Chapter 211 The Dust Settles

"Damn it!!" Watching Bucky fall from a dozen floors in front of himself, Lin Rui screamed with a very ugly expression on his face.

Then, regardless of the battle between the aircraft carriers and the Iron Man Armor outside, Lin Rui jumped out at the same time. He wants to save Winter Soldier Bucky. Such a good opportunity to remind Bucky of his past memory and getting rid of Hydra's brainwashing. Lin Rui won't give up so easily.

Whirl!!

However, just a second after Lin Rui had just jumped out, another missile from the mid-air battlefield outside the building blasted towards Lin Rui.

"I ~~ Fuc...!"

Boom! Lin Rui, who had just jumped out, had no time to curse and was hit hard by the missile.

Rumble!

Huh ~

Lin Rui, who was hit by an explosive shock wave, slammed into the wall, and his back sunk into the wall about five centimeters deep. The whole person was like a large pie stuck to the wall.

Kakaka! A few seconds after sticking to the wall, Lin Rui's body gave a sound as he gives a blast and jumps off the wall with a twist.

"Whew! How powerful is this missile!" Lin Rui, who has fallen to the ground, takes a long breath and mutters, clearly still apprehensive of what has happened.

Although Lin Rui upgraded the Phantom Suit's hot weapon defense to C Grade, it does not mean that he can defend against the attack of this powerful missile. Moreover, Lin Rui had a feeling of being targeted just now. It seemed that the missile was aimed at himself and it almost broke the defense of the Phantom Suit. This was abnormal.

"J.A.R.V.I.S, are you still there?" Glancing at the Iron Man Armors and SHIELD fighters planes outside, Lin Rui glanced and shouted suddenly.

"How can I help you, Mirage Knight." Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S's voice came through the headset.

"Do you know who was attacking me just now?" The Iron Man Armor team outside was under the control of J.A.R.V.I.S. Then the guys who attacked him were obviously those that were about to be shot down, so Lin Rui would ask J.A.R.V.I.S.

J.A.R.V.I.S was silent for a few seconds after Lin Rui asked this question, but he quickly replied to Lin Rui.

“Mr. Mirage Knight, depending on where you are now. The missile attack that occurred on your position has a 95% probability of being an accident.”

“Twice?” Lin Rui frowned again after hearing J.A.R.V.I.S.’s answer.

“Yes.” J.A.R.V.I.S.’s answer was as simple and straightforward as ever, and it seemed that it has calculated the trajectories and directions of the missiles.

“Ok, I see. Can you take care of these troubles outside as soon as possible.” Now that J.A.R.V.I.S. has said so, Lin Rui said as he suppressed the uncomfortable feelings in his heart.

Next, Lin Rui walked across the rubble in front of him to the corner of the wall that had been collapsed. Standing on the gravel and looking down the building, Bucky’s figure was completely invisible. Lin Rui doesn’t know if Bucky is dead or alive if he falls like this, but Lin Rui thinks that it is more likely that he would see him later. After all, Bucky also have very important roles in many Marvel movies.

“Forget it, there will always be a chance to find him in the future. And what I said just seemed to remind him of something, Bucky should not go back to find Hydra. I also asked J.A.R.V.I.S. to intercept his files so that no one else would find trouble with him.” Standing on the edge of the building and looking outside, Lin Rui thought silently.

Huh ~

A few seconds later, Lin Rui, in good spirits, turns away and heads back toward Captain Rogers’s position.

Captain Rogers wasn’t at the place where he had fought against the Winter Soldier. He and others went upstairs together after hearing from Natasha that Fury had been shot. Lin Rui also made it to the top after contacting Daredevil.

At this time, the Hydra affiliation of SHIELD headquarters has been basically resolved. Although SHIELD also lost a lot of agents, this result is already the best.

“Fury, are you okay?” Following Natasha to the conference room on the top floor, Steve saw Fury being taken care of by several members of the World Security Council, and the blood on his chest was especially noticeable.

But Natasha, who was standing behind Steve, blinked when she heard Fury’s words. She had checked Fury’s condition before and that shot hadn’t missed its mark but Fury was not dead and his wound simply looked like an ordinary gunshot wound. With the Winter Soldier’s marksmanship, it is impossible for him to miss, Fury’s situation is clearly not normal.

Although Natasha didn’t understand what happened to Fury, Fury knew it. Aside from the fact that he had a simplified version of the super-soldier serum that had been injected into his body, the most likely cause was the unknown liquid that Mirage Knight had given him to drink.

Since Fury woke up, he felt that his body is getting better every day. Not only has his previous injuries have been healed and he is now able to get quick treatment for a life-threatening gunshot wound. Fury wasn't about to say anything even if he knew that it might have something to do with Mirage Knight's unknown potion.

"That's good. Fury, our plan was successful. Alexander is dead, and members of Hydra lurking inside SHIELD have been wiped out!" Confirming that Fury's life is not in danger, Captain Rogers goes on to say seriously.

"Oh, I know. However, we also paid a high price." Fury said in a low tone.

Except for SHIELD's own manpower lost in the war and the destruction of the entire headquarters, the biggest loss for Fury was actually the decrypted data. To keep Hydra out of hiding, Fury had to do just that. However, this also makes many top-secret materials that should not be exposed to appear to the public, which is not good news for SHIELD.

"We will survive it and after this incident, I don't think that the World Security Council will put too much pressure on you, and maybe your plan will be easier to implement." Holding Fury, Captain Rogers continued and looked towards the frightened members of the World Security Council.

"Of course! We now fully support Director Fury's decisions. The formation of the Avengers Alliance has become necessary. However, there are still some details that need to be discussed before that." Facing Captain Rogers, the members of the World Security Council immediately expressed their positions.

However, although they now say that they will support the Avengers Alliance, they have not said anything. After all, SHIELD has been infiltrated by Hydra for so many years, and now it has cost so much to clear this tumor out. The World Security director will certainly no longer trust SHIELD as before. The focus of their subsequent discussions may be on the supervision of SHIELD, especially these superheroes who are far superior to the ordinary people. Of course, these things will not be spoken by them in front of Captain Rogers.

Hearing the words of those members of the World Security Council, Lin Rui who stood in the doorway didn't go in. These politicians at the top of the world only think about their safety when they are in danger. Once the danger is over, they will start to think about how to maximize their power to ensure their future safety.

"Daredevil, there is nothing more to do here, I will leave first. Also, if Captain Rogers asks about that Hydra's killer, you can tell him that I didn't catch up and he got away." The matter has been resolved and Lin Rui doesn't want to stay here for a long time. He told Daredevil and walked out silently.

Mirage Knight's departure was noticed by Captain Rogers but he did not prevent it. Mirage Knight's position has been made clear before as he was only helping SHIELD deal with Hydra, and that it had happened, it is normal for him to leave.

Chapter 212 Loki

When the whole world was shocked by the information released by SHIELD, Lin Rui calmly left the SHIELD headquarters and returned to his uncle's home in Washington.

Lin Rui, who cooperated with SHIELD this time to deal with Hydra did not expect it to go so smoothly. He did not take any action except to save Fury with a vial of Elven Holy Spring Water. At this time, Lin Rui's mainline quest to eliminate Hydra's has reached 34% completion. Only one latent Hydra member eliminated in SHIELD has already completed Lin Rui's mission by one third.

Seeing the completion of the quest in his mind, Lin Rui thinks that the meaning of the mainline quest should not be to complete the quest by destroying all Hydra members in the world but to destroy the main force of Hydra. This should be good news for him.

The matter of SHIELD and Hydra has come to an end and only five days had passed. As for his remaining two days left in Washington, he can just go to see Thor. Lin Rui thought and he pulled out his phone.

It's been a month since he separated from Thor in New Mexico, and Thor has also contacted Lin Rui several times during this time, but most of the time Thor is complaining about his habit of living on Earth. Recently, he hasn't complained much. Maybe he is getting used to it.

In addition to Thor, Darcy had also contacted Lin Rui. After knowing that Lin Rui, a handsome mixed-race man was not only handsome but also had a close relationship with Iron Man Tony Stark, she became even more enthusiastic about Lin Rui, which made Lin Rui feel a little overwhelmed. So, before Lin Rui went to see Thor, he had to make sure that Darcy wouldn't show up, otherwise he would rather not see Thor.

Soon, Lin Rui got through to the phone he had called Thor before.

"Hey! Jackson, I haven't heard from you in days." As soon as the phone was connected, the rough voice of Thor came from that end. Listen to his tone, it seems that he is living well, he seems to have gotten used to the life of the earth.

"Thor, listening to your tone, it looks like you're happy. Why, have you made any progress with Miss Foster?" Lin Rui, holding the phone, raised his lips slightly, then asked lightly.

"Well, this, there is progress. However, I am happy because I have found a new job now, so I don't need Jane to support me anymore." Thor said proudly when he heard what Lin Rui said.

The grand prince of Asgard even had to depend on a woman to pay for his foods and comfort. If Odin knew it, maybe he would directly kill him with a lightning strike. But Lin Rui was not surprised at all, because he was used to it.

In the beginning, Thor was unaccustomed to life on Earth, and claimed to be the proud prince of Asgard. So when Jane Foster called Thor out for a job for the first time, he was unwilling to do it.

However, after realizing that he would not be able to return to Asgard in a short while, Thor who got left behind on earth was really embarrassed after being raised by a woman. Although as long as Thor is willing, SHIELD is willing to accept him. However, Thor will obviously not choose SHIELD. For the SHIELD organization, Thor still trusts Lin Rui's words from earlier. Moreover, he did not want to be studied as an alien.

Lin Rui is very happy to see Thor living well on the earth. Only when Thor has more attachments on the earth will he be able to make the efforts when the earth is in danger in the future. Of course, it would only be possible if Thor can regain his powers back. Otherwise, he's just a slightly better alien.

"I'm a librarian at Jane's school library. I help sort out books and stuff. It's easy and it's not much but at least it's a job" Thor on the other end of the phone replies somewhat sheepishly as he clearly feels that his current job is not up to the table. However, for an alien to find a job on earth is pretty good, and Thor doesn't have many choices.

"Librarian?" Lin Rui was speechless when he heard Thor's answer to his job. He doesn't know how Miss Foster was able to get Thor into the library of their school. This kind of work is generally distributed to the students in the school to earn work credits.

"That's pretty good too. By the way, I'm in Washington now. Will you be free in the next two days? I'll come and see you." Although there were so many words in his heart, Lin Rui wouldn't say them and after asking Thor about his work, he went down to the business.

"Really! You're in Washington? I'm free. Even if I'm busy at work, you can come to me." Hearing Lin Rui said he was now in Washington, Thor said with some joy.

"Well, I'll go to see you tomorrow, say hello to Miss Foster for me."

"Ok."

Then Lin Rui talked with Thor for some time before hanging up the phone.

Ever since Thor returned to Washington with Jane Foster, Asgard hasn't sent anyone over to Earth and seems to have forgotten their great prince. Or maybe the frontline battlefield is grim, and Thor will be ignored for a while. Either way, Thor is going to stay on earth for the time being.

"Thor, how can I help you regain your power? How can I ensure that you are willing to protect the earth and become the guardian of the earth after gaining your powers back?" Lin Rui, who hung up the phone, muttered secretly while lying in bed. This is something Lin Rui was thinking about when he saw Thor.

Thor's strength in Marvel World should be one level higher than the Hulk, perhaps even stronger, and that is unreasonable super strength. Since Lin Rui had acquired Thor's friendship from the beginning, it would be unreasonable not to tie such a powerful man/god to his team. SHIELD? Avengers Alliance? With Lin Rui stepping in, Director Fury can't find many people joining the Avengers.

"Forget it, one step at a time. Since Odin exiled Thor to earth, he should be confident that Thor can regain his power here. After all, Thor was his own son and even Loki didn't betray them and they can get along with each other, Thor won't remain as a mortal on earth forever." With this in mind, Lin Rui meditates and falls asleep.

As Lin Rui slept in his uncle's house in Washington, Kamar Taj welcomed a special guest.

"Welcome, Prince Loki of Asgard." In the residence of Kamar Taj, a young disciple looked at the handsome man in front of her and said.

“Thank you, Young sorcerer (s). I wonder if Ancient One is free now? I want to see her.” With a smile, the handsome young man looked at the young sorcerer in front of him and asked in a soothing tone.

That’s right, This beautiful young man dressed in gorgeous vintage clothes is Loki, the second Prince of Asgard. It is not known how he came to be on earth, and instead of looking for his brother Thor, he came to the Ancient One, who had been guarding the earth from the demons of other worlds.

“Prince Loki, Ancient One already knows of your arrival and will be here soon.” Facing Loki’s question, the young sorcerer answered softly.

In fact, as the Orthodox organization united down by Agomoto thousands of years ago, the Sorcerers on the earth will not be weaker than the magical Sorcerers of Asgard. However, in addition to being the prince of Asgard, the most important reason for the Young Sorcerer’s respect for Loki is that he can feel the powerful magic power of Loki, and he is far from being his opponent.

“Well, I’ll wait here.” Upon hearing the reply, Loki politely sat down on the floor of the living room. The young sorcerer also sat down and poured Loki a glass of water.

Loki was sitting for two hours, and what the young sorcerer had said on his arrival now seemed to be bullshit. Just when Loki was about to lose his patience and politeness, there was a sound of unhurried footsteps from the back of the living room. Loki and the young sorcerer who was sitting turned their eyes towards the sound.

Chapter 213 Meeting

“Ancient One.” The young sorcerer named Yun Meng said first when he saw someone coming out from behind.

After Yun Meng said that sentence, the middle-aged woman who came out from behind had also stepped in front of them. Unlike the film in which she had a bald head, Ancient One in reality not only has thick hair but also looks beautiful. Although she looks like a middle-aged woman, her eyes reveal a thick sense of vicissitudes.

Call!

Seeing Ancient One appearing in front of his eyes, Loki quickly stepped off the ground and stood up. Faced with such a big sorcerer whose strength and status are not under his father, even the proud and charming Loki had to treat this situation with caution.

“Prince Loki from Asgard, what brings you to earth?” Calmly looking at the second Prince of Asgard, the Ancient One asked quietly.

According to the agreement between Odin and Ancient One, Asgard must pass through Ancient One if they want to get involved in the matters of earth. Like last time Loki when bullied Thor with the Destroyer in New Mexico, it was considered to be over the line. However, the last incident did not cause much harm and Ancient One didn’t mind it much but that did not mean that she would allow Loki to do things on Earth again.

“Ancient One, I’m here for one thing and want to ask for your help.” Facing Ancient One’s cold attitude, Loki continued without hesitation.

“Oh? What is it that couldn’t be solved by Odin, the Lord of the Gods?” Ancient One’s mood fluctuated slightly when she heard Loki’s words.

“Is that the guy who was exiled to Earth by Odin?” Although Odin exiled Thor to Earth without saying anything to Ancient One, the Ancient One obviously knew about it. But this matter is irrelevant and Thor is deprived of his power so the Ancient One didn’t really care about this matter.

“Yes, Thor is being punished by my father and was exiled on Earth because he made some mistakes. But Thor is the Prince of Asgard after all, so my Father hopes that you can take care of him during his stay on earth. You may also know that Asgard is going through a war. Dark Elf’s shadow appeared shortly before the battle with Frost Giant. We have no energy to care about the Earth for now. “Without beating around the bush, Loki said directly.

“Take care of Thor? When did I become a nanny for Asgard?” Ancient One asked politely, ignoring the tense war situation on Asgard.

Odin dumped his son on Earth and the Ancient One ignored it as it didn’t harmed anyone. But for him to tell her to take care of Thor now. Really?!! Also, with Asgard’s strength, Frost Giants are not their opponent at all. Even if Dark Elf intervenes in the battlefield, as long as Odin takes to the battlefield, it would not be a problem to defeat them. However, Odin, as the Lord of the Gods, will not appear on the battlefield at will, which is where Ancient One can’t get used to Odin.

“No! No! Of course not! You are respectable and powerful sorcerers, my father wouldn’t dare to think so. In fact, you just need to send someone from time to time to check upon him. After all, Thor is reflecting on earth and not on vacation. To that end, I also brought enough sincerity with me.” Seeing the change in attitude, Loki quickly explained, taking out his present. No One would dare to think of Ancient One as a babysitter.

Half an hour later, Loki left Ancient One’s residence under Yun Meng’s leadership. Standing on the crowded street that led to Kamar-Taj, Loki turned his right finger and disappeared, while the people around him turned a blind eye to him.

“Loki, Thor, Odin’s two sons are not that easy. However, the first chamber of the earth ... Ah ...” In the empty living room, Ancient One sat on the ground and sighed softly.

On the desert outside Puente Antiguo, New Mexico, USA. Since Mj?lnir fell here more than a month ago, now this place has been completely protected by SHIELD, and it seems to be a first-class research base.

While fighting with Hydra at the SHIELD headquarters in Washington yesterday, this first-level research base also carried out a cleaning operation. A large number of Hydra’s hidden agents were cleaned out. Recently, Mj?lnir’s protection has been tightened. However, their heavy protection seemed to have no effect on the guy who appeared next to the Mj?lnir.

“Mj?Inir, Mj?Inir is now left here to be studied by these ignorant earthlings.” Standing beside Mjolnir, Loki looked at the famous divine tool and said to himself.

“My stupid brother doesn’t know when to pick you up again. Are you disappointed in him?” Loki asked, looking serious as if he thought Mjolnir was a friend. But there was no response from Mjolnir which was stuck on the ground.

Huh ~

At this moment, several guys in white research clothes suddenly walked in from behind Loki. They were obviously the ones responsible for studying Mj?Inir.

Call!

The researchers seemed to hold back after Loki hummed coldly, then turned around and left here at the same time, as if hypnotized.

Weston Landing University in Washington. Although this school can’t be compared with some of the world’s famous schools like Harvard and MIT, it is also a very good university in the United States. And early this morning, Lin Rui walked into this university like an ordinary student, Jane was in this school, and Thor was certainly in the school’s library.

“There is really a big gap between this kind of university and high school.” Lin Rui sighed in his mind as he walked down the wide walkway of the campus. Not to mention the Empire State High School in New York, where Lin Rui is still studying, even the university he attended in his previous life in China is no match for this one.

Although Lin Rui looks a little younger than an average college student, he doesn’t get much attention on the way. At best, he looks like a visitor. After all, open universities like these in the United States are visited by many tourists every day, not many people pay attention to them.

After a brief walkthrough Weston Landing’s campus, Lin Rui walked towards the library as Thor should be at work at this time.

“Hello, excuse me.” Just after Lin Rui lifted his feet and took a step forward, there was a somewhat unskilled greeting behind him, in English.

Lin Rui turned around in confusion, and then he saw two young Asian girls smiling and looking at him, apparently they had just greeted him. After a little judgment, Lin Rui guessed that the two should be here on travel.

Looking at their looks, these two girls should be from China, but now there are many people who look like them in the states so Lin Rui can’t be sure. So Lin Rui also answered in English: “Hello, can I help you.” He asked as simple as possible.

"That ... This ... Xiao Xin, how do you say cafeteria in English? I suddenly forgot!" At Lin Rui's words, one of the two girls was about to answer, but she suddenly forgot the word and asked her friend for help.

However, just when the girl was about to answer the question, Lin Rui had spoken again, and what the girl said in a whisper and the language had made Lin Rui sure that they were from China.

"Are you going to the cafeteria?" In front of the surprised eyes of the two girls, Lin Rui spoke out with standard Mandarin.

"Ah! You are also from China!" Hearing the standard Mandarin spoken by Lin Rui, the girl who had forgotten her words said happily.

When they were walking on the road before, they were looking for passers-by who looked like Chinese, and finally chose Lin Rui. However, after noticing that Lin Rui was half Chinese, they also knew that Lin Rui had a low chance of being from China, so they said hello in English. Now that Lin Rui spoke in standard Mandarin, they were certainly very happy.

"Well, I am Chinese but I was born here." Nodding with a smile, Lin Rui answered. Speaking of which Lin Rui is an American now, after all, he was only a Chinese in his previous life.

"It's almost the same, but your Mandarin is so good!" Hearing Lin Rui's words, the obviously lively girl said with a smile. Although Chinese people living in foreign countries generally speak Mandarin, they are generally not very standard, and some people do not speak Mandarin at all.

"Thank you, are you going to the cafeteria now?"

"Yes! Yes! We want to see the difference between the cafeteria here and our country!"

"Then let's go together. I just came over from there."

"Hey! Thank you! We are so lucky!"

At this point, Thor, who was standing in front of the library, said: "Why hasn't Jackson arrived yet? Didn't he say that he was already here? Did he get lost?"

Chapter 214 Interesting person and ~~ accident!

More than an hour later, Lin Rui, who accompanied the two Chinese girls to a simple bite to eat in the cafeteria, led them to the library. They finally met a young man who spoke mandarin and was of Chinese descent and the two girls couldn't see any difference between him and any other Chinese who has lived in the country. They asked Lin Rui to show them around the school and Lin Rui, of course, didn't mind. It's just a small thing. The main thing, of course, is that both girls are pretty good looking.

"Well, the school tour is almost done." Stopping at the entrance of the library. Lin Rui looks at the two Chinese girls in front of him with a smile.

"Well! Thank you very much, Lin Rui! If it hadn't been for you, we wouldn't have known anything that mattered!" "The lively girl from the very beginning said happily.

All the way up to now, Lin Rui had been helping them and he also knows the names of the two girls. The more lively girl's name is Chen Xiaolin, and the quieter girl's name is Wang Xin. These two girls are college classmates and they took a vacation together during the holiday.

In fact, even without the help of Lin Rui, they can play very well, although Chen Xiaolin's English is not so good but Wang Xin's English is quite good and having an ordinary conversation is no problem for them. It's just, of course, easier to speak to with a "local" like Lin Rui.

"You're welcome. It was no problem. I heard that your next stop is to go to the museum. I have some things to do at school and I won't be able to go with you." With a smile, Lin Rui said indifferently.

"We have already taken so much of your time, so we won't take any more." Wang Xin said, she is obviously not as careless as Chen Xiaolin.

"Oh, it was nothing. The exit is in that direction, as you remember. Then I'll go." After a few final words, Lin Rui walked off in the direction of the library. He had already spotted a big man coming here from that direction and it would have been very upsetting for Thor to know that he had stood him up for talking to girls.

"Goodbye!"

"Goodbye." Both Chen Xiaoling and Wang Xin smiled and said goodbye to Lin Rui.

After Lin Rui's back has been more than ten meters away from them, standing at the intersection, Wang Xin's eyes slightly flashed and at the same time she also secretly whispered: "He is really an interesting person."

"Xiao Xin, let's go. I hope I can meet Lin Rui in the next few days. Alas, it is not easy to meet such a passionate Chinese guy in a foreign country." When Wang Xin looks at Lin Rui's back, Chen Xiaolin beside her says regretfully as she had obviously liked Lin Rui.

"Well, come on. As for Lin Rui, maybe we'll meet him again." After a simple yes, Wang Xin turns around. Chen Xiaoling is just joking. In such a big country, there is no chance for them to meet each other again. They don't even have each other's contact information.

"Ah, Xiaoxin, weren't we going to go to the library to see it? Why did you change your schedule?" Chen Xiaolin asked curiously when she left with Wang Xin.

Wang Xin walking on the road while vaguely answering the questions of her good friend, but the two of them have already gone outside. However, none of them turned around and saw a big tall man appearing in front of Lin Rui. He seemed to be looking for Lin Rui.

"What an interesting pair of girls." When walking towards Thor in front of him, Lin Rui also thinks in his heart silently.

"Hey! Jackson, why are you here so late?" Thor is already striding towards Jackson, shouting loudly before he reaches him.

Call!

"Is it because of those two girls?!" Taking a few steps and reaching in front of Lin Rui, Thor's eyes motioned to the two girls who had already gone.

"Uh ... yeah, they came here to look around. I took them to school for a while, so it took a while." Now that Thor had seen them, Lin Rui didn't hide it and admitted to it.

"Took a while? I've waited for you for more than an hour!" Although that was the case, Thor wasn't really angry, he was just bored in the library.

"Well, I'll make it up to you. Now, show me where you work." Knowing that Thor is not angry, Lin Rui says with a smile.

"Well, that's more like it." With that, Thor takes Lin Rui to the library.

He followed Thor into the library of the university, and the service desk was on his left-hand side. Thor's working area was a little behind the service desk.

"Is this where you work? It looks good." Lin Rui said while glancing at a table and a chair in front of him.

Should I find another job for Thor? But he can't do anything now, even if he has a job. After seeing Thor's current work, Lin Rui can't help thinking about it silently in his heart.

"I know it's a simple job, but I'm not familiar with some of your things right now, so I can only do simple things." Although Lin Rui says it well, Thor also knows that this job is not worth showing off.

Speaking of which, Lin Rui is surprised that Thor, the Prince of Asgard, can get used to life on earth so quickly. Jane Foster is not rich enough to give Thor the life he enjoys. Even if she could, Thor would not like that as he would hate to freeload. Relying on women is not acceptable for any man on any planet, and more so for Thor who is a Prince.

"Still thinking about Asgard?" Standing against the wooden table, Lin Rui looks at Thor and asks.

"Of course I still do, but it's no use thinking about it. Even if the war is intense at the front, it won't help me if I am stuck on earth." Hearing Lin Rui's words, Thor responds with a flash of gloom in his eyes.

After living on the earth for such a period of time, Thor probably figured out that Odin should not have exiled himself for pure punishment. This is supposed to be a test for him, but even if Thor has figured it out, it's another matter for him to do anything about it. Therefore, he can only safely live on the earth. He usually just talk with Jane, eat some junk food from the earth, and work hard to earn some money in the library. This is not a bad life for Thor either but it is nothing compared to his previous life as a God in Asgard.

"Well, it's best if you think like that. Maybe, when you have lived here for a long time, you will fall in love with it." Hearing Thor's answer, Lin Rui says with a smile.

If Lin Rui wants to tie Thor completely to the chariot of protecting the earth, it is not enough to make Thor fall in love with the people here, he must be willing to make a sincere contribution to the safety of earth. After all, Lin Rui can't guarantee how long Thor and Jane Foster's love affair will last.

“Well, I’ve fallen in love with the food here. By the way, didn’t you just say you wanted to make it up to me? Take me to lunch. There’s a fast food restaurant just outside the school that has a new super burger. I hear it’s delicious.” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Thor answers with a smile and then speaks to Lin Rui as if remembering something.

“Er ... Of course, you can have dinner with me. But have you been eating them all these days?” Thor’s request means nothing to Lin Rui, but he suddenly notices something and asks in a strange voice.

“Not all the time, I suppose, but five or six times a week. The fast-food tastes good and the price is not too high. Jane has a lot of things to do at school, especially when she confirmed the Bifrost theory last time, which made her research even crazier, and no one cooks for me at home.” Hearing Lin Rui’s question, Thor answers as a matter of course.

“You ...” After receiving Thor’s answer, Lin Rui’s face was twitching involuntarily. No wonder he saw Thor’s body shape change slightly this time. Just when Lin Rui was about to say something, his face suddenly changed and he reached into his pocket.

Card!

But before Lin Rui’s hand reaches into his pocket, a faint sound is heard. Then Lin Rui stopped his hand, and his whole body seems to freeze.

Chapter 215 Lin Rui’s Fear and Change

Of course, Thor sees this strange reaction of Lin Rui. Just as he is about to ask Lin Rui aloud what happened, the empty space around Lin Rui shimmered and a person suddenly appeared out of thin air next to him, a person Thor is too familiar with.

“Loki! What are you doing here? What did you do to Jackson?” Thor asked in a surprised voice when he saw someone suddenly appearing in front of him.

That’s right, the man who suddenly appeared was the god of lies, the second prince of Asgard and the younger brother who grew up with Thor in Asgard: Loki. Loki, who suddenly appears in front of Thor, is no longer dressed up in Asgard style cloths, but in a refined suit available on earth, looking very smart.

Loki did not answer Thor’s question and he looked at Thor up and down.

“Is that how you treat your life in exile? Falling in love with a little earthling and be the librarian in this little library?” Loki looks at Thor and said sarcastically. But there was an unexpected sense of frustration in those words and Thor has no idea what Loki meant.

“What does it matter to you how I live my life?! Also, what did you do to Jackson? Hurry up and let him go!” Thor obviously didn’t hear the meaning in Loki’s words but felt that his brother was looking for opportunities to hurt him again and he ordered Loki to let Jackson go. He seems to have forgotten that he is now a mortal, and if Loki wants to do something to him, Thor could do nothing against him.

In Loki's opinion, except for some special beings such as Ancient One, all other beings on earth are like worms to him. He is god and supreme to these earthlings. However, as Loki finishes his sentence, his otherwise flat expression is taken aback and he turns to look at the motionless Lin Rui beside him.

Seeing Loki's movements, Thor also looks worried at Lin Rui. He knows that Loki's magic power is very strong and he is the best in the whole Asgard. If anything happened to Lin Rui, he would feel really feel guilty.

Card!

When Loki and Thor both looked at Lin Rui, a sudden sound came from the wooden table behind Lin Rui, and a crack quickly spread from the place where Lin Rui was leaning to the entire wooden table.

Call!

Seeing that the wooden table was completely broken because of the numerous cracks that suddenly appeared, Lin Rui, who had been fixed in place, took a step forward like a drowning man grasping at a straw. After Lin Rui took that step, the wooden table behind him broke into pieces in a second.

"Whoop!! Taking a step, Lin Rui instantly recovered, then stood with his legs half bent and gasping for air.

The ten-second time just now was the most terrifying ten seconds that Lin Rui has experienced in his life. Before Loki appeared, Lin Rui suddenly feels a movement coming from the Guardian Amulet in his pocket. Before Lin Rui can figure out what is causing this movement, the guardian amulet suddenly breaks, and his whole mind and body were locked in place.

Although he was still awake in his sea of ??consciousness, Lin Rui could no longer sense the situation outside. Lin Rui was almost frightened by this sudden situation, and then he broke through the mysterious power that trapped his consciousness. In the end, Lin Rui's mental strength was almost exhausted before he finally broke through that layer of strength, and finally made his consciousness return to his body and was able to perceive the outside world again.

However, after breaking through the blockade of his consciousness, his body still had no recovery power. The power just now had not only confined his consciousness, but also his body. Therefore, while listening to the dialogue between Loki and Thor, Lin Rui tries to mobilize his strength to break through the shackles that were binding his body. In the end, it took him almost 10 seconds to break free, but he also consumed nearly 90% of his internal energy. That's why he looks so tired and weak.

However, what shocked Lin Rui most was not the horror he had just experienced, but the man standing next to him, Loki. In Marvel movies, Loki is a villain. However, the strength of Thor and Loki is greatly reduced in the movies, which makes people feel that they are not very strong, which is not the truth at all.

But after what just happened, Lin Rui can tell everyone responsibly that Loki is a super-powerful person or god. Just a magic trick from him can make him unable to move for more than ten seconds, which is not something he imagined! In the face of such a god who is far superior to himself and looks strange and unfamiliar, Lin Rui does not know what he will experience next. This is what Lin Rui is afraid of now.

“Jackson, are you okay!?” Seeing that Lin Rui’s face was pale and he was panting, Thor quickly reached out and helped him.

“Whew! It’s nothing, I am just feeling a bit weak.” Lin Rui put his hand on Thor’s shoulder. Lin Rui tried to make his tone sound calmer. He can’t arouse the dissatisfaction of those around him.

Although Thor is Loki’s brother, Loki should not be Thor’s opponent under normal circumstances, but it is not normal circumstances right now! If Loki wanted to take a shot at Lin Rui, Thor, who had lost his power, would be able to do nothing. Therefore, it is better for him to admit defeat for the time being, and it will not be too late for him to get back at Loki after his strength increases. Lin Rui still doesn’t know if Loki can attack people at random on the earth but if he does do that, the Ancient One will not let him go.

“I didn’t expect your little friend to be able to do this. He broke through my magic so quickly.” Loki didn’t notice Lin Rui just now and treated him as if he were a normal person, but after Lin Rui broke free from his magic, Loki noticed that he was different from ordinary people.

“Loki, this is not Asgard, are you going to cause unnecessary trouble?” Holding Lin Rui, Thor stared at Loki and said. Listening to his word, Thor seemed to know about Ancient One.

Because Lin Rui did not control his power when he broke away from Loki magic and broke through the imprisonment broke, the force rushed out and shattered the wooden table, so now they have caught the attention of the people around them. Thor didn’t want to make things big here either. Loki patted his hands and left after he got things done. In the end, the mess was to be cleaned up by himself.

“Trouble, what trouble can I cause? But since you don’t want to talk to me here, I’d better meet your little girlfriend first. Since your little friend is not simple, maybe your girlfriend is not as common as I had thought before. Haha ..... ” Loki, hearing a slight warning from Thor, who is also aware of the situation around him, says that it doesn’t matter. Then he simply snapped his fingers and disappeared before Thor and Lin Rui.

“Damn it!” Thor whispered as Loki disappeared before his eyes. If he still had his powers, he would have hit him with his hammer as Loki wouldn’t really die anyway.

“Jackson, sit here for a while, and I’ll explain it to the others.” Seeing that someone is already coming this way, Thor places Lin Rui on the still intact chair and goes out to explain to the other librarian in the library.

“Hoo ~ Is this Loki’s powers?! There is no way for me to resist it!” Looking at Thor’s clumsy explanation with the administrators in front, Lin Rui sat in the back and thought.

Because Lin Rui has been living in this world for so many years since he knew it was the real Marvel World. By virtue of the system, Lin Rui also plays a significant role in various events. Even against a fully armed Tony or Captain America and Peter, Lin Rui, who has grown up to the present day can fight against them so he started to feels a little complacent.

The experience of meeting Loki today completely reminds Lin Rui that Marvel World is far more dangerous than what he is experiencing now. Loki alone can render Lin Rui helpless. How can he protect his loved ones and live well in this world? It can be said that the appearance of Loki gives Lin Rui, who has not had much purpose, a vague goal in his mind for the first time, that is, to become stronger and stronger than anyone else!

Kakaka ~

Thinking to himself, Lin Rui's hands clenched unconsciously, and there was a crisp sound between his bone joints.

"Let's go, Loki must have gone to Jane, we can't let Loki do anything!" A few minutes later, Thor finally comes back and looks at Lin Rui sitting on the chair and says with concern.

"Well, let's go." With a yes, Lin Rui calmly rises from his chair. Now Lin Rui seems to have lost his initial fear, and his whole body seems to have some momentum changes.

"Well? Jackson, you ..." Looking at the young man in front of him, Thor seems to see something different about him. However, after a few careful observations, Thor still can't find any difference, so he shakes his head. Thor has already gone out at a quick pace as he doesn't want Loki to do anything to Jane. Lin Rui, of course, follows.

Chapter 216 Strange Request

After making several consecutive phone calls to Jane, Thor rushed straight to their apartment. At this time, when Jane is not at school, she should be back at the apartment. Thor has contacted several colleagues of Jane just now, and she went back half an hour ago.

Call! Huh!

"Jane! Jane! Are you there?" Almost breaking in, Thor shouted as he rushed into the apartment.

"Thor, I'm here." Just as Thor looked around nervously, Jane's voice came out of the room. Listening to her voice, nothing seemed to have happened to her.

Call!

Lin Rui, who was behind Thor only saw that Thor rushed into the backroom in a flash. Even without his Divine Power, Thor's physical powers are better than that of ordinary special forces soldiers on earth. However, Lin Rui thinks that Thor's perfect figure may not last for a long time, considering the recent diet that Thor just told himself in the library. After all, he doesn't have his Divine Power now. It's not a good thing for him to eat and drink the earth's high-calorie food.

Although knowing that Loki was probably in the room, Lin Rui followed in behind Thor. After being attacked in the library just now, Lin Rui is now completely vigilant. It is no use trying to escape and the only way to strengthen yourself is to face your problems without running. So, Lin Rui decided not to run away. And since Loki isn't the villain he was in the movies, maybe Lin Rui would be able to do something.

"Loki, what did you do to Jane?!" Lin Rui heard Thor's angry voice before he entered the room, and it seemed that Loki was indeed inside.

When Lin Rui walked in, he saw Jane and Loki sitting face to face on the sofa. Loki's face was calm and he couldn't see anything from Loki's expressions. Jane looked a little bit worried and looked like she was scared by something.

“Thor, it’s okay. He didn’t do anything to me. He just told me he was your brother and the second Prince of Asgard.” Reaching out to stop Thor, who was trying to hit Loki, Jane Foster spoke.

“I wouldn’t really do anything to such an ordinary person. But now I’m sure you’re out of your mind to like such an ordinary earthman.” Before Jane could reply, Loki, who sat opposite, spoke in a dismissive tone.

“What does it matter to you who I like, Loki? By the way, why did you come to earth? Don’t say you just came to see me!” Holding Jane’s hand, Thor asks Loki in a deep voice.

You know, now Asgard is supposed to be fighting against the Frost Giants. As a battlefield commander, Loki has no time to come to earth to find trouble with his brother.

“I just came to see you, can’t I do that?” Loki sarcastically replied back to Thor and his tone was really annoying Thor.

“If that’s the case, you’ve seen me and it’s time to leave.” Thor’s face changed again and again and he finally didn’t say anything at all. He now wants Loki to leave the earth. Thor is very clear about his brother’s feelings. He was jealous of him since their childhood and they always competed against each other and now that he has gotten himself exiled on the earth, so Thor doesn’t believe anything Loki says now.

“Of course I will go. However, I came here to see your state, I think you will probably have to stay on earth in the future. Mjolnir, your Divine Powers, what are your chances of regaining it?” Loki doesn’t mind Thor’s tone and then said lightly.

After hearing these words from Loki, Thor, who was still very angry, suddenly became silent, and it seemed that Loki’s words were poking into his heart.

“Now that I’ve seen you, and I’ve met your friends and your girlfriend, there’s nothing more to it. My good brother, I hope the next time we meet is at Asgard. Don’t let me down too much.” Loki’s eyes glowed strangely at Thor’s silence, and he spoke again.

Pa ~

The next moment, as Thor looks up at Loki, he raises his hand, clicks his fingers, and disappears. However, one second before Loki disappeared, Lin Rui’s pupils, who had been standing in the doorway, suddenly contracted and returned to normal.

After Loki disappeared, Thor stared at the sofa he was sitting on for a while, and after confirming that Loki had really left, Thor relaxed and began to ask Jane what Loki and she had just talked about. As for Lin Rui, after saying hello to Jane, he left. He was going to talk to Thor and others but when Loki happened, he probably couldn’t talk, so it was better to leave.

However, Lin Rui, who had left Jane and Thor’s apartment, did not return to his uncle’s house, but instead walked in the opposite direction, looking like he had a different purpose. After walking for ten minutes, Lin Rui came to a park and stopped by a lake.

Huh ~

"You've got a lot of nerve." Not long after Lin Rui stands by the lake, the air around him twists and Loki's figure appears out of thin air and Loki said with a smile on his face as he glanced at the calm Lin Rui.

"It's not that I've got a lot of nerve, but when facing against the Second Prince of Asgard. Even if I'm timid, it would be useless." Lin Rui said turning slightly to look at Loki beside him.

"I didn't expect you to break through my spell so quickly. It seems that you are not so ordinary." Loki said lightly as he looked at Lin Rui.

When Loki met Lin Rui for the first time, of course, he was shocked in his heart after Lin Rui broke free from his magic control, which he expected would cause him some psychological pressure. However, Loki was again a little surprised that the little boy was released from such psychological pressure so soon.

Lin Rui's eyes flickered when he heard Loki's words. Faced with such a god whose strength and IQ are above himself, what Lin Rui can do now is just to protect himself.

"Do you know why I told you to come here to meet me secretly?" Loki asks with a flash of satisfaction on his face as he looked at Lin Rui's calmness.

"Is it about Thor?" Besides Thor, Lin Rui doesn't know why the god of lies will look for himself.

"Yes, you're not too stupid. I was looking for you about my stupid brother. I've already done some research on you. You look like a harmless student but there's a lot of mystery about you. I don't personally care what secrets you have, but I want you to help Thor as much as you can during his time on earth. Especially to regain his Divine Powers, which would be difficult for him to grasp by himself." Then Loki looked ahead and says something that surprises Lin Rui.

Lin Rui is not surprised that Loki has investigated himself and knows that he has some secrets. As long as Loki does not know that he has the secrets of the system, it does not matter to Lin Rui that he has investigated himself as Mirage Knight. However, Loki asked him to help Thor on Earth and help him regain his Divine Powers. Is this situation right? Aren't these two brothers supposed to be enemies because Loki was dissatisfied with Odin's passing the throne to Thor? Loki's greatest obstacle to the throne was deprived of his Divine Power and exiled to earth. What is happening right now?!!

"Are you surprised? Thor, who is supposed to be my enemy and after he was deprived of his power. Why should I help him now?" Although Lin Rui didn't speak, Loki could see what he was thinking from his expressions.

"Yes, if Thor never regains his Divine Powers, then Asgard's throne would be yours," Lin Rui asked seriously. Although Loki wasn't born to Odin, if Thor is really not there, then Loki, who is loyal to Asgard and a Prince will have the highest chance to become the king.

"Do you think I really care about Asgard's throne? Although it is indeed my pursuit, what's the point of me winning the throne without a competitor?" Instead of answering Lin Rui's questions, Loki uses several questions to explain that he is not really interested in Asgard's throne. Growing up, Loki just wanted people to take him seriously and for everyone to understand that he wasn't a nobody under the shadow of Thor.

"Is Loki just trying to outdo Thor in every respect, and that's why he's doing this to him?" Hearing Loki's words, Lin Rui can't help thinking in his heart.

“What if I don’t want to?” Lin Rui asked cautiously, thinking about why Loki did this.

Chapter 217 Stimulated Lin Rui

While asking this question, Lin Rui is ready to summon the Phantom Suit at any time. As soon as Loki shows the slightest sign of being ready to strike, Lin Rui is ready to fight. The Phantom Suit’s current level of magic and mental defense is only D level, but it should give him some resistance, and if push comes to shove, he would be able to cause Loki some trouble.

Lin Rui’s biggest reliance is not his own strength, but his judgment on the current situation. Because this is the real world of Marvel, and it is very different from the movie situation. Thor’s situation is very different from that in the movie, and Loki’s plot is completely different. Lin Rui is betting now that Loki is constrained on the planet. When Thor was shouting at Loki when he was in the library, he heard it. If Loki really acted at that time, it would have caused more trouble. Whatever the problem is that is contracting Loki, if it affects a god at Loki’s level, then Lin Rui can take a gamble.

“Haha, the temptation you presents is very good. I can tell you clearly that I really can’t attack you arbitrarily.” After hearing Lin Rui’s refusal and seeing his expressions, Loki sneered suddenly.

Hearing Loki’s answer, Lin Rui suddenly felt relieved as he still made the right bet. However, he only relaxed for a second, and Loki’s next words raised his heartbeats again.

“However, even if I kill you, there will only be a little trouble for me. Do you think I would care about that little trouble if I really want to deal with you?” Looking at Lin Rui’s expression changes, Loki went on lightly. Speaking of this, although his tone was flat but Lin Rui could still hear a hint of threat. While saying this, Loki glanced at a certain corner of the park.

“So, are you willing to it now?” Loki asked again.

“Do I still have a choice? However, how can I help Thor? Even he doesn’t know how to regain his Divine Powers. What good can an outsider like me do?” Lin Rui asks helplessly with a wry smile.

“It’s up to you to think about it. Maybe you don’t need to do anything. Thor isn’t that stupid. He can still get the hang of it at the critical moment.” Loki didn’t care if he didn’t give Lin Rui anything.

Faced with Loki’s irresponsible explanation, Lin Rui can only feel helpless and has no choice. Who says the situation is not as good as it is now.

“Well, I’ve finished talking to you, and it’s time for me to leave.” As if sensing something, Loki is ready to leave.

“That ... See you later.” Lin Rui was going to ask Loki about the benefits of helping Thor, but he didn’t. Now Lin Rui’s strength is still too low and even if he asks Loki, there will be no answer. Only when his strength reaches the point where Loki attaches importance to him will his words have power at that time.

Pa~

Lin Rui does not notice that while he was standing by the lake thinking about Loki and Thor, two people in strange costumes were watching him from a distance of 100 meters behind him. They did not finish their observation until he left.

“What did Loki say to him? Do you want to follow him?” Asked one of the two men who had stared at Lin Rui for half an hour.

“Let’s not go any further. Loki has visited the Ancient One before, and he wouldn’t mess around on the earth.” Looking at the back of Lin Rui’s, the other person answered with some hesitation.

“Well, I think so too. Then, let’s go back.”

Buzz ~

Then, without attracting anyone’s attention, a magical space door suddenly appeared in the corner of the park and the two specially dressed guys stepped in and disappeared. Lin Rui, who had left, didn’t notice these things in the slightest. His head is still a little confused and he needs to rest urgently.

After resting at his uncle’s house for almost two days, Lin Rui took a bus back to New York. During this time, Lin Rui also went to see Thor again, after all, he promised Loki to help Thor regain his Divine Powers. Originally, even if Loki didn’t ask Lin Rui, he had already planned to help Thor and after getting threatened by Loki, he wanted Thor to get his powers back so that Thor could beat up Loki.

Not long after Lin Rui returns home, the hollow voice of the system comes out in his head, prompting Lin Rui to complete his week-long quest to protect Fury and receive a Reward. This hidden quest has a total of 20,000 Reward points, which is not bad.

Lin Rui, who is rewarded, exchanges several D-Level training cards in one breath. After being completely crushed by Loki, Lin Rui realizes that his strength is still too small. Therefore, Lin Rui, who has never been very active in his training, intends to train hard in the future, so that the next time he meets Loki, he will not be as helpless as he was this time.

However, according to Lin Rui’s conjecture, even if he cultivates the Advanced cultivation technique “Heaven’s Origin Heart Law” to the top level, he may not be Loki’s opponent. After all, Loki is a powerful sorcerer of Asgard and Lin Rui himself doesn’t know much about magic. It is impossible to blindly upgrade the magic defense of Phantom Suit which would just turn it into a hard shell and not provide a complete defense.

“Maybe, I can explore the path of magic. Marvel World does not lack magic. Whether it is Asgard’s magic or the Earth Sorcerer order, they are both important parts of Marvel World. Since he chose the cultivation technique route in the system, it doesn’t mean he doesn’t have talent in magic.” Lying in bed, Lin Rui suddenly feels that she has discovered a bright avenue.

“First, let’s spend some Reward points to test my magic talent. If I have some talent, I don’t need to spend many Reward points to study it in the system. I can study at Kamar-Taj. Even a man like Stephen Strange can learn magic, why can’t I?” Lin Rui’s mind has been absorbed by this thought. However, the test results may not please him.

“What is this? Unsuitable for learning magic? Is it a euphemism to tell me that I have no talent in magic at all?” Sure enough, Lin Rui had obtained the system test results a few minutes later and it seems that he did not have any magic talent. This result also broke Lin Rui’s option to learn magic.

Then, Lin Rui had to devote himself to the cultivation of internal energy. Since he couldn’t learn magic, Lin Rui had to make himself stronger by cultivating his Internal Energy. Anyway, whether it is magic, abilities, or internal energy, it is an external manifestation of strength. No one is strong or weak when it comes to power.

In fact, when the system suggested Lin Rui to choose a growth path, it already knew Lin Rui’s talent. He is the most suitable for cultivating internal energy and mental skills. Lin Rui’s talents of other growth types are not so good. Unless a large number of reward points are used to stack them, they will not have much effect. Otherwise, the system would not have recommended Lin Rui to choose the path of the internal energy cultivation process, which is a relatively slow way to improve his strength. The system was forced to do so.

In this way, a meeting with Loki greatly stimulated Lin Rui. Not only did he have a clear understanding of his own strength, but he also had other ideas in his mind that might have a huge impact on the world in the future.

Chapter 218 Following

The world has been affected in varying degrees by the intense fighting at SHIELD headquarters in Washington and the amount of top-secret information being distributed online. Although the US government and the World Security Council have responded in the first place, the impact has been significant.

The good news is that although this information is top-secret and very important, it is of no importance to the ordinary people. After all, it is far away from them. Among this information exposed, the most obvious was the exposure of Captain Rogers and their heroes, which set off a storm of news about the revival of Captain America in the whole of America and even the world.

SHIELD had planned for Steve Rogers to reappear in the public eye, but not in such an unexpected way. But SHIELD’s public relations department isn’t a veggie either and they took advantage of the explosion to put Captain Rogers on the scene and draw attention to his role in the destruction of Hydra, giving them time to clean up their battered SHIELD.

A week after the battle in Washington, Captain America, Steve Rogers gave his first press conference which was arranged by SHIELD and the US government, to get enthusiastic Americans to see their American hero in person. And now Captain Rogers was not only a hero of world war 2 but also a hero of today. Compared to those Vigilante active in various cities in the United States, Steve Rogers is the only national Superhero in the hearts of Americans.

Watching Captain Rogers on TV at home and the shouting of those fanatical fans, Lin Rui’s eyes were drawn to it as he really did not expect that Captain America could have such a big impact. As simple as that seems, it’s certain that Captain Rogers’ popularity has surpassed that of the Iron Man, Tony Stark. It’s just that he doesn’t know how Tony feels when he sees this situation, but he keeps watching Captain Rogers.

Speaking of which, the United States is a nation that worships individual heroism. Steve Rogers was not alone in the world war 2, but as the Captain of the Howling Commandos, Rogers was certainly more in the spotlight than anyone else.

And during World War II, the United States set the example of Captain Rogers in order to motivate young men to volunteer for the military, when Steve was already performing recruiting performances all over the country before going to war. That's why his name is so big, it is partly because of his service in the world war 2, and partly because of America's effort to establish a role model.

Now, after 60 years of history, Captain America is alive and well again. And with such a high-profile appearance (against a super evil force), it is not surprising that Steve is now treated with such fanaticism. But it's hard to believe that SHIELD and the US government didn't contribute to this situation so Lin Rui is not convinced.

"SHIELD is trying to build a god. Is Fury going to leverage public opinion to balance the World Security Council?" Lin Rui whispers as Steve smiles and greets fans on TV.

Originally, SHIELD exists to better protect the world and maintain the stability and security of the world. But as Fury's grip on the SHIELD grows, so does the SHIELD's power, and it's building its own special unit: the Avengers alliance. The World Security Council, which oversees SHIELD, is not sitting still as these politicians are, they will not be reassured by the discovery of something which is out of their control.

Fury has had a lot of things blocked in the SHIELD before and the Avengers alliance hasn't been so smooth. And now with the issue of the hidden Hydra, the World Security Council has every reason to tighten its grip on the SHIELD. But Fury is not going to let that happen and it's anyone's guess what will happen next.

Speaking of which, the origins of the Civil War of the Avengers Alliance and many American Superhero will be caused by the launch of the Superhero Registration Act. These Superheroes are not Mutants, they all have their own pride and they are all in possession of extraordinary strengths, how many people are willing to be controlled. Therefore, if Fury can withstand the pressure of the World Security Council, they will likely avoid the Civil War in the future.

"It doesn't matter much to me whether Fury intends to make gods or not. But Steve isn't a fool, and he won't really be at Fury's mercy." The TV show has come to an end, but with all the fans' enthusiasm still on, Lin Rui is already thinking about what might happen in the future.

Card ~

When the press conference officially ended, Lin Rui turned off the TV and fell into deep thought, as if he is thinking of something that is hard to decide.

"Can I really do that? However, only in this way can we truly protect our families and make the earth safe." Frowning, Lin Rui said something to himself that others could not understand.

No one knows that Lin Rui is engaged in a fierce mental struggle, one that may have a great impact on the world.

"What am I getting afraid of!? The most that will happen is a failer! I'll do it!" In the end, Lin Rui seems to have made a decision and squeezed his hands into fists.

Card ~

Because he was so excited, he released his internal energy accidentally and Lin Rui made a crack in the chair under his ass.

Lin Rui: "..."

New York, Oscorp Building, Harry's luxurious office.

Harry who had already become a successful man was sitting in his chair with a computer on the table in front of him and a video was playing on it. And Harry was watching the video on the computer seriously, and he was holding the relic of his father Norman Osborn, Green Goblin mask in his hands under the table.

If someone can stand next to Harry at this time, they would see what Harry is watching at this time. The video on the computer is not very clear and the picture is unstable and there is a lot of noise in the background, but whatever happened can be clearly seen in the picture.

"Look! It's Spiderman!"

"That bad guy is done now!!!"

"Not good! Spiderman is in danger!"

The sound from the computer screen can be heard as the protagonist of the video should be Spiderman, and no one knows who was taking the video and who Peter is dealing with.

"Oh!....."

"Did you take it?? Did you take it?!"

Card ~

Just then, Harry suddenly reached out and clicked the mouse, and the video on the computer paused. At this moment, what Harry saw in front of him turned out to be the video of Spiderman stabbing Green Goblin, Norman Osborn.

Kakaka ~

"Spiderman!" Harry gritted his teeth and whispered as the Green Goblin mask rattled in his hands. If anyone had seen Harry's eyes up close, they would have seen an abnormal green glow in them.

Huh ~

After spending a few minutes calming himself, Harry switched off his computer and left the chair. He already knew that Peter and Dr. Connors' research was successful, so his plan could finally be implemented. Spiderman, the guy who killed his father will pay for his crimes!

Chapter 219 Deadpool Who Wants To Be Famous

In the final days of the holiday, a wave of journalism was set off throughout the United States and worldwide because of the “resurrection” of Captain America. At the same time, the top-secret information leaked by SHIELD also lets the people of the world know that there are so many hidden dangers under their seemingly stable life, many of which are huge dangers that they cannot imagine.

In such a situation, ‘Superhero’ and ‘Vigilante’ are becoming more popular than ever. For the first time, people felt lucky to have these ‘vigilantes’ in their own city protecting them and some of the people who had not been so kind to them changed their minds.

Under such a change in attitude towards Vigilantes, Vigilantes in New York has become even more popular. Spiderman’s fans have tripled in the last week and now there are almost half a million fans. The number of Mirage Knight fans on the website also exceeded 300,000. Although it has been completely thrown away by the little spider, it has also been considered to have good upward momentum. Even Daredevil’s who have joined SHIELD already have more than 200,000 fans but Matt doesn’t care much about it.

However, although this situation changes and it is good news for Spiderman and Mirage Knight. But the other person in the League of Defender is not very happy, that is, Deadpool who joined in recently. Because what Wade did before was get revenge and then get revenge, and then revenge, it is not something that Vigilante should do at all, so of course, no one set up a fan website for Wade.

Seeing Spiderman and Mirage Knight’s fans rising day by day, Wade was very unhappy. So he is ready to make big news. To let others know that he is such a “superhero”, he has to increase his reputation as Deadpool!

This day, Deadpool was at home checking out Weasel’s laptop. If you look closely, you can see Wade is looking for some New York underground gang or something. It seems that the Deadpool is going to pick on some unlucky guys.

“Wade, what are you doing?” As soon as Weasel came back from the outside, he saw Wade sitting on the sofa playing with his laptop, which is not something that Wade usually does. Of course, the usual Wade does nothing and at most, he would stalk Vanessa.

“Weasel, I’m going to kill a gang, which one do you think is better?” Wade asked Weasel without looking back.

Puff!

Weasel just drank a sip of water and spat it out because of Wade’s words, what happened in the time that he was gone!?

“What are you doing again? Aren’t Mirage Knight and X-Men saying that they will help you find Francis? Are you going to find him the same other way?” Putting the water aside, Weasel stepped in front of Wade and asked.

“What? No, no! I’m not looking for Francis. Even if I find Francis now, I’m not sure how to deal with him. The organization behind him is very powerful. I’ll leave that to X-Men and Mirage Knight.” Wade shook his head and replied after hearing Weasel’s words.

Although Wade really wanted to tear Francis to pieces to get rid of his disfigurement hatred, after knowing that there was such a powerful organization behind Francis, Wade had little chance of getting revenge alone. So he would wait for X-Men to fight against the organization behind Francis.

“Then why are you killing a gang? Are you that bored?” Knowing that Wade wasn’t planning to find Francis, Weasel a little bit relieved, but he still didn’t understand Wade’s approach.

“Because I want to be famous! Not as a villain, but as a Superhero!” Raising his hands up in the air, Wade shouted.

Weasel: “...” This guy...

“So, which gang do you think I should find?” After shouting, Wade pushed the laptop in front of Weasel and asked again.

“I think you should see a doctor. But a doctor wouldn’t be able to help someone in your condition.” Ignoring Wade’s boring and crazy behavior, Weasel closes the laptop lid and says.

“Well! You’re right. Just killing a gang won’t get people to pay attention to me. I should find a famous bad guy to beat him up. But there haven’t been any supervillains in New York lately.” Weasel didn’t say anything, but Wade has automatically imagined what he wants to hear, leaving Weasel standing there.

“Forget it, I don’t care about you. However, it is best to discuss with Mirage Knight before you do anything. You are now part of the League of Defender, although I think it is a mistake for them to let you join them.” After saying a few words of warning to Wade, Weasel gives him a break and pulls out two clothes from the sofa and heads for the bathroom. After a night’s work at Margaret’s bar, Weasel needs to catch up on his sleep during the day.

It doesn’t matter what Weasel says either, Wade is now intent on making a name for himself, although he could get Weasel to secretly build his own website, it would be more embarrassing if there were no fans.

“So, it’s you!” So after turning the laptop back on, Wade quickly set his own goal which was a notorious gang in New York.

Now that he wants to be famous, of course, he has to choose a gang that everyone knows about. If he dealt with the Vampire forces that some ordinary people didn’t know before in the dark just as Mirage Knight did than he would not achieve the effect he wants.

After choosing a good goal, Wade prepared for it secretly. He decides to go out in the morning tomorrow to try to make the noise as big as possible. It’s better to make it live. It’s said that the live broadcast is very hot now. Maybe he’s become more famous all of a sudden.

The next day, when Lin Rui was packing for school, a street news report on TV nearly made his eyes pop out.

“... The enthusiastic citizen who called himself Deadpool climbed up the tree and rescued the scared cat, but we don’t know what he looks like, only that he wears special red tights ...” The street news section on TV is broadcasting In the morning in which an enthusiastic citizen climbed a tree to save the cat, and the protagonist of this incident turned out to be Deadpool, his crimson tight suit was easily recognizable.

“Hey, you guys have to remember me! I’m Deadpool!” After saving the cat, Wade, who was wearing a Deadpool suit, also posed in front of a crowd of people who were taking a video.

“No! Enthusiastic citizens?! Deadpool!? Don’t you see the two long blades behind him and the pistol inserted in the waist?” Pressing the TV to pause, Lin Rui looked at the screen and shouted in his heart.

Lin Rui also knows how Wade has been thinking about being famous lately, but enthusiastic citizens? This is not the same Wade! Did Wade’s life turn around? Lin Rui couldn’t help but think silently in his heart.

However, when the news reported that a gang in New York was killed by a mysterious person the next day, Lin Rui had no such naive idea. Because the “mysterious” person is not mysterious at all, the whole fight against the gang seems to be deliberately carried out under a monitor, for fear that others will not be able to shoot him.

Chapter 220 Venom

The holidays which lasted more than two months were finally over. Speaking of the two-month holiday, many things happened to Lin Rui. It would be enough to stun everyone in the world if they knew what had happened to Lin Rui, and the degree of their shock will not be less than the information leaked by SHIELD and Captain America’s “resurrection” some time ago. However, this is the price Lin Rui has to choose to become a Superhero, to remain in shadow.

“Ah!! I haven’t been to school for more than two months, and now I feel like I’m not even a student! Is that how you feel too, Peter?” Lin Rui looked at the teenagers walking around on the campus and asked Peter who was walking beside him.

“Ah? Well, yes.” Peter seemed to be in a daze and he only responded awkwardly after hearing Lin Rui’s words.

“Let’s go to the classroom. It’s unlikely, but maybe Harry will be there too!” Probably knowing what’s going on with Peter, Lin Rui said while patting him on the shoulder.

Having said that, Lin Rui had already lifted his feet and walked towards the classroom, and Peter naturally followed. Speaking of it, Lin Rui and Peter haven’t seen Harry for a while. Since Norman Osborn’s death, Lin Rui and Peter have been feeling more or less guilty towards Harry and Harry has been busy because of Oscorp Industries. Therefore, the three of them have not been together again in the last period of the holiday.

Lin Rui now knows that Peter and Dr. Connors’ research has been successful, and the Recovery gene serum is in the final stage of completion. With the support of Osborn, a giant-biological group, Dr. Connors and Peter no longer need to worry about the follow-up events.

Of course, what Lin Rui cares most about is not how many physical recovery opportunities this gene serum will bring to the majority of patients in the world. He is most concerned about whether this serum can cure Harry’s disease. However, according to Peter, the effect of the gene serum can only be good for Harry. However, Lin Rui plans to visit Harry in a few days. Maybe he can meet Harry at school today, although the possibility is very small.

"Jackson, I'm leaving now, Dr. Connors has something planned," After school, Peter says to Lin Rui, who is putting his books in his bag at the next table. Harry didn't come to school, and probably won't again.

"Well, let's find some time to see Harry again." Lin Rui nodded and replied as he also has something and he needs to go to Tony.

"See you tomorrow." Packing his schoolbag, Peter was already out of the classroom.

"Hmm! So tired, its time to meet Tony! But I can just see how Tony is doing recently. I don't believe he didn't plan to intercept some of the data related to him privately when I asked JARVIS to intercept the SHIELD data. However, the evidence that Bucky killed Tony's parents is in Hydra's Siberian branch. Tony should not have any idea about that now." Lin Rui was thinking about some things while packing the books.

Then Lin Rui quickly left. He had to drive his little jeep for an hour and a half to get to Tony's location.

Huh ~~

Under New York's night, Peter transformed into a Spiderman and swung through the high-rise buildings before landing on the top of a building.

After leaving from Dr. Connors, Peter did not return home, but instead put on his spider suit and dangled on the streets of New York, hoping to see if there were any bad guys for him to catch. However, it seems that the series of events that have happened recently are too shocking and ordinary little punks don't dare to go out to do things now. Peter wandered for more than an hour without encountering anything that needed his help, but he was spotted by several of his fans and took a few photos.

"Hoo!" Sitting on the edge of the building's roof, Peter exhaled as he watched the bustling night view of New York.

Since he accidentally killed Harry's father last time, Peter has been in a low mood and has a strong negative atmosphere around him. In the fight between the Mutants and the mysterious organization, Peter vented some of his pent up frustration and his interactions with Deadpool also made him feel a little better. But it was only temporary. After a while, Peter's mood began to fall again and couldn't get rid of his negative thought and emotions.

Peter himself thought this was normal and thought that it should be fine as time went by. So, these days, Peter is just wandering the streets, and the felt the rush of flying between the high-rise buildings to clear his feeling of depression.

Sitting on the top of the building, Peter rested his mind for a while and then began to replay the night he killed Norman Osborn. Recently, he always remembered that miss. Especially when Norman looked at Peter's eyes, those eyes filled with darkness.

Just as Peter sat there in a daze, he didn't notice that there was a dark shadow on the ground behind him. It was a dark liquid. It's not very accurate to say that it's liquid. It looks like something between liquid and colloid, but it's alive. If Lin Rui was here at this moment, he would have been able to recognize what this strange thing is. Because this strange black thing is the alien parasite Venom!

The strange mass was twisting on the ground behind Peter and moving closer and closer to him, splitting itself into long black tentacles and leaning in his direction as if attracted by something.

Although the sound of this thing moving on the ground was very small, Peter with his spider senses should also be able to find it. But at this time, Peter was caught in his nightmare thoughts and his spider senses were temporarily suppressed. Therefore, when the strange object behind him approached, he wasn't able to feel any trace of it.

"Ah!" Just as the long tentacles of the object that had climbed behind Peter stretched out behind him, Peter, who was in a daze, suddenly let out a cry of surprise.

Huh ~

Finally, he broke away from the nightmare, and Peter gasped at the beginning.

"That's not right!" Peter murmured uneasily, feeling that his emotions had been greatly affected. Even if he had been guilty of killing Norman Osborn, it wouldn't have plunged him into such a long nightmare.

"What the hell is wrong with me?" Touching his own face, there was a thin layer of sweat on it, and Peter felt a little horrified to himself.

If the situation just happened while Peter was fighting, Peter would not dare to imagine what would happen. This is not a psychological obstacle that time can eliminate at all, and this effect is still increasing!

"I will watch myself for two days and if I don't get any better, I'll ask Mirage Knight for help. He knows so much, and he probably knows about me." Having calmed down a little, Peter made up his mind. If Peter asks Lin Rui, Lin Rui will tell him that this is a mental demon, and if it is not eliminated, it will continue to affect Peter, and it will become more and more serious.

Huh ~

After another break, when his mood was completely recovered, Peter picked up his backpack and left. But when he picked up his backpack, he sensed something was wrong. Peter shook his head, thinking it was a hangover from his nightmare, and stepped straight out.

Brush!
