Chapter 341 Crossfire

Huh ~

McCann Town, an ordinary town far from New York City, has a population of only about 100,000 people. Except for an intercity highway passing a few miles away from the town, this town is just as common as other towns in the United States far from major cities.

And in the middle of this small town, there is a large-scale factory. Many people in the town work in this factory. The canned products made in the factory seem to be sold to big cities, so the treatment of workers is very good. Recently, however, this factory has allowed all workers to take vacations, and the entire factory has been closed.

Pū!

“Haha! Jerry! Pass it to me!”

Da da!

“Give me! Give me!”

In a vacant lot in front of the closed factory gate, several teenagers were playing football. The town is not big enough to build a big football field, and the only high school football field, which is a little smaller, is still occupied by seniors. So the younger children had to play in the open space. It also happened that this factory was recently closed, otherwise, they wouldn't be allowed to play here.

Whew!

“Haha! Into the!”

With a shout of excitement, a teenage boy kicked a football into the simple frame of a door they had made of barbed wire.

Hum!!!!

While the boy and his group of friends were cheering happily, a buzz came from high above the town, like a plane flying overhead. But the town was so remote that they would not have noticed a plane flying over it.

But when the children looked up curiously, everyone's eyes widened.

‘Plane!

“Ah! That's a plane!”

“That's ... Fighter Jets!!”

Shouts of surprise came out of the children's mouths. At last, the boy named Jerry seemed a little more mature. Of course, if Jerry had been any better, he might have been able to tell that the planes were SHIELD Quinjet.

Hum ~

As the children looked up at the fighters, the ones that had been flying high were descending rapidly, and in about ten seconds they had dived below 1,000 miles.

“The plane ... The plane is heading for us!!” Seeing the approaching planes in the sky, Jerry suddenly reacted and shouted.

“Ah! Run!”

“Ahha! Mother!”

At the sight of the fighter jet coming straight down, the children screamed and ran towards their home, leaving their usual baby’s football to the side.

Hula ~

Soon all the children who had been playing in the clearing were gone. And the big noise in the sky has attracted the attention of the residents of the small town, almost everyone went out of their homes to look into the sky.

But as residents wondered why fighter jets were falling toward the town, a group of government forces appeared out of nowhere, rushed in and took over the town in minutes.

Then everyone in the town was ordered to stay at home. It was a secret government operation.

After the group had cordoned off the town, two of the best teams from the group headed for the factory where the children had been playing, as if that was their goal.

Kaka!

While the two ground troops were quietly advancing towards the factory, there was a sudden sound of mechanical activation in the factory that had been shut down. Then, many stones and iron plates moved quickly on the outer wall of the factory, and the hidden muzzle of the weapon was quickly exposed. A lot of weapons and fortifications have also quietly popped up in the open space where the children were playing. This factory located in an ordinary town turned out to be an armed base with a high level of technology!

After the factory was transformed into an armed base, the Quinjets in the sky had already arrived. Without any hesitation, dozens of missiles have been fired from under each Quinjet and there was the factory below!

Boom! Bang!

Faced with attacks from mid-air, the armed factory gave its strongest counterattack, and the exposed muzzles fired their own attacks. All at once, dozens of different attacks were launched from the ground into the air, targeting the incoming missiles and the Quinjet behind them.

Rumble!

Bang! Bang!

An explosion was first generated in mid-air, and several missiles were shot at self-destruct in mid-air without escaping the barrage. More of the missiles missed a volley of fire from the ground and pounced downward, while behind the missiles, Quinjet had already made an evasive maneuver, not letting the ground counterattack hurt them.

Howls whew!

Rumble!

Less than two seconds after the missile self-destructed in mid-air, the rest of the missiles had reached their target in a massive explosion in and around the center of the plant. The force of the explosion made the town feel like it was in the midst of a small earthquake, and the factory in the center of it was reduced to a blaze of rubble. In a round of dozens of missiles, the above-ground arms factory was completely disabled and destroyed.

Howls!

Bang!

Shout!

After destroying the factory, two more missiles rushed in from mid-air, and as they did not stop, they soon exploded in the center of the fire. However, the effect of these two missiles is completely different from the previous ones. These are two frozen bombs. The chill from the explosion of the cryogenics quickly extinguished the flames in the factory, and the air cooled from the extreme heat with a squeaking sound.

Soon, under the effect of freezing bombs, the factory that had been ruined had no flames. At this time, the two elite teams who had been around come to this ruin cautiously.

Click ~ Click ~

Standard military boots clattered on the frozen debris, and two teams armed to the teeth scoured the debris.

Shout!

“Report! We have found an underground entrance!” Soon, a soldier suddenly raised his hand and shouted.

Brush!

Da da da!

The soldier had just finished reporting and had not yet observed the underground entrance as the entrance to the underground, which had been closed, suddenly opened, and a dark muzzle of the gun appeared, a volley of shots were fired at the soldiers who were still standing at the entrance.

“Look out!” The Squad Captain shouted as he saw the soldier being swept upside down by a volley of bullets.

Da da da!

After sweeping away the soldier who was standing at the entrance, the muzzle moved quickly around the entrance and began firing indiscriminately, while the two teams quickly sought cover and prepared to fight back. At that moment, a figure suddenly darted forward from the outside, swooping like an eagle at the flaming entrance.

“Look-out”

Chapter 342 The First Battle Together

Brush!

Before the Squad Captain had finished his sentence, a sharp purple light burst from the figure that had rushed toward the underground entrance, and in an instant shot down into the entrance below.

Card!

Rumble!

There was a small sound followed by a jolt of the collapsed ground and the purple light blew the entrance right out of the way. As for the machine guns that had stood guard at the entrance, it was obviously extinguished.

Brush!

Then, before the smoke had dispersed, the figure attacking with purple light had burst into the collapsed entrance in a flash, and soon disappeared in front of the two teams.

“That’s ... who?!” Watching the sudden appearance of the figure who slammed into the entrance and rushed in, the two SHIELD team members were a little stunned.

“It’s Mirage Knight. I just sent this information above including to the League of Defender. Looking at the man’s dress and the purple light, it should be Mirage Knight.” A Captain took a deep breath after looking at the tablet in his hand and said.

“Mirage Knight? Yes, we seem to be teaming up with the League of Defender now.” Hearing Captain’s words, the rest of the team reacted.

Like the Avengers currently being formed within SHIELD, the people in the League of Defenders are individuals with very strong individual strength. Like the purple light just now, it should be Mirage Knight’s signature blade skill.

“Let’s go, let’s go in too! The situation below is not very clear, and Mirage Knight cannot deal with it alone!” After knowing who the rushed person was, the Captain quickly ordered.

“Yes!” The two team members have been integrated and ready to go.

However, just as these elite SHIELD troops were heading towards the collapsed entrance, the sound of the engine came again from behind them, and a Quinjet passed by their location at a low altitude.

Brush!

They haven't looked back but two figures have quickly fallen from the air and their target is also the underground entrance surrounded by SHIELD troops.

Call!

Pū!

One of the red figures rushed directly into the entrance and disappeared, while the blue figure fell beside the entrance.

"Captain Rogers!" The Captains of both teams shouted excitedly at the familiar figure falling from midair.

The person wearing the blue Captain America hero suit is Steve Rogers. How can Captain America be absent when dealing with Hydra?

"Well, Mirage Knight and Spiderman have just gone down, and I'm going to go with them. You just stay behind. Be safe." Glancing at the elite SHIELD agents in front of him, Captain Rogers simply ordered. It turned out that the man who had fallen from the sky with Rogers was Spiderman.

"Yes!"

Call!

Then, Captain Rogers jumped in the underground entrance. After Captain Rogers entered, no unexpected people appeared again, and the elite team of SHIELD followed their order.

Brush!

Kakaka!

In the dim underground passages, a blur of a purple blade with a figure darted forward in a corridor full of automated mechanical weapons. These Hydra base self-defense weapons are no longer useful against the current Lin Rui and they could be destroyed with a single sword attack. As a result, Lin Rui is like an unstoppable shadow, racing deep into the Hydra stronghold.

After receiving the news from Hydra last night, Lin Rui has been unable to suppress his emotions. If SHIELD didn't need some time to arrange their personals, Lin Rui would have already rushed here by himself at the night. However, one night also allowed SHIELD and League of Defenders to come up with better plans.

For example, after receiving the email from Lin Rui, Coulson sent the most elite agents overnight to verify whether his information is true or not. After the information was finally confirmed to be true, today it was more than a single strike against Hydra's stronghold.

In addition to this Hydra stronghold, Prof. Charles discovered that the Hydra members were divided into three other small strongholds. SHIELD is attacking the three strongholds simultaneously.

Of course, Lin Rui is only one person and he can only choose one target. Unfortunately, this town's Hydra stronghold was selected by him. Therefore, Mirage Knight and Spiderman of the League of Defender and Captain Rogers of SHIELD are here to deal with this Hydra stronghold.

As for the other two Hydra strongholds, SHIELD's Hawkeye and Black Widow partnered with Daredevil are responsible for one, and Falcon and Deadpool and Iceman are responsible for the remaining one. In this way, there are three very strong people in each stronghold to act as vanguard to deal with Hydra. This kind of action arrangement was also arranged by Director Fury himself and it was also the first time the League of Defender and Avengers really joined forces against the common enemy.

Brush!

"Mirage Knight, I'm a hundred meters behind to your right." After Lin Rui slashed open the iron door in front of him, Spiderman's voice came from the headset he was carrying.

Although Peter rushed into the underground entrance within a few seconds behind Lin Rui, he was still some distance away from Lin Rui. However, Spiderman does not necessarily have to act with Mirage Knight. With Spiderman and Mirage Knight's individual strength, they can give Hydra a bigger blow. Therefore, Peter just informed Lin Rui of his position, and if something unexpected happened on one side, the other would be ready to provide support.

"Well, I see. You clear the way in your direction. I would be going deeper on my side." Simply sensing the situation behind the iron gate he had just split open, Lin Rui lowered his voice to respond to Peter.

"I see. Be careful."

"Got it, be careful."

Card ~

After a simple conversation with Peter, Lin Rui had already flashed into the iron door that had been split open in front of him.

When Mirage Knight, Spiderman, and Captain America divided into three directions and traversed one block after another in the Hydra underground stronghold, the Hydra members were located in the deepest part of this stronghold. And they gathered together to discuss countermeasures.

"It's Mirage Knight! Spiderman! And Captain America! We can't handle them!" A Hydra member shouting worriedly watching the unstoppable figures on the monitor.

Recently a level 1 base of Hydra in New Jersey was destroyed, and the garrison of these small strongholds has quietly scaled back its operations carefully. But SHIELD found them anyway. With the defenses of this stronghold, it was impossible to withstand the full force of the SHIELD, especially with Mirage Knight, Spiderman, and Captain America.

"There is no turning back for us! Send out all the experiment soldiers and war machines, and use all the weapons against them! We will take them out even if we die! Long live Hydra!" In this desperate situation, the leader of the stronghold shouted with cold eyes.

"Long live Hydra!"

“Long live Hydra!

Boom!

With a punch on the command computer screen, the small leader of this stronghold has issued the final mission. All of the base’s experiments soldiers and war machines were deployed, and their target was Mirage Knight!

Chapter 343 Kills

Call!

In the dim underground base passage, some of the weapons systems that had blocked the way ahead appear to have been removed in the dark tunnels of the underground base, or perhaps Lin Rui has broken into a deeper place that looks like a normal underground base. On either side of the passage were small rooms with closed doors, like iron cans.

Dada ~

At this time, Lin Rui had slowed down as he sensed movement coming from the front and back of the tunnel as if someone were approaching. However, Lin Rui is not afraid. He is here to kill.

Sigh ~~ card!

However, just as Lin Rui stopped in the middle of the passage to wait for the front and back people to appear, the closed doors on his left and right sides suddenly cracked a gap, and then quickly opened.

“Ooooooooo!!”

“Rii! Roar!”

After the iron cans room opened, there was a weird roar from inside, but it was not the sound of any beast Lin Rui knew.

“Huh?!” On hearing the roar of the beast coming from the rooms on either side, surprise flashed into Lin Rui’s eyes.

Lin Rui had not sensed any lifeform in these iron can room at all, so it seems that these roaring creatures were either asleep in the deep sleep or these iron canisters had the effect of blocking Lin Rui’s detection. However, whatever Lin Rui’s failure to sense the situation in these rooms, the threat is now here.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Brush!

After a roar of inexplicable beasts, a violent impact sounded from the fast-opening iron door, just like the beast inside was hitting the door. Soon, the door that had been cracked opened completely and a beast with blood-red eyes rushed out of the iron can.

“Crocodile? Or hybrids? Mutations?” Lin Rui was even more surprised after seeing the beasts rushing out of the room.

From their appearance, these few beasts that had rushed out to surround Lin Rui are the closest to the crocodile in appearance, but their limbs are obviously much longer than that of a crocodile, and the scales on their body are also thicker, and the structure of their mouth is also very different. At least, Lin Rui knew that the crocodile would not roar in that way.

Now, a dozen crocodile-like beasts, rushing out of the three rooms, were closing in on Lin Rui from three directions, slowly closing in on him with half-opened jaws.

Hydra has been doing experiments on Mutants and normal people all these years, so how can they let go of animals that are more easily available and easier to control? These crocodile variants are a result of Hydra's biological transformation. Of course, it was unsuccessful. Although the attack power of these variant crocodiles is very strong, it is still useless in the face of modern weapons. Unless their size and defense can be improved several times.

Therefore, these modified beasts can only be used as the lowest experimental materials of Hydra, which is much cheaper than the mature soldiers. However, faced with a mortal situation, the person in charge of this stronghold has no other way and he could only release them.

"Roar!"

Call!

It doesn't matter how these beasts were transformed as they have rushed towards Lin Rui. After their limbs were strengthened, the crocodile's mobility was greatly enhanced, and it was immediately in front of Lin Rui. However, the speed and attacks that are deadly for ordinary people are nothing in front of Lin Rui.

Brush!

He simply made a circle around himself with his Thunder blade and without even glancing at the beasts in front of him, Lin Rui walked towards the front.

Pū Pū Pū!

After Lin Rui left the spot, the half-dozen or so animals that were flying in the air slowly began to break and then they split directly into two parts, landing on the ground with a splash of crimson blood that filled half the passage.

Brush brush!

Lin Rui, who was moving forward quickly, did not stop, and the Thunder Blade in his hand waved towards the already opened room on both sides. Before long, the mutant beast that had continued to pounce on Lin Rui had died a horrible death in its own cage. To take on Lin Rui with something that doesn't even count as cannon fodder is just not practical.

Boom!

"Sure enough, these beasts have no way to delay Mirage Knight even for a little bit. However, the next soldiers should have some effect! After all, we have equipped them with the most advanced weapons in the base." Hiding deep in the base, the Hydra members at the core location said bitterly after seeing the scene displayed on the monitor. It would have been good if those beasts could cause some damage to this Mirage Knight before they died.

Da da da!

“Am I finally here? These should be the soldiers who only listen to orders.” After killing all the beasts, Lin Rui finally saw the soldiers who rushed in front.

In the face of these heavily armed soldiers, Lin Rui was not nervous at all. At the larger base of Hydra in New Jersey, Lin Rui did not know how many of these soldiers he had killed and they would pose no threat to him. Although Lin Rui wouldn't become careless, he didn't believe that such a small base would have elite teams like Alpha Team. Moreover, even if the Alpha team was here, Lin Rui is now fully capable of killing them and they have no power to fight back.

“It seems that there are no particularly important people in this base, so I don't have to watch your performance anymore.” Surrounded by soldiers, Lin Rui simply looked at their equipment and shakes his head and mutters.

Brush!

Then, Lin Rui has disappeared from the place he was standing at in the blink of an eye and appeared in front of the soldiers who had rushed forward and stood at the end of the aisle. Standing steadily at the end of the aisle with the Thunder blade in his hand pointing diagonally at the ground.

Pū Pū Pū!

Just as Lin Rui was standing there, the team of soldiers behind him suddenly exploded with blood everywhere and then fell to the ground one by one, they were instantly killed.

“Kill!” Their teammates were wiped out with a single strike in front of them but it did not scare the remaining soldiers. They continued to roar and stepped on the blood and the bodies of their fallen soldiers and rushed towards Lin Rui.

Call!

Facing the rushing soldiers, Lin Rui just raised the Thunder Blade and then slashed it vertically into the tunnel.

Buzz!

As the Thunder Blade slashed, a purple light rushed out of the blade and in a blink of an eye, it had swelled to the size of the entire channel. In this way, this ray of light completely enveloped all the soldiers still in the passage.

Rumble!

The next second, there was a violent explosion in the entire passageway. If the Hydra base was not strong enough, Lin Rui's move might have caused the base to collapse.

“So, it’s time to take care of the rats below.” After slashing his blade, he didn’t look at the situation behind him again. Lin Rui looked down at the ground and whispered in a low voice.

Brush!

The next moment, Lin Rui’s figure disappeared again from his location and his figure also disappeared from the monitors in the room.

Chapter 344 Co-operation

Boom!

Rumble ~

Ten minutes later, the SHIELD team stationed outside the ruins of the factory felt a violent shock from the depths of the underground. Then, the ground quickly cracked, and the entire Hydra stronghold seemed to collapse completely.

“Back! Go Back!” Detecting that the structure of the area had begun to crumble, the leader of the group stationed outside shouted.

It seems that the Hydra in this base has turned on their self-destruct system, knowing that it is hopeless to escape. SHIELD Soldiers doesn’t know what kind of bastards are there in the Hydra, each of there base has installed a large number of bombs to carry out the Self-destruction process. Of course, it’s also possible that Lin Rui was having too much fun down there that caused the base to collapse. But that’s probably not the case as he knew that Spiderman, Rogers, and SHIELD were on the base.

Huh!

In fact, no one needs a reminder as the soldiers in the center of the earthquake has begun to retreat in an orderly and rapid manner. When these vibrations became more and more intense, a figure rushed out from the previous underground entrance. No, not one person, but several people. The elite SHIELD who went in to sweep the Hydra base was withdrawing in a hurry.

Rumble ~

Under such violent shaking of the entire underground structure, the two elite teams were also running back like ordinary people. Looking at the number of people who were rushing out, they seemed to be unable to withdraw completely before this entrance collapsed completely.

“Quick! Quick!” The other SHIELD responders who have retreated to a safe position are very nervous as they watched the elite troops fleeing. It is difficult to accept the loss of one of these SHIELD elites.

Rumble ~

Just after most of the two teams that had entered the underground rushed out, there was another violent explosion in the underground and the entire structure completely collapsed and the entrance in the center of the ruin quickly collapsed inward and it was about to be completely covered up. However, several people did not escape at this time, including Spiderman, Captain America and Mirage Knight who had rushed in first.

“No!”

Shout!

As the team outside looked at the completely collapsed ruins in front of them, a red figure suddenly rushed out of the crack in the ground, holding two people in his hand. It was Spiderman. When the entire underground base collapsed completely, Spiderman found a way out of the gap with his strong strength and brought out two people who had no time to escape.

Huh!

Pū Pū!

After Spiderman rushed out with the two people, two more figures flew out of the ruins and then fell heavily on the ground in the distance, it looked like they were thrown out by someone. These two people are the two remaining people who haven't had time to escape, and after these two people "flew" out, a blue figure jumped out of the ruins and finally landed steadily on the ground, it was Captain Rogers.

In this way, when the base completely collapsed, Spiderman and Captain America rescued several people who should have been buried. However, now that the base has been completely destroyed, Mirage Knight has not come out.

“Spiderman, why hasn't Mirage Knight come out yet? Did something happen?” Standing next to the ruins, Rogers walked towards Spiderman and asked with some worry.

Although Captain Rogers knows that Mirage Knight is very strong, the following explosion was also very strong. It would have been very dangerous even for him if he was at the centermost position.

“He should be okay, this guy will not do things that he is not sure of. And, he did remind us that this base is going to self-destruct, then he must have a way out.” Peter already knows that Lin Rui has some secrets and he is also very confident about his strength, so he is not as worried as Captain Rogers.

“Well, I hope Mirage Knight is all right. However, we didn't encounter much resistance this time around, just some basic automatic weapon interception. According to the intelligence, there must have been quite a few armed forces in the base.” Hearing Spiderman's words, Captain Rogers is less worried and talks to Spiderman about the operation.

“I think they all went towards Mirage Knight. After all, even if this small base has armed forces, there is no way for them to deal with the three of us. So, I think they must have arranged all of their armed forces against Mirage Knight.” Hearing Captain Rogers's words, Peter thought for a moment and said.

Because Lin Rui did not pay any attention to the obstacles he encountered, he did not tell them about them, which left them wondering why they did not meet any decent obstacles. However, Lin Rui reminds them at the last minute that the base was about to self-destruct, so he must have entered the deepest place.

“That must have been the case. Hydra is really an organization that must be completely eliminated. The technology in this small base is already so high. I really don't know what they have developed in so many years.” Looking at the ruins in front of him, Captain Rogers could not help but say.

“No matter how strong Hydra is, they will be eliminated in the end.” Hearing the emotions in Captain Rogers’s tone, Peter said seriously.

Rumble!

Brush!

Just as Captain Rogers and Spiderman stood beside the ruins and looked at the collapsing base in front of them, another violent explosion came out of the ground. Then, a purple light with a length of four or five meters and a width of more than half a meter emerged from the underground ruins, instantly splitting the thick stones into a huge crack. Then, as the crack was about to be buried again by the stone next to it, a black figure quickly flew up from the inside.

Call!

With his feet in midair, Mirage Knight, seemingly unscathed, slowly fell toward Spiderman and Captain Rogers. Sure enough, the threat of an explosion at this level is not much danger for Lin Rui at this point.

Pū Pū!

“Mirage Knight, I knew you would be fine!” Peter patted Lin Rui’s shoulder twice and spoke happily.

“Well, when I reached the bottom, they had activated the self-destruction system, which made me worried. Were there any casualties on SHIELD?” Nodding towards Peter and Captain Rogers, Lin Rui asked quietly.

“Several people were slightly injured, but nothing major happened.” Captain Rogers replied from the side.

“Hoo! What about the other two teams?” Lin Rui asked slightly after taking a breath. Just now, in order to break through more than ten meters of thick rocks, Lin Rui had consumed a lot of internal energy.

Now that he has finally started a deadly fight with Hydra, Lin Rui is now fully focused on his progress against Hydra. He had just solved this small base of Hydra but the mainline quest to eliminate Hydra in Lin Rui’s mind has only increased by less than one percent. Lin Rui has his own judgment about the slow completion rate, which means that the hidden strength of Hydra is stronger than before.

“They’re not finished yet, but they should be soon.” Hearing Lin Rui’s question, Captain Rogers simply replies.

The three teams had attacked the Hydra bases at the same time but Lin Rui was the first to complete this mission.

Dī Dī!

Just after Captain Rogers finished speaking, a communicator in his hand rang. Picking it up and glancing at it, Rogers smiled.

“The other two teams have also finished with their mission! Mirage Knight, glad to work with you this time!”

“Yeah, Happy cooperation!”

Chapter 345 The Fourth

Rumble! ~~

Two weeks later, in the middle of an unknown street in Texas, there was an explosion in a tall building. To the amazement of the crowd outside, the Windows on the top floors of the tall building were all shattered in an instant, and large pieces of broken glass fell down. Flames streamed from the broken windows, and it looked as if something had exploded.

“Ah! Call the police!”

“Fire!”

“That’s the Renault Industries!!”

Seeing the accident in that building, the people below shouted in a hurry. Many people have taken out their mobile phones and started calling the police, while others have discovered that the place where the accident occurred belongs to a local industry called Renault.

Huh ~

However, just as these witnesses were preparing to call the police or rescue, a group of obviously trained government teams came and soon surrounded the building.

At the same time, there were special people who were responsible for the evacuation of the somewhat frightened people, and they were soon evacuated away from the dangerous place. Although there was some surprise as to why the police came so quickly, the isolated people were also pleased that the police responded so quickly.

However, the quarantined people did not leave too far. They stood outside the cordon-off area and looked up to see what was going on. Some people took out their phones to take pictures. The police did little to deter these people, seeming alright with their behavior.

Boom!

Just as the team began to enter the building, another loud noise suddenly came from the sky, accompanied by the screams of onlookers outside.

In the eyes of those outsiders who were watching the situation upstairs, a figure suddenly flew out of the broken window. Just when the crowd thought the man would fall down, the figure remained suspended in midair in violation of the laws of physics. The sharp-eyed man seemed to recognize the figure suspended in the air, but could not be sure for a moment.

“Who is that!? Superman?!”

“Wow! He is flying in the air!”

Seeing that the figure rushing out of the window violated the physical rules and floated in the sky, the people below began to shout one after another.

However, unlike the excitement of the crowd, the troops at the scene did not have a surprised expression after seeing the figure in the sky. It seems that they all knew who it was.

Huh! Boom!

Just as the crowd below took photos with their mobile phone, another situation appeared again on the high building, and suddenly fire rushed out of the window and rushed towards the figure suspended in the sky.

“Oh!”

“Be careful!”

“What is that?!”

Seeing the flames rushing out of the building, the crowd shouted in shock. Although they didn’t know who the man floating in the sky was, they instinctively hoped he wouldn’t be in trouble.

However, their worries were obviously superfluous. Facing the fire rushing towards him, the figure just raised a weapon in his hand and waved it forward. At the next moment, a dazzling purple light appeared instantly in the sky.

The people staring intently at the sky only felt that their vision getting filled with purple light, and their eyes were unable to adapt to the light and tears appeared in their eyes and they were forced to close them. When they opened their eyes again, the purple light had disappeared. However, the people who were shouting were stunned and silence regained for some time.

In the tall building, the previous flame had disappeared, and the figure was still suspended outside of the building. However, there was now a huge crack in the upper floor of the building, which had only broken windows before, spanning the distance between the upper and lower four floors. It seemed that it was split by some weapon.

“What was that ...?”

“Just now, what is that purple light?”

Watching the sudden changes in the situation, the crowd was stunned. However, some of these people seem to have remembered something, and their eyes are getting brighter and brighter.

“That’s Mirage Knight! It’s really Mirage Knight! I didn’t expect Mirage Knight to come here! The guardian from New York!” Finally, in a whisper of inquiry, an exclamation of excitement answered other people’s questions.

“Mirage Knight? Who is that?”

“Mirage Knight? Is he really?”

After the man shouted, some of the people around continued to look dumbfounded and asked but some people seemed to think of something as. Soon, under the introduction of some people, everyone knows who the person suspended in the sky is: He is a Vigilante from New York, Mirage Knight!

It's no wonder that some people don't know Mirage Knight. After all, Lin Rui's previous activities have always been in New York, and at most include some nearby places. And Texas is really far away from New York, and it is normal that no one here knows him.

After confirming that the person in front of the tall building was Mirage Knight, many people who took the video quickly uploaded the video to the League of Defender's website. If the number of clicks and likes is enough, their fan status will be upgraded. Yes, and the upgrade of fans has many advantages.

Since Sky's Eye joined the League of Defender, the management of each Vigilante's fans website has also become more standardized, including fans. Fans who reach a certain level will have the opportunity to get the mysterious gift from the League of Defender members, which is a huge temptation for fans. After all, who doesn't want to be closer to their idols, especially the Vigilantes who protect the city.

Lin Rui didn't know and wouldn't care about the shock of the people on the ground. The joint attack with SHIELD on this Hydra latent base in Texas was not particularly successful. Lin Rui had been attacked just now. A Mutant who was about to reach the fourth level evaded Lin Rui's perception and then attacked him.

Fortunately, Lin Rui responded quickly and his defense was strong enough to remain unharmed. But the floor was not so lucky, the windows and some walls of the whole floor were shattered by the Mutant attack.

So, after avoiding one of the attacks that followed, Lin Rui directly killed the guy who attacked him. Although he didn't need to exert so much power, Lin Rui's hatred for Hydra made him fail to pay attention to his strength, so he almost split the whole building.

Under Lin Rui's attack, the entire Renault company was gone, that is, the base of Hydra was gone. Although there weren't many people in it, the SHIELD team working with Lin Rui was shocked.

"The Fourth Base, Hydra, how much longer can you hide?" Lin Rui flew into the building again from the outside and he glanced silently at the ruins of the building.

Chapter 346 Hopeless Situation

Huh ~

When Lin Rui returned to the building with a cold face and scanned the ruins in front of him, the SHIELD team in charge of this operation with Mirage Knight hurried over. The Mutant on this floor was just for ambushing Lin Rui, and there are also many Hydra members on the other floors, but SHIELD quickly solved the situation without any problems.

"Mirage Knight, are you okay? I'm sorry for the intelligence error!" Hurrying up to Lin Rui, a middle-aged soldier in charge of SHIELD's team said to Lin Rui apologetically.

Today's operation was supposed to be very tight, and although the Renault company used by Hydra to disguise is in the heart of the city and still in the public eye, SHIELD is perfectly capable of surrounding them before proceeding.

However, Hydra was clearly prepared. Although their preparations were hurried, presumably until the SHIELD had completed its encirclement, it was enough for them to target Mirage Knight. It is a good thing that Mirage Knight is strong enough, otherwise, something might really go wrong. After all, Mirage Knight is the only powerful character in today's mission.

"That's all right. It's highly likely that the guy just got here today." Waving his hands, Mirage Knight said calmly. Lin Rui doesn't mind SHIELD's mistake and that Mutant didn't do him any harm anyway.

"Thank you. Thank you for your help today Mirage Knight. Otherwise, if this Mutant attacked us all of a sudden, I don't know how many casualties we would have suffered." Taking a glance at this miserable situation, the person in charge said seriously.

Although SHIELD will not underestimate any of Hydra's bases, after all, they have limited manpower and pieces of equipment. It is impossible for everyone to be equipped with enough power to block the powerful attack from a nearly Level 3 Mutant. However, with Mirage Knight in place, the powerful Mutant couldn't even fight back. This shows how powerful Mirage Knight is.

In fact, SHIELD has never canceled the investigation on Mirage Knight, and now Mirage Knight has changed dramatically compared to when he first appeared. The most obvious is the strength of Mirage Knight, who at first appeared only as a solution to New York street gangs. But now, just over half a year later, Mirage Knight has enough strength to deal with a Level 3 Mutant with ease.

Professionals within SHIELD have analyzed Mirage Knight. They all agreed that Mirage Knight did not hide his strength at the beginning, but he continuously improved during the past six months. However, his speed of improvement is indeed scary enough.

"Okay, there shouldn't be any threats here. I'll go back first." Once again, he solved a secret base of Hydra, which for Lin Rui only completed a small part of the quest.

The person in charge of the SHIELD team obviously also knows Mirage Knight's character, so he wasn't surprised, "Well, we will do the rest, and will not let go of any Hydra member."

Shout!

After that, Lin Rui had once again reached the edge of the building that he had split open. He took out the Hoverboard from the space of Phantom Suit and threw it out, Lin Rui also jumped upon it in the next second. Then, Lin Rui flew off the scene at high speed in front of countless people on the ground.

As for the videos taken by the people on the ground, SHIELD will not care about it. Anyway, everyone knows about Hydra. After completing their mission, it does not matter if these unrelated people know about it or not.

In this way, Lin Rui drove the Hoverboard after completing his quest. Of course, Lin Rui will not fly back to New York on a Hoverboard. He is not that stupid. Although the Hoverboard's power is enough, its speed is not comparable to the Iron Man Armor or an aircraft. Lin Rui flew to SHIELD's base in this city and then took a Quinjet back to New York.

Today, in addition to Lin Rui being here, the same thing happened in a city in Kansas, led by Captain Rogers. In the past week, with the cooperation of SHIELD and League of Defender, their speed of destroying Hydra is getting faster and faster.

Fury has his suspicions about the information Mirage Knight keeps coming up with, but as long as it's correct, he doesn't care where it came from. Also, Fury has always wanted to get along with the X-Men, but SHIELD's stance has been constrained by the community's perception of Mutants. Now with League of defenders in the middle as a mediator, Fury thinks it's good too.

Therefore, under the full investigation of Professor Charles, members of Hydra were constantly found. In the following days, more and more Hydra bases were discovered, and then they were wiped out by the League of Defender and SHIELD.

In the process of constantly eliminating Hydra, the completion of the Mainline Quest in Lin Rui's mind is also slowly rising. Two weeks later, Lin Rui's Mainline Quest has reached 70% completion, leaving only the last 30%. Although this 30% must be the most powerful part of Hydra, Lin Rui will not stop until he finishes this Quest.

With the help of SHIELD teaming up with League of Defender and X-Men, Hydra, who kept hiding and retreating, was finally unable to bear it. In addition to hiding more secretly, the remaining Hydra executives are also thinking about how to deal with the situation at this time. If this continues, Hydra, which survived World War II, maybe shot to death within a few months.

Boom!

A loud noise suddenly came from a conference room in an underground base of Hydra in a suburb of a remote city in the western United States, as if someone has smashed something.

Call!

"Damn the SHIELD! Damn League of defenders! The key is the Mirage Knight who should have died long ago!" General Reese, who had just smashed a chair, sat down angrily on the sofa.

Hydra has had a tough time recently, although the SHIELD and Hydra have been in a passive situation after the discovery but there was still room for maneuver. But now, Hydra really is like a snake which has lost its hole and is about to be killed.

Seeing General Reese's dark, dripping face, General Jeffery who was also in the room did not speak. Had Jeffery not given Lin Rui a chance to escape after catching him last time, perhaps Mirage Knight would have been used to their advantage. Worst of all, Mirage Knight should have died that day.

Therefore, although Jeffery has control of many new Winter Soldiers, he still keeps a low profile in such meetings, hoping that no one will point the finger at himself.

"We have to fight back! If we go on like this, there will be no place for us on the earth!" After General Reese sat on the sofa angry, a middle-aged man sitting opposite him looked serious and spoke.

"We know that! But, can you come up with any decent plan of action?" General Reese asked indifferently when he heard the man opposite to him speak.

Although Hydra's forces have been attacked so much, they are also strong enough. If they really counterattacked, SHIELD would be in a very dangerous situation. However, Hydra cannot move that desperately as it would also sign their death certificate. What they have to do is dominate the earth in the future.

"This ..." Seeing General Reese's question, the middle-aged man wanted to say something but he suddenly stopped.

Card ~

What stopped the middle-aged man was the noise from the conference room door as if someone was coming in. However, no one should join their meeting at this time, the people at the top of Hydra are here. So, all the people in the conference room turned their attention to the door, waiting for the people coming in.

Call ~

Under the gaze of several people, the thick metal door opened completely, and then a dark red leather boot stepped in first.

Chapter 347 Red Skull

Da ~ Da ~

The crimson leather boots stepped on the smooth floor and made a clear sound of footsteps. The master of the leather boots walked in while the Hydra high-level meeting was in progress. This figure had reached the center of the meeting room with a few steps. At this time, General Reese and others had already seen who this sudden intruder was.

"Red! ~ ... Commander Red Skull!" After seeing the man standing in the center of the meeting room, the High Ranking members of Hydra suddenly stuttered and cried out cautiously as he spoke a famous name.

Red Skull! He and Captain America Steve are the real power leaders of Hydra and SHIELD in the past era, but they did not expect him to live until now. And, he appeared when Hydra was forced to this point.

Although the people in this conference room are already the High-level members of Hydra, not everyone has seen Hydra's final boss Red Skull who has been hidden for sixty years. However, Red Skull's appearance is too sharp, and his dark, blood-red head looks extraordinarily infiltrated by the dark coat.

Since Red Skull is hardly known to be alive within Hydra, so even SHIELD, who has always been against Hydra, has no news of Red Skull. And now, Red Skull, who should continue to remain in the dark has appeared in front of everyone, so it means that Hydra will make a big move.

"Commander Red Skull!" After the initial shock, General Reese quickly got up from the sofa and shouted before walking towards the Red Skull.

"Sir Red Skull!" The other Hydra executives in the conference room also reacted and shouted quickly as Reese moved.

Faced with the collective greeting and bowed heads of Hydra seniors, Red Skull standing in the center of the meeting room did not respond and he just stood there quietly and one could barely see his eyes rolling silently in the blood-red eye sockets. He seems to be looking at the people around him.

Huh ~

In such a quiet and weird atmosphere, Reese and others dare not show any disrespect and everyone kept their stooped posture.

Squeak ~

Finally, when Reese and others could hardly bear such great psychological pressure, Red Skull, who was standing still, finally moved, and the leather boots creaked on the ground. Then, the Red Skull took the most central position of the entire conference room.

Call ~

After Red Skull sat down, General Reese and others were relieved and then they raised their heads one by one to look at Red Skull but their faces were still very serious.

"I suppose you know by now how serious the situation is. Sixty years, Hydra has developed in this world for sixty years and remained hidden. You had so many resources in your hands, and now in just a few months, we have been reduced to this. Do you have anything to say for yourselves?" Red Skull said flatly as his eyes looked at the men standing in the conference room.

Faced with Red Skull's question, General Reese and others looked at each other and in the end, no one dared to step forward and explain the situation to Red Skull. Is SHIELD too strong? This is not a reason at all. Before Hydra was exposed, they had a chance to destroy SHIELD.

However, since the discovery of the Hydra lurking in the SHIELD, the Hydra seems to have been on a bad streak. Originally, after SHIELD cleared the hidden Hydra, it should have taken some time to stabilize itself and recover. Hydra could have also used this time to transfer most of their personnels or make corresponding plans.

However, Director Fury of SHIELD now knows that the World and SHIELD will have countless troubles if Hydra remained alive. Therefore, Fury would rather sacrifice some more of SHIELD's resources and personals to destroy Hydra and not give them any chance to move in this World again.

And General Reese was ready to make the last pass on SHIELD or X-Men before moving on to hide the entire organization from the World for a few years. However, in the end, Lin Rui was found out. The capture of the Mirage Knight really disturbed the subsequent plan of Hydra, the capture of Mirage Knight and Tom's capture let the hatred between Lin Rui and the Hydra rose to the peak.

Then, League of Defender teamed up with X-Men and SHIELD to deal with Hydra, which made Hydra, who was already in a weak position, falls to an even weaker one, and now they have retreated to a remote place in the United States. Therefore, faced with Red Skull's question, no one dared to speak out.

"No? I didn't think you have anything to say. So, Jeffery." Glancing at less than ten senior Hydra executives in front of me, Red Skull continued and finally spoke Jeffery's name.

“Sir Red Skull! What are your orders for me?” Jeffery’s heart almost burst out of his chest when he heard Red Skull calling his name, but he still stepped forward and responded.

“No orders, but I want to give you a gift.” Red Skull said lightly, looking at Jeffery in front of him.

When he heard Red Skull say he was going to give him a gift, Jeffery didn’t show a happy expression on his face but became more nervous, and there was a trace of despair in his eyes.

“Sir Red Skull, I ...”

Boom!

Jeffery looked up at the scary Red Skull in front of him nervously and wanted to say something, but a bullet welcomed his raised head. After a shot, Jeffery, who was holding Hydra’s new Winter Soldier resource, died.

Thump ~

Jeffery, whose head was blown apart had fallen to the ground in the next second. Several people standing behind Jeffery had been splashed with red blood and brain plasma. However, no one showed a dissatisfied or shocked expression. It seems that it was not a person who died in front of them, but a mosquito or cockroach.

Call ~

After shooting Jeffery’s head, Red Skull blew his muzzle. Killing Jeffery at random means that Red Skull must know about the incident about Mirage Knight not long ago, and the damage caused by Jeffery’s mistakes. So, it means that Red Skull must also know Lin Rui’s true identity.

“Now, I can talk about the next mission.” Putting the pistol away, Red Skull glanced at the people in front of him and said.

“Yes! Sir Red Skull!”

No one expected Red Skull to appear in this room because neither SHIELD nor Lin Rui knew he was still alive. Even Steve Rogers, who has been injected with the Super Soldier Serum would be able to outlive any ordinary person but he wouldn’t be as strong as the Red Skull is in his 90’s.

Therefore, when SHIELD is taking advantage of the momentum to completely wipe out Hydra, a counterattack from Hydra is coming. By then, no one can predict who this Viper will bite and how much damage it will cause. However, it will be a hard fight.

Chapter 348 Ordinary

It has been more than two weeks since the League of Defender and SHIELD teamed up against Hydra. Since these two weeks, with the support of Professor Charles and X-Men, Hydra has suffered heavy losses, and Lin Rui’s mainline quest has risen to 77% completion.

And after more than two weeks of frequent attacks, Lin Rui was already tired. It just happened that the list given by Professor Charles last time has been solved so Lin Rui also just took a short break. On this day, Lin Rui was ready to visit Thor after leaving the place where his Dad worked.

After arranging for Thor to volunteer, Lin Rui finally finds him a job caring for stray dogs. This is also what Lin Rui feels can train Thor's mind and it would at least cultivate Thor's love and compassion. So, half an hour later, Lin Rui drove his jeep to a stray dog ??shelter in New York.

Woof! Woof! Woof! ~~

Oh! Oh ~~

As soon as he parked his jeep, Lin Rui heard a dog barking from the stray dog ??shelter. Looking at the welcome adoption sign placed at the door of the stray dog ??base, Lin Rui smiled and stepped inside.

"Hey! Big guy! You were asked to take Buddy to take a shower, not to let you fight him with water!"

Woof! Woof!

"But, Buddy likes it!"

After registering at the front desk, Lin Rui walked into the room with a small sign from the shelter and heard Thor's voice. However, Thor seems to be being trained. This made Lin Rui curious. How is the great prince of Asgard being so good-tempered? So, with curiosity, Lin Rui didn't go in immediately, but leaned against the door and quietly looked inside.

"It's really impossible to understand you. You still have to clean the trash for the No. 1 cage." In the room, the senior volunteer said helplessly when he heard Thor's words.

Hearing that he was scheduled to clean the cage again, Thor, who was holding Buddy, felt helpless, but he still put Buddy back and turned to leave. However, just as he turned around, he saw the man standing by the door and smiled.

"Hey! Jackson! When did you come?!" Not having seen Lin Rui for more than two weeks. Thor is very happy that Lin Rui came to see him at this time.

With a shout of joy, Thor had strode towards Lin Rui in stride, his arms stretched out obviously to give him a big hug.

After seeing Thor's movements, Lin Rui instinctively wanted to avoid it. In addition to being unaccustomed to the warm greeting from Thor, he also had a lot of water from the bath of the pug named Buddy. Still, for Thor's sake who has been working for two weeks, Lin Rui didn't shy away.

Bang!

"Haha, you got a lot stronger again!" Thor hugged Lin Rui and said after laughing.

"Of course, I've been working out." Lin Rui replied with a smile after separating from Thor.

Seeing Thor's current state, Lin Rui has determined that Thor is very comfortable with the work here. At least, it looked like Thor likes dogs, otherwise, he won't take Buddy to take a bath.

“Ben, my friend is here. Can I clean the cage later?” Now that Lin Rui is here, Thor, of course, wants to talk to his friend, so he turns back to Ben.

“Well ...” Ben thought that Lin Rui was here to adopt a stray dog, but since he was Thor’s friend, Ben wouldn’t let Thor rest.

“It’s okay, I can clean the cage with you. Anyway, I came here today to see your working environment.” However, before anyone could speak, Lin Rui waved his hand and said.

Although Lin Rui’s family has never raised any small animals, it is because Lin Rui’s mother Mary is allergic to animal hair. Lin Rui still likes small animals, especially dogs.

“Then come with me.” Thor had planned to take a break, but if Lin Rui said that he didn’t want to then he certainly wouldn’t think about taking a break.

Thor then brings Lin Rui to a cage behind the shelter. Because there aren’t many volunteers and there are many stray dogs, the cages get dirty quickly, and Thor has cleaned them twice in the past two weeks.

Holding the tool Thor handed to himself, Lin Rui watched as Thor skillfully cleaned the cage. If Loki knows that his proud older brother, Thor, is now on earth with a tool cleaning the dog’s cage, I wonder what his face would look like.

“Thor, how’s your work for the past two weeks? I think you’re getting used to it pretty well.” As she cleans the cage, Lin Rui chats with Thor.

Rustle ~

“Work ... It’s okay but because there are not many volunteers, the work is a bit tiring. And you know, I haven’t done this kind of thing before, I have to learn many things from the beginning. If there wasn’t a real shortage of people here, I don’t think that they would have wanted my help.” Upon hearing Lin Rui’s words, Thor kept moving and answered calmly.

“Really? I must admit, I didn’t really think that you would get used to the work here so quickly. You really surprised me.” Looking at Thor, Lin Rui continued.

Originally, Lin Rui thought that he would see a complaining Thor today, and at least see Thor’s various impatient looks. But no, Thor is taking care of the dogs and cleaning the cage like a normal responsible person. Lin Rui is surprised that the transformation of the Asgard’s Prince has been completed so quickly.

“What can I do if I don’t adapt? I’m on the earth now, I don’t know when I would be able to return to Asgard, I might never be able to. I now have a salary of five thousand a month and I just need to do small things, why would I be unsatisfied?” Lin Rui’s surprise seems to be apparent and Thor’s hand moves a little slowly as he replies.

Speaking of that, Thor was really unhappy when he started working here. After all, Thor still has the pride of being the Prince of Asgard. However, after messing up a lot of things in the first week, Thor gradually cleared his position and slowly accepted his current life.

“Um? This attitude ... seems a bit wrong!” Lin Rui frowned slightly when he heard Thor’s words.

Lin Rui should be happy that Thor had adapted to the life on earth, but if he completely forgets who he is because he is too adapted to the life of the earth, when will Thor be able to raise Mj?Inir to regain his power? Looking at Thor's current state, he really seems to have a plan to live a stable life on earth!

"That's not going to work!" Lin Rui, who thought of this, suddenly shouted as he must not turn Thor into an ordinary person on earth.

"What?" Thor looked up and asked curiously when he saw Lin Rui shouting.

Chapter 349 Speaking Half Truth

For Thor, life on the earth has slowly been on track. Although Asgard is still at war, if Loki and Odin are there, Thor will not be too worried. So, even though Thor still wanted to regain his powers, he wasn't as eager as he was at the beginning. This kind of thing needs to happen naturally.

However, if Thor really wants to do this, he may no longer be able to pick up Mj?Inir and return to Asgard. After all, if a person's will is weakened, how can he achieve such demanding things. Therefore, even if Loki did not threaten Lin Rui, Lin Rui would not allow this to happen.

Therefore, Lin Rui, who was always very calm began to shout when he sensed the change in Thor's attitude. What Lin Rui needs is a powerful Thor as a partner and friend, not a Thor who hangs out on earth to die!

"Because ... you are Thor of Asgard! You are not an ordinary earth man! And ... haven't you always wanted to pick up your hammer and regain your powers?" Looking at Thor's incompetent appearance, Lin Rui reminded him loudly.

Seeing Lin Rui's expression and attitude, Thor scratched his head. Since Thor knew Lin Rui, he hadn't seen Lin Rui behave like this. 'At some point, I seem to have upset Jackson'. Thor silently thought.

"Well, Jackson, I don't need you to remind me who I am. But why do you care so much? After all, it doesn't seem to matter to you whether I'm a regular guy or Thor of Asgard?" After staring at the agitated Lin Rui for a long time, Thor's eyes suddenly flickered. Thor seems to have detected something from Lin Rui's attitude.

"Of course I don't care! It's not because of ..." Lin Rui was ready to answer without thinking about Thor's words, but his words came to a halt. Looking at Lin Rui's expression, he seemed to suddenly remember what happened before shutting up.

"Why? What? Jackson, what were you going to say?!" Thor clearly saw something hidden in Lin Rui's expression and he threw away the cleaning tool in his hand and asked Lin Rui in front of him.

Although Thor has a tendency to let himself go on earth, he is not a fool. From some of the subtle expressions on Lin Rui's face, it is clear that his friend must have something to hide. So, not wanting to be kept in the dark, Thor asks Lin Rui earnestly while holding his shoulders with both arms.

Lin Rui, whose arms were held by Thor, did not look at Thor's eyes, as if evading something. However, Lin Rui's performance was more suspicious to Thor, so he increased his strength. If it had been before, Lin Rui had already gotten rid of Thor, and this was something Thor knew too.

"It's Loki! Alright! It's your younger brother, Loki!" Lin Rui seemed to be unable to bear the persecution of Thor any more and replied suddenly.

Call ~

After answering Thor's question, Lin Rui also broke free of Thor's arms. With Lin Rui's strength, it was a small matter to free himself of Thor's grip.

Upon hearing Lin Rui's words, Thor's eyes flashed, "Loki? What did he do?"

The name of Loki emerging from Lin Rui's mouth makes Thor very concerned. Thor does not want Loki to do anything bad to his friends on the earth. Jane has already broken up with him and Thor doesn't want anything to happen to Lin Rui.

"Do you remember the last time when Loki came to the earth to find you? And then he turned up at Miss Foster's house and said something and left?" Lin Rui finally looked up at Thor and then asked in a low voice.

"I remember, Loki didn't say anything that day, he just came to earth to humiliate me," Thor replied after hearing Lin Rui's words.

"Oh, do you think so? Did you know that Loki secretly told me to meet him outside at Miss Foster's house? Then Loki told me something about you, about Miss Foster." Lin Rui's expression looked like he had already accepted his destiny as he looked at Thor in front of him and spoke lightly.

"What did he tell you later?" Thor asked seriously after hearing Lin Rui say that Loki had specifically asked him for something.

"Loki told me that he came to earth this time to see the miserable situation of your exile. But seeing that you not only have friends but also have a beautiful girlfriend, your life wasn't as bad as he had hoped which made him angry. So, he said something to Miss Foster that caused her to break up with you later." Lin Rui said calmly as he looked at Thor.

Boom!

After Lin Rui finished speaking, Thor punched the cage next to him and broke it. Although Thor had already expected Loki to be the reason for his break up, he was still very angry when he heard the confirmation from Lin Rui.

"What else?" Thor asked while gritting his teeth.

"And Loki told me to look after you, not giving you a chance to pick up your hammer again. He wanted you to stay on earth forever." Finally, Lin Rui delivered the answer he had prepared in a flash. Lin Rui's words, combined with the sense of relief in his face as he uttered the biggest secret of all, made it impossible to know that he was lying.

"What?!"

Kakaka!

“Loki!” There was no doubt in Thor’s heart that Lin Rui was telling the truth and not a false story. He shouted Loki’s name angrily and broke another cage.

“Loki told me that if I didn’t prevent you from picking up the hammer and to regain your powers, as he said, he would ...” Lin Rui didn’t say anything later, but Thor was already able to guess that Loki was definitely threatening Lin Rui.

Huh ~

After taking two deep breaths, Thor then suddenly thought of something, “You said that Loki asked you to stop me from picking up the hammer to gain back my powers, so why are you helping me now? Shouldn’t you be happy now that I am like this?

“Because you are my friend! You are also the Prince of Asgard, Thor! Even if I am threatened by Loki, I will not let you stay so like this! So, I want to help you pick up the hammer and become a new Thor who would be different from the old you. And, only if you regain your power, I can get rid of the threat of Loki! “Lin Rui has also thought about Thor’s question and answered seriously.

Lin Rui felt that he must have reached the pinnacle of his acting skills at this moment. At least he could get an Oscar award or something. He was moved by his own acting. So, of course, Thor was also moved.

“Jackson! You are really my good friend! I’m sorry, I didn’t know that before!” Thor said guilty after hearing Lin Rui’s words.

“It doesn’t matter, as long as you don’t give up, as long as you work hard to pick up the hammer and regain your powers, It will not be in vain.”

“I will definitely do it! Jackson, you can rest assured that I will work hard to pick up the hammer, I will not let Loki threaten you again!”

“Well, I believe you!” Lin Rui looked at Thor with sincere encouragement.

Then the two men cleaned the cage again. However, Thor’s spirit is different now. To say that Thor used to be a step-by-step ordinary person before then now he has a positive attitude. This is the Thor Lin Rui wants, and the Thor he and the world needs.

Call ~

“Fortunately, I responded quickly and my acting skills were good, otherwise, Thor would really have become a normal person if he lived so safely.” Looking at Thor who was cleaning the cage carefully in front of him, Lin Rui felt a little afraid as he thought of a Marvel World without Thor in it.

Chapter 350 Crisis

Half an hour later, Lin Rui came out of the stray dog ??shelter with calm expressions on his face and Thor followed beside him. However, compared to Lin Rui’s calmness, Thor’s face still had an angry expression, apparently, he was still angry by what Lin Rui had just said.

Lin Rui was thankful that he came here today, otherwise, Thor’s changes would be unclear to him, and he wouldn’t have been able to fool Thor in time to arouse his anger at Loki. Now, Thor wants to reclaim his powers even if he simply wants to teach Loki. Lin Rui didn't care what Thor was aiming for, as long as he finally picked up the hammer.

"Don't worry, Jackson, I'll pick up the hammer and regain my strength. When that happens, I'll help you teach Loki a lesson!" Standing at the gate of the shelter, Thor patted Lin Rui on the shoulder and spoke seriously.

"Well, Thor, I believe you! Also, I'll always help you. I don't know what your father Odin wants for you, but if you're good enough, I'm sure you'll be able to pick up your hammer again!" Lin Rui looked at Thor with sincere eyes and said firmly.

"Haha! Rest assured! I'm Thor, there's nothing that would be hard for me!" Thor assured Lin Rui when he heard his words. Compared with Thor's pride and complacency when he came to earth, when Thor said this, it made people feel that he was really planning to work hard.

"Yes! You are Thor! Well, since you are working well here, then I will go back first." Finally, Lin Rui planned to leave.

"Well, if you want to adopt a dog, you can come here."

"Oh, I will."

Card!

Huh ~

Then Lin Rui drove his jeep away from the stray dog ??shelter where Thor worked. After not seeing Thor in the rearview mirror, the calm expressions on Lin Rui's face broke and he couldn't help but breathe out in relief.

"It's exhausting to keep that expression and proper eye contact at all times! But anyway, I was able to trick Thor and this was enough to convince him that Loki was at fault. Not to mention that Loki was really at fault about his break-up." Remembering that he had been acting in front of Thor, Lin Rui still felt that the situation was a little dangerous and now he relaxed.

"Hehe ... haha ??..." However, after relaxing, Lin Rui slowly smiled.

It seems that Lin Rui is very happy to have thrown Loki under the bus, especially since Thor must hate Loki now. This is something that Lin Rui likes very much. Who told Loki to threaten Lin Rui with his strength.

"It's been a long time since I was so happy!" Lin Rui smiled while driving his Jeep.

Indeed, Lin Rui has been very stressed in the past two weeks. Lin Rui has not missed the action against Hydra once, and he has been on the front line every time. In addition to frequent encounters with Hydra, Lin Rui is still constantly searching for missing Tom, but there have been many Hydra bases destroyed in the past two weeks, but there is no trace of Tom. Lin Rui is also getting increasingly anxious. His talk with Thor can be considered a mood adjustment.

Buzz ~

As Lin Rui was driving while thinking of somethings, the phone in his pocket suddenly vibrated. He took out the phone and looked at it. It is Tony. Slowing down, Lin Rui finally pulls over to pick up the phone.

“Jackson! Hydra is targetting your parents!” As soon as the phone was connected, Tony’s voice was heard over there. However, Lin Rui paid more attention to what he said than by Tony’s nervous tone.

“What? Where are my parents now? How’s the situation?” Lin Rui’s eyes suddenly turned sharp when he heard Tony’s words, and asked anxiously.

“JARVIS’s signal was cut off, but I dispatched the Iron Man who was closest to them as soon as possible. And, before the signal was cut off, my secret bodyguards had made contact with them.” Knowing Lin Rui is anxious now, Tony answered quickly.

Bang!

“Signal cut off?! Damn it, Tony, send me my parents’ last location?!” Lin Rui thumped down the door fiercely after hearing Tony’s answer and then growled.

Lin Rui has been very careful about the safety of his parents since he was accidentally caught by Hydra last time. In addition to spending a lot of Reward points to exchange the Advanced Guardian Amulets for his parents and setting up a defensive magic structure at home, he usually let JARVIS help monitor the situation of his parents around the clock.

Moreover, Tony also knows the danger to his family when Lin Rui’s identity is revealed, so he secretly sent out some professionals to protect Lin Rui’s parents. After three weeks of Hydra’s absence, both Lin Rui and Tony relaxed, thinking that, under the combined attack of SHIELD and League of Defenders, Hydra had no energy to pursue Lin Rui for trouble.

When Lin Rui finally relaxed, Hydra targeted his parents. Moreover, this time, Hydra was clearly prepared and JARVIS monitoring was cut off from the beginning. This is not a simple matter. Although Lin Rui’s parents had Guardians Amulets and there were secret protections arranged by Tony, Lin Rui did not feel so relieved at this moment.

“Your mother is ... your father is ...”

Pū!

After hearing the position of his parents, Lin Rui rushed out of the Jeep without thinking and plunged it into the side road. The next second, Mirage Knight rushed out of the alley on a Hoverboard.

Of the two positions that Tony has just named, Lin Rui’s father Lin Hai is a little closer to him. Although Lin Rui would love to get to his parents at the same time, this is obviously impossible. Therefore, Lin Rui can only choose the position of his father Lin Hai who is closer to him. As for his mother Mary, Lin Rui hopes that Tony’s Iron Man Armors can reach her faster, on the other hand, he also contacted Robert to ask him and Blink for help, and he also asked Sky’s Eye to arrange others from League of Defender to go there in time.

“Quick! Faster!” On the Hoverboard, Lin Rui has already made the Hoverboard go at the fastest speed but he’s still too slow in his opinions.

At this time, Lin Rui was very envious Blink's ability to teleport as well as the Sorcerer's ability to create space door. They are all people who can quickly open the space door and instantly reach another place from one place. Although they are not with Lin Rui now, Lin Rui will not forget to contact them for help. Even if his identity is exposed, Lin Rui will not hesitate.

Dī Dī!

X Academy, Iceman is talking to Shadowcat about the recent changes in X-Men and then his mobile phone suddenly rang. Looking at the electricity display, Iceman's mouth curled up slightly.

"Well? Who is it?" Shadowcat asked curiously as Iceman's expression changed.

"It's the Mirage Knight. He has just finished a couple of missions and I don't know what he wants from me." Picking up the phone and showing it to Shadowcat, Iceman replied with a smile.

Then, Iceman answered the phone. However, when Lin Rui's anxious voice came from the phone, Iceman's face changed instantly.

Call!

"Hurry! Go find Blink! Mirage Knight is in trouble!" Hanging up Lin Rui's phone, Iceman pulled Shadowcat with him and rushed out, shouting while rushing towards his intended location.

While looking for Blink to support Lin Rui on the Iceman side, in another direction in New York, Rick who was practicing in New York Sanctum, also received a call from Lin Rui. A minute later, Rick and David disappeared in a golden gate.
