Chapter 231 Help

Call!

Brush! Brush!

After running out of the bar, Peter darted out of the busy nearby street under the cover of darkness and finally disappeared under the somewhat surprised sight of passers-by.

“What’s wrong with me? That’s my best friend, Jackson! I actually hurt my best friend!” Peter yelled while running fast. At this time, Peter seemed to be recovering because Lin Wei was “injured” because of him. However, Peter who finds himself in a wrong situation will no longer stay with Lin Rui, so he chooses to escape.

After running into the shadows with no one around him, Peter jumped up a little under his feet. As he jumps, Peter’s blazer changes rapidly, quickly morphing into a dark black Spiderman suit. It turned out that Venom had been on Peter and had never left him!

Thwip!

As soon as he raised his hand, a spider silk thread shot from Peter’s wrist and stuck to the high-rise wall. Thwip! Then, Peter, who turned into a black Spiderman, quickly left his original location in a few waves between the high-rise buildings.

That night, Lin Rui did not wait at Peter’s house until he returned. Although Lin Rui was increasingly worried about Peter’s situation, there was no way to find him. So, Lin Rui, who didn’t want to make any trouble for Peter had to resort to asking Tony for help. Peter’s Spiderman suit was designed by Tony. Lin Rui didn’t believe that Tony hadn’t put some kind of tracking device on it, at least a certain positioning function must exist.

While contacting Tony, Lin Rui also gave Sky’s Eye his first mission to find Spiderman in New York through his system and to notify Lin Rui as soon as he found Peter’s whereabouts. Of course, notifying others in the League of Defenders will also do. However, with Peter’s current strength, no one other than Lin Rui in the League of Defender should be able to restrain Peter.

Sky’s Eye, who received Mirage Knight’s mission was particularly excited and immediately put his system into full operation. The dozens of high-performance, self-assembled computers in his home were running at full speed but it was still a lot of work for such a wide range of searches.

Tony’s beach house, Tony is lying on the sofa enjoying the beautiful scenery in the open air. The recent retrofit of the anti-gravity engine for the SHIELD aircraft-carrier is going very well and will probably be ready for final commissioning soon. One of the reasons Tony is so happy is that he had J.A.R.V.I.S intercept the information about him while the top-secret data from the SHIELD was released to the public, including some of Tony’s father Howard Stark’s top-secret tests. Apparently, last time when SHIELD gave Tony his father’s belongings, they were still incomplete.

And just as Tony relaxed and sipped the wine, J.A.R.V.I.S’s voice suddenly sounded out of place, “Sir, Mr. Mirage Knight is calling.”

“Take it. I don’t know what’s the matter with him this time.” Placing the cup on the coffee table in front of him, Tony replied back softly while squinting.

“Yes, sir.” After agreeing, J.A.R.V.I.S had accepted Lin Rui’s call.

“Mirage Knight, is there something wrong again? Last time you asked J.A.R.V.I.S for help and I haven’t even asked you for the favor and you called back again, do you want my help again?” Lin Rui hadn’t spoken yet and Tony had already asked.

“Uh ... I will always remember Mr. Stark’s help. However, this time there is something that requires your help.” Lin Rui said awkwardly at Tony’s slightly ridiculous words.

“Well, let’s talk, what’s the matter?” Tony had already guessed that Mirage Knight would only call him if he needs something so he asked calmly.

“Well, can you locate Spiderman’s spider suit? I can’t contact Spiderman anymore.” Lin Rui asked without asking talking any nonsense.

“Can’t contact Spiderman? I’ll ask J.A.R.V.I.S. J.A.R.V.I.S, where is Spiderman suit at this time?” Tony was a little surprised when he heard Lin Rui’s words and then he ordered J.A.R.V.I.S.

A few seconds later, J.A.R.V.I.S’s voice came out, but his answer changed Tony and Lin Rui’s face on the phone.

“Sir, I can’t locate the spider suit. We lost contact with the spider suit.” This is the answer from J.A.R.V.I.S. as it couldn’t detect the position of the spider suit and any information.

“How is that possible? Is it a system failure?” After hearing J.A.R.V.I.S’s answer, Tony no longer leaned on the sofa and asked seriously after sitting upright.

“The initial assessment is that there has been serious damage to the suit as the signal was completely disconnected 17 hours ago. It is not possible to determine the cause.” The calm voice of J.A.R.V.I.S delivered its analysis.

“Serious damage? How is that possible?” This time, before Tony could speak, Lin Rui on the other end of the phone called out. Judging from Peter’s frequent efforts in these two days, the spider suit doesn’t seem to have any damage at all.

“Mirage Knight, what happened? Did something happen to Spiderman?” Not expecting that something would happen to that little guy after he didn’t pay any attention to him in the past few days. Tony was a little angry and he asked Lin Rui.

“I also want to find out about that, Spiderman’s recent behavior is weird, he is acting like he has a mental problem. Not only is he not acting with us, but he is missing now, and I am worried about what will happen to him.” Facing Tony’s question, Lin Rui was also feeling very helpless. He didn’t know what happened to Peter!

“Mental Problem?! Well, I will let JARVIS search for Spiderman. If necessary, I will also send out the Iron Man Armor and we will find Spiderman safe and sound.” Tony clearly heard Lin Rui’s tone and the worries inside it and he mentioned in a slightly consoling tone.

Speaking of the damage to the spider suit, Tony should have noticed it earlier. It was just a signal anomaly and Tony didn't take it seriously. And now both Peter and the Spiderman suit are gone, Tony has some regrets about not paying attention to the abnormal signal at that time.

"Well, I'll try to find Spiderman here, too. I'll let you know when I get something!" With a yes, Lin Rui hangs up.

"J.A.R.V.I.S."

"Yes, sir."

"Monitor all of New York for 24 hours a day from now, activate two Mark 5 Ironmen Armor and get them on standby."

"Yes, sir."

While Lin Rui, League of Defender, and Tony were all searching for the missing Spiderman, there was another person in New York who was looking for Spiderman.

On the top floor of Osborn's building, in Harry's office. Although it was late, Harry hadn't returned home, and he was staring at the videos and pictures on the computer. Those videos and pictures have only one protagonist, Spiderman, Spiderman who fights on the streets of New York.

"Spiderman, it won't be long. I will get revenge for my father, I will put you down for him." Staring at the aggressive Spiderman on the computer, Harry whispered while clenching his teeth.

Dī Dī ~

Just then, Harry's computer flashed with an email sigh at the bottom right corner.

"Haha! At last!" After clicking on the email and scanning the contents with his eyes, Harry burst into laughter.

"Spiderman! I'll see you soon!"

Chapter 232 Titan One

"Director Harry, do you really want to do this? Although the experiment was theoretically successful, more clinical trials are needed to determine its stability." In Oscorp's secret underground laboratory, the researcher who had been studying Dr. Connors's mutant gene serum stood solemnly beside Harry.

"Don't you already have successful cases? Don't worry, even if there are still some problems, I have the complete gene Recovery serum. If there are any problems, just inject it directly." Hearing the reminder of the experiment leader, Harry waved his hand indifferently while speaking.

After such a long period of research, Osborn's experimental team has finally made progress. This serum was the serum that Dr. Connors used to mutate himself into a super-powerful lizard. Research team had eliminated most of the side effects in their follow-up studies leaving the effect of enhancing the human body. They are not working in the same direction as Dr. Connors. One worked on it to save lives; they worked on it to create superhuman beings.

However, without sufficient clinical trials, they cannot guarantee that the serum will be 100% safe. However, at this time, Harry was filled with hatred towards Spiderman who had killed his father and he couldn't wait any longer. In fact, even if Peter hadn't been affected by Venom's sudden temperament, Harry might not have been able to wait any longer.

"Director Harry ..." The experiment leader wanted to persuade him with a few more words but he was interrupted by Harry before he could finish.

"No need to say anything, give me the Titan One Serum. Don't you want more clinical trials? I'll give you this test." Preventing the person in charge from saying anything next, Harry has already lifted his foot to the front lab, where he will receive an injection of gene serum, named Titan One.

"Ah! Yes, Director Harry." As a researcher working for money, the person in charge had no choice but to agree.

A few minutes later, dressed in a white lab suit, Harry lay peacefully on a surgical bed, surrounded by high-tech biological instruments. Other doctors and scientists are quickly attaching vital signs and other data responders to Harry's body to make sure that he is being monitored every second of the Titan One injection so that they can respond to anything in the process.

After a few more minutes, Harry was covered with tubes, and the instruments around him showed that everything was normal. The doctor examining Harry's condition nodded to the person in charge behind him, indicating that everything was ready.

"Okay, Director Harry, we're about to start injecting Titan One."

"Well, let's get started, I've been prepared for a long time," Harry said quietly, still lying in bed.

Card!

After receiving a reply from Harry, the person in charge no longer hesitated and he reached out and tapped on the screen of an instrument in front of him.

Hum ~ hum ~

As the person in charge turned on the instrument, a robotic arm near Harry's bed suddenly moved and slowly leaned towards Harry on the bed. A few seconds later, the robot arm was close to Harry, and then a transparent thin needle protruded from the foremost end of the robot arm, facing Harry's arm lying flat on the bed.

After the robot arm moved to the exact position, the person in charge standing behind clicked a few more times on the screen.

"Director Harry, it's time to start the injection."

Harry in bed didn't respond as he just stared at the white ceiling above him indifferently.

Card! Buzz ~

The person in charge knew that this was the default attitude of Harry, so he directly controlled the robotic arm and started the last step. The slim needle pointed at Harry's arm slowly moved towards a vein in his arm.

Hoo ~" Harry felt a coolness coming from the skin of his arm and even if he was prepared psychologically, he still exhaled silently.

Moving forward silently, the slender transparent needle pierced Harry's skin without any hindrance and penetrated precisely into the vein.

"Starting the injection procedure!"

As the person in charge spoke, a pale green liquid was quickly injected into Harry's body from the slender needle tube. Two seconds later, the complete gene serum was injected and the slender needle was quickly pulled out of Harry's arm and the robotic arm was removed under the control of the person in charge. Although the person in charge was worried about Harry making himself as a test product, he was still looking forward to the results of the complete experiment they had been working on for so long.

"Huh!" As the gene serum rushes into Harry's body, Harry, who has not made a sound, suddenly lets out a muffled groan, as if trying to suppress something.

Although Harry had also seen some subjects collapse and struggle after being injected with an incomplete gene serum before, he still could not bear it when he experienced it himself. It was an intolerable pain coming from deep inside his body.

Huh ~

Visible to the naked eye, the serum quickly spread throughout Harry's body as the veins in his arms bulged slightly, the serum eventually merged into all parts of the body, dipping into deep cells, and then into the genes! Then, the serum begin to perform its main function quickly which is completely altering Harry's body at the genetic level doing a complete biological mutation.

Shout!

As the gene serum started to function, Harry's originally closed eyes slammed open and his dark brown pupil contracted into a small spot instantly and then zoomed in quickly, but the pupil that was enlarged again was stained with a light layer of green light which looks amazing.

"Uh! ... Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh, at last Harry couldn't hold back his screams as he felt the pain in his body, Harry snarled in pain while his whole body was moving violently.

Had it not been for the fact that he had been tied to the bed well before the experiment, he would have already stood up. However, even when tied to the bed, Harry's struggles have caused many of the pipes that had been attached to him to fall off.

"Ahhh!! In the worried eyes of the experimenters outside, Harry's screams continued and his struggles grew more intense.

"Is he okay?" A researcher standing beside the person in charge whispered, watching Harry writhes in pain in the laboratory.

The people that they had been experimenting with before either couldn't stand the process and passed out or couldn't stand the Titan one and it didn't work out for them, and Harry's persistence so far has surprised them. However, Harry injected the most complete serum now, and it was expected that such a result would be obtained.

"It should be okay and physical examination shows that everything is normal." Glancing at the screen in front of him, the person in charge replied solemnly.

Although Harry's physical fitness displayed on the screen is soaring at a high speed, this is originally the effect of Titan One and the overall situation is still under control. However, the person in charge's calm expression only lasted for a few seconds, and then his face changed greatly.

"Not good!" He was only able to speak these words when swift sirens sounded in the laboratory.

Woo Woo Woo Woo! ~~

"This! This! The power is growing! ..." Ignoring the alarm sound that filled his ears, the person in charge stared at the screen in front of him and mumbled.

At this point, the screen that was detecting Harry's physical changes had begun to indicate that an accident had occurred, but the person in charge ignored it because Harry's physical qualities at this time were more than twice the highest value of their previous experiments, which was more than their original estimated value. It was exactly this that caused the machine to sound an alarm, but the data from Harry's vital signs didn't show that Harry was in any danger, which shows that Harry could survive such a large physical variation.

Siiii! ~~

With the sound of a rope being ripped off in the lab, the alarms that rang through the lab came to an abrupt end, as the alarm function had lost its detection target.

The alarm was lifted and everyone looked into the laboratory. There, a man with naked upper half of his body was slowly coming out, it was Harry who had broken free from his bonds. Looking at Harry's state at this point, the experiment seemed to be completely successful.

"Is that it? It should be enough to defeat that Spiderman!" Standing on the cold ground, Harry clenched his fist and whispered in silence.

"Spiderman, it's time you pay for my father's murder!" A flash of coldness flashed in his eyes as Harry swept outside and sighed secretly.

Chapter 233 Deadpool Strikes!

It has been more than a day since Peter disappeared, and Lin Rui and the League of Defender and Tony did not find Peter's whereabouts, it seems as if he evaporated in New York. However, this is obviously impossible, so Peter must be hiding in a hidden place that cannot be reached by their surveillance.

Lin Rui also had to continue to lie to Aunt May, saying that he and Peter will be working on a project, so Peter would stay in his home for a few days. Although Aunt May expressed some concern about this, Lin Rui was also a trustworthy person, so she didn't worry about it anymore.

But this was only a temporary excuse, and if Peter did not appear, it would sooner or later be known to all and bring disaster. After all, the destructive power of an out-of-control Spiderman is impossible to gauge.

Lin Rui, who is so worried about Peter, has no idea that something more than he had expected is happening on Harry's side, and the whole thing is going in a very bad direction. When these different storylines come together, it will cause a big explosion and Lin Rui will be right in the middle of it.

"Huh! I'm so tired!" Lin Rui shouted helplessly as he searched for Peter without any success and he was exhausted. He had just scoured New York's remote surveillance areas, but there was still no sign of Peter. The physical exhaustion is not serious, but the constant worry about Peter makes Lin Rui tired.

"Peter, where are you hiding?" Lin Rui, lying on the bed, looked up at the ceiling and muttered.

Buzz ~

Just then, Mirage Knight's phone vibrated. Lin Rui picked it up quickly as it may contain some news about Peter.

"Hey, Mirage Knight, a bank robbery is happening over Central Avenue, are you nearby?" Sky's Eye's voice came quickly from the other side of the phone and it wasn't about Spiderman, but a bank robbery. This kind of things are something that Lin Rui and others usually do.

"Uh ... I'm not nearby, let Deadpool go. Hasn't he been trying to boost his popularity lately? I'm sure he'd like to help in that." Hearing what Sky's Eye says, Lin Rui thinks and answers.

Sky's Eye set up Deadpool's fans website the day after he joined the League of Defender, but the number of fans that joined his site were few, so now is the time for Deadpool to earn more fans. Deadpool won't let go of this chance to show himself up as a hero in public.

"Well, I see. Deadpool has been notified." After receiving a reply from Mirage Knight, Sky's Eye quickly notified Deadpool.

"No word from Spiderman yet?" Lin Rui asks again, despite the "irrelevant" matter of the bank robbery.

"Well, not yet. But we've got the whole of New York under surveillance, and if Spiderman comes out, he'll be found." Hearing Lin Rui's words, Sky's Eye answers earnestly, apparently aware that there seems to be something wrong with Spiderman.

"Okay, Sky's Eye, you did a good job, you worked hard."

"Haha! This is what I should do!"

Lin Rui hangs up after encouraging Sky's Eye. He really needs a break now. Jerry, who is flattered by Lin Rui's casual compliment, is very happy and continues to stare at the computer monitor carefully.

When Lin Rui hung up on the phone to take a break, Deadpool was rushing towards the bank in Central Avenue under the direction of Sky's Eye. As Lin Rui puts it, he really does need a popularity boost right now, and he'll take his chance on bank robbers. What's more, there are a lot of people on the central avenue, and the Deadpool can place a few cool poss, which will be posted on the website of fans, he will definitely become an extremely popular Vigilante!

Zizi ~

"There is a bank robbery on central avenue. Police officers in the vicinity please rush to support as soon as possible."

"Roger 135, on its way to the scene."

Just as Deadpool was making his way towards the Central avenue, a police channel blared from a church attic in a remote downtown neighborhood of New York City. A closer look reveals a scattered backpack on the floor of the church attic and it looked like it hadn't been cleaned in a long time. A modified radio is lying there.

Brush!

Just as the radio started to sound, a hand suddenly grabbed the radio from a dark corner. There was hardly any light, and the only thing one could see was the shape of a figure.

"Robbery? It seems like something I should do." Holding the modified radio, the shadow said in a slightly hoarse tone.

Then the figure came out of the corner. If Lin Rui or anyone else were here, they'd recognize him as Spiderman, who's been missing for more than a day. But the Spiderman suit he was wearing had gone completely dark, and it looked as if Venom had swallowed the Spiderman suit Tony had made for Peter.

Call!

Picking up the backpack on the ground, Peter glanced up at the moonlight outside, then jumped out of the attic directly from the window of his attic, his spider's silk was shot and he disappeared into the distance.

...

Shout!

"Don't move! Lie down!"

"Hurry up! Hurry up! We're running out of time! F ~ ~ k! Are you trying to get us arrested?!"

"I got it! Give me another ten seconds!"

In the lobby of the national bank on central avenue, several masked robbers were working in an orderly fashion. Some kept watch on doorways, others kept watch on unrelated people and hostages, and the rest of the robbers quickly filled bags with cash. As long as they leave within a minute, it will be difficult for the police to catch them.

"Good! Go!" The ten seconds were over quickly, and the two men in charge of this little operation did not hesitate a moment. They held the bag filled with cash tightly, shouted, and then ran out.

"Pack up!"

"All right! Don't move!"

The robbers' plan went so smoothly that they could escape before the police arrived. However, their luck today isn't really that good. No one knew when but the two gang members responsible for keeping watch fell silently to the ground.

"Jess! What's wrong with you?" The robbers who had run to the door shouted in astonishment, but the two people on the ground still did not respond.

"Hey! Of course, they were knocked unconscious by the famous Deadpool!" As the robbers rushed up to the fallen gang member for a closer look, a voice came from their side

Call!

Hearing that voice, several robbers turned quickly and nervously, and their guns had been pointed there and they could fire at any time.

"Oh! This is not a good baby!" Deadpool leaning lazily next to the bank door and said softly, then he moved towards them.

Brush!

Da da da!

Facing the sudden attacks from Deadpool, the robbers fired without hesitation. While firing, they also moved towards the car parked on the side of the road. As for the two gang members who had fainted, no one was going to help them out at this time.

However, despite their decisive shooting, how can they hit Deadpool? Wade simply squirmed a few times before dodging the bullets and hurtling toward them.

"Deadpool strikes!"

Puff!

Chapter 234 Harry Comes Out

Huh!

"What!"

Boom!

"Look!"

Puff!

While Deadpool was trying to defeat the bank robbers with as cool as possible, Sky's Eye, who was watching Deadpool's situation, suddenly found something.

"Deadpool, I found Spiderman! He's rushing towards you!" Just as Wade played around with the robbers like childrens, Sky's Eye's voice suddenly came to him from the headset.

"What? The Spiderman guy appeared? Did he came here to grab my limelight?" After hearing Sky's Eye's information, Wade didn't immediately think of why the missing Spiderman suddenly appeared here, but he was worried that his limelight would be stolen by him. No one knows how his brain circuit had turned out like that.

"I won't let him get away with it!" After that, Deadpool doesn't want to take more photos with the crowd around him. He needs to get rid of these guys quickly so that Spiderman can see his Deadpool's proud face when he arrives.

"Uh ..." After hearing Deadpool's response, Sky's Eye at the Base Camp was a little speechless.

Sky's Eye had originally planned to tell Deadpool that this Spiderman was a little different. The color of the Spiderman suit on his body had changed, but Deadpool's attitude made him not plan to say anything later. So after contacting Deadpool, Sky's Eye went on to contact Mirage Knight and other members of the League of Defender.

At the same time, J.A.R.V.I.S., who has also been monitoring the entire New York, also discovered the sudden appearance of a black Spiderman.

"Sir, Spiderman has been found, and he is on his way to Central Avenue." After confirming that the guy in the black spider suit was Spiderman, J.A.R.V.I.S notified Tony.

"Found? How is he doing? What's wrong with him?" Tony heard J.A.R.V.I.S's report and quickly put down his hand and asked quickly.

"It is still impossible to contact him through the Spiderman suit, and it is impossible to judge Spiderman's current situation. However, I don't know if this could be counted as an abnormal situation as it could be a communication error." J.A.R.V.I.S first responded, and then directly displayed the live video in front of Tony's eyes.

In the picture shown by J.A.R.V.I.S, Spiderman, wearing a black Spiderman suit, is quickly flying between high-rise buildings, and Tony can't see if he had suffered any injuries at all. In the eyes of others, Spiderman just changed the color of his hero suit, but, in Tony's point of view, this is very wrong.

"Sir, should I send out an Iron Man?" J.A.R.V.I.S asked very humanly without further instructions from Tony.

"Don't, tell Mirage Knight the news, let him take care of this first. If Spiderman is fine then all the better and if not then it would not be too late to have Iron Man dispatched if there are other accidents." Tony heard a question from JARVIS and thought a little before he refused and then issued new orders.

"Yes, sir, Mirage Knight has been contacted. He is rushing towards Central Avenue, it seems that he already knows the news." Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S reported again.

"Well, I see. You keep an eye on the situation over there and let me know if anything unexpected happens. No, Forget it, I'll stay here and watch." Tony had planned to have JARVIS monitor the situation until he got further information, but with Peter and Mirage Knight in mind, he finally felt the need to focus more.

"Yes, sir," J.A.R.V.I.S called up cameras from all angles that could be moved to show the situation over to Tony's eyes so that he could watch a live broadcast in downtown New York at home.

While Tony was sitting securely on the luxury sofa at home watching the live broadcast, Lin Rui was rushing towards Central Avenue. At this time he was not calm as he was in the past, and there was a nervous look on his face under the mask.

“Damn it! Damn it! Damn it! It turned out to be Venom! No wonder Peter has been acting weird lately! I should have discovered it right away!” Lin Rui cursed in his heart as he tried his best to rush as fast as possible.

The Spiderman movies that Lin Rui had watched in his previous lives and Spiderman in this world are quite different, and there is more than one version of the movie. Of course, he will not easily connect the changes in Peter to Venom. This time it was Sky’s Eye that told him Spiderman’s current situation and when he found out the changes in Peter, he suddenly thought about what happened to the black Spiderman suit. Before, when he was with Peter, he accidentally encountered the tingling sensation in the palm of his hand when he touched Peter’s hand and he was almost sure that Peter was infected by alien Venom.

Venom doesn’t seem strong in the movies of Lin Rui’s previous worlds. It must parasite on someone to survive and it has many weaknesses. But Lin Rui isn’t sure that real-world Venom is that easy to deal with. If Peter can’t get rid of the Venom’s influence and lose his control, Lin Rui doesn’t know what to do next.

Black Spiderman? Venom Spiderman?!! Lin Rui got scared as he continue to think of the possibilities of this. So, while rushing towards Central Avenue, Lin Rui was thinking about how to rescue Peter from Venom. At least, Peter with a protagonist halo should still have a good chance of getting rid of Venom.

Puff!

Running a little faster on the top of a building, Lin Rui rushed forward, not too far from Central Avenue.

...

Just when Spiderman reappearance attracted the attention of the League of Defender and Tony, another person in downtown New York noticed the situation. Oscorp, in Harry’s office on the top floor.

“Spiderman, you finally appeared again!” Watching the video of Spiderman appearing again on his computer, Harry whispered.

Then Harry quickly left his seat and walked to the bookshelf behind him. Reaching out and pressing on the bookshelf, the wall in front of Harry separated from the middle the next second and the whole wall quickly moved to the sides, there was a secret room here! Then Harry had walked into the secret room.

Call!

Thirty seconds later, a dark green flying skateboard rushed out of the back room. On this new type of flying skateboard, the heavily armed Harry stood with a dark green half-section mask on his face.

A closer look at Harry’s equipment and the flying skateboard under his feet showed that it is quite different from the equipment used previously by Norman Osborn. It is obvious that Harry’s equipment is more advanced, and the armor on Harry is not so bloated and ironier. It fits his body, it seems to rely more on the strength of the driver himself.

Brush!

As Harry drove out on his flying skateboard, the huge floor-to-ceiling window in his office opened up and down quickly. The next moment, Harry drove the flying skateboard and disappeared on top of Oscorp's building. Looking at the direction of his flight, he is going towards Central Avenue.

Chapter 235 Junior Green Goblin And Black Spiderman 1

Huh!

"Oh, perfect solution!" As the last two robbers fall to the ground, Deadpool exclaims happily in delight and wiped the nonexistent dust from his hands.

After Sky's Eye told Deadpool that Spiderman was coming here, Deadpool speeded up his movements and resolved all the robbers within a dozen seconds. In addition, in order to prevent the videos taken by the surrounding audience from being restricted, Deadpool also deliberately did not use his own double blades and shot a few thighs with his pistol at most.

"Deadpool, Spiderman is less than two blocks away from you. Mirage Knight is still a while away, and he wants you to try to stop Spiderman after he appears." Just as Deadpool stood for a few seconds, Sky's Eye's voice came again through his headset while the robbers were groaning around them.

"Well, I see. Leave it to me!" Wade agreed to Sky's Eye words.

Although he is not serious sometimes, Wade is quite reliable at some critical moments. However, Sky's Eyes doesn't know if Wade wants to use Spiderman's fame to make himself more famous.

"Ehh? There is another aircraft approaching your position quickly, it is very fast!" Two seconds after Deadpool agreed, the voice of Sky's Eye came back, slightly surprised.

"Aircraft? Is it Iron Man?" Deadpool asked indifferently when he heard Sky's Eye.

When he joined the League of Defender, Wade knew that there was an unclear relationship between Mirage Knight and Iron Man. It was not surprising that Iron Man would appear here.

"No! It's not Iron Man! It! ... Yes! It shouldn't! ..." After negating Deadpool's guess, Sky's Eye then seemed to see what the high-speed approaching aircraft was, but it seemed even more incredulous and he couldn't say the following words.

"What the hell is that?" Deadpool asked helplessly as Sky's Eye didn't make it clear.

However, at this time, Sky's Eye no longer responded to Deadpool but instead connected to Mirage Knight who was coming here and told Lin Rui what he was monitoring.

"What?! An aircraft similar to the Green Goblin aircraft that created such a big incident in New York before is approaching Central Avenue at high speed?! Are you sure?!" Lin Rui, who heard the Sky's Eye report, almost fell directly from midair and he asked again after stabilizing his body.

"I am sure! I have been watching every fight since Spiderman appeared, and I have watched his fight with Green Goblin several times. I won't be mistaken about the Green Goblin outfit, although now the flying aircraft had some differences from Green Goblin's flying skateboard but they are roughly the same. Also, a heavily armed fighter is standing on top of it.” Hearing Lin Rui’s serious question, Sky’s Eye replied. Now he is watching the monitor carefully and the picture above is Harry flying at high speed.

“Ok! Continue to monitor the situation! Also, let Jack and Daredevil speed up, the situation is getting out of control by seconds! In addition, tell Deadpool to be very careful and try to keep things under control until I reach there.” Getting a positive answer from Sky’s Eye, Lin Rui’s face was ugly, and he ordered Sky’s Eye again.

“Got it!” Sky’s Eye agreed with a loud voice and he happily operated the computer in front of him, monitoring Spiderman and the position of the aircraft in all directions. Listening to the serious tone of Mirage Knight, Sky’s Eye had a hunch that his first major event after joining the League of Defender is going to happen here!

“Damn It! Fuck! Son Of A Bitch!” Not to mention Sky’s Eye who is secretly excited at the base, Lin Rui, who is struggling on his way, begins to curse again.

Sky’s Eye may just only recognize the aircraft as familiar, but it’s impossible for him to determine if the person standing on top of it is someone different or if the guy is related to the original Green Goblin. Lin Rui, however, has already confirmed that the guy driving the hoverboard is Harry after hearing Sky’s Eye’s words. No one in Osborn, except Harry, gets Norman’s secret fortune.

“Why are all of these things are happening together?! Can’t I get a break already!” Lin Rui now had no time to think about why Harry had not let go of his anger towards Spiderman but he still complained about the fact that all of these things are happening together.

Puff!

The development of this situation has exceeded Lin Rui’s imagination, he did not hesitate to consume more internal energy to speed up his running speed again. However, even if Lin Rui was already fast at this time, he was obviously behind Harry who could fly, and Peter with the help of spider silk.

...

“Eh? An unexpected situation? Don’t worry, leave everything to me!” When Lin Rui rushes here, Sky’s Eye has spoken to Deadpool again. Deadpool again had no problem with what Sky’s Eye had said. However, whether or not Deadpool is in control of the situation is not what he’s talking about right now.

Call!

Just after Wade has finished talking to Sky’s Eye, a Spiderman figure in a black Spiderman suit suddenly appears in mid-air on the street in front of him. Peter finally arrives here after hearing the police report, but the previous incident has been solved by Deadpool. But Peter did not slow down and continued to swing forward at top speed.

“Black spider? It looks cooler than Starscream!” When he sees Spiderman coming toward him, Deadpool whispers. Since no one helped Deadpool design his hero suit, he still wears clothes he made out of his own hands and they have no advantage over Spiderman or Mirage Knight.

Brush!

However, just as Spiderman fell towards Deadpool in mid-air, a dark green aircraft rushed out from the roof of a building on his side and flew towards Spiderman below. Harry finally arrived!

“Spiderman!!!” As he rushed towards Spiderman below at high speed, Harry activated the attack system under the flying skateboard.

Da da da!

A line of black muzzles spewed tongues of fire, sending powerful bullets straight into the black Spiderman below. Influenced by the mysterious black fog, Harry launches an attack the moment he sees Spiderman.

Facing the sudden attack from above, the black Spiderman located below didn't panic, his body flexed and twisted among the numerous bullets to avoid all the bullets. Puff! Then Peter shot spider silk at the building next to him, and the next moment he changed course and turned to the side.

Cree! Stretch! ~~

However, the black Spiderman moved aside less than three meters before his silk was cut off. It was Harry. He through a knife through Peter's silk.

Then, at the moment when Peter's spider silk was disconnected, Harry rushed towards Peter in front of him on his flying skateboard and attacked him on the chests.

Chapter 236 Junior Green Goblin And Black Spiderman 2

Harry, who rushes past Spiderman with a sharp alloy knife in his hand, has cut Spiderman's chest and cut open Spiderman's spider suit but he doesn't appear to have hurt any of the body parts inside.

Pū!

Peter, who was attacked by Harry, quickly responded. After Harry rushed in, he immediately launched a spider silk thread to hold the hoverboard. As for his chest, there was only a small crack left in the opening just cut open by the alloy knife, and it quickly closed up. Venom, who had completely swallowed the Spiderman suit, would not be hurt so simply.

Huh!

As Peter pulled the hoverboard behind Harry and flew through the air, a dozen alloy knives less than ten centimeters long shot from the back of the hoverboard. These knives are not only extremely sharp but they also have the red light blinking in them. It seems that there are some other technologies in them.

“Hahahaha! It got boring lately, you came just at the right time!” Facing the knives coming towards him, Peter suddenly yanked the spider silk thread and jumped up quickly, trying to avoid the knives attack.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

However, although the non-turning knives were indeed avoided by Peter, they were self-destructed one by one at the closest place to Peter. These small knives turned out to be a small bomb. If one is shot with it, the consequences will be unimaginable.

The blast wave of the explosion also surprised Peter, who had not yet escaped, but the heatwave of the explosion was completely suppressed by the venom suit, which had no great impact on Peter. He then raised his wrist to aim at Harry's flight path and shot a ball of silk. 'Anticipate'! This is an advanced ability of spider instincts.

Shout! Bang!

The ball of cobwebs flying in front of Harry suddenly exploded in midair, and a huge cobweb just stopped in front of Harry and he was unable to escape at the speed of his hoverboard.

"Hum!" Harry snorted coldly without turning around when he saw his way blocked by the web in front of him.

Pū! Bang!

Just as Harry rushed straight towards the spider web, a small alloy ball shot from the front of the hoverboard, right in the center of the spider web. Then it exploded violently, and a flame ignited in midair.

Brush!

Without a moment's hesitation, Harry, in full gear, flew right through the flames on his hoverboard. As for the web being burned in flames, Harry has long studied the silk Spiderman uses and despite its strength and toughness, one of its Achilles' heel is fire, so why wouldn't he have something to deal with Spiderman's silk when he decided to deal with Spiderman?

Brush!

With a quick turn in midair, Harry was already hurtling back toward Peter. Still, he was somewhat surprised when he noticed Spiderman's undamaged suit on his chest.

"Is this a memorized self-repairing material?" With a slight frown, Harry muttered, then swung the alloy knife at Spiderman again, who had already rushed towards him.

"This is interesting!" Peter shouted excitedly as he was affected by Venom in the face of Harry's various attack methods.

Then Harry, the driver of the hoverboard, and Black Spiderman wearing a Venom suit got into a fierce fight in midair on the Central Avenue. From time to time there was a violent explosion in midair, and a variety of special effects spider silk were constantly launched from Peter's wrist.

The onlookers on the ground looked up at the battle above. They saw that one of the fighters was a black Spiderman, and the other was an armed enemy. However, because of Spiderman's fame, these people started to support Spiderman.

"Fuck! Who is that guy?! Why is he fighting Spiderman?" Deadpool, who was about to make a move shouted from the bank door feeling very uncomfortable.

"The one fighting Spiderman is the unidentified aircraft I just reminded you of, but it seems that his target turned out to be Spiderman." After Deadpool shouted, Sky's Eye's answer rang in Deadpool's ear.

Because both sides in the battle are now “Flying”, Deadpool, who can only fight on the ground, has no chance to make any move so Sky’s Eye is too lazy to count on him again, it is better to contact Mirage Knight and report the situation to him as he is almost there.

Boom!

The fight between Harry and Peter has been happening over two hundred meters above the ground. Harry got stuck by Peter’s spider silk and crashed into a nearby building with his hoverboard.

Bang!!

The next moment, though, Harry rushes out again. Harry, enhanced by his genetic serum, was no worse off than the lizard that Dr. Connors had transformed into, and the crash would not have done him much harm.

But Harry, who rushed out, lost the trail of Spiderman. The next moment, Harry has a bad feeling in his stomach and controls the hoverboard to move to the right side. Still, he was too late.

Boom!

There was a loud crash and the hoverboard, which was flying in the air, was hit by a huge crash. The whole hoverboard, along with Harry who was standing on it, tumbled down quickly.

While trying to control the hoverboard to stabilize again, Harry also saw Spiderman, who had just disappeared, in front of him, and the spider silk in his hand was connected to a half-meter-diameter manhole cover. Peter circled the manhole cover and smashed at Harry who hadn’t stabilized again. Harry, who had lost the flexibility of the hoverboard, could only cross his arms against his chest with an alloy knife.

Boom!

Brush! Rumble ~

The next second, the hoverboard that rolled in mid-air fell down and hit the ground and there was no Harry on it. On the seventh floor of a nearby building, a large crater appeared. Harry had just been smashed in.

“Cough!” After getting hit by Spiderman, Harry is not seriously hurt but he is a bit disorientated.

Shout!

Shaking off the rocks that were on his body, Harry climbed from a rubble. Regardless of the frightened white-collar workers around him, Harry had rushed out of the big hole he had just created.

But before Harry could make out what was going on, a black figure was coming at him quickly. Bang! After a thud, Harry is kicked in the chest by Spiderman, who is chasing him, and flies upside down into the building again. As for Spiderman, he just kept going.

“Damn It! Hell! Fuck! Sky’s Eye, give me the position of Spiderman and that person!” Lin Rui, who had rushed towards the Central Avenue, shouted into his headset, he already knew that Harry and Peter were fighting, and Deadpool couldn’t get involve in it.

“Turn right 50 meters ahead and they are inside the seventh floor of that building!” Sky’s Eye replied quickly, hearing Mirage Knight’s anxious voice.

Although Sky’s Eye knew that Mirage Knight was worried about the fighting, he just told him that Spiderman had the upper hand. There was nothing to worry about. He didn’t know that Lin Rui was worried about the two men who were fighting. He wouldn’t be better off if anyone of those two had an accident.

Boom!

Hearing the instructions from Sky’s Eye, Lin Rui rushed out in an instant. The next moment, he has already turned around. In front of him is the building where Peter and Harry are fighting.

Chapter 237 Venom Spider-Man Fights League of Defender

Boom!

When Lin Rui stepped on the wall and rushed to the other side, a window on the outer wall of the seventh floor of the building in front of him was suddenly broken by something. Then a figure came through the window. It turned out to be Harry! At this time, his armor was almost damaged, and the alloy knife in his hand was lost. Moreover, he was thrown out of the window by Spiderman.

It seems that in this battle, the enhanced Harry was still not Spiderman’s opponent. That’s right, even if Harry’s physical strengthening gives him superhuman strength, but facing Spiderman who is parasitized by Venom, he is not his opponent at all.

“I have to say, you’re an interesting opponent. But since that is all you have, good-bye.” Holding Harry’s broken armor in one hand and hanging him in the air, Peter looked at Harry, who was already a little unconscious.

Although the armor on Harry was almost shattered in the previous fight, the mask on his face was not dropped, so Peter did not know that the half-dead opponent who had been beaten by himself is his best friend, Harry. However, at this time Peter was already deeply affected by Venom. Otherwise, he should have seen Harry’s equipment and hoverboard and should have recognized him, but he selectively ignored it.

Shout!

After saying that, Peter held Harry’s chest armor and let loose, and Harry, who was already unable to resist, fell down from the height of the seventh floor.

“Peter! No! He’s Harry!” Watching Peter throw Harry downstairs, Lin Rui shouted nervously at a distance, and he didn’t care about revealing Spiderman’s identity.

Brush!

Then, regardless of whether Peter responded or not, Lin Rui catches up with Harry as he sprints forward in a free-falling motion. However, with Lin Rui's distance and speed, he can hardly save Harry before he hits the ground.

"Harry?!" Peter noticed Mirage Knight as he rushed over, but he was concerned about the name Mirage Knight had just called out, the name he was familiar with.

"Harry!" Standing at the window and watching Mirage Knight chasing after Harry who was falling, Peter finally recovered his sanity and shouted.

Pū!

Then Peter jumped out of the window and shot spider silk at Harry falling figure.

Brush!

The spider silk from Peter's wrist was much faster than Mirage Knight and soon passed Lin Rui's side and flew down to Harry. Finally, as Harry was about to fall to the ground, Peter's spider silk stuck to Harry. However, because the silk was very elastic, Harry hit the ground under inertia.

Pū!

"No! Don't! Harry!" Looking at Harry's situation, Mirage Knight shouted worriedly.

Squatting beside Harry, Mirage Knight carefully lifted Harry's mask from his face. The next second, his eyes closed tightly as a blood-filled face of Harry appeared in front of Mirage Knight and Peter who was not far away.

"He is really ... Harry!" Peter muttered incredulously at the familiar, pale face, standing two meters away. Although he is affected by Venom but seeing his best friend who was seriously injured because of him, Peter recovered some of his consciousness.

However, just when Peter wanted to get closer to Harry, his steps stopped suddenly, as if he was blocked by something rigidly. At the same time, Venom covering Peter's whole body suddenly twisted irregularly, splitting a large tentacle into his teeth and dancing on the surface of Peter's body, as if expressing something.

"Shut up!" Peter shouted deeply in the face of Venom's sudden change.

The host parasitic by Venom can understand Venom's thoughts to a certain extent, and now Venom sees that Peter has signs of being out of his control, so he is coming out to do things.

"Sure enough, it's Venom!" Of course, Mirage Knight saw the anomaly, but he was more concerned about Harry's situation now, so he couldn't manage Peter for a while.

"Sky's Eye, where are Daredevil and others, how long till they reach here! And get that Deadpool guy to come over here!" Lin Rui calls out to Sky's Eye at the base as he carefully checks on Harry.

"They'll be here soon!" Mirage Knight's tone was unmistakably bad and Sky's Eye replied.

Swipe!

Just five seconds after Sky's Eye responded, three people rushed in from the front corner. It was Daredevil, Jack and Deadpool who came all the way here.

"Spiderman is being controlled by the thing on him! Hurry up and grab him!" Lin Rui shouted at them quickly after seeing his teammates finally come here.

Hearing Mirage Knight's words, the eyes of the three men who rushed over immediately converged on the black Spiderman. One by one, the Venom's splintered tentacles were wriggling back, fitting back on Peter to form the perfect suit. In the battle of consciousness, Venom seems to be winning back, using Peter's guilty feelings that he had hurt Harry to take control of him again.

"What the hell is that?!" Deadpool shouted in exaggeration as he saw Venom's tentacles shrink back. Indeed, the average person would be horrified by Venom's eerie look.

Brush!

Although Daredevil and Jack also felt goosebumps on their body as they looked at that weird thing on Spiderman, they both rushed towards Peter with a little hesitation. From what Mirage Knight had just shouted and the anomaly in Spiderman, they quickly figured out what to do: Control Spiderman!

"Be careful!" His teammates have already rushed towards Spiderman after listening to his words and Mirage Knight reminded them.

On one hand, he was worried that Daredevil and others would hurt Peter, and on the other hand, he was also worried that Venom would increase the strength of Spiderman and hurt Daredevil. After all, Daredevil and others may hold back thinking that Spiderman is their teammate but Peter affected by Venom doesn't care that much.

Brush!

Not responding to Lin Rui's words, Daredevil and others rushed towards Peter, Daredevil waved his stick towards the black Spiderman. After joining SHIELD, Daredevil no longer has to worry about his equipment. The stick on his hand is a special weapon. So far, Daredevil has not fully performed its functions.

As for Jack, he is behind Daredevil, he was not as strong as Matt and Spiderman, so he didn't plan to go up for an upfront fight, but instead he looked for opportunities to throw a few knives in his hand. If Daredevil can't deal with Spiderman, Jack will support him, but it will be a bloody scene.

As for Deadpool who ran in the end, he pulled out his two long blades. He had a very bad feeling in his heart as he looked at the twisted black object on Spiderman. So, even if using a long blade will hurt Spiderman, he will not come forward with bare hands.

Pū!

However, the next scene shocked Mirage Knight, who was giving emergency treatment to Harry, and Jack and Wade, who were ready to strike.

Spiderman barely holds out his right hand as Daredevil swings at him, grabbing Matt's stick the next moment. And that's not the most surprising thing. After grabbing Daredevil's weapon, Peter's black mask suddenly expanded and twisted to form a large black face.

Sussknd: Sussknd!

Venom's split face snarled at Daredevil, and then Spiderman grabbed the stick's hand and pulled Daredevil closer to Peter. Boom! Then Peter kicked his foot on Matt's stomach, and Daredevil was kicked out by Spiderman and lost his weapon. All this happened in an instant, Daredevil was absent-minded because of Venom's stingy head.

"Fuck! Is it still Spiderman?" Wade screamed at the twisted black face on Spiderman's head.

However, despite the drums beating in his heart, Wade still brandished his two blades to go up. While Deadpool rushes at Spiderman, Jack on the side has already made a move, taking several knives out of his hands and shooting them at Spiderman.

Huh!

Chapter 238 Venom Spider-Man Fights League of Defender 2

Shout!

Bang!

Two minutes later, a figure flew out of the middle of the field at high speed, then crashed into a wall and stopped. It was Deadpool, who had just been kicked out by Spiderman.

Next to Deadpool, Jack had already leaned against the wall and had no plans to move again. As the least capable member of the League of Defender (except for the newly joined Sky's Eye non-combat logistics member), Jack was seriously injured by Peter when he first joined the battlefield. Had it not been for Daredevil's timely attempts to stop Peter's next attack, Jack wouldn't be soberly leaning over to watch the show.

"F ~ k! How can that thing be so strong?" Wade cursed as Jack focused on the battle ahead.

Although Wade suffered more serious injuries than Jack but he has his mutant ability to regenerate and he can recover again after a short while. However, in the face of Spiderman parasitized by Venom, Wade and Daredevil and Mirage Knight are still being abused! That's right, the three of them joined together.

At this moment, the three figures in the center of the battlefield quickly shuttled, and from time to time, stick figures and blade lights flashed. Mirage Knight also joined the battle after noticing that Peter's power parasitized by Venom had risen, but he hadn't been able to win against Spiderman yet and he, Jack and Wade were instead injured.

Sii!

Mirage Knight spotted an opportunity to quickly split the thunder blade in his hand, and the blade glided across Peter's waist, instantly opening a gap there. However, the black tentacle-like things on the sides of the newly cut mouth quickly twisted and soon recovered as it was. Mirage Knight's sword light didn't seem to hurt Venom enough, it can only temporarily break Venom's defense.

Mirage Knight could not really attack Peter with all his strength, which would hurt Venom and Peter together. Harry was lying aside with serious injuries, and Mirage Knight didn't want Peter to end up in a similar state.

As for Daredevil who is the only one that can keep up with Mirage Knight's attack rhythm, he has already exerted his full strength, but although Matt's strength is now much stronger than his past, he doesn't pose much threat to Spiderman at this time. So, it seems that two people besieged Spiderman, but most of the attacks and engagements were between Spiderman and Mirage Knight.

Brush!

There was another stab across Peter's chest and Mirage Knight's blade slashed Venom's body again. However, this time Venom did not immediately close the cut quickly but instead, it twisted around the thunder blade that split dozens of tentacles and tied Mirage Knight.

"Ohh? Trying to disarm me?! " Mirage Knight's eyes flashed with a hint of purple light and he gives a low cry when he sees the black tentacles binding his Thunder Blade.

"Get the fuck out!"

Buzz ~ Hiss!

With a loud roar, Mirage Knight had unleashed all the thunder contained in the blade, its brilliant purple rays coming through the dark Venom that enveloped it.

"Sissisi!" It seemed that the Venom couldn't bear the strong thunder that suddenly broke out of the Thunder Blade and all of Venom on Peter's body suddenly twisted out countless tentacles towards Mirage Knight.

"Huh!" Facing Venom's tentacles coming from the surface, Mirage Knight snorted and placed his internal energy directly around his body.

He had made a lot of progress with his recent efforts. The total amount of Internal Energy contained in Mirage Knight's body is now much more than it was a week ago. The internal energy on his external body is also thicker and the defense is naturally stronger.

Pū Pū Pū!

The very next moment Mirage Knight was on the defensive, countless Venom tentacles had come. However, although these tentacles seem to have some special penetrating and fusing properties, they are still unable to penetrate Mirage Knight's internal energy defense and are blocked by the energy 10 cm away from the body.

"Get out of here!!" Watching Venom escape from Peter in order to attack him, Mirage Knight roared as he swung the Thunder Blade again.

Brush!

The dazzling purple light flickered, and Venom's tentacles, centered on Peter, were cut more than half by Mirage Knight. The rest of the tentacles retracted into Peter like lightning and clung to Peter's body tightly again. Venom also seemed to know that the enemy in front of him did not want to hurt his host.

After suffering a big loss at Mirage Knight's hands, Peter doesn't seem to want to fight anymore. After blocking Daredevil's blow, he raises his hand to launch the spider silk. In the previous battle, he was fighting with great strength and reflexes, without using Spiderman's silk as a weapon.

Swipe!

The Venom tentacles, which had been severed by Mirage Knight, did not lose their activity, but instead flew towards Peter's side quickly, trying to leave with the subject. Although Mirage Knight wanted to stop him, Peter was about to flee and he couldn't control the Venom splits scattered on the ground.

"Daredevil!" Lin Rui wants to keep Peter from leaving, so it's up to Daredevil to stop Venom's splits tentacles.

Pū!

By the time Mirage Knight rushed to Peter, he had already launched his spider silk, and the next moment he had flown into midair, and Mirage Knight still relentlessly managed to follow up.

"Take care of Harry!" Mirage Knight shouted suddenly as Peter was about to leave the battlefield.

Brush!

Spiderman then disappears into the corner, and Lin Rui follows him. Soon, Lin Rui also disappears in front of Daredevil.

Daredevil and others have been trying to prevent those Venom parts from escaping, but because they dare not directly touch them, most of the split parts escaped. If it weren't for Deadpool rushing over from the side and grabbing a small group of Venom splits parts and putting them in a jar, they would have had nothing to show.

"Whoa! This thing is terrible! What the hell is it? Seeing what Mirage Knight said, he seems to know what it is." Looking at Venom, who was constantly twisting and hitting the transparent jar in his hand, Wade said in shock.

"We won't know until Mirage Knight returns, but we also don't know if he can rescue Spiderman. This thing is really terrifying!" Jack walked slowly from the side, covering his stomach.

"Daredevil, Deadpool, Jack, two Iron Man are flying to your position!" As Deadpool and others stood together to study the Venom in the jar, Sky's Eye's voice suddenly came out of the headset. In the previous battle, Sky's Eye did not talk afraid of disturbing them. However, Venom Spiderman almost killed the League of Defender and it surprised him.

Huh!

Sky's Eye's voice just ended, Deadpool had seen two Ironmen come down in mid-air. Tony, who had been staying at home watching the live broadcast, also saw the situation of Peter, who was Venom parasite, so he decisively sent out two Iron Man Armors, but he was still a little late.

"What about Mirage Knight and Spiderman?" Levitating in front of Deadpool and others, Tony's voice came from an Iron Man.

"They're going that way." Pointing in the direction of the disappearance of Spiderman and Mirage Knight, Wade answers Tony.

Shout!

Upon receiving the answer, the two Ironmen flew away again the next moment, at speeds that are infinitely faster than Spiderman or Lin Rui.

"I don't think this is going to be a big deal!" Looking at Harry lying on the ground not far away, Deadpool said in an odd voice.

"So do I." Jack nodded in agreement and said.

Chapter 239: Escape From Follow-up

Shout!

A minute later, following Sky's Eye's instructions, Iron Man finds Lin Rui's location, but Spiderman is not with him.

"Mirage Knight, where is Spiderman?" The two Ironmen armor slowly landed on the roof of the building where Mirage Knight was standing.

"He got away, I couldn't stop him." Looking at the night ahead, Lin Rui answered inexplicably.

At this point, Lin Rui was looking a little worse. The Phantom Suit, which was already very defensive, had several obvious damages and the body covered by the Phantom Suit also had a lot of wounds. He was wounded as he chased after Peter.

In addition to the great changes in his behavior, Peter's strength seems to have been instantly improved to a very scary point. Even the Lin Rui with his current strength is no match for him.

Kakaka!

Hearing Lin Rui's answer, one of the Iron Man Armor that fell in front of him suddenly opened and Tony stepped out of it, he had come over in person.

"Are you okay? Are you hurt?" Taking a few steps towards Mirage Knight, Tony asked worriedly as he watched Lin Rui holding his wounds.

"I'm okay. The most important thing now is Spiderman. That black thing parasitic on him and has completely turned him into another person. If we don't remove it out in time, I don't know what will happen to Spiderman." After waving his hand, Mirage Knight's main concern now is Peter parasitized by Venom.

"What the hell is that? It sounds like you know what it is." Tony asked, puzzled. He had also seen a series of changes in Venom's body to Peter from surveillance before, which looked like some kind of creature.

"I call it Venom. It is an extraterrestrial parasite. It can only survive by attaching itself to a host. It can amplify various negative emotions of its host to control the host and enhance the host's physical strength. It is a very scary creature." Facing Tony's doubt, Lin Rui explained without keeping it a secret.

"An alien parasite?! How did it come to Earth?" Tony was even more shocked when he heard Lin Rui's answer. Originally Tony just thought that the weird thing was the product of a biological laboratory on Earth, but the answer from Lin Rui was even more unexpected.

"I don't know how it came, anyway and I don't really care how it came, What I do care about is how do we get it off from Spiderman!" Lin Rui says angrily, making Tony look at him in surprise. Of course, he wasn't angry at Tony, he was angry at the Venom.

"Of course, having such a dangerous thing attached to Spiderman and turning him into a strange creature is a very dangerous thing for other people." Tony agrees with a nod.

Through monitoring the live broadcast, Tony also saw that Spiderman, parasitized by Venom, defeated the entire team of League of Defender alone. If it wasn't for Mirage Knight, the entire League of Defender would have been killed off by Spiderman alone. So if Spiderman decided to target ordinary people under Venom's control, it will cause immeasurable damage.

"Do you know how to deal with this Venom without causing damage to Spiderman?" Now that Spiderman is going to be rescued, it is necessary to know Venom's weakness, otherwise, they would hurt or worse kill Spiderman if they shoot without hesitation.

"I may have some ideas, but they need to be verified. Mr. Stark, I need your help on this matter. Now, let's go back first. It's better if some things are not known by the New York police." Finally, Mirage Knight looked at the direction where Peter had disappeared and turned and spoke to Tony.

"Well, you can put on the armor, it will at least save some time." Nodded, Tony pointed at the empty armor beside him.

"Okay." Lin Rui didn't refuse. He had already consumed a lot of his internal energy in the battle just now. Driving back in an Armor is indeed the best choice.

Swipe!

Then, two Iron Man Armor rushed into the sky and left for the position where they were fighting before.

Two hours later, after making some arrangements for Harry with Daredevil, Mirage Knight and Tony returned to his seaside villa. This was the first time Lin Rui had come here as Mirage Knight. However, because he often comes as Jackson, he is very familiar with the surroundings. Lin Rui does not know that this familiar feeling is completely in Tony's eyes, but Tony does not say anything except that the corners of his mouth are slightly curved.

On a cleaned bench in Tony's underground lab, a clear jar of high-strength glass holds the part of Venom that Deadpool caught.

"Is this a small piece of Venom? What an amazing species!" Tony sighs as he stared carefully at the Venom fragment that keeps crashing into the bottle.

Although Tony's main research direction is physics, he also has an interest in biotechnology, but he is not as talented in it as he is in physics. So, after seeing such a magical alien creature, Tony's interest became normal.

"Let me do some experiments before trying the methods you proposed to destroy it." After a brief observation of the Venom part, Tony raised his head and said to Mirage Knight who was standing opposite to him.

“Ok, Spiderman has disappeared and we do have to find a way to eliminate this Venom before we find him again.” Mirage Knight nodded and agreed. Moreover, Lin Rui also wanted to know what secrets were in this magical alien creature.

“Well, I will do some experiments overnight, and you can help me too. Also, JARVIS has scanned some suspicious locations where Spiderman had disappeared and maybe he can be found soon this time.” Since Mirage Knight agreed with Tony, he started to prepare for the experiment, and he did not forget to ask Mirage Knight for help.

“Well, I can only hope so.” In response, Mirage Knight naturally follows Tony to help him with the next experiment.

Just as Lin Rui and Tony were experimenting with the Venom part overnight, everyone else in the League of Defender went home to rest. Jack was most seriously injured in the battle. He may not be able to fight for a long time. Although Daredevil is very strong, he was also injured a little, and he tried to heal when he returned home. As for Deadpool, relying on his almost cheat like recovery power, he soon recovered and he is now the only person without any injuries in the League Of Defenders.

In addition to the League of Defender, who were injured by Spiderman, Harry’s injury was even more serious. If Harry’s genetically injected serum had not greatly strengthened his body, he might not have been able to remain alive.

However, even so, Harry’s condition was much worse than Jack’s, and he was still in a coma after being sent to the hospital by Lin Rui. However, no one noticed that when Harry was in a coma, a shadow slowly appeared from under him, and finally disappeared into Harry’s shadow.

Chapter 240: Breaking Out Failure and Lin Rui’s Preparation

“Uhhhhhhhh!!” Under the night, a depressing roar came out of a rundown church in the outskirts of New York.

After throwing off Mirage Knight’s pursuit, Peter returned to the church under the control of Venom, but as soon as he hid in the attic of the church, the controlled Peter regained consciousness, Shouting and yanking the Venom from his body.

Sneer!

“I won’t let you control me anymore! Get out!” Peter yelled as he tore out Venom, who was sticking to him.

Although Venom had been in control of the previous battle, his subconscious was still there. It was like dreaming. Although he had some consciousness and could see what was happening outside his body but his body is out of control, Peter can only watch Venom hurt his teammates and he couldn’t get over his guilt at this time.

After returning to this church, Venom seemed to have been hurt a little after the battle and his control over Peter wasn’t as strong as before, freeing him from the consciousness that had affected his Recovery. But it's not so easy to tear down the Venom that lives on you. Despite his best efforts, Peter pulled out only a few tentacles, unable to tear the Venom from his body.

There are also requirements for Venom host selection. As a companion organism, the stronger the host, the stronger the Venom. Spiderman, on the other hand, is a perfect host for Venom, and it won't give him up so easily.

So, no matter how hard Peter yelled or howled, Venom stuck to him tightly and didn't leave. In addition, it kept splitting up his parts to cover Peter's head and continued to release his information to control Peter.

In this way, Peter who wants to get rid of Venom and Venom who does not want to give up its host continues to struggle against each other. However, looking at the changes in this contest, it is likely to end with Venom's victory.

"Aha! The strange shock of consciousness in his mind made him so miserable that he tore Venom from his head and blindly dashed forward.

Buzzing ~

Peter dashed in the direction of a huge bell hanging in the middle of the loft, hitting it with Venom around his head. Then the bell, which had not rung for a long time, gave a great bang. The sound waves passed quickly through the wall of the bell and swept past Peter, who was close at hand.

"Sisi! Sisisi!" Like a terrified hedgehog, the Venom lost control of itself as the sound waves passed on to Peter, instantly splitting into myriad tentacles that exploded and wriggled around.

Under the influence of that particular sound wave, Peter finally revealed his face and part of his body again from the Venom blockage.

"Uhh! Aaaah!" Growling, Peter moved with difficulty towards the position of the bell ahead.

From Venom's reaction, Peter has already guessed its weakness. It must be sound waves. A certain frequency of sound waves can make Venom weaken its control of the body. This is a good opportunity for Peter to get rid of it!

However, how could Venom let Peter be successful? Although it was affected by the sound waves just now, Venom did not completely lose his mobility. While he was quickly recovering, he split the tentacles and stuck to the ground, making it difficult for Peter to move.

"No! I won't let you control me anymore!" His legs wrapped by the main body of Venom were trapped dead on the ground, and Peter roared unwillingly.

Kakaka!

His muscles were tight and his bones creaked, but Peter was still tens of centimeters away from the bell in front of him! At this time, Venom has almost recovered.

Sii!

In the end, Peter was still unable to ring the bell again, and his face was wrapped in layers of Venom coming over again. Peter's figure, who was wrapped again by Venom, gradually faded, and eventually disappeared into this unattended old church.

...

It was getting brighter, and Tony and Lin Rui, who had been busy all night, finally completed all experiments on the Venom split body part.

"Whew! Although this sample is not enough for me to do more detailed research, anyway, I have also identified some of its weaknesses. In this way, we can be more confident in rescuing Spiderman." Leaning back on the chair, Tony looked up tiredly and spoke to Mirage Knight.

After a night of continuous experiments without rest, Tony and Mirage Knight found Venom's weakness and this aspect still relied on Lin Rui's memory of the original plot. From the experimental results, sound waves of a certain frequency have a weakening effect on Venom and seem to suppress its control of the body. High temperatures in excess of a thousand degrees can kill Venom. Although ultra-low temperature cannot kill Venom, it can also reduce its activity.

"Well, it's time to make some special-frequency sonic transmitters now." Mirage Knight, who was standing opposite to Tony nodded and replied. Fortunately, Venom's weakness is not much different from that in the movie, otherwise, Lin Rui would really be feeling helpless right now.

"Jarvis will do this. It is a simple fixed-frequency sound wave transmitter. It doesn't need us to do it. We can just rest. We have been concentrating on this all night. Even if you are not tired, it will cause some problems if you do not rest for a long time." Seeing that Mirage Knight was about to start, Tony waved and said.

Tony was exhausted. Although he was worried about Peter, he couldn't find him at this time. As for Mirage Knight, Tony also showed some concern.

"I'm fine, it's just that I didn't take a rest all night." Shaking his head, Lin Rui said he was fine. Although his physical injuries were not good, Peter's condition was the most important to him at this time and Lin Rui couldn't care less about himself.

"Do as you wish." Seeing that Mirage Knight insisted on not resting, Tony stopped persuading him. He got up from the chair and walked outside. He needed to rest.

"By the way, what are you going to do with this Venom after we rescue Spiderman?" Tony, who was going to go upstairs to sleep, suddenly remembered something, and turned to Mirage Knight and asked.

"Huh? Do you have any plans for it?" Lin Rui was going to answer the question completely, but Tony asking that question with some other meanings in it, so he asked it back.

"Yes, this stubborn parasitic alien-like creature has great research value. Moreover, I would like to try to control it." Tony did not conceal anything from Mirage Knight and spoke truthfully.

Obviously, Venom's tenacious vitality, parasitic life characteristics, and greatly enhanced host strength are all things that Tony is very interested in. After all, this is something not of their planet. And, if they can really control Venom for their own use, then this will be a very powerful weapon, in some ways no less than Tony's Iron Man Armor.

"If you have a chance to control it, I'd save it for you." Lin Rui also knows the value of a controlled Venom, so after a little thought, he agreed.

"Don't worry, I'll do the same. This guy will be under control." Tony spoke with great confidence.

"I hope so." Lin Rui can only hope, after all, they have already done everything they should.

But will things really go the way they want? Lin Rui's feeling of anxiety intensified more and more. What had he ignored?
