Chapter 301: The End of the Fight

Buzz ~

After the countdown, the high-energy bombs buried deep inside the Hydra base all exploded instantly. The huge explosive power was quickly transmitted from the depths of the ground to the outside, and the surrounding area began to shake. In less than three seconds, the entire castle had begun to collapse.

As for Captain Rogers, he hasn't escaped the most central position of Hydra base yet. However, feeling the shock below his feet, Steve didn't have much fear. Because he is flying right now!

Brush!

In anticipation of the retreating Hydra commander, General Reese, an Iron Man Armor suddenly rushed over Rogers as he was running. Then Steve raised his hand and was pulled up by the Iron Man.

Call!

Pulled up by an Iron Man Armor, Captain Rogers quickly shot out of the center of the blast. He doesn't know if Tony did it on purpose and he was quick to arm himself and Mirage Knight and got out of here, but he still had JARVIS pick him up. Of course, Captain Rogers didn't mind either way.

Rumble!

After JARVIS rescued Captain Rogers, the Hydra base finally sank to the ground in a huge explosion. Even a small earthquake occurred nearby, and a large area of ??forest was altered.

Boom!

After seeing the last scene on the monitor, General Reese, who fled far into the forest, hit the table in front of him as he saw Captain Rogers escape!

"Next time! I'll kill you next time!" General Reese's eyes moved from the screen, which had no picture, and he whispered coldly.

"Now let's get out of here."

Woohoo!

Bang ~

It was as if there had been a sudden earthquake in the depths of the forest, and the violent vibrations had been transmitted far beyond the forest before subsiding.

As for the SHIELD teams, although they have retreated as fast as possible, but there were still some people who did not have time to run out of the castle and they got buried in that castle.

"Director, we lost 132 soldiers, and 53 people were crushed in the rubble, and we are working on the rescue." In Quinjet, the Information Officer dimly reported the result of the attack on the Hydra Base.

"I see." Fury replied with no change in tone after hearing the result.

If this is what they must pay to deal with Hydra than so be it. Hydra's soldier equipment and strength are not any weaker than SHIELD's soldiers, and they had home-field advantage in this base, so it is normal for SHIELD to lose so many people.

This is also an important reason why Fury has been trying to form the Avengers Alliance. He wants to form a super team that is far superior to ordinary special teams. When facing an enemy like Hydra, SHIELD can use this Sharp Blade like team, which will greatly reduce the casualties on their side.

Moreover, in many cases, the effect of that team would be much better than that of the normal team. During World War II, wasn't it the Howling Commando led by Captain Rogers that gave Hydra a deep blow and earned them the victory. Now the world is facing more dangers than Hydra at the beginning. Fury needs a team that can handle this situation, SHIELD needs this team, and Earth needs this team.

"Rescue and tend to the wounded and let the other teams begin to clean the battlefield." Glancing at the mess below, Fury ordered coldly.

"Yes, Sir!"

Call!

After a few more laps in mid-air, the flame of the Quinjet tail injector, which was temporarily used as a command, rose sharply, and it rushed towards Washington.

Brush! Brush!

Over New York, two Iron Mans flew over at high speed, it was Tony and Lin Rui. Lin Rui, who left the battlefield early also learned about the self-destruct of the Hydra base through JARVIS. When hearing this news, Lin Rui almost drove Iron Man back to the battlefield again but he was stopped by Tony.

"I'm going back! My friend is still there!" He was trapped in the Iron Man Armor and JARVIS wouldn't let him do what he wanted so Lin Rui shouted loudly towards Tony beside him.

Because Lin Rui was caught by Hydra's Alpha team, and he was later surprised that Tony has come to rescue him, he forgot about Tom for a while. By the time he remembered him, he had already flown to New York, and at this time JARVIS told him about the self-destruction of the Hydra Base.

Lin Rui doesn't think that when even the base is abandoned, the fleeing high-level executives will take Tom with them. That's why he wants to go back and save his friend. However, Tony won't let him go back now. Anyway, Tony already knew that there was such a situation and he will just inform SHIELD, Mirage Knight coming back to rescue Tom would look suspicious.

"You need to calm down, maybe your friend is okay? You also said that he is the Winter Soldier, he will not die so easily." Tony shouted and calmly persuaded Lin Rui.

"And, since they know that person is your friend, the enemy might also run away with him. After all, this is also a weakness for you."

“Yes! Tom will be fine! He will definitely not die!” Lin Rui’s heart was full of guilt over leaving Tom behind and he could only hope so at this time.

Although Lin Rui knew the odds of happening that were very small, he didn’t want to believe that Tom would die. The Smiths recently have become very worried because they have not heard any news about Tom. If they knew that Tom had been taken away by an organization like Hydra and that they had performed such experiments and transformations on him, and that he also may be dead. Lin Rui doesn’t know if the Smith family can withstand such a blow and Lin Rui also doesn’t know how he would face the Smith family at that time.

“Hydra! I swear, in this life, I will completely eradicate you! And, those people who took Tom, Death will be a mercy compared to what I do to you!” With anger in his heart, Lin Rui swears.

“Sneeze!” Just as Lin Rui vowed to destroy Hydra, General Reese, who had escaped far away, sneezed for no reason.

Touching his nose, General Reese looked back at the team that followed his retreat. Although they lost the base this time, at least the important personnel have been preserved. Hydra’s vitality is just like its name, with nine heads, you cut off one and another grows on its place, they can still afford the loss of a base.

After seeing a person in the corner of the ride, General Reese’s eyes narrowed, and no one knew what he was thinking. If Lin Rui was here, he would be able to see that the warrior standing like a stake in the corner was Tom who he had been so worried about, Reese had actually taken him with him when he fled.

Looking at Tom now, he seemed to have woken up as Hydra’s most faithful Winter Soldier. However, in Tom’s slightly lowered eyes, a small wave flashed from time to time.

Chapter 302: Confession 1

New York, Tony’s beach house.

Tony directly returned to his place with Lin Rui. Although Tony also knew that SHIELD’s team had been monitoring him from near his villa, he did not care about their monitoring. Anyway, the technology of his villa is not something that these agents can easily breakthrough and he has no intention of hiding Mirage Knight from them as Captain Rogers and SHIELD already know.

“Well, you can sit there for me first. I’ll think about something for your hands and feet.” Lin Rui was brought into the basement and Tony said while pointing to a sofa.

Call!

Lin Rui was also unpretentious, his limbs are locked and he cannot even walk. And if he wants to get any news about Tom, he would have to remain at Tony’s side. SHIELD won’t tell Mirage Knight about their search results.

“Now, do you have something to tell me?” Tony dragged over a stool at his position and asked.

At this time, Lin Rui had already taken off the Phantom Suit and he was sitting on the sofa looking like a harmless high school student. If Tony hadn't seen the Phantom Suit being taken off and retreating onto the wristband Lin Rui wears on his left hand, he might not believe that the young man in front of him would be New York's famous Vigilante Mirage Knight.

"I want to contact my family first, and Peter, lest they keep worrying." Looking at Tony with a serious face in front, Lin Rui nodded and said.

"Don't worry, I have already told your parents that you will be helping me with experiments. Also, for the first time, I now know that you have been using me as a shield! And Peter also knows that you are safe." Tony said quietly when he heard Lin Rui's words.

Tony also confirmed Lin Rui's identity long ago, and this time he made an excuse for Lin Rui. Lin Rui's parents were very excited when they received Tony's phone call and were told that Lin Rui could take an internship in Stark Industries. It doesn't matter to them if he doesn't go home. As for Peter and the League of Defender, although they really want to know how Mirage Knight is doing right now, there is no way they can ignore Tony and Lin Rui was not injured so they don't mind waiting a little.

"So, Mr. Stark, what do you want to ask?" Knowing that Tony had spoken to his family and Peter, Lin Rui was less worried. As for Thor, Lin Rui has long forgotten about him.

As for Tony's question, Lin Rui probably knew it too. Anyway, he had already decided to tell Tony everything and now he has the opportunity to tell him everything.

"Why didn't you talk so well when I didn't know your identity?" Seeing Lin Rui's calmness, Tony said angrily.

"Isn't that because I was worried that Mr. Stark will cause unnecessary trouble after he knows my identity and you didn't you already figured out my identity?" Lin Rui said calmly when he heard Tony's angry tone.

"What? If I hadn't been careful, you would have been successful in hiding your identity from me. Now, did you approach me on purpose in the first place?" Tony is annoyed at Lin Rui's calm expression. Now, Tony wants to know what Lin Rui's secret is, and why he approaches him.

"Well, I admit, I did approach you intentionally at the beginning." Lin Rui answered helplessly after hearing Tony's words.

"At that time, I had just become Mirage Knight and I had no teammates and no funds, I wanted to find a partner, and you were my choice." Without waiting for Tony to ask again, Lin Rui explained.

Of course, Lin Rui was speaking half-truth. Although he did think so afterward, he approached Tony at first only because of the Mainline Quest.

"Is it really that simple? Why did you choose me? If you wanted a partner and funds to be a Vigilante, wouldn't it be better to join your friend Harry Osborn." Hearing Lin Rui's explanation, Tony frowned slightly.

Moreover, Lin Rui approached Tony as Jackson Lin at that time, and Mirage Knight appeared later.

“Well, can I say that you were more pleasing to the eyes? Also, at that time, Harry was only the young master of Oscorp Industries, he was just a high school student, and he was nothing compared to his current self. If Harry was the Director of Oscorp at the time, maybe I would have asked him for help.” Lin Rui looked at Tony sincerely and explained it carefully.

“Huh! That’s one problem solved for the time being. What I want to know most now is, what secrets do you have, why did you become Mirage Knight, where did those weird things come from? Also, you seem to know a lot of secret things and many of them aren’t even known to SHIELD.” No one knew whether Tony accepted Lin Rui’s explanation but he continued to ask more questions. This time, he asked several questions in a row, which is what he is most concerned about now.

“Well, anyway, I’m going to tell you something important this time, and I should tell you something about me. But there are some things that cannot be explained, and I can only say what I can.” Knowing that Tony would be asking these questions, Lin Rui took a deep breath and said.

“Well, tell me. I’ll judge for myself.” Seeing Lin Rui so serious, Tony said seriously.

“First question, what secrets do I have? I can’t explain this.” Lin Rui’s first words make Tony frown but it was also expected.

“As for being a Mirage Knight, I chose to become Mirage Knight because of my secret that cannot be told.” Seeing Tony remaining silent, Lin Rui continued.

“Huh? Choose to become Mirage Knight? Did you have any other choices?” Tony sharply noticed something unusual in Lin Rui’s sentence and stared at him.

“Yes, I did choose to become Mirage Knight myself. As for the other choices, you only need to know that it was not a good thing.” Seeing Tony having doubts about this, Lin Rui explained briefly.

“I see, go on.” With a nod, Tony asks Lin Rui thoughtfully.

“As for all the strange and magical things on me, they were all obtained from my unspeakable secret, including the thing that saved your life before. Of course, there is a price to get these things, and some of them are not so easy to get.” Lin Rui goes on to answer Tony’s question.

“So, so you have more than just one of those things that can save lives? The one you used to save Fury last time in SHIELD is the same thing you used on me.” Tony said, Tony said again.

“That’s right. However, when I saved you, I really only had that one, and the one that saved Fury was obtained later.” With a nod, Lin Rui answered honestly.

“So, do you still have that thing now?”

Chapter 303: Confession 2

Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Tony hurriedly asked, Tony wanted to study the magical unknown liquid that could save lives.

“Yes, but if Mr. Stark wants to study it, you won’t be finding anything in it. Because that item belongs to the magic category, it has nothing to do with science.” Lin Rui knew what Tony wanted to do when he heard his question, so Lin Rui answered directly.

“Why can’t magic be studied? Didn’t we see the Sorcerer last time? Maybe they can help me.” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Tony said unbelievably.

“Uh ... this, they really know a lot about magic, but I don’t know if this magic item is the same as their magic item. And how would you even ask them for help? If it hadn’t been for that Demon we happened to meet last time, we would never have encountered these Sorcerers.” Seeing Tony’s appearance, Lin Rui knew that he won’t be persuaded easily, so Lin Rui explained it again.

Lin Rui’s magic items are all redeemed from the System Shop. Although they belong to the magic item’s category, he doesn’t know if the magic items of the earth are the same as that in his System Shop. Moreover, Lin Rui doesn’t think Ancient One will help Tony.

“You make them sound so mysterious, but why do I think that they seem to be interested in you?” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Tony suddenly said something in a strange voice.

“Ehh? What do you mean by that? Why are they interested in me?” Lin Rui asks in surprise at Tony’s words.

When he saw the Ancient One last time, nothing special happened. Lin Rui thought that they wouldn’t be meeting afterward. Although Lin Rui’s whimsical plan requires a strong alliance, he has not yet planned to unite the Sorcerers of the earth. Their identity is too special.

“It seems you really don’t know, this time you were taken away by Hydra, and some sorcerer also helped us in the dark.” Staring at Lin Rui’s expression carefully and after confirming that he really didn’t know, Tony just explained.

“Sorcerers were helping you in the dark? Are you sure?” Lin Rui asked again unexpectedly when he heard Tony’s words. He didn’t think he was some special Vigilante in New York that would attract the attention of the sorcerers, most likely Tony was mistaken.

“I am sure, although they didn’t show themselves, JARVIS detection will not go wrong. After we caught Francis, JARVIS clearly detected magical fluctuations.” Seeing Lin Rui disbelief, Tony said seriously.

“Magical Fluctuation? Is it really them?” Lin Rui was confused as Tony looked so certain.

Theoretically speaking, even if Lin Rui’s life is in danger, Hydra is not something like a Demon from the other world and the Sorcerers have no reason to help him or his teammates. Do they want something?

You can’t blame Lin Rui for thinking that, because he really doesn’t know why Sorcerers would involve themselves in his affairs, he has no magic talent.

“Since you don’t know about that, just forget it. Do you know where to find them? Since they will help you, they must have some other ideas for you. Maybe they can really help you to help me in magic and I can finally make some progress in this particular magic branch.” Although Lin Rui does not know why the sorcerers were trying to help him, this does not prevent Tony from making such a judgment and decision. What’s more, Tony has now made magic a special subject for him to study.

“If you really want to find them, I can provide you with the general location but they generally do not accept outsiders. Although the Ancient One seemed easy-going last time but it would depend on your fate and luck if they want to answer your questions and help you.” Knowing that Tony was really attached to magical things, Lin Rui would not hide anything.

“I knew you weren’t that simple. You kept hiding things from me before! Now, I want to find out how many secrets you still have!” It is no surprise that Lin Rui knows where to find the sorcerers. After all, Mirage Knight has given him quite a few surprises before.

“Haha ...” Lin Rui could only laugh twice before facing Tony’s questioning.

Then, under Tony’s constant questions, Lin Rui, who chose to be frank, also answered his questions as much as possible. With the exception of the secrets of the system in his head, Lin Rui gives a general answer to Tony’s other questions. Some of them are not easy to answer, but Lin Rui just made up an excuse. As for Tony’s belief in what Lin Rui says, that’s not what Lin Rui has to worry about.

Ten minutes later, this serious conversation was temporarily suspended and the information Tony received from Lin Rui also took some time to digest.

“Whew! Asgard, the Nine Worlds, the World Tree, the Earth, and the other world. It turns out that our universe world is like this! Although I have known about the infinite universe for a long time, it is still very shocking to really know these things!” After two minutes of calmness, Tony said with a deep sigh.

“According to what you just said, Earth will experience various dangers in the future, so did you choose this path to prevent those dangers? You became a Superhero who protects the earth?” Finally, Tony looked up at the young man sitting opposite to him and asked in a serious tone.

“Well! This is the path I have chosen, and I will go on!” In the face of Tony’s question, Lin Rui answers seriously.

“It’s a big goal. Do you know what it would take to get there? Do you know that you may have given everything you had to get what you wanted? The earth, this world may not need your protection.” Seeing the fiery eyes of the young man, Tony suddenly looked away and asked softly. In Tony’s opinion, a child-like Lin Rui cannot and should not bear such a big responsibility.

“Of course I know! The strength of a single person is small. Even if I can become stronger than Hulk, I cannot protect my relatives, friends, and even the Earth when facing threats from the Universe or the World itself at the same time.” Hearing Tony’s words, Lin Rui said seriously.

“Then why are you ...”

“But I still have to do it, no matter how much I will pay in the meantime. Because I have people and things that I want to protect! And, doesn’t Mr. Stark also think like that?” When Tony wanted to say something else, Lin Rui went on to say it seriously.

“Me? Of course, I also have people that I want to protect and I also want people on the planet to live in a safe environment. But do you know how much effort this thing requires? Even I wouldn’t dare to say that I can achieve what you said in this lifetime.” Hearing Lin Rui’s question, Tony’s eyes flashed as he answered.

Tony’s attitude towards protecting innocent civilians has not been weak since he experienced the disaster himself. However, he also knew that it would be difficult to achieve this goal relying on the constantly upgrading Iron Man. And he now knows from Lin Rui's mouth that the earth will face so many threats, and the power of the Iron Man alone seems even more insufficient.

"What if I say I also want to create a completely safe, united earth without any evil forces?" Staring at Tony, Lin Rui suddenly blurts out the words.

Chapter 304: Confession 3

Brush!

Hearing Lin Rui's words, Tony raised his head sharply and looked at him, the light in his eyes seemed to burst out.

"What are you talking about?!" Fearing that he might have just misheard something, Tony asked again.

It is reasonable to say that Tony has such a thought. After all, he is a super-rich Man in a higher position in the world. Besides, the strength of the current Iron Man army is also obvious to all. But Lin Rui? This Kid? Does he think he can think about these things with his little strength? Isn't he way too whimsical?

"Mr. Stark, you heard me right, I want to destroy all the evil powers on the planet, and then integrate all the other forces to form a united big coalition. Of course, if that is too big of a goal, at least it would be possible to eliminate all the elements that are not conducive to the development of the planet." Seeing Tony's expression, Lin Rui knew that he probably did not believe what he said, so Lin Rui added another sentence.

"Oh! You really are thinking big! Do you know how many people in the history of the earth wanted to unify it? Do you know where these people are now? A Unified Alliance of Earth is not something that even I can imagine." After hearing Lin Rui's words, Tony is finally convinced that he really has such an idea, but he doesn't think that Lin Rui has any capital to dare to think like this. Of course, Lin Rui has just told Tony that there is no hidden power behind him. All he gets now is because of his unspeakable secret.

"Of course I dare to think about it. If people don't have a dream then what is the point of living?" Lin Rui smiled after seeing Tony's attitude.

"Point of living? You are braver than I imagined! Tell me, how would you even achieve that and don't say that you would do it with the help of your League of Defender and your teammates." Seeing Lin Rui's confident appearance, Tony was puzzled and then asked.

"Of course, our strength is still very weak. However, people will grow, and no one knows where we will reach in the future. Also, I dare say that because I have some hidden cards in my hand." Knowing that Tony would say that, Lin Rui said calmly.

"I would have told you these things much later if I hadn't been caught by Hydra this time but this is an opportunity to give you this." While talking, Lin Rui reached into his Phantom Suit.

Call!

In the next moment, Lin Rui took out a large portable hard drive from a hidden pocket inside the Phantom Suit. "This is one of my Cards. Maybe you'll see something different about what I just said."

"This is? ..." Tony took the hard drive from Lin Rui and was feeling a little confused.

Tony doesn't know what is in the hard disk that Lin Rui has given him. If he can make a change in his imagination about Lin Rui, the things in it should be very valuable. Incorrect! Not very valuable! It's something that can't be measured by value!

"Okay, I'll see what's in it right now that it gave you such confidence." Anyway, it's just a hard disk. Tony can verify it on the spot. So without any delay, Tony has inserted the hard disk into the computer on the desk.

"The password is Jackson567####." After Tony connected the hard disk to the computer, Lin Rui reported the password he set up.

"JARVIS, did you hear it? Decrypt it directly, let's see what cards Jackson has in his hands." Hearing Lin Rui's words, Tony addresses JARVIS

"Yes, sir," JARVIS replied.

Then, in a blink of an eye, Lin Rui's password was entered in the box that popped up on the computer screen.

Call ~

Next second, the locked hard drive is completely open. There's no need for Tony to say anything more. JARVIS has opened up the contents of this portable hard drive and displayed them on the computer screen.

Swipe!

It was as if an infinite number of small pages filled with advertisements were suddenly opened. The complicated blueprints burst out of the center of the computer screen, covering the entire screen in an instant, and the files and blueprints continued to pile up, seemingly going on forever.

"JARVIS, Stop! Put away all the other files and open the first file." Although it can be clearly seen that these emerging files are some type of blueprints or the like but because the stacking speed is too fast, Tony was unable to read it and he had to ask JARVIS to collect all the following files first. He had to look at the contents of the first file.

"Yes, sir." JARVIS gave a quiet yes and the files and blueprint that kept popping up on the screen stopped. The next moment, as if going back in time, countless copies of the blueprint are rapidly shrinking back.

Swipe!

After a few seconds, the entire computer screen has been emptied again, and only the last few blueprints are left, which should be what is contained in the first file. Now, Tony can take a closer look at what these things are.

Reaching out and swiping a few times on the computer screen, Tony brought a blueprint to the front and zoomed in. However, three seconds after seeing this blueprint, Tony's face changed. Then, in front of Lin Rui's calm eyes, Tony adjusts all the pictures on the computer in front of him. He carefully observes them one by one and keeps comparing them. It seems that he wants to see some kind of pattern in these pictures.

“JARVIS, the second file!” Soon, with a shock in his eyes, Tony called to JARVIS to open the second file.

Brush!

More than a dozen blueprints appear on the screen, and there seems to be more of them in this file. But Tony doesn’t care about that now. He’s totally hooked on the blueprint.

Again, the positions are constantly adjusted and enlarged. Tony carefully looks at the blueprints that Lin Rui couldn’t even begin to understand. It took Tony a lot longer this time. It took him about ten minutes to finish reading the blueprints on this file.

“JARVIS, perform an experimental calculation according to these blueprints!” After reading so many complicated design blueprints at once, Tony was also a bit tired, so he directed JARVIS.

After almost confirming that these blueprints are true, Tony did not continue to verify it but directly let JARVIS rely on its powerful computing power to start the simulation. Once the blueprints have been experimentally simulated by JARVIS and are confirmed to be valid, Tony is in for a real shock.

“Yes, sir.” With a quiet yes, JARVIS began experimenting to verify the blueprints.

Buzz ~

When JARVIS started his calculations, Tony waited and turned to look at Lin Rui. Since Tony was watching these blueprints, Lin Rui hasn’t spoken. However, looking at him now, he seems very confident.

“Are these blueprints really all true!?” Tony thought with excitement at seeing Lin Rui’s calm look.

Chapter 305: Confession 4

Looking at the amazed look on Tony’s face, Lin Rui was feeling proud. After all, this is just a blueprint designed of an E GRADE’s Aerospace Warship. If he had more Reward points, he would be able to exchange for a higher level Interstellar Warship, would Tony go crazy then?

“Didn’t you ask JARVIS to experiment, just wait.” Lin Rui also didn’t answer Tony’s question and told him to wait.

“You are deliberately doing this, aren’t you? If the contents of your hard disk are all true, then we may really be able to achieve that whimsical goal of yours!” Tony looked at Lin Rui angrily and then he spoke in an excited tone.

Although he had just looked at a few blueprints, who is Tony? He is the most talented person in the physical and mechanical methods on the Earth. At a glance, he can see what those blueprints are used for. But after he knew what the blueprint was for, Tony couldn’t calm down. These are the blueprints for an AeroSpace Warship! It is the most basic thing required for humans to enter the Interstellar Era!

In terms of sophistication, Lin Rui’s E Grade Aerospace Warship is not as good as the Iron Man Armor developed by Tony himself. However, these two things are completely different. There is nothing to compare. One focuses on Large-Scale Space Shuttle and interstellar attack, and the other focuses on pointed attacks. It can also be said that these two things are complementary.

You can think like this. An E GRADE Aerospace Warship can carry hundreds or even thousands of Iron Man Armors and they can be deployed and strikes against the hostile planet or some violent planet civilization. It is very shocking to think about it.

“So, this is one of my Hidden Cards.” Seeing Tony’s appearance, Lin Rui knew that he did the right thing by bringing out the blueprint of E GRADE Aerospace Warship.

“It’s just one of them? How many secrets do you have?” At this time, Tony calmed down a little and heard Lin Rui’s words. Since this thing is not the final hidden card in his hand then is there something more powerful in Lin Rui’s hand? Tony couldn’t even imagine it.

“Uh ... yes, yes, but it won’t be available for a while.” Lin Rui wouldn’t lie and say that he has more powerful things in his hands right now, but he does have the confidence to bring out more and more powerful things in the future.

“Did you get it from your ‘Secret’?” Tony finally understood that the Secret on Lin Rui must not be simple.

Maybe Lin Rui found a Super civilization and got its inheritance, or Tony can’t explain everything that had happened so far. Moreover, if it is an inheritance, it is normal to meet certain conditions. This is what Tony had guessed after hearing Lin Rui’s explanation. Although it was far worse than the real situation, there is nothing wrong with his understanding in this way.

Even Lin Rui doesn’t know what the purpose of the System is. Did it just want him to be a Superhero in Marvel World? What good is he for this system that can do almost anything? However, Lin Rui receives a Quest from the System, after he completes it, he receives Reward Point, which is similar to the usual form of inheritance that requires a trial.

“Yeah, I got these things from my unspeakable secret.” Nodding his head, Lin Rui acknowledged it without telling the complete truth.

If it really was a Super Civilization Inheritance, maybe Lin Rui would have told Tony. However, the system is in Lin Rui’s mind, and it is obviously not some Inheritance of some Super-High Level Civilization. He always has a feeling in his heart that this thing cannot be told to others no matter the situation.

“Okay, then tell me what you need to meet these conditions to get better things. I’ll help you.” Since Lin Rui can’t say it, Tony has to get what he wants from another direction.

“Well, getting rid of Hydra is one way to help me!” Lin Rui is a little stunned at Tony’s words.

“Destroy Hydra?! OK, I see. Even if you don’t say it, I won’t let them go. However, eliminating them is not something that can be done in a day and a half. It seems that it will take a long time for you to get the more powerful card behind you.” Seeing Lin Rui’s expression suddenly turned cold, Tony knew what he meant and he nodded and said calmly.

After all, Lin Rui's childhood friend is being controlled by Hydra, and it is still unknown whether he is alive or dead and it is normal for Lin Rui to have such a large hatred for Hydra. Tony wouldn't bother with whether Lin Rui's elimination of Hydra was really a requirement he needed to meet, anyway, Hydra was going to disappear from this world.

"Sir, the calculation results are coming out." Just when Tony and Lin Rui were chatting, JARVIS had finally got the results.

"How is it? Is it effective?!" After hearing JARVIS's voice, Tony stops talking to Lin Rui and looks at the computer screen nervously.

"Simulation results: Effective, these blueprints are real," JARVIS answered Tony's question the next second.

Call!

After getting a positive answer from JARVIS, Tony took a long breath: it turned out to be true!

"However, there are some of these technologies that haven't been achieved yet." When Tony was excited, JARVIS's calm voice came again.

Although it is an E GRADE Aerospace Warship, it is an Interstellar Warship, and the technologies in it are much higher than the mainstream technology of the Earth. Some of the technologies are far away from them and they also have some tech that is already invented.

"It doesn't matter. Are there detailed design and manufacturing methods for those technologies?" Tony calmed down a bit at the end of JARVIS and then asked.

"Yes, Sir." "Answered JARVIS faintly.

"Okay then, it is indeed beyond the Earth's current technology, but as long as there is a way to make it, I can always make it!" Tony has a lot of confidence in himself.

"JARVIS, upload all of this data to my secret terminal, place it in database no. 16, monitor and protect it all day long." Now that he's sure it's real, all Tony has to do is squeeze the world-changing thing into his hands.

Tony's personal terminal can only be accessed through the JARVIS, so it's impossible for anyone to steal it. Of course, if anyone can break JARVIS, there is a danger. But Tony doesn't think any artificial intelligence in the world can defeat JARVIS, except his own.

"Mr. Stark, do you still think what I said was fanciful?" Lin Rui asks Tony when he saw him this excited.

Chapter 306: Call from Coleson

"Fantasy? No, I think you're thinking too small!" Not caring about the sarcastic words of Lin Rui, Tony said seriously.

"Huh? Thinking too small?" Lin Rui was surprised because Tony said this seriously.

Lin Rui's thoughts were enough to scare ordinary people to death and even Tony felt at first that he was totally crazy. Although Lin Rui knew Tony's attitude would definitely change after he took out the E Grade Aerospace Warship, he did not expect such a big change.

"What do you think? In your eyes, these Aerospace Warships can only be used to arm yourself and deter the Earth's various powers with the great power to achieve the goal of near unity and alliance." Looking at Lin Rui's puzzled look, Tony said seriously.

"Well, Yeah, Isn't that the case?"

"It's true that as long as we can create these Warships, we don't need many, as long as we have a few, we can completely achieve the purpose of deterring the Earth's various superpowers. But you still look down on these things in your hand. This is an Interstellar Warship. As long as we have enough soldiers and resources, the Earth civilization will directly jump to the era of interstellar Navigation!" Seeing Lin Rui not understanding the power of his resources, Tony continued to say seriously.

"Space Travel?! Is that really possible? Just relying on these E Grade Aerospace Warships?" Lin Rui asked after hearing Tony's words.

Lin Rui has also thought about Space Travell before, but he thinks that this is still too far away. Even this Earth's background in the Marvel World is a little confusing and Lin Rui is not sure about the so many powerful civilizations in the whole universe.

"Eh? E Grade Warship? It turns out that you even know these Interstellar Warship levels?!" Without answering Lin Rui's questions, Tony heard some information in his words that Lin Rui hadn't said just now.

"This ... Yes, this Aerospace Warship is E Grade according to the classification." Lin Rui also knew that he hadn't said this before and answered awkwardly.

"Then you mean there is still an A, B, C, and D Level Interstellar Warship?" Affirmed by Lin Rui, Tony quickly asked.

"Uh ... yes. However, those things cost way too much and I have no chance to get them now." Noting the enthusiasm in Tony's eyes, Lin Rui said quickly.

"I know, there must be some conditions that need to be met." Tony calmed down a bit, but the answer had already excited him.

"As for the era of Space Travel that I was talking about, we also don't meet the appropriate conditions yet, but what you've given me gives us a foundation. And the Interstellar Soldier and some of the civilization expansion and stuff like that will only be going to happen once we get there." Knowing that Lin Rui could possibly get a more advanced Interstellar Warship, Tony was even more confident about the coming of the Space Exploration Era by humans.

"Well, it's going to be impossible for a while. Now, Mr. Stark, will you join me in accomplishing this crazy goal?" No one knows how long it will take for the Earth civilization to enter the Era of Interstellar voyage. So he thinks the most realistic thing is to do what he had planned.

Looking at the young man who was less than 17 years old in front of him, Tony really felt that this year had been full of magic and surprise.

“Do you still need to ask after you have taken out these things? Isn’t it just the unification of the Earth? We can do it and we can also lead the Earth to the Era of Space Exploration. After all, I am Tony Stark!” Facing Lin Rui’s question again, Tony agreed without hesitation.

“Haha! I knew you would make a wise choice!” Lin Rui was relieved to hear Tony’s answer. If Tony doesn’t join forces with him, it would be close to impossible and too impractical to rely on the completion of the System’s Quest to get Reward Points and do it step by step.

“Well, I know something about you. Although you hardly say anything, we will be partners in the future. If you have anything, please let me know in advance.” Seeing Lin Rui, Tony smiled and reminded.

“Got it!”

Dī Dī!

“Sir, Agent Coulson from SHIELD is calling.” Just as Lin Rui and Tony reached an agreement, JARVIS suddenly said.

“SHIELD? Is it news about Tom?!” Lin Rui immediately became nervous when he heard JARVIS.

“JARVIS, connect the call.” Knowing that Lin Rui was worried about his friend, Tony directly asked JARVIS to connect with Coulson’s call.

“Hello, Agent Coulson.”

“Mr. Stark, is Mirage Knight okay now?” Just after the call was connected, Coulson on the other side asked about Mirage Knight’s safety first.

“I’m fine, Agent Coulson, are you still clearing the battlefield?” Hearing Coulson mentioning himself, Lin Rui couldn’t help but speak.

“Uh ... hello, Mirage Knight, the battlefield cleaning is not over yet, but all of our trapped people have been rescued. But ...” Hearing Lin Rui speaks suddenly, Coulson on the other end of the phone is a little surprised, but he quickly responds.

“But what?!” Lin Rui asked very worriedly after hearing Coulson’s last words.

“Mr. Stark, we were looking for that person based on the information you provided during the search and rescue, but we haven’t found him yet.” This time, Coulson talked to Tony.

Before Lin Rui was brought back to his home by Tony, he wanted to go back to find Tom, but Tony stopped him. But Tony did use his identity to ask SHIELD to help him find someone, not saying anything about Mirage Knight and that person. So after hearing Lin Rui’s tense words, Coulson had some other ideas.

“You haven’t found him yet? Is he still there? The base is huge.” This time it was Tony who spoke up. As he spoke, he motioned to keep Lin Rui from talking, and it seemed Tony had already noticed that Lin Rui’s attitude was very suspicious.

"This ... should be unlikely. The power behind that self-destruction was too great, and I think there should be no hiding place in it. So, now there are only two possible outcomes. One is that Tom Smith fled with Hydra's people and the other is that he is dead." Hearing Tony's words, Coulson thought about it and answered.

"Neither of these possibilities is good news!" Tony's brows frowned slightly at Coulson's conclusion.

"Well, Thank you for looking Agent Coulson, I hope you will continue to look for him in the next cleaning process." Finally, Tony can only say so.

"This is a small matter. By the way, Mr. Stark, Captain Rogers asked me to tell you that he wants to see Mirage Knight. I don't know if the current time is inconvenient?" After agreeing, Agent Coulson asked a little more, sending Rogers's message.

"Why does Rogers wants to meet Mirage Knight? He's not in very good condition right now." Hearing Coulson's words, Tony thought for a moment and then answered perfunctorily.

"Well then, I'll tell Captain Rogers."

"Well, call me again when you find something." After that, Tony let JARVIS hang up.

Then Tony looks at Lin Rui in front of him. He has not looked well since just now.

Chapter 307 Return

"That friend of yours must have been taken by Hydra, and since they know who you are and your relationship with Tom Smith, they will not let him die." Seeing Lin Rui's sullen silence, Tony still speaks first.

Huh ~

Unexpectedly, Lin Rui looks up and gives Tony a big smile. "Mr. Stark, I'm fine. I also believe that Tom is not dead and that as long as Hydra wants some value from him, we have a better chance of getting him back."

"Uh ..." Tony had expected Lin Rui to get very angry, and then a tirade of insults towards Hydra. He did not expect Lin Rui to respond in this way, so he was a little stunned for a moment.

"Well, Mr. stark, thank you for saving me back there. I have also given you the design and manufacturing blueprints of the E-Grade Aerospace Warship. Now I should go home. Although you informed my parents, it's not good for me not to go home all day." Before Tony could say anything more, Lin Rui got up from the sofa and said with a smile.

"Oh, well, it's time for you to go home." Somewhat unclear about Lin Rui's current reaction, Tony answered.

Hula

Instead of getting up and walking away, Lin Rui raises his hands and shakes them in front of Tony's eyes. On Lin Rui's hand, Hydra's special alloy handcuffs laced with Adamantium metal have yet to be released.

“Oh! This, I will open it for you now. Come with me. Fortunately, I already have some Adamantium metal here and there is also a lot of information about the use of this metal in the data left by my father. If it wasn’t for these, we would be in trouble ...” Seeing Lin Rui’s raised hands, Tony reacted a bit awkwardly. Then he got up from his chair and said as he walked towards the laboratory behind.

Call!

Half an hour later, an Iron Man rushed out of Tony’s villa and sped toward downtown New York. Lin Rui is inside this Iron Man Armor, who has been brought back by Tony. If he walks out like this, the SHIELD agents outside the villa will be able to see him if they are not blind. So Lin Rui flies away in a suit of steel.

Five minutes later, Lin Rui, in the Iron Man Armor has slipped into the base of the League of Defender. At this point, Spiderman and others are already waiting here.

Card ~

“Jac! ... Mirage Knight!” When Lin Rui came out of the steel suit, Peter, who had been worried about him, had already rushed over.

Call!

Hugging Lin Rui, Peter finally felt relieved. Jackson is okay, this is great. Spiderman also participated in this battle against Hydra, but he didn’t played a major role in it.

“I’m okay!” Lin Rui said softly, patting Peter’s back.

“Well! Good!” Peter said happily after seeing Lin Rui speak.

At this point, Harry came over from behind them. He was planning to come and hug Lin Rui but Peter beat him to it but it’s not too late now. So after Peter released Lin Rui, Harry gave Lin Rui a big hug.

“Welcome back!”

“Thank you!”

Then Lin Rui and all the members of the League of Defender greeted each other and Lin Rui thanked them. While Tony and SHIELD have largely contributed to the Lin Rui rescue, Spiderman and others have also done a little to help.

Of course, in addition to these people, Lin Rui also has a force to thank in particular, and that is X-Men. Had it not been for Professor Charles getting information about Hydra from Francis, then SHIELD and Tony would have been unable to find Lin Rui in time.

As for the sorcerers, who have been helping him from the dark until now, Lin Rui does not know how to contact them. Although their last meeting was harmonious, it was not to the point where they would leave each other’s contact information. Furthermore, although Lin Rui knows that there is a Sanctum here in New York but New York is so big that he really does not know where their Sanctum is.

“Should I go to Kamar-Taj to thank the Ancient Sorcerer in person afterward?” Lin Rui frowned slightly at the thought of Sorcerers who had helped him in the dark.

“Mirage Knight, why did Hydra attack you suddenly and take you away? Was it planned?” Just as Lin Rui thought about the matter, Spiderman had already asked about his doubt.

This time Hydra’s move was obviously premeditated and Francis was just a stand-in who was pushed to the front of the line, as he didn’t even know about Hydra. But why did Hydra go after Mirage Knight this time?

“This ... I think they were just trying to target us or the X-Men, but I just ran into their trap.” Hearing Peter’s question, Lin Rui thought back and answered.

“For us? Would they really do that?! The whole world knows about their organization and what it stands for, what did they plan to gain from this?!” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Jack asked.

“Haven’t they already done it? Furthermore, Hydra is extremely powerful even if it is wanted all over the world.” Lin Rui sighed at Jack’s words.

“Although the attack this time was beyond my expectations but I had it under control in the beginning. I just didn’t think that the technology on their base would be that good, so I couldn’t get out on my own.”

Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Daredevil raised an eyebrow. “It seems my original judgment was correct. You did had a plan of your own. So, do you know who were those two who attacked you?”

“Well, yes, I know who they are. And not only do I know who they are, but I know where they came from and many things that they probably don’t even know about themselves.” Lin Rui answers with a nod at Daredevil’s words.

“Who are they?! I asked the X-Men about them but they haven’t heard of these two powerful Mutants.” Peter asked quickly after hearing that Lin Rui know who the two guys who attacked him were.

“The really fast guy is nicknamed Quicksilver, and the girl who can control other people’s minds and throw objects at you with her mind is called Scarlet Witch. These two are brothers and sisters, both of them are very powerful Mutants.” Lin Rui did not say Quicksilver and Scarlet Witch’s original name and he just introduced them with their nickname and ability. Anyway, at this stage, Spiderman and the rest of the League of Defenders just need to know their nickname and ability.

“Controlling people’s minds?! Is it the same ability as the Magician Mutants we met last time?” Deadpool asked when Lin Rui spoke of Scarlet Witch’s ability. Spiderman’s fight with Scarlet Witch didn’t allow her to use the ability to control the mind, so they don’t know yet that Scarlet Witch has this power.

“Magician? No, in front of Scarlet Witch, that Magician would probably look like a kid playing with cards.” Hearing Deadpool comparing Scarlet Witch with the psychic power Magician that they encountered last time, Lin Rui grinned and shook his head and explained.

“Hiss ~~ That’s so powerful!” Hearing Lin Rui’s explanation, Deadpool couldn’t believe it.

When they faced the Magician last time, Deadpool was already puzzled by his mental attacks. If it had not been for Lin Rui, he didn’t know how long it would have taken him to recover by himself. Now listening to Lin Rui saying that Scarlet Witch is so much more powerful than the Magician, Deadpool also feels that he would not be her opponent at all.

“Well, if you meet her in the future, try to run away. Or, pay more attention to exercise your willpower, if it is strong, it should be helpful.” Scarlet Witch’s ability to control the mind would have little effect on him now so he also reminded everyone.

“So, Mirage Knight, do you have any plans next?”

Chapter 308 Partners

Lin Rui was attacked and taken by Hydra. Something must be done in retaliation for the chaos that Hydra caused this time. Harry asked knowing that The League of Defenders would not let this pass. Hydra was originally a responsibility of SHIELD, but now the League of Defender may have to step in.

“What’s next? Of course, it’s to eliminate Hydra!” Lin Rui answered coldly, hearing Harry’s question.

Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Harry and the others in the League of Defender did not show any unexpected expressions as this is something that they had expected. And fighting against evil forces like Hydra is something that as the Guardians should do. The League of Defenders is no longer confined to protecting New York.

“Of course, this is my personal matter and I won’t ask you guys to help me.” Lin Rui added after looking at their expressions.

After all, Hydra is not a cat or a dog. From the time Lin Rui was taken, he had already seen how strong Hydra is today. The current strength of the League of Defenders can’t compete with Hydra. Therefore, if he is the only one, it is relatively easy to move forward or backward. And Hydra already knew his identity, and they would also find Peter and Harry according to his identity if they help him. This is a risk Lin Rui doesn’t want to take.

“Mirage Knight, your business is our business! And, Hydra is something that needs to be eradicated. They are not just your enemy.” Just after Lin Rui finished, Spiderman was the first Jump out and say that he would help him. Even if Peter didn’t know that Mirage Knight was Jackson, he would have helped him without hesitation, let alone now.

“Me too. It’s not just your responsibility to deal with Hydra.” After Peter’s statement, Harry also spoke of his decision. Although Harry can now only be counted as half of the members of the League of Defender, he will not back out in such matters.

“When have we ever let a single person fight their battle? We have always faced bigger threats together and we would continue to do so.” Daredevil also spoke his piece. As a member of SHIELD, he has already been fighting Hydra.

“Although my own strength may be weaker than you all but there is a huge family behind me that would be able to help us a lot.” Jack followed suit and spoke and with the Frankenstein Family behind him, his forces could not be underestimated.

“Haha ~ Although Francis is dead, I think it is better to kill the Hydra behind him, otherwise there will always be trouble.” Seeing everyone supporting Mirage Knight, Deadpool also agreed after a laugh.

"You guys ... okay, then ..." Lin Rui was moved to see that everyone would be supporting him. He knew that whatever he said, these people, his partners and friends, would not back out, so he was ready to thank them but was interrupted.

"That ... I will also try my best to help you! Mirage Knight!" It was Jerry who was standing behind that interrupted Lin Rui. He saw that the League of Defender's members were going to help Mirage Knight, and he couldn't help but talk too.

"Okay, thank you, Sky's Eye! And Everyone, Thank you!" Lin Rui said gratefully as he looked at the supporters in front of him.

Call!

"Haha! You are the one who brought us all here, we would not let you have all the fun." Peter put his hand on Lin Rui's shoulder next to him and said with a smile.

"That's right! We'll always support you!" Harry also put his hand over his other shoulder and spoke with a smile.

"The League of Defender means more than just protecting New York. We have to protect the entire world and we also have to protect each other!" Daredevil also came over and put his hand on Lin Rui's shoulder.

"And me! I plan to take the Frankenstein Family all the way to the top for it to support us. After all, I can't lose to all of you!" Jack put his hand on Daredevil's shoulder and spoke jokingly.

"I don't need to say anything! I hope we get Hydra off the ground soon!" Deadpool was infected by Peter and others' mood and he also came over and put his hands on Jack's shoulders.

"Uh ... that, I'll do my best too!" Jerry came over excitedly, one hand resting on Deadpool's shoulder, and the other just resting on Harry's shoulder.

At this moment, the Seven Members of the League of Defender just formed a circle and faced each other. Although everyone was wearing a mask except for Jack and Jerry, at this time they felt unprecedented trust in their partners around them.

Half an hour later, after simply chatting with his teammates and planning how to deal with Hydra in the future, Lin Rui left with Peter and Harry. As for the Iron Man Armor, it drove over, it flew back after sending Lin Rui back.

After getting out from the base of the League of Defender, Lin Rui and the other two took off their respective hero suits. Lin Rui's Phantom Suit and Peter's Spiderman suit are easier to take off, but Harry's armor is a lot more troublesome.

Lin Rui took off the Phantom Suit into the wristband of his left hand with just one thought, and the Spiderman suit on Peter's body was also very convenient to pull off and store. He took off the hood directly and then Peter clicked something and the tight-fitting Spiderman suit instantly became Loose casual clothes. Peter took a piece of clothing out of his backpack and put it on the outside, and then the Spiderman suit color of his pants became inconspicuous.

However, compared to the one-click makeover of Mirage Knight and Spiderman, the semi-covered armor of Dark Knight Harry, who had also become a Vigilante is a bit difficult to get rid of. However, Harry had already modified it. After several joints were quickly opened, the entire armor was taken down by him. Although it was a lot more trouble than Lin Rui and Peter but his armor is very different from theirs.

Call!

Putting the unloaded armor on the Hoverboard and bringing it back to the secret room of his house. Harry looks just like Lin Rui and Peter beside him. They are all high school teenagers.

"Jackson, are you telling the truth? Tom has really become like that?!" Peter asked incredulously as he walked home.

Lin Rui has just told Peter and Harry about Tom's capture by Hydra and Tom becoming a Winter Soldier. Although all the members of the League of Defender are very trustworthy, this kind of thing is not easy to say.

"Well, while I was pretending to be controlled, there was a Hydra executive there who was trying to recruit me and he revealed a little bit information about Tom's situation. They're working on Tom with the newly launched Winter Soldier project, a Hydra project to build the perfect Super Soldier. Now, Tom has become a controlled super soldier." Hearing Peter's disbelief, Lin Rui could only explain it again.

"Damn It! Is there still a chance for Tom to be rescued?" Harry also gritted his teeth. Although he was not very close to Tom, he also hated Hydra.

"It may be difficult, but he is not without a chance. First of all, we have to rescue Tom before we can see if there is a way to remove Hydra's brainwashing or other control methods from his mind." Although Lin Rui knows that brainwashing is not a means to fully control a Winter Soldier but it is a newly started process and he does not know whether he can wake up Tom's real consciousness.

"No matter how difficult it is, we will save Tom!" Peter is more familiar with Tom than Harry, so his emotions are deeper.

"Well, that's what I swore in front of Tom. I'll get him back, one way or another." Lin Rui also said seriously.

"Oh! By the way, Jackson, who was the guy you went with to Margaret's bar that day? Seeing you go to that bar with him, he must be a really good friend of yours, why is it that we have never heard of him?" Just when the three were walking on the road, the atmosphere was dull, and Peter suddenly remembered what he had wanted to ask Lin Rui.

"Hmm?! Thor! ..."

Chapter 309 Forgotten Thor

After Peter's reminder, Lin Rui remembered the prince of Asgard who he had left in Margaret's Bar. However, because Lin Rui had given Thor the keys to his jeep, he didn't worry about him much.

“That’s Thor. He became my friend during my vacation in New Mexico. His identity is a little special, but I don’t think it’s a big deal to introduce him to you. Why? Have you met him?” Thinking of Thor who might still be here, busy looking for work, Lin Rui smiled at Peter and Harry.

“Well, after we found out that you were attacked near Margaret’s Bar, we went over there looking for clues. We found out that you went there for a drink with a friend last night. But your Jeep is still there and you’ve probably got a few tickets on it.” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Peter says with a strange look in his eyes.

“Uh? ... Didn’t I give Thor the key? He didn’t take my jeep?” Lin Rui asked with some surprise. Until now, Lin Rui hadn’t realized that Thor had only been here for two months. How could he learn to drive?

“Well, you do know that your friend can’t drive, don’t you? But it’s a little strange, I mean who doesn’t know how to drive nowadays?” Seeing Lin Rui’s response, Peter reminded kindly.

Lin Rui: “...”

“I really forgot, he really can’t drive.” Lin Rui whispered and shook his head.

“Your friend is really weird. When are you going to introduce us to him?” Harry didn’t go with Peter to Margaret’s bar, so he didn’t know Thor and he had only heard about him.

“Well, I will. However, he has only recently moved to New York and is still looking for a job. I don’t know if he had found one yet.” Lin Rui nodded and answered.

In fact, Lin Rui was going to ask Harry to do him a favor and let Thor work in Oscorp. Anyway, Harry was now firmly established in Oscorp Industries and there was no problem with arranging a simple job for Thor. However, he did not propose it in the end. On one hand, Thor may be able to find a job by himself. On the other hand, Thor is the prince of Asgard. He must be monitored by SHIELD. It is not convenient to put him in Oscorp Industries.

“Oh, we’ll wait.”

“Don’t worry, I will introduce him to you soon. But don’t be surprised when I introduce him to you!”

“Haha! Who are we? Even the President of the United States wouldn’t surprise us much, much less a man”

“Let’s wait and see then!”

“Let’s.”

New York, Thor’s new apartment, because there has been no news of Lin Rui, Thor is walking back and forth in the room worried.

Shout!

“Has no one found him yet? Should I be worried?!” Thor murmured as he sat on the sofa after walking a few rounds in the small living room without knowing.

It's not that Peter didn't tell Thor about Lin Rui on purpose, it's just that they were busy saving lives, fighting and so on, and of course, they ignored Thor, an irrelevant person.

As for the SHIELD agents who had been monitoring Thor, they were aware of Thor's abnormal mood that day, but they attributed it to a normal reaction to his recent breakup.

It must be said that this is a very unexpected coincidence, SHIELD knew that Mirage Knight was caught by the Hydra and Jackson also disappeared from Thor's side at the same time, they only need to think in this way to find the relationship between the two people. However, the SHIELD agents who were monitoring Thor didn't care about Jackson's whereabouts, and they weren't responsible for him anyway, so they missed a chance to discover the identity of Mirage Knight.

As for the team of SHIELD agents who had been secretly monitoring Lin Rui's life, they did not know that Lin Rui had been missing for nearly a day because they had lowered their surveillance on Lin Rui after Tony joined SHIELD. And with Tony covering for Lin Rui all the time, they didn't know any better.

Buzz ~

Just as Thor was sitting on the couch worrying about it, his phone suddenly vibrated.

Call!

Picking up the phone and looking at the screen, Thor's face finally showed some surprise and relaxation. The caller was Jackson, and it appeared that he had been found.

"Hello, Jackson?!" Thor quickly answered the call.

"Yeah, it's me, Thor. Sorry to worry you, I'm fine." Lin Rui's slightly apologetic voice came over the phone. He had really forgotten about Thor.

"That's fine, you're okay, that's all that matters. You're my first friend on earth, and I don't want anything to happen to you." Upon hearing Lin Rui's voice, Thor let go of his last worry and spoke seriously.

"Haha! Don't worry, nothing will happen to me that easily. By the way, did you go out to look for a job today?" Lin Rui didn't want to talk too much about himself on the phone as he was worried about SHIELD's monitoring and he quickly shifted the subject.

Thor was stunned by Lin Rui's sudden change of subject, but he hadn't even reflected on why Lin Rui had to change the subject and he was already embarrassed by Lin Rui's next question.

Despite worrying about Lin Rui's safety all the time today, Thor has not failed to consider what he should be able to do. However, after thinking about it, Thor suddenly found that he could not find any job on the earth with his own ability. In addition to some physical work that doesn't require brains, Thor is like a novice in a game starting village, he really doesn't know what he can do.

"Er ... Well, I'm still looking. Well, Jackson, do you have anything to recommend?" There was no shame in hiding anything from Lin Rui and Thor only hesitated a little and then told the truth.

“Well, that’s what job hunting is all about. Especially in a big city like New York, but I think there are a lot of jobs for you if you don’t hate them too much.” Upon hearing Thor’s words, Lin Rui says without surprise.

In fact, according to Lin Rui, it should not be difficult for someone like Thor to find a job and so on, except that he is not well adapted to life on earth.

First of all, Thor is more than one and nine meters tall, and he is also very handsome. His blond hair makes him look more like a noble. Besides, he is the Prince of Asgard, so he has no problem in temperament, although he is a warrior.

Therefore, in Lin Rui’s view, Thor can become a model without any problem with a little training. He just doesn’t know if Thor is willing to work in that area, or if SHIELD would be willing to let such an alien visitor become a model on earth.

Of course, in addition to a model’s job, Thor is still powerful and it would be no problem for him to become a bodyguard, but this also depends on his own willingness and SHIELD.

“If you need my advice, we’ll talk about it next time we meet.” Thinking about what Thor can do, Lin Rui goes on.

“Well, are we still going to that bar?” Thor asked and it seemed that he really liked the atmosphere of the Margaret bar.

“Uh ... no, I’m going to introduce two of my friends to you next time. It’s not appropriate to go there with them. Let’s meet later to make an appointment.”

“Well, goodbye then.”

Chapter 310 The Withdrawn Squad

Shout!

After hanging up on Lin Rui, Thor relaxes and leans back on the sofa. The night and morning of worry finally disappeared because of the phone call. Thor had not been so worried about a person in a long time.

At Asgard, Thor was an omnipotent God. He only charged in the battlefield and his comrades were all brave warriors, so he didn’t have to worry about anything at all. On earth, Thor is just an ordinary person. He doesn’t need to worry about Asgard’s affairs for the time being. His girlfriend has broken up with him and the only person who can be considered close to him is Jackson. That’s why Thor was so worried about him. He has no one on Earth beside his friend.

“What kind of job am I going to get?” Leaning back on the sofa, Thor, who no longer has to worry about Lin Rui’s safety, frets about his life on earth, something he never had to worry about when he was in Asgard.

“However, since Jackson said he would help me, he should be able to help me find the right job for myself.” After thinking about it for a long time, Thor finally realized that he did not know what kind of job he could find on earth.

Huh ~

Finally, Thor, who was too tired to think, got up from the sofa, cleaned up, and went out. He needed to familiarize himself with the neighborhood. After all, Thor would probably be living here for a long time to come.

Card ~

Right after Thor leaves the apartment, the team of SHIELD agents who monitor Thor in the apartment across from his apartment gets tangled up.

Thor and Lin Rui's phone conversation was monitored by them. Lin Rui deliberately diverged from the topic and they didn't pay any special attention to it. They just thought that Lin Rui went to Tony for an experiment without contacting Thor. This is also quite normal for people like Lin Rui, after all, Tony's level of confidentiality is not low.

"Boss, Thor is looking for a job in New York, are we going to help?" One of the young agents in charge of monitoring Thor asks the Captain at his side as he strolls out the door so easily.

Although the SHIELD agents knew a lot about Jackson, they didn't feel good to have an alien visitor who was always seeking the help of a young man.

"This ... wait for me to ask our bosses first." The Captain also felt that this question was a bit difficult to answer, so he was ready to ask this question to his own boss.

After that, this Captain started to contact his superior, Agent Coulson. A few minutes later, the Captain hung up the phone strangely and it seems that he didn't completely understand the orders given to him.

"Captain, what's going on? Are we going to help Thor find a job?" The young agent asked aggressively.

"No, let him figure it out. Also, we are ordered to reduce our monitoring of Thor in the future. It seems that they feel that this alien guest is not so important for the time being." Hearing the voice of his men, the Captain answered.

"Relax surveillance of Thor. Isn't he an 0-8-4 for SHIELD? He belongs to the first-class security breach. Are we just going to relax our surveillance?!" When the Agent heard his Captain's orders, he couldn't believe it for some time.

Speaking of which, it was also the young agent's first exposure to SHIELD's internal level of events. Although it was only a monitoring mission of a seemingly ordinary human being, Thor is indeed an alien visitor, and his importance to SHIELD and Earth is self-evident. Therefore, the young agent has been working very hard since the day he received this mission. However, he did not expect to get the order to relax the surveillance of Thor from the top, which indicates that he is likely to call out a first-level incident, which he does not understand.

"Well, Yeah. The psychological and behavioral departments above have analyzed it and they have declared that Thor is actually not a threat to Earth for the time being. Although he is still 0-8-4 and the First Contact Event but compared to other first-level events, the level of danger he poses to Earth is not even comparable to an ordinary incident." Knowing that his subordinates did not understand the situation, the Captain explained patiently.

“So, the Bosses above have finally decided to relax the monitoring of Thor and it’s not like we are completely removing ourselves, as long as we can confirm his situation from time to time then it would be good. Moreover, he is also in contact with Jackson Lin and because of Jackson’s relation with Mr. Stark, he knows a lot about us and the general situations. Therefore, the decision to reduce monitoring was made.”

“Really? ... But I don’t think we should just relax our grip on an Alien like this, and he is not in the scope of those in the 51st area.” Hearing the Captain’s explanation, the young agent went on.

“Thor, of course, does not belong to District 51. We are only reducing the monitoring of him. He still belongs to our jurisdiction. Moreover, during the battle with Hydra, SHIELD lost a lot of internal agents. The battle against Hydra is not going to stop anytime soon. Yesterday, we found a large Hydra base. If it weren’t for Mr. Stark’s Iron Man army, we would have suffered another huge loss this time.”

“So, it’s up to us to deal with the current number one enemy, Hydra. This is also a Level-1 event. Didn’t you always want to be on a front-line mission?” Looking at the young agent in front of him, the captain said quietly.

“Tuning us to deal with Hydra? Great! I always wanted to go to the Front Lines!” After hearing the Captain’s words, the young agent became excited again.

“Well, that’s it. So let’s clean up and leave today. As for here, we will send other lower-level teams to take over.” Seeing that there wasn’t any problem, the Captain ordered to others around him.

“Yes!”

The young agent was satisfied, but the Captain and the other experienced old agents in the team did not have his excitement. Monitoring Thor was a very simple and safe thing. Although it was a bit boring, they can be completely patient with their professional qualities.

But now, they are being transferred to join the fighting team against Hydra. That was a team that has a lot of casualties all the time. Although they would not be afraid but no one would want to do a dangerous mission if they could so a relaxed job.

However, these are their orders and they will accept it and fulfill it with the best of their abilities. Moreover, Hydra is the enemy for all of them and it is not something that can be evaded.

So, the secret service team, who had been following Thor since he came to the earth, withdrew in the first week after Thor arrived in New York. Of course, Thor doesn’t even know anything, but it will be more convenient for Lin Rui and Thor to get along with each other in the future.
