Chapter 451 The Cloak

Half an hour later, Lin Rui in the laboratory had already disarmed all the remaining Armor covering him. Now that Venom had already fully covered him, Lin Rui can now experiment with better parameters. Of course, there is still a small Arc Reactor behind Lin Rui that provides continuous energy to Venom.

Call!

After doing most of the experiments he thought, Lin Rui finally used his consciousness to make Venom no longer Arm himself. Then, Venom covering Lin Rui's body shrank toward the Arc Reactor positioned behind him and soon entrenched the small area behind Lin Rui without any movement.

People may not be able to see it, but Venom is quietly absorbing the energy of the Arc Reactor and storing it.

Lin Rui felt that all of his strength that had increased just now disappeared as he removed Venom from his body. This feeling is a bit like being suddenly interrupted by someone when doing something right, and Lin Rui suppressed the idea of Arming Venom again in his heart.

Although Venom no longer has to influence its host's thoughts to absorb energy, this increase in power is still unstoppable.

If it were not for Lin Rui's Strong Will Power, he would have become addicted to Venom's strength enhancement. Ordinary people would not be able to do that, and they would never remove Venom from their bodies.

Call!

Then Lin Rui let JARVIS-controlled Robotic Arm come along to pull the Venom from his back, which was then dragged down by the Arc Reactor.

This series of experiments was designed to test the Venom's specificity, but Lin Rui also used some Internal Energy, and he needed a break. Of course, Peter would be the one who would do the next experiment as he shouldn't be afraid of Venom anymore.

Card!

After Venom was repositioned in the corner of the laboratory, Lin Rui walked out of the opened door of the laboratory. Lin Rui looked at Tony and Peter waiting outside for him, and he waived out his hand to say that he was okay.

"Well, this looks good, and the physical examination has concluded normally." When Lin Rui reached out, Tony clicked on the tablet in his hand and said simply.

"Unbelievable, that Venom has become like this now." After confirming that Lin Rui was okay, Peter looked at Venom in the laboratory who had turned into a pool of unknown black object and couldn't help saying.

That kind of subtle influence on the host's thoughts, and finally the way to completely control the host still left Peter's heart lingering with fear.

"Well, as long as Venom had enough energy to absorb, it wouldn't hurt anyone so it's not a threat. Venom's Evolution seems to allow him to adapt in any way for its survival, and it gives us a better research direction." Hearing Peter's words, Lin Rui nodded in response.

In this half-hour experiment, Venom has absorbed 20% of Arc Reactor's energy. Although it does not seem to be much, the power contained in Arc Reactor itself is enormous, and even the Iron Man Armor wouldn't be able to consume so much energy while doing normal activities within half an hour.

The energy provided by Venom to Lin Rui was not so much. It is evident that the Energy is stored by Venom in itself to support its own survival.

"Okay, Jackson, what do you think about Venom?" After adjusting the data in the tablet in his hand, Tony looked at Lin Rui and asked seriously.

From the experiment just now, Lin Rui seems to have come up with the idea that uses Venom. Of course, Tony also had a plan in his mind, but he didn't know if it was the same as Lin Rui's.

"I have an idea. With Venom's current characteristics, we can make a special set of Armed Armor based on it. With Venom's strength enhancement, most people would become stronger." Seeing that Tony was asking for his opinion, Lin Rui said directly.

"Yes, I think so too. Because Venom can cover the human body in all directions, and the protection it provides is also very comprehensive. If we use Venom to make an Armor, even if the Iron Man Armor is damaged, the people inside would still be Armed with Venom and they would have the power to do something even without the Iron Man Armor." After hearing Lin Rui's words, Tony nodded and said.

"However, although Venom can actively Arm the host that provides energy to it, that is to say, as long as we have enough energy on our body, Venom can Arm us. However, if we do not have sufficient Mental Power then we wouldn't be able to communicate with Venom. We will not be able to take advantage of its changing characteristics. The color black is still very conspicuous in some cases. Moreover, once the energy supply is disconnected and if Venom cannot be recovered, it is not known whether it will absorb the energy of its host again." Although Venom is indeed a good material for making new types of Armed Armor but they still have many problems.

"Yes, an ordinary person's Mental Power will not be as strong as yours. Even if he carries the Armed Venom, Venom will only protect and enhance his strength, and will not change its form with the host's consciousness. Moreover, if the Mental Power is not strong enough, Venom may be able to influence their thoughts and this will cause some problems." Tony apparently understood the question raised by Lin Rui.

"So, I plan to visit Professor Charles while studying the Venom Armor." In the end, Tony proposed his own solution.

"Professor Charles? Are you talking about the Cerebro? That is a good idea. If you can get the technology of Cerebro, it would be perfect with Venom!" When Tony said that he would be going to Professor Charles, Lin Rui thought of Cerebro instantly. The Cerebro hidden in the basement of X Academy is a device that can greatly enhance Professor Charles' Mental Power.

"Yes, if we can perfect the technology of the Cerebro, perhaps we can create an Armed Armor that is not inferior to the Iron Man Armor." Tony is not surprised to find that Lin Rui knows about Professor Charles having the Cerebro as Lin Rui always seems to know a lot.

"Well, what about controlling Venom? Is it just cutting off its Energy Supply? I don't think this is safe enough, because it itself stores a lot of energy. If the current Venom is only an illusion with a weak strength enhancement then what would happen if it releases all of its energy. Will it affect the host's escape?" Peter suddenly reminded them when he heard Lin Rui and Tony discussing the Venom armor. Peter does not want Lin Rui and Tony to be so relieved about Venom as he is still wary.

"Um...yes, if we can't keep Venom under control in normal times then we can't be safely Armed." Hearing Peter's reminder, Lin Rui also remembered that Venom can still cause harm to the human body.

"The experiment we are going to conduct next will answer that question. Didn't I say that Venom's evolution allowed it to absorb Electricity and Heat? However, its resistance to cold seems to have become weaker." Tony also considered the question, so he said directly.

"It's resistance to cold had weakened? It's really is an imperfect evolution. However, it is a normal evolutionary option to give up part of itself while ensuring that the other is excellent." Lin Rui said with a smile when he heard Tony.

"In that case, you can use low temperature to control Venom." Hearing Tony's answer, Peter was also relieved.

"So, since we all think that Venom can be used to make new Armors, what should we call it? Venom Armors?" The research on Venom Armors is bound to be on the agenda, and Tony can't wait to give it a name.

"What's it called..." Peter scratched his head and thought when he heard Tony's words.

"The Cloak!" Just as Peter was thinking, Lin Rui suddenly blurted out a word that often appears in many games.

Hearing this word coming out of Lin Rui's mouth, both Peter and Tony looked over curiously.

"Yes, The Cloak!"

Chapter 452 Nick's Removal

After Lin Rui yelled out the word Cloak, both Peter and Tony fell silent. Because Peter could not think of a suitable name, he had no objection to Lin Rui's name. But Tony was thinking about the meaning of the name Lin Rui had spoken because Lin Rui had obviously already thought of the name before.

"Cloak? Jackson, why did you say that name?" Tony asked curiously after repeating the words Lin Rui had said.

"Because I think this name is very appropriate, don't you think so too?" Lin Rui certainly wouldn't say that he knew about this from the TV shows he watched before he crossed over, so he simply explained.

“The Cloak... The Cloak, it seems really appropriate. Then, let’s call it The Cloak!” Although he knew Lin Rui’s answer was nonsense, Tony didn’t think about it anymore and repeated the name ‘The Cloak’ twice.

“Haha! I named it!” Lin Rui said with a smile when Tony finally agreed to his suggestion.

“Well, not only did you name it, but we will also study this Venom together in the future... The Cloak! If we show it to the public in the future, you can also put your name on it. Of course, it would not be Mirage Knight, but Jackson Lin.” Tony suddenly spoke when he saw Lin Rui becoming so happy because of a name.

One must know that if such a Unique Technology as Venom Armed Armor is displayed or even installed in the future, it will definitely be another explosive impact no less than the appearance of the Iron Man. Therefore, if Lin Rui’s name appears in the R&D team at that time, it will be a great help to the growth of Lin Rui’s reputation.

“My name?!” Lin Rui was a little stunned when he heard Tony’s words. Because Tony often asks Lin Rui to come over as a free laborer, he is used to helping Tony do some work for free. But now Tony said that the name of Jackson Lin will be given after the appearance of the Future Cloak, which is not something ordinary!

“Of course, I’ll involve you and Peter in this study and your names will be put up when the Armors are announced to the World. You’ve been working with me for so long that something must come of it, or your parents will think that you come here for fun.” Tony laughs at Lin Rui’s incredulous look. Of course, getting Lin Rui’s parents to see the results is all an excuse. Lin Rui’s parents would be willing to let Lin Rui work for Tony even if he hasn’t had any success in his whole life.

“And me!?” This time, not only Lin Rui was surprised, but Peter on the side was also surprised. Peter was only here to help today, and now he has gotten such a big advantage without helping him.

Although Mirage Knight and Spiderman are already well-known figures and they also have many fans. But in real life, neither Jackson Lin nor Peter Parker is famous.

Perhaps Lin Rui, Peter, and Harry are more famous in the New York Empire State High School, but it is only limited to this. In real society, Harry Osborn’s name is probably the most famous of the three.

If Tony really puts the names of Lin Rui and Peter in the public release of the future, it will be a huge help to their real life. At least, their resume will be added with a heavy touch. Although Lin Rui and Peter, who are inspired to become Superhero, may not care about this but their relatives in real life still need these and they would be very happy.

“Thank you! Mr. Stark!” Since Tony has said so, Lin Rui no longer refuses. Anyway, he is not afraid that he will be famous now as the research in Venom will take a lot of time.

“Thank you! Mr. Stark!” After Lin Rui finished speaking, Peter also thanked him seriously.

“Well, since Jackson broke the strength tester just now, we’ll just have to go up and take a break, and then come down and do some more experiments. Peter, of course, will be needed for the rest of the experiment. Maybe we can also enhance your Spiderman suit based on our version of Venom.” After putting in some data, Tony put down his tablet and spoke to Lin Rui and Peter. Experiments should not be done in a hurry and one must always relax.

“Haha! I really like the snacks here!” Lin Rui laughed after hearing Tony say that they would be taking a break.

Then, the three of them left the underground laboratory and went back to rest in the luxurious villa on the ground. As for Venom, it was sealed again under the supervision of JARVIS.

While Lin Rui and Peter were having a snack and chatting with Tony at his beach house, something very important was happening in Washington SHIELD’s Headquarters. The investigation on SHIELD’s Current Director Fury has come to an end, and the final result had just come out.

Fury was removed from the position of SHIELD Director and was responsible for SHIELD’s missteps for so many years. He was sentenced to personal imprisonment for ten years and was not allowed to visit any of the SHIELD’s facilities for three years.

After receiving such a result, Fury was forced to leave SHIELD’s Headquarters and escorted to a Secret Prison that was large enough to hold people like Fury.

Fury had never thought of such a processing result of his own. Although Fury guessed that he would be ousted from the SHIELD Director’s seat, he did not expect that the people above would actually sentence him to ten years in prison, and three years of ban. This was already a very serious punishment.

Fury couldn’t accept this result at all, but he didn’t seem to have a better way to resist at this time. Therefore, when Fury was taken away from SHIELD Headquarters, he did not resist. However, on the way out, many of the SHIELD’s Agents saw Fury being taken away.

Although Fury was not locked or detained, anyone with a discerning eye can see what is happening to Fury now, not to mention that SHIELD is an Organization of Elite People.

Therefore, apart from most people’s solemn faces, a small number of Agents seemed to have received some sort of signal and there was a glimmer of light in their eyes that was not easily detectable.

Huhu!

Finally, the Quinjet carrying Fury soared from the SHIELD Headquarter and the Director who had controlled SHIELD for Decades was completely evacuated.

In the outer wall of the SHIELD Headquarters building near the tarmac, a huge figure stood against the glass wall watching Quinjet fade away. The man watching Fury leave was Captain Rogers, and Rogers, who had been sidelined for days after the investigation into Fury’s departure, is now watching him leave.

Da Da~

“Captain.” As Rogers withdrew his eyes from the outside, a voice came from behind him.

“Did everything go as we planned?” Rogers asked faintly without looking back.

"It's done. Captain, are you sure that Director Fury... the former Director Fury will take action?"

"Of course, Fury won't accept this, he will definitely do something, we just have to wait and see now."

"Yes!"

"Have you not found Natasha yet?"

"No."

"Keep looking, I think she should be completing some top-secret mission for Fury."

"Yes."

Chapter 453 Request

After the simple conversation was over, the person hidden in the shadow behind Rogers quietly left, without saying anything anymore. Of course, Rogers needs people like this now, who can do things without talking nonsense.

"Fury, don't worry, SHIELD will become better after you leave." After the person behind him had left, Rogers raised his head again and muttered to the sky outside.

Da Da~

However, just after Rogers stayed in this corner alone for a while, another sound of footsteps approached from behind him. Unlike the previous man, the footsteps were much more steady.

As he didn't expect someone to come to find him at this time. Rogers raised his brow slightly and then turned around. Judging from Rogers' expression, he knew who was coming. So, after turning around, Roger spoke directly.

"Daredevil, why did you come to see me at this hour?" Rogers asked calmly while looking behind him at the person who was approaching him. The guy is Daredevil who belongs to the SHIELD and the League of Defender.

"Captain Rogers, I do have something to tell you." Hearing Rogers, Daredevil also spoke directly.

"Oh? What's the matter?" Rogers was also interested when Daredevil said that he had something to say.

One must know that with the current strength of the League of Defender, Daredevil should be able to solve any problem he has. But Daredevil had come to Rogers which shows that this matter cannot be solved by the League of Defender alone, or it is not so easy to solve.

"When I joined SHIELD, Agent Coulson promised me several conditions, one of which was to help me fight one of my enemies. But months have passed, and my conditions have not been met. So, After the former Director was removed, I thought that maybe you might be able to help me fulfill this condition." Facing Rogers, Daredevil said calmly.

"Your enemy? Who?" Rogers asked with some interest when he heard what Daredevil said. As for whether Coulson agreed to any conditions, it didn't matter to Rogers.

“Wilson Fisk.” Facing Rogers’ question, Daredevil directly said a name, a name that seemed to have been forgotten for a long time. Of course, even after Daredevil formed the League of Defender with Mirage Knight, he did not forget his worst enemy, Wilson Fisk, or Kingpin.

At the beginning, Daredevil and Mirage Knight joined forces to form a team against the Dark Forces, including Daredevil’s enemy Wilson Fisk. However, the development of things did not always follow Daredevil’s ideas.

After Daredevil and Mirage Knight jointly attacked Kingpin’s subordinate forces in New York for a period of time, Kingpin suddenly disappeared, and his subordinates also shrank. Afterward, the League of Defender also had other goals that needed them to go all out, and the affairs of Kingpin and his Underworld Empire were temporarily set aside.

However, Daredevil has never forgotten Kingpin, the King of the Underworld Empire. After joining SHIELD, Daredevil also used SHIELD’s Internal Resources to investigate Wilson Fisk’s personal data.

At the level of SHIELD, Daredevil did investigate more information about the underworld king. However, the information Daredevil know now made him feel that his chances of revenge were getting even slimmer.

As a Third-Level Peak Strength Mutant(He had enough power to fight against Captain America in Hand to Hand Combat to a standstill), Kingpin controls the World’s Largest Underworld Empire. There are many people and forces behind him who support him.

There are many forces that Daredevil or League of Defender would find hard to deal with, so Daredevil’s dealing with Kingpin has been put down repeatedly. However, Fury has now been removed, and Rogers is now in charge of SHIELD.

So, Daredevil thought that maybe people like Captain Rogers wouldn’t care about Kingpin’s connections with the forces behind him, and could help him resolve this enemy.

“Wilson Fisk? Who is this?” Rogers, who had only woke up from the ice for a few months, obviously didn’t know who Daredevil was talking about, so he asked suspiciously.

“He is the King the Underworld Empire and he is a very cruel Executioner!” Facing Rogers’ doubts, Daredevil replied in a deep tone.

“King of the Underworld?” Rogers was a little confused when he heard Daredevil’s answer. If it’s just a King of the Underworld than Daredevil would have been able to deal with him with the current strength of the League of Defender and he wouldn’t need SHIELD’s help at all.

“Is this person very strong?” Rogers continued to ask without thinking deeply.

“No, it’s because Wilson’s Underworld Kingdom which allowed him to be involved with many other forces in the world, and many of them are beyond our control. Moreover, Wilson knows that we want to deal with him, so he has been hiding, and we need the help of SHIELD professionals.” Seeing that Rogers still had some doubts, Daredevil continued to explain.

Hearing this, some light flashed in Rogers’ eyes, and he finally understood what was going on. It turned out that Daredevil was not here because of how strong Wilson is, but because of the forces behind him.

After all, the League of Defender is an Organization composed of Vigilantes and they would have no problem in taking care of some Dark Forces or Gray Area Forces. But it might not be so convenient for them if they face off against some powerful forces.

When Daredevil said this, Rogers probably guessed why Daredevil's condition had not been met. Behind Wilson's Underworld Empire, there should be some shadow of SHIELD. Maybe SHIELD did not directly intervene, but the forces related to SHIELD must be entangled in it.

After all, it is impossible for SHIELD to lead the world in all aspects without a large amount of financial support. And the funding from the US is shrinking every year, SHIELD has to be supported by some forces if it wants to develop, and these forces behind SHIELD will obviously also be partly convenient by SHIELD, which allow for a win-win situation. And now this situation is causing trouble for Daredevil's revenge, and he needs Rogers' help.

"Do you have any complete information about this Wilson?" After understanding the situation, Rogers then asked Daredevil.

After Rogers learned of this situation, he didn't intend to leave it alone as before. No matter which forces are behind which Underworld Empire, SHIELD will usher in a huge reform.

In this reform, Rogers will not only rectify the situation of the Internal Personnel, but he will also seriously deal with the parts that are influencing it from the outside world. SHIELD is a huge organization and he will never allow any influence from other forces in it.

Call!

After Rogers asked this question, Daredevil threw the tablet that he had prepared long ago. The information about Kingpin was on it, and there were some forces related to the Kingpin's Underworld Empire. As long as Rogers resolves these forces on behalf of SHIELD, the League of Defender will be able to take care of Kingpin very easily.

"Okay, I'll take care of it." Rogers agreed seriously after taking the tablet.

"Thank you, Captain Rogers."

Chapter 454 Completes

Three days later, when Lin Rui returned home from Tony's beach house after completing the experiment and was about to rest, the hollow but loud voice of the system suddenly rang in his mind.

"Main Quest: Eliminate Hydra, 100% Completion. Congratulations to the Host for completing this Mainline Quest. The corresponding Rewards has been issued. Pay attention to check." After more than two months, the Mainline Quest for eliminating the Hydra was finally completed. Although Lin Rui didn't eliminate all of them, he was still the main force.

Brush!

After hearing the voice in his mind, Lin Rui, who was about to fall on the bed, jumped up. Although Lin Rui has been working on Venom's research with Tony these days, he has been paying attention to the completion of the Mainline Quest.

Now, the Quest to eliminate Hydra is finally completed, and it can be regarded as the total annihilation of the Hydra.

"Haha! I finally completed this Mainline Quest! It was not easy! Last time, Red Skull died and I was rewarded with Fifty Thousand Reward Points. I don't know what I will be rewarded with!" After containing his excitement, Lin Rui has fallen back onto the bed again.

Call!

Then, Lin Rui who fell on the bed was already in his mind. Looking at the Golden Characters slowly disappearing above his Sea of Consciousness, Lin Rui looked at the corner with excitement, where there were already three shiny golden boxes.

Of course, after Lin Rui scanned the three boxes, he also noticed the change in the number of his Reward points. Lin Rui's eyes widened a lot after seeing the beating number.

Originally, Lin Rui got 50,000 Reward Points after the death of Red Skull. Although he also spent a lot of Reward Points these days and he even directly sacrificed 20,000 to the Resurrection Altar but he still has 20,000 Reward Points left for emergencies.

But now, the number of Reward Points he has directly rushed past to 100,000 RP, and it is still rising.

"Could it be that I will reward with 100,000 Reward Points!?" Lin Rui muttered to himself as he looked at the fast beating golden number.

However, when the number of Reward Points quickly jumped over 120,000 and rushed to a higher position, Lin Rui was already feeling a little sluggish. This is the first time Lin Rui has seen so many Reward points.

He has always felt that the System was very stingy. Even if he completes the Mainline Quest, it will not give out too many rewards. But this time, in the Quest to destroy Hydra, the System's Reward Points alone has exceeded 150,000.

"It's still rising!" Looking at the Numbers without a pause, Lin Rui's eyes have been stained with a golden glow.

Hula la~

Finally, when Lin Rui only had the gold glitter of the Reward Spot in his eyes, the jumping numbers suddenly stopped.

Finally, the number of Reward Points stops at 170,000. In other words, in this Quest to eliminate the Hydra, Lin Rui has earned a total of 200,000 Reward points(150,000(Now)+50,000(Red Skull Death)), which is something that Lin Rui couldn't even imagine previously.

"Wha...170,000?!" Lin Rui could hardly believe his eyes when he looked at the number of Reward Points he has now. In the beginning, Lin Rui worked himself to death for even a Hundred Reward Points. Now he has such a large sum of Reward Points in front of him! At that moment, Lin Rui felt like he could buy almost anything in the System Shop!

“Hahaha! 170,000 Reward Points! It is really 170,000! I am rich! In the future, I will be able to become a local tyrant!” After the initial shock, Lin Rui slowly reacted and then he became very excited. If it hadn’t been for Lin Rui’s consciousness that had sunk into his mind, he would have jumped up from the bed.

Huhu!

“Calm down! Calm down! It’s only 170,000 Reward Points! Although this is the richest time in my life, I still have to calm down! ... Damn it! Calm down! I could now redeem some Super Bloodlines! The top Giant Titan Bloodline! Let’s see who can hurt me in the future!” Lin Rui took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down, but after thinking about what the huge amount of 170,000 Reward Points could be exchanged for, Lin Rui became excited again and he couldn’t calm down at all.

It took almost ten minutes before Lin Rui recovered from the shock that this huge Reward of 170,000 Reward Points brought to him. At this time, Lin Rui had almost calmed down, and he knew that even if there were 170,000 Reward points, he could not use it indiscriminately.

When he accidentally triggered the Mj?Inir test, the Sub-System gave him the orthodox solution, which was to obtain the power to lift Mj?Inir, and that would cost him about 1.5 Million Reward Points. Therefore, Lin Rui’s current 170,000 Reward Points is not too much, at least he cannot exchange the power to lift Mj?Inir.

“Even if these Reward Points can be used to redeem a lot of things from the System Shop, it may not be what I need now. So I will save them for the time being. If I can resurrect the System Two then I would be able to consult with it and see what it recommends.” After calming down, Lin Rui has temporarily put down the idea of buying powerful bloodlines that can instantly increase his strength with so many Reward points.

As for the Secondary System that sacrificed itself for Lin Rui, Lin Rui also gave it a name, called System Two.

“Then, let me now see what special items are Rewarded this time besides the Reward Points.” After removing his eyes from the huge amount of Reward Points, Lin Rui slowly walked towards the three boxes glowing with gold-colored light.

“I got 200,000 Reward Points from this Mainline Quest alone, the Special Items shouldn’t be so simple either.” While thinking, Lin Rui has opened the first Golden Box.

Call!

When the first box was opened, a cyan light came out from the box, infecting the conscious body of Lin Rui, who was close by, with a brilliant cyan hue. He felt a chill as the blue light shone down on Lin Rui’s conscious body. This was the first time he felt this way in his consciousness.

“This is... a Fruit?” After the Cyan Light diminished a little, Lin Rui clearly saw what was in the box. It was a Cyan-Colored Fruit about the size of a strawberry.

“Azure Spirit Fruit from Hidden Cloud Greater World, it has Powerful Healing Effects and Physical Strength Enhancement Effects. It is a specialty of Hidden Cloud Greater World.” After seeing the Cyan Fruit, Lin Rui also saw the description appearing on the box in a small golden print.

“Azure Spirit Fruit? A specialty of Hidden Cloud Greater World? Is this something from another world?!” Seeing the introduction, Lin Rui muttered in surprise.

Although Lin Rui knew from the very beginning that everything was available in the System Shop, he rarely saw any special products from other worlds. Before that, the item from other worlds Lin Rui used was Holy Spring Water of the Elves, an all-purpose Serum that treats the wounds from a vitality point.

“I don’t know if this Azure Spirit Fruit can be used by people in this world. After all, Hidden Cloud Greater World feels like a fantasy world when I hear the name. If this fruit has any special requirements to eat, then it’s quite useless for me.” Lin Rui muttered while holding the Azure Spirit Fruit in the box in his hand.

Afterward, Lin Rui put the Azure Spirit Fruit back in the place and then walked towards the Second Box. Regarding whether Azure Spirit Fruit can be used by him or not, Lin Rui will check it out in the System Shop later. He is not in any hurry now.

“Then, let’s open the Second Treasure Box!” Rubbing his palms, Lin Rui had already stretched out his hands towards the Second Golden Box.

Chapter 455 Strength Promotion

Twenty minutes later, Lin Rui, who fell on the bed, slowly opened his eyes. However, compared with the excitement before, Lin Rui is now much calmer, but he still can’t hide the excitement in his eyes. Sitting up from the bed, Lin Rui has sorted out all the Rewards he got after the Mainline Quest was completed.

“Three kinds of special items, the first is the specialty Azure Spirit Fruit from Hidden Cloud Greater World. According to System Shop’s explanation, this is an Advance Holy Fruit Worth 10,000 Reward Points.

Although the Warriors of Hidden Cloud Greater World can take them and receive some benefits, I can take it completely but I don’t know how many benefits it will bring me.”

“The second is a Pseudo-Divine-Level Weapon: Beheading Spirit Sword. According to the System’s assessment, it should be a B-Grade Weapon, and it can be considered as my replacement weapon.” While talking to himself, a long sword with a scabbard suddenly appeared in Lin Rui’s hand.

Brush!

In the next moment, Lin Rui directly pulled out the Sword from the scabbard. In Lin Rui’s hand, a nearly one-meter-long sword appeared reflecting a faint cyan light under the light.

Beheading Spirit Sword, if Lin Rui wants to redeem it in the System Shop, he would need at least tens of thousands of Reward points. As a B-Grade Weapon, the Beheading Spirit Sword itself can hardly be destroyed, and it is also very suitable for Martial Artists who practice Internal Energy.

It seems that the system also distributes Reward Items based on the host’s situation.

If the Thunder Blade used by Lin Rui before can increase Lin Rui's attack and make his strongest attack reach the full-powered attack of a Level 4 Mutant. Then, the increasing effect of Beheading Spirit Sword is at least twice that of the Thunder Blade, although it does not have the Thunder effect of Thunder Blade.

However, Beheading Spirit Sword has the ability to cut through defenses. For Example, Lin Rui would have to use a lot of effort to defeat a person with a strong defense while using the Thunder Blade whereas, it would only take him about Six or Seven attacks to defeat that same person using the Beheading Spirit Sword.

According to Lin Rui, the Beheading Spirit Sword should be enough for him to use it at this time as it is perfect for him. Moreover, because Lin Rui trained in Internal Energy, he has no special requirements for weapons, as long as he is not too partial, he can use almost any of them.

Of course, if Lin Rui grows up to confront the real divine tool like Mj?Inir in the future, maybe Beheading Spirit Sword will be inferior. However, Lin Rui felt that he should have better weapons by then.

Brush!

After admiring his latest weapon, Lin Rui inserted the Beheading Spirit Sword back into the scabbard and put it into the independent space of the Phantom Suit.

After getting so many Reward Points this time, Lin Rui has upgraded the Phantom Suit again, and at the same time expanded its internal space, allowing Lin Rui to carry more life-saving things with him.

"The third item is not usable right now, a B-Class Mecha's dedicated Energy Heart Core. This thing should be something that is used in the Interstellar Civilization, it should be similar to the miniature Arc Reactor in the Iron Man Armor." Lin Rui can use the First two items now, but the third item is something that he can not currently use.

However, Lin Rui feels that such a thing has great research value even if it can not be used. Although there is no shadow of Mecha Technology in this Earth's Civilization, there will definitely be some in the future.

Maybe he can use this Mecha Energy Heart Core to make the Earth's Mecha Technology appear from scratch. However, Lin Rui and Tony already have a lot of things in their hands to study, and he has no plans to study this tasteless Mecha for now. Therefore, Lin Rui didn't take it out and kept it in the Treasure Box.

"This time, I received so many Reward Points, I left 100,000 Reward Points for standby, and the rest were sacrificed to the Resurrection Altar. Although System 2 seems to have responded but it is still a long way from being awakened. If the System is resurrected and knows that I have spent so many Reward Points for it, It will probably be very touched."

Because Lin Rui was saved at the expense of System No. 2's life before, Lin Rui would not abandon the System to save Reward Points at this time as his consciousness would not allow him to do that.

Moreover, Lin Rui feels that although the Main System is powerful, System No. 2 is more humane and will help him more. When Lin Rui only became a Vigilante, he would not have been able to spend that weak time so smoothly without the help of the Auxiliary System.

The more powerful things he gets from the system, the more Lin Rui feels a faint fear towards that system. Lin Rui always had a feeling that the System has a purpose to help him become stronger, but now there is no good way to get rid of it and it is the only source by which Lin Rui can become strong.

With the ability of System Two, it can also help Lin Rui to better complete the Quests of the Main System after waking up.

Buzzing~

Just as Lin Rui finished his thought process and was summing up, the phone he placed beside the bed suddenly vibrated. He glanced at the caller ID, it was Daredevil's call. Without much delay, Lin Rui was in a good mood and directly answered.

"Mirage Knight, are you free now? We have a Mission." After the call was connected, Daredevil's voice came from the other side.

"Huh? Did Captain Rogers already dealt with those people?" Lin Rui asked with a frown when he heard Daredevil's words.

Lin Rui and the League of Defender also know and support Daredevil's continued enmity towards Wilson Fisk or Kingpin. However, because Kingpin's Underworld Empire involves many other gray and white forces, they have been slow to do anything.

After the Hydra incident was finally over, Daredevil, who had joined the Avengers raised this issue with Rogers and asked SHIELD to take action to solve the supporters behind Kingpin's Underworld Empire, so that Lin Rui and the others could take care of the world cancer known as Kingpin.

And only three days have passed since Daredevil and Rogers brought up the matter. Even if SHIELD has a lot of resources, has Rogers already leveled out all those forces? Seeing this situation, Lin Rui was still a little surprised.

"After Captain Rogers took control of SHIELD, he used some strong methods to clear a group of SHIELD personnel, and these personnel had various relationships with those forces.

After that, Captain Rogers personally came out to visit the Leader of these forces one by one. With Captain America's current prestige and power, it is guaranteed that these forces would remain quiet."

"Although they have benefited a lot from Wilson over the years because Wilson has grown stronger in the past few years, they can no longer control him. So instead of waiting for Wilson's Underworld Empire to grow beyond their influence, they might as well let us break it down now." Daredevil explained briefly to Lin Rui's question.

Of course, this would involve a lot of interests of many parties but Lin Rui does not care about this, he only needs to know that they can take action against Kingpin.

When he first became Vigilante, Lin Rui planned to take Kingpin as one of his goals, but Kingpin's influence is indeed very large, and he himself is relatively cunning, plus with what happened afterward, Lin Rui had to temporarily put down Kingpin's matter.

Now, his strength has soared. Lin Rui, who has the League of Defender behind him has enough confidence to destroy Kingpin.

“Then, let us disintegrate Wilson’s Underworld Empire!” Lin Rui squeezed his fist and replied in a low tone. After getting so many Reward Points and items, Lin Rui’s strength has improved again, and he needs to practice to get used to his current strength.

Chapter 456: Hiding Place

In a small American town not far from New York, as the Actual Controller of the largest Underworld Empire in the United States: Wilson Fisk, or Kingpin, is here on vacation. Or at least that is what he said to everyone but Kingpin was also hiding from some recent investigations against him.

A Gangster like Kingpin, who has been able to control such a large gangster force for so many years can not be removed secretly.

It can be seen that in addition to his strength, his cautious character is also an important point that allowed him to live until now. He has also noticed that something was happening since Daredevil started to attack his forces a long time ago.

However, Kingpin at that time did not put Daredevil in his eyes. But recently, Kingpin suddenly discovered that Daredevil, who was originally alone seemed to have very strong teammates.

In order to prevent the League of Defender from taking action against him, Kingpin has not appeared in public for a long time. Although Kingpin knew that there were still many gray and white forces behind his Underworld Empire, they were unreliable at critical moments, and he could only rely on himself.

Huhu~

Lying on the lounge chair on the balcony of the second floor of the villa basking in the sun, Kingpin is now in a very relaxed mood. This place is Kingpin’s private and secret villa, and no one knows it except for a few of his henchmen.

Kingpin is going to spend some time here as vacation and then he would go back to deal with some things that require him to come out in person and then take a vacation in another place. Kingpin didn’t believe that Daredevil and his people will always look for him.

Moreover, those Vigilantes in the League of Defender seem to have more important things to deal with recently, and it has been a long time since they have attacked Kingpin’s Underworld Forces.

“Now ??New York is not very active for the time being. If it weren’t for that Daredevil and his friends, I wouldn’t have lost so much in just two months.” Kingpin, who was resting in a chair, seemed to be resting, but he is actually thinking about the development of his Underworld Empire.

Since the appearance of Mirage Knight and the establishment of the League of Defender, they have dealt a great blow to the Underground Dark Forces in New York.

Moreover, after teaming up with Jack and removing the Frankenstein Family, which was a dominant dark and white family in New York, Jack took control of the Frankenstein Family and began to cooperate with the League of Defender to clean up other Dark forces in New York, including Kingpin’s forces.

Under the attack of Mirage Knight and Daredevil and others, New York City should now be regarded as the safest city in the United States. Of course, that is security at an ordinary level.

“How the hell it happened, how can so many Vigilantes suddenly appeared. If I hadn’t hidden my identities and if I was a little weaker, I would have been captured by one of them!” Thinking of the appearance of Mirage Knight and others, Kingpin thought bitterly when the New York underworld forces were hit.

In terms of individual strength, in the League of Defender, except for the Logistics Staff Member Jerry, everyone else can defeat Kingpin whose strength had only reached the level of a 3-Level Mutant.

Perhaps the previous Daredevil and Jack would have struggled to deal with Kingpin, but after their recent growth, they can already defeat Kingpin by themselves.

However, Kingpin’s ability to become the Master of such a huge Underworld Empire is not entirely dependent on his own strength. His insidiousness and some underhanded methods are the main reasons why he has reached this position.

Kingpin doesn’t know how many corpses he had stepped on to climb to this position today and there are quite a few people who have been solved by him personally. If Kingpin knew the true identity of any Vigilante in the League of Defender, then he wouldn’t be so afraid to hide in his secret villa for vacation.

In Kingpin’s heart, strength is only one aspect of ensuring his own safety, and the way to keep himself safe is more than strength. In many cases, as long as you have enough cards in your hand, enemies that are much stronger than you will not move against you.

However, for the League of Defender, Kingpin still has too little information. He didn’t know where these people came from, so he couldn’t think about ways to deal with them.

“Two days ago, someone reminded me to be more careful in recent days. It would be better if I hide here completely. I don’t know who will be coming after me this time. But I am not so easy to deal with.

If someone really comes here to deals with me, I will let them know what kind of future awaits them after they become my enemy!” Thinking of the reminder from a mysterious person two days ago, Kingpin’s mood was not very good.

Although Kingpin knew that the person who reminded him was probably someone who had a cooperative relationship with him, the identity of the other party was well hidden this time, and Kingpin did not discover who the other party was.

However, after this anonymous reminder, Kingpin also took some measures to protect himself and he also distributed some of his resources to find that person’s identity. There are now many defenses around this villa.

Kingpin’s cautious character has allowed him to live safely for so many years. Just like this vacation, he at least arranged five-strong Mutants and people with special abilities in the villa’s defense.

So, even if someone really wants to deal with Kingpin, he doesn’t have much to worry about. With the defense around him now, people of average strength would be slaughtered even before they could reach him.

However, Kingpin could have never thought that it was the League of Defender that was going to deal with him this time, the force he had been avoiding. Under SHIELD’s full investigation, Kingpin’s hiding place was completely exposed to Lin Rui and the others, and the people he had contracted to secure his defense should not have the strength that exceeds a Fourth Level Mutant and Lin Rui would be able to deal with them.

Therefore, while Kingpin was thinking about how to continue to expand his Underworld Empire in the future, his subordinate who was guarding the periphery of the villa area had already collapsed unknowingly.

After the guard fell, a figure quickly rushed over him. At the same time, some people were put down in other directions in this villa and then two figures rushed in.

Brush!

When the figure who rushed to the villa was exposed to the sun, someone finally spotted the intruder. After being discovered, the intruder didn't panic at all, and stood indifferently under the sun, facing the two big men in front of him.

The person who suddenly appeared in the Kingpin Villa was no one else but Mirage Knight.

Although the difficulty of dealing with Gangsters like Kingpin is a bit low for Lin Rui, Kingpin is Daredevil's enemy and the League of Defender is happy to help their partners solve this gangster. Moreover, after the elimination of Kingpin, the Underworld Empire controlled by Kingpin will also fall into chaos because there is no leader.

In other words, it will be much easier for Lin Rui to disintegrate this Underworld Empire step by step. In Lin Rui's conjecture, disintegrating Kingpin's Underworld Empire should be a Hidden Quest.

"Who are you!?" The two Third-Level Mutants who were guarding the front hall shouted loudly as they looked at the Black-Clothed Intruder with his face covered.

They have been with Kingpin for a long time, and the hands of these two Third-Level Mutants have also been stained with a lot of innocent blood. If it weren't for the strong feeling they felt from Lin Rui, these two guys would have already taken action.

"Who am I? Actually, it doesn't matter who I am. Because you are not going to live too long for that to matter." Lin Rui answered with a slightly tilted mouth when he heard the question from the two in front of him.

Brush!

In the next moment, Lin Rui's figure had disappeared in place.

Chapter 457 Transformation

Seeing Lin Rui disappearing from his spot in an instant, shock flashed in the eyes of the two people who stood in front of him, and then they immediately assumed a defensive posture.

One of the Mutants obviously has a body-enhancing mutation as the surface of his body instantly becomes a rock-like material, which looks very defensive. The other one does not have such a defense, but he also protected important parts of his body.

They themselves knew that the person who disappeared in front of them didn't come here with kind intentions, so they made the most correct decision at this time.

"Do you think that this will be useful?" However, in the next moment, Lin Rui's voice rang in their ears.

Pū Pū Pū!

At the same time when Lin Rui's voice came out, his attack also arrived, but it seemed that he simply attacked with his fist and punched out. After hitting the Mutant who had turned into a human-shaped rock, Lin Rui also kicked the low-defense power Mutant next to him.

Call!

After a quick shot, Lin Rui's figure appeared behind them. Standing in the lobby of the villa, Lin Rui did not look back at the two people behind him and continued to walk inside.

Kakaka!

After Lin Rui left, the two people who were hit by Lin Rui finally showed some reaction, the rock on the Mutants who had turned into rock slowly shattered under Lin Rui's blow, and directly shattered into small pieces of stones after two seconds.

As for the low defense Mutant, Lin Rui had kicked and he passed out before his ability could be released.

For the current Lin Rui, the strength of Third-Level Mutant is no longer any problem and he can easily defeat them. Unless their abilities are very special which might cause Lin Rui some trouble. Otherwise, they will be solved by Lin Rui with one blow like this.

After two months of fighting with Hydra, Lin Rui now feels that it would be very easy to deal with these underworld forces. It's like a person who has already cleared a Difficult-Level Dungeon and then he went to fight in a Normal dungeon, it would be of course very simple for him.

Lin Rui feels this way now. He regards this action against Kingpin as a simple warm-up activity.

While Lin Rui easily solved Kingpin's men, the guards in the other two directions of the villa were also solved by Spiderman and Daredevil. In this action against Kingpin, the League of Defender dispatched Daredevil, Mirage Knight and Spiderman.

Of course, SHIELD has also sent some special teams behind them. However, they will come out last to clean the battlefield.

Just when Daredevil defeated Kingpin's men and walked towards the inside of the villa. Kingpin, who was basking in the sun on the back balcony of the villa had also noticed that his secret place had been invaded. After failing to contact his subordinates, Kingpin's eyes slowly became gloomy.

"It seems that the people who came to deal with me this time are here!" Kingpin muttered to himself and he quickly armed himself. In the past, Kingpin had encountered some attacks on his person by some hostile forces but he had survived those. But this encounter seemed a bit more difficult for him.

“It’s time to leave!” After confirming that almost all of his subordinates were defeated, Kingpin’s eyes flashed and he rushed towards the top floor of the villa.

Although Kingpin is a peak Third-Level Mutant and he is also very powerful, but it is only relative when comparing it to ordinary people, Kingpin is very self-aware that his own subordinates are not weak and even he wouldn’t be able to deal with them in such a short amount of time.

So, since the invaders defeated his thugs in such a short period of time, Kingpin had no plans to fight them.

For Kingpin, force is not the only means to achieve his goals, and he didn’t get to where he is today just by using force. Therefore, under such circumstances, he would withdraw without any thoughts of fighting. As long as he is still alive, he would be able to kill these attackers in the future.

Da da da!

The tall Kingpin rushed to the top of the villa in a few steps. On this top platform, a private helicopter was quietly parked here, and the pilot inside had already seen Kingpin rushing towards him.

Someone had secretly reminded Kingpin of this attack before and although he was confident in his own defense, he had made enough preparations to run away. This helicopter was his chance to escape.

“Take off!” Kingpin had already shouted loudly before reaching the helicopter.

Kaka!

Seeing Kingpin’s nervousness, the pilot didn’t hesitate and started the helicopter. As long as he was given a short while, he could take Kingpin into the sky.

Whirring whirring!

Seeing that the Rotor of the Helicopter in front of him had turned quickly, the tension in Kingpin’s heart also disappeared. He would just need one minute and he can leave. At that time, no matter who attacked him, it would be impossible for them to catch up with him. Unless the other party can fly.

Brush!

Just as Kingpin strode towards the helicopter that was about to take off, a black figure quickly rushed up from the edge of the top floor of the villa. In front of Kingpin’s surprised gaze, the black figure stepped on his foot and jumped several times in the air, and then he rushed towards him.

“Quick! Quick!” Kingpin urged loudly when he saw that person.

At the same time, Kingpin’s whole body was undergoing drastic changes. The already burly figure began to swell rapidly, and the muscles and bones seemed to be pumping up.

Soon, Kingpin, who rushed out three steps, swelled into a giant of about five meters, and his whole body muscles were hinged together which looked very shocking.

This is Kingpin’s mutation ability, and his body’s deformation is strengthened. Although it is a relatively common Mutation Ability, Kingpin’s enhancement level is obviously very high.

Kingpin's whole body bursts out with his own abilities and he suddenly rises into the sky, looking like a human-shaped tank. Kingpin would directly kill the guy who dared to rush towards him! He will let these attackers know that he is not someone they can just kill!

When Kingpin had turned into a giant and rushed towards the person who charged up, that person didn't seem to notice the Kingpin's transformation. However, even if he noticed it, he probably wouldn't care. Because the figure did not feel the slightest threat at all.

"Huh?! Is that Kingpin?" The person who had rushed up from the edge of the top floor of the villa was not someone else but Lin Rui who had already taken care of his opponent. He flew up directly after feeling the movement on the roof and he saw a giant form hitting towards him.

According to the information obtained from SHIELD, Kingpin does have the ability to transform like this, and his strength after transforming is also very good. However, Lin Rui did not pay attention to Kingpin's transformation at all.

For Lin Rui, the difficulty of dealing with the current Kingpin is already very low. Moreover, he wants to leave Kingpin to Daredevil. Therefore, after noticing the humanoid tank rushing towards him, Lin Rui tapped his feet twice on the ground and avoided the frontal attack.

Chapter 458 Running Away

Brush!

While avoiding the collision with Kingpin, Lin Rui had already waved his hand and pulled out the Beheading Spirit Sword directly from his waist and swung it forward. The weapon he had just acquired was finally used in a fight.

However, this time Lin Rui only used it to prevent the helicopter from taking off. If he didn't shoot, the helicopter will really fly away and although it is impossible for Kingpin to escape, Lin Rui will not let him leave on a fluke.

Bang! Rumble!

As a blue light flashed, the helicopter that had slowly taken off from the top of the villa was directly divided into two halves from the middle and it fell down while producing sparks, and soon exploded on the top of the building.

"Ah! Die, you bastard!" Kingpin, who was avoided by Lin Rui, saw that his escape tool was destroyed, and roared towards him.

Since it is now impossible for him to escape, Kingpin has only one choice which is to fight. He will live through this day. Even he doesn't know how many times he has wandered between life and death, but it is he who survives every time! It will be the same this time! He is going to tear up that guy and get out of here alive!

"Why are you so angry? Don't you know who I am by now?" Lin Rui asked calmly while standing on the top of the villa looking at Kingpin who was already filled with anger. Behind Lin Rui, the destroyed helicopter was still burning.

“Who are you?!... It’s you! You are that Mirage Knight!” Kingpin’s eyes flashed with light when he heard Lin Rui’s words and the next second he remembered who the guy in the black suit was! He turned out to be a member of the organization he had been avoiding: Mirage Knight in the League of Defender!

“Yes, it seems that you have known about us. However, now that we have come to your door, do you really think that you would be able to escape?” Lin Rui asked easily after hearing Kingpin’s words.

In order not to lose too much of his power, Kingpin has completely abandoned his various business in New York after the establishment of the League of Defender.

He had thought that he would be fine by avoiding Daredevil and the League Of Defenders, but he didn’t expect them to come after him. Kingpin was also very annoyed. Someone had already informed him of an attack and he was still too confident!

“Huh! What are you here for?! I have shrunk my power in New York and stopped all of my business. You should have no reason to come after me so why are you here. Do I have to keep backing down again? I won’t be backing down anymore. Don’t push your luck or you will die here” Many thoughts appeared in his mind and Kingpin looked at Mirage Knight in front of him and suddenly shouted.

“Oh? Really? This is a bit unexpected.” Lin Rui was a little surprised when he saw Kingpin’s plan to fight for the last time. He really didn’t expect that someone like Kingpin to fight till death.

“Go to hell!”

Pū Pū Pū!

While Lin Rui was still surprised, Kingpin suddenly took out a small machine gun from behind him and shot Lin Rui. However, when shooting, Kingpin did not approach Lin Rui, but slowly moved towards the edge of the building. Lin Rui didn’t know how Kingpin hid this weapon in his body, but this guy doesn’t seem to be planning to have a hard fight.

Pū Pū Pū!

Although Kingpin took out his machine gun and fired it suddenly, Lin Rui just stood there and didn’t move. For the current upgraded Phantom Suit, this type of attack can no longer cause even a little damage to Lin Rui.

He only saw the bullets that had been fired at high speed getting bounced off after coming in contact with the Phantom Suit and even a little impact was not transmitted.

“Hey! Although your efforts are worthy of recognition, the gap in our strength is too big.” Lin Rui spoke faintly while squinting at the figure of Kingpin. However, when he noticed Kingpin’s position, the expression on his face changed.

“Didn’t you say that you won’t back down?!” Lin Rui shouted out at the moment when he saw Kingpin moving slowly. It turned out that Kingpin had reached the edge of the roof while Lin Rui was blocked by the machine gun, and was planning to jump down when Lin Rui looked over.

Call!

Without answering Lin Rui’s words, Kingpin threw away the empty machine-gun in his hand.

Then he jumped down from the fourth floor. If Kingpin was an ordinary person, such a height would be enough to smash him to death. However, Kingpin, who has the ability to strengthen his body, obviously doesn't care about this height.

Lin Rui only saw his huge figure descending aggressively towards the ground, and he still couldn't tell how he was going to escape.

Bang!

Finally, Kingpin, who jumped from the fourth floor, landed on the lawn outside the villa. Kingpin stepped on the ground leaving two huge footprints, but he didn't stay still at all, and continued to rush towards the jungle behind the villa. As long as he enters the jungle, he still has a chance to escape with his familiarity with the terrain.

However, he was just doing useless work. Lin Rui at the top of the building just walked towards the edge of the building and watched Kingpin fall to the ground. He had no plans to go down and pursue him.

Because Daredevil has already chased after him. Kingpin is Daredevil's enemy, and he will definitely leave this opportunity to Daredevil.

Call!

While Lin Rui looked at Kingpin who was fleeing below, Spiderman also appeared behind him. Peter has also defeated his opponent, and the only one who remained is Kingpin who is currently fleeing.

"Daredevil has chased after him. How long do you think it will take him to beat-up the big guy?" Walking towards Lin Rui's side, Spiderman asked Lin Rui while watching Kingpin fleeing below.

"Um~ it should not take him more than a minute. However, if Daredevil wants Wilson to suffer more then it may take a little longer." Lin Rui replied after thinking about it after hearing Peter's words.

"I think so too. Although that big guy looks very powerful, Daredevil is already very strong now! By the way, Jackson, Daredevil told me before that you gave him the Martial Arts he is currently practicing. Then can I also learn it?" Peter nodded when he heard Lin Rui's answer.

Then Peter suddenly remembered something and asked.

Speaking of which, Lin Rui handed over "Soaring Dragon Art" to Daredevil a long time ago. Moreover, for the current Lin Rui, this Martial Art was already at a very Low Level.

However, he doesn't know if it is the particularity of Daredevil itself or something else, but a Low-Level Cultivation Technique has allowed him to grow to his present strength and it seems that he still hasn't reached his peak.

And when Peter learned that Daredevil's strength increased because of the Martial Technique given to him by Lin Rui, his heart also itched to train in it.

"You want to learn Martial Arts?" Lin Rui asked curiously when he heard Peter. Spiderman's Strength Growth is already very high, in Lin Rui's view, there is no need for him to learn martial arts.

“Well, although I have the Spider-Sense and my power, I am not as good as you and Daredevil in the use of the said power. Therefore, I want to learn your Martial Arts, which should enhance my strength by a lot.” Seeing Lin Rui’s curiosity, Peter briefly explained his reasoning in two sentences.

For what they will experience in the future, Peter feels that his strength still needs to be improved. After all, the earth civilization may enter the era of Interstellar Navigation in Peter’s lifetime!

“Well, I will give you a copy of Martial Art when I go back. However, I am not sure how much it will increase your strength. It depends on people.” Hearing Peter’s explanation, Lin Rui nodded and spoke.

Then, their gaze shifted to Kingpin again. Because Kingpin, who was still fleeing just now, has stopped. In front of his tall body stood a man in a crimson hero suit. The obstacle was obviously Daredevil, the hatred between him and Kingpin for many years would finally come to an end.

Chapter 459 Secret Mission

After half an hour, Lin Rui and Peter had already come down from the roof. The play is over. Although Kingpin is strong, he is no match for Daredevil. After venting all the anger and frustration he had accumulated for many years, Daredevil finally killed his enemy.

Da Da~

“Daredevil, are you okay?” Lin Rui asked caringly when he walked to Daredevil’s side. Daredevil’s father died under Kingpin and now he finally used his own strength to kill his enemy, his emotions must be all over the place.

“Well, I am okay. I have just notified SHIELD’s team waiting outside, they will take care of the situation here.” Hearing the voice from behind him, Daredevil replied faintly after turning around.

“That’s good, let’s go. After Wilson’s death, his Underworld Empire will be without a leader. I believe it will collapse soon. Of course, we will also ensure that it collapses as quickly as possible.” Seeing that Daredevil is fine, Lin Rui walked over and patted him on the shoulder and said.

“Mirage Knight, Spiderman, thank you!” Daredevil is very grateful to have killed his enemy with the help of his partner since he fought alone in the past.

“Well, let’s not talk about this anymore. Wilson is dead now. Let’s go to the Sisters Margaret Bar for a few drinks today. We haven’t gone there for some time.” Hearing Daredevil’s grateful words, Lin Rui said with a smile.

“Mirage Knight, we can’t drink yet!” When Lin Rui said he was going to drink, Peter reminded him quietly.

Snap!

However, Lin Rui ignored Peter and patted him on the shoulder before striding out. Daredevil also walked past Kingpin’s corpse. He really needs to be drunk tonight. Not long after the Lin Rui and the other two left, SHIELD’s Special Team appeared.

The team that accepted Rogers’ order quickly cleared the area, and the people who were severely injured and unconscious were taken away.

Huhu~

Just when Lin Rui and others in the United States teamed up with SHIELD to solve big cancer named Wilson, in a country far away from the United States, Black Widow Natasha, who had been missing for a long time, was wandering in a slum in a city.

As the top agent of SHIELD, Natasha looks indistinguishable from the locals in her disguise. Besides, she is already multi-lingual, so she integrates very well here.

Long before SHIELD took their final action on Hydra, Natasha was dispatched by Fury to execute a mission with top-level confidentiality. Now that Natasha has been missing for two weeks, she is now in a slum in a foreign country.

Her mission is also a mystery. Of course, if Lin Rui knew Natasha's whereabouts, he might have a guess as to what Natasha was doing here. However, Lin Rui does not know anything.

Da Da~

Walking like a local on the streets of the slums of this foreign city, Natasha is actually paying attention to the people around her and the situation. She is looking for something. The Top-Level mission that Fury gave to Natasha before was to find Dr. Banner. Of course, he has another name, The Hulk.

After seeing the emergence of endless superpowered people in the world, Fury felt that SHIELD's abilities were not strong enough. In order to allow SHIELD to have a sharp blade to deter other forces on the earth, Director Fury remembered a piece of top-secret information that only a few people knew. And that information was about Dr. Banner who is invincible once he turned into Hulk.

However, Dr. Banner had been hiding his identity and whereabouts for a long time because he would transform into Hulk once he was angry and hurt those around him. Even SHIELD needed to dispatch their most Elite Agents to have a chance in finding him. So, Natasha was sent out.

However, Natasha didn't expect that Fury would be removed from the Director's position from SHIELD before she even finished this top-secret mission, which surprised her.

Although Natasha belongs to SHIELD, this mission was given to her by Fury. Therefore, Natasha decided to continue with her mission without receiving the next order. Recently, she is close to finding the kind-hearted Dr. Banner.

And just today, Natasha got the latest order from Captain Rogers. Captain Rogers, who has completely taken over the power of SHIELD, also knew about Natasha's ongoing mission.

Rogers' orders were to let Natasha continue to look for Dr. Banner. However, compared to Fury who wanted the Hulk more than Dr. Banner, Captain Rogers wants Dr. Banner more than Hulk. With his alliance with the League of Defender and X-Men, Rogers is not too worried about the weakness of the Armed Forces in his hands.

Call!

While Natasha was walking casually on the street, a teenage girl ran out of a run-down house next to her. The little girl is thin and weak, obviously the kind of child who has not developed well because of malnutrition.

However, such a situation is very normal in this slum area. No one can guarantee that their family life will be stable, and everyone is trying their best to survive.

However, after seeing the little girl who ran out, Natasha's eyes flashed. When the little girl ran past her, Natasha followed her without attracting anyone's attention.

At the edge of this slum are more dilapidated houses, where some people who have no family and no money live. And the little girl ran straight here after she ran out of her home, and it seems that she came to look for someone.

Natasha, who has been following the little girl from behind also chased after her. Looking at the little girl in front, Natasha's eyes became brighter and brighter. It seems that her investigation for so many days has finally paid off.

Huhu!

Finally, the little girl who trotted all the way got into a crumbling house after passing through several fences. Natasha, who followed, did not immediately follow in, but carefully observed around the house.

While Natasha was observing the house, several locals walked out of it. Natasha used her professional skills to easily derive the information she wanted. There lived a doctor, a doctor who specializes in treating poor people who have no money to see a doctor. After getting this news, Natasha was more convinced that she had found her goal this time.

When Dr. Banner turned himself into Hulk because of the failure of the experiment, he was always looking for a way to eliminate Hulk or completely control him. Therefore, in addition to his high achievements in the physical sciences, Dr. Banner later made high achievements in Biological Science, especially Gene Mutations.

Therefore, helping some poor people in this slum is a very simple matter for Dr. Banner.

After determining that her mission target was in this house, Natasha first contacted her backup team from SHIELD's Special Department. Then, she slowly walked into the room alone.

Chapter 460 The World Needs You

In the dim room, there is some furniture that has been used a lot. The only clean place is probably the living room and the back bedroom. At this moment, the little girl who ran in before was standing in a corner of the living room, and in front of her was a Middle-Aged Man who was dressed somewhat differently from the locals.

Because the Man was facing the wall at this time, she still can't see what he looks like for now.

"Please, save my father!" Holding a few small coins in her hand, the little girl looked at the man in front of her and begged.

Everyone said that the man who lives here is a doctor and he is very kind-hearted. The little girl's father has been in bed for several days. If he doesn't get good then their whole family will collapse. Therefore, the little girl came here and begged the man to go out and treat her father.

Hearing the little girl's crying request, the man who was facing the wall and packing up things slowly turned around. After the man turned around, the little girl could see his appearance clearly.

As her neighbor said, this man is a foreigner. Although it seems that there are some vicissitudes of life and a lot of tiredness on his face because of traveling all year round, it is obvious that he is a white man. Moreover, the man also wears a pair of glasses and looks like a very kind scholar. In the little girl's heart, a kind doctor should be like this.

This somewhat shabby Middle-Aged Man is Bruce Banner, also known as The Hulk in Marvel World. Regardless of the settings of the comics or movies, the power of Hulk is already on the top. Of course, the current Banner is still working hard to maintain a calm mood in order to control the Hulk in his body.

"Speak slowly, what's wrong with your father?" Dr. Banner asked when he looked at the poor little girl in front of him after he packed his things.

"My father... he is sick! He coughs very badly, he has a fever, and he hasn't gotten out of bed for several days." The little girl quickly replied after seeing the doctor in front of her speaking to her.

"Well, it's probably the recent flu. I'll prepare something, and I'll go over to see your father right away." After hearing the little girl's words, Dr. Banner said without hesitation.

Although Dr. Banner has been wandering around the World to avoid the pursuit of various forces over the years, he still tries his best to help the locals wherever he goes.

Dr. Banner himself is a very kind scientist. Although the Hulk in his body can break apart a City in a day, this is not what Banner wants. After years of wandering around the world and doing some soul searching, Dr. Banner has now made good progress in controlling Hulk in his body.

After agreeing to the little girl, Dr. Banner set about preparing something to treat the flu. However, just as he was preparing something, another person walked in from outside.

Banner didn't pay attention at first, after all, many people come here to ask for help every day. However, when he felt a familiar feeling from the person who came in, a faint fluctuation flashed in his eyes.

Da Da ~ Da Da ~

The new person walked in smoothly and walked slowly towards the center of the living room. At this time, the little girl who had been worried about her father's illness also noticed the person suddenly appearing behind her, she turned to look at that person.

After the little girl turned around, she saw a beautiful lady who looked like a foreigner. When the little girl looked at her, the lady smiled at her and then stared at Dr. Banner, who was facing away from her.

Call!

Dr. Banner, who had been preparing the medicine, turned around as if he hadn't noticed that there was another person in the room. After seeing the appearance of Natasha, who had taken off her disguise, Dr. Banner's expression did not change at all, except that his original peaceful expression seemed to freeze a bit.

"For someone who needs to stay calm at all times, this doesn't seem to be a very good place for you." Seeing that Dr. Banner didn't react after seeing her, Natasha smiled and spoke first.

Now that she has accepted such a confidentiality mission, Natasha obviously has knowledge about Dr. Banner and the Hulk in him.

Both Dr. Banner and Hulk are people who SHIELD needs right now. Dr. Banner is a genius scientist with very high achievements in various fields; Hulk is someone who can break apart any military force in this world. So far, they have not encountered a person who can subdue or interact with Hulk.

"Are you here for me?" Dr. Banner asked calmly as his eyes shifted from the medicine in his hand to Natasha's body.

For so many years, Dr. Banner has been paying attention to his whereabouts every moment, trying to avoid those forces that are looking for him. However, Dr. Banner knew that no matter how much he avoided them, those forces would not give up, and he could not really avoid them for a lifetime. However, Dr. Banner was a little surprised to have been found so soon.

"Dr. Bruce Banner, I'm here on behalf of SHIELD. I don't have any bad intentions towards you." Natasha said with a smile on her face when she heard Dr. Banner's obviously unkind tone.

Before coming here, Natasha had made enough preparations. She knew that Dr. Banner was very kind and intellectual without being transformed. Therefore, she has a relatively high degree of certainty that she can stabilize Dr. Banner. At least, Natasha thinks that with her beauty, she can get some favorability from Dr. Banner.

"Haha...SHIELD. I also heard about you guys recently, you were on the news and you guys have indeed done a lot of big things. Director Fury really manages SHIELD very well. It seems that under his leadership, SHIELD can indeed bring 'Peace' to the world." After hearing Natasha's words, Dr. Banner said indifferently. However, Natasha could feel a lot of disdain in his tone.

Dr. Banner is not a fool, he can probably guess why Natasha had come here, but Dr. Banner has determined that he does not want to go back and be studied as an experiment.

SHIELD is a place that needs to be known by someone in Dr. Banner's situation and he doesn't believe that they will look at him as a normal person when he goes back.

Dr. Banner did not want to get confined to a cage for research because he could not control the power of his own body.

"Yes, but there is one thing you probably don't know yet. Director Fury has been removed, and now SHIELD is being led by Captain America Steve Rogers." How could Natasha not hear the disdain in Dr. Banner's tone, so she went straight to the point.

Call!

Hearing Natasha's words, Banner's calm eyes suddenly became sharper. There was no little girl waiting beside him. Banner's cold eyes looked directly at Natasha, and his momentum couldn't help but slowly increase. At this time, Banner did not look like a weak doctor, but a powerful warrior.

"Fury was from the Director's position?!" Seemingly unable to believe it, Dr. Banner asked again.

"Yes, it happened three days ago. So, Captain Rogers is the Director of SHIELD now. And, we need your help, Dr. Banner, the World needs your help." Looking at Dr. Banner's eyes, Natasha seriously replied.
