Chapter 221 Ambush

Peter, who came home quickly, took off his spider suit and rushed into the bathroom. He wanted to take a cold shower to calm himself down. Hula ~ Soon, there was a sound of rushing water in the bathroom.

While Peter was taking a bath, the backpack that he had just thrown on the bed suddenly stirred up. The bag, which was unmoving, was suddenly moving and it was like a small animal was inside of it and it kept lifting the backpack from inside. But because the zipper was closed, the thing inside just kept moving because it couldn't come out.

Uh ~

Originally, the backpack calmed down after agitating for a while, and it seemed that the thing inside could not come out and did not work hard. However, after a few seconds of silence, a black tentacle suddenly protruded through the gap in the top of the zipper. Then, the zipper of the backpack was slowly opened by this tentacle.

Without making a sound, the weird black object that appeared on the top of the building where Peter was temporarily resting crawled out slowly. It turned out that it had already hid in Peter's backpack. This thing didn't move after crawling out, instead it extended dozens of long tentacles from its black body and looked around, as if it was sensing for something. In the end, this thing seemed to sense the movement in the bathroom, and the tentacles that stretched in that direction were extended.

Card ~

As the contorted black mass moved slowly across the bed toward the bathroom, there was a noise in the bathroom. Peter had finished showering and was about to come out.

Brush!

The black mass seemed to know that Peter was about to come out and it suddenly crawled from the bed and fell to the ground before becoming a stimulus. The tentacles between the liquid and the gel shot abruptly, and instantly stuck to the closet behind the door. Then the main body of the black mass flew into the closet under the pull of the tentacles and hid before Peter came out.

Huh ~

As he wiped his wet hair, Peter was sober after bathing. Without drying his short hair with a hairdryer, Peter rushed to the bed. He was so tired that he didn't find the backpack's zipper open. Soon, Peter lying on the bed fell asleep.

Uh ~

After Peter fell asleep, there was a tiny movement in the quiet closet. If anyone can see the situation in the closet at this time, they will be very surprised. The black ancient monster body that had been hidden in the closet pulled out the Spiderman suit that Peter had inserted into the innermost part of the closet, and it was covering it up with its mass. In the constant division and deformation, the entire black object was finally integrated into the Spiderman suit, and there was no change in appearance.

After merging into the Spiderman suit, the black mass seemed to disappear as if nothing had happened. If Peter later puts on the Spiderman suit again, he will probably only notice that the black stripes on the suit have become darker and anything other than that hasn't changed much.

Although everything in the closet was silent, Peter wasn't even aware of it while he was resting, but someone noticed something wrong when the weird thing was incorporated into the Spiderman suit. No, it should not be called a person, but an artificial intelligence.

"Sir, the first Spiderman suit just had an abnormal signal." While Peter was resting, Tony, who was far away at the seaside villa, was still staying up late doing the experiment. As he finished a small test on his hand, the voice of J.A.R.V.I.S. suddenly appeared in the basement.

"Humm? Abnormal signal? Has anything happened to Peter?" Tony asked with a surprised look on his face when he heard J.A.R.V.I.S.

The Spiderman suit that Peter is wearing is designed and manufactured by Tony himself. In addition to letting Peter's abilities be better exerted, of course, there are some detection methods left by Tony. On the one hand, it is to ensure that Peter will not face the danger that he cannot solve, and on the other hand, there are reasons for monitoring Peter.

After all, one impulse from a powerful young man like Peter can cause a lot of trouble. Now that Tony knows that Peter is a Spiderman and has provided him with a Spiderman suit, he himself feels a certain obligation towards Peter.

"Sir, the signal was abnormal when the Spiderman suit was not equipped." Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S. answered Tony's question.

"Not equipped, was it a system malfunction?" Instead of moving on, Tony was somewhat interested in what J.A.R.V.I.S. had discovered. Since it's not equipped, it means Peter isn't flying around in the Spiderman suit, so how could there be an abnormal signal?

"Based on the analysis of the signals that have just been sent, it is possible that there has been damage to the external composite. But then I linked the Spiderman suit and I didn't detect any problems." J.A.R.V.I.S. told Tony about what he had just found, which is why he thought the signal was abnormal. The received message did not match the results J.A.R.V.I.S. has found and it is most likely a false signal.

"Are you sure there is no problem?" Tony asked seriously after hearing J.A.R.V.I.S.

Although it doesn't matter if part of the external composite material of the Spiderman suit is damaged, the fact that it happens without being equipped means something is wrong with Tony's design and may have other implications for Peter.

"I am sure, sir." Apparently, J.A.R.V.I.S. has carefully checked again through the link to the Spiderman suit.

"It could have been an accidental system test. Now that you're sure it's all right, let it go. Ask Peter to let you upgrade the Spiderman suit system the next time you see him. I've had some great ideas lately." Tony trusted J.A.R.V.I.S. enough to put the matter behind him after a little thought.

"Yes, sir." With a yes, J.A.R.V.I.S. recorded the incident as a system anomaly in a Spiderman suit.

But Tony didn't know it, because of his carelessness this time, he caused an irreversible event.

Although J.A.R.V.I.S can indeed link the Spiderman suit to detect its real-time condition, the black weird thing is obviously not an ordinary object. It can be seen from the fact that it can integrate itself into the spiderman suit. In addition to destroying some of the composite materials of the Spiderman suit at the beginning of the fusion, It quickly filled those materials with itself later, and also completely simulated the characteristics of the fused materials, so as to avoid J.A.R.V.I.S's detection.

Even though no one knows where this thing came from or why it followed Peter, it's now woven into the spider suit. But from what it shows, it seems to be an intelligent creature with the properties of devouring and fusing imitative materials. No one knows what effect such a thing would have on Peter as it lurks in the Spiderman suit.

And so, unknown to anyone, Venom who was from space, this amazing and evil parasite, lurks in Peter's Spiderman suit.

Chapter 222 Lin Rui's Premonition

On the first Friday night of school, Lin Rui arrived at the base of League of Defender after dark. He had previously agreed with Peter to meet here as it seemed that Peter had something to tell him.

Because Daredevil joined SHIELD, and Jack was the owner of the Frankenstein Family, and Deadpool was busy being famous for making big news every day, so there are usually no people in the base. However, if there is something that everyone needs to do together, then they will unite as soon as possible.

"Why hasn't Peter come yet? Is something wrong?" Lin Rui played a game in the base for a while and watched that it had been more than an hour since his planned appointment with Peter. After whispering to himself, Lin Rui took out his cell phone as it was better to make a call and ask.

"Hey, Spiderman, didn't you agree to meet me at the base? Why didn't you come?" The phone was quickly answered and Lin Rui asked Peter from the other end.

"Huh? Ah! I forgot, now I'm at home!" Peter on the phone seemed a little surprised, then explained briefly. Listening to his tone, it really seems that he had simply forgotten it.

"Then you said you had something to tell me. What was it?" Lin Rui is relieved to know that Peter is all right.

"What? What? It's Nothing!" In response to Lin Rui's question, Peter says in an unexpected voice that he's ok.

"Really? Is everything fine." Although he was a little confused about Peter's answer, Lin Rui didn't think too much.

"Yes, I'm going to hang up now and I'll meet you later." Peter on the other side of the phone didn't seem to want to say anything to Lin Rui and hung up after saying this.

Toot ~

"Is there really something so urgent?" Putting down the phone with some confusion, Lin Rui mumbled. However, it was only a little confusing, and there was nothing unusual about Peter's behavior.

"Forget it, let's continue playing the game. I'll go to Harry's house tomorrow to see how he is doing, and then contact Fury again. I still need to cooperate with them on the follow-up to eliminate Hydra." Shaking his head, Lin Rui put his attention to the game he was playing.

However, Lin Rui, who is absorbed in playing the game, fails to notice that an indicator light on the laptop on the desk in front of him is flashing rhythmically, but the computer is clearly turned off at this time.

The next day, Lin Rui, who had made an appointment with Peter, came to Harry's house again. He doesn't know what had happened to Peter these two days as he had disappeared from school after the class end. Lin Rui always thought that Dr. Connors needed Peter's help in the follow-up experiment. However, he even blew up seeing Harry, which made Lin Rui a little bit upset.

Having greeted Harry in advance, Lin Rui walked directly into this luxury house that he had visited before. Two minutes later, Lin Rui finally met Harry, whom he hadn't seen for a long time.

"Hey! Harry, I haven't seen you in a long time!" Lin Rui smiles and gives Harry a big hug as he walks forward and see how much more mature he looks now.

Call!

"Jackson, thank you, I'm fine." Also hugging Lin Rui with a strong hug, Harry replied with a smile.

"Where's Peter? I thought you were coming here together?" After separating from Lin Rui, Harry looks over Lin Rui's shoulder and asks questioningly as he doesn't see Peter.

"Maybe something is wrong. I don't know what this guy is doing these days." Shaking his head, Lin Rui says he doesn't know where Peter is.

"However, I heard that his research with Dr. Connors is finally successful. How about it, have you cured yourself?" Speaking of Peter, Lin Rui mentioned Harry's genetic disease, which is also a point of concern for Lin Rui. Lin Rui and Harry have a good friendship between them, otherwise, he wouldn't have asked it directly.

"You mean the Genetic Recovery Serum, yes, the experiment was successful and the effect has been confirmed. But I have not used it for the time being, and the serum will need some improvement in the future to suit my situation." At Lin Rui's words, Harry answers with a twinkle in his eye.

"Oh, so it works. I was worried about you when I heard that you have a family hereditary genetic disease. It would be great if you can get cured now! By the way, have you celebrated this news with Gwen?" Lin Rui was relieved to hear Harry's words, and then asked some gossip.

Although Harry didn't see much of him and Peter after Norman Osborn's death but Gwen, as his girlfriend, should have met often. Now their relationship may have developed to a deep step.

“Gwen? I haven’t been able to tell her because I’ve had a lot going on at work lately.” At the sound of Gwen’s name, Harry’s pupils involuntarily constricted, then he calmly replied.

“Really, of course, the sooner you can tell her the better. Even if you are too busy, you can’t ignore your girlfriend, you know?” Lin Rui himself is not in love so he can only give him a brief reminder about the situation between Harry and Gwen.

“Well, since you’re so busy, should I be bothering you today?” Lin Rui, who had just sat down on the sofa, suddenly asked.

After not seeing Harry for so long, he didn’t know what to talk about. After all, part of Lin Rui’s life is completely off the record, and the events at school probably won’t interest Harry much anymore.

“It’s nothing. I’m tired from work, but I need a rest. We’re going to play a few games and then we’re going to have dinner together. I had a chef cook for us today.” Harry, sitting opposite Lin Rui, smiled and said, clearly aware of Lin Rui’s slight awkwardness.

Harry has become more and more like a mature president, but Lin Rui doesn’t like the way Harry looks in front of him. He always thinks that Harry’s changes seem a little big and he is not the Harry he knew before. Although Harry was more mature than his peers in the past, it was far from the aura that Lin Rui felt now. However, after the changes in the company and the death of his father, it was quite understandable that Harry had changed so much.

That’s it, after spending more than three hours in Harry’s apartment, Lin Rui finally came out with a filled belly. The chef Harry hired was really good. Lin Rui, whose family runs a restaurant, almost bit his tongue while eating the dishes.

“Is it my delusion? I was feeling that something is wrong with Harry today. Did the last thing sent to Norman affect Harry?”

“It’s not just Harry, Peter has been acting a little weird these days.” Wandering towards the subway exit, Lin Rui was thinking about somethings as he walked.

Although Peter had a loose mouth habit when he became Spiderman, he should be somewhat shy in normal times. But in the past two days at school, Peter seemed to be a little bit of a showoff, and he even took the initiative to ask a girl out. This personality change puzzled Lin Rui, but he couldn’t figure out why.

“Hopefully it’s just my delusion. Bad things shouldn’t always find my two friends.” Shaking his head, Lin Rui wanted to shake out the bad feelings in his heart. Then he stepped forward into the subway exit in front.

Chapter 223 Virus?

Two days later, Lin Rui and Jack were sitting on their respective sofas at the Guardian Base. Lin Rui was watching a video on the laptop in front of him, and the protagonist of the video was Spiderman Peter.

In the video, Peter easily defeated a gang involved in the drug trade, and it looked like it was a feat to protect peace in New York City. However, Lin Rui who is watching the video did not look very good and frowned slightly.

“Mirage Knight, forget it! Isn’t it just Spiderman acting alone, and nothing bad has happened, do you need to be so upset?” Just as Lin Rui stared at the video, Jack sitting on his side suddenly said.

Glancing up at Jack, Lin Rui says helplessly, “I wouldn’t worry too much if it were just like this, but don’t you think Spiderman has been acting up lately? This isn’t the first time something like this has happened. “

Speaking of the drug-trafficking operation in the video, it was the information provided by Jack. It would be perfectly fine to deal with such gangsters regardless of who stopped them. But Lin Rui had fought against Francis and the forces behind him and also killed a Level four Mutant, so he was still a little worried that the forces behind them would hit them. So Lin Rui originally planned to go with Peter to carry out the operation together but he did not expect that Peter would go alone in advance and knock them all down before they even got to the trading part. Lin Rui did not understand this situation.

And it’s not the first time something like this has happened, only this time it makes Lin Rui feel even weirder. Since last week, some of Peter’s behaviors have been developing in a direction that Lin Rui cannot understand. Not only does Peter begin to show his differences in normal times, but he is also more active in fighting criminals when he turns into Spiderman. Besides, he is always photographed in the downtown area, which makes Lin Rui feel very strange.

Lin Rui has a bad feeling about this change in Peter. Even Wade, who is bent on making a splash recently, doesn’t have as much exposure as Peter.

At this time, Lin Rui was just feeling a bit strange about the current changes in Peter and he was not thinking of any special case like Venom infecting Peter. After all, in Lin Rui’s memory, In the Spiderman movie, Venom turned the spiderman suit into a striking black. And the Spiderman suit that Peter is wearing now was designed by Tony himself, and it doesn’t change much at all.

Moreover, Lin Rui’s original Spiderman series of movies have been shot in three different versions. Venom only appeared in one of them. How could he know which version of Marvel World those movies are in? Even if it was based on comics, Lin Rui had never seen the comics, and he would never know about Venom.

“That just goes to show that Spiderman wants to be famous. After all, Deadpool has been trying to get famous lately, so it’s normal for him to feel a bit of crisis as New York’s favorite Vigilante.” Jack doesn’t have a lot of contact with Spiderman at ordinary times. After hearing Lin Rui’s words, he replied without any care.

“Spiderman is not that kind of person, but, you know, he’s been acting like he’s trying to get people’s attention lately. Well, I’ll ask him again the next time I see him. I feel like I’ve missed something.” Peter is very happy to have his own fans, but he is not the kind of person who changes so much just for the sake of increasing his fans. Finally, Lin Rui can only think of the next time she sees Peter and asks him in person.

Just as Lin Rui was about to turn off the video of Spiderman on the Laptop, a window popped up on the screen, which was a simple dialogue window.

“Hmm? Who sent the message?” Seeing the dialogue window that pops up on the Laptop screen, Lin Rui thought with some doubts.

The Laptops placed in the Guardian Base are usually not taken out, and their Internet IP addresses are masked in a special way. Of course, Lin Rui didn’t know much about it. It was only done after he consulted with J.A.R.V.I.S. Therefore, no one other than the people in the League of Defender will send messages to this Laptop.

However, Lin Rui’s expression suddenly became serious when he saw the next word displayed in that conversation window. Then, Lin Rui didn’t even think about it as he reached out and pressed the Laptop’s shutdown button.

“Oh? What’s wrong? Even if you can’t get used to Spiderman being in limelight, you don’t have to do this.” Because Lin Rui’s shutdown action was a bit large, Jack sitting beside him only saw Lin Rui pressed the power button quickly, and thought he didn’t want to see Spiderman.

However, Lin Rui doesn’t answer Jack’s question. Instead, he looks even harder at the laptop screen. There, the laptop screen, which was supposed to be dark, was still on, and the dialog box was still in front of Lin Rui’s eyes.

“Hello, Mirage Knight or Spiderman, I’m Sky’s Eye, I’m very happy to talk to you.” These are the words that popped up in the dialog box, and it is this sentence that makes Lin Rui’s face change and he pressed the power off button.

Needless to say, the conversation on the Laptop was obviously from someone who had found their IP address and is tracking it. Lin Rui tried to turn off the Laptop but he couldn’t do it, it is likely that even the Laptop was controlled by the other party. To be on the safe side, Lin Rui planned to smash the Laptop directly. However, he knew that this was useless, and if the other party was able to do this, they would almost be sure of their position.

Huh ~

So, without answering Jack’s words, Lin Rui turned the Laptop towards him, so that he could see the sentence on the screen.

“Eh? Is it a virus?! Or was it hacked?” Jack asked without looking worried. In the League of Defender, Jack’s identity can probably be exposed without any fear.

“Of course it is hacking! Our location may have been exposed, do you know that this is very dangerous!” Lin Rui said helplessly when he saw that Jack didn’t care.

“Ah, don’t worry that much. I don’t think that this hacker means any harm, it’s more like a normal greeting.” Looking at the sentence on the Laptop, Jack patted Lin Rui’s shoulder and said.

Buzz ~

The moment Jack finished saying this, the dialog box on the Laptop screen suddenly shook. Then a row of big words popped up: Sky’s Eye requested a video call.

Seeing the trembling dialog box on the Laptop screen and the large line of characters, Lin Rui and Jack looked at each other. To Answer or not answer? However, according to the degree of control this person has on the laptop, even if they do not answer, they cannot prevent the person opposite to see the situation here. So, after a little thought, Lin Rui still clicked to connect.

After Lin Rui accepted the call, the dialog box on the screen turned into a common video call interface, and behind this window, the face of a young man appeared in front of Lin Rui and Jack.

“Hi! Hello, I’m Sky’s Eye!”

Chapter 224 Sky’s Eye

Lin Rui also thinks that things in the world are really wonderful. He only recently lamented that his team needs a good hacker. Today, his base is getting taken over by a hacker.

The network of the guardian base started out as Lin Rui’s own defense at first. Later, after forming an alliance with Tony, J.A.R.V.I.S helped raise the firewall. However, he did not expect that it would still get attacked by someone. It can only be said that there are still many smart people in this world.

“Mr. Sky’s Eye, that’s your nickname. What are you doing hacking into our network?” Lin Rui asks calmly, looking across the screen at the young man.

Fortunately, Lin Rui is accustomed to wearing a mask even in the Guardian Base. Otherwise, he may have been seen by the opposite guy. Lin Rui did not believe that this was the first time he had attacked their network. On the other side, Jack didn’t care much about his face being seen. His identity was made for him as a secret killer from an early age. He didn’t believe that a hacker would find him in reality after seeing his face. And, even if someone found Jack, there is nothing to worry about, after all, there is an entire Frankenstein Family between him and that person.

“Mirage Knight, my sincerest apologies for having attacked your network without your consent. However, this is the only way I could reach you.” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, the person at the other end of the screen first apologized, then went on to explain why he had hacked their network: he wanted to contact the League of Defender.

“Contact us? Do you need anything?” Lin Rui frowned when he heard Sky’s Eye’s apology, and then asked.

It seems that Jack may be right, this guy does not look malicious. If the guy calling himself Sky’s Eye is really dangerous to the League of Defender, Lin Rui would be forced to ask JARVIS to do something. Lin Rui is still confident in the Advanced intelligence of JARVIS and he knows that JARVIS would be able to take care of him.

“Well, in fact, I am one of the moderators of the League of Defender forum. I have always admired what you guys have done, and I just want to ask, can I join you? Don’t worry, I know that I won’t be able to fight but my hacking skills are pretty good!” Seeing Mirage Knight asking him, Sky’s Eye shouted his request somewhat shyly. In the end, it seemed that his qualifications were not enough in front of Mirage Knight, and he quickly added a sentence to show that he was not an ordinary person.

Hearing Sky’s Eye’s words, and then looking at his serious expression, Lin Rui and Jack beside him looked at each other tacitly.

“Is it really god’s will for you?” That’s what Jack means when he looks at Lin Rui. Lin Rui also told him a few days ago that their team lacks a good hacker and he asked Jack to pay attention to whether there is anyone trustworthy in the Frankenstein Family who can join them.

“Probably, this guy also seems to have a protagonist halo over him!” Lin Rui answers in his mind as he looked into Jack’s eyes, but it’s up to Jack to understand what he means.

“Well, are you our fan?” Lin Rui put away the surprise on his face and looked at Sky’s Eye and asked.

“Yes! Spiderman and Mirage Knight, I helped build and maintain your fan’s site later, and I spent a lot of time building the Guardian forum with a few other friends.” Sky’s Eye replied seriously as if he is trying to sell himself.

“Furthermore, I also know that you have secretly done a lot of things that are not available online. For example, you have fought against Wilson’s underworld empire and the Vampire race. These are things that are not available online and ordinary people would not know but I know them. You have been secretly protecting the safety of New York and the entire American people, which is why I worship you and want to join you.” After revealing his admiration for the League of Defender, Sky’s Eye said something that surprised Lin Rui and Jack again.

What Sky’s Eye said about Vampires and Wilson’s empire is not something that ordinary people can know at all. Apart from ordinary people, even people in some special departments can hardly access this information. And Mirage Knight, Spiderman’s fans website and the League of Defender forum have no information about this. Lin Rui doesn’t want to expose these too dark things to the public as he doesn’t know how Sky’s Eye was able to get this information.

“Ok, ok, I know what you’re doing. But it’s not that easy to join us.” Suppressing his surprise, Lin Rui looks at Sky’s Eye and speaks calmly.

“I know! I know! There must be a test to join your team! But I believe I can gain your trust as a good teammate!” Sky’s Eye shouted with excitement after hearing Lin Rui’s words.

“Okay, I understand what you mean. So, let’s talk about this in person, do you know where our base is?” Waving to Sky’s Eye on the other side of the screen, Lin Rui asked.

In fact, after chatting with Sky’s Eye for a while, Lin Rui had almost accepted this powerful hacker in his heart. But he still needs to be tested carefully. Lin Rui won’t let an untrustworthy person join the team.

“Uh, do you have a base? I don’t know, although I tracked this IP, your network defense is also very strong, and I cannot locate an accurate address. Speaking of which, the defense of your network is similar to that of Stark Industries. It’s just a lot weaker compared to them.” Shaking his head, Sky’s Eye says he does not know Lin Rui’s location. And he can see that their cyber defense has something to do with the Stark corporation. It seems that Sky’s Eye must have been fighting against JARVIS, and he didn’t know how many times has he been secretly fighting JARVIS?

“Well, let’s do this. Two days later, you are ...” Lin Rui was a little relieved to hear Sky’s Eye’s answer, or they might have to consider changing bases.

“Well! I’ll wait there early!”

Lin Rui then tells Sky's Eye that they will bring him over and make him wait in one place. Hearing that he could finally see his hero with his own eyes, Sky's Eye seemed very excited and said that he would certainly wait for him early.

After another brief conversation, Lin Rui hung up the video call. Before hanging up, Lin Rui asked Sky's Eye not to control their network, so that Lin Rui and others could have some privacy in the base. Sky's Eye agreed of course, and the laptop recovered quickly after the call was ended.

However, Lin Rui is not so trusting. After the call, he simply shuts down any network on the base, either wireless or wired, to ensure that no one can break in again. After doing all of this, Lin Rui solemnly sat down with Jack.

"What are you going to do about this? Just accept him?" Jack looked at Lin Rui and asked as he himself had no opinion anyway.

"Let's take a look first and then we'll talk about it. I can't decide this thing alone, but everyone needs to look at it together." Glancing at the laptop on the table that has been completely powered off and shut down, Lin Rui said seriously.

Chapter 225: Abduction-like Enlistment Ceremony?

Sky's Eye, formerly Jerry Dan Argent, was born in a small town in the southern United States. Since childhood, Jerry has been found to have a high degree of talent in computers by his parents. However, due to his family's situation, Jerry did not receive systematic science education. He could only go to ordinary schools with his friends.

However, geniuses are not so simple that they will be buried so easily. At the age of thirteen, Jerry left home alone and began to wander around America. As a teenager, Jerry was young and full of energy. While doing various part-time jobs, he kept learning the Internet technology of the world. Although it was very hard at times, his interest in computers and Internet technology kept him going. Now, it has been more than a decade and Jerry's computer network skills are already at the top of his game.

Jerry now also has a stable job on the Internet. Although he only helps to make some websites and do some daily maintenance, it's good that it's easy and doesn't take up too much of Jerry's normal time.

As a highly skilled hacker, Jerry learned many things through the Internet that the government or some organizations would not let the public know. For example, some secret government research, and a lot of shady deals. Of course, Jerry wouldn't do anything even if he knew that information. Anyway, it had little to do with him and other ordinary people, so he doesn't care much.

However, when Mirage Knight was born in New York, something he experienced caught Jerry's attention. To these hidden Vigilantes, hackers like Jerry likes to find out their real identity. Although it will not be disclosed maliciously, it can also be regarded as a sense of self-fulfillment.

But Jerry ran into a wall when he looked for Mirage Knight's identity, which made him even more interested. Jerry then discovered what Mirage Knight and Daredevil, and later Spiderman, did. The first time they attacked the underground underworld in New York, most involved with Wilson's underworld empire.

But then Jerry discovers something he couldn't believe because when he goes after the Mirage Knight group, he discovers the mysterious and dark Vampire race, which should only exist in novels and on television. At one point, Jerry was afraid to go out at night for fear he would be caught as a blood bag.

However, after "seeing" Mirage Knight and the team of Vampire hunters completely destroy the Vampires from this world, Jerry began to worship these "unknown" Vigilante for the first time in his life. That's why he put in the effort to set up the League of Defender forum and helped the Vigilantes to promote it. Of course, Jerry will not release those things that should not be made public. Maybe he can slowly let the public know, but it is still too early.

In this way, a top hacker such as Jerry has been silently following the Mirage Knights online, "watching" their struggle with the evil forces on all sides. Finally, after seeing so many underground dark forces, Jerry felt that he should also contribute. That's why he started trying to find their tracks with Mirage Knight, hoping to reach them.

But if Jerry could find Lin Rui than it would be Lin Rui's fault. But sometimes, Peter will log in to his fan's website in the League of Defender base to upload some photos that he took on purpose. Jerry found them based on these photos that ordinary people can't take. It is also a loophole caused by Peter's current behavior.

So after contacting Mirage Knight and talking with him, Jerry was very excited. He spent two days of waiting time thinking about the gifts he should bring, but to those Vigilante, who guards New York and did a lot more great things, Jerry didn't know if he would be seen as an out of control fan.

At last, Jerry thought of a present, something that had taken him a long time to finish and which he was sure Mirage Knight and his friends would love.

Two nights later, an excited Jerry was holding a beautifully wrapped box outside a convenience store on a street corner in New York, where Lin Rui had arranged for him to wait. Standing on the corner, Jerry could not help glancing around, trying to see them when Mirage Knight or some Vigilante appeared.

Just as Jerry stared nervously around him, a nondescript taxi slowly stopped in front of him. Card ~ The door opened and a person walked out. Jerry had only glanced and ignored it, after all, Vigilante wouldn't pick him up in a low transport like a taxi, and he preferred that Spiderman fly over from the sky and take him away.

However, Jerry was clearly wrong this time. The man who came down from the taxi was wearing a full-body crimson tight leather suit with two long blades in his back and two guns around his waist. It was during this time that he thought about the famous Deadpool.

"You are ...!" Seeing the man who got off the taxi, Jerry shouted excitedly, apparently, he recognized Deadpool.

However, Jerry's words were interrupted before he finished speaking, because Wade who came to Jerry didn't say anything, and used the big black bag in his hand to put in the unresponsive Jerry. Then Wade rudely shoved Jerry into the taxi, and he got into it again. The whole process didn't even take five seconds.

Shout!!

“Woohoo! Get it, buddy, let’s go.” After getting into the taxi, Wade patted the bag placed on the back seat and said to the driver beside him.

“Okay, Mr. Deadpool.” The driver apparently wasn’t surprised by Wade’s extraordinary and strange actions and set off with his foot on the accelerator.

As for Jerry who was put in the bag by Wade, although he didn’t expect such a treatment, he didn’t panic, because he recognized Deadpool, and he knew that this Vigilante was also a member of the Mirage Knight group, so his safety was no problem. So, Jerry didn’t yell and struggle after being put in the bag, which saved him from getting knocked out by Wade.

As the cab left the corner, Daredevil emerged from the shadows behind the convenience store. Lin Rui doesn’t have much trust in Sky’s Eye, so he had already asked Daredevil to come here to observe whether there is an ambush while sending the Deadpool to fetch him.

In addition to Daredevil’s advance observation, Jack also arranged a lot of people to carefully look if Wade’s taxi was being followed or not. This is the first time that they were found and they had to be careful. Fortunately, neither Daredevil nor Jack found any ambush or unexpected people. Therefore, Sky’s Eye is credible for the time being.

Almost an hour later, Wade is carrying Jerry to the guardian base. Daredevil, Jack, and Mirage Knight are waiting for them here. As for Spiderman, Lin Rui is also upset that he broke his appointment again.

Call!

Putting Jerry’s bag on the open space, Wade then poured him out of the bag. Jerry, who bumped all the way here, got used to the faint light outside and then looked around seriously. When he saw the four Vigilantes around him, Jerry’s eyes lit up.

“Is this my enlistment ceremony?!”

Chapter 226 Jerry’s Gift for the Team

A few minutes later, Jerry was already sitting on the chair that Lin Rui had arranged for him, and several of the League of Defenders were standing in front of him to looking at him. After such a period of observation, Lin Rui can almost be sure that this guy in front of him should indeed be just a single man and not someone from any secret force and Daredevil’s judgment is the same.

“So, are you one of my fans?” Deadpool asked happily, staring at Jerry.

Although Wade also hit a lot of gangsters under the name of Deadpool during this time, the video that saved the cat was also included in the news of the life section, but so far no one has set up a Deadpool’s personal fan website for him. So, seeing this guy calling himself League of Defender fan, Wade was still very happy.

In fact, Jerry mostly admires Mirage Knight and Spiderman. It is not wrong to say that he is half of Daredevil’s fans. But he couldn’t say the same for Deadpool and Jack. After all, Jack hasn’t involved himself in many things and Deadpool just joined the League of Defender. Sky’s Eye hasn’t noticed that this guy who looks a little funny is worthy of his admiration.

“That’s right! I’m Mr. Deadpool’s fan!” However, after noticing Wade’s seemingly inadvertent hand on his waist gun, Jerry quickly and surely answered. If he didn’t agree, he was worried that Deadpool would pull out his gun.

“Deadpool, don’t scare him.” Wade’s small gesture obviously didn’t escape Lin Rui’s eyes and he said with a smile and stepped forward at the same time.

“So, do you really want to join us?” Lin Rui asked seriously before coming to Jerry.

“Yes! I want to join you! I want to join the League of Defender! I know what you guys do is dangerous, but I’m not afraid. And, I belong to the technical staff, and I should be very good in the logistics department too.” Hearing Lin Rui, Sky’s Eye answered seriously. At the same time, he also knows where his strengths are. He doesn’t want to fight with those powerful guys outside with Mirage Knight or Spiderman. He wants to live his life.

“Are you really aware of the dangers of what we do? Maybe you found some dark sides on the Internet that were not exposed to the real world, but that might just be the tip of the iceberg.” Staring at Jerry’s eyes, Lin Rui asked again. Although Lin Rui does feel that a technician is needed in the team, especially in computer networking, he also needs a guy who is trustworthy and will not shrink back from any situation.

“I understand that I don’t know a lot of things even if my hacking skills are high, but I really want to do something for this world, as you guys are doing!” Jerry was already prepared before contacting Mirage Knight. He doesn’t just want to be a hacker hidden under the Internet all his life. He has to use his ability to do something really valuable. Thinking back then, he was also a teenager with a heroic dream!

Hearing Jerry’s answer, Lin Rui’s face did not change, but he was already satisfied. The guy with the nickname Sky’s Eye is able to break the defense of J.A.R.V.I.S. And he has enough willpower.

“What do you think?” Although Lin Rui was satisfied with Jerry, he asked a few people around him.

“I think he’s okay. Our team really lacks logistics staff.” Although Daredevil has now joined SHIELD, he is still a member of the League of Defender team.

In the future, maybe Daredevil will be the only member of both the Avengers Alliance and the League of Defender. Moreover, with Lin Rui, the development of the League of Defender may not be worse than that of the Avengers. After all, there are currently no Iron Man, Thor, and Hulk in the Avengers and they only have Captain America.

Hearing Jack and Daredevil’s words, Jerry, who was sitting nervously, unconsciously revealed his joy. Two people in the League of Defender have agreed to let him join, so the chances of him being accepted are very high.

“I don’t care, but in order to get my vote, you must create a personal fan website for Deadpool, and it must be better than the one Spiderman has!” It was Wade’s turn, and he watched the nervous Jerry before proposing his requirements.

“No problem! I will definitely make a fan website for Mr. Deadpool!” After hearing Deadpool’s words, Jerry quickly agreed. Although Wade’s requirements are better than Spiderman fans’ website, Jerry is willing to spend time and not fail. However, in the end, how many fans Wade will have is beyond his control.

“Well, I agree with him.” With Jerry’s assurance, Wade then showed his attitude.

“Well, then there is only Spiderman left. However, everyone here has expressed their suggestions. So, I now announce that the League of Defender will accept Sky’s Eye as a trainee, and after a period of inspection, he will become a full-time member.” His teammates have already stated their position, and Lin Rui finally concluded and announced the results. Even if Peter disagrees later, they are here four to one, and Jerry has no problem joining the Guardians. Also, Lin Rui doesn’t think Peter would disagree.

“Yeah!” Jerry cheered when he heard Mirage Knight’s final announcement. Although he is still a trainee now, he is confident that these Vigilante will recognize himself, he is a talented hacker!

“Well, now that we have accepted you, then there are still some things to be figured out. First of all, please tell us how did you find us.” Looking at the excited Jerry, Lin Rui waved and asked.

A few minutes later, Lin Rui and the others around him look strange. On the one hand, they learned that it was Peter who exposed himself because of the photos he took. On the other hand, Jerry briefly introduced his abilities in these minutes, which showed Lin Rui and others what a powerful hacker can do. For example, Jerry surprised Lin Rui and his friends by simply hacking into the internal system of an Internet company in New York using the base computer.

“So, you made this yourself?” Lin Rui, who had seen Jerry’s ability, was playing with a headset-style technology product at the moment, and then asked curiously.

Daredevil and Jack also have such a thing in their hands. This headset is a gift prepared by Jerry for this meeting and joining the League of Defender.

“Yes, it took me two months to complete the system in the headset. Although the appearance of the headset is a bit rough, after all, I am playing with a computer and have the average hands-on ability. However, I can guarantee that you will like it.” Jerry also had a headset in his hand, and answered Lin Rui seriously after hearing what he said.

“Can it really have such powerful functions as you just said?” Jack asked with a small headset flipped in his hand.

Just now Jerry introduced the function of this gift when he took them out, but it’s the function that made Lin Rui and others unbelievable. According to Jerry, a system he personally compiled can penetrate the entire New York city network, not only viewing the online information of countless people but it could also hack into New York police and private surveillance systems to access the camera feeds. Taking this a step further, Jerry can even use this system to intercept the call of the target person, which is pretty shocking.

The earpiece equipment Jerry made is a set of contacts that can be used by the team to communicate with each other and make the system communicate with each other. At present, the function of this equipment is still a little single, with only one earpiece and an interlocutor. However, Jerry can add more technologies in the future.

“Yes, and it will be even more powerful in the future.” Again, Jerry answered seriously.

“However, there are still some places in New York where my system cannot penetrate. For example, Stark Industries’ Advanced Intelligent JARVIS, that level of intelligence can already detect my system and perform corresponding defense.” However, this time Jerry again added a sentence. Although he is a genius, there is more than one genius in this world.

“I thought you could really invade all networks, that would have been really scary.” Hearing what Jerry added later, Lin Rui finally believed him. However, even then the system is powerful enough. Accepting Jerry’s joining their team has been a wise decision, and Lin Rui was already very convinced at this time.

Chapter 227 Nick’s Confession

Despite Lin Rui’s advance warning of the Hydra organization and Fury’s full fight plans, SHIELD has been dealt a heavy blow and its existence has also been exposed to the outside world. It took SHIELD and the World Security Directors a while to get the situation under their control, and now, more than a week later, Fury can finally relax a bit.

At this time, in the Director’s office at SHIELD’s headquarters, Fury was seriously watching a video on the computer screen in front of him. The video footage was shaking, but the picture displayed was very clear. There are two people in the picture, standing in the corner is the Winter Soldier in a black jacket and a mask, and the person standing in front of the Winter Soldier is Mirage Knight. Fury was watching a surveillance video of the battle between Lin Rui and Bucky that happened more than a week ago and he couldn’t understand what he had found.

Da Da ~

While Fury was watching the surveillance video intently, Captain Rogers came over from behind him. Fury apparently knows that he was behind him and said hello without turning his head. “Come and see, it seems that our mysterious Mirage Knight was hiding something from us.”

“Isn’t that normal? There are so many things you haven’t told me either.” Coming up behind Fury, Steve said in a subtle response as he knew that Fury keeps everything close to himself. But Fury can’t help it, he is the Director of SHIELD and the fewer people know about some things that he had seen, the better.

Hearing Steve’s calm tone, Fury’s heart jumped. Fury does have many things to hide from Rogers, but those are not important and Rogers will say something if he minds it. However, regarding the Winter Soldier in the surveillance video, Fury does not know if Captain Rogers has seen it before.

Fury actually knew about Winter Soldier, which Hydra had kept for 60 years from SHIELD’s internal data that was decrypted. So, in addition to Lin Rui knowing that the Winter Soldier in the surveillance video is Bucky, Fury has already guessed who he is. Fury asked Steve to watch this surveillance video together with him this time to make him prepare mentally, after all, Bucky is Steve’s best friend. If Steve finds out later in the battle, it may cause unnecessary accidental losses.

“So, I want to tell you one thing today. But, first of all, don’t get too excited or angry when you see what’s coming next.” Steve looked at him carefully as Fury continued.

“Hmm? What’s the matter?” Steve asked in surprise as he heard Fury’s words. Hydra has been exposed, what else was Fury hiding?

“See it for yourself.” As Fury reached for the screen in front of him, he stepped aside.

Captain Rogers followed Fury’s hand and looked at the screen. There was a picture of Mirage Knight and Winter Soldier facing each other more than a week ago. In Steve’s sight, the injured Hydra soldier was repelled by Mirage Knight, but Mirage Knight did not continue the attack him and stood still. Steve’s judgment about what Mirage Knight should be talking to the soldier was something that puzzled him.

From the perspective of this monitor, only Mirage Knight’s back can be photographed and the camera is just facing Winter Soldier’s front area. Just when Captain Rogers wondered what Mirage Knight was talking to this Hydra soldier, Winter Soldier’s face who had already risen up from the ground appeared on the monitor, this time there was no mask. So, when Steve saw Bucky’s familiar face, he felt as if he got hit by a train. He stared at the person in the surveillance video while his heart was beating rapidly and the memories of his best friend quickly surged up.

Noting the reaction from Captain Rogers next to him, Fury didn’t bother him at this time and he let Steve calm himself down first.

After seeing Bucky’s face, Steve stared at the surveillance video more carefully. He reached out and clicked on the screen a few times to zoom in on the screen.

In the surveillance video, Mirage Knight appears to want to speak to Bucky, but Bucky does not answer and plans to continue attacking Mirage Knight. But just as he was about to attack, he stopped. In the video, Steve notices that Mirage Knight seems to have shouted something him as he can see the back of his body shaking.

After Mirage Knight shouted something, Bucky’s mood seemed to change. He held his head in his hands and began to talk nonsense. Then he calmed down. The surveillance video is in high-definition, and Fury has already had some analytics read Bucky’s lips and that words had already put on screen as subtitles.

“Steve? Who is he? Who am I?!” That’s what Bucky said when he calmed down. When he saw the short words on the screen, Steve’s heart was racing violently and he already had a bad feeling in his heart.

However, he almost cried out when he saw the next scene in the video because Bucky rushed towards Mirage Knight once again and just when Steve thought that Mirage Knight was going to kill Bucky, there was a huge explosion outside the wall where Bucky was standing. The location he was standing collapsed and soot and flying debris covered the area.

There seemed to be a black shadow rushing out of the smoke and dust, and then the light flashed again before the surveillance, and then the black shadow rushing out was blown back again at a faster speed, and then the shadow finally wobbly on the wall behind it. It was Mirage Knight who had rushed out.

Seeing this scene, Captain Rogers was very confused. He didn't know why Mirage Knight did it but he had obviously seen that Mirage Knight didn't want Bucky to die.

At the end of the video, Mirage Knight broke free from the wall and walked to the corner of the collapsed wall and looked down before leaving. When the figure of Mirage Knight disappeared from the surveillance, the entire video was over, and it returned to the original picture again.

After the video, Steve reached out and swiped across the screen quickly, and finally freeze the entire video at the moment Bucky showed his face. Maximizing the video, Steve determined that the Hydra's assassin was Bucky. The owner of that face and he goes back to their childhood and he would not forget it.

"Later, I sent someone to find him, but I didn't find anything. He should not have died, but escaped." After Rogers at his side finally watched the video, Fury's words passed slowly.

"When did you know?" Steve asked in a low tone without looking away from the screen.

"It's been a while, but I haven't been sure that it was him." Faced with Captain Rogers's question, Fury answered truthfully.

Boom!

With Fury's reply, Steve punched the base of the monitor in front of him, making a dent in the solid base. Steve is obviously furious that Fury knew about Bucky and didn't tell him. Bucky Barnes, his brother in all but blood who was in the army with him and who died while fighting against Hydra, and now he find that 66 years later, his best friend was still alive.

Glancing at the dent made by Steve, Fury's eyes flickered. This seemed to be a bit different from what he had expected. He had underestimated the relationship between Steve and Bucky.

"Where is he now?" Steve asked while taking his fist back.

"After last week's war, we have been searching for Hydra's bases around the world. One after another, Hydra's hidden team has been eliminated, but he has not been found. As the Winter Soldier programmed and trained by Hydra, he is no longer the person he used to be. "After answering Steve's words first, Fury added another sentence. He didn't want Captain Rogers to affect Hydra's annihilation plan because of his personal feelings.

"I'm well aware of it!" Steve replied coldly and he had already sent this surveillance video to his terminal.

Call!

Then Steve didn't plan to listen to what Fury was saying afterward and quickly left Director's office after turning around. Fury could only silently sigh as he watched Steve's departure, hoping that he was not wrong today. However, even if he doesn't tell Steve this information today, he will find out this information for himself in the future, and things will probably get worse.

Chapter 228: Missing Peter

New York, Empire State High School, a new week has begun but Lin Rui is not in a good mood. Yesterday, the joy of a top hacker joining them had disappeared because he didn't see Peter in the morning and Lin Rui couldn't even contact Peter now.

In the eyes of the surrounding classmates, the triangular circle formed by Lin Rui, Harry, and Peter last semester is now divided. Lin Rui and Peter, who were together last week, were alone now. Students around them are wondering what had happened to their golden triangle. After all, Lin Rui is still famous in New York Empire State High School for his talent or family background.

And while Lin Rui was sitting in his seat thinking about what happened to Peter, Tom, who had previously moved to the last row of the classroom, was watching him silently from behind him.

Since Lin Rui became Mirage Knight and founded the League of Defender, he has really neglected his good friend from childhood. Because now, Lin Rui's life is not something that any ordinary person would understand, he got lucky with Peter and Harry as one of them is Spiderman and the other may become a little Green Goblin and he would be able to get along with them more casually.

Of course, the alienation between Tom and Lin Rui has his own reasons. It seemed that Lin Rui and Peter had a closer relationship, and Tom, who couldn't fit in, consciously distanced himself from Lin Rui. However, Tom has been keeping a close eye on his good friend since then.

Perhaps without Lin Rui knowing it, Tom already knew a lot of things he didn't expect. Speaking of which, Tom is one of the few fans who joined the Mirage Knight fans website from the beginning.

Buzz ~

Just as Lin Rui sat in a daze on his seat, his cell phone vibrated. Since knowing that Sky Eye's hacking skills are superb, Lin Rui has asked him to modify his Mirage Knight's phone so that others won't be able to track it. In this way, Lin Rui can carry the phone belonging to Mirage Knight with him in normal times.

Glancing at the screen of the shaking phone, Lin Rui was a little surprised by the name displayed on it but he quickly recovered and put his phone back into his pocket without answering. School will be over soon, so he would just call back and it will be fine.

Bell ~

Soon after the school bell rang, Lin Rui quickly packed his schoolbag and left the classroom. He will go to Peter's house today as Peter has been out of touch for several days. After thinking about Peter's strange behavior recently, Lin Rui feels it necessary to meet him now.

Tom blinked after watching Lin Rui leave quickly and then left the school carrying his schoolbag. Seeing the way he left, he was not going home.

On the way to Peter's house, Lin Rui had taken out Mirage Knight's cell phone and then dialed out the previous call. If the other person is okay then he wouldn't call him, but he doesn't know what's wrong with him now as he should be busy right now.

"Hey, Mirage Knight, hello!" The call was soon connected, and a deep voice of Captain Rogers came from the other end of the phone.

"Hello, Captain Rogers. I am surprised that you had the time to call me, shouldn't you be busy with SHIELD?" Lin Rui asked faintly when he heard Captain Rogers's voice.

Just yesterday, Lin Rui also saw an interview with Captain Rogers on TV. Now Steve has become an American super idol, and his fame has surpassed Vigilantes of New York like Spiderman and Mirage Knight by many times.

"Mirage Knight, are you free right now? I have something that I need to talk to you about." Steve asked earnestly without noticing the ridicule in Lin Rui's tone.

"Is it now? I am not free for the time being, but I would be free this evening." Although Rui had some doubts about what Steve was looking for, he still answered truthfully.

"In the evening? Good, I'll contact you again at that time. By the way, are you in New York now?" Captain Rogers seemed regretful to hear Mirage Knight's answer but then he asked again.

"Yeah, I'm in New York." It seemed that Lin Rui had heard a little anxiety in Captain Rogers's words, and his tone became more serious.

Did something happen? But shouldn't SHIELD be dealing with the remnant of Hydra at this time? The completion of my mainline quest is also slowly rising. Captain Rogers didn't say anything about what he wanted with Lin Rui, but Lin Rui had already made several guesses.

Speaking of which, Lin Rui only reminded Fury of Hydra at the beginning and he did not contribute much to the war that happened some time ago, but SHIELD's attack on Hydra has also counted as Lin Rui's mission and the mainline quest has been slowly reaching its completion rate, even if he doesn't know how the calculation is being done? But this is also a good thing for Lin Rui and he won't bother with this.

"Then I'll come to you in New York in the evening." After making an appointment with Lin Rui, Captain Rogers hangs up the phone, never telling Lin Rui what he wants to see him for.

"What's the matter?" Lin Rui, who also hung up the phone, thought silently.

Lin Rui would not know that Captain Rogers is coming here to see him because he saw Bucky and his confrontation in the fight. After watching the surveillance video, Steve felt that Mirage Knight should have known the identity of the Winter Soldier, but he never told him anything. Moreover, from the monitoring point of view, Lin Rui apparently held back his strength on Bucky from the very beginning. Later, when Bucky fell from the corner of the wall collapsed by the missile, Lin Rui obviously intended to rescue him but was he was unfortunately left behind as a second missile hit him.

So, now Steve, who has a lot of grievances against Fury, doesn't want to go to Fury to ask about Bucky and he is instead going to Lin Rui to learn about Bucky. This mysterious Vigilante should have the information Steve wants to know.

"Hello Aunt Mei, is Peter home?" Soon, Lin Rui came to Peter's house, and it was Aunt Mei who was at home that opened the door to Lin Rui.

"Oh, Jackson! Didn't Peter go to school?" Aunt Mei, who let Jackson into the living room, asked Lin Rui a little strangely. Peter had already gone to school in the morning.

“Uh ... No, Peter was at school. But I had an appointment with him to do an after-school assignment, but he ran away first, so I came here.” Lin Rui knew that Peter was skipping class when he heard Aunt Mei’s words, so in order not to make Aunt Mei worry, Lin Rui lied to her.

“Ohh, Peter hasn’t returned home yet, maybe he went to go to someplace. He had been going out a lot in these two days and I don’t know what is going on with him. No matter what I say, I can’t seem to get through to him these days ” Aunt Mei said helplessly when she heard Lin Rui’s words. It seemed that she could see that Peter had changed recently, but she could only blame teen ageness for this. After all, Peter is not an ordinary boy. He is a genius.

“Ohh, Don’t worry Aunt May, I will look for him and talk to him.” Since Peter is not at home, Lin Rui doesn’t plan to stay here anymore, and he plans to leaves.

“I Know.” Lin Rui had quickly left Peter’s house after saying that.

Walking on the side of the road, Lin Rui’s shadow was stretched by the setting sun and the dark feeling in his heart became stronger and stronger.

“Peter, where the hell are you?”

Chapter 229 Meeting Captain Rogers

Just as Lin Rui was looking around for the missing Peter, Peter was standing on the edge of the roof of a building wearing a Spiderman suit.

Since Venom’s integration into the Spiderman suit that day, Peter has never had a nightmare. But every time Peter puts on the Spiderman suit, his personality will change drastically and he craves to show his powers and that’s where the recent Spiderman incident in New York comes in.

And, as Venom’s influence on Peter grew, he could hardly take off the Spiderman suit. Just like now, Peter has been wandering around New York for a whole day in the Spiderman suit. Regardless of whether he encountered a gang drug deal, a small gang crossfire, or a robbery, a thief, or anything else., Peter will appear and he started beating them up more then he usually does and he seems to like the brutality of punching kicking someone hard.

Under the constant deepening influence of Venom, Peter is now almost completely changed. Not only did he ignore the many call requests from Mirage Knight, he didn’t even go to class now.

Of course, under such changes, Peter also found anomalies in Spiderman’s suit and the most obvious is the color change. As Venom parasitized in Peter’s suit longer, the color of the Spiderman suit quickly spread towards black.

Peter had even seen the entire suit come alive when he took off the Spiderman suit, splitting black tentacles from all over the suit and reaching out to Peter as if he did not want to leave Peter. Peter was still a little bit afraid of this kind of thing but inspired by the inexplicable excitement in his heart, Peter has been using the Venom suit. And now he is even more unafraid to use the convenience brought by the Venom suit, a kind of mental comfort and great enhancement of strength, which makes Peter very addicted to it.

“What the hell are you?” Peter whispered while looking at the Spiderman suit that had turned almost black, raising his hand to touch it while he stood a few hundred meters high.

Uh ~

As Peter asks questions, a Spiderman suit on his arm gives off a sort of animated twist. And after the twist is over, the suit’s color gets a little darker again, looking especially eerie in the setting sun.

“Then let’s play again.” Peter seemed to be talking to himself, and he let go and fell to the street below.

Call!

Then Peter jumped directly from the top of the building, which was a few hundred meters away. Puff Puff! Between the waves, Peter had disappeared from the streets of New York.

At eight in the evening, Lin Rui, who had not found Peter, had to give up his search temporarily. After talking to Aunt Mei again, Lin Rui rushed to the place he previously agreed to meet Captain Rogers.

Because Captain America has a big name now and because Lin Rui obviously wants to meet him as Mirage Knight, the place where they are going to meet is very secret and it is in a deserted park far from New York City. Lin Rui originally thought that he would meet him at a cafe in the SHIELD office, but Captain Rogers doesn’t want his meeting with Lin Rui to be known by SHIELD or Fury.

When Lin Rui wore the Phantom Suit and went to the lake in that park, he found that Steve was already waiting for him. Steve quickly turned to look at Mirage Knight when he heard the movement behind him.

“Hello, Mirage Knight. Thank you for meeting me here.” Steve, dressed casually, suppressed his eagerness and thanked Lin Rui first.

“It’s nothing. Speaking of which, you are now the hero of the United States and people have found that you are still alive. Did something happen for you to come to New York this time?” Hearing Steve’s words, Lin Rui walked towards a wooden bench by the lake and asked.

“Actually, I came to meet you this time because I wanted to ask you something. I wonder if you could tell me, but why did you deliberately let go of that Hydra Assassin at SHIELD headquarters last time?” Following Lin Rui towards the bench and sitting down, Steve didn’t say anything about Bucky and instead, he asked a question.

“Hmm? Let that person go on purpose? Captain Rogers, you have fought with that person. You must know how strong he is. I didn’t catch up with him because he escaped from me.” Hearing Steve’s words, Lin Rui frowned slightly and replied in a calm tone. He didn’t know that the battle between him and Bucky had been monitored and filmed, and now lying was only going to convince Captain Rogers that he was hiding something.

“Mirage Knight, let’s not hide anything. I know that Winter Soldier is Bucky Barnes and he is also the assassin made by Hydra, he is my best friend and he should have died 60 years ago!” Seeing that Mirage Knight was going to continue to pretend, Steve said directly.

“Also, the surveillance video of your confrontation with Bucky is in my hands, so don’t lie anymore. I know you must know something about Bucky, otherwise, you wouldn’t have let him go. What else do you know?” Steve asked while staring at Lin Rui’s eyes which were exposed from the mask.

In fact, when Lin Rui heard Captain Rogers say Winter Soldier, he already knew things could not be concealed anymore. He must have known Bucky’s identity. So after Steve asked the following words, Lin Rui was not too surprised.

“Hoo ~ now that you already know, I have nothing to hide. Yes, I did know from the beginning that there is a Hydra Assassin known as the Winter Soldier who has been around for sixty years. I met him for the first time outside your apartment and I had already confirmed that he was Colonel Bucky Barnes. I didn’t tell you that because I just felt that the timing was wrong. You have to know that the current Bucky is not the Bucky you know now.” Lin Rui said unhurriedly.

The brother-type relationship between Steve Rogers and Bucky Barnes is also a major feature in Marvel movies. After all, this kind of relationship that spans six decades is not comparable to ordinary people.

“I know what happened to Bucky. I have asked Natasha to help me collect information about Hydra’s experiments on Bucky.” Speaking of this, Steve couldn’t hold back his anger and distress.

After seeing those materials, Steve can’t wait to smash all the Hydra left in this world to vent his heart. During the operation sixty years ago, Bucky fell off the cliff but instead of being killed, Hydra captured him and experimented on him. Finally, after constant physical transformation and brain hypnosis, Bucky Barnes, the heroic soldier, was transformed into the only perfect Winter Soldier. Over the past sixty years, he has been constantly frozen and unsealed to perform various secret missions. His hands have been dyed red by Hydra.

“Now that you already know, why did you come to me? I don’t know much more than you do now.” Lin Rui asked curiously when Steve said this.

“I came to see you and wanted to know what you said to Bucky the other day? It seems to remind him of something.” From the monitoring analysis of the Bucky, Rogers clearly saw that Bucky had said his name, which is not something that a brainwashed person could say.

“Oh! This! Actually, I was just talking about some previous things at the time. I wanted to try if I could awaken Bucky’s previous memories. I didn’t expect it to have some effect.”

“Well, as long as Bucky’s willpower is strong enough, and then he stopped receiving further brainwashing in the future, I think he should be able to recover.” Nodding gently, Lin Rui answered in a serious voice. Lin Rui does not dare to be sure right now, after all, the mind is a mysterious thing and its functioning is very complicated. If BuckyRecovery fails, it will not be a face.

“Great! I believe Bucky will be able to recover! But, we have to find him first! Do you know where Bucky is now?” Steve asked, after getting the answer he wanted.

Do you really think that I am some sort of Gennie?!! You do realize that I don’t know everything! Hearing Captain Rogers’s words, Lin Rui reluctantly spoke in his heart.

“I don’t know. Whether Bucky has recovered his memories or not, I don’t think he will be easily found. However, with SHIELD’s strength, it shouldn’t be impossible to find Bucky. I believe you will be able to meet him again.”

“Thank you, Mirage Knight.” Upon hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Steve’s eyes were a little dull and he said in a low tone.

“You don’t have to thank me, I didn’t help you that much. However, finding other Hydra bases should help in finding Bucky. After all, Winter Soldier is dead for Hydra.” At the end of the chat, Lin Rui did not forget to pour oil on Hydra, This is conducive to the rapid completion of his mainline quest.

“Okay, I see. Mirage Knight, thank you for your message. I will help you if you need my help in the future, goodbye.” The purpose of this visit has been achieved and Steve stood up and said.

“Well, goodbye, Captain Rogers.”

Chapter 230: Out of Control Peter

The next morning after meeting with Captain Rogers, Lin Rui received a call from Aunt May. On the phone, Aunt May said that Peter had only come home late last night and there seems to be something wrong with Aunt May’s tone on the phone. So, while calling and asking for a leave from the teacher, Lin Rui was already driving his broken jeep towards Peter’s house.

Half an hour later, when Lin Rui ran to the door of Peter’s house, Aunt May just opened the door from the inside.

“Jackson, there you are! Go and see Peter. I don’t think he’s feeling right. I have to go to work today, but I’ll be back early.” As she gathers up her belongings, Aunt May speaks quickly to Lin Rui, who has already walked through the door.

“I know, Don’t worry Aunt May, you go to your work, I will talk to him and call you if there is something wrong.” Seeing Peter’s aunt getting worried, Lin Rui quickly answered.

“Ok, thank you. Peter is in his room, you can go in.” It seems that she is going to be late for work and Aunt May went out in a hurry.

Bang ~

Lin Rui closed the door after Aunt May went out, and then he walked up to Peter’s room. It has been a few days since he has seen Peter and the Alliance’s armguards have somehow failed, Lin Rui wonders what had happened to Peter and what’s going on now.

Bouncing ~ Bouncing ~ Dong Dong ~ Dong Dong!!

As soon as he opened Peter's door, a burst of rhythmic music filled Lin Rui's ears. Peter, whom Lin Rui had been looking for days, was standing on his bed, dancing to the music, looking very excited.

"Hey! Jackson, you are here! Let's dance together!" Peter saw him when Lin Rui pushed the door open and then he directly asked Lin Rui to dance together with him. Peter in this state was obviously abnormal, and Lin Rui even began to think if Peter had become an idiot.

Card!

Looking at Peter dancing on the bed, Lin Rui didn't say anything, but went to the speaker and reached out to turn off the music. With Lin Rui's action, the loud music in the room disappeared instantly and Peter's dancing on the bed stopped. Looking down at Lin Rui slightly, Peter seemed a little confused as to why he wanted to interrupt his dancing.

"Peter, what's the matter with you? Are you sick? Are you acting out?." Lin Rui, who was getting stared at by Peter, asked seriously.

In the few moments since entering the door, Lin Rui has carefully observed Peter and even scanned him carefully with the internal force which left Peter's body after a few seconds, but the result was not very fruitful. However, Peter's current performance is unlikely to be all right.

Call!

Hearing Lin Rui's words, Peter jumped out of bed and fell in front of Lin Rui.

"What's wrong? I'm fine! I think I'm feeling much better now than before! Don't you think?" Opening his eyes to look at Lin Rui, Peter asked with a smile but Peter would not behave like this before.

Huh ~

Staring at Peter's eyes, Lin Rui's expression turned pale and he pushed him away a bit. From Peter's eyes, Lin Rui felt strange. It's not that strangeness between people you don't know, it's more like a kind of indifferent emotion like he isn't even seeing him as a human being.

Pushed aside by Lin Rui, Peter slides back towards his bed and picks up the controller in front of him, looking like he's about to play a game.

"Why didn't you go to class for the last two days?" Lin Rui asked, sitting beside Peter while watching Peter's behavior.

"Class? Oh, I forgot. And, don't you feel that classes are boring? Actually, for us, the current classes aren't even necessary anymore. Didn't Harry already leave school early? We have better grades than Harry, why should we go to school when we would learn nothing there?" Peter fiddled with the game controller and replied casually.

Brush!!

"Are you really Peter Parker? The Peter I know wouldn't think like that, he wouldn't be a person who just played outside and didn't go home for the sake of his joy, even without class!" Hearing Peter's answer, Lin Rui couldn't help it anymore and grabbed Peter's shoulder, who was going to play the game and forcibly turned him to face him and spoke.

Lin Rui now wants to put on the Mirage Knight suit directly and let Peter know that he knows all his secrets, and then use his internal energy to carefully examine Peter's body.

"Really? I was such a good baby before, but now I have changed." Peter looked at Lin Rui, who was a little angry and said indifferently.

Then Peter grabbed Lin Rui's hand and took it off from his shoulders and went back to the game. This attitude was unlike anything Lin Rui had ever encountered before, and he was momentarily stunned. What's more, Lin Rui felt a slight tingling sensation in the palm of Peter's hand when he pulled away from his hand, but when he looked back, he found no wound. Lin Rui thought it was an illusion.

"Peter, you're really acting weird right now, haven't you noticed it yourself?" Lin Rui, who still didn't know what went wrong with Peter, continued to persuade him and he was also feeling that he had forgotten something important.

Lin Rui has also seen a lot of photos and videos on the Internet about Spiderman's attack on criminals in the past few days. He feels that he should remember something but he couldn't remember it.

Peter had become too tainted by Venom to respond to Lin Rui's concerns, he has grown selfish and unemotional, like a cold machine.

In this way, with Peter's indifference towards him, Lin Rui stayed with him for a day at his house. Lin Rui plans to change to his Mirage Knight persona after the night and come to Peter again. At that time, he will pull Peter for a careful inspection. He must find out what went wrong with Peter.

However, before the evening, Peter planned to go out before Aunt May was off work. Although Lin Rui strongly dissuaded him, Peter wouldn't listen to him at this time. Finally, Lin Rui reluctantly went out with Peter.

And Peter's destination turned out to be a lively bar, a place where Peter would not have come before. Peter who came to the bar seemed to have completely released his "nature", standing alone under the lights and dancing freely, and soon attracted the entire bar's attention.

Peter was a little handsome at first, and now he looks cool dancing in the center of the stage, it is normal for him to get attention in this bar. But Lin Rui, who was staring at Peter became increasingly disturbed, Peter's behavior has now become completely unreasonable to him.

Amid the cheers of the surrounding young people and music, Peter danced and skated to the edge of the dance floor beside a beautiful girl. After sliding in front of the beautiful girl, Lin Rui reaches out and makes an invitation gesture. He is asking the beautiful girl to dance with him!

"I'm sorry, you're not my type, though you're handsome." Faced with Peter's invitation, the beautiful girl refused with a smile.

However, Peter did not seem to hear the refusal of the beautiful girl and he even directly reached out and took her hand in his to pull her into the dance floor. Now the girl was getting a little flustered and was about to break free when a hand reached out to help her stop Peter. It's Lin Rui and he really can't stand it anymore.

“Peter, isn’t this enough? Let’s go home before it;s too late!” Lin Rui whispered while holding Peter’s hand which was holding the girl’s hand. Peter’s condition was a lot like the symptoms of bipolar or dual personality disorder and Lin Rui had to wake him up before Peter was completely out of control.

What surprised Lin Rui, however, was that Peter whose hand was caught by him only glanced up at him and then a sudden powerful force came from the grasped hand.

Call!

Puff Puff!

Unable to react, Lin Rui was swept aside by Peter’s wave and flew two meters upside down before crashing to a stop on a table. Peter’s wave has a little Spiderman power in it, how ordinary people won’t be able to stand it, but fortunately, Lin Rui is not ordinary, but he also got swept out by accident.

Lin Rui falls to the ground feeling a little confused, he does not know why Peter had hit him back, Did Peter even remember that he is his best friend? However just as Lin Rui gets up with the help of someone else, Peter suddenly looks at him and then hurriedly pushes aside the person next to him and rushes out.

“Peter! Peter!” By the time Lin Rui ran after Peter, he had already lost sight of him, Peter had disappeared again.

“Are you OK?”

“Do you want to call the police?”

“I’m fine, I don’t need you to call the police. He is my friend. He hasn’t been feeling very good recently.” Facing the people around him, Lin Rui waved his hand and explained while thinking. “Peter, what’s going on with you?!”
