Chapter 291 Self Destruct Accident/Surprise

Shout!

“What happened? Do you know where Mirage Knight is?!” Two minutes later, Spiderman finally arrived and landed beside Iron Man, watching Francis, who had been captured in front of him and asked nervously.

“No, this guy doesn’t know anything at all.” Tony’s tone clearly indicates that he was upset, and Iceman couldn’t retrieve anything of value.

“What then?!” Peter asked worriedly after hearing Tony’s answer.

Lin Rui has been kidnapped for one night now and they don’t know what will happen to him after such a long time. And now Francis is their only clue. If there is no news here then they really don’t know how to find Lin Rui.

“Let me take him back to school. Professor Charles should be able to find out something that is still hidden in his mind. Sometimes, there are things in people’s memory that had been erased.” Regarding Francis, Iceman has only this last option to find out some information out of him.

“Professor X?” Peter narrowed his eyes when he heard Iceman’s suggestion.

Professor X’s name is remembered by many people from the Mutants war decades ago. Although Professor Charles has retired and started Xavier school for the gifted and young, he is still a bright banner in the Mutants circle. And, as a moderate Mutant, Professor Charles had always wanted to be at peace with humanity.

“Well, I believe there must be something about the power behind Francis in his memory, and only Professor Charles can see what is hidden in his mind. Don’t worry, I’ll send him back when I get the information.” Worried that the people in front of him wouldn’t believe his words, Iceman seriously promised.

“I believe in Professor X!” Peter said quickly.

“Take his away, there is no other way.” Although Tony wanted to find Lin Rui himself, he really is out of options here.

“Well, do bring him back! Francis can only die in my hands!” When no one noticed him, Deadpool, who had already climbed up from below, stepped out from behind and shouted.

Wade doesn’t dare to face the rescued Vanessa. So he had been hiding in the corner, and when he saw Francis being taken away, he had to come out of his hiding place.

“Don’t worry, I’ll be back in a while.” Iceman nodded and replied when he heard Deadpool’s words.

Then, without the slightest resistance from Francis, Iceman controlled him and Blink, who had been standing beside Iceman, created a space door again. With Blink in here, they will return soon.

Dī Dī!

“Threat item detected!” However, just as Iceman took Francis towards the space gate, J.A.R.V.I.S.’s alarm sounded suddenly from Iron Man.

Then two beams of light from Iron Man pointed directly in two directions: Angel Dust, who was frozen by Iceman, and Francis, who was captured by him. None of the people at the scene were fools. After being reminded by J.A.R.V.I.S, they all knew that it should be a remote-controlled bomb inside Francis and Angel Dust. It seemed that the forces behind Francis saw him being taken away and finally made the last move.

“This! ...” Francis, who was still calm, suddenly became desperate when he saw the light from Iron Man pointing at himself. Apparently, he didn’t believe that he had a remote control bomb inside him.

Boom!

The next moment, an explosion occurred on this platform, and numerous small pieces of ice were blown up and scattered. However, there was only one explosion, and Francis, who had been promptly thrown out by Iceman, fell to the ground and did not explode.

“Is this ... was that a faulty bomb?” Looking at Angel Dust, who had now turned into many pieces on the side, and Francis who had just fallen on the ground, Deadpool asked while hiding behind Iron Man.

Deadpool’s words also expressed the doubts of everyone at the scene. Just now J.A.R.V.I.S clearly detected two threat items which were clearly bombs but why is it that only Angel Dust exploded? The most important person, Francis, did not explode. Iceman could not understand this situation. Was it really a faulty bomb?

“Threat removed.” Soon after, JARVIS tested Francis again, sending out a report that left everyone a little confused about what was going on.

“Looks like luck is on our side this time.” Although it wasn’t known why Francis wasn’t killed, it was of course best that he didn’t die. Iceman laughed again and stunned Francis, who was looking equally shocked on the ground.

After being almost killed by a remote bomb, Francis is now really angry at the forces behind him. However, he did not know much about them. Judging by the current situation, he must have known something about the forces behind him and his memory was forcibly erased or the other party wouldn’t have put a bomb inside of him as insurance.

“I am going to go now, otherwise I don’t know what else might happen.” Francis was pushed into the space door that Blink had drawn out again, and Iceman walked in as he spoke.

Shout!

The people present watched the three people in front of them disappearing into the space door one after another, and the spaced door close soon after. Iceman said that they would be back soon, and at this time, Tony’s city-wide search was continuing, but they couldn’t find anything.

Huh ~

“Are you really Wade?” Just as Peter leaned next to Iron Man and whispered something to Tony, Vanessa, who had been hiding just after being rescued, finally summoned up her courage and went to Deadpool and asked seriously.

“Uh ... this, can I say I am not?” In response to her girlfriend’s question, Deadpool replied somewhat awkwardly.

“Then can you open the mask and show me your face? Because I don’t believe that my boyfriend would have really abandoned me, I said this to him before, regardless of life or death, we will face it together!” Staring at Deadpool’s mask, Vanessa said sincerely.

In fact, after hearing Deadpool’s voice, Vanessa had determined that this was Wade Wilson, the lover she thought had died.

Hearing Vanessa’s words, Deadpool was silent and no one knew what he was thinking. Seeing that Deadpool didn’t respond, Vanessa slowly raised her hand and began to lift Deadpool’s mask.

“The face underneath this mask may not be what you think.” Wade suddenly reminded when the mask was partially lifted.

Shout!

Regardless of what Wade said, Vanessa lifted the entire mask off his face. Then, she did see a familiar face in front of her. A photo of Brad Pitt subtracted from the magazine was pasted on Wade’s disfigured face, and Wade’s eye position was deducted.

Shout!

Feeling a bit helpless, Vanessa tore off the photo in front of her again, and Wade’s disfigured face finally appeared in front of Vanessa’s eyes.

“I’m ugly and I look like a monster. Will you still love me?”

Chapter 292 A Clue

Spiderman, Iron Man, and Deadpool and his girlfriend Vanessa are still waiting for Iceman to return. However, what these people did not notice was that there were two more people standing in the corner on the platform and it turned out to be the sorcerers Rick and David.

“David, it seems they didn’t realize it was us.” Silently watching the reactions of the others, Rick said to David beside him. At this point, the two sorcerers and Tony did not seem to be in the same world. They were watching from the Mirror Dimension, otherwise, either J.A.R.V.I.S or Peter would have detected that two people were hidden in such a close position.

“Well, although these people are good. But not much is known about us and not even Iron Man, Tony Stark knows much about us even if we met last time.” David, who was beside him, answered with a nod

“Fortunately, we made it in time or that person would have been killed immediately.” Hearing Rick’s words, it seems that the bomb in Francis’s body wasn’t faulty, but they diffuse it with their magic.

“Well, we must do this, after all, Ancient One had asked us to find Mirage Knight. Although I don’t know why he is looking for this Vigilante but we obviously need to help these people find him first.” Nodded, David agreed.

“Now, we have to just wait here until those two people return, I hope they find something. Otherwise, we will be starting our search from scratch.”

“Mr. Stark, can you really think that Professor X can help us find Mirage Knight?” Because Tony knows Peter’s identity, Peter is closest to Iron Man here. So after Iceman left, he murmured beside Tony.

“Maybe, but ... just now ...” Tony didn’t seem to be paying attention to Peter and instead he was thinking about something.

“What happened just now?” Peter asked curiously looking at Tony.

“It’s nothing, I just think the changes in Francis are strange. He should have exploded with the ice cube.” Tony heard Peter’s words and answered with uncertainty.

“Didn’t the bomb fail? Hasn’t JARVIS scanned it?” Peter was even more puzzled. If the bomb inside Francis hadn’t failed, how would the people behind Francis let him get taken away by Iceman?

“Well, maybe. I’m not sure, it doesn’t matter now anyway.” It seemed that he didn’t want to explain anything more to Peter, and Tony simply said.

In fact, J.A.R.V.I.S not only detected the bomb in Francis’ body, but also detected a mysterious wave afterwards. This fluctuation is what Tony has been studying recently, that is, it belongs to magic. The magic wave just now is obviously the reason why the bomb inside Francis failed. It seems that a sorcerer is also helping Mirage Knight secretly. Tony thought to himself.

Call!

Tony didn’t wait long on this platform. About ten minutes later, a space door appeared again in front of them, and Iceman walked out with Blink and an unconscious Francis.

“How? Are there any clues?” Peter quickly asked when he saw Iceman.

“Hydra!” Iceman looked at Francis, who was unconscious and said coldly.

Under the powerful mental scan of Professor Charles, he finally found the part of secrets erased from Francis’ memory. It turned out that the Forces behind Francis who were conducting experiments on people and turning them into Mutants and controlling their minds is one of Hydra’s branches.

“Hydra!?” Peter shouted, seemingly shocked at the word spoken from Iceman’s mouth.

After the last battle at SHIELD headquarters, there are not many people in the whole world who don’t know about Hydra now. Peter certainly knew how strong this power was, and what evil experiments it had done or was doing.

“It turned out to be Hydra. It seems that this was our mistake.” Just after Peter exclaimed, a familiar sound suddenly came from a distance.

Brush!

Peter turned quickly and looked behind him at the familiar sound. Everyone else looked around weirdly too, except, of course, Tony. Because he already knew who it was.

“Captain America!” When he saw Steve Rogers in the background, Peter let out a cry of excitement.

It turned out that this newcomer was Steve Rogers aka Captain America, who had appeared in the eyes of the public some time ago. Because of SHIELD and the full promotion of the US government, the image of Captain America has already set off an idol wave throughout the United States. It’s not unusual for someone like Peter, who had always admired Captain America, to get excited about seeing the real person. Even Iceman showed some emotion on his face, while Blink around him kept a cool face.

“Hello, Spiderman.” Greeting Spiderman with a smile, Captain Rogers come over where the rest of the people were standing.

Since SHIELD was also involved in the hunt for Mirage Knight, it was only natural that Captain Rogers knew about it. And Rogers was more nervous than anyone else about the kidnapping of Mirage Knight. Because, when he find Bucky, he would require help from Mirage Knight for Bucky to recover his previous memory.

So, after knowing that they might found a clue today, Steve came directly to see if there was anything he could do to help. However, he came over and heard Hydra’s name which means that Mirage Knight was taken by Hydra, which was beyond his expectation.

“Of course this is your mistake! Mirage Knight has already helped you out with the Hydra lurkers inside SHIELD, and now you even let Hydra take him away! If this is not your responsibility and whose is it?” Seeing Rogers smile and say hello, Tony interjected.

Tony had a lot of problems with SHIELD not completely killing Hydra after such a long time. In fact, this cannot be blamed on SHIELD, Fury really wants to use all of his power to fight against Hydra. But after all, SHIELD doesn’t belong to Fury and many other forces watched it. Politicians, in particular, have limited the implementation of some of SHIELD’s decisions.

Moreover, Fury may not want to destroy Hydra any time soon. Hydra is indeed a threat, but it’s a threat that will make people realize that only SHIELD can protect them. So Fury wants both, he wants to reduce the damage to the SHIELD and to keep Hydra in check for a while.

“Tony, I know you are worried about Mirage Knight and I feel the same way as you. Now that it has been determined that Hydra has taken Mirage Knight, then it’s up to SHIELD to help. We just identified a couple of suspicious Hydra sites around New York the other day, and if we go one by one, we’ll find Mirage Knight.” Captain Rogers was not angry when he heard Tony’s sarcasm, and then said seriously.

“Then what are we waiting for? Didn’t you know that even as we speak here, Mirage Knight’s life can be in danger. A single minute we talk is the one more minute being wasted.” After hearing Captain Rogers’s words, Tony has started the ejector at the foot of his Iron suit and he is already up and running with several Iron Men Armors.

SHIELD will, of course, send those Hydra-possible locations to Tony and he is not planning to wait for SHIELD.

“Let’s go. There are three suspicious locations. Mirage Knight must be in one of them!” Watching Tony leave quickly, Captain Rogers looked at the others in front of him and said.

“Yes!” Peter agreed excitedly.

Chapter 293 Cannot Escape

Boom!

At Hydra’s secret base in New Jersey, Lin Rui fires off the Fire God Artillery once again, clearing an army of soldiers in front of him. Because of the heavy use, the Fire God Artillery barrel was already boiling hot, and not enough cooling would have greatly reduced the weapon’s life. However, in such a dangerous situation, Lin Rui didn’t give a flying fuck about the weapon’s life expectancy.

“Damn it! How big is this base! I’ve been running for so long and I haven’t found a way out.” While putting the Fire God Artillery on his shoulder, Lin Rui fled quickly.

When Lin Rui started to flee, due to the role of Titan II serum, Lin Rui kept relying on his speed to leave the Alpha team far behind. However, these normal soldiers are also very annoying. Although they cannot stop Lin Rui, they can cause some trouble for him and let the Alpha team catch up.

Therefore, in the end, Lin Rui had to change his direction and no longer rushed towards the position of the Thunder Blade, because his intentions were too obvious, and the defense in that direction would be much stronger than the other directions. Lin Rui is not a fool. Since he can’t do anything, he won’t breakthrough. However, he has changed directions several times, but he has been unable to find an exit. This base is like a maze.

“The effects of Titan 2 serum are completely gone, and I have already injected the Recovery Serum. How long can I last?” Lin Rui’s eyes were getting dim as he again looked at the intersection in front of him.

While talking to himself, Lin Rui looks again at Tom, whom he had been carrying all this time. If Lin Rui is willing to give up on Tom, his chances of escaping alone are obviously much better. However, Lin Rui won’t do that. He had sworn to take Tom back and he will.

Brush!

After crossing the intersection in front of him, Lin Rui didn’t encounter any interception, which was very abnormal. But at this time, Lin Rui would not think too much about that, as long as there was a way ahead, he kept rushing forward, he did not believe that he could not find the exit.

Shout!

Finally, after rushing out another aisle, Lin Rui came to a place similar to the underground square. There is a lot of space here and it is a circular space and there are many large instruments with unknown functions in the middle of the square that were still buzzing. However, he did not see any staff or the like. In addition to the aisle that Lin Rui just rushed out of, there are many passages around this square leading to it. This square is like a hub.

“No!” After seeing those passages, Lin Rui’s eyes flashed as he thought of something, and after a moment, he turned back and rushed towards the aisle that he had just come out of.

Boom!

However, Lin Rui had just turned around, and a thick metal door suddenly dropped over the aisle behind him, completely blocking his path.

Huh!

Then, in addition to the blocked passage behind Lin Rui, a few soldiers rushed out of the other passages in this square. In the end, the Alpha team also came out of the aisle directly opposite Lin Rui's exit. This time, Lin Rui really couldn't escape.

Lin Rui turned around and saw many weapons pointing at him. He clutched the Fire God Artillery in his hand and he was ready to fire it at any time.

Pa pa pa pa pa pa pa

Just as Lin Rui calmly looked at the enemies surrounding him and a light curtain suddenly appeared in the center of the square. Then, the sound of clapping came from the center of the square. Lin Rui saw the uniform man who was clapping his palms on the light curtain. It was General Reese, who had never shown his face before to Lin Rui, the top person in charge of this base.

"Very good! Very good indeed!" On the light curtain, General Reese clapped his hands and laughed and praised. However, he couldn't hide the cold light in his eyes.

"Jackson Lin, right? A boy from Queens, New York, can you tell me how you got such great power? Also, what is the technology of that special armor on your body, and where did that high-energy weapon in your hand come from?" Lin Rui had been completely trapped, and General Reese now had time to figure out what he wanted to know.

The things he knows about Lin Rui are from Jeffery and it is the information collected by SHIELD, but SHIELD also doesn't know that Jackson Lin is actually Mirage Knight. Therefore, General Reese and General Manager Jeffery are very curious about how such a "Normal" young man such as Jackson Lin has such powerful strength and equipment. If they can get Lin Rui's secrets about his powers and equipment, Hydra will rise in strength.

Lin Rui winced when he heard the stranger on the light curtain shout out his name. Sure enough, after showing his face, Hydra had come to know who he is! Well, now Lin Rui has another reason to completely wipe Hydra from this world. Lin Rui will never allow Hydra to threaten his family because of his identity. Hydra must be completely destroyed!

Lifting his head, Lin Rui's mask automatically disappeared from his face, "Do you want to know where my powers and equipment came from?" Staring at the huge light curtain, Lin Rui asked.

Even though he had fallen into a situation that will certainly cause his death, Lin Rui has not given up. Because he still has the system. Because of the incident between Venom and Green Goblin last time, Lin Rui had received a lot of Reward points. He also hadn't had the time to sacrifice these points to the system's resurrection. If he is really forced to the last step, Lin Rui would not hesitate to exchange something from the System Shop that will destroy this base and kill everyone in it, if he had to do this to protect his secrets and his family then he would do it.

“Will you tell us?” General Reese on the light curtain asked with a little surprise as he did not expect Lin Rui to say that.

“Of course..... not!”

Shout!

Boom!

His response time was deliberately prolonged. At the same time when the last word came out, Lin Rui had instantly raised the Fire God Artillery and blasted it forward. For a moment, a dazzling light erupted in the square. Then, Lin Rui blasted out a blackened gap in front of him. Because the light curtain was in front of Lin Rui, Fire God Artillery’s blow also dissipated the light curtain.

“Catch him!” After the light curtain was recovered again, General Reese issued a desperate command.

Since Lin Rui was unwilling to surrender, they had to catch him alive. Anyway, they have many ways to get people to talk. In this regard, Hydra is very experienced, but it is a pity that such a talent would be gone from the world. Lin Rui’s performance so far has finally made someone like General Reese also think of recruiting him.

Shout!

The ordered soldiers and the Alpha team did not hesitate and rushed towards Lin Rui. In such an inaccessible place, Lin Rui could not even escape even if he had another dose of the Titan II serum.

“Let’s see if you can really catch me.”

Bang!

Chapter 294 Iron Man Army Arrives

Brush!

Rumble!

Half an hour later, the originally sturdy underground plaza at the center of Hydra Base is now riddled with holes, numerous holes have been created all over the square, and many soldiers have died.

Brush!

Avoiding a force field gun attack again, Lin Rui was shocked by the shock wave. After a few flips in the mid-flight, he fell to the ground, and at this point, Lin Rui was no longer able to persist.

Although the special force field on the Alpha team members does not exist all the time, Lin Rui has a hard time finding the right moment when the force field disappears. So far in the battle, Lin Rui has only been able to defeat two members of the Alpha Squad, but the Phantom Suit’s defenses are on the verge of being completely blown apart.

Brush!

"I really can't keep this up! Do I really have to do that, do I really have to kill everything here including myself? If the system was still there, maybe it can help me!" Once again dodging a barrage of bullets, Lin Rui feels the exhaustion.

As for Tom, he has already been put down by Lin Rui. Under such circumstances, taking Tom is a huge risk as he can only be used as a shield, it is better to put him down. Fortunately, General Reese didn't plan to threaten Lin Rui with Tom, he only wanted to capture Lin Rui.

Boom!

In a moment of distraction, Lin Rui was hit by the Field Force weapon for the first time. Suddenly, a light blue weird light quickly wrapped Lin Rui in.

"Not good!" Lin Rui had already reacted when he felt the irresistible power that was wrapping around him and he tried to break away.

Om!

However, the closure of the force field was an instantaneous thing and before Lin Rui could even move, he had already been caught and was floating in midair!

Huh!

In the next moment, Lin Rui was under the control of that special force field and the Alpha team was already surrounding him and those other soldiers were also circling around him.

"Huh! I finally caught you!" General Reese, who had been hiding also saw that Lin Rui was caught and he was suspended in midair, he finally released a sigh of relief. This guy created a lot of chaos in the base. Not only he killed many soldiers, but he also killed two members of the Alpha Squad.

"You were finally caught!" Jeffery also sighed, if Lin Rui created any more trouble, he would not be able to run from the responsibility.

"The next step is simple. Take off his equipment, we will use the 12th tranquilizer to give him a good night's sleep, and then we will figure out exactly where these things come from. Nanotechnology is fine. The key is the technology that looks a lot like space folding technology, we must obtain it! "Seeing that the Alpha team had already begun to "Securing" Lin Rui, General Reese began to imagine the benefits that he would get out of Lin Rui in the future.

"That's right! After we figure out all this mystery about him, we're going to brainwash him into becoming our soldier. With the strength he had just shown, if the brainwashing is successful, he would be worth more than twenty Winter Soldiers!" Jeffery chimed in.

"Jeffery, I caught him. So at the end of the day, I'll have this guy first." Hearing Jeffery's words, General Reese glances at him and said. Jeffery had been responsible for the Winter Soldier's experiments, but with people like Lin Rui, General Reese won't let them out of his sight.

"Of course!" Chief Jeffery replied sensibly.

The two Hydra executives then watched as the Alpha Squad on the monitor slowly "Securing" of Lin Rui. In the end, Lin Rui wasn't able to break free and was completely controlled.

“Don’t force me to do this!” Lin Rui thought silently as the members of the Alpha team outside the force field approached him with a special metal lock.

At this point, Lin Rui has parted his consciousness into the System Shop in his mind. In a split second, Lin Rui could redeem the Micro-Nuclear Weapon, and by then it would really be all done.

Call!

Wrapped in the same force field, two members of the Alpha team stretched their hands toward Lin Rui, and the special metal lock was immediately retracted onto Lin Rui’s limbs.

Dī Dī Di!

“General! Many unidentified aircraft are approaching our location at high speed! Yes! ... It is Iron Man! Many Iron Man!!” Reese and Jeffery are staring at the Alpha squad securing Lin Rui on the monitor when the man behind him, who is in charge of monitoring the outside of the base, alerts them in a loud voice.

“What?” Hearing this report, Reese didn’t care about Lin Rui who had been tied up, and quickly turned and rushed towards the back console.

Dī Dī Dī Dī!

At this time, the huge console is full of red dots indicating the threat, and what those red dots are on the side of the display has also been photographed, which is a rapid rush of Iron Man Army! At a glance, there are about a hundred Iron Man Armors! To save Lin Rui, Tony released all his stock this time!

“Damn it! How did they find us! Activate the most advanced defense and fully open up the weapon system! We’ll have a good fight with these Iron Men today!” Seeing more than a hundred Iron Man rushing towards his base, Reese’s face became depressed, after suppressing the doubts in his heart, he quickly issued an order.

More than a hundred high-tech Iron Man, even if this base has a lot of advanced weapons, they can’t stand it. However, if Tony doesn’t know them well, he may suffer a loss at the beginning.

“Start the strategic transfer, first transfer all of our experimental data. Destroy all that cannot be transferred, and let those scientific personnel retreat and escort them away with soldiers!” After issuing defense and attack orders, General Reese issued a strategic transfer again.

Now that this base is exposed, whether or not they can withstand the attack of the Iron Man army or not, they will eventually have to run. So, he is preparing from the start.

“Leave two members of the Alpha team with Jackson Lin and the rest of the members with soldiers will stop Iron Man. Today I will let Tony Stark know that he is not invincible just because he has the Iron Man Armor. There are many things that can easily kill him even with his armor!” The extremely fast Iron Man team was about to reach the base’s attack range, and General Reese gave a cold command order to attack.

Dī Dī Di!

“The Iron Man had entered the attack range, start attacking!” A few seconds later, when the Iron Man team rushed to the front of the ancient castle and there were only a thousand meters left between the, a man sitting on the control panel gave a low sigh. He pressed down on the screen in front of him.

Bang Bang!

With the full defensive launch of the Hydra base, countless heavy guns burst out of the castle walls. The high-tech weapon’s muzzle was aligned with the direction that Iron Man was flying. In the next moment, dozens of light blue beams shot out of the weapon and reached Iron Man’s team within a few hundred meters.

Boom boom!

Chapter 295 Vitality

Bang Bang!

“Encountered an intensive high-energy weapon strike, Five Iron Man were destroyed.” With a hundred Iron Man rushing towards the Hydra Castle, a report from JARVIS came to Tony’s helmet. Five Iron Man were destroyed in the initial combat.

“Sure enough, this is their base!” After JARVIS did the firing path calculation, the remaining Iron Man began to evade the attacks, and Tony, who was at the center, whispered coldly.

Two of the three suspicious locations provided by SHIELD were quickly swept by Tony. This is the last one. Tony rushed forward with the last hope, but General Reese didn’t know that Tony hadn’t determined that this was Hydra’s base, but the attack on Tony has confirmed in advance.

“JARVIS, inform SHIELD, they should do a little bit more work and pay attention to Spiderman, don’t let him get hurt. Now, let’s give them some payback!” JARVIS was ordered to pounce on the castle.

The five Iron Man that were damaged were not taken into consideration at this time, of course, the rescue of Lin Rui was the first priority at this time. In addition to Tony’s Iron Man army and SHIELD’s troops, Spiderman also came over because he was worried about Lin Rui and now he was in the middle of a hundred Iron Man.

“Yes, sir.” JARVIS agreed and used powerful computing power to control all the Iron Man Armor other than Tony’s and began to attack the castle below.

Huh!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Before and after rushing close to the castle, hundreds of Iron Men moved around the castle at high speed and flexibly, firing laser and missile attacks from time to time. And the castle is also constantly sending out powerful attacks, however, this time the castle attacks did not have the element of surprise. With so many Iron Man, many of the exposed weapons were destroyed one by one.

“J.A.R.V.I.S. Can you scan for the entrance? We have to rush in!” Tony, who flew around the castle quickly, didn’t find the entrance and asked J.A.R.V.I.S.

“Three hundred meters below the right, you can enter the castle from behind the muzzle.” Soon, J.A.R.V.I.S scanned an entrance into the castle.

“Ohh? Let’s Go!” The location of the entrance was also instantly shown in his helmet, and Tony rushed over with a glance.

At the same time, J.A.R.V.I.S also controlled the other Iron Man looking for an entrance into the castle.

Hum!

Boom!

However, just as Tony rushed down the entrance, a translucent light beam suddenly launched from the inside of the castle, directly hitting Iron Man who was rushing down.

Huh!

“J.A.R.V.I.S! What’s going on?” Tony got hit by a huge impact and shouted loudly at J.A.R.V.I.S.

“You were attacked by a directed weapon, it appears to be some kind of shock-wave weapon. However, the recent upgrades of the Iron Man Armor just strengthen this defense, so the airframe is not badly damaged.” JARVIS was quick to respond to Tony’s yell.

Faced with so many Iron Man attacks, this Hydra base finally revealed its fangs and took out weapons far beyond ordinary technology. However, I don’t know if they are too unlucky. Because of two losses in magic attacks, Tony concentrated on research and upgraded the Iron Man Armor to have anti-concussion defense. Because J.A.R.V.I.S analyzed the magical attacks and found out that the magic attacks seemed to have some special ability to create a shock. Although he doesn’t know if this upgrade can mount a real defense against a real magic attack, this time upgrade of Iron Man Armor just prevented Hydra’s shock wave weapon from doing any damage, which is also Tony’s luck.

“That’s really lucky!” Tony also felt lucky after hearing J.A.R.V.I.S.’s report.

The defense that was upgraded not long ago was used today against Hydra. It can be foreseen that if he did not upgrade this defense, that attack would be enough to break the defense of the Iron Man Armor.

“Now that we can defend against that, let’s punch our way in!” Knowing that the weird Shockwave weapon didn’t threaten the Iron Man Armor much, Tony moved and hurled down towards the entrance.

Brush!

Going back in time for one minute, inside Hydra’s castle base. Lin Rui had been caught by the Alpha team and his limbs and neck were locked with special metal locks. And for the sake of insurance, the force field surrounding him has not been removed, so he was trapped inside, and could not move.

However, just when Lin Rui was planning to exchange the miniature nuclear weapon from the system shop, he suddenly noticed that the situation outside seemed to have changed. First of all, the soldiers around him suddenly rushed out of each tunnel. The Alpha team with him was also divided into two parts, two people continued to guard him and the other lead those soldiers and disappear into the tunnel.

Then, with the two Alpha team members, he was led with the remaining soldier towards the other tunnel quickly. Lin Rui's eyes flashed as he saw this series of actions. He didn't think it was normal. Therefore, Lin Rui did not rush to exchange for the Micro Nuclear Bomb but was ready to see how the situation develops.

So, when Lin Rui saw some non-combatants walking in an orderly direction in front of the tunnel that the Alpha team was taking, he finally guessed what is happening.

"Did someone come to save me? Or is it SHIELD, did they finally found this Hydra base?" Lin Rui's brain quickly flashed with various scenarios.

However, it was Quicksilver and Scarlet Witch that attacked Lin Rui. SHIELD didn't have any information on these two at all. SHIELD may not be able to detect that his kidnapping was Hydra's doing. Therefore, if SHIELD comes to attack Hydra, they may not be able to save Lin Rui. But no matter what, this base is obviously facing a great threat, otherwise, those non-combat researchers will not be escorted out so quickly.

Rumble!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Just as Lin Rui guessed what was happening at this Hydra base, there was a sudden explosion of vibration and noise outside.

"Someone is really attacking this base! I may have a chance to escape! However, I am now controlled by this weird force field, and I can't even send out a signal! If the party fighting Hydra attacked indifferently, I might get killed by accident!" Lin Rui, who heard the explosion was grateful that he might be saved but he was also worried that he might be accidentally killed in the battle.

Buzz!

Just as Lin Rui was quickly retreated by the two Alpha Team members, a light flashed in his mind's system shop, which was the location of the resurrection altar. After three consecutive flashes of light, the resurrection altar fell silent again. Then, the system shop, which would have been hidden automatically without being called, suddenly appeared in Lin Rui's mind.

"Ehh? What's going on?" Lin Rui was a little confused when he saw the System Shop that suddenly appeared in his mind.

However, he soon discovered the reason. An item is shining in this self-emphasized System Shop.

"This is it! ... Universal Force Field Regulator!" Lin Rui was suddenly excited when he saw the introduction of the glowing item. Taking a quick look at the role of this item, Lin Rui is even more excited.

"System, are you helping me?!" After confirming that this item can help him get out of the current predicament, Lin Rui watched the resurrection altar and whispered. However, the resurrection altar was as bleak as before, with no trace of response.

“Spend 2,000 Reward Points to exchange for Universal Force Field Regulator, Confirm!”

Chapter 296 Withdraw

Shout!

A small black box suddenly appeared in Lin Rui’s hand who was being controlled by a special force field, which is the Force Field Regulator he redeemed from the System Shop. This stuff is supposed to be used as a stabilizing tool for the Interstellar voyages in different force fields, but it can also get Lin Rui out of his current situation.

“Eh?” Although they were retreating, the two members of the Alpha Squads with Lin Rui have been following him. After seeing a box suddenly appearing in Lin Rui’s hand, one of the team members felt a danger.

However, just when the team member reached out to take away the box from Lin Rui’s hand, the controlled Lin Rui suddenly showed a weird smile.

“Disappear!” Under the force field’s control, Lin Rui presses the box with all his might. At this point, he can only do so little.

Hum! ~~

Then, a wave similar to the force field that controlled Lin Rui quickly passed from the box in his hand. This wave quickly swept through the ten-meter range centered on Lin Rui and instantly eliminated Hydra’s weird force field on his body. The next second, Lin Rui felt the gravity of the earth again, and his body recovered.

Call!

Landing lightly on the ground, Lin Rui looked coldly at the two members of the Alpha Team who were still surprised.

“Now, what else can you do to deal with me?!” Lin Rui said as he looked at them.

Card!

The force field suddenly failed and the two Alpha team members were only slightly surprised. Then they raised their arms and aimed their weapons at Lin Rui.

“Huh!” Lin Rui snorted and rushed forward. Without the threat of the force field weapon, Lin Rui is more powerful than these two members of the Alpha team.

Brush!

Pū!

However, Lin Rui had fallen to the ground before he could even rush out. The control of the force field was indeed released by him, but the special metal locks that had previously locked his limbs had not been broken. Lin Rui, who came out of the force field seems to have forgotten about this situation. When he rushed forward, he fell to the ground.

“Fuck!” Lin Rui had already reacted when he fell down and used his internal energy to get rid of those locks, but he couldn’t even get rid of them. Therefore, he could only curse and lie on the ground.

Brush!

The two Alpha team members were about to shoot saw this scene and paused as they saw Lin Rui dropping to the ground. Then one of them continued to hold a gun at Lin Rui, and the other went to Lin Rui and lifted him up.

“Don’t be arrogant!” Raised from the ground, Lin Rui used a tough attitude to hide his embarrassment. And, just before the fall, Lin Rui had hidden the Universal Force Field Regulator in the hidden pocket of the Phantom Suit.

Faced with Lin Rui’s useless struggles, the members of the Alpha squad holding him searched him blankly. Of course, he couldn’t find anything. After carefully searching Lin Rui’s cloths, he still could not find that strange black box. Both members of the Alpha team were a little surprised. Because the force field weapon in their hands is still in an unusable state, it means that it must be the role played by what Lin Rui had just taken out, but they could not find it.

In the end, they gave up and could only retreat with Lin Rui quickly. However, because they could no longer control Lin Rui, he always advances uncooperatively, so the retreat was slower.

“No matter who is fighting Hydra, you have to hurry up! Hydra is retreating. It doesn’t matter what you do, the key point is that I need to get rescued!” Lin Rui thought silently while dragging his feet on the ground.

Brush!

“J.A.R.V.I.S! Can you scan the detailed structure of this base?” Tony, who had rushed into the base in the opposite direction of Lin Rui’s retreat, asked J.A.R.V.I.S while quickly avoiding the attack of the soldiers.

“Sir, there are many shielded locations in this base. However, the general route and structure can still be scanned.” J.A.R.V.I.S. replied and has already shown the rough topographic map of this Hydra base in Tony’s helmet.

Pū Pū Pū!

“Okay! Now let the Iron Man rushing into the base look for Mirage Knight!” Sweeping away a soldier team in front of him, Tony ordered again.

“Yes, sir.”

Huh!

After giving the order to find Lin Rui, the ejector at the foot of Iron Man driven by Tony also suddenly increased its power and he rushed into a passage.

When Tony led the Iron Man army to attack the castle base of Hydra in all directions, General Reese and Chief Jeffery, who had been hiding in the command base deep in the base, were not very happy. Because, except for the initial sneak attack, the subsequent crossfire done by Hydra was completely suppressed by Iron Man. Even the Shockwave weapon, which has never been used outside before, has been blocked by Iron Man, which has also left Hydra without their most powerful weapon against Iron Man.

“Let’s withdraw, we can’t defend this base anymore.” Jeffery was watching General Reese with his fists clenched and softly reminded him.

At this point, eight Iron Man Armor had rushed into the base on the monitor display in front of them, and are now killing their men. Except for the Alpha team, other teams met these Iron Mans and they weren’t even able to slow them down. But the Alpha team is not something that General Reese can lose at will. He would only use them at the most critical moments.

Dī Dī Dī Dī!

Just as General Reese was still staring at the display, a harsh siren sounded from behind them again.

“This! ... General, many aircraft are coming towards us!” General Reese has not looked back, and the men behind him have already reported nervously.

“Who is it!?”

“Yes! ... it’s SHIELD!” When the aircraft rushed over, the man finally saw which side it was. It was Hydra’s deadly opponent: SHIELD!

After receiving Tony’s news, SHIELD directly sent many Quinjets to rush over with their most elite troops.

“SHIELD! ... Retreat! Start the preparation for base evacuation! Activate the base’s self-destruct system!” The arrival of SHIELD completely multiplied the fear in General Reese’s heart, and he quickly issued an order to retreat and self-destruct the base.

“Yes!”

“Let’s go! We will have our revenge later!” The base is destined to be breached, and General Reese turned directly and walked towards the exit, and he was also withdrawing.

As for Jeffery, of course, he was behind General Reese. As Hydra’s senior members, they had a secret retreat passage.

Chapter 297 Do You Need Help?

Pū!

Lin Rui deliberately prolonged the turn and was kicked severely in the back again. His body was hurt and he could only continue to move forward slowly. However, the tunnel had come to an end and Hydra’s secret retreat was ahead.

If no one else finds him, Lin Rui will really be taken away by Hydra to their next base. In that case, Lin Rui's chance of being saved would be gone.

Buzz!

Lin Rui has been pushed to the front of the platform under the constant push of the people behind him. In front of his is a very hidden runway, a runway that goes straight into the deep forest. Now, the non-combatants who need to retreat from this base have all taken on a special style armored vehicle. In front of Lin Rui, a car rushed into the vast forest ahead after being filled with people.

Led by the two Alpha team members, Lin Rui got preferential treatment for the cut-in line. An armored vehicle in front of him was waiting for them.

"Don't force me!" Lin Rui approached the armored vehicle step by step, Lin Rui looked behind him from time to time. But no one had come to save him.

"Go up!" After Lin Rui walked to the armored car, the member of the Alpha squad who had been talking to Lin Rui in the back said the first words so far.

"If only my hands weren't tied up! Otherwise ..." Glancing at the man, Lin Rui thought fiercely in his heart.

Lin Rui could, of course, choose to end everything here by buying that Mini Nuclear Bomb from the system shop, but this Hydra base is obviously being attacked, and Lin Rui still has some hope of getting rescued in his heart. Another reason for him not acting is because this base has been discovered and it would be too wasteful to attack now as half of his enemies had escaped and his allies may die with his bomb.

So, even if Lin Rui had to end it in the end, he would take another shot when he reached the next base. Another reason is that Lin Rui is still paying attention to the System Shop in his mind, maybe the system will try again to help himself out of his current predicament.

Call!

Seeing the gun in the hands of the Alpha Squad member beside him, Lin Rui knew that he could not be delayed any longer, so he slowly began to raise his feet to the stairs behind the armored car.

Boom!

The next moment, Lin Rui was kicked by the man behind him. Lin Rui's face grew colder as she nearly hit the floor of the car.

After Lin Rui went up, the two members of the Alpha team also rushed up. Then, the steps below the carriage have begun to retract and the doors above are falling rapidly. The car also started to shake slightly, and the engine had started.

Call!

Finally, the armored vehicle carrying Lin Rui began to drive towards the forest ahead. And the rescue that Lin Rui had been expecting did not arrive, Lin Rui sitting in the car could only watch as the door closed.

Card ~

However, Lin Rui did not see an Iron Man rushing out of the secret passage.

...

“Sir, Mirage Knight has been found.” J.A.R.V.I.S suddenly reminded Tony while he was entangled by a team led by Alpha team members.

“What? Where?!” Tony quickly asked when J.A.R.V.I.S said that Lin Rui had been found.

Call!

Soon JARVIS showed Tony what he had just seen on the Iron Man scan of Lin Rui.

“It’s really him! JARVIS, stop that car! By any means!” After seeing Lin Rui locked up in the car and taken away, Tony gives orders to JARVIS in a hurry.

“Yes, Sir, the car has been intercepted.” JARVIS certainly doesn’t wait for Tony to give the order to go into action.

“Okay! Then, I shouldn’t be dragged by them here!” Trusting J.A.R.V.I.S to do as he ordered, Tony is going to settle the enemy in front of him now.

“J.A.R.V.I.S, pull all energy towards the Chest Cannon.”

Boom!

A dazzling white light burst out of the base of the castle base where fighting was taking place everywhere, and the white light shot straight into the sky for three full seconds before disappearing.

“Tony has made his move! We have to hurry up, we must catch the people in this base! I have a hunch that there would be some hidden high-level members of Hydra here, maybe their status would be not lower than Alexander Pierce! “Looking at the large laser beam disappearing in the sky, Director Fury standing on a Quinjet gave a serious order.

“Yes, Sir!” After hearing Director Fury’s words, several Advanced agents behind him seriously agreed. Then, orders have been issued.

“Where is Captain Rogers?” Fury asked without looking back as he watched the battle below.

Since the last time Captain Rogers learned that Fury has been hiding information of Bucky Barnes from him, their relationship has not been very good. In this operation against Hydra, Captain Rogers is actually acting as an independent third party, Fury does not know where he is now.

“Uh ... Captain Rogers? He’s in now.” Apparently aware of the conflict between Captain Rogers and Director Fury, after taking a few glances at each other, an Advanced agent answered.

“Yes, I see. Let the teams speed up their attack and split a team to cooperate with Captain Rogers.” With a silent nod, Fury says faintly.

Shout!

Sitting in the back of the armored car, Lin Rui lowered his head and no one knew what he was thinking about. Maybe he was thinking about something he had done before, or maybe he was thinking about what he would have done. None of this seems important in this case as he is still a prisoner, a captive that is locked up.

Boom!

Rumble!

However, just as the armored vehicle rushed towards the depths of the forest, two missiles suddenly shot from behind and finally exploded on the ground directly in front of the armored vehicle. The powerful missile directly collapsed the entire road, and the armored vehicle that had not had time to slow down planted itself onto that collapsed road directly!

Boom! Bang ~

The armored vehicle rolled a few times on the ground and then tipped over the side of the road at a weird angle.

Brush!

An Iron Man then chased the car from behind and floated alongside the overturned vehicle. Two beams of light from the chest scanned the inside of the car, and the next second the Iron Man had raised his hand and fired a laser at the car.

Buzz ~

Bang!

A few seconds later, the door of the entire rear compartment fell directly under the laser cutting, and all the inside conditions were displayed in front of the Iron Man.

"Hello, Mr. Mirage Knight, do you need help?" Looking at the surprised Lin Rui, J.A.R.V.I.S's voice came from this Iron Man Armor.

Chapter 298 Sincerity

"J.A.R.V.I.S! Is Tony here to rescue me?!" Lin Rui shouted in surprise as he watched the Iron Man Armor floating in front of him.

If JARVIS came to rescue him then there is a good chance that Iron Man must be attacking this Hydra base, and they must have the upper hand now.

"Yes, Mirage Knight."

"Take care of them first." After calming down a bit, Lin Rui pointed at the crooked Hydra members in the car.

"Happy to help."

Pū Pū Pū!

After hearing Lin Rui's orders, J.A.R.V.I.S fired a few lasers directly to destroy the two Alpha team members who were going to fight back. Then all the remaining Hydra members were resolved, and only Lin Rui was left in the compartment.

Looking at the Hydra members who were dead beside him, Lin Rui was silent. Although he had only been caught by Hydra for only half a day, he had been through several life and death crises. Now that the crisis is finally resolved, Lin Rui is finally relieved.

As for the two Alpha team members who "bullied" Lin Rui all the way, Lin Rui didn't even look at them.

Shout!

"J.A.R.V.I.S, can you get these things off?" Climbing out of the overturned car, Lin Rui lifted the special lock on his hand and asked J.A.R.V.I.S.

Brush!

Hearing Lin Rui's words, J.A.R.V.I.S controlled Iron Man Armor to land in front of Lin Rui, and then a detection light scanned the locks.

"The scan shows that this is an item made of some Adamantium alloy. I can't help you at the moment, Mr. Mirage Knight." JARVIS soon told Lin the scan results.

However, this result surprised Lin Rui very much. He did not expect that Hydra would directly take out Adamantium metal Handcuffs, which is said to be the hardest metal in the world to control him. However, when he heard JARVIS's words, he finally figured out that there are only some Adamantium in these handcuffs, and there is still a way to get rid of them. So Lin Rui isn't particularly worried, it's just a bit of a problem now.

"That's it. J.A.R.V.I.S, is Mr. Stark fighting against Hydra? How did you find this place?" Now that he is safe, Lin Rui is thinking about how Tony found him.

"After you disappeared, we ..." Then, JARVIS slowly talked about all the forces in New York who sought him after he had disappeared.

"... Now Tony has rushed here, this Hydra base is about to be breached." Finally, as if receiving some information, Iron Man's eyes in front of Lin Rui brightened as it spoke.

"Really? It seems that something good came out of my kidnapping!" Lin Rui muttered softly when he heard J.A.R.V.I.S.

Because Lin Rui was kidnapped, Tony and SHIELD found this secret base, and now they are destroying the base. Lin Rui can see that the completion of the Mainline Quest in his mind is slowly rising. This time the Kidnapping of Mirage Knight is a failed action for Hydra.

"Did you say something Mirage Knight?"

"Uh ... nothing." He whispered in a low voice when he was heard by J.A.R.V.I.S. and waved his hand awkwardly.

Woohoo!

Just as Lin Rui and J.A.R.V.I.S talked, two of the Hydra retreating armored vehicles rushed over from behind. It seemed that they finally knew what was going on. The two armored vehicles opened their weapon systems and aimed them at the Iron Man and Lin Rui.

“J.A.R.V.I.S, can you deal with them?” Lin Rui asked a little worriedly as he looked at the two heavily armed armored vehicles rushing forward.

If it was just two ordinary armored vehicles, Lin Rui, of course, wouldn't worry, but these are armored vehicle loaded with Hydra's most advanced weapons. Among them are many advanced technological weapons that even surprised Lin Rui. Therefore, he does have some concerns about whether an Iron Man can solve these two cars and protect him at the same time.

“Don't worry, Mirage Knight, our support has arrived.” JARVIS saw that Lin Rui was a little worried and answered calmly.

“Eh? Support is here?!” After hearing JARVIS's answer, Lin Rui opened his eyes and looked back.

Brush! Swipe!

Just as Lin Rui looked back, an Iron Man rushed over from behind the two armored vehicles. It turned out that the two Hydra armored vehicles did not come here to attack Lin Rui, but they were getting chased by Tony's Iron Man!

“You're a real troublemaker! What am I going to do with you this time, if not for the help of a number of people who were looking for you, do you think that you would be found?” When Lin Rui was excited at the sight of the Iron Man, Tony's voice suddenly came from the Iron Man standing beside him.

“Ah ... Mr. Stark, are you in those Iron Man?” Intently ignoring Tony's bad voice, Lin Rui asked loudly.

“Hmm! Rest here, I'll take care of these!”

“Ahem ~ Okay.” Lin Rui only agreed to laugh twice.

Rumble!

One minute later, five Iron Man who had resolved the two Hydra's retreated armored vehicles had landed in front of Lin Rui.

Card!

Then one of the Iron Man suddenly opened, and Tony stepped out of it. Taking a few steps towards Lin Rui and looking at his locked limbs, Tony frowned. He already knew from J.A.R.V.I.S that the locks on Lin Rui were the alloy handcuffs made from Adamantium metal.

“What? No mask this time?” Finally, Tony stared at Lin Rui after watching him for a while before he said angrily.

“Ah? I ...!” Lin Rui froze at Tony's words. Then he realized that he was not wearing a mask! He was wearing a Phantom Suit but without a mask on his face, this is the first time Lin Rui has revealed his face to Tony.

“Haha ~ Didn’t Mr. Stark already know?” There was no time to hide it, Lin Rui could only watch Tony calmly and laughed twice.

“Huh! If I didn’t know that it was you, do you think that I would have spent so much efforts to save you? This time, I lost thirteen newest Iron Man Armors!” Seeing Lin Rui’s laughing, Tony said blankly.

“Thirteen units were lost! You don’t want me to pay, do you?” Lin Rui muttered softly when he heard Tony’s words.

“Can you afford to pay for it?” Although he has already guessed that Mirage Knight is Lin Rui, Tony still feels very uncomfortable seeing Lin Rui wearing the Phantom suit.

“Heh heh! It’s necessary for me to say it.” Hearing the discontent in Tony’s words, Lin Rui explained in a low voice.

“You ...” Just when Tony was about to say something, there was a sudden sound from behind him, someone seemed to be coming towards them.

Chapter 299 Departure

Lin Rui and Tony both heard the sounds coming from behind them. Lin Rui just looked up at Tony. Tony had also come from behind so he should know what was going on there.

“Sir, Captain Rogers is bringing some people over,” J.A.R.V.I.S had reported the situation immediately.

“We’ll talk about you and this situation later. Now, shouldn’t you put on your mask?” After hearing JARVIS’s report, Tony reminded Lin Rui in front of him. It seems that Tony doesn’t want to let Lin Rui’s identity be exposed in front of Captain Rogers and so many SHIELD agents.

“Yeah.” Lin Rui certainly doesn’t want to expose himself to so many people, so he says yes and then activates the Phantom Suit mask.

Huh ~

In front of Tony’s surprised gaze, a dark mist suddenly spread upward from the neck of Lin Rui’s Phantom Suit, and then quickly formed into a familiar black mask on Lin Rui’s face, blocking Lin Rui’s face.

“Nanotechnology? No, this looks a little different.” Looking at the process of transmuting the Phantom Suit mask from beginning to end, Tony also wonders about the special technology of Lin Rui’s suit.

Of course, Tony has a lot of questions to ask Lin Rui, but this is not the time nor the place. Therefore, when Lin Rui added the mask to his face, Tony adjusted his facial expression a little, at least to show that he was not familiar with Lin Rui.

Brush! Brush! Brush!

After Lin Rui and Tony both made some changes, a SHIELD Special Force Unit rushed out of the back road. Leading the charge was Captain Rogers, the famous Captain America.

Captain Rogers’s pace slowed a bit when he saw Tony standing in front of him and Mirage Knight looking fine. After telling everyone to keep guard, Captain Rogers came over alone.

“Mirage Knight, are you okay?” Steve walked around several Iron Man and asked Lin Rui.

By now Steve hasn't found Bucky Barnes, and Hydra's forces have been eliminated by a lot, but there has been no news of Bucky, which makes Captain Rogers very anxious. After chatting with Mirage Knight last time, he felt that Mirage Knight must have some other information. So, when he heard that Mirage Knight was kidnapped, Captain Rogers did his best to help.

“Thank you for your concern. I'm fine.” Knowing that Rogers was here to help himself, Lin Rui also thanked him sincerely.

“That's good, do you need any help?” Steve nodded after hearing Lin Rui's answer and then asked with a look at Lin Rui's locked limbs.

“This, this is the Adamantium alloy lock, it is not easy to get rid of it.” Knowing what Captain Rogers means, Lin Rui raised his hand and explained it.

“Adamantium? No wonder, well, there is really no way to get rid of it now.” Hearing the name of the Adamantium, Captain Rogers was also a bit surprised and also knew why Tony had not helped Lin Rui uncuff himself.

“Okay, we should go back. I'll leave this Hydra base to you SHIELD guys. I will go back with Mirage Knight.” After watching Steve and Lin Rui, Tony spoke up.

“Letting Mirage Knight going back with you. Wouldn't that be dangerous for you, what if some Hydra assassin attacked you and you didn't have your Armor?” Captain Rogers said suddenly when he heard Tony's words.

Steve, of course, knew that Mirage Knight and Tony had known each other for a long time, and there might have been some shady deals between them. However, Steve also has a lot to ask of Mirage Knight and he also has to ask Mirage Knight about the Hydra issue. Although Rogers is currently not speaking to Fury, the big picture is clear to him and the big picture is clearing out Hydra.

“Why would it be dangerous?” Tony seemed dissatisfied with Steve and asked with a slight frown on his face.

With that said, Tony turned and walked over towards the few Iron Mans, “J.A.R.V.I.S. Let Captain Rogers see our latest upgrade.”

“Yes, sir.” Hearing Tony's orders, J.A.R.V.I.S agreed quietly.

In front of the curious glances of Lin Rui and Captain Rogers, Tony raised his arms. Then, behind them, an Iron Man Armor suddenly sprang into action and shot up into the air.

Brush brush!

The next moment, the Iron Man Armor broke apart behind Tony, breaking the suit into a dozen small parts. But even as the Iron Man Armor broke apart, the widgets flew in an orderly fashion through the air.

Huh!

The broken parts of the Iron Man Armor flew in the air behind Tony and rushed towards him quickly. Then, Tony didn't need to do anything at all. The Iron Man Armor parts were equipped on Tony in an orderly manner. Soon, Tony was standing in his original place with his Iron Man Armor on his body.

"Cool!" Lin Rui shouted when he saw the scene in front of him. Although the technology Tony had used right now was shown in the movies, the shock of seeing the real scene is very strong.

"Now, Captain Rogers, do you still think that it would be dangerous?" Tony equipped the Iron Man Armor in a cool way and asked faintly as he watched Steve.

Steve: "... " Rich people really are the hardest to deal with!

"JARVIS, arm Mirage Knight." Seeing that Captain Rogers isn't saying anything, Tony continued to command JARVIS.

"Yes, sir."

"What about these ... " Hearing Tony's words, Lin Rui raised his hand and motioned for the handcuffs.

"Don't worry about them."

Huh!

Then, another Iron Man Armor broke into parts in front of Lin Rui, and then quickly rushed towards him.

PŪPŪPŪ!

Card!

A few seconds later, Lin Rui was wrapped in an Iron Man Armor. As for the Adamantium Handcuffs, it was put out by the holes specially reserved by J.A.R.V.I.S., which did not affect the performance of the Iron Man Armor at all.

"Hello, Mr. Mirage Knight." After the helmet was put on his head, a screen suddenly lit up in front of Lin Rui and JARVIS's familiar voice came to Lin Rui's ear.

"Hello, JARVIS." After experiencing the upgraded version of Iron Man again, Lin Rui still feeling very excited in his heart. Of course, in the eyes of Captain Rogers and others from outside, this was the first time Mirage Knight drove an Iron Man Armor as Tony who the only one who had ever flown in them. Of course, the limited version Iron Man Tony provided to the military was not counted.

"Well, Mirage Knight and I will go back first. I will leave the finishing work to you. I will leave some Iron Man Armor here to help you." Lin Rui was already armed with an Iron Man Armor and Tony looked at Captain Rogers and said.

Steve: "... "

"JARVIS, let's go!"

Woohoo!

Then, in front of Captain Rogers's eyes, Tony jumped into the sky with Mirage Knight and a few Iron Man. Then they left with a high speed, Steve wanted to ask Mirage Knight about Bucky or Hydra but he could only wait to go back before contacting him.

Chapter 300 Self Destruction

Tony and Mirage Knight are gone and there are still a lot of enemies in Hydra's base behind them and some have escaped from the road ahead that leads nowhere, Captain Rogers is not in a good mood at this time.

"Send out three teams to search in these directions, and report the situation on the road at all times. Others, follow me." Standing in place and observing the way ahead, Steve finally turned around and ordered the SHIELD troops on guard behind him.

Although there is some contradiction between Steve and Fury now, their mindset is the same when it comes to dealing with Hydra.

"Yes!" Hearing the arrangement from Captain Rogers, the team behind answered loudly.

Whistling!

Then, the elite team of SHIELD began to operate in accordance with Steve's orders and Steve rode his own field locomotive and headed back to Hydra's base.

...

Just as Tony left here with Lin Rui and returned to New York, Fury, who had been sitting behind the desk was staring at the battle intently on a display in front of him.

Da Da ~

"Director Fury, the situation is under control. Hydra's team has been eliminated by 80%, and the rest has little resistance. However, Mr. Stark suddenly transferred back to Iron Man and he has left." While Fury was silently looking at the display in front of him, a SHIELD information officer behind him approached him to report.

"I know, don't worry about Stark, the current situation does not need more Iron Man to help. The sweeping work must be done well, and those high-tech weapons must be captured as completely as possible." Hearing the information officer's report, Fury spoke lightly.

"Yes!" Hearing Fury's instructions, the information officer was ready to turn back.

"Tell the soldiers to be careful. This base was very secretive and there are so many high-tech weapons. Maybe there is something hidden behind it." Fury added when the information officer turned around.

"Got it." At a reply, the information officer turned to give the order.

Fury doesn't know, but it was this simple reminder that cost the SHIELD a lot less. Because ...

The remaining Hydra members felt that the interior was now almost completely occupied by SHIELD's fighters. In each passage, heavily armed fighters are searching forward, and from time to time, enemies emerging from the corner are destroyed by them.

Dī Dī Dī Dī!!! ~~

Just as one of the teams deep inside the base turned a corner to a shadowy aisle, the equipment in their team used to detect dangerous items suddenly issued a sharp alert.

Da Da Da Da! ~

According to the instructions of that instrument, the team quickly found the source of the threat: a high-energy bomb embedded in the wall! Moreover, according to the detection of the instrument, the bomb should not be a single piece, but a series. Soon, the entire area was inspected. The high-energy bombs were buried in the bottom floors of the base. Now, these bombs have been activated!

The news was passed out as soon as possible to other people in the base, the team which found the bomb did not leave immediately, but quickly began to conduct reverse research around the bomb to see if it was possible to stop such a self-destruct procedure.

After half a minute, the sweaty hands of the two professionals responsible for demolition dropped the instruments in their hands.

“There is no way to stop the system setting, this base is going to explode in ten minutes!” Although they couldn’t stop the bomb from exploding, they intercepted the time until the last bomb exploded.

“Hurry up!”

Without any hesitation, the team retreated immediately after getting this result. Of course, they also spread this news.

Dī Dī!

Flying in a Quinjet over Hydra base, a platform that served as a command post suddenly emitted a harsh red color, accompanied by a rushing alarm.

“Report! Found the base’s self-destruct system below! Ten minutes before the explosion!” Soon, someone had shouted and explained the situation.

“Retreat! Everyone Retreat! Contact Stark and ask his Iron Man to help us with the retreat!” Hearing this report, Fury, who was sitting calmly in the front, finally has a grim expression on his face and he stood from his seat before giving out the order.

“Retreat! Retreat!”

Huh ~

“Can you estimate the area of the explosion?” Fury asked coldly as he approached the podium.

“From the information sent out by that squad, the bottom of this base has been completely covered with bombs. The expected range of the explosion is ...” After hearing Fury’s question, a technician was quickly working on the display. He posted a base blueprint picture to demonstrate the possible scope of the Hydra base explosion.

Huh ~

Seeing the red range shown on the display, everyone around them was silent. Through the computer calculations, the self-destructing range of the Hydra base is as large as two football fields. This is still the most central explosion, and the scope of the periphery is even greater.

“Director Fury, it’s not safe here anymore.” After the initial shock, the information officer went to Fury to remind him. Although they are flying in midair, no one knows whether there are any special threats in those bombs.

“I know, tell the team below to leave everything and get out of here as fast as possible.” Fury was hoping to capture some of the technology behind Hydra’s secret research, but that looks unlikely now.

Bang!

Da da da!!!

Just as Fury ordered his evacuation, a fierce battle was taking place at the rear of Hydra’s base.

“Captain Rogers! This base is about to explode! We have to evacuate quickly!” Steve blasted the enemy in front of him, and he suddenly heard a reminder from his teammates.

“Yeah! You guys retreat first, I will cover the back!” Captain Rogers shouted, looking at his teammates and seeing that they had started to retreat.

Boom!

After shouting that sentence, Steve got into a fight again. Although this base has begun to self-destruct, the soldiers who left are not afraid of death. They received the final order to desperately kill the person in front of them. So even though Steve wasn’t afraid of these guys, he was still occupied.

Bang! Bang!

Raising his shield to block a row of bullets that were fired at him, Captain Rogers also began to retreat. Although his physical quality is far superior to that of ordinary people, he still had no chance to survive the self-destructive explosion of the base. If he is here when the explosion occurred then he would die here.

Huh!

However, when Steve was about to withdraw, the soldiers went even crazier, and rushed towards him, dragging Steve away.

Bang! Pū Pū Pū!

Captain Rogers can only helplessly fight again with those soldiers who are not afraid of death. At this time, there are very few SHIELD operatives on the battlefield, and no one can come to help Rogers out of this predicament.

Dī Dī Drop ~~

Soon, the clock was ticking down to less than three minutes deep inside Hydra base, and even now Captain Rogers had little chance of getting out of the fight and out of range of the blast center.

When Captain Rogers was trapped by soldiers, far away from the base, deep in the forest, General Reese and Jeffery, who were fleeing in an armored vehicle, looked at the display in front of them, showing that the soldiers were keeping Captain Rogers there.

“Haha! Captain America! Time is running out! Although we lost a base this time, it wouldn’t be too much of a loss if you were buried here!” General Reese laughed as he watched Captain Rogers rushing towards the outside on the display. With that said. For Hydra, the hatred they have for Captain America is very high.

Ten ~ Nine ~ ... Three ~ Two ~ One!

Finally, in accordance with General Reese’s expectations, the self-destructing bomb exploded before Captain Rogers could escape!
