Chapter 471 Take Action

When Tony walked back while holding Pepper's hand, Pepper still had an expression of disbelief on her face.

Based on Pepper's understanding of Tony, he should have been unprepared for anything, and the flowers he had just given her should have been everything he had prepared. Did Tony really prepare a romantic candlelight dinner for her? Pepper didn't believe it at all.

"Okay, my Beautiful Ms. Pepper, please sit down." Taking Pepper to a slightly decorated table, Tony smiled and pulled a chair for her.

Although there were still doubts in her mind, Pepper sat down in the chair, and she planned to see how Tony planned to conjure herself a candlelight dinner. And just after Pepper sat down, the surrounding lights suddenly dimmed, and then the music was also played, which was obviously done by JARVIS.

Phoo~

In the romantic light and music, Tony sat across from Pepper. Then, in front of Pepper's expectant eyes, Tony smiled and snapped his fingers.

Snapped!

Gulugulu~

The next second, a sound of wheels turning came from the wall behind the living room. Then, Pepper saw a small dining car slowly appear in front of her. While Pepper was surprised, the chef pushing the dining car also appeared.

He was a very young handsome guy. At the same time, another handsome young waiter also came out and went to the table to help Pepper and Tony sort the tableware.

"Jackson? Peter?" Seeing these two handsome Chef and Waiter, Pepper cried out in surprise.

Tony and Pepper didn't know that Happy was following Killian's little attendant to a square in the center of New York. Tony was having a Romantic Candlelight Dinner with Pepper at this time in his villa.

Although Lin Rui and Peter were temporarily acting as a Guest Chef and Waiter, they did a really good job. At least Pepper was pleasantly surprised.

Because Christmas is approaching, New York is filled with a festive atmosphere. The small square where Killian's attendant came has been decorated. It looks very beautiful and there were a lot of people here.

The square is near a big theater, and many young people come to watch the show at this time. In order to find out what Killian's purpose was, Happy entered the square after his man.

After entering the square, in order not to be found, Happy pretended to buy things in a small stall but was actually using the mirror to observe what Killian Man was doing. So when Happy saw that the Man handed a suitcase to a man who didn't look like he is with him sitting on a stool, he thought he had discovered something.

After Killian's Man left, Happy put down his glasses and walked towards the guy who was carrying the box and was about to leave.

Bang~

"Ah! I'm sorry Buddy! I'll help you."

Walking head-on towards the guy carrying the box, Happy pretended to accidentally hit him and knocked the box in his hand to the ground. All the things in the unlocked box were scattered on the ground, and Happy apologized while helping to pack his things up.

Of course, Happy quietly took a small object from it, and he thought that it should contain drugs or something.

After getting what he wanted, Happy prepared to leave as if nothing had happened. As long as Happy goes back and can prove that the thing in his hand is indeed drugs or something like that, Killian, who had made Happy very upset, will be punished. With Tony's background, Happy believed he would not let go of his "Rival In Love".

Bang~

However, just as Happy was about to leave, he ran into someone head-on. After seeing who the person who hit him was, the expression on Happy's face looked a little ugly, but it soon recovered to normal.

Because it was Killian's Man who had hit Happy as he was leaving. No one knows whether Happy was followed by him or he really comes back for something.

"Hey! Buddy, are you watching the movie too?" Before Happy could speak, Killian's Man smiled and asked first.

"Of course, I am watching a little movie called 'The Party's Over', Starring you and your junkie girlfriend, and here's the ticket." As Happy said this, he showed what he had just gotten.

Although Happy was discovered, he didn't worry too much, not to mention that Happy's physique is much bigger than that of the Man in front of him. He is also a Professional bodyguard himself and he doesn't have many opportunities to show off by standing beside Iron Man.

Therefore, if this Man is going to be difficult then Happy doesn't mind letting him feel the power of his fist.

Hearing what Happy said, and seeing what Happy was holding, the smirk on Man's face changed instantly. This Man originally thought that Happy was following him, but he didn't expect that Happy had already got the thing. Therefore, even if this is the downtown area of ??New York, he has to take action to grab the thing back.

"That doesn't belong to you." The Man stared at the thing in Happy's hand and said indifferently. As he said, he had reached out to grab the thing in Happy's hand.

Call!

Seeing the movement of the Man, Happy grabbed what was in his hand. Seeing the change in the attitude of the Man, Happy knew that he had found their sore spots, how could he honestly return the thing to him.

After giving way, the Man suddenly stretched out his hand and Happy also fought back, and quickly punched the Man in the face.

Bang!

Seemingly too lazy to hide, the Man was directly punched in the face by Happy. However, the Man only had his head deflected under this punch. When he turned back again, Happy saw a very surprising scene.

Chuckle~

The Man's face had a wound where Happy punched him but a Red Light suddenly appeared under the Man's skin. After this light appeared, the wound on the Man's face instantly recovered.

Seeing this scene, Happy was a little stunned, but he wasn't someone who had never seen the world before. After being a little stunned, he reacted and punched again.

Call!

However, this time the Man does not intend to get passively beaten. When Happy shook his fist, the man ducked away, and then quickly attacked with both hands and directly locked Happy's arm.

Brush!

Before Happy could react, the man suddenly lifted Happy from the ground and then threw him out.

Bang!

Crossing a parabola in the air, Happy collapsed into a small stall and fell heavily to the ground. And just before Happy fell to the ground, a faint green light suddenly came out from the inner pocket of his clothes, enveloping Happy's body in an instant.

The light green light that appeared suddenly seemed to have magical defensive power, so when Happy fell to the ground, he just received some shocks and didn't feel any physical injury.

"Damn! He is so strong?!" Happy got up from the ground and muttered helplessly while staring at the man who was walking towards him. As for why he was thrown out and not injured, Happy had no time to think about it for now.

Chapter 472 Bitter Experience

"Savin! Help! Save me!" Just as Happy was thinking about how to deal with such a strong opponent, the addict he had collided with before suddenly squatted on the ground and shouted out in pain.

When Happy looked over towards him suspiciously, he saw that the pale-faced guy was now showing a red light all over his body, the same color as the color that appeared in Killian's Man body after he had just punched him.

However, the light inside the addict who was calling for help was exceptionally bright, as if his whole person was about to be burst by the light inside.

Call!

Hearing that person's call for help, and then seeing that person's appearance, Killian's Man called Savin didn't hesitate to give up on Happy and ran away. Seeing the actions of Killian Man, Happy quickly found shelter and hid in.

Boom! Rumble!

The moment after Happy hid, the guy with red light all over his body suddenly yelled, and then he really exploded! A violent explosion occurred in this small square, and a powerful shock wave swept across the small square with flames.

At this moment, the tourists in the entire square screamed and ran around, but many were still swallowed by the flames of the explosion.

Huhu!

The violent explosion wave directly blasted the stroll that Happy had temporarily hidden behind to pieces, and then the flames and impact of the pavement had rushed towards Happy.

Just when Happy was holding his head and preparing to resist the blast, a light green light came out from his clothes again, and a faint light curtain was instantly placed around Happy's body.

"Huh?! This is?..." Happy didn't notice the green light when it appeared last time, but he saw it this time, so he was very surprised. However, Happy had no time to find out where this green light came from as the flames had already hit him.

Buzzing!

Just as Happy bit his lips and waited for the damage coming from below, he only felt a shock and heatwave and then he was pushed back by a strong force.

After rolling awkwardly on the ground for a few laps, Happy finally lay on the ground and waited for the aftermath of the explosion to end. At this time, the green light that enveloped Happy was very dim, and it seemed to be dissipating with the time.

Rumbling~huhu~

Happy was not seriously injured by the close-range explosion because of the protection of the green light but the entire square was blown into ruins in this sudden explosion.

Because this explosion happened suddenly, although some people were far away from the center of the square because of the fight between Killian's Man and Happy before the explosion, the power of the explosion directly destroyed the entire square. Therefore, the number of casualties caused by this explosion is very high.

On the streets near the square, dozens of cars were affected by the power of the explosion, and their windows were shattered by the shock wave. When the explosion flame rushed out of the square, it completely detonated the panic among the passers-by.

Suddenly, the accidental explosion in the center of New York city spread at an extremely fast speed. Recalling the recent threats made by the terrorist Mandarin, everyone naturally blamed Mandarin for this explosion.

Kaka~ Kaka!

Not to mention the panic caused by the explosion, Happy, who was still on the edge of the explosion center, was lying on the ground and trying to get up. Although the green light helped Happy block most of the power of the explosion, a small part of the shock wave and flame broke through its defense and injured Happy.

However, the remaining power did not cause much damage to Happy. Now Happy is only aching all over, and his suit has been burned in a few places.

“Cough cough cough!” Covering his mouth, Happy glanced at the ruined square and coughed in a low voice.

Happy didn’t understand how he could survive this powerful explosion. Not far from Happy, a corpse that was destroyed by an explosion was lying there, showing the power behind the explosion.

Squeak, Squeak~~

Just when Happy was still feeling a little dizzy because of the explosion, the sound of footsteps on the ruins reached Happy’s ears from not far away.

Hearing this sound of footsteps, Happy felt danger for the first time. Therefore, before seeing the owner of the footsteps, Happy quickly hid to the side of the collapsed corner. With the help of occluders, Happy can see part of the feet of the person who was approaching.

Squeak, Squeak~

Finally, the sound of footsteps slowly approached the position where Happy was hiding and stopped. Happy, who was hiding in the corner saw the man staying there for a while and it seemed that he is looking for something. After a few seconds, the owner of the footsteps changed his directions and left soon.

“Huh! Who the hell is he!?” The person had already left, but Happy was still thinking about the scene he had just seen.

Although Happy could only see the part below the knee of the person who came towards him, he was sure that this person was Killian’s Man. What’s even more surprising is that this Man should have been seriously injured in the explosion.

When he walked over, only half of his right foot was left, but the Red Light appeared and he quickly healed. Except for his blown right foot, the other wounds on the follower's body also quickly recovered and it was obviously because of the red light.

Call!

After confirming that Killian's Man had left, Happy sat down on the ground and fainted. He was shocked by the explosion and he saw something very surprising. Now the flames in the ruins are still burning, and Happy finally fainted because of insufficient oxygen and his physical injury.

In Tony's seaside villa, Pepper and Tony had a very good birthday candlelight dinner under the service of Lin Rui and Peter. Although Lin Rui's cooking is not as good as that of a Professional Chef, Pepper is not a picky person. She is very satisfied with Tony's arrangement today.

However, just as Tony and Pepper finished eating and Tony was about to invite Pepper to a dance, JARVIS, who should have been quiet, suddenly said, "Sir, Colonel Rhodes is calling, and he also sent a message."

Although Rhodes contacted him at this time and it made Tony a little uncomfortable but he wouldn't just leave Rhodes like that. He glanced at Pepper and said he was sorry. Pepper, of course, asked Tony to answer Rhodes's call first, after all, Rhodes represents someone from the Military.

"J.A.R.V.I.S, Accept the call." Tony took out his cell phone to read the message from Rhodes and asked JARVIS to accept the call.

Chapter 473 Anger

Call!

However, when Tony saw the message from Rhodes, Tony, who had been very relaxed, suddenly stood up from his chair and exuded an aura of anger.

"What's wrong? Tony?" Seeing Tony's sudden change, Pepper, who was sitting across from him, asked concerned.

"It's Happy, something happened to him! Pepper, I have to deal with it before it gets out of hand, hold on to that dance for me." Tony replied solemnly, looking at the beauty in front of him.

"Something's wrong with Happy? Okay, go!" Hearing Tony's answer, Pepper replied immediately with a surprised look on her face. No matter what happened to Happy, looking at Tony's serious look, it must be a big deal.

"Jackson, Peter, come with me!" Just before picking up Rhodes's call, Tony shouted to Lin Rui and Peter who were standing by.

Then Tony quickly walked towards his basement. The message Rhodes sent is very simple. It means that there was an explosion in the middle of New York City, which was suspected of being planned by the Mandarin Terrorist Forces. Many civilians were killed and injured, and Happy was among them.

In fact, Lin Rui and Peter were already very curious after hearing what Tony had just explained to Pepper, so after hearing Tony calling for them, they nodded towards Pepper and quickly followed him.

A minute later, the three of them returned to the basement again. However, this time Tony went to the basement dedicated to storing his Iron Man Armor.

“Rhodes, are you sure it was Mandarin?” Rhodes on the other end of the phone was still talking to Tony and Tony asked with a serious look on his face.

However, compared to the nervousness and anger he had felt just now, Tony is obviously more nervous than anger. Because, Rhodes told Tony that Happy was very lucky, but he was still slightly injured.

“The On-Site Investigation is not over yet, but I have already looked at the situation, it should be almost done.” Rhodes on the phone answered seriously after hearing Tony’s question.

This bombing attack in Downtown New York completely scared the entire society. After all, the bombing on the front line of the battlefield occurred far away. Although everyone would condemn it in their own homes and they would feel uncomfortable if their soldiers were injured and sacrificed their lives.

But,

The family members of the common people wouldn’t have much impact on their lives because of it. However, this explosion was on their doorstep, and it was still in the downtown area of ??an international metropolis like New York.

Therefore, the entire United States and the World are now caught in fear and anger towards Mandarin because of this bombing attack.

“Mandarin! This guy just signed his death warrant!” Tony said in a deep tone when he heard Rhodes’ answer.

After a few more conversations with Rhodes, Tony hung up. Then, his gaze turned towards Lin Rui and Peter who had been standing beside him. During the time Tony called, Lin Rui and Peter had also seen the explosive attack that maxed out all websites through the Internet via their mobile phones.

Although he was very angry at such an explosive attack, Lin Rui didn’t remember who this Mandarin was for some time.

“I’ll go to the hospital to see Happy. Although Rhodes said he was fine but he was injured. Moreover, I suspect that Happy should knows something. So, I hope you can go to the explosion site to see it first.” These two guys may seem like high school students, but the fact remains that they are Vigilante with Great Power and Strength so Tony directly spoke to them.

“Okay, Mr. Stark. I will investigate the scene carefully, and I will tell you if I find anything.”

“Yeah, you can go see Harpy first, and leave the site to us.”

“I will let JARVIS send you out, now, Armed!”

Kakaka!

Just after Tony finished shouting, several mechanical arms suddenly stretched out from where he was standing, each arm holding a part of the Iron Man Armor and quickly arming Tony. Lin Rui and Peter walked directly toward the two Iron Man Armor placed aside, and JARVIS helped them to Arm themselves.

Shoo!

After another minute, three Iron Mans quickly rushed out of the basement of Tony's beach villa. The three Iron Mans rushed to the high altitude together, and then hurriedly left in two directions on the high altitude. The Iron Man driven by Lin Rui and Peter headed towards the location of the explosion, and Tony flew towards the hospital where Happy was currently being treated.

Ten minutes later, Tony had arrived at the hospital where Happy was. After entering the ward, Tony saw that Happy was a little unwell leaning on the bed. As Rhodes said on the phone, Happy was only slightly injured. Compared to the other people in the center of the explosion, Happy was indeed lucky.

Before Tony came, some military personnel had asked Happy about some information. However, Happy simply acted like he didn't know anything. Because he felt that what he saw might not be something that can be solved by the US military, so Happy decided to wait until Tony came over.

So, when he saw Tony walking into the ward, he immediately wanted to get out of bed.

"Tony!"

"Don't move! Just take a good rest and get well as soon as you can." Tony hurried over to Happy after seeing him trying to get up from the bed.

Phoo~

Hearing Tony's words, Happy continued to lie back. Now that Tony has arrived, he has something to say.

"Okay, let's talk about it, do you know anything about this bombing attack? Rhodes told me you seem to be hiding something. Was it something that you couldn't explain to the military?" Tony looked at Happy from up and down and after seeing the situation, he was relieved and then asked.

"Yes! I know how this explosion happened!" Happy replied with a serious look on his face when Tony asked his question.

"Huh? Really!?" Hearing Happy's answer, Tony's eyes lit up and he asked quickly.

"Yes! I also know why every bomb attack was so unexpected." Looking at Tony's eyes, Happy said seriously.

"These explosions are more than accidents. Up to now, I don't even know what the explosives are."

"Of course no explosives will be found, because this is a real human bomb! People are the bombs!"

"People are the bombs? Is he an Enhanced or a Mutant?" Tony's eyes became sharp when he heard this. If it's really an Enhanced or a Mutant, then this kind of thing really doesn't belong to the ordinary military as they won't be able to manage it.

"I don't know if it is an Enhanced or a Mutant, but I think there should be more than one or two of them. I followed Killian's Man tonight, and he went all the way..." Then, Happy told Tony everything that happened after he followed Killian's Man.

Finally, Happy took out the small bottle he had been hiding, "This is something that the Man gave to the bomber. I thought it was drugs or something at first. But depending on the current situation, it might be something different. Something more."

As a result, Tony took a closer look at the small bottle that Happy handed over. However, from the outside, Tony could only judge that it was some kind of drug, and he had to go back and study it more carefully.

"You did a good job Happy, but don't do such a dangerous thing next time." Putting the small bottle away, Tony patted Happy on the shoulder and spoke.

"As Iron Man's former bodyguard, it should be like this."

"However, there is one thing I don't quite understand." Looking at Tony, Happy asked with a weird look in his eyes.

Chapter 474 Discovery

In the ward, Happy raised his head and looked at Tony asked with some confusion.

"Hmm, what's the matter?" Tony asked curiously as he saw the look on Happy's face.

"That is, although I was not at the center of the explosion but the distance between us was not that far away, I should have been seriously injured at the time. However, I was only slightly injured."

"Well, isn't it good luck? It may be that the place where you were hiding at the time blocked the power of the explosion." Hearing what Happy said, Tony replied indifferently.

"Actually, that's not the case. At that time, when I was about to be swallowed by the flames, a green light suddenly appeared all over my body. That green light formed a defense around me and helped me block most of the explosive power. Otherwise, it would have been impossible for me to just have a minor injury." Seeing that Tony didn't seem to know what was happening to him, Happy went on to explain.

Happy had thought that the Green Light that helped him block the power of the explosion was something that Tony had made, but now looking at Tony's reaction, he doesn't seem to know anything.

"The defense of the green light?" Tony's eyes flashed a little after hearing what Happy said, Tony really knew this kind of thing.

When Lin Rui first started contacting Tony, in order to make Tony feel better after being kidnapped by terrorists, he once gave Tony a Beginner Guardian Talisman. That Guardian Talisman helped Tony survive that hard time, allowing him to escape the Desert in a better state.

And after Tony discovered the magic item Lin Rui gave him, he also asked Lin Rui to let him study it. Although Tony's research didn't give him anything, he had already known about the Guardian Talisman.

So, when Happy said that there was a green light protecting him, Tony immediately remembered the magical item with protective power from Lin Rui. Lin Rui once said that all of his things came from a very magical place, which Tony has never believed.

Especially after Tony knew that Lin Rui was Mirage Knight, he became even more curious about these magical things that Lin Rui seems to have. At least, Tony thinks that these things are not from the earth. For a long time, Tony believed that Lin Rui should have acquired a technological heritage far beyond the earth's civilization by accident.

"Yes, the green light. I thought it was some High-Tech Protective Device that you secretly put on me, but I couldn't find it." Seeing Tony's expression, Happy already realized that Tony knew something.

"Well, I do know what the Green Light was, but I didn't give it to you. Did Jackson give you a gift before, saying it was a Guardian Talisman or something." Tony smiled when he heard Happy's words.

"Huh?! Do you mean...Was the Guardian Talisman that Jackson gave me really that useful?" Happy is not a fool and he realized something after Tony spoke about it. Of course, he knows that the Green Light had protected himself. He just couldn't believe that it was the work of the Guardian Talisman that Jackson gave him.

"Shh~~You only need to know about this, Jackson doesn't want others to know." Seeing Happy's shocked expression, Tony reminded him with a smile.

"Yeah! I figure! That kind of Guardian Talisman must be very precious! I haven't treated him better and he still gave me such a precious gift." Hearing Tony's words, Happy assured him with a clear look on his face.

"Well, you'll be fine this time. Take a good rest and don't even think about anything else, I will take care of the rest." Since Happy is fine and Tony has some important things to do, he doesn't plan to stay here anymore.

"Mr. Stark, what are you going to do?" Happy asked seriously when he saw Tony's sudden serious expression.

"What am I going to do? Of course, someone would be paying for what they did!"

Just when Tony went to see Happy in the hospital, Lin Rui and Peter had already arrived at the site of the bombing. Because Rhodes greeted them, and Lin Rui and Peter never got out of the Iron Man Armor, they simply went inside the explosion site without anyone stopping them.

After all, Lin Rui and Peter are still too young, and they don't want others to pay too much attention to them. Moreover, they can't do open investigations in their Mirage Knight and Spiderman persona.

Hum~

"The scene is being scanned for Virtual Crime Scene Reconstruction." Standing in the center of the ruins of the explosion square, JARVIS's voice came from Lin Rui's Iron Man Armor. At the same time, Peter also stood in another position and cooperated with JARVIS to establish the perfect scene of the explosion.

Huhu~

Soon, JARVIS has completed the scan, and Lin Rui and Peter have restored the scene at the time of the explosion. Although this restoration may not be 100% correct, it will not be too different to speculate based on the preserved ruins.

“A total of seven people were killed in this explosion because the temperature of the explosion was as high as 3,000 Degrees, most of them were vaporized instantly.” Lin Rui did not ask yet JARVIS has already started the analysis.

“The location of the dead at that time should be in these places, so the most likely location of the explosive is here.” After analyzing the most central location of the explosion, JARVIS quickly found the center of the explosion.

However, like so many previous explosion attacks, even in the most central position of the explosion, there were no bomb parts.

“At that time, Happy was found here, and the direction he was facing was this side. At that time, Happy hadn’t fainted. So, did he see anything?” Standing on the ruins, listening to JARVIS’s analysis, Lin Rui felt that something about this feels familiar but he couldn’t remember it.

Dī Dī~

Just when Lin Rui was looking for clues based on JARVIS’s analysis, a communication request came from the helmet. Before Lin Rui could agree, JARVIS had connected the call.

“Jackson, Happy is okay. Thank you for the Guardian Talisman you gave him earlier.” After the communication was connected, Tony’s face appeared in front of Lin Rui. His first sentence was to tell Lin Rui that Happy was okay and thank.

“Oh, thank god he is fine but he was also lucky. The Guardian Talisman I gave to Happy couldn’t have completely blocked such a powerful explosion. By the way, since Happy is okay, did he say anything?” Lin Rui heard Tony’s words. First, he was stunned, and then he asked.

“Did he? Of course, he did!”

Chapter 475 Decision

Lin Rui’s expression became more serious when Tony said that he had found something. Although this kind of Terrorist Attack should have been resolved by the National Military, this kind of injury to innocent civilians has already touched Lin Rui’s bottom line. He doesn’t mind taking this Mandarin out.

“According to Happy, the explosion seems to be related to Killian Aldrich, a somewhat talented Botany Scientist. As for what Mandarin has to do with him, further investigation is needed. This time, we are likely to be dealing with some Special Powered Individual. Because Happy said that the explosion was caused by a person’s self-destruct.” Tony said solemnly.

Hum~

After listening to Tony’s words, the memories in Lin Rui’s mind that had been moving around but couldn’t break through finally came out. Lin Rui finally knew what this sense of familiarity was. He also remembered who this Mandarin is, the series of bombing attacks, and the Aldrich Killian he just mentioned.

“It turns out that this is actually the plot of Iron Man III? It seems that the timeline is indeed messed up, otherwise, the plot of Iron Man III shouldn’t have come up so soon.” Lin Rui, who had already thought of these things, was shocked. He thought silently in his heart and now he did know these things that had happened recently.

In the Marvel Movie World where Lin Rui was originally located, the story of Iron Man III only began after the New York War. However, because Lin Rui has already intervened in so many original plots, the arrangement of the power of the world no longer has any stable timeline.

Therefore, Lin Rui will not be able to think about things according to the original time of the plot. Just like this time, if Lin Rui could have thought of the plot of Iron Man III, maybe he would have known about these attacks from the beginning.

Speaking of which, Aldrich Killian is the Big Villain of Iron Man III Movie, in fact, Tony is a small reason as to why Aldrich became like this. More than ten years ago, the Genius Scientist Aldrich Killian once sought Tony’s cooperation with his own research.

However, Tony, who was in his Playboy phase at the time, didn’t put him in his eyes, and also played him because of Killian’s eager request.

Therefore, Killian hated Tony for so many years and he came back to eliminate Tony after his experiment finally succeeded. As for the terrorist organization led by Mandarin, according to the original plot, it was only played by a person with good acting skills that Killian found.

Killian just needed someone that the World could focus upon. Killian, who has studied Extremis has the ambition to dominate the world, and his first attack was on the United States, which has the strongest strength. As for the Superhero Iron Man, he was now completely inferior in Killian’s eyes as he had the Super Soldiers he created through Extremis.

“Jackson, do you know something?” Although Lin Rui didn’t speak, Tony still saw the change in his expression, so he asked quickly.

“I do know something, and the military really won’t be able to deal with this matter. We’d better inform Captain Rogers. With our current strength after joining hands with SHIELD, this Killian guy won’t amount to much.” Hearing Tony’s Voice, Lin Rui nodded and suggested.

In the story of Iron Man III, the Extremis soldiers in Killian’s hands were fierce and strong men who could single-handedly challenge the latest Iron Man Armor. Moreover, even if they can’t fight, they have one last resort: Self-Destruct.

Judging from the situation of these explosion attacks, the power of this explosion is enough to cause enough damage to the surroundings.

Therefore, Lin Rui felt that the safest way was to let SHIELD take over and dispatch their most Elite Troops to destroy Killian. Of course, Lin Rui will also tell them everything he knows so that Captain Rogers has a reason to act.

“Notify Rogers to let SHIELD take action? No, No, No! We are going to take care of this by ourselves! If Killian is really behind these Explosions, then he is my problem. So, I don’t want other people to intervene in this matter. Isn’t that Mandarin threatening that America can’t be saved by anyone? Then I’ll save America! I am going to declare War on that Bastard!” Tony shook his head when he heard Lin Rui’s advice and then he proceeded to tell Lin Rui about his plans.

“Mr. Stark, this is completely unnecessary. With Captain Rogers and SHIELD’s help, this matter will be solved a lot quicker and easier. Otherwise, your life may be in danger.” Seeing Tony’s current attitude, Lin Rui quickly persuaded.

If there is a better solution then why does Tony have to ask for trouble? Even if Killian became like this because of Tony but he didn’t need to face him alone. In the original plot, Tony finally defeated Killian and his Extremis team after going through a lot and he barely survived in the entire movie.

“You don’t have to say anything, I will solve this matter. If you want to help me, tell me what you know. Stop telling SHIELD. If the Iron Man can’t even protect his friends from one Terrorist, then what good am I?

Therefore, whether it is Killian and my old grievance or the terrorist attack by Mandarin, I will take care of it!” Lin Rui’s persuasion didn’t make any difference as Tony spoke seriously.

“Well, I won’t notify Captain Rogers. However, I will stay by your side during this time to ensure your safety.” Hearing Tony’s words, Lin Rui knew that no matter how hard he persuaded Tony. It would be useless, so he had to agree.

In fact, because of Lin Rui’s appearance, Tony’s arrogance seems to be a little weaker than it was in the original plot, but he is still a very arrogant person in his heart. Iron Man once said that he would protect the United States and now is the time for him to fulfill his promise. Moreover, Happy was injured and Tony had to vent some of his anger.

“Well, the reporters outside have been waiting for a long time, I’m going out.” After talking to Lin Rui about his plan, Tony was about to hang up the communication.

“Are you planning to go out to attract even more hatred?” Lin Rui had Black Lines on his face as he realized what Tony was about to do.

“Quite smart, kid, just wait and see my performance.”

Card!

After that last sentence, Tony had disconnected the communication. As for Lin Rui, although helpless, there is nothing he could do. However, according to Lin Rui’s idea, even if Tony wants to deal with Killian alone, but with his own help, plus the Iron Man Armor that has been upgraded so many times, it may not be so difficult to deal with Killian.

Moreover, Lin Rui thinks that Tony’s approach is also beneficial. At least, Killian’s Extremis Serum can quickly recover almost any injury, which is a more magical Recovery Serum than the Gene Therapy Serum produced by Oscorp.

Therefore, this time Tony intends to deal with Killian alone and Lin Rui also intend to get this powerful Extremis Serum and its formula into his hand while helping him. Although Extremis still has a lot of side effects, it seems to have been successfully improved in the end, so this serum can also be used to strengthen himself.

"I hope everything goes well." Lin Rui, who has finished the on-site investigation, looked at the live broadcast shown by JARVIS that Tony will conduct, and thought in his heart.

Chapter 476 Declares

When Tony came out of the hospital, the reporters who had already been waiting outside swarmed towards him. Since Tony became Iron Man, the news after him has revolved around Iron Man.

Since the kidnapping incident, Tony's life has changed a lot. Although he has become a Superhero, his current relationship is much more stable and it is not so easy for the reporters to dig some big news from Tony's latest scandal, after all, Iron Man is the hot spot now.

"Mr. Stark, our sources are telling us that this is another Mandarin attack. Do you have anything to say about it?"

"Mr. Stark! Do you have anything to say about this Mandarin bombing attack?"

"Isn't it Iron Man's responsibility to guard the Nation? Are you going to do something?"

"Mr. Stark!"

"Iron Man!"

Tony walked out of the hospital alone, with no bodyguards with him. Therefore, the reporters' microphones have been poked in front of Tony, and questions have been asked.

Of course, Tony, who was already prepared, was not frightened by the situation before him. It was not the first time that he had encountered such crazy reporters. Tony Stark, as the Iron Man, is arguably the most famous person in the world today, and he can't be scared by such things.

"Mr. Stark, when is someone going to kill this guy?" Just as Tony was "Besieged" by a group of reporters, someone suddenly squeezed in and asked loudly while holding his mobile phone.

Compared with the questions raised by other reporters, this man's question is obviously more acute. However, Tony needs such a sharp question at this time, otherwise, how can he say what he wants to say? So Tony, who had been walking forward, stopped, then turned to face the man who had asked this question.

"Can you tell me?" Seeing Tony turned his head, the Man held his phone closer and continued to ask.

"Is that what you want?" Tony asked calmly when facing dozens of cameras in front of him and the countless spectators behind the camera.

When Tony spoke, all the reporters held their breath and adjusted their lens angles to the best. Every time Tony Stark's expression is like this, he will say something great and they don't want to miss it.

“Here’s a little holiday greeting I’ve been wanting to send to the Mandarin. I just didn’t know how to phrase it until now. My name is Tony Stark, and I am not afraid of you. I know that you are a coward, so I’ve decided that you just died.” While talking, Tony took his glasses off.

At this moment, Tony’s momentum as an Iron Man unreservedly showed up to the camera. He, Tony Stark, would not be afraid of any Terrorist Forces, he would destroy them by himself.

“I am gonna come get the body. There is no politics here, it’s just good old-fashioned revenge. It’s just you and me. And on the off-chance that you are a Man, here’s my home address...” After announcing aggressively that he would kill Mandarin by himself, Tony still seriously reported his home address. Since he wants to attract hatred, let it be more thorough.

Call!

After talking about such a declaration of war, Tony snatched the phone of the Guy in front of him and smashed it directly towards the wall behind him.

Bang!

The phone that was smashed on the wall instantly shattered into several pieces. Although Tony declared war because of the sharp question from this Man, this does not mean that Tony will endure his rude behavior just now.

“Bill Me!” After smashing the phone, Tony glanced at the Man and walked towards his Iron Man Armor parked in front of him.

Kakaka!

After the moment of arming, Tony directly rose into the sky, not caring about the reporters who were chasing after him.

After Tony declared war on Mandarin in such a high profile manner, the entire United States was detonated by the news. The self-proclaimed Guardian of the United States, Iron Man is finally about to attack Mandarin!

After Tony’s high-profile declaration of war, people throughout the United States are expecting Iron Man to destroy Mandarin. Although the Military was helpless by Tony’s unconventional actions, they could do nothing. If Tony can really take care of the Mandarin, they would be very happy.

In Tony’s seaside villa, Lin Rui and Peter have returned again. Because Tony is not willing to let SHIELD help, Lin Rui will not leave Tony, for now, he wants to ensure Tony’s safety. Lin Rui remembered that in the original plot, Tony was attacked not long after he declared war on Mandarin.

“Jackson, will it really be okay? If the person behind Mandarin is really as strong as you just said, maybe we should seek help from Captain Rogers.” Sitting on the sofa in the living room, Peter looked at Lin Rui with some worry on his face and asked.

Having returned after Tony's high-profile declaration of war, Lin Rui also told Tony what he knew about Killian's purpose and Extremis. However, although Lin Rui has reminded Tony that Extremis is very powerful, Tony still plans to take care of this problem by himself.

Therefore, Lin Rui had no good way and he could only follow Tony. After all, he thought that with Tony's preparation, even if the Extremes Fighters made by Killian were very strong, it would be impossible for them to cause any harm to Tony.

"I have tried to persuade him, but he still wants to deal with Killian alone. Perhaps he thinks that this is his own responsibility. Moreover, now that the highest level of defense has been activated here, Killian will not get in even if he attacks here. So calm down." Lin Rui said helplessly when he saw Peter looking worried.

In the original plot, Tony was experimenting with the newest Iron Man Armor before Killian's men attacked. Because the Iron Man Armor was still in the testing stage, many of its functions were incomplete, so it was labeled like that. Otherwise, for a few helicopters, Tony only needed to send a few Iron Mans to completely obliterate them.

"Okay. But are you sure Killian will come to attack Mr. Stark? If there is an attack, do we have to do something? And Pepper is still here." Since that Tony is determined not to seek SHIELD's help, Peter decided to stay and help him out.

However, if he did, Pepper would be able to tell who Spiderman was at a glance. After all, at this time, there are only two outsiders in the house, he and Lin Rui.

"Well, it depends on the situation. And, to be on the safe side, Pepper is persuading Tony to leave here. Tony will definitely not leave, but Pepper will at least be less frightened if they do leave." Lin Rui would not be surprised by Killian's attack as it is a guarantee.

After all, the plot has changed too much, but they certainly can't let Pepper be involved in such an incident.

"Well, then I'll call home and tell Aunt May that I won't be coming home today because I have some Projects to do." After knowing Lin Rui's plan, Peter also felt that he should stay and guard Tony.

"By the way, Jackson, did you also use this reason to skip class and go out?" Just after the call, Peter suddenly looked at Lin Rui and asked.

"Haha....."

Chapter 577 Maya Hansen

Professor Charles and Captain Rogers knew about Tony's high-profile declaration of war as they were in alliance with Tony, but since Tony did not seek their help, they did not intend to take the initiative.

After all, this matter is still just a terrorist attack. If Iron Man, SHIELD, and X-Men are required to take action together against a mere Terrorist then what would they do when facing even more powerful opponents in the future?

Pepper has been persuading Tony to leave the beach house because she is very worried about Tony's safety. No one has threatened the leader of an Unscrupulous Terrorist Organization in front of the media before.

And Tony also generously reported his home address on Live TV, if Mandarin really wanted to retaliate then Pepper didn't know what would happen.

But with Tony's stubbornness, how could he leave. Moreover, he originally wanted to attract Mandarin Attention, how can he attract his attention after leaving from here? So, in the end, Tony sent Pepper away alone. A team of Iron Man was sent to protect Pepper. If Killian dared to show up next to Pepper, Tony would not be merciful.

In this way, Tony, Lin Rui, and Peter stayed in the villa for a quiet night. Nothing happened this night and Tony had expected it. After all, he has prepared a series of Iron Man Armors for the possible attack.

Tony promised that if Killian really had the guts to attack him, then he would see how powerful the Iron Man Army was. What Extremis, Tony was able to ignore Killian at the beginning, and he still can.

After a peaceful night, Lin Rui went to the kitchen to make himself breakfast. He can cook because his family had a restaurant, otherwise Tony would not have let him and Peter appear as guest Chef and Waiter last night.

Compared to Tony's disappointment, Lin Rui felt that Killian's attack would come sooner or later. If it did not come last night, then him attacking today is also very possible.

Ding Dong~~

Just as Lin Rui walked out of the kitchen with a simple breakfast that he made, a warning sound came from the door of the villa. In such a tense time, Tony had already set the villa on high alert. And knowing that Tony had declared war on Mandarin, who would come to Tony. However, Lin Rui seems to know who it is.

"JARVIS, Aren't we supposed to be in a total Security Lockdown? Who is that?" Tony, who was a little annoyed because he had waited for nothing all night, heard the prompt and asked JARVIS helplessly.

"There's only so much I can do, sir, when you give the World your Home Address. As for the guest outside, it's Maya Hansen." JARVIS replied lightly in the face of Tony's question.

"Maya Hansen? Why does that name sound familiar?" Tony's eyes flashed when he heard JARVIS's answer.

Then, JARVIS called out the surveillance video at the door for Tony to watch. At the same time, JARVIS also searched out some information about Maya Hansen on the Internet. When Tony saw the person at the door and read the information provided by JARVIS, he finally remembered who the Woman at the door was.

"What is she doing here?" After remembering who Maya Hansen was, Tony was still a little surprised. Tony met this Botanist on the day he played a joke on Killian, so seeing her at this time reminded Tony of her.

Lin Rui and Tony talked about Killian's situation, mentioned some characteristics of Extremis, and Lin Rui had said that Killian planned to control the President, but they didn't talk about this woman. After all, Lin Rui will not remember all the small characters and he will only remember some of them when he meet them.

"Open the door, I want to know what's she doing here and why did she decided to come here at this time." After thinking about it, Tony told JARVIS.

"Yes, sir." JARVIS opened the door.

Card~

Just when Tony asked JARVIS to open the door, Lin Rui had already reached the door. So, when Maya Hansen walked into the villa, she saw a very young handsome guy curiously looking at her with a plate in his hand. This situation stunned Maya for a little. Does Tony Stark really have an illegitimate child? This was the first time Maya Hansen thought of it.

"You are?" Lin Rui asked politely, looking at the beauty in front of him with fried eggs and bread in his hand. Although he has guessed who this beauty is, Lin Rui will not show it.

"Um... I'm Maya Hansen, a Botany Scientist, I came to meet Tony Stark, and he said he lives here." Hearing Lin Rui's words, Maya froze and reacted quickly.

"Oh, Mr. Stark does live here." Lin Rui nodded before he turned around and walked towards the back hall. According to the plot, Killian's attack came not long after Maya came, and now he is going to make some preparations.

Seeing the young man in front of her turning around and preparing to leave, Maya didn't know what to say. However, while Lin Rui turned and went inside, Tony had already come out. After seeing Tony, Maya didn't pay attention to Lin Rui.

"Maya Hansen, what are you doing here at this time?" Tony walked in front of Maya, and looked at her, and asked seriously.

"Ok, look, I need to be alone with you, someplace not here... It's urgent." Looking at Tony in front of her, Maya said with a nervous expression on her face.

"Normally, I wouldn't refuse that sort of thing, but I am in a committed relationship now..." Hearing Maya's words, Tony said indifferently, and turned to follow Lin Rui and walked towards the living room.

He just saw Breakfast in Lin Rui's hands. However, halfway through the conversation, Tony suddenly thought of something and quickly turned to look at Maya.

"Please don't tell me that there is a 12-year-old kid waiting in the car that I have never met." Staring at Maya's face, Tony asked nervously. There was a one-night stand between Tony and Maya, and he used no protection.

Maya came to find him at this time and said that she has an important thing to say to him so Tony could only reach that conclusion.

“He’s thirteen years old!... And, No, I really have something important to tell you!” Looking at Tony’s nervous look, Maya agreed with him, but then said more seriously.

“I have more important things to do now. I think you’d better get out of here. I don’t think you want to get involved in any dangerous things.” After knowing that there are no children outside, Tony’s tone relaxed. A child is a more terrifying existence than those terrorist organizations for Tony at this time.

After speaking, Tony turned around and walked back. But Maya wouldn’t retreat so she could only follow behind.

Call!

Just as Maya followed Tony and walked towards the dining room table in the living room, an Iron Man Armor suddenly rushed over and immediately armed Tony in. This made Maya and Tony both stunned because Tony didn’t order JARVIS to arm himself.

“Sir, I have detected multiple helicopters approaching our location.” Before Tony could ask, JARVIS’s voice came over in due course.

Chapter 478 The Attack Arrives

Dī Dī Dī!

After JARVIS armed Tony, an alarm sounded throughout the villa. Peter, who was still resting in the basement, was also awakened and rushed out. However, when Peter ran halfway, Lin Rui stopped him.

“Jackson, did Mandarin’s attack come?” Peter asked nervously when he saw Lin Rui who was blocking him.

“Well, there are many people who really want to attack Mr. Stark. However, we can look at the situation first. If there is an accident, it will not be too late for us to make our move. Without enough preparation, it would not be easy to make Mr. Stark suffer.” Lin Rui said calmly after seeing Peter eager to go.

In the original plot, the attacker had already entered the attack distance and JARVIS did not find them, so the enemies were able to blow up the entire villa. Otherwise, with the intact Iron Mans in Tony’s basement, it would have been impossible for the Enemy to blow him with just a few helicopters.

And now that JARVIS had spotted the intruder in advance, it would be impossible for them to take Tony by surprise.

“Let’s go, let’s find a place to see how Mr. Stark is going to deal with them.” After talking to Peter, Lin Rui had already run out.

“Wait for me!” Peter shouted loudly while running behind Lin Rui.

In fact, it was not just Tony who discovered that an attacker had arrived. Now the entire United States knew that Mandarin was attacking Tony. Because those attackers are still broadcasting their attacks on the TV. This time they attacked Tony’s villa and they also invaded the American Media System for the global live broadcast.

For terrorists, if they can kill Iron Man Tony Stark who had threatened to kill Mandarin in the global live broadcast, then the entire United States will be plunged into an unprecedented panic. This is the biggest purpose of their action.

“Helicopters? How many?” Tony, who was armed, asked seriously after hearing the report from JARVIS.

Sure enough, his plan to pull their attention towards him was very successful, and someone really couldn’t help but attack him. However, if it was just a few helicopters then Tony would really not take them seriously.

“A total of Eight Armed Helicopters will enter the attack range in three seconds. Please evade in time. The defense level of this building is not enough to hold in front of that level of Firepower.” After answering Tony’s words, JARVIS gave his own suggestion.

“Eight Helicopters? Look like I am quite important to them! JARVIS, dispatching four Iron Mans, one on two should be more than enough for them. As for me, there is no need for me to go anywhere.” Ignoring JARVIS’s suggestion, Tony gave the order. With Iron Man’s capabilities, Eight Helicopters are really nothing and Tony didn’t think this was a real threat to him.

“Yes, sir, The Mark Fourth Series has been activated.” Soon, JARVIS had already replied to Tony.

Swipe!

After JARVIS finished answering, four new Iron Mans quickly rushed out of the underground garage of Tony’s Seaside Villa and they faced the Eight Helicopters that were less than a kilometer away.

By the time four Iron Mans had rushed out, just three seconds had passed. The Eight Helicopters were already very close to Tony’s villa and they open fired. In an instant, a few individual missiles were launched from mid-air towards Tony’s villa.

Huhuhu!

“Calculating their flight trajectory to destroy them!” Faced with the rapidly attacking missiles, JARVIS instantly calculated their flight trajectories and then counterattacked.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The four Iron Mans that were flying opposite to the Helicopters fired their weapons and those missiles were blown out of the sky. The huge shock wave generated by the explosion was transmitted to the villa behind the Iron Man and the whole villa began to shake slightly. However, Tony obviously didn’t take such an attack seriously.

“Maya, you’d better find a place to hide first. Although I don’t think these people can hurt you with me here but I obviously have more important things to do right now.” The fight outside has already begun, and Tony doesn’t want to stand by. So, he looked at Maya who was still standing in front of him, and said calmly.

“You...” Maya heard Tony’s words and seemed to have something to say while watching the live broadcast of the fighting outside on the nearby TV.

Brush!

However, Maya couldn't even speak two words before Tony activated his own Iron Man Armor and rushed outside. He had already said that he would be the one who would kill the Mandarin and now he is going out to collect some interest first. Tony has never and he will never forgive those who attack him or someone close to him.

Seeing Tony rushing out, the expression on Maya's face changed and she finally looked for a safe place to hide and watch the fight.

As for Lin Rui and Peter, they have already found a good place to watch the battle outside. From their current position, they can clearly see the battle outside, and they can also move in time when an accident occurs.

Although Spiderman is not good in aerial combat on the sea, it has little effect on Lin Rui. After all, Lin Rui, who has already practiced Advanced Light Skills, has now had the ability to fly in the air for a long time.

"Jackson, Killian only sent these people to attack Mr. Stark, why did he do that?" Peter asked Lin Rui, who was sitting beside him as he watched the battle outside.

In Peter's opinion, the combat effectiveness of the four Iron Mans completely surpassed the Eight Helicopters. Unless those people can destroy Tony's villa first before JARVIS could find them, leaving the Iron Man Armors buried and unable to be dispatched, otherwise, these Armed Helicopters are really not enough for the current fight.

"They might have a way to restrain Mr. Stark's Iron Man Armors but that is highly unlikely. They can't hold on for even a few minutes in the current situation. However, I don't think that the situation will resolve that simply." Lin Rui's brow wrinkled when he heard Peter's words and he replied.

The current situation is exactly what Lin Rui had envisioned. After all, he had reminded Tony that it would be weird if those people were able to attack successfully. However, Lin Rui does not believe that the plot will continue to develop like this, something unexpected will happen.

"Huh? That's Mr. Stark! He is going out himself!" Just when Lin Rui was thinking about where the problem might arise, Peter pointed to a newly flying Iron Man outside and reminded him.

Under Peter's reminder, Lin Rui also saw Tony who had just rushed out. It seemed that he was ready to kill the team by himself to complete his previous words. Lin Rui was not surprised at all. Anyway, Tony was wearing the latest Iron Man Armor and his defense is very strong. Unless Tony stood still and let them attack him, nothing would happen to him.

Boom!

However, just when Lin Rui and Peter both believed that the overall situation was going in a certain direction, an Iron Man in mid-air was suddenly hit by two missiles in flight, and it was blown up directly in the air and fell into the sea below.

"That's... What happened?"

Chapter 479 Appearance

Just when Lin Rui and Peter, who were watching the fight thought that Killian's men would be defeated by Tony's Iron Man, the Iron Man, who had the upper hand, was suddenly blown out one after another, which was very abnormal.

After the two Iron Mans were suddenly shot down, the flight pattern of the remaining three Iron Mans that were still in the air changed.

The Iron Man, which should have been very flexible, looked like it was unable to control the flight power system at this time as it was constantly adjusting its flight attitude in mid-air, including the Iron Man Armor that Tony had worn.

"What the hell happened?! Did Iron Man suddenly malfunctioned?!" Seeing this scene before him, Peter shouted with a worried look on his face. However, even though Peter shouted that, he really didn't think that the Iron Man Armor was really broken.

This was something that shouldn't have happened. Although Tony had dispatched his latest Iron Man Armors, they had already gone through strict inspections and it was impossible for them to malfunction. Moreover, this is a collective failure, which obviously means that someone or something had done it.

Boom!

Just when Peter was worried, one of the three Iron Mans that had problems with the power system outside was blown up. And the Iron Man armed with Tony flew back towards the villa, trying to avoid the enemy's attack.

It seems that Tony had also found some problems. However, with the current situation of the Iron Man Armor, Tony knew that he would be blown up before returning to the villa.

"Sure enough, there was an accident!...JARVIS! What happened?" Lin Rui also saw the dangerous situation Tony found himself in and he called out JARVIS.

"Someone is hacking into my Central System and they have successfully tampered with some of the Iron Man data. Now all the Iron Man Armors are in a very unstable state. So, please help Mr. Stark." JARVIS quickly answered Lin Rui and asked him and Peter for help.

"Your central system was hacked? Where the hell did they get someone who could hack into you?!" Lin Rui was very surprised when he heard JARVIS's answer.

JARVIS is already regarded as the top Artificial Intelligence system in the Marvel World, and it is still developing in the direction of real Artificial Intelligence. Even with all that, someone had managed to hack into its Internal structure which shows that Killian's power and influence is far more than Lin Rui had estimated.

"Jackson, Mr. Stark is already in danger! It's time for us to take action!" Hearing JARVIS's words, Peter was almost unable to restrain himself.

Outside, in order to cover Tony's retreat, the remaining Iron Man was also blown up. Each Iron Man Armor is a collection of several top technologies in the world, and each one is extremely expensive. Four of them were scrapped in just a few moments, which in turn is a huge waste of dollars!

“We will be taking action. This is our role here. However, I can go alone. You can’t fly in the air yet, so just protect the villa.” Lin Rui also saw Tony’s situation and spoke to Peter.

Last time, Peter had asked Lin Rui to teach him some of his Martial Arts, during this time, Peter has also achieved some success in his practice.

However, it seems that it is due to Peter’s physique, his Internal Energy Cultivation is much slower than Lin Rui and Daredevil. So, even if Lin Rui taught Peter the Beginner’s Skills, he still couldn’t use the internal energy to fly for a short time.

“Yeah! Go! I don’t think Mr. Stark can hold on anymore!” Knowing that he would not be as effective as Lin Rui in this situation, Peter nodded and said quickly.

Call!

The moment Peter finished speaking, Lin Rui’s figure had already disappeared in front of him. When Peter looked outside, he saw a black figure rushing towards the crooked Iron Man flying in the air. Obviously, that is Lin Rui who has put on the Phantom Suit.

When Lin Rui and Peter found that the situation outside was not right and got news from JARVIS that its system was invaded, and then Lin Rui rushed out, another person hiding in the villa, Maya Hansen, also saw the situation outside through live TV.

The situation where Iron Man Armors were blown up. In order to let people all over the world see the power of Mandarin, this attack on Iron Man Tony Stark was broadcasted live worldwide. Therefore, when Lin Rui rushed out of the villa wearing a Phantom Suit, it was also the first time that Mirage Knight was exposed under the global gaze.

While the whole world was watching Iron Man Tony Stark being beaten through live broadcast, his own condition was really not good.

Dī Dī Dī! ~

“The other party’s invasion is quite powerful. The Iron Man’s control system has lost 13% efficiency and the power system will be lost in two seconds.” The siren in the Iron Man Armor armed by Tony never stopped. JARVIS was still calm at this time as he reported the situation of the enemy’s invasion and the situation of this Iron Man Armor.

“JARVIS, I don’t want to hear this right now, turn off the alarm!” Tony, who was trying to adjust the various data of the Iron Man Armor, yelled irritably as he didn’t want to be defeated by the opponent so simply.

Call!

However, just after Tony yelled, the entire Iron Man suddenly lost all its power and fell straight into the ocean below. JARVIS said two seconds and those two seconds are, and there is no more power in the Iron Man Armor.

“Damn it!” Tony cursed while trapped in the Iron Man Armor and the expressions on his face weren’t looking very good.

Although Tony can hold on for a long time even if he falls into the sea with Iron Man’s functions. However, the enemy would not let Tony fall into the sea so easily. After Iron Man completely lost power, two more missiles rushed towards Tony.

This time, Iron Man has no ability to evade this oncoming attack. However, Tony in the Iron Man Armor didn’t look too worried. Because he saw a black figure appearing from his villa.

Huhu!

In the tense eyes of the global audience, two missiles were about to destroy the Iron Man that had lost all of its power. Although the audience didn’t know whether Tony Stark was in this Iron Man, they were still very shocked when they saw the original Iron Man being destroyed.

It can be said that Mandarin or Killian’s actions have already received the effect they wanted. Of course, it was on the premise if there are no surprises later.

“Tony! Damn it!” Tony’s friend Rhodes was also watching the live broadcast, he stared at the Iron Man on the screen and cursed nervously. Others may not know if Tony is in the Armor but based on Rhodes’s knowledge of Tony, there is a 90% chance that he is in that Iron Man Armor.

“Huh!? Who is...” However, just when Rhodes thought that Tony would be hit by those two missiles in the next second, he suddenly saw a new figure appearing on the screen.

Chapter 480 Rescue

“Ah! Iron Man!”

“What happened?! Why are those Iron Man out of control?!”

“Mr. Stark shouldn’t be there, right?!”

Seeing Iron Man’s Uncontrollable actions on the live broadcast, everyone who was watching the live broadcast felt fear for that Iron Man. Of course, what they care more about is that once the Iron Man is defeated, then who else would stand up to protect them.

In addition to people watching the live broadcast, Rhodes, Pepper, and Happy were staying in a very safe place arranged by Tony. However, when Pepper and Happy saw Tony’s situation, they also got very worried.

“Tony! You must do something, get out of there!” Pepper prayed silently in her heart as she watched the Iron Man falling straight down on the screen in front of her.

Huhu!

Just when everyone watching the live broadcast almost thought that the Iron Man would be swallowed by the missile, a black figure suddenly broke into the audience’s sight.

Because the speed of the black figure was too fast, the audience could only see a black shadow skimming past the Iron Man Armor who was falling and directly pounced on the two missiles behind it.

“What is that?! Is that some kind of Defence System?” After seeing the dark figure that suddenly rushed towards the missile, some spectators were already speculating.

Needless to say, the black figure who suddenly appeared in the live footage and quickly leaped towards the missile was Lin Rui. For the current Lin Rui, this level of firepower no longer poses much threat to him.

Therefore, instead of saving Tony first, he was prepared to take care of the two missiles first. Anyway, even if Tony falls into the sea, he would be fine for some time.

“Is that an Extremis Fighter? The energy level in his body is quite high.” As he rushed towards the missiles, Lin Rui’s eyes had already swept to the person in the helicopter.

His Insight Technique discovered these people who had attacked and he also found out that the energy level in their bodies was quite powerful. However, Lin Rui was only curious, and would not care too much about these people.

“Then, let the world see what real power is!” Lin Rui, who also knew the helicopter above his head was broadcasting his actions live, looked at the missile that was in front of him, and spoke in a low voice.

Brush!

In the next moment, Lin Rui had already pulled out the Beheading Spirit Sword from his waist in a flash. When the Beheading Spirit Sword was unsheathed, a cold Sword Aura rushed out from it. Compared to the speed of the Missile, Lin Rui’s attack was faster, and the Cyan Colored Sword Aura created a huge waning moon in the air.

Rub!

In the blink of an eye, the Cyan Colored Waning Moon had rushed towards the two Missiles and then passed the two Helicopter behind them without stopping. As for the two Missiles, the Cyan Sword Energy just cut them in half from the middle. At this time, they turned into four pieces of scrap iron and followed Tony and fell towards the sea below.

Call!

After Lin Rui cleared out the missiles, Lin Rui did not look at the fate of the two Helicopters behind him. He turned around and chased after Tony. If Lin Rui did not move right now then Tony will really fall into the ocean.

“Sir, the threat is resolved.” Just after Lin Rui swung his sword to clear out the two Missiles, Tony, who was falling, heard JARVIS’s reminder.

Call!

Before Tony could ask anything, he felt that the speed of Iron Man, which was falling fast, had suddenly slowed down, and then stopped on the surface of the sea. This time, he finally felt relieved.

“Tony, I think you should consider reducing the weight of the Iron Man Armor.” When Tony looked out, Lin Rui’s Masked face appeared in front of him, and then he heard Lin Rui’s ‘voice’. In order to prevent the live broadcast from recording his own voice, Lin Rui slightly changed his voice.

Boom! Rumble!

When Lin Rui’s voice came in, two consecutive explosions also came from behind him. The sword energy that had passed the Missiles before had rushed out several tens of meters away and still cut the two Helicopters that could not dodge in half. Then, they exploded directly on the sea.

“Of course I will consider this, but I don’t think this is the right time or place to discuss the upgrade of Iron Man Armor with me.” Hearing Lin Rui’s relaxed tone and the sound of the explosions behind him, Tony said angrily.

“Yes, Mr. Stark, what orders do you have for me?” Lin Rui worked hard to carry Tony in mid-air and then asked calmly.

Now that the situation has been broadcasting live, and League of Defender has formed an alliance with SHIELD, Iron Man and X-Men. Then, Lin Rui needs to let the world Re-Recognize his own strength. He, Mirage Knight, is no longer the Vigilante who can only fight bad guys and gangs on the streets of New York.

“So... teach these guys a lesson!” Hearing Lin Rui’s casual attitude, Tony glanced at the remaining Armed Helicopters in midair and ordered.

“Yes Sir, Mr. Stark.” Lin Rui took the Iron Man’s arm and raised it sharply. In the next second, Tony was thrown directly in the villa by Lin Rui.

Call!

Crossing a long parabola in mid-air, Tony flew to the highest point and then fell quickly. However, the place where he fell this time was no longer the sea, but his own villa.

Just when Tony was about to hit the wall of the villa, a white spider silk thread shot from the side, directly sticking to the Iron Man Armor. Then, Tony was pulled in by Peter who was hiding in the villa.

Bang!

Supported by Peter, Tony finally landed safely. The out-of-control functions of the Iron Man have already been cut off by JARVIS as they may cause some problems.

It can be said that Tony has just experienced the most helpless moment since becoming Iron Man. At this time, Tony realized it clearly. The Iron Man Armor is not omnipotent, and his strength is the most useful at any critical moment.

Kaka!

“Thank you, Peter.” After coming out of the Iron Man Armor, Tony looked at Peter who was equipped with an Arm Spider Silk launcher and thanked him.

“It’s okay, Mr. Stark, Jackson and I were originally here to deal with this situation. Now, you need to see who hacked into JARVIS first. The people outside will not be able to do anything to Jackson.” Peter said with a smile.

“Of course, I will see who it is? They have the ability to invade the Core System of JARVIS. I haven’t seen such a person in a long time.” Hearing Peter’s words, and looking at Lin Rui outside, Tony’s eyes flashed with a cold light.

Then, Tony took out a tablet and started to connect to JARVIS. Peter was also there to help, but they all divided their attention and looked at Lin Rui who was still outside.
