see him when he went to sleep.

Claire, who was holding the first aid kit, quickly squatted down beside the sofa. As she was taking things out of the first aid kit, she suddenly looked towards Lin Rui.

“You are also hurt!?” Claire exclaimed as she saw the terrible black blood flowing out of Lin Rui’s abdomen and then came over and checked on Lin Rui.

“It’s Nothing~ My injury is nothing, you should treat Matt first...” With a hard wave, Lin Rui wanted to show that he was okay. But he did not know that he had no strength to wave now.

However, when Claire examined Lin Rui’s wound carefully, her expressions changed. Then she reached out to uncover Lin Rui’s mask to see his face and pupils.

Although Lin Rui was in a surprisingly bad situation at the moment, he subconsciously grabbed Claire's hand as she prepared to uncover his face.

"What are you doing?..." Lin Rui was tired and could hardly hold Claire's hand.

"I suspect you are poisoned now, I just want to see your face and eyes to confirm it." Claire hastily explained that she did not want Lin Rui to be misunderstood and cause him to become even more poisoned.

"Poisoning?!" At Claire's words, Lin Rui's spirit seemed to be in full swing, and his mind was instantly awake.

Then, after a little sensation of his physical condition, Lin Rui confirmed Claire's words, he was indeed poisoned! Worm's bone spurs were poisoned and the Low-Level Treatment Spray could only treat injuries, but could not detoxify them.

"System! Am I poisoned?!" Strongly refreshed, Lin Rui shouted quickly in his mind.

"Well, you did get poisoned." The answer is the system's indifferent voice as if Lin Rui's poisoning was a trivial matter.

"You!" Forget it, does System Shop have an antidote? There's no time to fight with the system, so Lin Rui quickly asked.

"Of course."

"How much? No, don't tell me, No matter how much it cost, quickly exchange it for me!" I already feel that I can't hold it anymore, Lin Rui said quickly.

Buzz!

As soon as Lin Rui's voice fell, a white light rushed out of the System Shop and finally disappeared into Lin Rui's mind. And Lin Rui also felt that there was something more in his belt, which should be the antidote.

Hoo!

After communicating with the system, Lin Rui reached hard to his waist and pulled out a small box.

"This is an antidote ~remember, don't..." As soon as the antidote was taken out, Lin Rui fainted before he had finished speaking.

Lin Rui lifted his right hand weakly and drooped down. The small box in his hand also fell to the ground but was caught by Claire halfway.

Holding a small box just taken out by Lin Rui, Claire looked at Lin Rui, who had fainted, with an odd face. She heard Lin Rui's last words, but she only heard the first half of Lin Rui's words. Of course, she didn't know the second half.

Open that ordinary little box with a small glass bottle filled with a light green liquid. According to Lin Rui, this should be the antidote to his poisoning.

“But what does he mean by the last thing? Don’t do anything? Did he tell me not to use it all? With the antidote in hand, Claire was still thinking about the last words Lin Rui said before he fainted.

This is the first thing that she can think of as a nurse. Maybe this antidote in her hands has a quantity requirement. But that’s not the last thing Lin Rui wants to say. He just wanted to tell Claire not to uncover his mask. He didn’t know how to use the antidote himself.

“Forget it! Let’s use half first! If he doesn’t get better then I will use the remaining half!” Noticing Lin Rui’s weakening breathing, Claire made a quick decision.

Then, taking a needle from the first aid kit, Claire skillfully pulled out the small glass bottle and absorbed half of the liquid in the syringe.

“I hope it works!” she quietly prayed.

Claire had stabbed the needle into Lin Rui’s neck with a slight noise. Next, instead of treating Matt immediately, she continued to observe Lin Rui’s condition.

It seemed that the needle that had just been pricked had worked. Within a minute, Lin Rui’s breathing slowly became strong and rhythmic.

Looks like you’re okay!” Observing the change of Lin Rui, Claire finally calmed down her anxious heart.

Since Lin Rui is fine, Claire turned to Matt. She didn’t want to uncover the mask of Lin Rui. Although she was curious, there are more important things. Claire just checked Matt, delayed by Lin Rui’s “sudden” poisoning, and now she’s just starting to give Matt some careful examination.

“Eh? How is this...” When Matt’s clothes were lifted, Claire was ready to be shocked, but the scene in front of her made her cry a little unexpectedly.

Matt did have a lot of injuries and there were many obvious injuries to bones. From these injuries, she can see that Matt must have suffered a lot in these two days. But Matt’s wound was more recovered than when Claire gave him a brief look ten minutes ago.

“It’s amazing!” Although she doesn’t know why Matt’s injuries were healing so quickly, Claire didn’t think about it and just sighed and then dressed the wound for him.

In fact, Matt’s wound recovery so fast because of his own strong physical fitness and Lin Rui’s Low-Level Treatment Spray. Although Low-Level Treatment Spray has no effect on poisoning, most of the wounds on Matt’s body are flesh wounds, just within its healing range.

In this way, Lin Rui’s rescue of Daredevil was not perfect, but it was completed. It’s just that he can’t go home tonight. He doesn’t know what reason he is going to give his parents when he wakes up.

Chapter 29 Awakening And Countermeasures

Dī dī! ~

“This way! This way!...”

“Why hasn’t the professional team arrived yet?!”

“Be careful! Don’t stand there!”

When Lin Rui returned to the basement with Matt, the wharf of the factory collapsed by him was finished. Police and special rescue teams were rushing to rescue the collapsed factory building quickly. Because this factory building is only a simple concrete steel structure, so this collapse is really thorough, gravel and steel mix together, rescue operations have not made much progress.

Kaka!

Bang!

While rescuers on the ruins were carefully checking the life signals below, something suddenly came out in the corner of the ruins, as if someone was knocking under a stone.

“Hey! Be quiet! Everybody shut up!!! The Captain of the rescue team, who have been paying attention to the situation, heard the tiny voice and quickly shouted.

Hoo!

In the next moment, the people still on the ruins have all stopped their movements and even the sound of breathing is suppressed.

Bang ~bang ~bang ~bang~

Finally, the rhythmic voice was heard by everyone.

“This side! Kurt! Come here and save whoever it is making that noise!” Quickly determining the position of the movement, the Captain waved a group of rescuers and told them seriously.

Then, the rescue workers around with the equipment had rushed in the next second.

“The rope is going down!”

“Be careful! Slow down! Slow down! Be careful!”

“Up! Come up!”

Huh!

Finally, after more than an hour of careful excavation, the rescue team finally caught the survivor below slowly with a rope.

“Hey! Lucky guy! Are you ok!?” Looking at the guy covered in dust, the rescue Captain asked with a smile.

“Huh~ I’m fine! However, I need to see detective Danny right away!” The rescued man did not feel very happy but suddenly began to say such a sentence.

The lucky guy who wasn’t crushed in the explosion turned out to be the newcomer to the Jeston gang who had been asking questions outside the Matt container, but it’s just a fake identity. He has another hidden identity. The lucky guy’s real name is Steve Wolf, he is an undercover cop sent to Jeston Gang and he has been collecting evidence on Jeston Gang’s unlawful crime.

While Steve was secretly investigating Jeston Gang, Lin Rui just appeared to be up against Jeston Gang and he was just sent to fill in the number of people involved in the operation against Lin Rui. Steve was also worried that the newly emerged Vigilante would be caught under Jeston Gang’s elaborate arrangement, and he was wondering whether to expose himself to help him. But in the end, he was almost buried under the ruins and died!

“This guy... is too fierce! However, the Jeston Gang has a relationship with the Mutants organization. This line is also very important!” Sitting in an ambulance and resting in a blanket, Steve looked at the ruins in front of him and thought to himself.

“Ah! Some of the reports have to be written!” Steve is a big shot at thinking about what happened tonight. Jeston Gang, the Mutants group, the blind Vigilante, and the guys who made such a big scene tonight.

Lin Rui did not know that there was an undercover police officer in the ruins of the dock when he had bombarded the factory. He was slowly waking up on the sofa in Matt’s basement because the toxins in the body had been solved.

Sha sha~

“Ahh ~ My head!” Moving down on the sofa, Lin Rui slowly wakes up and cries out, covering his head.

Although the poison in Lin Rui has been cleared up, Claire used only half of the antidote because she misunderstood the last half of Lin Rui’s sentence, so he is still weak.

“Eh? I am... In Matt’s basement!” Lin Rui, who was slightly awake, suddenly became alert and quickly scanned his surroundings, then determined his position.

He subconsciously touched his face and the mask was still there. “Claire doesn’t seem to see my face.” Lin Rui is a little more relaxed.

At this point, opposite Lin Rui, Matt was lying there as still as he was when he was rescued last night. But looking at the wounds that have been treated and the normal pace of recovery, it should not be a big obstacle. Claire fell asleep beside Matt, and it seemed that she was tired last night.

“System! System!” Lin Rui, who has recovered his energy, remembers what happened before and yells at the system loudly in his mind.

“What?” The sound of the system is still so lazy.

“What?! Why didn’t you tell me when I was poisoned last night? If it wasn’t for Claire would I be poisoned directly?!” Remembering last night, Lin Rui is very angry.

"First, I have no obligation to tell you these kinds of things. Second, even if you didn't take the antidote, you wouldn't die. Your physical fitness is enough to withstand this low toxin and you would have only taken a few days to recover." The system indifferent answered.

Lin Rui: "... You are ruthless! "

Huh~

Just as Lin Rui was yelling at the system, Matt on the opposite sofa had some movements and he seemed to wake up. Lin Rui quickly turned his eyes to Matt.

"Cough cough!" A cough signals Matt's formal awakening, but it also awakened Claire, who was sleeping beside him.

"Matt! You woke up!" Claire looked up quickly and shouted in surprise.

"Well, how did I get back?" Matt, who had just woken up, had apparently not sensed Lin Rui, who was opposite him and asked hoarsely.

"Yes....."

"Cough! Of course, I saved you." Just as Claire was ready to answer, Lin Rui could not help but be ignored and began to speak for himself.

"Ah! You woke up too!" Claire turned quickly when she heard a voice coming from behind.

"Well, if you weren't just focusing on Matt, I think you'd have seen me long ago." Lin Rui also joked lightly, apparently to see what Claire meant to Matt.

"This..."

"Mirage Knight? You saved me?" Just when Claire was embarrassed, Matt finally sensed the presence of Lin Rui and asked again.

"Who else? You were captured for helping me to inquire about the information of Jeston Gang. I certainly have the responsibility to save you back." Lin Rui said seriously.

"Matt, I called Mirage Knight. Two days after you disappeared, I was worried about you." Claire said at the side.

"If I knew that there were Mutants with the Jeston Gang, I wouldn't let you call Mirage Knight when I was in trouble." When he heard Claire, Matt said seriously. In fact, with the strength of Matt, without the two Mutants, Jeston Gang can't take him completely.

"What? Don't believe in my strength?" Lin Rui asked a bit uncomfortable when he heard Matt's words.

"I believe in your strength, but they were obviously prepared for you. I was worried that you will have an accident. I was captured alone. If you fall into it, it would have been bad." Matt looked in the direction of Lin Rui and explained earnestly that when he was tortured by Jeston Gang, he always hoped that Lin Rui would not come to rescue him.

“But you are still beyond my imagination! Didn’t you meet those two Mutants?” Finally, Matt asked curiously. In his estimation of Lin Rui’s strength, he would not be the rivals of the two Mutants.

“I did” It was very hard for me to save you, for which I paid a high price! ” Lin Rui answered with a serious face and opened his clothes to look at the wound on his stomach, but the healing was almost done.

“Thank you!” Since Lin Rui said so, Matt did not ask for details anymore, thanking him sincerely.

“No, I said it at the beginning, it was my responsibility.” He waved his hand and said indifferently. It’s good to save people back, and those Reward points that are spent will always be earned back.

“Right! Although you were caught by Jeston Gang this time, did you know anything before? Although it seems inappropriate to ask this now, Lin Rui doesn’t think Matt will mind it.

“Well, I met those two Mutants on the next day and before that, I had some information, including some recent transactions by Jeston Gang and the hiding places of some important people.” Sure enough, Matt did find out something useful.

“Good! Now that they have started targeting us, of course, we have to pay them back! I don’t believe they can send two Mutants to the stands every time they trade!” Lin Rui has consumed a lot of Reward points this time and he will get revenge for those reward points by beating down the Jeston Gang.

“That’s what I’m going to do!” Matt suffered a lot of injuries this time and his bad mood was already worse than that of Lin Rui.

“But are you sure no one else has seen your face? The people in that factory have been killed by me. I’m afraid your identity is no longer confidential.” Speaking of continuing to crack down on Jeston Gang, Lin Rui is now worried about Matt’s identity exposure. Vigilante, whose real identity is exposed is no longer safe.

“Do you think they’ll bother to check my identity when they catch me? I was dead in their eyes. So if you’re sure that everyone in that factory is dead, then I’m not exposed.” The corners of his mouth were slightly warped, Matt said as if he were laughing at himself.

“Are you sure?” Lin Rui still feels a little insecure.

“Do you think there is a difference whether my identity is exposed or not? Why not gamble?”

“That is also true.”

“Well, let’s talk about how to deal with Jeston Gang. Now that they have the means to invite Mutants, I don’t think it’s that easy to deal with them. Matt didn’t talk too much about his identity, so he turned the topic directly to something more important.

“Well, I think we need a careful plan now.”

Then, Lin Rui and Matt started a series of discussions on how to deal with Jeston Gang and made some feasible plans. Claire listened at the side, prepared coffee and some food for them and sometimes offered some opinions.

Unconsciously, a faint ray of sunshine came into the dark basement, and it was almost dawn.

"Eh? What time is it?" Seeing the sunshine coming in, Lin Rui suddenly asked.

"It's almost six o'clock," Claire replied after looking at the watch.

"Ah! What should I do? I have to go home quickly! There is still an interview today!" After hearing it was six o'clock, Lin Rui suddenly jumped up from the sofa and shouted.

Matt: "... He really forgot that Lin Rui was a high school student.

Claire: "... She didn't know that Vigilante had to interview.

"Let Claire take you back. you should be home by seven o'clock."

"That's all I can do! Hurry up! Hurry up! "

In this way, a few minutes later, Lin Rui was in Claire's car and headed quickly towards Queens.

Chapter 30 Interview And Obadiah

Hoo!

As the sun slowly rose, an ordinary white car stopped two blocks from Lin Rui's home.

"I'm going back first!" The car hadn't even stopped yet and Lin Rui had already jumped out of the co-pilot seat, running in the direction of his house and shouting at Claire in the car.

"Well, then... see..." Looking at Lin Rui's hurriedly disappearing figure, Claire, who was sitting in the car, waved at his back.

Lin Rui, who was running all the way, quickly got into an alley. When he came out again, he had changed back to the ordinary Lin Rui during the day and his Phantom Suit retreated into the wristband. It's still strange to wear clothes that cover the whole body in broad daylight. Lin Rui doesn't want to attract the attention of his neighbors.

And Lin Rui has already exchanged a set of clean clothes from the System Shop, which is the same as what he wore when he went out yesterday and changed them in the alley just now. The dress he wore last night had already been dyed red with blood and could not be seen by his parents. Dumping the bloodstained clothes, Lin Rui tidied up and hurried home. It's almost seven o'clock now. If he's lucky, his parents should think he's sleeping late instead of calling him in his room, so that he may have a chance to climb over the wall and enter his room.

"Hey! Jackson, it's rare to see you so early!" Just as Lin Rui hurried around his backyard, Uncle Kevin next door stood at the door and greeted him.

"Hello! Uncle Kevin, I am just coming back from jogging! Now I am going back to take a shower, well, I have to something urgently!" Greeting Uncle Kevin with awkward words, Lin Rui hurried home.

"Well, running in the morning is good! You..." Hearing Lin Rui, Kevin still wants to say something, but Lin Rui has quickly disappeared from his eyes.

“Young people nowadays! So impatient!” Looking at Lin Rui’s disappearance, Kevin muttered and then swayed out along the street with a big belly.

“Looks like Mom and Dad haven’t gone to my room yet!” Looking around his room, Lin Rui has used Insight Technique to observe his parents in the room.

They didn’t really look anxious. It seemed that they didn’t know what happened to their precious son, who had not returned all night. But while he was watching the house, his mother was already going upstairs. It looks like she is going to wake her sleeping son up.

Then Lin Rui jumped two meters high with instant strength under his feet.

Hoo!

Putting his hand directly on the edge of the window, Lin Rui rolled over into the room in the next moment. In a hurry, Lin Rui finally returned to his bedroom before his mother knocked at the door.

Bang Bang Bang ~

“Jackson, didn’t you say you were going to the interview for The Daily Bugle today? Are you still sleeping in? As soon as Lin Rui landed on the floor, his mother knocked on the door and asked.

“Ah! Mom! I’m already up!” With a promise, Lin Rui rushed over and opened the door.

“Eh? Why are you still wearing this dress? Just as the door opened, Lin Rui’s mother looked at his clothes and frowned.

“Eh? What’s wrong with this dress?” Lin Rui’s face suddenly became tense when he heard his mother’s words. Did my mother see anything? A dress that has not been changed! Lin Rui’s heart was beating like a drum in his chest.

“Now that you are going to the interview, you’re going to have to wear something formal. What would you do in your usual clothes? Don’t you have a suit that your grandfather sent you? Go and change into that.” Looking up and down at Lin Rui, his mother said these words seriously.

I thought... Lin Rui was relieved to hear his mother say so.

“Why are you still standing here?”

“Come on, breakfast is ready.” Smiling and patting her son on the shoulder, Mary turned downstairs.

After his mother left, Lin Rui closed the door again. Then he rushed into the bathroom. He really needed to clean himself up.

An hour later, Lin Rui, wearing a small suit, stood at his doorstep, his mom was finishing the collar and his father Lin Hai was watching.

“Well, it’s my son! Such a handsome man, Your interview will be very successful! ” Putting down her hands that tidied the collar of Lin Rui’s shirt, Mary proudly said.

"Mom, is it really good for you to say so much about your son?" Lin Rui asks embarrassingly when she praises him so much.

"What's wrong with this? Isn't it a fact? When I was young, your dad was a handsome man, too!! The answer came from Lin Hai, Lin Rui's father standing behind him, who seems to be very proud of his son.

"That you were, otherwise why would I even marry you?" Hearing Lin Hai's words, Mary smiled back and said to Lin Rui's father.

"Ah! My eyes! It's going blind!" In an exaggerated way, Lin Rui said he was blinded by his parents' love.

"Well, let's go now. I am just going to drop you by the Daily Bugle and see how is it. Not doing anything much in front of his son, Lin Rui's father patted him on the shoulder and went out.

Boom ~ bang ~ bang ~

Sitting on the car that Dad drove, Lin Rui waved outside the window.

"Mom, then I am leaving!"

"Well, I'll cook for you when you get back from the successful interview!"

"Certainly!"

Hoo!

More than twenty minutes later, Lin Rui's father stopped downstairs with him in The Daily Bugle.

"That's it? It looks okay, It's not very far from home. It's about four or five stops by subway. Observing the surroundings of The Daily Bugle, Lin Rui's father gave his comments.

"Do you want me to come with you?" Glancing at his handsome son, Lin Rui's father suddenly asked. After all, this is Lin Rui's first time to find a formal internship, and he worries that he will be nervous.

"No, Dad. I can manage it. Moreover, I have already passed the online interview, today is just to officially reporting. Laughing and refusing his Dad's offer, Lin Rui was really not nervous at all.

"Well, when you're done, go straight home and I'll go to work first." Since his son was confident, He would not insist on it anymore. He finally told Lin Rui to loosen his seat belt.

"Eh!" With a promise, Lin Rui got out of the car.

"Dad, goodbye!" He waved at his dad from the side of the road and strode toward "The Daily Bugle."

Ten minutes later, Lin Rui was chatting with the Marrs who was the editor in his office.

"Are you sure that's all you need is a week's salary?" Marrs, the editor of The Daily Bugle, once again asked the seemingly immature young man in front of him, who still thought his offer was too low.

"Well, I originally planned to train myself. So this much salary is enough." Lin Rui replied earnestly, he just wanted to approach Tony by the name of an intern reporter and he was not short of money.

"Then sign the contract and you'll be part of our Daily Bugle." Since the other party has asked, Marrs certainly would not give him a raise himself.

“Eh! Thank you very much! I will certainly work hard to get satisfying photos and news! At last, it was settled, and Lin Rui thanked him happily.

“That’s it. You go outside and find Haley. She’ll help you with some formalities. If you hurry up, you can go out with your camera to find materials today. Seeing Lin Rui’s excitement, Marrs waved his hand and said. He seems to be just a newcomer who doesn’t understand the news industry, Marrs thought silently.

“All right.” With a promise, Lin Rui went out. Today’s interview went very well, which is directly proportional to the reason why his salary was too low.

Twenty minutes later, Lin Rui came out of the building where The Daily Bugle was located with a file bag in his hand. The contract was signed and the internship press card was completed. Lin Rui is now a rookie journalist.

“OK! Questioning Tony should be on the agenda. But where should I find him? Maybe it would be better to start with Miss Pepper.” Walking slowly in the street, Lin Rui has begun to think about how to complete his mainline quest.

“But I still lack a camera. Fortunately, I have one at home, otherwise, I have to pay for it. Actually, I should be right to raise my salary. After two sentences of self-talk, Lin Rui headed for the nearest subway entrance. Today his most important thing is over. Let’s go home and rest first. He was tired all night last night. In the meantime, he was poisoned. Although he Recovered, he is still very tired.

As Lin Rui struggled to figure out how to complete the mainline quest, the top executive of Stark Industries-Obadiah Stane sat in a luxurious office in the high-rise of Stark Industries and was telling the two men standing in front of him what to do.

“In the near future, the military will invite Tony to experiment with the latest missile weapons in the Middle East battlefield and then my people there will do something about it. But before that, I want to cause Tony some trouble in the company. Sitting on an expensive leather sofa, Obadiah Stane said lightly.

“What do you mean?” One of the two people standing in front of Obadiah questioned somewhat doubtfully that he did not quite understand what Obadiah meant. Tony himself is not very concerned about the company’s business, or he won’t let Obadiah be the top executive. What’s the trouble to do here?

“The competent assistant beside him, Miss Potts, is very capable. Although Tony really doesn’t care, Miss Potts is not a simple person. I’m afraid she’ll soon see the problems in the company. Obadiah’s reminds them.
