Chapter 261 Tony's Test

"So, Mr. Tony, do you have a way to control Venom?" After learning about Venom's various functions, Lin Rui looked at the still Venom in the glass jar and asked Tony beside him.

"Eh ... there is no solution for that at this moment. Regardless of how small these Venom splits are, they still have their own consciousness and cannot be controlled." After hearing Lin Rui's question, Tony responded awkwardly.

"However, although I haven't found a way to control Venom yet, I believe that there will be a way to control it in the future. This thing is an alien creature and it is not good for others to come and study it with me. It would be nice if Dr. Banner was here, He has deep knowledge in biological science." After feeling the embarrassment of the atmosphere, Tony quickly made up a sentence.

"Ohh? Dr. Banner? Is it Bruce Banner?" Lin Rui hadn't paid attention to Tony's forced explanation, but asked quickly after hearing a particular name.

"That's right, Dr. Bruce Banner. Do you know him?" Tony asked curiously when Lin Rui suddenly looked surprised.

Although Lin Rui has brought a lot of surprises to Tony, especially since Tony has now almost confirmed another identity of Lin Rui, but he was able to recognize Dr. Bruce Banner and it still surprised Tony. Dr. Bruce Banner is not an ordinary Ph.D. but a nuclear physicist who is no less talented than Tony Stark, but most people wouldn't know such a person as he is not famous.

In an unexpected physical experiment, Dr. Bruce Banner was subjected to Gamma-Rays radiation and mutated into a green creature called Hulk, now whenever he is angry, he turned in to Hulk, he is one of Marvel World's top powers. In order to treat his irradiated mutated genes, Dr. Bruce Banner turned to biology and achieved great success in that field with his talent.

However, a few years later, Dr. Bruce Banner did not find a cure for himself. So, in order to avoid himself from getting angry and become Hulk and hurt people. Bruce Banner has gone incognito to an inaccessible place in Nepal more than a year ago and has been learning all kinds of ways to control anger.

Now, there are not many people in the world who know where Bruce Banner is, and Tony is obviously one of the people who knows about him. Although Tony knew where Dr. Bruce Banner was, he wouldn't call Hulk back in the practice because he was anxious to study Venom. Not to mention Banner is likely not to return. If he suddenly becomes Hulk in New York, Tony feels that his Iron Man Army wouldn't be able to stop the big guy.

So Tony was a little surprised when he heard Lin Rui say Dr. Banner's name. Does the little guy in front of him knows about Hulk? How many secrets did he know?

"Uh ... this. That's right, I know about Dr. Bruce Banner." Knowing that he was acting strangely, Lin Rui quickly replied.

“Oh? I’m curious how you knew him. Don’t say that you know about him from the Internet, this guy’s information is not available online at all.” Seeing Lin Rui admitting it, Tony goes on to ask Lin Rui. As he asks Lin Rui, Tony looks at him with folded arms and waits for an answer.

“Uh ... this ... that ...” Seeing Tony’s aggressive manner, Lin Rui didn’t know how to answer for a while.

Lin Rui knew that Hulk was involved and Tony’s attitude was normal. However, Lin Rui can’t make up any good excuses now! With a quick thought in his head, Lin Rui was also wondering whether or not he should directly admit his secret Identity to Tony. He believed that if he had admitted the identity of Mirage Knight, Tony would not be on his case about his knowledge of Hulk. But as Tony stares at himself, Lin Rui suddenly remembers something.

“Oh! I remember! I heard about Dr. Bruce Banner from Dr. Erik!” Finally remembering something that can get him out of this situation, Lin Rui said quickly.

Lin Rui didn’t lie, and he did hear Dr. Erik mention the name of Dr. Bruce Banner when he was interning with Dr. Erik in New Mexico. Just when SHIELD confiscated Jane Foster’s equipment and research materials, and she was planning to find SHIELD, Dr. Erik persuaded her to leave them alone.

At that time, Dr. Erik said that a doctor he knew was involved in this mysterious SHIELD, and then disappeared. He also asked Jane not to make things big. At that time, Lin Rui was a little confused when he heard the name of Bruce Banner, because he didn’t know that Dr. Erik knew about Hulk. Is their country really have such a small academic circle? However, there should only be one Bruce Banner, who can be involved with SHIELD.

However, because he had Thor beside him at the time. And Dr. Erik was not very familiar with Dr. Banner, so Lin Rui didn’t inquire about it later.

“Dr. Erik? Is that the Astronomy professor that you interned with in New Mexico during your vacation?” Tony asked with a puzzled expression when he heard the name of Dr. Erik from Lin Rui.

“Yes, that’s Dr. Erik.” Nodding earnestly, Lin Rui confirmed it again.

“J.A.R.V.I.S, check if this Erik really knows Banner.” Staring at Lin Rui for a few seconds, Tony turned to J.A.R.V.I.S and ordered.

“Yes, sir.” J.A.R.V.I.S., who was always present, agreed quietly.

“Sir, Dr. Erik does know Dr. Banner.” Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S. replied.

“Ok, I believe you.” After receiving the answer from J.A.R.V.I.S, Tony put his arms down and said to Lin Rui with a smile. However, whether Tony really believed Lin Rui’s words or not, no one knew, but at least he appeared to have believed it.

“But, Mr. Stark, is there anything special about this Dr. Banner? Why are you so nervous?” Silently relieved, Lin Rui asked with normal curiosity.

“This, you will know when you see him yourself. However, it may not be a good thing when you see it with your own eyes.” Tony answered with a quirky smile when he heard Lin Rui’s words.

“Uh ... okay.” Of course, Lin Rui had imagined in his heart what it would be like to see the Hulk in person, but he was still very curious.

“This boy! Let’s see how long you are going to pretend!” Tony looked at Lin Rui’s expression and silently thought.

“By the way, what’s going on with Peter now?” Dr. Banner’s affairs passed for a moment and Tony suddenly asked Peter’s situation.

“Oh, he is fully recovered from his injuries.” Lin Rui subconsciously answered when Tony asked about Peter.

However, when Lin Rui finished answering, he remembered that he was not Mirage Knight right now, why would he knew so well about Spiderman’s injuries! However, it was too late to change his answer now and Lin Rui had to continue pretending to be calm and waiting for Tony’s words. If Tony asked him how he knew Peter was injured, Lin Rui will say that he saw it when Peter didn’t go to class and he went to his house to find him. As Peter’s good friend, such reasoning should not be flawed.

However, to Lin Rui’s surprise, Tony just nodded slightly and said nothing, and it seemed that he knew nothing about Peter’s situation.

“He’ll be all right. He’s a good little fellow. At least, I think he’s better than you.” Looking at Lin Rui in front of him, Tony suddenly says something that is not clear.

“Oh, yeah? I always thought Peter was great too! His grades are better than mine.” Lin Rui said.

“Well, now, let me show you the latest design results!” The small talk is over and Tony is going to get back to work. One of the reasons he called Lin Rui here today is to ask him to help me with the later experiments as Tony will not waste such a handy assistant.

Chapter 262 Thor Bids Good-Bye

After working by Tony’s side for two days, Lin Rui drove home with his small jeep on the weekend night.

In these two days, Tony not only asked Lin Rui to help him summarize some regular physics experiments, but also had a lot of interest in Lin Rui’s previous understanding of magical items. Because before Lin Rui saved Tony with Elven Holy Spring Water, Tony was already interested in Lin Rui’s secrets, but Lin Rui was unwilling to say anything so Tony couldn’t help it.

But now, Tony has encountered magic again, and it’s the opposite now. His Iron Man Armor has no way to face magic attacks. So, in order to avoid being so passive when encountering this situation again in the future, Tony still asked Lin Rui about that aspect.

However, Tony was disappointed that although Lin Rui did know about magic and also had a few magical gadgets on his body. But he didn’t understand magic at all, he just used magic items passively. Lin Rui is completely unable to satisfy Tony’s request to study magic.

Speaking of which, Lin Rui would also like to help Tony. If the Iron Man Armor can be upgraded to a level where it can even deal with magic attacks, it will be a huge help in future battles. However, he does not have any magical talent of his own, and it is impossible for him to expend his precious Reward points to force himself to become a sorcerer as it would be worthless.

So, after thinking about it for a long time, Lin Rui thought that he might as well ask Tony to go to the Ancient One for help. Perhaps, the guardian of the earth would be willing to help Tony research the more advanced magic Iron Man, so that if Earth is invaded by the Demons or something else in the future, Iron Man may be more powerful than a sorcerer.

However, this is just something that Lin Rui is thinking. The last time he was accidentally involved in a Demon invasion of the Earth was when he came across the Ancient One and it was by chance. Although the sorcerers don't look much different from other humans, Lin Rui doesn't think they'll have a good chance to see Ancient One again if something similar doesn't happen.

And Tony himself naturally must have thought of asking the earth's native sorcerers for help. Although those people are obviously the secret guardians of the earth, Tony doesn't care much about it with his personality. But even with Tony's resources, he couldn't find Ancient One. Without getting a hint from Lin Rui, finding these sorcerers is almost impossible for Tony.

Therefore, studying magic is temporarily impossible for Tony. He can only upgrade his Iron Man Armor again in the physical direction. Compared with the first generation Iron Man Armor, his current Iron Man Armor reached the fifth generation and Tony has already been studying the latest nanotechnology for his Armors. It can be said that if it is not for the magic attacks, Tony's Iron Man Armors is already the most perfect individual combat equipment in the world.

Later, Tony has three directions for upgrading his Iron Man Armor. One is the traditional physical upgrade, which is moving towards a steel suit that is more portable and has higher physical defense and physical attack. The second one is towards the magic upgrade based on an understanding of the magic system, a magic Iron Man Armor with magic defense and magic attacks. The third one is the special upgrade using the alien creature Venom, which is more of a clone known to Lin Rui, which may be easier to pull off than magic Armors. After all, Tony now has Venom, but he doesn't know anything about magic.

Tony also told Lin Rui that he would upgrade his Iron Man Armor in the future, and Lin Rui expressed enough interest in this. Once all three of Tony's Iron Man Armors are upgraded, Tony will really become a Superhero that can go toe to toe against the strongest entities of the entire Marvel World.

Of course, it will take a lot of effort to achieve that step, but at least there is already a very clear goal. From Tony's plan for upgrading the Iron Man Armor, Lin Rui vaguely guessed a grand plan planned by Tony, that is, to protect this earth and this world with absolute crushing power.

This coincides with the decision made by Lin Rui a little while ago because of Loki. Only with absolute power in his hands would he be able to crush his enemies and protect the world and become someone who fears nothing. So, Lin Rui, who was driving his jeep on his way home was thinking about his future work with Tony. The League of Defenders is constantly evolving and Tony, the big money owner is also working on big things. If Lin Rui wants his plan to be realized, it would be a good choice to join forces with Tony.

"Perhaps, I should give Tony the complete design and manufacturing process Blueprint of the E Grade Aerospace Warship as a pre-investment with him to protect the world. With Tony's current financial resources, creating the E Grade Warship should be quite possible." Lin Rui muttered as he looked at the lights of New York in front of him under the night.

Lin Rui has already redeemed all the Blueprint parts of the E Grade Warship from the system shop using his Reward points, but there has never been any good opportunity to give it to Tony. Now that he has plans to protect the world with Tony, it won't be helpful to keep the blueprint in his hand.

"However, even if he talks to Tony about this plan as Mirage Knight, he would still think that I am crazy. After all, the strength of the League of Defender looks good now, but compared to this intricate Marvel World, The League of Defender isn't much. Should I make up a mysterious force behind us." Although he was thinking about what to do with Tony, he still feels a little annoyed about how to implement his plans.

"Ah! Forget it! I don't have to worry about it so much, I should do it! Anyway, I still have a lot of cards in my hand!" In the end, Lin Rui decides to just do it!

Whirl!

At night, a small Jeep rushed into the bustling streets of New York.

Just when Lin Rui drove home with his jeep, a Couple quarrel was taking place in an apartment in Washington, a few hours' drive from New York.

"Jane! Why are you doing this?! Haven't we been good? Is it Loki? What did he say to you last time? " Standing at the door of the apartment, Thor asked, looking helplessly at his girlfriend Jane foster.

Since Loki's arrival more than two weeks ago, Jane has been acting a bit weird. Today, when Thor once again forgot to take out the clothes in the washing machine, Jane finally lost it and broke up with Thor.

Although Jane is no ordinary girl and she doesn't mind Thor being an alien. However, after dating Thor for such a long time, Thor's personality hasn't changed much.

And most importantly, when Loki came to see Jane last time, he didn't say anything else and he just told her some of the romance stories of Thor in Asgard. At the same time, Loki also told Jane that Thor is now more than One Thousand years old. Although he looks similar to an Earthman in his twenties, Thor is very old and he will look the same when Jane died of old age.

Therefore, Jane finally gave up after insisting for two weeks. She couldn't let her youngest years be just a trivial moment in Thor's life and it was good for both of them to propose a breakup at this time.

"It's nothing, but I don't think we're right for each other. You are the Prince of Asgard, you have your noble status and family, we are really not suitable. So let's not see each other again in the future." Looking at Thor's confused expression, Jane replied lightly, holding Thor's packed luggage and thinking, Thor, it's not that I don't love you, but how long can this relationship last?

"Jane! I don't believe it! Exactly ..."

Shout!

"You should go! There's still some money on the card I gave you, it is enough to support your life until you get your next job." Without further conversation with Thor, Jane throws his luggage at Thor and gives him the order to leave again.

“Jane!”

Bam!

With his luggage in his hands, Thor shouted helplessly. However, the response to Thor was simply the relentless closing of the door.

Chapter 263 Seeking Help

Standing blankly at the door for a while, Thor finally silently carried his luggage and turned away. No matter if Jane broke up with him because of what Loki said to her or for some other reason, now that she has spoken to this point, Thor won't fight anymore, he's not that kind of person. However, Thor has already remembered Loki in his heart. After recovering his divine power, he needs to teach his younger brother a lesson, maybe more than one!

“Where should I go now?” As he walked out of the apartment complex, Thor stood at the gate, frowned and whispered to himself.

Although Tony has been living on the earth for almost two months, he hasn't lived exactly like a human. Therefore, letting Thor solve the problem of his accommodations in the future is still a bit challenging.

As Thor stood with his luggage at the door of the apartment building, thinking about where he should go next, he didn't know that there were two forces in the darkness watching him.

“Agent Coulson, our target seems to have broken up with his girlfriend and has now been kicked out of the apartment. How should we proceed next?” On the third floor of the apartment building to the right of Jane's apartment building, there is a SHIELD special agent team, which is responsible for keeping an eye at Thor. After seeing Thor being kicked out of the house, the team leader quickly contacted Agent Coulson.

“Kicked out of the house? Well, don't contact him for the time being. He has no danger level now.” After hearing the report from the team leader, Agent Coulson at the other end of the phone was somewhat surprised, but then calmly ordered.

Although Thor is the Prince from the mysterious and powerful Asgard and Thor's hammer is still being studied by SHIELD scientists in New Mexico. But he doesn't possess any threats at this time, and they had confirmed it. Thor is now nothing more than a powerful special soldier. Such a person is nothing in SHIELD.

“I see, we will continue to monitor.” After being instructed, the person in charge answered with a serious sentence and continued to look at Thor, who was standing at the door of the complex building.

And in the secret place of the first floor of an apartment building opposite the SHIELD agent group, two sorcerers from the New York Sanctum, wearing strange retro style clothes also looked at Thor not far away.

“What should we do now? Thor has been kicked out by Miss Foster. He doesn't seem to have any other friends on earth?” Looking at Thor who was standing in front of the apartment building door in a daze, one of the sorcerers asked his friend.

“Well, I suppose this is going to be difficult. The people he knew at school looked after him for Miss Foster’s sake. Now that Thor has broken up with Miss Foster, they have no reason to take him.” The other sorcerer hesitates and replies.

“What are we going to now? Should we meet Thor? But the Ancient One just said that we should only act when his life is in danger and nothing happens to Thor on Earth, but he didn’t say that we should care about his daily life!” The first sorcerer frowned and asked helplessly.

“This, let’s wait and watch. Anyway, it’s just being kicked out of the house anyway, Thor has been on the earth for two months and won’t starve to death.” Another sorcerer said seriously after a little thought. It seems that they do not want to contact the Prince of Asgard.

“Okay, let’s go now. Anyway, we will know if Thor is in any danger. Running a few times in a day like this really makes me feel like we are babysitting.”

Deciding to ignore Thor, the two sorcerers quickly backed away. Then, in the dark, a space door emitting golden light appeared and the two sorcerers had disappeared from their location in the next second.

Thor, who was standing in the doorway of the apartment building, naturally did not know that two forces were paying attention to him at the same time, and they had no reaction to him being kicked out of the house. If Thor knew he would yell that ‘I need help now. At least, find me a place to live!’

However, this is obviously impossible. So after standing at the door of the building for some time, Thor pulled out his phone and began to flip through his contacts, Thor found that he only had the contact information of a few people. And most of them are people who are related to his ex-girlfriend, and obviously can’t be contacted at this time.

Finally, after reading all the contacts, Thor’s finger moved back and forth between two of the names. Those two names were Agent Coulson and Jackson Lin. It seemed that Thor, who had been kicked out of the house, was already thinking about whether to turn to SHIELD.

“Let’s go to Jackson. This kid has a lot of secrets, and he is very powerful. And, aren’t we friends? He would be able to help me out!” Finally, Thor gave up asking SHIELD for help, Instead, he decided to ask Lin Rui for help.

So, the next second Thor had already clicked on Jackson’s name.

Buzz ~

New York, Lin Rui, had just returned home and before he can even take a shower, his cell phone vibrates and he wondered who would be calling him. After all, Jackson Lin doesn’t have many real friends.

“Well? It’s Thor? What’s wrong with him?” Lin Rui saw the caller ID after picking up the phone. After seeing that this was a call from Thor, Lin Rui was a little surprised.

“Hey, Thor, why call me so late? Last time, your brother scared me so much. You should get revenge for me in the future.” When the call was connected, Lin Rui greeted Thor easily and he also mentioned to get revenge on Loki.

Speaking of Loki, Lin Rui also promised Loki that he would help Thor in recovering his divine power, but Lin Rui has no clue how to do that just yet.

“Hey! Jackson! I called you because I have something to ask. As for Loki, when I get my powers back, I will not spare him!” Thor said.

“What kind of help? Did you and Miss Foster fight with each other? This is beyond my ability.” Lin Rui smiled and asked after hearing Thor’s words.

“Uh ... although it’s not the same as what you said, it’s almost the same. I broke up with Jane and now she kicked me out of the apartment and I am wandering on the street.” Thor was a little embarrassed to hear Lin Rui’s ridicule tone.

“Pū! What? You broke up with Miss Foster and got kicked out of the apartment and you are currently homeless?” Lin Rui, who was drinking water, spit out the water after hearing Thor’s words and then asked loudly.

“Well, Yes. So, I wanted to ask you if you can help me find a place to live in! Don’t worry, I will pay the rent myself as Jane has left me with some money. Also, I will find a job myself later.” In order to live on earth for the rest of his life, Thor does not have to worry about embarrassment, and directly tells him what he wants and he also adds that he would find a job so that Lin Rui doesn’t feel burdened.

“You! ... Okay, I’ll help you. However, it’s too late today, you should find a hotel for one night. Tomorrow you come to New York to find me and don’t you dare tell me that you don’t know how to come to New York.” Although it seemed a little strange to him, Lin Rui finally decided to help Thor.

If Thor can really find a job by himself, Lin Rui can help him find a place to live. Moreover, helping Thor regain his Divine Power is also on the agenda. He doesn’t know when Loki will come back to Earth next time. If he sees Thor like this, he may find troubles with Lin Rui.

In addition, if Thor regains his powers with his help, then Lin Rui may also tie Thor to the chariot of the Earth Guardian. His plan to protect the earth requires a lot of powerful people to join him and Thor is the perfect candidate. Of course, it’s Thor with his power and not Thor the human.

“Thank you, Jackson. Don’t worry, I know how to get to New York. Then, I’ll come to New York to find you tomorrow.” Thor was obviously very happy to hear that Lin Rui was willing to help himself.

“Well, that’s it, I’ll see you tomorrow, I’m going to rest now.” After agreeing, Lin Rui hung up.

“I knew Jackson would be able to help me!” Putting away the phone, Thor stood at the door of the apartment and laughed.

Then Thor took his baggage and strode out of the door of the apartment building. He will now go to the hotel opposite to stay for one night, and will go to New York tomorrow morning to find Lin Rui.

Chapter 264 Ancient One Attention

After hanging up the phone, Lin Rui went into the bathroom and took a shower. After coming out, Lin Rui didn't immediately lie down on the bed to rest, he had to help Thor find a place to live.

"Ah! Thor really isn't a worrying type of guy. But how could he break up with Miss Foster? Did Loki had a hand in it?" Lin Rui was thinking about why Thor and Jane Foster broke up as he sat in front of the computer, looking at a cheap single-person rental apartment nearby.

"Forget it, they have broken up anyway. If I don't want SHIELD to take care of Thor and win him over, I can only have him stay in New York. It just happens that helping Thor regaining his powers is also on the agenda. With him being near me, my plan would be easy to implement, whenever I come up with a plan anyway." Lin Rui muttered softly while browsing the rental information.

"But, can Thor really find a job? Miss Foster helped him with his previous job as a school librarian. He won't ask me to help him look for a job when he arrives. If Thor really can't get a job on his own, he'll have to go to Oscorp. Harry wouldn't mind a lot of idling aliens in the company." Picking out a few suitable apartments from the rental website, Lin Rui is already wondering what to do with Thor's life when he arrives.

"Okay, let's select these first and wait for Thor to come tomorrow and take a look at them together. I'm gonna have to take leave from school again, will this affect the teacher's mood! Forget it, anyway, based on my grades, I don't have to worry too much." Finally, after some time, Lin Rui helps Thor pick out a few apartments not too far from Lin Rui's home.

"It's time to rest!" After writing down the information of the apartments, Lin Rui flipped over and fell to the bed.

Hhh~

Soon, Lin Rui's calm breathing came from the bed.

Buzz ~

Just after Lin Rui fell asleep in his bed, a magical space door suddenly appears in the Ancient One's retreat at Kamar-Taj, far from New York. Then the sorcererS, who had been secretly observing Thor, came out of the magic space gate.

"Rick, David." Yeshua, who was training at the Ancient One residence, saw the sorcerers from New York Sanctum appeared in front of him and stood up to greet them.

"Hello, Yeshua. We are here to report to the Ancient One about the situation of the prince of Asgard, Thor. Is Ancient One back?" David smiled at Yeshua and asked.

"News of Thor? But the Ancient One hasn't come back yet. He's gone a little far this time, and he didn't say when he would return." Hearing David speak, Yeshua replied with a twinkle in her eye.

"Well, we know. It will certainly take him a long time to get there, so let's wait for the Ancient One. It's not urgent anyway." Hearing Yeshua's words, David spoke seriously.

They all seem to know where the Ancient One had gone, but they are very vague on the details as if that place should not be spoken out.

“Well, you can ask the disciples for anything you need.” Clearly familiar with the sorcerers, Yeshua doesn’t have to take care of them either, and then walks to the back.

“David, do you think it would be easy for Ancient One to go to the other world to find that Demon?” When Yeshua left, Rick asked David standing next to him.

It turned out that Ancient One had gone to some other place to create troubles for others. There was obviously someone behind the Demon who had sneaked into the Earth last time. As the Magical Guardian of the earth, the Ancient One has not made a move in a long time. So, in order not to let other Demons think that he had turned weak, he had gone there to make them understand that Earth cannot be invaded, Ancient One had decided to go there personally and his strength is still enough to crush them! If they want to invade earth, they first have to dig up their own graves. The Ancient One doesn’t mind killing them across the world from a long distance!

“This should be okay. With Ancient One’s strength, he would be able to handle it. Although Ancient One is now very old, he only looks weak from the outside and a few days ago a Demon was destroyed by a single wave of his hand. I don’t think there should be any trouble in this trip.” Listen to Rick’s question, David answered seriously. The two sorcerers were there when the Demon had attacked while being attached to Harry and of course, they saw Ancient One’s power.

The Sorcerer Supreme of the Earth is a total that can only be inherited by the strongest of Sorcerer. Since Ancient One can inherit this inheritance, his own strength is also beyond doubt. In fact, many sorcerers believe that Ancient One’s power surpassed that of Merlin, who was the greatest Sorcerer in the world a thousand years ago. However, since Ancient One didn’t have many chances to strike, some have gradually begun to doubt his power.

“Well, yes, I think too much.” Upon hearing David’s response, Rick nodded and agreed.

“Since Ancient One hasn’t returned yet, are we going back now or waiting here? There are still some sorcerers in the New York Sanctum. It shouldn’t matter if we stay here for a few days.”

Listening to Rick’s question, David was just about to answer, but they suddenly noticed a magic wave in front of them. Then, a Space Door quickly appeared in front of them.

“Ancient One!” Both David and Rick shouted excitedly after seeing the person coming out of the space gate. Just now, they were a little worried about Ancient One, and when they saw the Ancient One coming unharmed, that worry was completely eliminated.

“Well, David, Rick. Did something happen on Thor’s side?” Walking calmly out of the space door, Ancient One looked at the two sorcerers who were supposed to follow Thor in secret and asked.

Looking at the calm look on Ancient One’s face, they thought that he had just gone out for a stroll. The Ancient One had gone to other realities to find that Demon. Now looking at the calm expressions on Ancient One’s face, he either didn’t find that Demon, or he crushed the Demon and solved the problem without any effort.

“Yes, Ancient One. Thor had broken up with his girlfriend and is now kicked out of the house. He seems to have no place where he can stay for the time being.” Upon hearing Ancient One’s question, David quickly answered.

Because David and Rick left early, they didn’t know then Thor had called Lin Rui again and now he has found a friend who can help him.

“Is that all? Don’t worry about him, as long as this kid doesn’t do anything that put the Earth in danger, we don’t have to worry about him, even if he lives on the street, don’t worry about him.” Hearing David’s answer, Ancient One said indifferently.

Although Ancient One promised Loki that he would keep an eye on Thor, he would not let his sorcerers act as a babysitter for Thor. If Thor really did not adapt to life on earth, Ancient One would tell Odin to take Thor away.

“Yes, we know.” David had already expected this answer from Ancient One and nodded. They had planned the same before, but they only wanted to ask Ancient One as they were a little worried about Thor’s identity.

“Ancient One, we will go back now.” Now that Thor’s matter had been settled for them, David planned to go back. As for the results of Ancient One’s trip to a different world, they didn’t inquire about it, and they will definitely know after all.

“Ok, by the way, you can find someone for me after you go back this time.” Just as David and Rick raised their hands to open the Space door, Ancient One’s eyes flashed and he added.

“Humm? Who?”

“Mirage Knight.”

Chapter 265 Mom, Spider-Man!

The next day, after looking for a reason to ask for leave from the school, Lin Rui left home early. Thor contacted Lin Rui in the morning. He came to New York by car for the morning shift.

Now the Golden Trio of the New York Empire State High School are all busy, Harry is out of school because of his company. Peter often changes into Spiderman to stop crimes and he has no time to participate in various school activities. As for Lin Rui, he also has many things to do, but because he has a good excuse named Tony Stark(internship at Stark Industries, to help Tony do some experiments or something), his parents would not say much.

Driving his own jeep on the road, Lin Rui remembered that today is Monday. Why is he driving out?!! As he is on the road, Thor will be here long after he finishes the morning rush. If Lin Rui knew it, he would’ve taken the subway himself. Although the subway in New York was dead in the morning, it was better than the road.

Lin Rui, who was stuck in the road, looked at the roadside and saw a large display screen in the building that happened to show a promotional image of Captain America Rogers. Since Captain America’s “Resurrection”, the US government’s propaganda for this hero has never stopped. The streets and alleys are full of Captain Rogers photos and videos.

“Ah! I don’t know if Captain Rogers has found Bucky now. It has been Sixty Years, many things can change in that time. The two good friends don’t know what will happen in the future. However, the progress against Hydra seems to have slowed down a lot recently, isn’t it? Did SHIELD give up?” Looking at that huge picture of Steve, Lin Rui couldn’t help thinking.

In addition to the fact that Hydra was decimated by SHIELD at first, it was difficult for SHIELD to dig up hidden Hydra bases, which resulted in Lin Rui’s current mainline quest process being very slow. It’s been so long and the quest to destroy Hydra’s mainline quest is only finished by 55 percent.

“Will I have to do it myself? But, I don’t know where Hydra is hiding now!” Thinking of his unfinished quest, Lin Rui felt helpless.

“Mom! Spiderman!” Just when Lin Rui was stuck on the road thinking about some things, a stopped to his right side and a little kid put his head out of the window and shouting excitedly while pointing at the sky.

“Baby, don’t put your head out of the window, ok? Spiderman wants to talk to you if he sees it!” Just as the little kid sticks his head out of the window to look at Spiderman, the voice of the little kid’s mother came from next to him.

“Uh ...” Lin Rui, who had just extended his head halfway, heard this sentence a little awkwardly, and he seemed to be doing a bad demonstration.

Brush!

However, just as Lin Rui thought about whether to retract his head, a red figure had fallen quickly from the air and had landed on his roof before he retracted his head. Boom! It was Spiderman. When he flew in midair, he saw Lin Rui’s little jeep stuck in the ground. He was still wondering why Lin Rui drove out at this time.

“Mom! Spiderman! Spiderman is here!” Seeing that Spiderman had landed in front of him, the child who had obediently retracted his head crawled out again while shouting excitedly.

This time, the young mother didn’t stop her child anymore. On the contrary, she also took out her phone with excitement and seemed to want to take a photo of her child with Spiderman.

“Hey! Spiderman, can you be careful! You almost stomped my jeep!” Because Lin Rui suddenly landed on Lin Rui’s car, Lin Rui, whose half of his head was stuck out of the window, was somewhat frightened. So he looked up at Spiderman on the top of his jeep and complained.

“Why didn’t you go to school?” Peter didn’t care about Lin Rui’s complaining. Peter half-limbed out the roof and whispered to Lin Rui below.

“I am going to the station to pick up someone, but I forgot that it was Monday morning rush. What about you? Were you up late? Are you going to fly to school like this?” Lin Rui replied with his head facing the Spiderman mask.

“Pick someone up? A friend? You still need to drive to pick someone up?” Peter asked curiously when he heard Lin Rui’s answer. Does anyone still pick up a friend at the station? Is it a girl?

“Well, he is a friend. I can introduce you after I settle him in. I think you would be glad to meet him. By the way, it’s not a girl.” Lin Rui turned his head a little bit and answered. In the end, Lin Rui seemed to guess what Peter thought, and made up another sentence.

“Oh, really? Then I’ll come to you in the evening.” Finally, Peter straightened himself on the roof. A few words to Lin Rui are enough. If you continue, you will attract others’ attention.

Click!

Just as Peter was talking to the kid, the young mother sitting in the car happened to find an angle to take a picture of her child and Spiderman.

“I’m going!” Peter wasn’t planning to stay here anymore. He was really late.

Thwip!

He raised his hand and shot spider silk at the side building, and Spiderman flew out the next moment.

“Ah! Spiderman! Spiderman!” Peter had already flown away, and the kid on Lin Rui’s right was still waving his hands excitedly.

“Ah! Little boy!” With his head back into the car, Lin Rui muttered softly.

After a little more traffic, the traffic finally started to move, Lin Rui’s jeep was driving in the traffic towards the station where Thor would arrive. As for the scene that happened on the road just now, it’s not strange to everyone. Spiderman is the most grounded one in Vigilante in New York. Even if you get lost on the road, Spiderman may appear to help you. Therefore, it is not uncommon to encounter Spiderman on the way to work, and no one has linked Spiderman to the young man driving the jeep.

After another hour, Lin Rui finally arrived at the station. However, Lin Rui had an uncomfortable journey. Lin Rui wants to ask Tony for an anti-gravity car, which is still in the development stage.

Bang!

Slamming the door, Lin Rui gets out. The station that Thor arrives at is not a remote place in Brooklyn, New York. As soon as Lin Rui gets off, she sees a huge crowd of people coming and going in the area, many of them foreigners. After all, many people visit the United States every year, and New York is a city that almost every foreigner comes to.

Chapter 266 Thor’s Change

Lin Rui heard Thor’s voice as soon as he walked to the station door, and with Thor’s one-meter nine height, he looked very conspicuous at the station. However, although Lin Rui heard Thor calling himself that he was walking towards him, he did not meet him, instead, he looked in the other direction of the station.

"Hmm? It's that person, why are they still in New York?" Looking at the familiar figure in the crowd ahead, Lin Rui muttered in a low voice, as if he saw something curious.

Shout!

"Hey! Jackson! What are you looking at?!" Just as Lin Rui was staring in that direction, Thor had strode in front of him, he reached out his hand and waved it in front of Lin Rui's eyes to say hello.

At this time, in addition to wearing casual clothes, Thor carried a larger bag with some clothes in it. Thor had been living in his girlfriend Jane Foster's apartment before, and he didn't have much luggage, so he was thrown out of the house without needing a minute.

"Cough! It's all right. I saw a friend, but they are gone now." Turning to face the big man standing in front of him, Lin Rui raises his head slightly and answers simply.

As for the direction in which Lin Rui looked before, the familiar figure had already disappeared, and Lin Rui could only suppress his doubts. After all, it's no surprise that that person is still in New York.

"Is that so? So what are we going to do? Go straight to a place to live?" Not caring what Lin Rui says about his friends, Thor is now thinking about the rest of his life in New York.

As for the recent break up with Jane Foster, Lin Rui can't see Thor's sadness anyway. Is this the Asgard view of love? Or as Loki told Jane Foster before, Thor, who is over 1000 years old, has fallen in love many times in Asgard, and Jane is just a small interlude in his life on earth. Lin Rui could only think like this in his heart as this situation has nothing to do with him anyway.

"Well, I will show you a few apartments for rent that I looked at last night, and I contacted the landlord to go to the house today. You don't have any luggage, so you can live in directly after you have selected one." Lin Rui faintly replied.

"Haha! I knew you had the ability to help me! You are indeed my friend!" Thor said happily when he heard Lin Rui's words, and he reached out to pat Lin Rui's shoulder.

Huh ~

At the sight of Thor's outstretched hand, Lin Rui steps back a little and avoids Thor. This big guy is always pat him without holding himself back, so he doesn't want him to pat him.

"Well, let's go now. In addition to where you live, you have to think about how you will live in the future. This is Earth, not Asgard! You are no longer a prince here!" Lin Rui, who had escaped Thor turned around and he also reminded Thor as he walked towards his jeep.

"I know, I will go to find a job. I think maybe this is one of the reasons why my father exiled me to the earth. My previous life was spent as the Prince of Asgard, and it was only by not tasting the life of ordinary people that my proud and disrespectful character was formed. If I can live on earth as an ordinary person, I may regain my father's trust and return to Asgard." Walking after Lin Rui towards the car, Thor also speaks seriously.

It seems that Thor's two months on earth were not entirely fruitless. At least he could see some of Odin's intentions. If Thor can figure out for himself what his father means, then Lin Rui will be spared from more effort.

Thor is strong, but not nearly as strong as Odin in its heyday. Now that Odin is old, no one knows how long he will be able to rule over and control the Nine Realms, but Thor the Crown Prince is young and proud and he is clearly not ready to take up the mantle of being a King. Therefore, if Thor can change his views and personality while being exiled on earth, he will become the real Thor, a strong man beyond Odin, which is the original intention of Odin to exile Thor. Loki must have seen his father's intention, so he asked Lin Rui to help Thor.

Hearing Thor's words, Lin Rui's eyes flickered, and then he said, "You know it's all right, then, I'll help you."

"Hey! Of course, we are friends!" Thor smiles and pats Lin Rui on the shoulder. This time Lin Rui does not duck.

"But why do I think that you look different?" Having walked to the side of the jeep, Lin Rui looks at Thor up and down with slanting eyes and finally asks him some questions.

"Er ... What's different? Am I not still the same?" It seems that Lin Rui's observation is a little uncomfortable, and Thor throws the bag into the jeep.

"Have you put on weight?" When Thor gets on the jeep, Lin Rui asks curiously.

Bang!

"No!" Thor slammed the door shut and denied it. How could Thor of Asgard admit that he had gained weight on earth?? He can only blame the earth's fast food for meeting Thor's taste, and he is now an ordinary human being so its normal that he would gain weight.

"All right, but eat less fast food. I think you'll like Chinese food, too." Not caring about Thor's neglect of himself, he reminded him.

"Free of charge?" Hearing Lin Rui's words, Thor brazenly asks.

"Twenty percent off!

Just as Lin Rui drove the jeep to take Thor away from the station, a handsome figure suddenly emerged from the bustling crowd at the back of the station, silently watching Lin Rui's departure. If Lin Rui is still here at this time, he would be a little surprised, because this person turned out to be Wang Xin, the girl from the China who he met at Washington University before.

"Sure enough, this person is not easy. I was almost spotted just now." Watching Lin Rui's jeep slowly driving away, Wang Xin whispered.

Just as Wang Xin watched Lin Rui go away, another figure that Lin Rui would be familiar with emerged from the back of the crowd, it was Chen Ling.

“Ah! Xiaoxin, the car is about to leave, let’s go!” Coming towards Wang Xin, Chen Xiaoling said anxiously.

“Well, let’s go.” Nodded, Wang Xin looked back.

Then, the two women from China that Lin Rui had met disappeared into the crowd again. However, judging from Wang Xin’s performances, maybe they are not so simple students.

Chapter 267 Missing

In the following time, Lin Rui takes Thor to see the three rental apartments he selected last night, and finally, Thor chooses the apartment closest to the restaurant that Lin Rui’s Uncle owns. Lin Rui doesn’t have any problem with this, since it is obvious that he and Thor will see each other more often in the future, so it is better to live close to each other.

So, after paying the rent for a few months, Thor just throws the bag away and goes to live in it. Next, Thor is going to be looking for a job in the big, busy city of New York. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have any extra money to pay for rent or food.

“Come on, let’s go and eat. I’m tired after running for so long.” Looking at Thor, Lin Rui shouts.

In addition to eating, he will also help Thor to buy some daily necessities in the nearby shopping mall. Although the apartment has matching furniture or something, there are some necessary things to buy.

“Well, let’s go to your uncle’s restaurant to eat! Just show me the way!” Hearing that he was going to have a meal, Thor, who had just collapsed, sprang up with a thrill and spoke excitedly.

“Foodie!” Seeing the appearance of Thor, Lin Rui made a tacitly sarcastic remark in his heart. He doesn’t know what Odin or Loki would think about Thor’s tendency to become a foodie in exile on earth, but he imagines that they wouldn’t be too happy.

Next, Lin Rui went out with Thor to a Chinese restaurant opened by his uncle for dinner. After Lin Rui and Thor left, the door of the apartment opposite them suddenly opened and a beautiful girl stepped out, staring at the direction of the elevator, then she picked up the mobile phone: “The target has found a residence. Currently, everything is normal”.

“Ok, keep watching.” A calm reply came from the other end of the phone.

It turned out that SHIELD, who had been monitoring Thor, knew that he had come to Lin Rui for help. Moreover, SHIELD also knew that Lin Rui helped Thor choose three places to settle down, and even arranged people in each place in advance.

The SHIELD agents who monitor Thor are no stranger to Lin Rui’s identity, Jackson Lin, who is listed by SHIELD as a Secondary Sequence Candidate. However, because of his friendship with Tony Stark, maybe Jackson will not be recruited by SHIELD. However, this does not prevent SHIELD from paying attention to such a good talent.

In addition, Thor, the first alien visitor on Earth, met Lin Rui, so SHIELD attaches great importance to Lin Rui. Of course, SHIELD doesn’t do anything to Lin Rui but it’s still best to keep a close watch on him without disturbing his life. Lin Rui wouldn’t care if he found SHIELD around him, as long as their behavior was not excessive.

Of course, Thor doesn't know all this, he is now a mortal on the earth and is worrying about his future life.

"David, why do you think that Ancient One is looking for that Mirage Knight?" Just when Lin Rui took Thor to his uncle's restaurant for dinner, David asked Rick as they appeared in the Sanctum in New York.

"This, I don't know. We Sorcerers rarely came in contact with ordinary people. Even if this Mirage Knight is not an ordinary person, there is no reason for Ancient One to look for him." Confused about this situation, Rick replied.

"Did Ancient One notice anything from Mirage Knight the last time he dealt with that Demon?" David asked again.

They were all present when they dealt with the Demon last time, and they all saw Mirage Knight's attack. Although Mirage Knight and Tony's full blow also surprised David a little, they are not from the same world. Did the Ancient One plan to team up with these supernatural beings from the ordinary world to deal with the demons? However, many of their superpowers are of little use to the sorcerers, which is why the sorcerers have not been known to the outside world.

"I don't know about this, but since Ancient One has ordered it, we can do it. Did you notice anything about Mirage Knight last time? Did you see what he looked like?" Rick shook his head and asked David.

"No, I don't know how we are going to find him." David shook his head helplessly.

"Me too, but this guy seems to have contact with a few familiar people. For example, the Spiderman who likes to fly around New York."

"You know Spiderman?!"

"Why, can't it? Spiderman is now New York's most popular Vigilante, and his reputation is much higher than Mirage Knight."

"However, it seems that Mirage Knight's strength and what he does seem to be more important."

"Well, so, let me go to Spiderman."

"Rick, are you ~ Spiderman's fans?"

Rick: "..."

Since Ancient One was looking for Mirage Knight, David would do just that. However, they didn't see Mirage Knight's face or pay attention to him. At this time, he was hard to find. However, Rick seems to be interested in Spiderman and even knows that Mirage Knight has a relationship with Spiderman.

"However, why did Thor suddenly come to New York? Even if he broke up with his girlfriend and was kicked out of the house, he shouldn't have come so far away." Rick asked as he changed the topic.

"Whatever the reason, him being in New York is better anyway, he is closer to us. If there is something going on in the future, we would be able to react faster." Not minding Rick's question in changing the topic, David said indifferently.

Anyway, Ancient One has already said that regardless of Thor's life on earth, we don't need to care as long as he didn't die on earth. Whether he's in New York or Washington, we don't need to care much.

"That's right. Then I'll see what he's doing in New York tonight. Now ..."

"Now you can go find Spiderman." David laughs at Rick's face as he said this.

Shout!

Not in the mood for joking with David, Rick walked into his room a little awkwardly. However, the two sorcerers responsible for protecting Thor's security did not know that it was their somewhat lazy attitude that made them miss the chance to find Mirage Knight in the first place. At this time, Mirage Knight was right next to Thor!

Given sorcerer's special sense, they would have recognized Lin Rui as Mirage Knight if they had seen him up close. However, after losing this opportunity, no one knows when they will find Lin Rui.

Apart from the fact that Thor and Jane Foster broke up and several forces tracked Thor, there were other restless forces lurking in New York City. One of those forces is behind Francis, who last fought against the X-Men. After resting for so long, they finally put out their claws again. This time, though, it is unclear to whom they intend to reach.

Chapter 268 Reorganization

New York, Queens, Lin Rui home. Lin Rui, who has settled Thor, is lying at his desk in a daze. Of course, his stupor is what outsiders see. In fact, Lin Rui's consciousness is now in his mind.

"Whoa!!!" Looking at the glittering Reward Points in his mind, Lin Rui gave out a kind of exclamation.

After the incident with Venom Spiderman and the Demon coming to the earth, Lin Rui did not gain anything from them as they were not an active quest. After the incident was resolved perfectly, the system suddenly reminded Lin Rui that he had complete two Hidden Quests and One Achievement.

The two Hidden Quests were completed by solving the Venom and Demon threat, respectively, and that Achievement was achieved by meeting the sorcerers of the earth. At the same time, these two Hidden Quests that have been completed and the rewards that Lin Rui has received from his achievement are also rich. The Reward Points alone are a full 80,000 points. Lin Rui is also given some other special items, which are enough to make Lin Rui rich instantly.

Lin Rui did not settle down to sort out the harvest as he was with Peter and Harry in the hospital a few days ago. After that, he was busy with Thor, and he is finally ready to consider the use of the Reward points.

"More than 80,000 Reward Points! How should I spend these?!" Staring at the Reward Points in his mind, Lin Rui murmured. It is natural to sacrifice some of the Reward Points to the System resurrection, but Lin Rui will not sacrifice all of them.

"The Phantom Suit was upgraded last time, and the next upgrade requires more Reward Points. That's not enough. Then, let's exchange for two vials of Elven Holy Spring Water, at least, I would be able to save my or someone else's life." After a little consideration, Lin Rui pays 10,000 Reward Points for two vials of Elven Holy Spring Water. Lin Rui will only exchange this kind of thing if he had more than 10,000 Reward Points. Otherwise, it will be too expensive!

"Then it seems like the last of the "Heaven's Origin Heart Law" should be cashed in. My strength has become limited recently. Only by early Cultivation of a Complete Advanced Cultivation Technique can I continue to improve my strength at a high speed." On the second-order of things, Lin Rui paid another 30,000 Reward Points to redeem the last part of the "Heaven's Origin Heart Law". As Lin Rui's Advanced Cultivation Technique, the role of "Heaven's Origin Heart Law" is very impressive.

"My Speed Skill also needs an upgrade." In the last event, Lin Rui also felt that his speed should be further improved, so he also spent 5000 Reward Points to upgrade his Lightness Speed Skill.

"There are more than 40,000 Reward Points left, should I change my weapon?" After all the primary things were exchanged, Lin Rui considered the weapons. However, the current Thunder Blade Lin Rui is using it okay. The power is sufficient, so he hesitates.

"I won't change it for the time being, at least the power of the Thunder Blade is sufficient at this stage." After hesitating, Lin Rui still did not replace the Thunder Blade. The point is, the Thunder Blade is already a C Grade weapon. If Lin Rui wants to exchange more Advanced Weapons, then the Reward Points required for them are also huge, and he is reluctant to spend them for something he doesn't need right now.

"Then, there seems to be nothing special to exchange." Life-saving things have been exchanged, his Cultivation Technique and Lightness Speed Skill have been upgraded, weapons will not be exchanged temporarily, Lin Rui can't think of anything else that must be exchanged at the moment.

"By the way, I should get some magic defense items! Although the Demon should have just invaded the earth by accident, since I have met with the Ancient One, it's better to be on guard." Thinking about what happened to him recently, Lin Rui thought that he should exchange some magic items.

"Ah! Two thousand more!" Exchanging two Intermediate magical defense items, Lin Rui murmured helplessly to himself. Although the 80,000 Reward Points seems a lot but they really can't be used to exchange for many Advanced things.

"Well, let's leave it at that for the time being. The remaining 20,000 will be sacrificed to the system, and the remaining 20,000 will be saved for backup. A 20,000 Reward Point should make a difference when things get hard." Not spending any more Reward Points. Lin Rui scans the System Shop and makes the arrangement.

"Ah! System, when will you be resurrected? Without your guidance, I don't know if I did things right!" While throwing 20,000 Reward Points into the Resurrection Altar, Lin Rui muttered helplessly.

Huh!

Under a golden light, 20,000 Reward points fell directly into the Resurrection Altar and were instantly evaporated. Then, in front of Lin Rui's expectant gaze, a white light began to flash on the altar. The light slowly strengthened from being weak, and finally hovered quietly above the resurrection altar.

"Is it you? System?!" Lin Rui asked carefully, looking at the familiar white light.

Buzz ~

After Lin Rui asked, the white light seemed to be stimulated and started to tremble. Then, the white light suddenly dispersed in the constant trembling, and finally sank into the Resurrection Altar and disappeared.

Seeing that the white light finally disappeared in the Resurrection Altar, the disappointment in Lin Rui's eyes couldn't be masked, "Don't Worry, I will definitely resurrect you!"

After spending some time with the system in his sea of ??consciousness, Lin Rui finally retired silently. Whether it is to become a Marvel World Superhero or to resurrect the system, a large number of Reward Points are required, and this is the goal that Lin Rui has been striving for.

Shout!

Lin Rui, lying on the bed, suddenly opens his eyes and then rolled out of the bed. The next second, Lin Rui is in front of the table. He took his hard drive from a drawer under the desk and plugged it into the computer.

Kaka ~

Lin Rui frowned as he clicked a few clicks on his computer to see the contents of his hard drive. Most people would think Lin Rui was studying hard if they looked at him like this, but this is impossible.

"Hoo ~ these are just the design and manufacturing blueprints of E Grade Aerospace Warship. I really don't know what those Advanced Sky Warships in the System Shop look like in reality. I think they should be very advanced and big." Moving away from the screen, Lin Rui mumbled inexplicably. It turned out that he wasn't learning anything, but looking at the complete blueprint of the E Grade Aerospace Warship that had been redeemed for a long time.

Of course, Lin Rui, who was so secretive at first, did not dare to look directly at his computer. After all, SHIELD might spy on Lin Rui's computer at any time. But now there is a hacker in their Guardian team, Lin Rui told him to design a powerful firewall for him and now there are no problems, so Lin Rui now dares to look at these things on his computer which is enough to make a world-wide change.

"So, is it time to give Tony these things?"

Chapter 269 Lin Rui's Ambition

Although generally speaking, the E Grade Aerospace Warship may not be as high as Tony's Iron Man Armor in terms of technology. However, it is a small Interstellar Warship that can carry people to fight in outer space and the upper atmosphere. It is different from Tony's Iron Man in positioning as it can carry more people.

Moreover, if this E Grade Aerospace Warship is equipped with powerful attack weapons, it will be a very deterrent Interstellar war weapon. At least, it is already very sci-fi for the earth that has not yet created a decent aerospace carrier.

"What's more, with Tony's current technology, it shouldn't be too difficult to build these Warships. But confidentiality seems to be a little difficult. After all, the Aerospace Warship is not as small as Iron Man Armor and it cannot be built in Tony's basement. If I want to control this absolute power in my own hands, confidentiality is necessary.” Looking at the blueprint on the computer, Lin Rui frowned and muttered.

Not long ago, after Lin Rui was hit by Loki’s spell, he had a vague idea in his mind, that is, to wipe out the whole Evil Organizations of the entire planet(Earth), and then create a Global Federation where all forces will unite. Because, knowing that this is Marvel World, Lin Rui knows that the earth is just an ordinary human civilization in this universe. Although the Marvel Film series are mainly dominated by the earth, now that he has come to this real-world, any threats from the outside world will bring a devastating blow to the earth’s civilization.

However, this step is obviously not so simple. However, after the Loki incident, Lin Rui’s desire for power reached a peak in an instant. He doesn’t want to be defenseless against an opponent at Loki’s level in the future. He wants to become stronger and he has to have great strength. Having the strength to fully control the earth is powerful enough for him to level all the obstacles before him.

However, it may take a long time for Lin Rui to reach Loki’s level of power just by cultivating or he may never surpass Loki for a lifetime. So Lin Rui turned to outside help. Just like Tony, his own strength is only a little basic fighting, but he has countless Iron Man Armor Corps in his hand. Tony is the big boss of the Marvel world. As Tony has said before, his strength is not in Armor, but in his brain.

Lin Rui now thinks so, while continuing to improve his individual strength, he must also develop the team and the power he has in his hands. He wants to fight with hundreds of Aerospace Warship directly at the next time Loki threatens himself. Lin Rui doesn’t believe that even someone with Loki’s strength is really not afraid of such a large number of Space Warships.

Of course, in addition to enhancing his own strength to ensure his own safety, Lin Rui also has other ideas in his heart. The system has been “Dead” for a long time, and Lin Rui has been alone in this dangerous Marvel World. However, such an experience is also a great experience for Lin Rui’s mentality.

For example, Lin Rui at this time, he no longer has the mindset of the ordinary citizen he had at the very beginning. In the beginning, Lin Rui was “Forced” to become a Mirage Knight and embarked on the road to becoming a Superhero. However, Lin Rui was not very motivated at heart, he only thought about completing the Mainline Quest by beating up some gangsters. However, as he experienced more and more things, his vision and thinking had already undergone a change.

He knew that even if he wanted to remain neutral and just complete some Mainline Quests, he would still be constantly involved in Marvel World’s big events. Therefore, instead of passively accepting the Quests and being affected by the plot, it is better to take the initiative to control the plot. That’s what Lin Rui has been doing lately, though the results may not be great since the invisible power of Marvel World won’t allow an accident like Lin Rui’s to affect the original trajectory of the World.

However, Lin Rui will not give up this approach. If the power of the world stops him, then he will become so strong that even the power of the world itself would not be able to stop him. Lin Rui wants to build his own Marvel World, a world where all kinds of humans, Mutants, and aliens are united without any Evil forces or Organisations.

Although Lin Rui’s goal seems very whimsical, people need to always have some ambitions, and Lin Rui’s ambition now is to lead the human civilization of the earth to move forward quickly and intact.

Marvel World itself is a complete world with various cosmic backgrounds. Lin Rui has lived in this Marvel World that has become a reality for him for so many years. He clearly knows that the protagonist halo is not invincible, and the earth will face threats from the universe in the future.

Therefore, in order to be able to fight against that kind of external threat in the future, Lin Rui must first integrate the various forces and powerful people on earth. In the end, it was for his own safety and that of his family.

“Ah! Although I have some good things in my hand, the inside story and details are not enough. Not enough, not at all!” Turning off the blueprints on his computer, Lin Rui muttered as he unplugged the hard drive.

In order to team up with someone like Tony Stark, he needs to have something to offer. Don’t you see that SHIELD still owes Tony a lot of money after he lent them some Iron Man Armors and the time when Lin Rui was injured? It’s a very real world.

Mirage Knight is indeed very mysterious in the eyes of many people, and so far SHIELD does not know where such a powerful guy has emerged from. However, if Lin Rui went to Tony with the blueprint of the Aerospace Warship design and said that he would work with him to build a Secret Organization that surpasses any country on the earth and any force, then the biggest possibility is that he would be regarded as a lunatic.

However, if there is a force behind Lin Rui that is large enough to ignore the power of a single country, Tony may still consider it a bit. After all, Tony is not a government person, he also has his own forward-thinking, one just needs to look at Tony’s still upgrading Iron Man Armors.

“So, should I be honest with Tony, or should I continue to be mysterious and pretend there’s a powerful force behind me?” All in all, Lin Rui is not strong enough now.

This has nothing to do with Tony knowing Lin Rui’s identity. Anyway, he doesn’t know what secrets Lin Rui has.

“Ah! With great power comes great responsibility! Who said that?” Lin Rui suddenly feels that he has walked far toward the road of Superhero without even knowing, and even his thoughts are drawn towards the direction of all mankind. Although his dreams are a little big, it is not beyond his imagination.

“Forget it, the next time I go to see Tony, let’s try to find out what he has to say before I make a decision” Taking his hand away from the mouse, Lin Rui temporarily gave up making this difficult decision.

Then Lin Rui climbed to bed and slept while meditating. Some time ago, the affair between Venom Spiderman and little Green Goblin made Lin Rui very tired both physically and emotionally. Now that everything is settled, he thinks it is time for him to live a “normal life” for a while.

Chapter 270 Francis Reappears

The next night, at Margaret Sisters Bar, Lin Rui, who wants to relax asks Thor, who is looking for a job, to have drinks with him. Of course, it’s Lin Rui’s treat. Thor, an unemployed wanderer, can’t afford it now.

“The atmosphere of this bar is good. It is similar to the bars that I often go with the soldiers in Asgard. However, these wines are too bad to taste, there is no taste at all!” In the chair, Thor glanced lightly at the surrounding mercenary and said to Lin Rui sitting opposite him.

As a gathering place for various mercenary and similar professional people, the atmosphere of the Margaret Sisters Bar has always been more violent, but this atmosphere just fits Thor’s taste. Although the murderousness or strength of the people in this bar is incomparable with the people in the warrior bar over at Asgard, Thor also knows that this is the overall gap between the people of Earth and Asgard. It is already very good to have such a similar and good bar.

So the way Thor looks at Lin Rui in front of him becomes even more bizarre. When Thor woke up in the small town of Puente Antiguo, New Mexico, and meets Lin Rui for the first time, he knows that the power of this guy is not weak, and certainly not that simple. However, Lin Rui seems to be a normal high school student on the surface, and his hidden strength seems to be just a small secret of his own.

Now Lin Rui has brought Thor to such a bar full of mercenaries or more black profession, his identity has become even more mysterious in Thor’s eyes.

“Jackson, how many secrets do you have? I haven’t asked you before. You seem to know a bit about me and Asgard? Have you heard of Asgard before?” Seeing Lin Rui drinking his beer, Thor asked.

“Secret, of course.” With an oblique glance at Thor, Lin Rui gives a faint reply.

“Well! What secret?! ” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Thor continues. What Lin Rui says next seems important to him.

“Since it’s a secret? Then how could I tell you?”

“Cut ~ ~”

“But I do know something about you and Asgard. After all, your people were and are protecting the earth.

“Oh, is that so? We have fought enemies on earth before.” Hearing Lin Rui’s explanation, Thor feels suddenly enlightened.

However, even if there were some secret material on earth related to Asgard, it would not involve Thor, who is now “only” over a thousand years old and he was not born when Asgard fought against the Frost Giants on the Earth. Whether Thor is pretending to be stupid or being really dumb, the topic is clearly over.

Then, Lin Rui and Thor talked about something. Thor even made “friends” with one or two guys in the bar. After all, Thor used to fight a lot when he was in Asgard. The warrior temperament on his body can make these mercenary feel a sense of familiarity.

Unlike Lin Rui, although he has already killed many people, his temperament when he is Jackson is still that of a harmless high school student. Of course, the mercenaries in the Margaret sisters’ bars don’t really think that Lin Rui is a simple student, and Lin Rui’s previous skills shown in the bar were also not simple.

And just as Lin Rui drank the beer slowly and was going to find Weasel to order something, the door of Margaret's bar was suddenly pushed open. Then a few people walked in and went straight to the bar, apparently looking for Weasel.

Seeing the people who suddenly came in, Lin Rui, who was just about to stand up, looked strangely and sat down again.

"Mother F—kers! They not going to make my life easy for a while!" Lin Rui, who is sitting on the bar saw several people walking to the bar and became angry and unhappy.

By this time, the space across the bar from Weasel was already occupied by the intruders. These people are led by a man and a woman, while others stand aside to slightly separate the mercenary in the bar. The man looks no different from the general mercenary except for some handsome features on him, but the girl with a match stick in her mouth beside him is dressed in a darker style, and always looks coldly at the people around her.

The somewhat handsome man was obviously Francis who hated Wade, and the dark woman beside him was Angel Dust, his most powerful deputy.

"Last time he almost died in Wade's hands and he still came here to look for trouble?" Looking at Francis, who had disappeared for a long time, Lin Rui sat frowning in his place and thought.

Seeing Lin Rui's strange behaviors, Thor seemed to become aware that something is wrong. Then Thor put the glass on the table and looked over at the bar.

Just as Lin Rui was sitting in the corner thinking wildly, Francis at the bar had taken a step forward and faced a little nervous Weasel.

"I heard you might be able to point me in the direction of a, um, friend of mine. His name is Wade Wilson." Without much nonsense, Francis asked Weasel with a smile.

Weasel was alert when he saw Francis and a few of his men coming in. When Francis asked Wade's whereabouts, Weasel had already identified who they were. So, of course, he would not tell Wade's whereabouts to this guy.

"Sorry. I haven't heard of this person." Weasel answered calmly while looking at Francis. Although he knew that these guys in front of him were not ordinary people and his heart was already beating fast, he would not betray his brother.

When Weasel answers, Francis gives Angel Dust a look. Then Angel Dust, the tough girl next to him, had taken a step forward and walked around the bar.

"Hey! You're not supposed to be behind the bar!" Weasel backs off a bit in the face of Francis and Angel Dust. But thinking of this as his own pub, on his own turf, Weasel still doesn't back down.

Brush!

Weasel takes a step back when Angel Dust pulls a picture of Wade and Vanessa off the wall behind him.

"I've seen this woman." Taking the picture to Francis, Angel Dust said blankly.

“Ah, I think this must be Vanessa, I have heard so much about her,” Francis said lightly with the photo in his hand.

Boom!

Determined that Weasel should know Wade’s whereabouts, Angel Dust shot out her arm and gripped Weasel’s neck lifted him against the wall.

Kakaka!

However, as soon as Angel Dust pushed Weasel against the wall, all the mercenaries in the whole bar pulled out their guns and pointed them at Francis and others. This is the Margaret Sisters Bar, and Weasel is a good friend of all of them. To move against Weasel, they have to cross them too.

“Um! Sweetheart, you might wanna look around. This isn’t really the place to do something like that.” Weasel, who was easily raised against the wall, looked down and reminded Angel Dust.

Facing the muzzle of dozens of guns around them, Francis frowned, “Easy, Angel. Put the little man down. We have everything we need now.”

Huh ~

Hearing Francis’ words, Angel Dust put Weasel down. Although they are very good, they can’t face all the mercenaries in the bar with guns in their hand. So, with Wade and Vanessa’s photo in his hands, Francis was about to leave.

“You sure? You don’t want any clothes that are not Monochromatic.” Watching Francis slowly walk out, Weasel taunted him from the back.

“Thanks for having my back guys!” Thanking the mercenaries in the bar, Weasel hurried to the corner and started calling Wade, “Wade, we have a fucking problem. And by “We” I mean “You”.”
