Chapter 421 Rushes

Drip~Drip~Drip~

Pū~Pū~

On the endless snowfield, a figure is holding a black disc in his hand and walking in a fixed direction, one foot at a time. Every time the figure steps out, he creates a pit of about half a meter on the snow. This figure is Lin Rui. After knowing his position, Lin Rui decided not to contact Tony for the time being.

Since Lin Rui is now in Siberia, he is going to take a look at the abandoned base of Hydra near here first. Since Bucky appeared, Lin Rui has been remembering the matter involving Tony and Rogers, and Lin Rui has always remembered the position of Hydra's abandoned base on the Siberia side.

If he can enter this base, Lin Rui will be able to solve what he has been worried about all this time.

So, even though Lin Rui had already exchanged a satellite phone directly from the System Shop, he did not contact Tony. Lin Rui knew that if he had contacted Tony, he would immediately send Iron Man over to rescue him and by then Lin Rui would not be able to go to the base secretly.

If this base was just another base of Hydra, Lin Rui would not hide it from Tony, but there is video evidence of Winter Soldier Bucky killing Tony's parents at that base, which is what Lin Rui does not want Tony to know. Bucky is still missing, but Lin Rui knows that Roger will find him someday soon.

If Tony knew about this, there would definitely be a big conflict between Tony and Rogers because of Bucky's previous missions and that is something Lin Rui didn't wanted to see.

However, if Lin Rui knew that many people in New York are worried about him now and many people think that he has died and are sad now. Lin Rui would definitely contact Tony to tell him that he is safe and he wouldn't care about this base. However, Lin Rui has no idea how worried Tony and his friends are.

Pū~

According to the display on the locator in his hand, Lin Rui walked towards the destination. Just after Lin Rui stepped on the snow again, he felt something different. Therefore, Lin Rui stopped and stepped hard again, Lin Rui made sure that there was something under his feet.

"It can't be..." This location is not too far from Lin Rui's previous position and Lin Rui's eyes flashed as he murmured when he thought that he wasn't sent alone.

Huh~huh~

Then Lin Rui started to dig in the snow. Although the snow here is very thick but it is very soft and Lin Rui was able to dig a hole without much effort. Then, Lin Rui had confirmed his previous guess. In this snow pit, Red Skull's body was lying stiffly inside.

Although he has got the exact news that Red Skull is dead from the System, Lin Rui still felt some emotion when he saw Red Skull's body lying in the snow pit. As the Hidden Boss in Hydra, he is a villain with a lot of weight in Marvel World. Now he is dead.

After confirming it with his own eyes, instead of looking at the complete body of the dead Red Skull, Lin Rui dug the snow around Red Skull's body again." Since Red Skull is here, Magic Cube is probably also near here."

Lin Rui also remembered that the Magic Cube was re-installed in a box when the Space Door had opened and then it also got transported with them. Therefore, as there are no whereabouts of the Magic Cube on Lin Rui's side, the chance of Magic Cube being on Red Skull side is very big.

Of course, it is also possible that the Magic Cube fell to another place during the transmission process. If that is the case then it would be very difficult for Lin Rui to find that cube.

"I need to remember these coordinates first, if I can't find it now, I will wait for Tony to bring the Iron Man Army here and I will search for it again. As long as the Magic Cube had fallen in this area, it would be found by them." From standing on the snow surface where Red Skull was buried, Lin Rui looked at the white snow all around him and frowned before speaking to himself.

Then, Lin Rui began a careful search centering on his current location. Lin Rui has a hunch that if he can get the Magic Cube, he will definitely complete another Hidden Quest of the System. Red Skull was not able to bear the power of The Space during the transmission process and Lin Rui completed a Hidden Quest on his death, so it is very possible that he would be able to complete another Hidden Quest after finding a bug-level item like Infinity Stone.

"However, I just don't know if I need to deliver the Space Infinity Stone to the System to complete the Hidden Quest. It is also possible that I would be able to complete the Hidden Quest after getting my hands on the Magic Cube. If the Magic Cube needs to be submitted to the System to complete the Hidden Quest, then the System would definitely give out some rewards but whatever rewards the System gives won't be similar to an Infinity Stone."

"Huhh! It's useless to think about it, for now, I'll need to find it first. Everything would be useless if I can't even find it, maybe the Magic Cube had fallen to some other place during the teleportation." Looking for the Magic Cube in the snow, Lin Rui has some thoughts on his mind.

In this way, Lin Rui spent more than an hour carefully searching the surrounding area. However, except for the body of Red Skull, there is no trace of the Magic Cube.

Call~

After putting away the instruments used to detect metal objects that he redeemed from the System Shop, Lin Rui has given up on finding the Magic Cube in this snow alone.

If Lin Rui's mental power was still ok then he would have been able to search in a larger area but his mental power and Insight Technique are not available to him and Lin Rui who simply depends on the instrument in his hand, does not know where to search.

Chapter 422 Violent Demolition

"It's time to go, I have wasted a lot of time already." Lin Rui murmured after confirming that he had recorded the location of Red Skull's body. He has been missing for more than a day from his estimate and Tony will be very worried if he delays any longer.

Brush!

Then, Lin Rui stepped on the snow and his figure turned into a shadow as he rushed toward the Hydra's Secret Base in Siberia. Lin Rui, who has recovered some part of his Internal Energy was able to completely ignore the extreme weather under the protection of the Phantom Suit and he quickly rushed towards his destination.

Lin Rui, who woke up from the snow, did not know that the entire New York and even the United States were discussing the sacrifice of a certain Vigilante because he wanted to take this opportunity to secretly rush to the ??Hydra Siberia Base.

And those who knew Mirage Knight are even more worried about him. As for Peter and Tony and some people who knew that Mirage Knight is Lin Rui are even more worried about whether Lin Rui is alive at this time.

Lin Rui's parents didn't know that their son had encountered such a dangerous situation. Lin Rui had been able to guarantee their safety with them before and they also had been told that Lin Rui was doing a secret experiment with Tony Stark.

Huh~

On Siberia's Snowfield, the cold wind blew continuously. On the vast snowfield, a black dot in a piece of white is moving fast, like a black ink drop on a white canvas. However, this drop of ink did not dissolve in the canvas, but left a slight trace behind him, and was soon covered by snow again.

This black dot is Lin Rui. After deciding to rush towards the Siberia's Hydra Secret Base, Lin Rui has been moving forward for two hours without stopping. With the time he spent in Recovery and the time he spent in finding Magic Cube after waking up, by this time, the sky has slowly darkened.

And if it weren't for Lin Rui's rich Reward Points that he had gotten and with the support of his Internal Energy, it really wouldn't have been easy for him to keep moving at such a fast pace.

"Huh~ I'm almost there! No wonder Hydra will build a secret base here. It's really a hidden location. I don't see any living people except some local animals along the way." The speed of the figure on the snow slowed down a little and Lin Rui thought about it silently as he looked at the location of the Hydra base displayed on the locator in his hand.

"At my speed, I should be able to reach it in half an hour. I need to get there as soon as I can and after erasing the evidence of Bucky killing Tony's parents that year, he would contact Tony. More than a day has passed since I have woken up and I hope that Tony and others wouldn't worry too much about me." Lin Rui accelerated his speed again and soon, his figure rushed towards the base.

Brush!

Half an hour later, Lin Rui has arrived at the location of the Hydra' Siberia Secret Base shown on the locator. Stopping in the snow, Lin Rui carefully confirmed the position shown on the lower locator. Finally, Lin Rui's gaze rested on a snowy mountain in front of him.

"Looks like Hydra's secret base is up in the snow. But while the location is there, where is the gate? Don't tell me that I had to blow the Snow Mountain away." Surveying the snow-capped mountains in front of him, Lin Rui has determined that the Hydra base is right there, but he has trouble getting in.

When Lin Rui helped SHIELD in clearing the Hydra lurking inside of it, JARVIS had secretly helped him in intercepting the information about the Hydra Siberia base. However, Lin Rui only remembered the location and he had no detailed base information. Therefore, now Lin Rui can only find a way to find the entrance.

"Forget it, I'll do it by myself. I have a lot of Reward Points now so I can always exchange something that can be used now." Looking at the snow mountain in front of him, Lin Rui ran towards it while thinking.

Therefore, when Lin Rui runs at the foot of the snowy mountain, he already has a Special Instrument in his hand, which was obviously exchanged from the System Shop just now. With the instrument shaped like a trumpet in his hand, Lin Rui began to run around the mountain.

The instrument in Lin Rui's hand emits a special wave that reflects the situation inside the snow mountain onto the display so that Lin Rui can know what the inside of the snow mountain is like.

Doing this, he can quickly find where the entrance is. In this way, Lin Rui took the instrument and ran around the foot of the snow mountain for more than half an hour.

Call~

Finally, after Lin Rui walked around for half an hour, the scene displayed on the display of the instrument in his hand changed. The stereotyped black scene was obviously a regular steel structure, and Lin Rui also slowed down after seeing the scene on the display.

"I finally found it and on time to, it's getting dark out here." Staring at the situation of the base inside the snow mountain shown on the display, Lin Rui thought while looking for the entrance.

"Here it is, the gate!" After another ten minutes, Lin Rui finally found a passage leading to the inside closest to the outer wall of the snowy mountain.

Pū~Pū~

Getting closer to the wall of the snow mountain, Lin Rui put her instrument close to the wall and finally decided that this was the entrance to the Hydra base. However, Because Lin Rui does not know how to open the Hydra base, even if found the door, he still had to open it violently.

However, compared to destroying the whole snow-capped mountain, now he just needs to open a door and Lin Rui has found it very simple. So, Lin Rui put away the instrument in his hand and directly pulled out the Thunder Blade.

Although the current output power of the Thunder Blade is a little lower for the current Lin Rui, but due to the lack of Rewards Points before today, he couldn't just buy a new and improved weapon from the system shop. After returning home, Lin Rui planned to use his Reward Point to get a better weapon.

Buzz~

Facing the gates to the Hydra base, Lin Rui slowly gathers his power with the Thunder Blade in his hand. Lin Rui is not attacking with his strongest attack because of his mental handicap, but his current attack should be enough to crack open the door.

Brush!

Chapter 423 The First Generation Part 1

Click Cha!

The stone wall used as a shield for the base gate was shattered by the Blade Light, revealing the thick alloy gate inside, and the Blade Light directly blasted onto the gate at the next moment.

Boom!

However, what surprised Lin Rui was that the Blade Light which was enough to split a concrete wall of a few meters thickness only created a small hole and there was no sign of splitting at all.

“What the hell! The Hydra base has such a strong gate defense?” Lin Rui was surprised and shouted as he looked at his powerful attack only creating a small hole on the Gate.

In fact, the Hydra gate would not be as massive as it would be if it were located elsewhere, such as in the United States but this is Siberia, and the external environment is too harsh for a normal gate to withstand the extreme conditions here.

Moreover, this base is inside the snow mountain, and the requirements of the entire structure are higher. Therefore, it is normal that Lin Rui wasn't able to open the door even if he did not exert his full strength.

After seeing the situation of his attack, Lin Rui realized that he had to attack at least ten times before he could open the door. However, Lin Rui obviously would not do this.

“Then, I can only do this...”

Brush!

After confirming the strength of this gate, Lin Rui directly exchanged a brand new Fire God Artillery from the System Shop. Lin Rui will not waste his internal energy and physical strength on a door. Since he has many Reward Points now, he certainly wants to use a more relaxed method.

“Let's see if you can withstand the attack of the Fire God Artillery!” Carrying the Fire God Artillery, Lin Rui aimed it at the front door and whispered proudly.

Buzz!

Boom!

After a little energy recharge, a dazzling white light exploded out from the Fire God Artillery's huge muzzle, which instantly blasted into the center of the alloy gate, just at the position where Lin Rui had just hacked it out.

Rumble~

Huh~

Pū~

The pit in the middle of the Hydra base's alloy gate slowly began to sink in under the onslaught of the Fire God Artillery.

And because this gate is connected to the foot of the snow mountain, after the gate was attacked, the snow mountain was also shaken and some snow blocks continued to fall from the mountain. However, it has not caused a large area to collapse, after all, this snow mountain is not very big.

Call!

After the first shot, the pit in the center of the alloy gate had been sunk more than half a meter deep, and there were cracks around it.

"One more shot!" Without giving Fire God Artillery too much cooling time, Lin Rui had already launched an attack again.

Boom!

Another harsh white light shined at the foot of this snowy mountain, which was particularly conspicuous on this snowfield that had slowly fallen into darkness. If anyone nearby saw this light, they would definitely lose their vision for a short time due to the sudden light.

Buzz!

Card! Boom! Rumble!

Finally, at the end of the second round of Fire God Artillery, the current alloy gate was finally completely penetrated. A large hole more than two meters in diameter appeared in the alloy door which was more than one meter thick, revealing the inside leading to the secret base of Hydra that has been gathering dust for many years.

"Finally got through!" A smile appeared on Lin Rui's face as he looked at the door that had been blasted open in front of him, and he put away the Fire God Artillery.

Brush!

Without hesitation, Lin Rui entered the secret base of Hydra, which has been closed for decades. Entering the hole in the gate made by the Fire God Artillery, Lin Rui looked at the darkness ahead of him.

He looked back at the darkening sky outside and walked inside the base. Generally speaking, such a large base should have an energy switch near the entrance.

After searching on the wall next to the gate, Lin Rui found the power switch for the base. After checking these old circuits, Lin Rui determined that they were not bad and they could still work. Then Lin Rui reached directly for the switches.

Card!

At the next moment, Lin Rui has manually turned on the power system of this base. As Lin Rui turned on the switch, a burst of electric current was transmitted from the bottom of the entire base and instantly spread across the entire base.

Buzz~

A few seconds later, Lin Rui's eyes suddenly lit up as the inside of the dark tunnel began to illuminate and lightning everything up for him to see.

"I don't know how powerful Hydra was at the time when they built this place but this is quite good and to think that there are several such bases in the world!" Under the illumination of the lights, Lin Rui saw the front area of the empty base and he could not help but sigh again.

Chapter 424 The First Generation Part 2

Da da da~

Subsequently, Lin Rui's monotonous and orderly footsteps echoed inside this secret base that had been sleeping for decades.

Although this base is large, Lin Rui had come here for a very purposeful purpose of looking for the video evidence of Bucky killing Tony's parents, so he walked directly towards the core of the base. There should be a central control system for the base in the core area and top-secret information and videos should also be stored there.

Dada~

While walking towards the center of the base, Lin Rui is also observing the situation inside the base. The more things he observed, the more Lin Rui felt that Hydra was powerful. It would be hard for even Tony to built such a huge base.

Moreover, because Hydra had many world-class technologies in its hands, the design and functions of this base were very advanced at the time, and it is perfectly okay even after decades of being built.

After seeing so many large bases of Hydra, Lin Rui thought about the base of his League of Defender that was too small and he could not help but think of an idea.

"Perhaps, I can use this as a Reserve Base for the League of Defender. Although the distance is a bit far away but it is sufficiently concealed, and with the help of Tony, the distance would not be a problem." Looking at the Infrastructure of this base, Lin Rui couldn't help but think of it.

If the League of Defender wants to grow then that small base in New York would no longer be suitable for them.

Not to mention that the space of the base is very small and the secrecy is not high. Lin Rui clearly knew that both SHIELD and X-Men knew where the League of Defender' base was and they just didn't do anything. And, the League of Defender is about people, not bases.

Although Lin Rui can also ask Tony to help build an advanced base exclusively for the League of Defender, there is already a ready-made one here. And there is still a lot of empty space in this base. Shield has not found this base in Siberia for so many years which means that this is indeed a very good base. So, he didn't have to bother Tony so much.

"Well, it's so decided. I will use this base as another secret base for the League of Defenders in the future. After I go back, I will discuss with Tony and ask him to help me to transform this place into a very good base for the League Of Defenders." The next moment, Lin Rui had made his decision.

Of course, if he takes this base as his own then he had to make sure that Hydra is completely eliminated. In the case where Red Skull is dead, Lin Rui is very confident about completing his Mainline Quest.

"Huh? Are these?" Lin Rui thought of taking the base of Hydra as his own and he walked around the base and looked around more carefully and he noticed something in the next room after turning a corner.

"Isn't it..." Looking at the locked room next to it, Lin Rui suddenly thought of something.

Card~

Then, Lin Rui pushed the door open and walked in without any obstruction. Lin Rui wanted to verify whether his guess was right or not. After entering this room, Lin Rui knew that his guess was right.

"Sure enough, the First Generation Winter Soldier, the Imperfect Soldiers are sealed here." Lin Rui whisper as he looked at the jars standing vertically in this room.

In this room, in front of Lin Rui, there are six jars, each with a part of the glass in the middle. People outside can see what is going on inside and Lin Rui can see Six Winter Soldiers through the glass. Since the base was sealed off, only this room with the frozen Winter Soldier has maintained it's basic power.

More than sixty years ago, Hydra experimented and created the Winter Soldiers to oppose the Super Soldier Serum and Captain America but their Winter Soldiers were imperfect and their Serum was noting like the Super Soldier Serum and their Experiment failed.

The strength of the Soldiers from the experiment was very powerful even though they were Imperfect Super Soldier, but they can not be controlled very well. This is why the Hydra froze these Winter Soldiers and put them in Cryosleep.

Hydra was thinking of releasing them when they find a stable way to control these Winter Soldiers in the future. And they have really succeeded in the present time but they are also almost destroyed.

Moreover, the original Hydra was almost wiped out, and the Winter Soldier plan was put on hold for decades. In these years, only one Winter Soldier such as Bucky was available inside Hydra, and now Bucky has also been out of the control of Hydra.

"I don't know what's going to happen to these people after being frozen for so many years." After looking at the Six Winter Soldiers frozen in a jar in sequence, Lin Rui was also thinking about how to deal with these people.

For these Winter Soldiers, the best result is of course to help them recover their own consciousness, making them, normal people, again, and letting them return to their somewhat normal life.

However, for these early Winter Soldiers who were caught by Hydra, or were originally members of Hydra, they no longer have relatives in this world. If he can't be sure of their Recovery Awareness then maybe it's good to let them remain in Cryosleep forever.

"Forget it, I will find a way to deal with these people in the future. Anyway, they can't get out of Cryosleep now. I still have to take care of Tom first." After checking these frozen Winter Soldiers, Lin Rui finally decided to temporarily put this problem behind him.

Card~

Half an hour later, Lin Rui arrives at the core control room of the HydraSiberia secret base. In the center of the control room is a large set of consoles. Beneath the consoles are a large supercomputer unit.

After all, even if Hydra's technology was ahead of the rest of the world, it would not be possible for it to make small computers. It was already good for them to have such a large computer unit.

Chapter 426 Can You Pick Me Up?

In the living area behind Tony's luxurious office on the top floor of the Stark Industries building, Tony had just fallen asleep for an hour. Knowing that Tony was very tired recently, Pepper did not come to disturb Tony and let him rest quietly.

While Tony was resting, JARVIS, who was looking for Mirage Knight's news on the Internet, suddenly received a notification that someone was calling Tony's private phone number via satellite phone. In order to not disturb Tony, JARVIS intercepted the call without letting it go to Tony's phone.

JARVIS intercepted the call, but instead of blocking it, it connected itself from the outside. After all, the caller has Tony's personal number, so he should know him. So JARVIS said hello, mimicking Tony's voice.

"Hello, this is Tony Stark." After the call was connected, the calm voice of JARVIS was transmitted through the satellite signal.

After JARVIS said hello, the person on the other side of the phone seemed to become silent but JARVIS could still hear the sound of breathing.

"Hi! Is this JARVIS?" However, three seconds later, a very familiar voice came from the phone in the living room. The person on the other side of the phone could see through JARVIS's disguised voice.

“Well, it’s me. JARVIS, I’m alive!” The person on the other end of the line seemed excited as he shouted loudly.

At the secret base of Hydra in Siberia, Lin Rui was holding a satellite phone and he is talking with JARVIS. Although Lin Rui felt strange when JARVIS pretended to be Tony at first as he thought that something had happened. However, JARVIS also explained that Tony was worried after he and Red Skull were transported together by the Magic Cube’s Space Door, everyone had thought that they were dead, and Tony was busy all day and is now resting.

“So they all thought I was dead, really... It’s a long story!” After hearing from JARVIS that Rogers thought he had died in Red Skull, Lin Rui made a funny face.

In fact, Lin Rui has transported with Red Skull without knowing that the Space Door exploded after they left. If Lin Rui saw the explosion of the Space Door, he would not wonder why they thought him dead.

“According to the analysis of the situation at that time, Mirage Knight’s chance of survival was very low and I have done calculations. However, I am also very happy to see that you are still alive.” After hearing Lin Rui’s words, JARVIS continued.

“Haha! Thank you, but do you really know what happiness means?” Lin Rui asked curiously after hearing JARVIS.

“Happy, I don’t know, but I know that this should be said at this time.” When Lin Rui asks this question, JARVIS answers after some thinking.

“Indeed, it is the correct thing to say. And, JARVIS, I’m sure you’ll learn what it feels like to be happy someday, and I hope to see the day when you’re really happy.” Knowing that JARVIS has not evolved to this extent, Lin Rui replies with a smile.

“Thank you, Mirage Knight. Do you need me to wake up Mr. Stark now? He asked me to notify him as soon as I have any news related to you before taking a break.” After a few words with Lin Rui, JARVIS asked.

Originally, JARVIS should have informed Tony as soon as it was confirmed that he was Lin Rui. After all, those were Tony’s orders. However, as the core of JARVIS evolved and its thinking process evolved, he decided that if Jackson was okay then maybe Tony should rest more.

“Well... if Tony is tired then you don’t need to wake him up. I know he must have been very worried about me during this time. However, JARVIS, can you send out one Iron Man Armor to pick me up? I am quite far away from New York and I cannot go back alone.” Lin Rui was stunned when he heard JARVIS, and then he did not let JARVIS wake Tony up. Then Lin Rui asked JARVIS to pick him up.

“No problem. Just sent me your specific location, and I will send out the Iron Man to pick you up now.” JARVIS responded quickly after hearing Lin Rui’s words.

“Well, I’m...” Lin Rui then reported his position to JARVIS.

“Okay, there is already an Iron Man leaving and it will be arriving in about half an hour. Jackson, is there anything else I can do to help?” After getting the exact location of Lin Rui, JARVIS has dispatched the Iron Man. Then, JARVIS asked very humanely.

“Of course, JARVIS. I need you to inform Professor Charles, League of Defender, and Captain Rogers that I am still alive. Also, please help me strengthen the signal of this satellite, I want to call home.” There are so many people who think that he had died and Lin Rui will certainly not let that thinking process continue.

“If you want an enhanced signal, I can connect you directly to Stark’s dedicated satellite, which will make the signal much better.” Upon hearing Lin Rui’s request, JARVIS calmly replied.

“Stark’s dedicated satellite? Yeah, do that.” After hearing JARVIS say this method so calmly, Lin Rui also cursed the Stark’s family business in his heart, how rich and influential they must be own their own dedicated satellite.

Then Lin Rui heard a rush of electric current from the satellite phone. In about a few seconds, those sounds disappeared.

“The transfer has been completed. If Mirage Knight has nothing else to do, you can call your family. By the way, if you want to call your family then remember that Tony had told your parents that you were doing a secret experiment so you can’t contact them.” Knowing that Lin Rui had experienced such a thing and he would definitely think of contacting his family, JARVIS said very understandingly.

“This is the right thing to do, and Mr. Mirage Knight, I have located your position, and you can contact me at any time.”

“Well, I will contact you later.” Lin Rui agreed and then he hanged up the phone. JARVIS has already located Lin Rui’s position through Stark’s satellite and Lin Rui is no longer separated from the outside world.

“I’d better call my parents first. I’ve been away before but now they know what I’m doing could be dangerous and they won’t think twice about it.” After finishing his call with JARVIS, Lin Rui started to call his father Lin Hai.

Chapter 427 Come Back

When Lin Rui notified JARVIS and began to contact his parents, Peter, who lives not far from Lin Rui’s home in Queens, New York, had not rested. Peter has been looking for Lin Rui for the past two days, but with limited resources, he has to depend upon Tony and Harry.

Today Peter went out again to see Thor. Thor saw the report on TV and was sensitive to the fact that it was Lin Rui, so he contacted Peter after being unable to contact Lin Rui. After Thor reveals that he knows Lin Rui’s hidden identity, Peter went to see Thor himself.

In Thor's apartment, Peter talked to him a lot. About Mirage Knight, about League of Defender, Peter finally told Thor that Lin Rui was engulfed and disappeared by Magic Cube's Space Gate. After hearing about the Magic Cube, Thor suddenly became serious.

At first, Peter was not prepared to tell Thor about Infinity Stone, but Thor knew from Peter's description that the Magic Cube was definitely the Infinity Stone, which Odin had originally collected and put in Asgard Vault. As for how the Magic Cube came to be on Earth, Thor doesn't really know.

Thor learns that Lin Rui has disappeared with the Magic Cube, but he tells Peter that Lin Rui is probably not dead yet. Thor, the Crown Prince of Asgard, often teleports around with Bifrost. Even if the Bifrost was destroyed, Thor would only be transported somewhere else without being able to reach his intended destination.

However, Thor has forgotten that he had been the God of Thunder and that his powers would have protected him from the collapse of the tunnel. But Lin Rui is not a god, he may not be able to withstand the hazards of teleportation.

Of course, Peter didn't know much about it. Hearing Thor's words, he became more certain that Lin Rui would not die. Therefore, after returning from Thor's apartment, Peter went to school normally for a rare time. When he got home in the evening, he also contacted Tony and Harry, but they still had no news of Lin Rui.

Dī Dī~

Seeing the e-mail that popped up, Peter's eyes suddenly lighted up, "Is there any news on Jackson!?"

Kaka!

With a thrill of excitement, Peter quickly opened the mail. When he opened the mail and saw what was in it, Peter almost jumped off the table, unable to contain his hesitating excitement.

"Mr. Peter Parker, I have just received a message from Mirage Knight, Mr. Jackson Lin. He is okay now and I have already sent out an Iron Man to rescue him. Please rest assured that he is fine." This is the content of this email from Tony, obviously, JARVIS has sent it.

"Haha! Jackson! I knew you wouldn't just die like this! Hahaha!" After carefully reading this email several times, which was indeed from Tony Stark's personal account, Peter could no longer suppress a laugh. Fortunately, Aunt May has to work overtime these two days, otherwise, he would have frightened Aunt May.

"No, I am going to Mr. Stark! I need to see for myself that Jackson is okay!" After calming down, Peter suddenly decided to go to the Stark Industries.

Brush!

Then, with great vigor, Peter closed his computer, shut the door, and stormed out of the house. A few seconds later, a familiar figure zoomed across the building toward the Stark Industries building.

When Peter received an email from JARVIS and rushed toward the Stark Industries building, other people related to Mirage Knight also received the news from JARVIS. Just a few minutes after Lin Rui contacted JARVIS, with the exception of Tony who was still resting, Captain Rogers of SHIELD, Professor Charles of X-Men, and everyone in the League of Defender already knew the news of Mirage Knight's safety.

So, when Tony woke up because he had been worried about Lin Rui for a long time, he realized that something had happened in the time he was asleep.

"Sir, I have found Jackson. He is safe and I have sent out an Iron Man to rescue him." After Tony woke up, the voice of JARVIS came in time.

"Um!? Found him!? Where is he?" Tony sitting on the bed heard JARVIS's voice and he immediately woke up and asked worriedly.

"Mr. Jackson is now in Siberia, and Iron Man is almost here."

"Iron Man is almost here? When did you contact Jackson?" Tony was pleasantly surprised by JARVIS's answer but he soon found a problem. Siberia is still far away from New York. If the Iron Man is already approaching there, then JARVIS could not have received Lin Rui's news just now.

"Half an hour ago," JARVIS answered truthfully. Although Tony had instructed JARVIS to wake him up once he received the news from Lin Rui but JARVIS decided to let Tony sleep for an additional half-hour when he felt that it was unnecessary.

"Half an hour ago? Why didn't you wake me up?" Tony asked JARVIS when he heard JARVIS answer.

"Forget it, connect me to Jackson. I'm going to talk to this guy in person. Every time he does something so worrying, what will happen when his luck runs out!" When Tony got out of bed, he was no longer bothered by the fact that JARVIS did not wake him up in the first place. He now wanted to hear Lin Rui's voice for himself.

"Yes, sir." JARVIS has started to connect to Lin Rui.

Dududu~

"Hey, JARVIS, is the Iron Man here?" Soon the phone was connected and Lin Rui's relaxed voice came from the other side.

Tony: "...It's me."

Lin Rui: "...Mr. Stark, did you have a good rest? I'm sorry for worrying you. I wanted you to take more rest." Lin Rui froze for a moment after hearing Tony's voice before speaking.

"You kid! If you don't want to worry me, you shouldn't do such dangerous things! You are obviously not a Superman then why do you do such dangerous things every time! If you really had an accident, how will I explain things to your Parents?” Hearing Lin Rui’s unharmed voice, Tony, who had been worried, finally broke out and shouted at the phone.

Hearing Tony’s scolding, Lin Rui at the end of the phone was quiet and he seemed to have become frightened by Tony’s scolding. Just when Tony thought he had said something heavier and prepared to relax the atmosphere by saying something else, Lin Rui’s voice came again.

“Mr. Stark, thank you for worrying about me, thank you so much!”

Chapter 428 All parties react

Just when Lin Rui’s unharmed news was notified by JARVIS, Jack was sitting on the doorstep of the New York Sanctum in New York, the origin of the Earth Sorcerer. Looking at Jack, he should have been sitting like this for a long time.

Since Jack had seen the Sorcerers in the last battle of the Golden Gate Bridge, he has been thinking about whether he can enhance his strength by learning magic. After all, Lin Rui had said that anyone can learn magic.

After Lin Rui and Red Skull died together, Jack was greatly shaken. He deeply felt that his strength dragged everyone back, leaving Mirage Knight alone to face such a dangerous situation. Therefore, in order to prevent his friends from being in danger because of his low strength, Jack came here and wanted to ask the Sorcerers to teach him magic.

However, although the Sorcerers have a connection with Mirage Knight and their relationship is not bad. But the Sorcerers are still very serious about teaching magic, Jack was rejected after he showed his intention. He has been at the door of New York Sanctum for more than a day now, and the doors of the New York Sanctum had not opened again.

From day to night, people passing by Sanctum’s door saw Jack sitting on the steps. Some people were a little curious about Jack, but no one bothered him. After Jack waited for more than a day, he was also disappointed. Perhaps these Sorcerers really won’t teach him their Magic.

Call~

Jack sitting at the door pulled out his phone and glanced at it again. There was still no news about Mirage Knight. Jack and Peter are both reluctant to believe that Lin Rui is dead, but it doesn’t matter what they believe or not as the time passed by without any news from Mirage Knight.

“Mirage Knight said that Sorcerers have requirements for the apprentice’s mindset.” Putting the phone away, Jack thought silently.

However, just the second seconds after Jack put the phone in his pocket, the phone suddenly vibrated and a message came from someone. Jack subconsciously pulled out the phone again. After scanning the message that was already displayed on the screen, Jack’s dim eyes instantly lighted up, and he jumped from the steps the next moment.

“Hahaha! I knew it! I knew it!” Standing on the steps of New York Sanctum’s doorway, he laughed indifferently, Jack screamed and ran away while holding the phone in his hand.

When Jack grabbed his phone and ran excitedly on the street, the passers-by all gave way to him, they probably thought that Jack was a lunatic. However, when Jack suddenly ran away after receiving a message, the two people in the New York Sanctum hall were a little puzzled.

“David, why did that guy suddenly ran away?” Rick, who was standing behind the New York Sanctum gate, looked at David next to him as he looked at Jack’s running figure.

In fact, Jack insisted on seeing them all day long but both Rick and David are qualified to recommend some ordinary people to Kamar-Taj to become Sorcerer Apprentice. They had just prepared to open the door for Jack to come in. However, just as Rick was about to open the door, Jack suddenly ran away, which puzzled them.

“He doesn’t seem to have given up, is there something wrong?” David said while looking at Jack’s direction of departure.

“What could make him so excited... Is it Mirage Knight?” Rick turned his head and guessed, they also knew that Mirage Knight was missing.

However, compared to others who think that Mirage Knight is dead, these Sorcerers know that Mirage Knight is not dead yet. After all, the Ancient One left Lin Rui with a little Spiritual Imprint. However, David did not tell Tony about this news. In their view, Mirage Knight would contact them sooner or later.

Just as Jack ran away excitedly from the gate of New York Sanctum, there were more than one man with the same expression and action. In addition to Peter, who had already dressed as Spiderman and sped toward the Stark Industries building, Harry took a break from work to also fly towards the Stark Industry Buiding on his Hoverboard from the top of the Oscorp building.

At this moment, all forces in New York were shaken by a message from Tony Stark. Many people went directly to Tony’s Stark Industries building as they would not believe the news until they saw Mirage Knight with their own eyes.

Washington, the headquarters of SHIELD. Steve Rogers is doing regular exercises in his training room. In the battle against Hydra, the Avengers, except for Black Widow(who was not present in the fight) and Rogers, all other members have suffered serious injuries because of the Space Door explosion caused by Red Skull finally starting the Magic Cube, and they are still in the recovery period.

The impact of this action against Hydra is far more than the end of Mirage Knight and Red Skull. The outside world may just be concerned about these things that are easier to talk about before and after cooking. But for Rogers, there are other important things happening.

After the operation, some of Tony and Rogers’ tactics against Fury were finally coming into play. Through the sacrifice of some soldiers in this operation, SHIELD’s Director Fury was instantly pushed to the cusp of the storm, and the World Security Council became impatient with SHIELD’s growing strength and its unruly Director.

Fury, who was still immersed in the elimination of the Hydra force, has not been happy for some time now and he has been under investigation from the top. Some of the gray events that occurred within SHIELD during the years of Fury's tenure as the Director of SHIELD and some other events that were not known to anyone were taken out to attack him. Soon, Fury, who had never done anything with a half measure, was caught in the biggest crisis in his life: He will be removed from the position of SHIELD's Director!

Boom!

Brush!

After seeing the news that popped up, Rogers suddenly showed a rare smile on his calm face. Without saying anything, Rogers took the tablet and headed out to the training ground. Now that he was safe, there were things he wanted to do as soon as possible. After all, he can't be accused of slacking off.

Buzz~

Professor Charles is sitting in a wheelchair teaching the young Mutants in front of him. At this time, his mobile phone on the back table suddenly vibrated. It seemed that he felt something, and Professor Charles, who had not seen the phone, suddenly smiled.

Professor Charles, who has always been very calm, suddenly smiled, which made the students in the class very confused.

"Okay, time for some self-study."

Chapter 429 I Have a Bold Idea

With a room full of confused Mutants staring at them, Professor Charles arranged for them to study and then wheeled himself out of the classroom. As soon as he left the room, Professor Charles sent the message he had just received to the other X-Men, which was short: Mirage Knight was not dead.

"It seems that Mirage Knight can't be underestimated! People who can think and act like that will not be so simple, then the future of Mutants seems promising with him here." While passing towards the underground secret base, Professor Charles thought to himself.

Obviously, Professor Charles was still surprised that Mirage Knight was still alive. However, if Mirage Knight is alive then it is more beneficial to them as their alliance will still exist and Professor Charles is more hopeful about the future of Mutants with Mirage Knight in the picture.

"Also, the pair of High-Level siblings who ran away this time, Mirage Knight seemed to know them very well. I need Mirage Knight's help if I want to find them again." Since Mirage Knight is not dead, then he will ask him about the Siblings.

Originally, Professor Charles was very sorry for the loss of Mirage Knight. In addition, the association between professor Charles and Iron Man Tony Stark and Captain America Steve Rogers was mainly arranged by Mirage Knight. Once the Mirage Knight died, their top-secret team was in great trouble.

However, these are some difficulties that can be overcome. Although Professor Charles has not actively contacted Tony or Rogers after the sacrifice of Mirage Knight, Professor Charles does not think that Tony and Rogers will give up on the plan to form the Earth Federation.

That's why Professor Charles still sends out X-men on frequent Missions. From now on, Professor Charles wants X-Men to reappear in the eyes of the public. They must use their actions to tell others that they want to fight for a bright future for Mutants around the world.

When Professor Charles sent X-Men news that Mirage Knight was still alive, Iceman was silently playing with his mobile phone in his room. As an X-Men most familiar with Mirage Knight, Iceman can be said to be Lin Rui's friend. Iceman is the only one who didn't accept Mirage Knight's death in X-Men.

"Robert, it's time to rest." Shadowcat couldn't help but feel bad seeing Robert like this. Since Iceman knew of Mirage Knight's sacrifice, he hadn't taken a good rest, and he was already injured and his recovery is getting slower due to him not resting.

"Kitty, do you really think that Mirage Knight is dead?" Putting down the phone, Iceman asked while looking at Shadowcat.

Hearing Iceman's words, Shadowcat looked a little sick. Kitty knew that Iceman really regarded Mirage Knight as a friend and now that his friend had died, Iceman was obviously very sad. For X-Men, they have sacrificed many friends and teammates along the way, but every time a friend sacrifices themselves, they will be very sad.

"Robert, in that situation, Mirage Knight has almost no chance of surviving..." Although she wanted to comfort Iceman, Shadowcat didn't want him to always have unrealistic hope.

But just as Shadowcat was answering Iceman's question, Iceman's eyes, which had been full of grief and anger, suddenly froze. Then, in front of Shadowcat's eyes, a look of surprise came into Iceman's eyes.

"Hahaha! I knew it! I knew it! Mirage Knight, you really aren't dead!" At the moment when Shadowcat was wondering about the expressions on Iceman's face, Iceman burst out laughing and shouting.

"Robert, you..."

Buzz~

Although Shadowcat had heard Iceman's words, she was not sure as to what he said. Mirage Knight is not dead? How can that be? However, just when Shadowcat was about to ask, her phone suddenly made a sound. Taking out her phone, Shadowcat took a quick look at it.

"... It's true! Mirage Knight is really not dead!" After seeing the message sent by Professor Charles on the phone, Shadowcat couldn't believe it and shouted.

While Shadowcat received a message from Professor Charles, Iceman's cell phone also received the same message. However, Professor Charles obviously told Iceman the news directly through telepathy.

"Shadowcat, let's go! Let's go to Professor Charles and ask where Mirage Knight is now. I'm going to see him." After shouting to vent his excitement, Iceman pulled Shadowcat's hand as he walked outside.

Twenty minutes later, a trio of X-Men teams disappeared from the underground base of the X Academy. This X-Men team composed of Professor Charles, Iceman, and Blink set off this time to Tony's Stark Industries building. They wanted to see Mirage Knight.

Just when X-Men and Rogers and others got the news that Mirage Knight was still alive and made some actions, Lin Rui, who was still at the Siberia Hydra base, was still connected to Tony.

"You telling me that you appeared into Siberia after being thrown out of the Space Door and woke up and found that Red Skull was dead, and you happened to find a large base of Hydra near your location that had been closed for decades?" Though Stark's special satellite, Tony asked Lin Rui in a strange voice over the phone.

After listening to Lin Rui's luck in surviving himself and his current situation, Tony felt that Lin Rui's luck was really good! The powerful Space Explosion did not kill Lin Rui but it killed the Red Skull that actively opened the Space Door.

And after waking up from his coma for a day, he discovered a secret base that Hydra had hidden in Siberia for decades. Lin Rui's encounter can be expressed in one word, Magic. Regarding how Lin Rui discovered this base, Tony pretended to believe Lin Rui's luck. Anyway, many things happened to Lin Rui that could not be explained clearly.

"Uh... that's true. And I could survive mainly because of my Phantom Suit's defensive and because my physical fitness is better than Red Skull. Even so, when I woke up, I was seriously injured." Hearing Tony's words, Lin Rui, who was waiting for the Iron Man Armor at the Hydra Siberia base, simply explained.

"As for the transmission to Siberia, it may be the destination set by Red Skull. After all, the base being there could not be a coincidence." Lin Rui felt that he had to explain his location at the current base if Hydra.

"Really? I don't think Red Skull can control the destination of the transmission under such circumstances at that time, and it is still a base that has been closed for decades. However, since you found that base, of course, it is for the best." Tony can't believe Lin Rui's explanation completely. This kid have many secrets and Tony is not stupid.

"I think so too, so I have a bold idea."

"What idea?"

Chapter 430 Return

Lin Rui told Tony about his plan after “Visiting” Hydra base. The reconstruction of this Hydra large base will serve as a hidden base for League of Defenders in the future. Moreover, Lin Rui thinks that it can also be used as a secret base for himself and Tony to meet and hold meetings in the future.

After all, the establishment of the Earth Federation must be very confidential. Tony, Rogers, and Professor X are all famous people in the world, and their combined might is a powerful force. It is very necessary for them to act secretly and this base will provide that secrecy.

“Well, we could retrofit the Hydra base, of course, I can just build a new one but since there is already a base there, the transformation will be quick. As for the place where we will meet in the future, we can discuss it again. Our group hasn’t had its first formal meeting yet, and If you really did die this time, I’m afraid we would not be able to stay together.” After listening to Lin Rui, Tony answers calmly.

“Well, the elimination of Hydra this time is the victory we achieved after the initial team-up. So, when I get back, I think we should have our first meeting.” Lin Rui said with a wink when he heard Tony.

Hydra has been almost completely eliminated. This time, the attack against Hydra can be said to be officiated by Lin Rui. If it weren’t for Lin Rui reminding Fury about Hydra lurking in SHIELD, then these fights wouldn’t have happened and by the time they had found out, SHIELD and Hydra would have completely exposed each other and the death count would have been quite high.

And because of Lin Rui’s relationship, the two forces of League of Defender and X-Men also played a great role when SHIELD attacked Hydra. Although Iron Man did not join SHIELD’s Avengers Alliance, Tony did his best to provide help in dealing with Hydra. Therefore, because of Lin Rui’s relationship, Hydra has suffered more than they did in the original plot.

Although Red Skull has a bug level item like Magic Cube in his hand due to the change of the plot caused by the power of the world, he could only exert a bit of its power, otherwise, the plot might not have developed like this. With the combined strength of SHIELD, Iron Man, Avengers Alliance, League of Defender, and X-Men, even Magic Cube’s powered Hydra was finished.

It is safe to say that Lin Rui is in the most relaxed mood in recent months, despite his many injuries. The Mainline Quest to eliminate Hydra is progressing towards 100% completion. Lin Rui has been fighting with Hydra for so long. Between SHIELD and X-Men, he can finally relax.

Moreover, during the period of time when he was dealing with Hydra, Lin Rui also slowly completed the plan he had made before and made efforts to establish the Earth Federation. With Lin Rui’s efforts, Captain America Steve Rogers, who has fans in the United States and even the world, joined that team.

Professor Charles, a Fourth-Level Peak Mutant and the leader of X-Men, also boarded the ship, plus the one with huge wealth and top technology on earth Tony Stark and himself who owns the system is also in it. Lin Rui feels that his goal may not be so remote in the coming future. At least, the combination of these people is enough to deal with almost all the threats on the planet.

“Those things will have to wait until you come back. Now, your friends and X-Men are already on their way, I don’t want them complaining to me when they do not see you here.” Looking at the time, Tony knew that the Iron Man Armors which has been deployed to rescued Lin Rui would be approaching his position soon.

“Well, I don’t want to stay longer in such a cold place. The Phantom Suit is a bit damaged and I’m in the tens of degrees below zero right now.” Lin Rui joked.

“That’s what you get for doing whatever you want, this will teach you to not be impulsive next time.” Tony has a big problem with Lin Rui getting involved in dangerous situations.

For a young man with Lin Rui’s appetite, ambition, strength, and intelligence, Tony sincerely treats him as a close friend. Although Tony’s relationship with Pepper is very stable and Tony could get married early. It is still far for him to have a child, so Tony now has the idea of ??letting Lin Rui inherit some of his Stark Industry Shares.

“Next time...hehe, I’ll watch out for myself next time. However, even if I was so impulsive this time, I still didn’t get the Magic Cube in the end. I’ve searched for it for a long time before, but I didn’t found the Magic Cube.

Perhaps, it fell out in the transmission process and I don’t know which corner of the earth it fell off to.” Lin Rui said with a wry smile when he heard Tony’s obvious concern for his safety. Lin Rui can’t guarantee that he will hide behind in the future, that is not his character.

“As long as it is still on the earth, it will be found sooner or later. Also, I don’t think it would be too far from your location even if it dropped early in the teleport. I will arrange some Iron Man Armor to conduct a careful search when the base is renovated, and I think that we will find the Magic Cube.” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Tony was unfazed. While it’s sad to see Magic Cube lose again, at least Lin Rui is still alive.

“Well, the Iron Man has arrived. You come back first. I will leave some Iron Man Armors to search the location where you and Red Skull teleported and they will also look at this base. Just let JARVIS take over for the time being, and transform things slowly.”

Brush!

Then, Lin Rui, who was at the gate of the base, could already hear the rapid thruster sound of Iron Man from midair. Two seconds later, Lin Rui saw dozens of Iron Man broke through the sky and they quickly landed in front of him.

“Mr. Jackson, It’s very nice to see you again.” Falling in front of Lin Rui, JARVIS’s voice came from the front Iron Man.

“Haha, JARVIS, I’m glad to see you again too.” Lin Rui agreed with a smile when he heard JARVIS’s voice.

Then Lin Rui walked directly to the Iron Man in front of him. As Lin Rui walked over, the front armor of the Iron Man opened directly. Lin Rui walked over and was armed with the Armor.

Hum~

“Let’s go back, JARVIS, I don’t want Peter and others to wait for me.” Lin Rui commanded after looking at the 3-D display that was lit up in front of him.

“Yes.” With a promise, JARVIS has started the Iron Man Armor with Lin Rui inside it.

Huh! Brush!

At the next moment, the Iron Man armed with Lin Rui had already risen into the sky again and flew towards New York. As for the remaining Iron Man, they will stay here. They will take over the secret base of Hydra to carry out the initial system transformation and upgrade.
