Chapter 241: Undercurrent

Oscorp, Harry's Private Ward.

Shortly after Lin Rui sent Harry to the hospital, someone from Oscorp came to take Harry back. Obviously, there were better methods for Harry's treatment in Oscorp. The medical staff who participated in the Titan One serum injection process were very surprised when they saw the injuries on Harry. They all knew what physical fitness Harry had reached after the injection of the gene serum. Now that he was injured to this point, they don't know what had happened to Harry.

However, no matter what secrets Harry had or what dangerous things he encountered, these people only needed to focus on treating Harry. So, Harry got Oscorp's most professional treatment soon and was injected with a Recovery serum as soon as possible.

In this way, Harry lay quietly on the bed for a night, and his body was quickly recovered with the help of the Recovery serum and his own powerful Recovery powers.

Dī Dī drop! ~~

When the sun rose from the east the next day, there was a sudden siren in Harry's private medical ward. Hearing the machine's alarm, the medical staff who had been standing outside rushed in.

Shout!

However, they saw that Harry, who was supposed to be lying on the bed, had already sat up on the bed, and had taken out some of the tubes from his body, and that was how the machine alarm was triggered.

Hū ~

Falling easily from the bed to the ground, at this point Harry seemed to be fully recovered. This recovery cannot be just the result of the new treatment serum as it is not that powerful, this situation can already be said to be a miracle.

"Director Harry, you ..."

"I'm okay." Harry didn't wait for the medical director to finish speaking and had answered lightly.

"Well, it seems that the effect of Recovery serum is still beyond our expectations!" Hearing Harry's reply, the gene serum expert who rushed in behind said excitedly.

"Where are my clothes?" Harry, looking away from the excited researcher, asked a few people in front of him.

"Oh, I'll get them for you." A medical staff member quickly spoke and ran outside.

Half an hour later, a well-dressed Harry was sitting in his office. Harry didn't tell anyone about the cause of his injuries but he still had many questions in his heart.

"Peter? Mirage Knight?" Looking at Spiderman flying on the computer screen in front of him, Harry said to himself in confusion.

Actually, when Harry was thrown downstairs by Peter before, he didn't pass out completely and was still somewhat conscious. So Harry heard it faintly when Mirage Knight suddenly appeared and called Peter's name. But that was the last word Harry heard before he fell unconscious.

"Peter? Peter? Spiderman? Spiderman? Is it ..." The names of Peter and Spiderman kept coming out of his mouth, and Harry's eyes were changing rapidly.

"Spiderman is Peter!" Finally, Harry said with a cold look.

After having some doubts about Mirage Knight's words, Harry combined Peter's usual behavior and some of the actions of Spiderman, and he could quickly make a judgment. However, this judgment is not a good one.

"The man who killed my father turned out to be my best friend, Haha! How ironic!" Staring at the Spiderman on his computer screen, Harry said blankly to himself.

"So, what are you going to do? Give up revenge for your father?" As Harry watched Spiderman on the computer thinking about himself and Peter, a strange voice suddenly sounded in his mind.

While the strange voice was ringing in Harry's mind, he didn't realize that a dark cloud of suspended fog appears behind him. It looks like the same black fog that haunted Norman when he went crazy and took complete control of him and no one knows how this mind-altering, maddening fog got to Harry.

What's more, there seems to be some great conspiracy behind this black fog, one that may have something to do with some Out-Of-Domain Demon. The last time Norman was driven mad by the black fog as it almost drew the attention of the sorcerers that guarded the Sanctums, but this time it reappears again and no one knows what to expect.

"Give up my revenge? Of course not?! But that's Peter, he is my best friend!" Harry's expression changed several times after hearing the question from the voice in his head.

"So did he treat you as a friend? He wanted to kill you last night, is this Spiderman still your friend?" The strange voice seemed to know Harry's inner thoughts and continued to speak.

"Peter, he, Spiderman ..." His heart kept being guided by that strange voice in his mind, and Harry's thoughts kept wandering between Peter and Spiderman who killed his father and almost killed him.

"Yes! Spiderman killed my father, and he wanted to kill me too. I must fight back, I must kill him!" At last, Harry's eyes were filled with a layer of green light as he slowly spoke.

"Haha! That's it, hatred can give you more power! Go to Spiderman to get your revenge! Release your inner hatred!" With the strange voice in Harry's mind, the black mist floating behind him slammed and disappeared into him again.

"Sir, 90% of the suspicious locations have been checked, and 10% of the remote areas need to be checked manually." While Mirage Knight was still waiting in Tony's basement to make sonic weapons, JARVIS's sound suddenly came out.

“Humm? Do you need a hand? I’ll arrange it right away.” Mirage Knight picked up his phone after hearing J.A.R.V.I.S. As for Tony, he was already upstairs and asleep.

Lin Rui, who took out his mobile phone, quickly contacted Sky’s Eye. The new hacker who joined the League of Defender also searched for Spiderman without sleep for almost a night, but he hasn’t achieved anything yet.

“Mirage Knight, did you find him?” Sky’s Eye, who received a call from Mirage Knight quickly asked as he didn’t want to fail his first mission after joining the League of Defender.

“JARVIS has already checked 90% of the suspicious area, and the remaining 10% needs to be checked manually. Contact Jack and let him arrange for manual inspection.” Mirage Knight directly ordered, the powerful family behind Jack and their manpower, it would be wasteful not to use them.

“Yes, I see! Jack has been informed.” Sky’s Eye who hears Mirage Knight’s words quickly taps on the keyboard to contact Jack.

“Jack has sent someone to inspect that area.” Just ten seconds later, Sky’s Eye replied to Mirage Knight who had not hung up. It seems that Jack has been paying attention to this matter and may not have slept overnight.

“Well, let me know as soon as he finds something. Also, thank you for your hard work.” At last, Mirage Knight hung up the phone.

“I will, Mirage Knight!” Excited to say yes, Sky’s Eye is obviously pleased by Lin Rui’s words.

Chapter 242 Discovery

After JARVIS has checked the last tenth of the remaining area, Frankenstein Family’s men are searching carefully here. Compared to the official search, it is obviously more convenient for the Frankenstein Family to do this kind of thing. Therefore, after Jack sent out a large number of manpower, the area was almost searched in an hour, leaving only the most central unmanned area.

“Hey! Captain, why did Boss suddenly become interested in Spiderman and sent so many people to look for him? Is anyone unhappy with Spiderman?” Asked a man, as the men under his command searched the church in front of them.

Since Jack took the power in the Frankenstein Family, although they are still a big family in New York, they are slowly transforming and is moving from the underworld family to a clean family. Of course, this process is going to be a long one.

“I don’t know about that. However, Spiderman did have something to do with our Frankenstein Family before, the details of which are not very clear. However, I think it is quite normal if someone wants to deal with Spiderman.” The captain answered quietly. However, he didn’t think that he himself could deal with Spiderman. Fortunately, the boss only wants them to search, and after finding Spiderman’s traces, they just have to inform him in time, they do not need to manage the rest of the things.

“Oh! So that’s it!” The man nodded his head with a look of shock and understanding.

“Okay, there’s only a little bit of space left, and the search will be over. I don’t know where the information came from but why would Spiderman be hiding here?” Throwing away the cigarette butt in his mouth, the captain raised his head and walked towards the church and his man followed him.

“Hey! Todd! Why aren’t you answering?!” As the two little leaders slowly walked towards the church, a searcher in the front of the church hall looked up and shouted. A guy had just gone up to the attic to check it out, but now there is no response.

“Ahhhh!”

Boom!

After the guy shouted, there was a sudden scream in the attic, followed by a sound of glass shattering.

Pū!

Two seconds later, a muffled sound came from the ground outside the church, and something seemed to have hit the ground.

“Todd!!” All of a sudden there was a shout and confusion outside, and it was obvious that something had happened.

“Spiderman! It’s Spiderman! Black Spiderman!” Then a roar of chaos rose above the roar of confusion.

Outside the run-down church, Spiderman in a black suit quickly shuttled through the crowd, and from time to time someone screamed and flew out. In the face of Venom Spiderman’s attack, these ordinary people can’t stand it.

“Report! Report! We found Spiderman, he is attacking us! He is attacking us!” The captain hiding in the corner was shouting while holding the mobile phone, he thought that he could not touch Spiderman just now and would be beaten. He had now encountered the crazy Spiderman but it was too late to escape now.

“What are you doing?!” The captain turned around and saw that his man who was also hiding in the corner, was holding his phone while he was taking a video of Spiderman fighting his people.!!

“Hey! Captain! Since the Boss has a problem with Spiderman, then this is a good opportunity!” Seeing the Captain staring at himself, the man said quickly. It seems that he believe himself that he is doing something remarkable, and the hand holding the mobile phone is not shaking.

“What Opportunity?”

“The opportunity to expose the true face of Spiderman! Now Spiderman is the most famous Vigilante in New York, with many fans. You tell me what would happen if I put this Spiderman video on the Internet and show the people that Spiderman is hurting ordinary people for no reason at all, will those Spiderman fans would still like him after seeing his brutal side?” As he said, his eyes were getting brighter and brighter. It seemed that pulling a Vigilante like Spiderman off the altar was a very fulfilling thing.

“That’s right! We didn’t do anything this time and he suddenly attacked us! That’s it, upload it online! What are you waiting for?” Hearing his man’s explanation, the captain shouted excitedly.

“Yes! I have uploaded it online!”

“Support is already on the way, you can withdraw!” As the Captain stared nervously at Spiderman, a strange voice came from his cell phone.

“Huh? Support? Where?” Not caring about the strange voice on the phone, the captain asked while looking around in confusion. Except for his man who are all on the ground or are in the process of getting there, how can there be any support?

Shout!

However, just when the Captain wanted to ask further, a red humanoid object rushed through the sky at high speed and rushed into the battlefield within a few seconds.

“Steel! Steel ... Iron Man!” The captain yelled as he recognized the person who had suddenly rushed into the battlefield.

“Why are you guys still here?! Withdraw, you are no longer needed here!” As the Captain was in a daze, the voice from the cell phone shouted very seriously.

“Ah! Yeah!”

“Withdraw! Withdraw!” After agreeing, the captain his man rushed out and shouted to those who were falling or about to fall.

Even Iron Man had appeared here and it was obvious that this situation is not that simple. What dangers they might face if they stayed here. And, with Iron Man in the way, they were able to leave awkwardly.

And the man has also stopped recording and retreated as he would like to stay alive!! However, the video he shot before has also been successfully uploaded, and now some people have seen Spiderman’s killing on the Internet.

After Iron Man appeared, Spiderman, who was still attacking the members of the Frankenstein Family, stopped and stood in the open space in front of the church, looking up at Iron Man suspended in the air. He seemed to feel the threat from Iron Man, an opponent who could deal a devastating blow to himself.

Under the cover of Iron Man, the Frankenstein Family’s members supported each other and quickly left. Many of them were seriously injured, but Jack would compensate them afterward.

Chapter 243 Chaos 1

At Tony’s seaside villa, Tony took a nap and got together with Mirage Knight to install a special sonic weapon for Iron Man Armor. He didn’t worry about Mirage Knight or J.A.R.V.I.S., he came down here to do something to occupy his mind because he was worried about Peter. And this kind of sonic weapon made by them is just a little noise to others except for its effect on Venom, it is not harmful to ordinary people.

“Sir, Spiderman has been found. Number thirteen has also arrived at the location.” After Tony and Mirage Knight equip five Iron men with sonic weapons, the sound of JARVIS suddenly comes out. Although Tony and Mirage Knight return to the beach house, Tony still left an Iron Man Armor on standby in a suspicious location in downtown New York, which is why he can support Spiderman so quickly.

“Found him? Where?!” Mirage Knight asked quickly and excitedly when he heard J.A.R.V.I.S.

Brush!

Without answering Mirage Knight’s words, J.A.R.V.I.S projected the vision of Iron Man No.13 directly in front of them. This time, they can see what the Iron Man 13th armor is seeing now. In the picture worn back on the 13th, Mirage Knight saw Venom Spiderman beating the members of the Frankenstein Family.

“You really did found Spiderman, but he still seems to be controlled by Venom.” Mirage Knight stared at the crazy Spiderman on the light screen in front of him.

“Then, it’s time for us to move. There is no sonic weapon on the 13th armor. If he attacks with all his strength, Spiderman will be hurt.” Tony said seriously as he watched the scene in front of him.

“Yeah! Let’s go now!” Nodded, Mirage Knight also put down his tools in his hand and stood in front of an Iron Man Armor.

“J.A.R.V.I.S, armed!” Tony also stood in front of an Iron Man and then shouted at J.A.R.V.I.S.

Kakaka!

Subsequently, two Iron Man Armor quickly wrapped Mirage Knight and Tony in. Ten seconds later, five converted Iron Man rushed out of the underground garage of Tony’s seaside villa, aiming directly at New York City.

...

Just as Mirage Knight and Tony were rushing towards Spiderman’s location, the video posted to the Internet by the Frankenstein Family’s member had also spread. Things on the Internet will spread fast, especially if it is a news related to a popular Vigilante, like Spiderman.

As for the video of Spiderman’s violent attack on ordinary people, most Internet users think it might be Spiderman cracking down on some kind of gang deal. However, some people believe that this is Spiderman beating others with his strength, because the people in the video have no weapons in their hands, and they are all running away under Spiderman’s attack. Soon, the video about Spiderman on the Internet went viral, and more people joined the discussion and shared it.

“Spiderman! Peter!” After the online video was reposted by major websites, Harry in Oscorp finally saw it.

With the help of the black mist, not only did Harry completely recover from his injuries, but his strength was several times stronger than that after the injection of the gene serum. Now he may not be much weaker than Venom Spiderman. Moreover, the black mist has a lot of weird abilities. In the face of Venom, these two are not mysterious species native to the earth. Who is stronger is a matter that no one knows.

“Let’s go! Get your revenge! With my help, you will crush Spiderman!” Harry had stood up from the chair, and the voice in his head appeared again.

Kaka ~

“Of course! Revenge! Destroy Spiderman!” Pressing his hand on the table directly, a crack appeared on the glass table, and Harry’s eyes were completely filled with hatred.

Shout!

One minute later, the heavily armed Harry flew out of the Osborn building on his hoverboard, rushing towards Spiderman’s location. He will not experience the failure of last night again, because now he is completely different.

Just as Mirage Knight, Tony, and Harry rushed towards Spiderman’s location, the 13th Iron Man was stopping in front of Spiderman to prevent him from escaping again. However, at this time, Spiderman didn’t seem to want to escape, so he stood quietly on the ground watching Iron Man suspended in the air.

“Spiderman, please don’t do anything dangerous.” Suspended in front of Spiderman, The 13th Iron Man’s right hand raised slightly and J.A.R.V.I.S’s warning sound was heard.

After the experiments last night, the laser weapon on the steel armor was enough to kill Venom thoroughly. But Tony obviously wouldn’t do that as that would also kill Peter parasitic to Venom.

And the next moment when the 13th Iron Man issued a warning, Spiderman, who had not been moving, suddenly raised his right arm, and a spider silk thread was launched. The target was the Iron Man in front of him!

Boom!

Keeping an eye on Spiderman, the 13th spiderman response was extremely rapid and the power of the propellers under his feet increased instantly to avoid the cobwebs coming from the front. However, after avoiding the first one, a second translucent spider silk thread has stuck to the right thigh of the steel armor.

Spiderman had just fired one of his first and his second strands of silk thread and one of his first strands had exploded into a large area of ??web covering the silk behind it, which hit number 13. But it doesn’t matter if thirteen gets stuck to the spider’s silk. Its thrusters are good enough to get rid of it.

Zizi!

However, when the power of the propeller was increased again, a strong electric current suddenly passed from the spider silk and rushed directly into the steel armor. JARVIS seems to have forgotten that Peter’s Spiderman suit was designed by Tony, and it contains no less technology than his steel armor.

Although Venom devoured the Spiderman suit, it also devoured most of the functions of various spider silks. One of them was to discharge electricity by spider silk previously locked by Tony.

Zizi ~

“Dīdī! The armor’s body suffered a strong current attack, and some functions were impaired.” The voice of JARVIS came from the 13th armor, calmly reporting his injuries.

Then, before the 13th could respond, Spiderman on the ground grabbed the spider’s silk and yanked it, dragging the midair thirteenth Iron Man directly.

“Hahaha!” Venom Spiderman dragged the 13th Iron Man and threw it while laughing differently from Peter himself.

Boom!

In the end, the 13th Iron Man who had been wheeled around several times was smashed to the ground by Spiderman, a rare example of such a beating since the suit was made. However, such a violent impact only damaged some of the surface structure of the Iron Man Armor. As for the internal damage caused by the strong electric current attack, it just needs to go back and replace some of the electronic components. So, before Spiderman swoops in, number thirteen is out of that big hole in the ground again.

Kakaka!

A small-powered assault weapon emerged from the 13th robotic arm and shoulders that rushed out of the large pit and aimed at the Spiderman who rushed over and fired decisively. Although J.A.R.V.I.S received an order to stop Spiderman, it is also possible to take the corresponding defensive measures after being threatened. After all, an Iron Man is not cheap.

Huh!

Dozens of rounds of bullets that were enough to cause serious injuries to ordinary people were directly shot at Spiderman. Even if an attack was made, the 13th tried to avoid the fatal position.

In the face of the thirteenth attack, Spiderman continued to charge forward, but Venom on his body quickly split into a lot of parts and rushed out.

Chapter 244 Chaos 2

Whew! Whew! Whew! Whew! Whew!

High above New York, five Iron Mans flew by. While flying quickly towards the target position, Tony was also connected to the 13th Iron Man and he is watching the situation there.

“The 13th has already fought with Spiderman and it cannot use deadly weapons and is similar to just a high-defense Colossus. No! Venom even unlocked my blockade of the spider suit hidden system!” Apparently, Tony was surprised as he saw Spiderman’s situation.

“Hurry up! Hurry up before your Iron Man is demolished by Venom!” Lin Rui, obviously aware that Iron Man with his hands tied around his feet is no match for Venom Spiderman and shouted quickly.

Shout!

With a low cry, Lin Rui's iron man armor speeds up again and he'll be there in less than a minute. Tony and the remaining three five-man Iron Man quickly followed.

...

Shout! Boom!

In the clearing in front of the church, Venom Spiderman punches Iron Man number 13 in the chest. There was a thud, and the hard alloy in the chest of the suit of iron and steel was hollowed out, showing Peter's strength.

"Dīdī! The Exoskeleton has been damaged by 30%." Firing up the ejector to dodge Spiderman as he pursues him, JARVIS calmly analyzes the situation.

"The calculation results show that it is possible to delay until the arrival of Tony and Mirage Knight." Quickly judging the situation at this time, J.A.R.V.I.S once again controlled Iron Man 13 and rushed towards Spiderman. Even if it did get smashed, it would completely delay Spiderman for several minutes.

Huh! Boom!

However, as the 13th Iron Man continued to rush towards Spiderman, a small missile suddenly flew from the air behind the church and quickly flew in front of Spiderman and then exploded. In an unexpected situation, J.A.R.V.I.S controlled the 13th Iron Man and stopped moving forward, slowly flying to midair and scanning the situation.

Brush!

When the 13th Iron Man started the scan, a familiar aircraft rushed out of the back of the church in an instant. The missile just now was apparently launched from this aircraft, and the target was still Venom Spiderman. Needless to say, this aircraft was Harry's flying hoverboard. Because Oscorp's building is in the center of New York City and the speed of flying hoverboards is very fast, Harry arrived here before Mirage Knight and Iron Man and launched an attack as soon as he arrived.

"Sir, the aircraft that appeared last night had appeared again." Scanning the origin of the aircraft and the person standing on it, J.A.R.V.I.S quickly reported the situation to Tony who was coming.

"What?! Damn! How could this happen? How could Harry recover so soon?!" Mirage Knight who also received JARVIS's report and saw the familiar aircraft and the person standing on it, frowned. This situation was getting worse by the second.

"13th! Can you stop them? Don't let them fight!" Mirage Knight had 30 seconds before he could reach the battlefield, but these 30 seconds were enough for Peter and Harry to fight for several rounds and in order to ensure that these two will remain alive, Mirage Knight quickly asked JARVIS.

"Mirage Knight, I'll do my best." J.A.R.V.I.S can only answer this way. He can not use lethal weapons and Iron Man's functions are very limited without them.

“Spiderman!” Just when J.A.R.V.I.S contacted Tony and Lin Rui, Harry had already flown towards Peter on the flying hoverboard.

The Venom Spiderman on the ground also looked up at this newly emerged opponent, and facing Harry’s sprint, Venom Spiderman didn’t panic. He easily defeated Harry last night, and now Harry was no longer a threat in Venom’s eyes.

Da da da!

Just when the young Green Goblin Harry and Venom Spiderman were about to collide together, various bullets shot from above towards them, just passing between them, blocking their course of engagement. J.A.R.V.I.S has shot and he will do his best to prevent the two from fighting.

“Mind your own business!! Harry looked up at Iron Man and let out a roar.

Huh!

Roaring, Harry had fired three mini-missiles in a row towards the Iron Man. In order to kill Spiderman, Harry had to clear the field.

“Dīdī! Missile strike detected, evasive action taken.”

Shout!

Faced with a three-shot missile chase, the Iron Man armor could only dodge the sharp edge for a while. JARVIS controlled the thirteen Iron Man and spun into the sky.

“Spiderman, Peter, my best friend! Hehe, the murderer who killed my father! You Killed my father and still acted like my best friend! Now, it’s time for you to pay for your sins!” Driving the Iron Man armor away, Harry hovered in front of Venom Spiderman.

Harry wanted to get some response from Peter. As long as Peter said that he killed Norman because of an accident and he felt guilty, Harry would be able to control the black mist and might become clear-headed. However, Peter’s situation is no better than that of Harry. He is completely controlled by Venom. He cannot control his own behavior. He can only let Venom use his body to do so many things that hurt others.

Sisi!

Facing Harry’s questioning, Venom on Peter’s body split into countless tentacles and snarled in Harry’s direction. A weird aura from Harry finally made Venom feel threatened, and it now behaved as if he had met a strong opponent.

“Since you aren’t going to answer! Then, Die!” Ignoring Venom’s charge, Harry yelled and started the flying hoverboard again.

Brush!

The next moment, a green shadow rushed past Venom Spiderman. In the flash of coldness, a big cut had been made on Peter’s waist revealing Peter’s skin inside. However, Venom quickly twisted and covered the cut again.

After landing a hit, Harry drove the flying hoverboard and turned towards Venom Spiderman. However, the Venom Spiderman on the ground bent his legs slightly and he jumped up the next moment and reached to the height where Harry was flying.

Pū Pū!

Two rounds of spider silk threads shot at the flying hoverboard and there was a faint arc of electricity on one. And Venom Spiderman himself rushed at Harry on the flying hoverboard. As long as he was close, Venom Spiderman would be able to put Harry in a similar situation as that of last night.

“Do you think I am the same person from last night?! You are gravely mistaken. Give me more power!” Seeing Spiderman rushing towards him, Harry’s face hidden under the mask was covered with a dark mist.

“As you wish!” The voice in Harry’s head echoed gloomily, and then the black mist completely penetrated into Harry’s body.

Boom!

Then, Harry also jumped off the flying hoverboard while holding only a long alloy blade in his hand and he was going to fight a head-on fight against the Venom Spiderman! As for the flying hoverboard, it was switched to automatic drone mode to avoid the silk threads and flew to the side.

In the clearing in front of the church, a black mist controlled Harry charged with an alloy knife and Peter clenched his fist under the control of Venom, the two best friends are locked in a life-and-death battle in their own dysfunctional circumstances.

“Peter! Harry! Don’t!” Just as Venom Spiderman and Little Green Goblin were about to fight against each other, Mirage Knight’s roar suddenly came from above the battlefield.

Brush!

The next moment, a black figure fell from the sky, and directly inserted into the middle of the battle between Venom Spiderman and Little Green Goblin, it was Mirage Knight! However, at this time he was in the center of the battlefield and faced the strongest attack from Venom Spiderman and Little Green Goblin.

“Damn it!” Mirage Knight whispered as his right hand had immediately pulled out the thunder blade to block Harry’s alloy blade, while his left hand was punching towards Peter’s side.

Cheng!

Bang!

Chapter 245 Chaos 3

Bang ~

Above the empty ground in front of the church, a strong shockwave centered on Mirage Knight and the other two spread outward rapidly.

“Ahhh!! His left fist is against Peter’s fist, his right hand is against Harry’s alloy blade and Mirage Knight who was caught in the middle roared with purple light flashing in his eyes.

Venom parasitized Peter, strengthening his strength to a more powerful level, and this punch was Venom’s full blow. Harry, who is possessed by the Black Mist, has also greatly strengthened his body strength under the effects of the Black Mist. In addition, the gene serum injected in his body before, the power of Harry’s attack is also very powerful.

Therefore, Mirage Knight, who was temporarily inserted in the middle almost couldn’t stop them after being hit with a double-sided attack. However, at this time, Mirage Knight was just barely supporting himself and he could already feel the crack on his knuckle on the left fist under Peter’s power. His right-hand has cracked and it is almost impossible for him to hold the Thunder Blade in his hand and his whole arm is shaking slightly.

Peter and Harry, who should have been enemies to each other, failed to attack each other under the sudden intervention of Mirage Knight but at this time they were both controlled by things not belonging to the earth. Since there is an intervening person, then it will be fine to kill that person.

So, just when Mirage Knight was about to persist, Venom, who was parasitic on Peter, suddenly split into dozens of tentacles and rushed towards Mirage Knight. And the black mist that had merged into Harry’s body also emerged from Harry’s body and rushed towards him.

After seeing the black mist emerging from Harry’s body, Mirage Knight’s pupils shrank sharply and he finally understood everything, but now it was not the time for him ponder about how the black mist had appeared as his current situation was deadly.

“The original! ... Blast me!! Ah-ha!” In the face of Venom and black fog, Mirage Knight suddenly burst out with all the internal energy in his body.

Woohoo!

“Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhah!” Feeling a tearing pain all over his body, Mirage Knight lifted his head and let out a roar of pain. The next moment, a surge of powerful force rushed into Mirage Knight’s arms, then along the arms out of the body.

On Mirage Knight’s left hand, a transparent punch of gas suddenly rushed out of the fist, instantly repelled the opposing fist of Peter, and then continued to blast the Venom that rushed behind. The internal energy of Mirage Knight’s right hand is all rushed into the Thunder Blade and then rushed out as a dazzling Purple Blade. The alloy blade which was cut with the Thunder Blade broke in an instant, and the dazzling light continued to strike back at the black fog.

Pū!

Boom!

Two distinct voices were heard from the center of the battle, and then two figures in the air flew backward and forwards as if hit by a speeding car. And the figure in the center is like a powerless leaf being blown down to the ground.

Pū Pū Pū!

Two seconds later, three heavyweights fell to the ground in front of the church as Mirage Knight so fell to the ground. The Golden Trio of the New York Empire State High School gave a life-threatening fight in such a weird situation. No one could predict the development of things.

Last night, Mirage Knight also tested Venom's defense against his internal energy. Although the effects are not very strong, the use of such explosive internal energy is enough to cause considerable damage to Venom. Therefore, Venom, who fell to Spiderman on the ground, kept spitting out tangled tentacles, as if out of control.

The situation on Harry on the other side was not so good, the sword light containing the power of thunder broke into the black mist. From the first encounter with Norman, Mirage Knight knew that the power of the thunder had a restraining effect on the black mist, and this attack did not disappoint him. The black mist on Harry fell obviously weaker and melted into Harry again.

From this point of view, Mirage Knight did a great deal of harm to Venom Spiderman and the little Green Goblin, who was strengthened by the black mist. But only Mirage Knight knew how much he had paid for it.

After performing two simultaneous attacks with his full power, although Mirage Knight repelled Venom's attack and the black mist's attack, he was also seriously injured. The blood vessels ruptured throughout his body and many small wounds were cracked on the skin due to excessive force. His entire body quickly painted itself red with blood. If it weren't for the Phantom Suit's cover, he would look even scarier at this time. The bones of his left hand that dealt with Venom Spiderman and the right hand holding the Thunder Blade have been broken. If he doesn't use Holy Spring Water, no one knows how long it would take for him to recover.

"Cough!" Lying on his back, Mirage Knight coughed weakly and spewed out blood. He now finally knows that the blood spray after the injury on the TV was not sprayed casually, and any type of internal bleeding does cause blood to spray out.

There were multiple fractures in both of his hands and his entire body was filled with small wounds caused by an explosion of internal energy. The Thunder Blade was inserted obliquely on the ground one meter away from him but Mirage Knight had no strength to move now.

Sisi Sisi!

Woohoo! Woohoo!

While Mirage Knight was lying on the ground, strange sounds came from his left and right sides. Mirage Knight, who had a bad feeling in his heart, raised his head and looked up at both sides but Mirage Knight's eyes almost spit out another mouthful of blood as he looked at the scene.

He saw that Venom, who still seemed to be out of control, had once again retracted its tentacles and quickly expanded with Peter as the main subject. Soon, a huge Spiderman composed of Venom filled Mirage Knight's eyes.

In the other direction, the black mist that merged into Harry's body surfaced again, and seemed to open a door of space behind Harry. A black hole was hovering behind Harry, which caused Mirage Knight to feel fear from the dark hole. Then, more black mist poured from the black hole, blending with the black mist on Harry.

When the amount of black mist is enough, it completely covers Harry. The black mist changes rapidly and finally appears to cover Harry's body with black mist armor. It looks like a monster with double horns, big red eyes and ferocious muscles.

If Mirage Knight knew about the voice in Harry's head, he would have known that this is the image of the devil that the evil voice keeps referring to.

In this way, after Mirage Knight injured himself and also seriously injured Peter and Harry, the two parasitic possession species that did not belong to the earth broke out again and made Mirage Knight feel despair on the ground.

"Am I just going to die in the hands of my two best friends? Sadly I haven't told them that I am Mirage Knight." It is no longer necessary to look up to see the monsters growing on the left and right. Mirage Knight thought sadly as he rested on the ground.

However, even if Mirage Knight lifts his mask and reveals his face, Venom Spiderman and the little green Goblin possessed by the devil are unlikely to feel anything about him, at this time they have completely lost their own thinking.

Sisi Sisi!

Whirring whirring!

Venom, which has undergone a massive transformation, and the demon spirit looked at each other as if they were threatening rivals. So, after a roar of their own, Peter and Harry lunged at each other, with Mirage Knight right in the middle of them, so the next second Mirage Knight would be squashed.

Boom!

"Peter, Harry, although I'm sorry I couldn't save you, but now I am going to die at your feet, let me leave with this apology." Silently muttering in his heart, Mirage Knight has slowly closed his eyes. Mirage Knight, who closed his eyes and waited for death, didn't notice that when Peter and Harry rushed towards him, the altar of the resurrected system in the System Shop suddenly flashed with a light, but it soon went out.

Brush!

However, just when Mirage Knight was about to accept his death, a red figure passed between Peter and Harry at a speed faster than the speed of sound, saving Mirage Knight from the ground just before they collided together.

Boom!

Rumble!

Chapter 246 Chaos 4

Shout!

When Lin Rui desperately waited for death to come, Tony, who had finally arrived, rescued him at the critical moment and took Lin Rui away from the central battlefield quickly.

“Hey! ... Mirage Knight! Are you all right? You want to give up when things go wrong?” Tony’s voice rings in Lin Rui’s ear when he feels that his body is still aching and he seems to be flying in the sky.

“Well? Mr. Stark!” Lin Rui opened his eyes when he heard the voice, and his blood-blurred sight saw Iron Man holding himself, Lin Rui shouted with a little excitement. However, at this time, he was too weak, and his voice was very low.

Huh ~

“You! Why do you have to be so stubborn, look at yourself now! Are you looking for death?” Putting Lin Rui slowly to the ground, Tony shouted at Lin Rui.

Just when Lin Rui rushed into the battlefield and confronted Venom Spiderman and the apparently abnormal little Green Goblin with his own power, Tony was worried that he would be killed. If it hadn’t been for Tony’s last arrival, Lin Rui would have really died just now.

“Ah! Mr. Stark, Peter and Harry!” Tony was carefully placing him on the ground and Lin Rui shouted anxiously.

Since he isn’t dead, he still has to continue to find ways to save Peter and Harry. He can’t let them continue to fight to kill each other like this.

“You stay here, leave those two guys to me.” Looking at Lin Rui who was covered with blood and still looked worried, Tony said angrily.

“But ...” Lin Rui wanted to say something, but Tony interrupted him.

“No. The fight over there is not something you can intervene in. Listen to me and rest here. As for me, I can try the effect of the new Iron Man Armor.” Undeniably, Lin Rui wanted to help as planned but Tony has already risen again after leaving an Iron Man armor to guard him.

“Mr. Stark! Don’t hurt them!” Lin Rui shouted as he lay on the ground as Tony rushed up into the sky with his four Iron Man.

“I’ll try my best.” The Iron Man who was left beside Lin Rui replied.

However, in the case of Venom Spiderman and the possessed Harry, it is unknown whether Iron Man can control the situation. As for Peter and Harry, it is an almost impossible task to rescue them. For now, Venom is already stimulating Peter’s potential to strengthen himself, and the demon-possessing Harry is also consuming Harry’s constitution to exert more power.

So, even if Venom and the demon were separated from Peter and Harry, in the end, some injuries were unavoidable. So, Tony had better rescue them as soon as possible, the longer the time the greater the danger.

Tony had already flown away and Lin Rui, who was a few hundred meters away, could feel the movement from the battlefield not far away. However, at this time he wasn’t really able to do anything, so after thinking for a moment, Lin Rui looked up at Iron Man standing next to himself.

“Well, J.A.R.V.I.S, can you do me a favor?” Lin Rui asked suddenly to the Iron Man armor next to him.

“Mirage Knight, I am willing to assist you.” Soon, the Iron Man looked down and replied to Lin Rui.

Just when Lin Rui was severely injured by Peter and Harry and rescued by Tony, then Iron Man joined the battlefield with four new Iron Man and the previously avoided 13th Iron Man. In New York Sanctum, Greenwich, some people also sensed a certain wave from the battlefield.

“That extraterrestrial demon’s aura appeared again!”

“It is consistent with the last time it appeared in the suburbs of New York! The place of this appearance is ... that location!”

The Sanctum, based in New York, was responsible for monitoring various abnormalities and a sorcerer noticed an abnormality when Harry was possessed by the demon. After careful confirmation, he determined that an out-of-domain demon came to earth this time. This is a big event that is enough for them to report it to the Ancient One.

“It is necessary to notify the Ancient One!” While sensing the aura of the evil demon through the device, one sorcerer raised his hand in front of him and began to draw circles with it.

Hu!

Soon, a space door opened by magic appeared in front of the sorcerer. Without hesitation, the sorcerer has stepped in.

Hu!

A minute later, several magical space gates suddenly appeared out of thin air in the hall of Sanctum in New York. Then, six sorcerers appeared together in the Sanctum. In the face of a demon who can break through the defenses formed by the three guardian Sanctums and break into the earth, the earth’s sorcerer must take this situation very seriously.

“Wang has already notified the Ancient One, let’s go over!”

“Okay, come with me!”

Then, without delay, a space gate was created by one sorcerer and the six other sorcerers entered together again.

Rumble!

In front of a dilapidated church in a remote part of New York City, it had become a battleground, with venomous giants and Harry’s demonic figure fighting each other without fear, each time wreaking havoc around them, and they seemed to have a tendency to expand the battlefield.

If they continue to do so, this battlefield will soon spread to the ordinary people. The reason why no one is here is partly that the Frankenstein Family started clearing and partly because Tony’s Iron Man was flying in the air, keeping people from coming near. But if the battlefield expands, Tony wouldn't be able to help it. So, after a little observation of the battle below, Tony finally decided to strike.

"Let's try the sonic attack first to see if it works. I don't know what the weird black mist is." Tony himself drove an Iron Man suspended in midair, while J.A.R.V.I.S controlled four Iron Man on the side.

"J.A.R.V.I.S, start a sonic attack! Let's start with a 20% power first!" Now that he's decided to take a shot, Tony has shouted in the next second.

"Yes, sir." J.A.R.V.I.S had activated the sonic weapon.

At the same time, Tony also raised his right hand and aimed at the giant Venom below.

Buzz ~

The next moment, a sound came from the four Iron Mans suspended in mid-air, and the transmitted sound wave quickly hit the Venom below.

"Sissisi!" Faced with a sudden sonic attack, the Venom giant who was fighting against Harry suddenly burst into countless slender tentacles that were twisting constantly.

"It worked!" Tony shouted excitedly as he saw the physical changes of the Venom giant below.

Brush!

But then something happened that made Tony unhappy. Because the Venom, which had temporarily lost control of its body after being attacked by a sonic wave, came loose in a few blows from Harry, revealing Peter wrapped in its most central position. But the demon also seemed to know that Peter was the source of Venom's power and it made to grabbed him with one claw.

"Not good!" Seeing a sudden change in the battlefield, Tony's face had changed and he launched another attack.

Hu!

A slender laser shot out of an Iron Man's hand and accurately hit the devil's paw as it came toward Peter.

Chapter 247 Chaos 5

Sii!

Tony's laser attack instantly broke through the huge claw that turned into a black mist. Perhaps the form of possession of the devil is also polymerized by energy, so after the laser penetrated, the huge claw began to dissipate from the middle and seemed to be scattered.

"Since it is effective, then, JARVIS, let's teach these guys some manners! Increase the sonic attack intensity by 50% and maintain the previous intensity of the laser. Be careful not to hit the two people in the middle." After noticing the effect of the laser strike, Tony's eyes flashed and he ordered JARVIS.

As long as technology can handle it, Tony can use the Iron Man to do it. What about alien creatures? What about the demon outside this reality? There are always somethings that can deal with them. Of course, Tony didn't know what that thing was on Harry yet.

"Yes, sir." J.A.R.V.I.S. already controlled the other Iron Man to fly quickly around the battlefield, and also opened up sonic attacks and laser weapons.

Buzz!

Huh!

In this way, under the targeted attacks from Tony's Iron Man, the Venom changing itself to a giant form has been twisted under the influence of sound waves, constantly splitting tentacles to attack the flying Iron Man, but it is obviously doing nothing. Peter, wrapped in Venom, emerged, but he is in a coma and he can't escape on his own.

The demon that possessed Harry wasn't doing much better than Venom. Under the continuous laser strike, the black mist that forms the complete image of a devil has been dispersed by more than half and the armor is gone. Although more and more black fog continued to emerge from the black hole behind Harry, it could no longer condense into a completed image and create that armor on Harry's body.

Under the attack of Tony's high-tech Iron Man, these two things that are not native to the earth are actually suppressed. However, Tony's Iron Man also happens to have a weapon that can be used against them. If other Superheros were here, they would have been beaten black and blue.

However, just when Tony thought the big picture was settled, the situation on the battlefield changed again. Venom, who could not control its own body under sonic attacks, has gradually adapted to the sonic attacks. J.A.R.V.I.S can only continuously increase the power of the sonic attacks.

And the demon who was attached to Harry seemed to know that its current situation would not work. The black hole, which was originally the size of a tire, suddenly expanded to a diameter the size of a human, just enough to swallow Harry. Suddenly, more black fog poured out of the swollen black hole and suddenly condensed into a tall image of the demon again under the impact of the lasers.

Then, when Tony couldn't react, the huge demon suddenly roared at the several Iron Men flying in the air.

"Roar!!!!!! ~~"

Hum!!!

The seemingly unreal demon sent out a huge roar, and with the roar, it also sent out a weird wave, the instant impact on the flying Iron Man body.

"Not good!" Tony suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart when he saw the devil's change. He quickly retreated.

Zizi!

"Unknown attack hit, the system is damaged by 80%. By calculation, this attack is similar to the type 5 attack." Just after Tony's frantic effort to control Iron Man's rapid retreat, he hears the JARVIS report.

Then Tony saw all four Iron Man Armor flying above the battlefield falling to the ground with sparks. The interior of these four Iron Man Armors was severely damaged by just a single roar.

“Sure enough, this guy can use magic!” Tony murmured wistfully, watching the dark red eyes staring at him.

Tony felt a sense of déjà vu after the attack, and the JARVIS test confirmed that Tony was right. It was a magical attack. The fifth attack type is Tony’s definition of magic attack, which is a category that Tony does not understand at all.

Since seeing Destroyer in New Mexico and almost being killed by it, Tony has been paying attention to this unknown type of magic attack. Later, he also learned from Mirage Knight that this is a kind of magic possessed by the Asgardians, which seems to not belong to any branch of science. So, in order not to encounter similar things in the future, Tony wanted to find a way to defend against this kind of magic attack. But because it’s really not a subject of study and Tony can’t find magic people around him to help him experiment, so he hasn’t made progress.

This time, Tony had a bad feeling when he saw this demon. Sure enough, that magic destroyed his four of his Iron Man Armors again. Now he’s the only one left on the battlefield. Driving the Iron Man to hide on the edge, he’s afraid to go any further. Of course, Tony didn’t plan to let the Iron Man who was standing by the Mirage Knight come to support him.

“Damn, I have to ask Mirage Knight to tell me more about magic after this matter is resolved. This must be added to the Iron Man Armor!” Taking the still intact Iron Man Armor, Tony looked at the battlefield ahead and saw that Venom and the Demon have begun to recover slowly.

“But, what should I do now? Should I notify SHIELD? They seem to be more experienced with these types of situations?” His Iron Man Armor is on the verge of collapse. Tony had no other methods now. All he can think of now is to turn to the SHIELD.

Since joining SHIELD, Tony also knows how many weird things the organization must have been exposed to and they may have the ability to solve the situation at hand. After all, they seem to be studying aliens. Aren’t they always monitoring Thor?

“Sir, a violent spatial fluctuation has been detected.” As Tony watched Venom fight the Demon once again, the voice of JARVIS came out again. And, this time, it seemed to have detected something strange.

“Space fluctuates?! Where?!” Tony asked quickly after hearing J.A.R.V.I.S. Spatial fluctuations are not normal.

Then J.A.R.V.I.S showed the position of the outgoing spatial fluctuation directly on the screen in front of Tony’s eyes. In the display of J.A.R.V.I.S, the location of that spatial fluctuation is exactly on the roof of that church.

“Scan there carefully!” As J.A.R.V.I.S’s camera zoomed in, Tony could already see some light on the church roof.

“Yes! Sir.” After agreeing, J.A.R.V.I.S had enlarged and scanned the situation and project it to Tony’s eyes.

Buzz ~

Then Tony saw another thing that surprised him today. In the scan of J.A.R.V.I.S, a circular space door suddenly appeared on the roof of the church, and there was a bright golden light on the edge of the space door.

Then, six people dressed in strange costumes came out of the door of the space, and all fell on the church roof.

“Are they aliens? There are all kinds of weird things coming one after another!” Watching the six people who appeared in the center of the battlefield through the door of space, Tony couldn’t help but speak sarcastically.

“Sir, the scan shows that those six people are from earth, they are not aliens.” However, just after Tony finished speaking, J.A.R.V.I.S corrected him.

“Hmm? From Earth? When did we possess such powerful technology?” Tony asked incredulously when he heard J.A.R.V.I.S.

“Perhaps, they are not using technology!” Tony murmured after seeing the next actions of the “uninvited guests” before J.A.R.V.I.S answered.

Chapter 248 Chaos 6

Back in time half a minute ago, a space door appeared shortly after JARVIS detected a spatial fluctuation on the church roof. Then the six sorcerers who had disappeared from New York Sanctum appeared on the roof of the church. Their faces changed when they saw the huge virtual shadow of the Demon in front of them. As for the Giant Venom that confronted the virtual shadow of the Demon, they did not pay much attention to it.

Compared to the Demon who broke into the earth, Venom’s level is still too low. Had it not been for the magical protection around Earth, this unknown demon could not only be able to project a phantom image through the black hole behind Harry, with very limited strength, otherwise, Venom would not be an opponent of the Demon at its full strength at all.

“It cannot be allowed to expand any further. Its invasion of the earth must be interrupted!” A Sorcerer shouted loudly, looking at the growing shadow of the Demon below.

“Join hands and trap them in the Mirror Dimension!”

“Strike together!”

Then, under the cooperation of six sorcerers, a piece of mirror-like space quickly surrounded the battlefield with the church as the center. It seems as if there are some optical illusions surrounding them and then everything returned to normal. However, this entire battlefield has been dragged into the Mirror Dimension, and the fierce fighting in it will not affect the outside world.

And just as this battlefield was dragged into the Mirror Dimension, the swollen Demon suddenly glanced upwards, and those big red eyes were staring at the six sorcerers above the church.

Shout!

Then Harry, who was wrapped in the shadow of the Demon suddenly looked up. At the next moment, Harry had raised his hand and waved it over the church.

Brush!

The great shadow also swung upward as Harry moved, and a dark purple light shot through the monster's huge claws toward the six sorcerers above the church. After the black hole expands, the Demon finally condenses into a body large enough for it to release its other attack methods.

Faced with that ray of attack, a sorcerer reached out and stroked forward while the other jumped out of the way. At the same time as the sorcerer jumped out, the slate of the church that was stepping on his feet also moved quickly with him, constantly changing the structure and laying in front of the sorcerer and the other sorcerers that were now standing beside him were also stepping on the transformed slate or block to avoid the coming attack.

Kakaka!

The whole church had been broken up into several parts by some sets of strange rules, and the surrounding buildings had changed accordingly. Soon there was a scene of a circular arena, with the Demon at its center, and Venom had been sealed into a separate space. In the Mirror Dimension, the buildings are completely under the sorcerer's control and no longer subject to terrain constraints.

"Spread out! Attack it but be very careful not to hurt the ordinary person that it has possessed!" Shouted a sorcerer as they ran at a quick pace. At the same time, he had used an attacked the shadow of the Demon below with magic.

Swipe!

For a moment, several fiery red magical lights shone in this mirrored space that had been transformed into a gladiatorial arena, and each attack headed towards the Demon.

Rumble!

...

"Sir, there have been drastic spatial fluctuations again." Just as Tony hid on the edge of the battlefield and carefully observed the six emerging earth humans, J.A.R.V.I.S.'s voice suddenly reminded him again.

"What?!" After hearing a reminder from J.A.R.V.I.S, Tony suddenly noticed the mirrored space spreading. However, the mirrored space collapsed too quickly, and Tony was shrouded in it before he could react.

"Sir, we have lost contact with the outside world. According to system judgment, we seem to be trapped in a parallel space." When everything around was recovered again, JARVIS's screen flashed a few times before reporting such a message.

Perhaps only an Advanced artificial intelligence like JARVIS can make the most normal judgment based on what it detects, which would be an illusion to the average person. Because this mirror space is exactly the same as the real world, except for the changing church in front of them!

“Parallel space? How many times will my worldview be refreshed in a day!” After hearing a report from J.A.R.V.I.S, Tony couldn’t help but groan as he stood at the edge of the mirrored space.

Just after Tony finished speaking, the position of the battlefield in front of him, the churches began to change violently, and the buildings on the ground and the surrounding buildings were changing rapidly. This shocked Tony once again, but this time he did not say anything. If you shock a man many times in a short period, he will become numb to it. Is there anything more shocking than what is happening in front of Tony right at this moment? Anyway, Tony can’t think of it now. Maybe he will only think of it after this situation solves.

“Sir, I have scanned the position of the 10th Iron Man and Mirage Knight is beside him.” Just as Tony stared at the changes in the battlefield ahead, J.A.R.V.I.S’s voice came again.

Although the external connection between J.A.R.V.I.S and Mirror Dimension has been broken, scanning in the Mirror Dimension can still be done. However, after scanning, J.A.R.V.I.S found an unexpected situation. The 10th Iron Man, which should have been a few hundred meters away on the battlefield, is now wrapped in Mirror Dimension, and Mirage Knight is also next to it and also entered the Mirror Dimension.

“What? How did he come in?! J.A.R.V.I.S, connect me to number ten!” After hearing the report from J.A.R.V.I.S, Tony asked worriedly. Before, he had seen Mirage Knight’s injuries and Tony didn’t think he would be able to move at all. What is he doing here?

In the opposite direction to Tony’s location in the Mirror Dimension, the tenth Iron Man and Mirage Knight were carefully hiding, with the battlefield center in front of them.

Before Tony could send Mirage Knight out, he asked the tenth Iron Man to help him take out the Elven Holy Spring Water from his pocket and feed him. Under the action of the Elven Holy Spring Water, Mirage Knight’s injuries were quickly recovered. Although it is not possible for him to recover to his peak condition in such a short time, at least his injuries turned from serious injuries to minor injuries.

Therefore, Mirage Knight, who was recovering came to the battlefield with the 10th Iron Man. However, as soon as he arrived here, he saw the six sorcerers who appeared from the Space door and brought this entire space in the Mirror Dimension. Mirage Knight also got dragged in.

However, compared to Tony’s shock when he saw the scene before him, Mirage Knight was much calmer. Because, after seeing the familiar Space Door appeared, Mirage Knight had already guessed the identity of the six weirdly dressed people who had suddenly appeared. They are the sorcerers who have been silently protecting the earth from the attacks of other dimension threats and demons. They belong to a powerful and secretive force that protects the earth.

“Whew! It seems that the thing on Harry is really a Demon! But with these sorcerers, the situation should be under control.” Seeing the six sorcerers waving their hands in the Mirror Dimension to turn this battlefield into a gladiator arena, Mirage Knight murmured while hiding.

Although he made many guesses about the power of these sorcerers, Mirage Knight is impressed by their ability to alter objects at will, regardless of rules. However, Mirage Knight does not have any magic talent, otherwise, he would really want to switch to magic.

Just as Mirage Knight was hiding and staring at the battle in the middle of the battlefield, the number ten Iron Man standing beside him suddenly made a sound.

Chapter 249 Chaos 7

“Why are you here? Didn’t I tell you to hide outside and take a good rest?!” Tony’s voice came from the tenth Iron Man’s mechanical helmet as it looked at Mirage Knight beside him and Tony’s voice was a little worried.

“Mr. Stark, I’m much better now. By the way, are you in the Mirror Dimension?” Mirage Knight is a little surprised to hear Tony’s voice coming from the Iron Man Armor and immediately replied.

When Mirage Knight sneaked in, he didn’t see Iron Man flying in the sky. He thought that Tony was hiding someplace but he didn’t expect him to be enveloped by the Mirror Dimension. Mirage Knight hadn’t seen the previous image of the demon destroying four Iron Man armors, otherwise, he would definitely feel the same as Tony.

“Much better? I just saw that injury and I can see that it is a serious injury even if JARVIS couldn’t scan your body. How could you be much better?” Hearing Mirage Knight’s words, Tony’s voice came from the Iron Man, he didn’t believe Mirage Knight’s words.

“Also, you talked about Mirror Dimension just now, do you know something about the situation now?” Tony also expressed some concern about the two words spoken by Mirage Knight. Mirror Dimension, this really seems to be in line with the situation they are experiencing now. Does Mirage Knight know those weird people?

“Uh ... well, I’ll let JARVIS scan my body first, and then explain to you the current situation.” After hearing Tony’s words, Mirage Knight knew Tony did not believe him and it would be much better if he could show that he is all right. So he let Phantom Suit unblock the shield first and then explain the situation to Tony.

“Okay, now J.A.R.V.I.S should be able to scan my body.” With only one thought, the Phantom Suit removed the shield from outside detection, Mirage Knight looked at the Iron Man as he spoke.

“J.A.R.V.I.S. Scan him carefully. If Mirage Knight is still seriously injured, restrict his movements. Don’t let him leave your sight.” Mirage Knight’s voice had just fallen, and Tony already ordered J.A.R.V.I.S.

“Yes, sir.” A calm promise was made and the 10th Iron Man approached Mirage Knight, and then two translucent rays of light from his mechanical helmet swept towards Mirage Knight.

Buzz ~

The two rays quickly swept over Mirage Knight and then retracted.

“After the inspection, Mirage Knight has only minor injuries on his body and does not need special attention.” Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S’s inspection report came out.

“Okay, I believe you. Tell me about the situation now. I’m heading towards you now, but I won’t go too fast so as not to attract the attention of those people.” After hearing JARVIS’s report, Tony felt relieved, then went on.

“Well, I have explained about Venom before, and the thing that is attached to Harry, I now suspect that it is some kind of Demon from other dimensions or reality. As for the six people who appear later, they are humans native to the earth, you can think of them as magicians. Although there are a lot of differences between them and the magicians you have read in novels or saw on televisions, they are real sorcerers. And the current situation ...” Hearing Tony’s orders, Mirage Knight stayed still while he explained the current situation to Tony as the fight between the Demon and the Earth Sorcerer went on.

And just as Tony and Mirage Knight, who were accidentally covered in Mirror Dimension, approached slowly and carefully, six sorcerers from the three Sanctum and the extraterrestrial Demon were fighting in the center of the Mirror Dimension’s arena. In fact, they have long noticed Tony and Mirage Knight hiding on the edge of the Mirror Dimension, but at this time, they need to deal with the Demon and they did not pay any attention to these ordinary people and as long as they remain hidden, they wouldn’t pay any attention to them until the fight is over.

With the cooperation of six sorcerers, the Demon possessing Harry has been suppressed, and each magical attack will make his illusion a little more illusory. However, the black mist constantly emerging from the black hole supplemented the consumption of this Demon’s power.

The six sorcerers were in a stalemate for a moment because they are worried that they will hurt Harry, who is infested by the power of the Demon. However, Harry, who is possessed by the Demon will be the first to lose his life if this continues. Even though Harry is now far more physically fit than the rest of the ordinary humans, he won’t be able to withstand the power of the Demon for long.

But even if the six sorcerers knew this, they didn’t have any other good idea. They could only hope that Ancient One gets there soon. With the strength of Ancient One, dealing with such a Demon would not be a problem at all and this Demon would not be able to hurt Harry again.

However, before the six sorcerers could wait for the Ancient One to appear here, the Shadow of the Demon below, which they had been suppressing, suddenly erupted. The shadow or mist, which had already expanded to the diameter of a person, expanded again, and instantly expanded to the size that could swallow a car.

As the black hole grows again, more black fog emerges from the inside and the Demon image suddenly swells a lot and a lot of solidification can be seen and the real muscles of the horrible Demon could almost be seen. At the same time, Harry, who had been under control, appeared to be struggling, his closed eyes were seemingly trying to open. Under the pressure of the Demon’s carelessness, Harry finally couldn’t hold it, it was his instinct to resist.

“Roar! Go to Hell!” The large, blood-red eyes of the Demon swept past the sorcerers, which surrounded him in six directions and it let out a roar.

Huh!

Along with the roar of the Demon, countless lines of arrows condensed by black fog shot out in a 360-degree range. Tony had seen the black fog before with Norman, and it only took a small cloud to destroy his Iron Man Armor. Now, these condensed arrows are far more powerful than the previous dark fog, and it also contains the magic of this demon, which is also very difficult for the sorcerers to resist.

“Not good! Get out of the way!” A sorcerer, who was already nervous when the black hole suddenly expanded, shouted to other sorcerers after seeing the Demon’s next move.

Hū!

While reminding others, the right hand of the sorcerer quickly drew in front of him and a shield composed of golden rune light appeared in front of the sorcerer. As for the other five sorcerers, they also made corresponding defenses. Six sorcerers were forced to the point of overall defense at one time.

Pū Pū Pū!

“What!”

“Noo!”

After a period of black arrow rain, a sorcerer who was obviously weaker did not completely block the rain of black arrow. Two black arrows broke through his defense and hit him, and screams were heard on the battlefield.

Chapter 250 Chaos 8

“Roar! Burn-In Hell! Guardians of the Earth!” After launching the arrow rain, the Demon yelled again and then jumped directly from the ground of the gladiator arena and slammed into a sorcerer in the air.

Shout!

The sorcerer who was targeted by the Demon waved his hands in a hurry to change the space structure around him and quickly left the attack position of the Demon. Although he avoided the attack, the sorcerer was obviously incapable of dealing with the sudden and powerful Demon.

“Not good! It really intends to come to earth completely!” Seeing that the Demon Image is getting more and more solid and now the Demon would be able to attack with more methods, a sorcerer shouted in worry.

They would have been able to solve the problem more easily if it was just a demon casting an imaginary shadow of itself and causing damage through the loopholes in the laws protecting the earth, but if the demon actually bring himself here, the Mirror Dimension alone would not be able to trap it and it would cause unpredictable damage to the earth.

In fact, there is no need for that sorcerer to give out this warning as the other sorcerers also understand that the current situation has reached an extremely serious situation. Moreover, two of their companions were injured in Arrow Rain’s attack just now. Facing an increasingly powerful Demon, the six sorcerers with limited strength are no longer its opponent.

Boom!

Rumble!

Under the attacks of the crazy Demon, several sorcerers can only continuously avoid the attacks relying on their control of the Mirror Dimension. For a while, the entire Mirror Dimension was spinning like a giant kaleidoscope, and the Demon trapped in the center of the kaleidoscope was trying to destroy the various rotating buildings around him.

However, looking at the solid body of the Demon, this Mirror Dimension can't hold him for long. In such a situation, Harry possessed by the Demon had already shed blood all over his body. The whole person already looked like a blood man, and no one knows how long he will last.

If the real Demon really comes to this dimension, it wouldn't need to be attached to earth creatures, so now the Demon doesn't care about Harry's life and death, squeezing his life force as much as possible.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Just when the Demon in the gladiatorial arena in the center of Mirror Dimension came out, Tony at the edge of the Mirror Dimension finally flew towards Mirage Knight.

"According to what you just said, this guy is from another world and it should not be the opponent of these sorcerers. However, why does the situation look a little bad now." The Iron Man fell beside Mirage Knight and Tony opened the helmet and looked at Mirage Knight.

Tony could see that the situation was bad and Mirage Knight could also see it. Moreover, Mirage Knight could see more clearly than Tony. Because of his physical strengthening, Mirage Knight could see Harry's situation as he was wrapped in the Demon's shadow at this moment. So, Mirage Knight is more worried now.

"Although I know that there are such a group of mysterious people on the earth but I have never contacted them, and I did not expect that they will not be able to deal with this guy. However, there should be a powerful person coming soon!" Staring worriedly at the battlefield situation, Mirage Knight said seriously.

The more powerful person Mirage Knight is talking about is obviously the Ancient One. As the leader of the Earth's Sorcerers, the strength of the Ancient One is much better than these ordinary sorcerers.

"I hope you are right. If these magical sorcerers can't deal with that guy, we wouldn't be able to escape it either." Tony could only comfort himself when he heard Mirage Knight's words.

Although Tony still has two Iron Man around him, he also knows that it is not easy to deal with things that are not from earth. Maybe Arc Reactor's self-destruct can do some harm to it, but it will still be useless if it can't destroy that black hole.

"No! This can't go on! Even if they can trap this guy, Harry can't hold out!" Mirage Knight finally breaks down when he sees Harry looking miserable. With a cry, Mirage Knight rushes out.

Shout!

However, Mirage Knight was only able to take a step out before he gets stopped by Tony who is watching the situation. Two Iron Men Armors stand in front of him, left and right. Tony will not let Mirage Knight go there to die now.

“Mirage Knight, don’t be impulsive. It won’t help if you go up there. Their rules are not in accordance with the rules of physics. You can’t even intervene.” Stopping Mirage Knight, Tony says in a serious voice.

Although the Mirror Dimension is a projection of the real world, the rules are entirely subject to the sorcerer’s changes. Even if Iron Man flew into the battlefield, he could only fly along with the constantly changing ground and sky. Science could not work well without the basic rules of physics.

“But I can’t watch Harry dying like that! That’s not happening!” Mirage Knight said with some anger in his voice but he finally stopped.

“Okay, let’s do it together, but we can’t get close to the most central area!” Knowing that even if he stopped Mirage Knight, he would run over, Tony finally compromised.

“Yes! Let’s attack that black hole together! I think that’s the energy source of that big guy. If we destroy it, we should be able to get out of this crisis.” After agreeing with Tony’s suggestion, Mirage Knight said seriously.

“Well, I think so too. But, do you have a long-range attack?” Tony nodded and asked again.

Although he knew that Mirage Knight could attack with his blade through strange energy but he could not attack a target that is too far. But they want to remain unaffected by the weird rules that are happening in the center, they must hide a hundred meters away.

“Yes! But I need some help from the Iron Man Armor!” Mirage Knight answered when he heard Tony’s words.

“What help?”

“Energize me!” Mirage Knight had already pulled out his Thunder Blade as he replied.

One minute later, Mirage Knight had taken the Thunder Blade that absorbed the entire Arc Reactor energy and Tony slowly approached the central battlefield and finally stopped at a position of 100 meters away from it. This is the closest place they can get without getting affected by those magics. If they move forward, they will fall into the kaleidoscope that is constantly rotating.

“Are you ready?” Looking at Mirage Knight beside him, Tony asked earnestly. Tony was surprised when the Thunder Blade fully absorbed the entire energy in Arc Reactor just now as he did not expect that such a seemingly ordinary Blade had such ability. However, the size of the attack depends on the strength of the user.

“Ready!” Using all the internal energy in his body, Mirage Knight slowly raised the sword to the top of his head with both hands and then replied.

“So, let’s get started! Three ~ two ~ one ~ J.A.R.V.I.S, Fire the cannon with 100% power!”

“Let’s go! Thunder Strike!”

Hum!

Brush!

As Tony and Mirage Knight shouted, two lights, one purple and one white flashed from the side of the battlefield at the same time. Then, a white laser beam and a purple Thunder power rushed into the center of the battlefield in an instant!
